Murray Gas System To Begin Computer Billing

By DAVID HILL
Ledger & Times Staff Writer

With a maximum ceiling on revenue, Murray Natural Gas Superintendent Tommy Marshall has to find some way of cutting corners on overhead, and the new computerized billing system should do just that.

The new system of billing the 3,000 gas customers in Murray will be implemented with the May bill, which will also include the most recent price hike that is being passed on to the Murray system. The increase, which will not increase profits to either the Murray system or its supplier, will mean that the average residential bill will increase around 60 cents per month.

The implementation of the new computerized billing system, which will cost the city about $340 per month, will mean that the usual time of 20 days to prepare bills each month will be cut to about five days. It will also eliminate daily clerical tasks that have kept the staff of the Natural Gas System occupied previously.

The new system will not eliminate any jobs, however, according to Marshall. He noted that the employees will now be able to devote time to other areas of office work which have often been neglected in order to get the bills out on time.

Before choosing the proposed computer billing system, which will be handled by PSR of Murray, Marshall looked at other gas systems to get ideas, and chose an operation that will be compatible to other systems. This was done to facilitate the combination of the gas, water, and electric bills sometime in the future when and if the three utilities are combined in one building.

PSR will supply materials to be used by the gas system, and employees will read the meters and complete forms supplied for computer use.

PSR will compute the bills and check them to see if they are comparable to the average bill. This will help point out errors in reading the gas meters at homes and businesses, a problem which has plagued the system in the past.

The bills will then be sent back to the gas system for verification and proofing. The computer system will print out the bills, which will be mailed by the gas system employees. (See Gas System, Page 12)

Palestine Church To Celebrate 100th Anniversary On Sunday

The Palestine United Methodist Church will celebrate their 100th anniversary on Sunday, April 14, with a sunrise service at the church at 6:30 a.m.

Rev. John Churchwell, pastor of the church, will give the traditional message on "The Reality of the Resurrection."

Dr. David Ross, minister of the First Christian Church, Murray, will be special guest speaker and his subject will be

"Hanging Heads Or Hot Hearts."

Other features of the program will be congregational hymns, and music by the Palestine Youth Choir and the Church Quartet. Refreshments will be served after the service.

The land on which the church is located was entered in 1835 by G. W. Lee and the deed was made to the church in 1874 by Lucy Lee Ross, W. P. Parrish and P. J. Parrish.

Charter members of the church were G. W. Lee, Lucy Lee, Mae Lee, Jonathan Lee, Sarah McDaniel, John Allen Ross, Sarah Elizabeth Ross, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Jones, Billy Ross, Jim Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. Byrd Parrish, Mrs. Charity Parrish, and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Johnston.

In the southeast corner of the cemetery was a log house used for church and school several years before there was a deed made to the church.

The second house was built in 1902 and Edward J. W. Peters was pastor at that time. William G. Hefley was the presiding elder. H. W. Ross, J. L. Burken, and W. P. Tatum were members of the building committee.

The present house was built in 1946 when H. A. Smith was pastor. R. A. Clark, District Superintendent, Grover Puckett, Hardie Williams, Loyd Jones, Errel Childress, and Stanley Duncan were members of the building committee.

Pastors of the church have been Bro. Brooks, Edward J. W. Peters, Nat Lee, Lud Estes, Bro. Burton, T. L. Perry, Bro. Prince, M. Q. Davis, Aro Robinson, Ray Pafford, J. W. Joyner, A. S. McLeomore, W. S. Lockman, E. B. Rains, W. L. Ensor, J. P. Trout, Paul E. Cates, C. A. Coleman, E. V. Underhill, Edgar Farris, W. W. T. M. Jones, H. A. Smith, C. E. Boswell, Leslie Lee, Max Sykes, Hoyt Owen, Dan Tucker, Bill Baldwin, Bob Dotson, C. E. Garrett, Chester Byrd, John Penny, Thomas Bullock, W. H. Harpole, and the present pastor, John Churchwell.

Members of the historian committee of the church are Tillman Jeffrey, Grover Puckett, and Myrtle McDaniel.

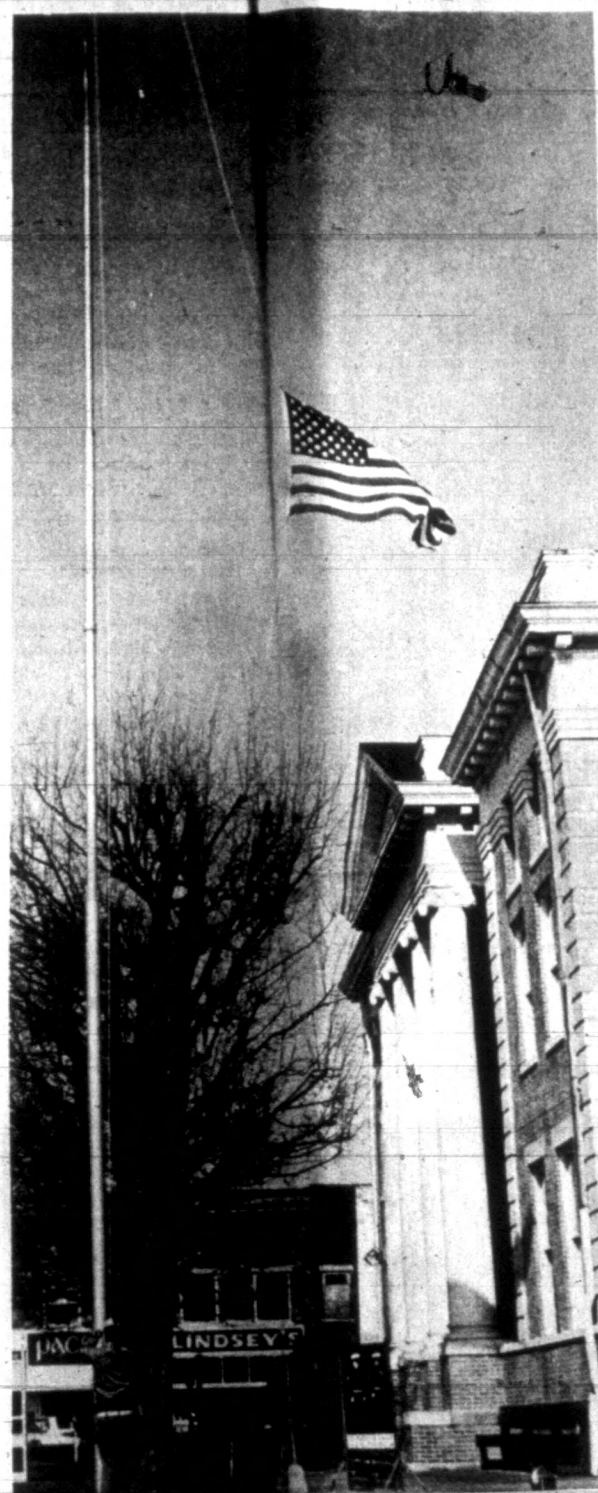

Meredith Says Concern Should Be For Development Of Blacks

Racial equality has become largely a matter of perspective in the eyes of James Meredith, the black man who broke the segregation barrier at the University of Mississippi in 1962.

Visiting Murray State University to speak during Black Awareness Week on the campus, Meredith said he sees the need for recognition and understanding of the root sources of racial injustice as a top priority rather than continued emphasis on the symptoms.

Black people have made great gains in their struggle for dignity, he added, winning the right to eat and live and work essentially as they choose. But he said no one can claim that integration has been the ultimate solution.

"Equality means nothing to a 10-year-old black in jail for stealing," Meredith contended. "Our real concern in today's society should be pointed toward the development of the black individual rather than a further extension of basic privileges."

Meredith, now a candidate for the U.S. Congress from the Fourth District of Mississippi, said the sources of the problem are deep—"so deep that black people would still be in plenty of trouble if all racial prejudice were eliminated."

He talked about the disproportionate number of blacks in prison in the United States.

"About 10 percent of the population of New York State is black," he pointed out, "yet more than 90 percent of the inmates in Attica Prison are black. These statistics alone should indicate the vital need for seeking out the social ills among blacks now so we can begin to understand them and hopefully eliminate them."

The way to reduce the prison population is to show more interest and more concern for these people who are in trouble, according to Meredith. He said an understanding of the problems that put them there can be used to help them and

Keller, Cunningham Still In Contention For Board Of Regents

Two candidates—Dr. Howard Keller and Dr. Mark Cunningham—remain in contention for the faculty seat on the Murray State University board of regents after a four-man runoff election Wednesday failed for the second time to decide the issue.

They will be on the ballot Friday when the faculty votes for the third time to choose a successor to Dr. M.D. Hassell, associate professor of biology, who withdrew his name from the ballot before the first day of voting began Monday.

Keller, associate professor of foreign languages, and Cunningham, associate professor of psychology, were the leading vote-getters in the Wednesday runoff. Keller got 111 votes and Cunningham followed with 99.

However, since neither man got a clear majority of the votes cast, a second runoff becomes necessary under election guidelines to determine who will represent the faculty on the board for a new three-year term.

Eliminated in the Wednesday runoff were Dr. Jack D. Rose, assistant professor of school administration and supervision, who got 52 votes, and Dr. Rex Alexander, professor of health, physical education and recreation, who got 24 votes.

Balloting among eight candidates on Monday following Hassell's withdrawal had left four in the runoff Wednesday, none of whom have previously served on the board.

Paul W. Shahan, associate professor on music and chairman of the faculty election committee, said faculty members of assistant professor rank or above will vote from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. in the registrar's office Friday to determine a winner.

The new faculty representative will be installed at the next board of regents meeting April 27. Hassell has served since his election in the spring of 1971.

Dr. Curris To Deliver Address At Alumni Association Banquet

Dr. Constantine W. Curris and the alumni of Murray State University will meet each other formally for the first time Saturday, April 27, when he delivers the address at the annual Alumni Association banquet.

Although Curris has traveled extensively in the area and met many alumni individually since becoming the school's sixth president last fall, he has had no prior occasion to meet them as a group. His subject will be "Beginning Our Second Half Century."

To be held at 6:30 p.m. in the ballroom of the Waterfield Student Union Building, the program will also honor alumni scholarship recipients, the distinguished professor of the year, distinguished alumni, and university employees with 25 years of service.

Held the weekend prior to graduation exercises, the banquet and program will also include the installation of new officers of the association.

In announcing Curris as the banquet speaker, Mancil J. Vinson, director of alumni affairs, said the selection is appropriate because "the initiation of the new administration is an occasion of great interest to faculty, students, alumni and West Kentuckians."

Curris, who took office in September and was inaugurated in November of 1973, has reorganized both the academic and administrative structures of the university as one phase of his effort to be more responsive to the needs of the region.

A native of Lexington who grew up in Williamstown, Grant County, in Northern Kentucky, Curris was a nationally-known champion debater as an undergraduate at the University of Kentucky where he graduated Phi Beta Kappa with the B. A. degree in political science and speech in 1962.

He earned the M. A. degree in political science and public administration at the University of Illinois in 1965, then returned to UK for the Ed. D. degree in higher education, with emphasis in political science, in 1967.

Prior to assuming the presidency of Murray State, he had served two years as vice-president and dean of the faculty at West Virginia Institute of Technology, Montgomery, W. Va., two years as vice-president of student affairs at Marshall University, Huntington, W. Va., a year as director of educational programs for the West Virginia Board of Education in Charleston, and three years as vice-president and dean of the faculty at Midway (Ky.) Junior College.

Earlier this year he was named one of the five Outstanding Young Men of Kentucky by the Jaycees. Curris is a member of the Murray Rotary Club.

Edwin O. Norris of Kingsport, Tenn., will be installed as the new president of the Alumni Association to replace William A. Logan of Madisonville.

Among other officers to be installed are James H. Johnson of Owensboro as president-elect, Rep. Richard Lewis of Benton as vice-president and

Forum Here To Discuss Changes In Day Care Center Regulations

All parents, day care staff, and others interested in programs for children are urged to attend a public forum sponsored by the Department for Human Resources' Bureau for Social Services. The topic of discussion will be "Proposed Changes in Current Standards and Regulations."

The forum will be held April 30, 7:30 p.m., at the Murray Federal Savings and Loan Association, 608 Main Street, in the Community Room. The room will be open and staff will be present at 7:00 p.m., for those who have not had a chance to review the standards and regulations in advance.

Day care has grown in increasing numbers as women with young children have entered the work force. The number of licensed facilities in the state has more than doubled in the past four years. As services have expanded, the need for different types of services has grown to include infant care, school-age care, night time care, and transportation. The proposed additions cover these services. It is through licensing regulations that the quality of child care is assured. Citizens of Calloway, Marshall, Fulton, and Hickman counties are invited to attend the Murray forum. In these counties there are 14 licensed day care programs, caring for 323 children.

Persons who would like additional information or copies of the revised standards, may contact: Mrs. Mary Curtin, Day Care Representative for the Murray area, 110 Riverfront Drive, P.O. Box No. 3, Hopkinsville, Kentucky. Phone 886-5291.

Dear Abby

Hey! Doesn't hubby have rights?

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: You're the best in your field, but every now and then even you make a mistake. Example: Woman engaged to man who wants to buy a farm. She refuses to live on farm. He gives in. They live 28 years in city.

Now, with retirement approaching, he wants to buy a modest 12 acres, where he can [presumably] raise a little garden, plant a few fruit trees, and perhaps keep a few chickens. He wants to spend his latter years in healthy, happy, productive activity; a most commendable and wholesome idea certainly.

The wife had her way for 28 years. Yet you tell her, "Don't give an inch or you'll wind up with 12 acres!" Doesn't the husband have any rights? I say he should buy his little retirement plot and move on it, and if she doesn't want to go along—good riddance!

DON BUCK: GIRARD, KAS.

DEAR DON: When you put it that way, I'll have to admit you make a lot of sense, so after thinking it over, I surrender, dear.

DEAR ABBY: I read with interest [and envy] the letter from the woman whose husband wanted to share her with his friends. I should be so lucky!

Twelve years ago I married a man who was so effectively taught in his childhood that sex was dirty, that after 12 years of marriage he still thinks sex is sinful.

Need I tell you what kind of a bed partner he has been? I have had a lot of time to think about it, and if I had to choose between promiscuity and abstinence, believe me, I'd choose promiscuity. DOING WITHOUT IN GAINESVILLE

DEAR DOING: I don't "envy" you, either. But remember, "promiscuity" is no pass to paradise—if you can believe my mail. And I do.

DEAR ABBY: My husband is almost perfect. We've been married for three years and get along fine, but there is one problem. When we are with people Norton is very quiet. I am forever making up excuses for him, like, "Oh, Norton is tired tonight," or, "Norton isn't feeling very well."

When he and I are alone together he is fine, but when we're in company, he clamms up. People keep asking me if he's mad.

Have you any suggestions for him? Or for me?

NORTON'S WIFE

DEAR WIFE: Tell Norton that silence is sometimes mistaken for unfriendliness, so to please try to be more sociable. But don't nag him about it. He's probably shy, and too much pushing on your part will make him even more self-conscious.

CONFIDENTIAL TO HEARTBROKEN PARENTS: From your letter I would say that you did your best. Now, quit punishing yourselves. Some parents "train up a child in the way he should go," and out of sheer spite and rebellion, the child deliberately departs from it.

Problems? You'll feel better if you get it off your chest. For a personal reply, write to ABBY: Box No. 69700, L.A., Calif. 90069. Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope, please.

Hate to write letters? Send $1 to Abigail Van Buren, 132 Lasky Dr., Beverly Hills, Cal. 90212 for Abby's booklet, "How to Write Letters for All Occasions."

Your Individual Horoscope

Frances Drake

FOR FRIDAY, APRIL 12, 1974

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

ARIES
(Mar. 21 to Apr. 20)
Time is important, of course, but don't let the thought of it rush you into hasty moves, decisions. Confusion will reign if the guard is down.

TAURUS
(Apr. 21 to May 21)
Rationalize, think things out with logic before making important moves — and just about every move WILL be important now.

GEMINI
(May 22 to June 21)
A day which may begin slowly, but one in which momentum will pick up gradually. Many openings for the willing, alert and consistent worker.

CANCER
(June 22 to July 23)
More auspicious influences than for many. Choose the hours for action astutely; choose those for curtailing as smartly. Shun mere guesswork.

LEO
(July 24 to Aug. 23)
Your dynamic energy and general magnetism will carry you far — if you are directing endeavors with thought and foresight.

VIRGO
(Aug. 24 to Sept. 23)
Though there is a favorable outlook, some not entirely successful operations need an added "shot in the arm" — new methods, tightening up, new data.

LIBRA
(Sept. 24 to Oct. 23)
Decide early how you must proceed and do not permit others to keep you from pursuing worthwhile goals. You can accomplish a great deal now.

SCORPIO
(Oct. 24 to Nov. 23)
If others want to make changes, evaluate carefully before dissenting. They may be for the best. If you truly feel they are wrong, don't go along with them.

SAGITTARIUS
(Nov. 23 to Dec. 21)
To gain confidence and impress, one extends a hand and cooperates willingly — sometimes first, as you must now. Don't expect more than is reasonable.

CAPRICORN
(Dec. 22 to Jan. 20)
You may be faced with some unusual propositions. Investigate them from the point of view of long-range benefits, and consider whether they suit YOUR standards.

AQUARIUS
(Jan. 21 to Feb. 19)
Now you have an opportunity to spread your wings a bit, to investigate new areas, devices. But do not drop well-planned activities merely for the sake of a change.

PISCES
(Feb. 20 to Mar. 20)
Your senses, perception and spirits should be buoyed now. You can do a great deal with little material, with even less than others to start with. Make the most of a good day!

YOU BORN TODAY are endowed with a magnetic personality, tremendous ambition and a gift of leadership which is truly extraordinary. Not as impulsive as others born under your Sign, you think calmly and objectively before speaking or acting, so don't get into as much "hot water" as some of your zodiacal brothers and sisters. This ability to analyze and rationalize is a great asset to any one of the many careers from which you have to choose — especially in the law which, in your case, would probably lead to eminent statesmanship. You are endowed with creative ability, too: Your gift of words makes you an excellent writer; your love of beauty, an outstanding painter or musician and, as a salesman or promoter, you can be tops. Birthdate of: Henry Clay, early American statesman.

4-H Club Has Meet

The Middle School 4-H Club met in the home of Mrs. Calvin P. Morris on Saturday, March 30.

Mary Morris, president, presided at the meeting. The Bible was read by Janet Smith. Pledges to the American and 4-H Club flags were led by Juli Miller and Patti McIntosh.

Cindy Hurt, secretary, asked each member to answer the roll call with plans for Rally Day. Each girl stated plans for making a speech and giving a demonstration at 4-H Rally Day.

A demonstration on "Making A Bulletin Board Using Cardboard and Burlap" was given by the hostess and leader of the club. Each girl participated in this demonstration.

The club voted to start meeting twice each month so the next meeting will be Saturday, April 13, at one p.m.

Willing Workers

Club Holds Meet

The Willing Workers 4-H Club from Coldwater met on Monday, March 25, at the home of Pamela Paschall with the president, Connie Smith, presiding.

David Adams read the devotion with the pledges being led by Liza Bazzell.

The new business brought before the members was to sell candy as a money making project.

Patricia Garland and Pamela Paschall explained Rally Day and the proper ways to give a demonstration.

Games were played with refreshments being served later, according to Debbie Fortner, reporter.

Music Ensemble Presents Program For Luncheon Held By The Home Department

The Home Department of the Murray Woman's Club held its regular potluck luncheon at the club house on Thursday, March 21, at one p.m.

Ten members of the Music Department under the direction of Mrs. Jane Prince presented a most delightful program of varied selections. The ensemble consisted of Mesdames James Carlin, Tommye D. Taylor, Vernon Shown, O. B. Boone, Jr., Charles Hoke, Keith Hays, Max Brandon, and Donald Burckfield.

The music group was introduced by Mrs. Nix Crawford. Mrs. A. C. LaFollette, chairman, presided during the business meeting which followed the noon meal.

Announcement was made of a book, "Historical Homes In Kentucky," being offered for sale as a part of the Bicentennial celebration. This book features the Diuguid home on Main Street in Murray.

The club voted to donate $25.00 to the Senior Citizens Club of Murray and Calloway County toward the purchase of supplies for their handicrafts.

Mrs. Grover James modeled a suit she had made. A three piece ensemble was shown by Mrs. Claude Miller.

The chairman asked for donations of homemade items to be sold at the annual convention of Women's Clubs to be held in Louisville later in the year.

Tuition Plan Could Help MSU

A limited college tuition program for Kentucky and Tennessee, reported in Wednesday's Murray Ledger & Times, could be a great asset to Murray State University in the school's efforts to bolster enrollment.

We have advocated such a plan several times in the past and still feel that it would be a worthwhile endeavor for MSU to enroll students from nearby Tennessee, southeast Missouri and southern Illinois at reduced or in-state tuition rates. We agree, however, that such a plan would only be fair to the taxpayers of Kentucky if those states entered into a reciprocal agreement with Kentucky.

The plan outlined by Harry Snyder, the Kentucky higher education council's associate director for finance, would extend reduced or in-state tuition rates to approximately the same number of Tennessee residents to attend Murray State or Western Kentucky University as Austin Peay University in Clarksville now extends to residents of certain Kentucky counties.

This, we feel, would be a step in the right direction in that it would allow students who live only a few miles from Murray to attend the university at a lower tuition rate. Many of these students, especially those just south of the Kentucky-Tennessee border at Hazel, probably conduct the majority of their business in Murray and Calloway County already.

We do regret that a more comprehensive plan—a plan that had been discussed by both the Kentucky and Tennessee higher education councils—was squelched because the Tennessee legislature failed to adopt legislation authorizing its schools to participate in such a plan.

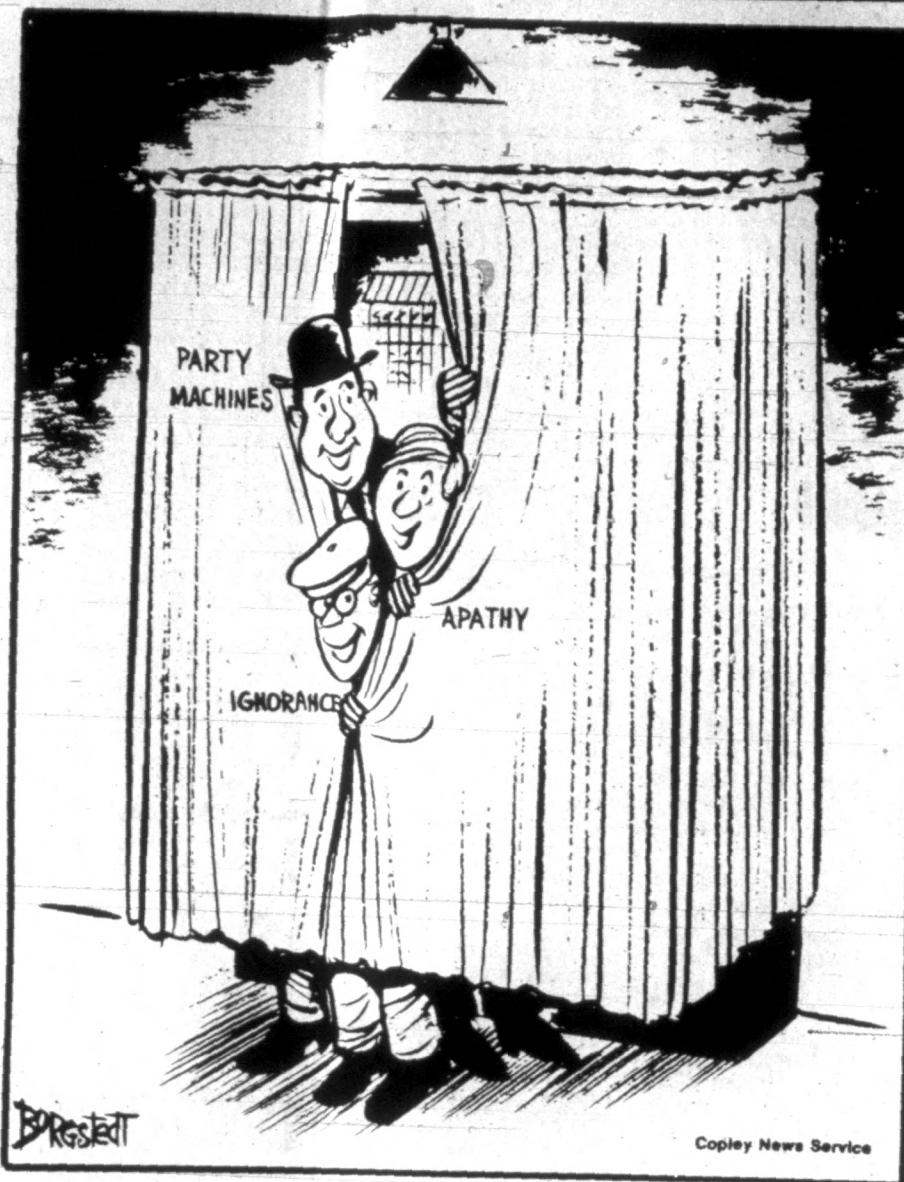

This limited plan, however, should serve as a stepping stone to a reciprocal tuition arrangement with a much broader scope that hopefully could be implemented in the future.

We urge the Higher Education Council to approve Mr. Snyder's recommendation so that Murray State University can extend its regional concept further South than just 10 miles to the state border.

Reformers Urge Politicians Work Through Committees

By WALTER R. MEARS
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Seeking insurance against future Watergates, political reformers are urging 1976 presidential nominees to do their campaign business through the Republican and Democratic national committees.

The theory is that management, or at least supervision, by regular party organizations and leaders would guard against the kind of abuses that marked President Nixon's 1972 re-election campaign.

But there is a flaw: the way the system works, in a presidential year a party's nominee for the White House decides who is going to run the party organization anyhow.

Vice President Gerald R. Ford has proposed that 1976 GOP candidates agree in advance that they will not set up special campaign committees without specific approval of the party.

A House Republican study panel has said that "a strong national party would help curb some of the excesses that have been witnessed during the past few years and would make it easier for the public to isolate responsibility for illegal actions."

But presidential candidates build their personal political organizations as they campaign through the primary elections, seeking White House nomination. At that stage, the regular party organization is theoretically neutral. The pattern has been for the personal organization of the winner to take over in the fall and run the national campaign.

The presidential nominee traditionally chooses the top leadership of his party's national committee. Committee members from the 50 states elect their chairman — but in practice, they ratify the choice of the presidential nominee.

Neither party committee had much to say about the 1972 presidential campaign. As always, the clout was where the presidential nominees put it. And as usual, there was friction between state party organizations and the campaign committees set up by the candidates. In an era of political specialization and increasingly lengthy and expensive presidential campaigns, the pattern has been one of management and control by the candidate's men, not the permanent party structure.

All of this suggests that a long term solution to the problem of presidential campaign control is going to take more than persuasion aimed at candidates.

One proposal is part of the public campaign finance bill now before the Senate. It would allow a presidential nominee to set up his own organization to run the campaign — but the chairman, or someone he designates, would have to endorse every expenditure of over $1,000 in public funds.

GOOD FRIDAY — THE CRUCIFIXION
John 19:16-21 & Mark 15:33-39

From The Living Bible

Then Pilate gave Jesus to them to be crucified. So they had him at last, and he was taken out of the city, carrying his cross to the place known as "The Skull," in Hebrew, "Golgotha." There they crucified him and two others with him, one on either side, with Jesus between them. And Pilate posted a sign over him reading, "Jesus of Nazareth, the King of the Jews." The place where Jesus was crucified was near the city; and the signboard was written in Hebrew, Latin, and Greek, so that many people read it. Then the chief priests said to Pilate, "Change it from 'The King of the Jews' to 'HE SAID, I am King of the Jews.'" About noon, darkness fell across the entire land, lasting until three o'clock that afternoon. Then Jesus called out with a loud voice, "Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani?" ("My God, my God, why have you deserted me?") Some of the people standing there thought he was calling for the prophet Elijah. So one man ran and got a sponge and filled it with sour wine and held it up to him on a stick. "Let's see in Elijah will come and take him down!" he said. Then Jesus uttered another loud cry, and dismissed his spirit. And the curtain in the Temple was split apart from top to bottom. When the Roman officer standing beside his cross saw how he dismissed his spirit, he exclaimed, "Truly, this was the Son of God!"

A Longer Life? Maybe!

You can expect to live longer than your grandfather or great grandfather. Or, at least, that's what the statisticians say.

The average life expectancy, for example, was only 45 years back in 1900. By 1970 the average life expectancy in the United States was over 70.

Now, a doctor comes up with an explanation which shows the danger of drawing generalizations from statistics.

While the average life expectancy has increased from 45 to 70 between 1900 and 1970, that doesn't mean that more people are living to a ripe old age. Dr. Nathaniel O. Calloway says those life expectancy figures represent "a statistical survival of individuals to later."

People are not living longer, he says, but they're just not dying earlier. The gimmick in the life expectancy figures, of course, is that word "average." What happened is that infant and juvenile deaths have been greatly reduced by the control of contagious diseases. This puts a lot more surviving children into adult years, which stretches out the "average" life expectancy.

Dr. Calloway studied survival figures for the U.S. Senate. Senators elected between 1789 and 1880 — who struggled along without heart transplants and all of today's modern medical gadgetry — lived an average of 68 1/2 years. A later group, elected between 1931 and 1966, with access to all the life-saving and life-prolonging machines and techniques, averaged death at 69.

Statistics? They are sometimes a helpful guide, but don't bank on them. If you are under 70, don't get careless counting on that 70 year life expectancy. And if you are over 70, don't get overly concerned that you're on borrowed time. Statistics to the contrary, you just never know.

The Voice Of The Voter

Financing of election campaigns from the public till is being ballyhooed in Congress and in subtle pressures on the American people as a bar to future Watergates and corruption.

But the ultimate effect of the proposed restructuring of our method of paying for federal election costs would be a radical change in the processes of government itself.

A switch to public financing, if it did not destroy the two-party system, would almost certainly weaken it to an extent far beyond its already significant decline. And despite the criticism of our political procedures, the parties have served the nation well over the long run by exerting a certain amount of discipline over their candidates and providing a chain of accountability to the voters.

Advocates of tax-supported campaigns deplore reports that 90 per cent of campaign contributions currently come from one per cent of the people, pointing out the potential for undue influence accruing to the big givers. Only through public financing, they contend, can the ordinary citizen be certain that his voice and vote will be measured.

Is it better, though, to tax individuals for support of candidates with whom they do not agree and violently oppose? And isn't it euphoric to believe that the feared "special interests" won't find other means of helping and influencing their favored candidates?

Enterprising aspirants for public office have in recent years been successful in attracting large numbers of small contributions from those who believed in them. Voluntary campaign gifts to an inspiring candidate offer more "voice" than the dollars plucked from tax payments and distributed anonymously. And enforcement of present laws could curb effectively candidate dependence on "fat cat" backers.

Public funds, distributed generously and equally, would give unfair advantage to incumbents who already boast a campaign head-start. At the same time, it would encourage frivolous candidates to enter primaries on the strength of the federal handout.

Yet, under certain of the formulas now under debate in the U.S. Senate, Alabama Gov. George Wallace, a formidable presidential contender in 1968, would be denied a share of the campaign pot under similar circumstances.

Three major plans are under consideration in Congress, each with its share of pet amendments supposedly meeting areas of suspected public concern.

But we are doubtful of voter enthusiasm over the prospect of picking up a bill approaching the half billion dollar mark for campaign ads, voter surveys, high priced consultants and the expenses of a traveling press corps.

As presidential aide Patrick J. Buchanan puts it, "The waste and folly... are gargantuan in scale. The taxpayer is already subsidizing enough nonsense without adding politics to his tab."

Scientists Taken Aback By New Revelation

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
AP Religion Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — The scientific elite were somewhat taken aback on being informed that amid all the modern technological advances, a new, national study shows people are believing more and more in the active reality of the devil.

When told of it, participants in a recent meeting in San Francisco of the American Association for the Advancement of Science "were absolutely shocked," says Clyde Z. Nunn, a social researcher who reported the findings to them.

"It didn't fit their pre-suppositions," he adds. "It was mind-blowing for them."

He said the fact that Americans are increasingly convinced of the devil's existence runs counter to the scientific community's general assumption of "progressively increasing rationalism as an automatic evolutionary process."

Most scientists "want to believe that society has become so rationalized that it has moved out of the nonrational world," he said. But he added that the newly gathered data reveal an opposite trend at work.

The new study, made by the Center for Policy Research here, found that in nine years the number of people believing in the certainty of the devil has risen from 37 to 48 per cent of the population, with another 20 per cent considering his existence probable.

Altogether, 68 per cent is either sure about it or thinks it likely.

Nunn, the center's senior research associate, linked the upsurge in such belief to "times of great stress, when things seem to be falling apart, when there is great uncertainty in society and limited resources to cope with it."

"It's apparently an attempt to make sense of a world of ambiguities and to explain the evil in it," he said in an interview. He said it also made for an atmosphere vulnerable to demagogic promises to hunt out the devil's instruments.

It has the potentiality of "some new round of witch hunting," said Nunn, a University of Nebraska sociology professor before joining the center, which aims to search out trends so social policy can be shaped to deal with them.

The new study, involving a scientifically selected cross section of 3,546 people, was made last spring. Consequently, the results don't reflect the recent movie-stirred interest in demonology but derive from other conditions.

Nunn said the study, by using identically phrased questions as a parallel survey in 1964, provides the first comparative measurement of shifts in intensity of beliefs about the supernatural.

While the major change was the sharp 11 per cent upturn in those considering the devil's existence "completely true," the 68 per cent total either certain or partly so also rose by 3 per cent.

In regard to God, however, absolute certainty about His existence dropped 8 per cent, from 77 to 69 per cent, although another 25 per cent believed in God with some reservations. Only 6 per cent registered no belief, but the disbelief was 3 per cent higher than before.

"Whatever advantage God has had over the devil in the polls of the past, the devil now appears to be getting his due," said Nunn, a Kentuckian who has a master's degree in religion from the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville and a doctorate in sociology from the University of North Carolina.

He said the rising certainty of the devil's activity — along with the slight drop in certainty about God — suggests people have difficulty seeing any good purpose or reason in events and consider the balance of "good versus evil to be tipped in the direction of evil."

The study also brought out that those convinced of the devil's reality are much more likely than others to feel that threatening forces are at work in modern life, and that things are likely to get worse.

They also are less tolerant of nonconformity, less concerned with civil rights and more likely to "express authoritarian dependency" on leaders.

Nunn said these attitudes are most susceptible to some rising demagogue promising to drive out the devil's agents, "get us back to fundamentals, and set things straight."

Calloway Track Teams Host Triangular Meet

After two previous unsuccessful attempts, track season at Calloway County High School finally opened Wednesday as the Lakers boys and girls teams hosted Crittenden County and Henry County to a triangular meet.

Henry County won both meets, the boys rolling up 75 points while Crittenden County was second with 48½ and Calloway third with 43½.

In the girls meet, Henry County amassed 68½ points to edge the Lakers who had 64 while Crittenden County trailed the field with only 20½.

Calloway County had only two first place performances in the boys meet and both of those were turned in by Doug McCann.

McCann won the pole vault with an effort of 9-6 while teammate Kenneth Cleaver was second with 9-0.

McCann also won the triple jump with an effort of 33-7½.

In other field events, Howard Jinner took second in the long jump with 18-6 while Russell Hopkins was second in the discus with 87-6 and Kerry Wyatt's 68-0 earned a fourth.

Hopkins came back in the shotput to take a third place with 32-7 while in the high jump, Cleaver took third with 4-10 and David Pledger fourth with 4-8.

Three members of the Laker team took runnerup spots in track events.

Ronnie Oliver had a 23.9 to take second in the 220-yard dash while Howard Jinner was fourth in 24.7.

In the mile run, Tommy Futrell established himself as a young man to watch as the freshman had a fine 5:04.9 for second place.

The other second place spot was taken in the 120 high hurdles where David Flegler turned in a 20.3 and Quentin Fannin had a 20.7 for fourth.

Three men had fourth place efforts as Fannin had a 25.3 in the low hurdles, Stanley Anderson a 70.4 in the 440-yard dash and Olive an 11.3 in the 100-yard dash.

The 880 relay team composed of Jinner, Pledger, Olive and Mitchell Cunningham won the event with a 1:45.4.

The Laker girls were more successful as the outcome of the meet was not determined until the final two events.

June Murdock scored a double win as she had an 8.6 in the 50-yard hurdles to take first place honors while teammate Janet Usrey was second in 9.1.

In the 80-yard hurdles, Miss Murdock won with a 13.1 while Peggy Rogers was third in 13.3.

The Laker girls scored three firsts in field events as Calloway swept the first places in the long jump and the discus.

Phyllis Adams won the long jump with an effort of 14-9½ while Sarah Von Schoech was second with 13-6½ while Janet Usrey was third with 13-3½.

In the discus, Marilyn McKenzie won with 81-10 while Sandra Duncan's 76-9 took the runnerup spot and Miss Von Schoech was third with 70-1.

The other first place came in the shot where Miss Duncan had a 30-0 to capture individual honors.

A second-place effort in the high jump by Tina Todd earned three points as she cleared 4-4 for runnerup honors.

Diane Olive took third in the 220 with a 27.9 while Kathy Johnson was second with 28.9.

Phyllis Adams was third in the 100 with a 12.0 while Vicky Butterworth was fourth in 12.6.

The only other third-place earned by a Laker was in the 880 where Sharon McKinney had a 3:10.6 Marilyn McKenzie was fourth in 3:16.4.

In the 440-yard dash, Sandy Bibb was fourth with a 1:19.

All of the Laker relay teams finished second.

The medley relay composed of Diane Olive, Vicky Butterworth, Peggy Rogers and Diana Lawrence was the runnerup with a 2:12.1.

In the 880-relay, the Lakers finished second as Butterworth, Johnson, Olive and Phyllis Adams all ran legs.

The 440-relay team, composed of the same individuals in the 880, turned in a 56.1.

The mile relay team composed of Bibb, Donna Adams, Leslie Wilford and Lawrence was the final relay team to earn a runnerup spot for three points.

The Laker girls will be participating in the Murray State Invitational Saturday at Stewart Stadium.

On April 23, Mayfield and Lone Oak will be at Calloway for a triangular meet with both the boys and girls teams participating.

Dickins Signed As Grid Recruit

Mike Dickins, an all-state quarterback at Bosse High School, Evansville, Ind., has signed a national letter-of-intent with Murray State University.

Dickins, 6-3, 198 pounds, was all-city, all-conference and "Player of the Year" in Evansville in both football and basketball in addition to being first team All-Indiana.

Murray Defensive coach Bill Hina, who recruited Dickins, called him one of the best prospects ever signed to a Murray grant-in-aid. "I think we signed the best quarterback prospect in Kentucky when we signed Roger Rushing (Union County High School), and now I think we have the best in Indiana in Mike," Hina said.

TENNIS

Aaron's Average Dips As Braves Get Shutout

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
AP Sports Writer
Now that Hank Aaron has hit THE home run, the question is when will he get any other kind of hit.

Other than his two home runs—Nos. 714 and 715—it's been nothing but outsize this season and the 40-year-old Atlanta superstar with the lifetime .311 batting average is hitting at a lowly .154 clip.

Aaron grounded out twice following his record-breaking home run Monday night. He sat out the next game and Wednesday night he took an 0-for-4 collar—two fly balls, one grounder and a strikeout—as Tommy John and Mike Marshall of Los Angeles held the Braves to four singles in pitching the Dodgers to a 4-0 triumph.

John, who is in his third National League season and has a perfect 6-0 mark against the Braves, is one of those rare birds—a pitcher off whom Aaron has never homered.

The Dodgers got the only run they needed in the first inning on singles by Lee Lacy and Bill Buckner and Jim Wynn's sacrifice fly. Lacy singled again in the sixth and came around on three walks.

Expos 12, Pirates 8
After being unable to open as scheduled at home because of bad weather, the Expos finally heard the cry of "Play ball" in Pittsburgh and took out their frustrations on the Pirates' pitching staff to the tune of 14 hits.

Doubles by Larry Lintz and Jim Cox sparked a four-run burst in the 13th inning that gave the Expos the victory and sent the winless Pirates to their third straight defeat in their home opener.

Lintz opened the 13th with a double off reliever Ramon Hernandez and scored on Cox' double following a walk. Ron Woods' two-run single and an RBI double by pitcher Chuck Taylor produced the other runs. The Pirates tied the game 8-8.

Named To Committee
BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (AP) — Indiana University basketball guard Jim Crews has been named as an undergraduate member of the National Collegiate Athletic Association long range planning committee.

Crews, a 6-foot-5 sophomore from Normal, Ill., and Scott Bull of the University of Arkansas are the first two undergraduate members of an NCAA committee.

inning. Bobby Bonds homered in the seventh for what proved to be the winning run while Mike Caldwell, acquired from San Diego in a trade for Willie McCovey, boosted his record to 2-0 with help from Randy Moffitt in the eighth.

Mets 3, Cardinals 2
Jerry Grote, who hit only one home run last year, cracked his second of the young 1974 season and drove in another run with a single, helping the National League champion Mets win their home opener. Grote, who hit just 27 homers in eight previous seasons, connected off John Curtis, who was making his NL debut.

Cubs 7, Phillies 6
Billy Williams hit a three-run homer in the first inning and singled home two runs in the ninth for the victory. The Phillies had taken a 6-5 lead in the top of the ninth when Greg Luzinski drove in his third run with a sacrifice fly.

Three ways better

Better Boy

After years of research, plant breeders have developed Better Boy, a tomato that is three ways better: resistant to verticillium, fusarium, and nematodes (VFN), the three main causes of blight in tomato plants.

Since it's also an F₂ Hybrid, it gives you more fruit, tastier fruit, over a longer period of time. Try it and you'll never go back to ordinary tomatoes again.

It's planting time! Plant the hybrid—plant Better Boy.

Error-Prone Murray Whipped By Salukis 8-2

Murray State University's chances for receiving a bid to the NCAA Baseball Tournament were dealt a blow Wednesday afternoon at Reagan Field as Southern Illinois University took an 8-2 win over the 'Breds.

The loss leaves Murray with a 26-9 season record while the Salukis from Carbondale are 13-5 for the spring.

Only nine games are remaining on the Murray schedule and if the 'Breds should lose any more than a game or two, then the odds would be slim of getting a bid to the playoffs.

Included in those nine remaining games are six road games, including a rematch with SIU, a single game at Vanderbilt, and doubleheaders at Arkansas State and Middle Tennessee.

Southern Illinois entered the game as the 20th ranked team in the nation, after having once been ranked as high as eighth.

The 'Breds, who were ranked 17th several weeks ago, dropped to 19th in the newest poll.

SIU, who arrived in Murray in their own airplane, shelled Thoroughbred pitching for 13 hits and if that wasn't enough, the usually sticky 'Bred defense committed five errors.

It was a costly error in the first inning that lifted the Salukis to an early lead from which Murray was never able to recover.

Following two singles, the Salukis had men on first and second with only one man out.

Bill Emerson, who was on the mound for Murray, turned and whirled toward first base in a pickoff attempt.

The ball was thrown at first baseman Don Derrington but he was not able to come up with it and the ball went all the way into right field as two SIU runners came across.

In the home half of the second, Murray cut the margin in half as Jack Perconte drilled a triple off the fence and came in to score when Steve Barrett grounded out.

But Murray did not have a hit again until the seventh when Rick Weisman cracked a solo home and by that time, SIU was leading 5-2. The Salukis added two runs in the eighth on an error and a pair of hits and one more in the ninth.

Bill Emerson started on the mound for Murray and went six and two-third innings before being relieved by freshman Mark Wezet who finished the game.

Emerson was charged with five runs, two of which were earned, gave up nine hits while fanning seven and walking three.

Murray will not play again until Saturday when they are at Middle Tennessee for a conference twinbill. The 'Breds will play only one game next week, that being at Vanderbilt.

Canadian Football League rules that allow 15 imports on a 32-man roster.

But for succeeding years it sets an import limit of 15 players or 40 per cent of all players on the roster, whichever is less.

The bill defines an import player as "a person who is not a Canadian citizen and who has, before his 18th birthday, received training in football by having participated as a player in a football game outside Canada."

Lalonde told the news conference the government can be expected to put a "pretty high priority" on the legislation.

He acknowledged that a defeat of the minority government by the combined Conservative-New Democrat opposition would stop the bill and government efforts to halt Basett.

Swim Tournament

KANSAS CITY, Kan. (AP) — The Amateur Athletic Union announced at a news conference Wednesday that its national championship swimming tournament will be held at the Wyandot Swim Club here in August 1975.

The four-day event, which is one of the last national meets prior to the 1976 Olympic Games, is expected to attract about 1,000 swimmers in the senior division for teen-age and older swimmers.

The legislation would ban foreign football leagues from operating in Canada and Canadian leagues from operating in the United States.

Allow exhibition games with foreign leagues.

Not apply to any other sport but football.

Bullets Drub Knicks 109-92 To Tie Series At Three Games Up

Archie was the key," concluded Elvin Hayes.

He did it all." Archie was Archie Clark who scored 20 points Wednesday night, including 12 points in the final period when the Capital Bullets gathered enough momentum to take a 109-92 National Basketball Association playoff victory over the New York Knicks.

The victory evened the best-of-seven Eastern Conference semifinals at three games apiece with the deciding game in New York Friday night.

"I finally felt comfortable late in the game," said the 32-year-old Clark who has been plagued for two years with injuries and had been used sparingly in the playoffs.

In the only American Basketball Association playoff action, the San Antonio Pacers downed the Indiana Pacers 102-86 to tie their Western Division playoff series at 3-3.

Hayes didn't do badly himself — scoring 31 points to run his total in the six-game series to 169.

The Bullets led 68-67 going into the final 12 minutes and quickly jumped in front 77-69 on the shooting of Clark and Phil Chenier, who also scored 12 final-period points.

Spurs 102, Pacers 86

The Spurs relied heavily on the hot shooting of Bird Averitt who finished with 19 points and Swen Nater who had 18.

San Antonio never trailed after taking an early 8-7 lead and their lead grew as big as 23 points in the fourth period.

The series now switches back to Indianapolis for the deciding game Friday night.

Indiana's Roger Brown had 26 points.

The winner of this series meets Utah in the ABA West finals and both coaches think their clubs can go all the way.

"At this stage I believe both these teams are better than Utah," said Spurs Coach Tom Nissalke. "I don't believe Utah has as much help on its bench as these teams."

The Chicago Bulls, holding a 3-2 edge over the Pistons, hope

Pacers Jerry Frantz and Steve Pettit combined in the second game to throw a four-hitter for Morehead.

The UK scoring came all in the third inning after shortstop Steve Bush was hit by a pitch. Second baseman Sonny Dennison walked and center fielder Billy Fouch delivered a two-run double, the catcher Marvis Foley singled Fouch home to complete the scoring.

Frantz was the winning pitcher; the loss went to Jim Duff.

Craig Morton Signs New Contract With WFL Team

The Cowboys have been ambushed. And not by Indians.

It's the World Football League that's playing havoc with Dallas Cowboy Coach Tom Landry's plans for next season.

Craig Morton, whose aspirations each football season grew and then were crushed, was the latest Cowboy to vamoose, announcing Wednesday he was signing with the Houston Texans for the 1975 season.

Star running back Calvin Hill said Tuesday that after playing out his option with the National Football League Cowboys, he was switching to the WFL's Hawaii franchise.

Morton has been unhappy for several years since Roger Staubach beat him out for the No. 1 quarterback spot despite Morton's fine record.

Landry said he wasn't certain whether Hill and Morton would play under their lame-duck status.

Landry announced that Ed "Too Tall" Jones had signed a multi-year contract, with the NFL club.

The Cowboys outbid the Detroit Wheel for the series of the 6-foot-7, 260-pound defensive end from Tennessee State.

Jessie has played in every game since joining the Lions in 1972 and has been a starter for the last two years.

The Cowboys earlier lost their third-round choice, quarterback Danny White, to the WFL's Toronto club.

Meanwhile, the Canadian Government was trying to head the WFL off at the pass with the introduction of legislation that would ban operation of foreign professional football teams, except for exhibition games.

The bill's immediate objective is to prevent the Toronto Northmen of the WFL from operating in Canada.

"No person owning, operating or managing a football team within a foreign league shall require or permit that team to play football in Canada," the bill introduced into the House of Commons said. "No person shall play football within Canada as a member or as a player on a football team within a foreign league."

Ron Jessie, a starting wide receiver for the Detroit Lions, announced he had signed with the Birmingham Americans, effective in 1975.

Jessie has played in every game since joining the Lions in 1972 and has been a starter for the last two years.

Brewers Win As Money Hits Grand Slam

Pro basketball has its 24 and 30-second clocks to help speed up games, and Clyde Wright, veteran left-handed pitcher of the Milwaukee Brewers, thinks major league baseball should adopt a 20-second clock between pitches for the same purpose.

"I played in the minor leagues in Wichita, Kan., with the 20-second clock on the scoreboard, and it really made the game a lot more interesting," Wright said Wednesday after pitching what he considered 83-3 innings of slow baseball in the Brewers' 6-4 victory over the Cleveland Indians.

"Games lasted only an hour and a half or a little more, and the fans didn't get bored," he added.

The 20,036 opening-day fans at Cleveland's Municipal Stadium apparently were getting bored Wednesday, and they began throwing snowballs on the field.

Their boredom turned to disappointment in the ninth inning when Milwaukee's Don Money smashed a dramatic grand slam home run with two out, lifting the Brewers to a 6-4 victory.

Wright and Jim Perry were locked in a 2-2 duel until the ninth. Then the Brewers filled the bases on two walks and a single, before Money tagged reliever Cecil Upshaw for his homer, which carried over the left field fence.

Angels 4, Rangers 3
The Angels broke a 3-3 tie in the ninth inning when Richie Scheinblum singled with one out, and scored from first as Ellie Rodriguez singled to left and Alex Johnson fumbled the ball.

Texas' Ferguson, Jenkins, who pitched a one-hitter in his American League debut last week against Oakland, was clipped for three runs in the first inning by California, but settled down and hurled scoreless three-hit ball until the ninth.

Frank Tanana went the distance for the Angels and allowed nine hits, including Tom Grieve's two-run homer.

Royals 4, A's 1
Home runs by John Mayberry and Fred Patek backed the six-hit pitching of Steve Busby in Kansas City's victory over Oakland.

Busby helped himself by picking off Bill North from third base in the sixth inning when the A's scored their only run.

Both Kansas City homers came off loser Ken Holtzman, Mayberry connecting with one on in the first inning and Patek hitting his while leading off in the fifth.

Twins 6, White Sox 5
Minnesota capitalized on the wildness of Chicago pitchers in the seventh inning, bunting five walks, a double and a sacrifice fly for four runs in overcoming a 5-2 deficit and handing the White Sox their fourth setback.

After starter Stan Bahnsen walked leadoff batter Jim Holt in the seventh, Terry Forster came in and walked Randy Hundley and surrendered a run-scoring double to Jerry Terrell. Then, Forster walked Sergio Ferrer and Rod Carew, forcing in a run.

Cy Acosta replaced Forster and walked Larry Hise, forcing in the tying run, and Tony Oliva drove in the winner with a sacrifice fly.

White Sox' slugger Dick Allen slammed his first homer of the season, but also struck out four times, taking a third strike from rookie reliever Bill Campbell in the eighth inning with two out and two men on base.

National League scores were: Montreal 12, Pittsburgh 8, in 13 innings; New York Mets 3, St. Louis 2; Chicago Cubs 7, Philadelphia 6; San Francisco 4, Cincinnati 3; Los Angeles 4, Atlanta 0, and Houston 9, San Diego 1.

Regional Band Festival Slated April 11-12 Here

About 2,000 students from 31 high school and junior high school bands in West Kentucky will be on the campus of Murray State University Thursday and Friday, April 11-12, for the Regional Band Festival.

Richard W. Farrell, chairman of the Murray State music department and festival manager, said schools will be classified according to the level of the music they play in the program sponsored by the Kentucky Music Educators Association.

Bands will begin playing at 3:30 p.m. April 11 and at 8 a.m. April 12 in Lovett Auditorium. A panel of three judges, all music educators, will rate the performances of the bands.

Judges for the event are: Richard Brown, band director at Lambuth College, Jackson, Tenn.; Paul Davis, band director at Meade County High School, Brandenburg; and William Gravelly, band director at Danville High School.

Schools participating in the festival are:

High schools—Murray, Calloway County, Mayfield, Fulton City, Livingston Central, Crittenden County, Paducah Tilghman, Hopkinsville (two bands), Christian County (two bands), Trigg County (three bands), Heath, Lone Oak, Reidland, Caldwell County, North Marshall, Ballard Memorial and Lyon County.

Junior high and middle schools—Murray Middle (two bands), Mayfield Junior High, Trigg County Middle, Caldwell County Junior High, Koffman Junior High of Hopkinsville (two bands), Reidland Middle, North Marshall Junior High and Lone Oak Middle.

The program is the fourth and final of a series of music festivals held this spring on the campus. Farrell said the public is invited to attend at no admission charge.

The bald eagle born May 26, 1973, in Washington's National Zoo is only the fifth of these birds ever known to be hatched in captivity, says Sports Afield.

Mrs. Stovall Expected To Have More To Say On Cook Situation

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — Secretary of State Thelma Stovall was expected to have more to say today on Sen. Marlow Cook's battle to get on the May primary ballot as a candidate for re-election.

Mrs. Stovall was out of town Wednesday and unavailable for comments in answer to charges Cook has been making in the matter. She called a news conference for 10 a.m. today, presumably to answer those charges or any other questions on the matter.

Meanwhile, Franklin Circuit Judge Henry Meigs has scheduled hearings for 10:30 a.m. Friday on a motion to dissolve a restraining order that is keeping her from certifying any candidate, including those for congress. State law says candidates to appear on the ballot for the primary have to be certified by this Saturday.

Cook obtained the restraining order Monday to hold up any action by Mrs. Stovall until the courts decide whether he can be on the ballot.

Atty. Gen. Ed Hancock advised Mrs. Stovall this week she could not certify Cook's name for the ballot because his filing papers were incomplete. Cook charged Tuesday Mrs. Stovall had warned other congressional candidates in writing, before the April 3 filing deadline, that their filing papers were incomplete so they could correct them in time. At least some of those candidates had sent their papers in by mail.

Mrs. Stovall told Cook verbally when he filed in person March 22 that his papers were incomplete but did not warn him again in writing. He had not designated his campaign treasurer as required by law. Cook finally named Jack Voigt of Louisville as his treasurer last Friday, two days after the deadline and the day after Mrs. Stovall informed him he was ineligible to be placed on the ballot. She told newsmen she had not realized until Thursday that a 1970 change in the state law prevented Cook from naming his treasurer after the filing deadline, as had been done in the past.

Appears Too Late To Avoid Subpoena

White House Makes Last-Minute Effort To Provide Tapes

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House today made a last-minute offer to provide some of the tapes requested by the House Judiciary Committee for its impeachment inquiry, but it appeared to come too late to head off a subpoena for all the tapes requested.

"It's a little late to make a deal," said Rep. Robert Kastenmeier, D-Wis., after committee counsel John Doar told of a last-minute telephone call from President Nixon's counsel. Doar said James St. Clair said he would be willing to give the committee within the next few days a number of specific conversations between President Nixon and his chief aides that the committee believes relate to the Watergate cover-up. However, St. Clair's offer did not cover a number of other tapes the committee asked for. As soon as Doar completed his discussion of St. Clair's phone call a resolution authorizing the committee to issue a subpoena for everything covered by the request was put before the committee. It appeared to have solid support of the Democratic majority. Doar said that in his talk with St. Clair the White House lawyer did not indicate whether Nixon would comply with a subpoena.

The confrontation that has been building since Feb. 25 when the request was made, became all but certain Wednesday after the White House said it would not decide until after April 22 what it would give to the committee.

The White House position, spelled out in a letter from James D. St. Clair, President Nixon's counsel, antagonized committee members of both parties and a wide segment of the House.

"I think it was offensive to the House," said Rep. Edward Hutchinson, R-Mich., the senior Republican on the committee.

After a party caucus Wednesday to consider the letter, the Republican members launched a last-ditch effort to persuade the White House to comply at least in part with the committee's request.

11 Kentuckians Among Winners In Merit Scholarship Contest

By The Associated Press
The National Merit Scholarship Corp. has announced 11 Kentucky high school seniors are among 1,200 Merit Scholarship winners.

The students were among 1,400 finalists in the annual competition, and will receive scholarships provided by various corporations, foundations, and other organizations.

The scholarships range from $1,000 to $5,000. Two other groups of winners are to be announced later.

Three Lexington area students were recipients. Kim R. Andrews, a senior at Bryan Station High School, James R. Flish, a senior at Lafayette High School and David T. Tao, a senior at Bates Creek High School, each won a Thomas J. Watson Memorial scholarship of the International Business Machines Corp.

Nancy L. Palmer of Bowling Green High School won a Chrysler Corporation fund scholarship. Patrick J. Murphy of Franklin County High School received a National Distillers scholarship.

Clarence R. Wyatt of Christian County High School won a Chrysler Motors Corp. Dealership scholarship.

Michael K. Meyer of Paducah Tilghman High School, is the recipient of a General Tire Foundation scholarship.

Mary C. Coy of Richmond, a Model Laboratory School senior, received a Foremost-McKesson scholarship.

Frank L. Clifton of Woodford County High School is the recipient of a Thomas J. Watson Memorial scholarship of the International Business Machines Corp.

Ellenore D. Marsh of Atherton High School, Louisville, is the recipient of an Anaconda Co. scholarship. Kenyon Stevenson of Louisville Ballard High won a Rohm and Haas Co. scholarship.

SARDINE SANDWICH GETTING SQUEEZED
NEW YORK (AP) — The sardine sandwich may become a thing of the past, says Audubon magazine, if overfishing persists.

Britain's east coast sardine fishery is dead already and schools of the fish off Maine, Canada and California are dwindling. There are only 17 sardine canneries in Maine now compared to 51 in 1950.

One remedy, says the magazine, would be to close spawning areas, since it is at spawning time that the fish congregate in largest numbers, but no government seems much interested.

The term sardine is applied to both pilchards and sea herrings.

Dispatching Of Mobile Homes To Tornado-Stricken Areas To Quicken

RICHMOND, Ky. (AP) — The process of dispatching mobile homes to those left homeless after the April 3 tornadoes is expected to speed up today.

Nearly 1,900 mobile homes have been stored by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) at the Bluegrass Strategic Storage Center near here for use in disasters in Kentucky and surrounding states, according to Robert Terrill, director for the center. But as of Wednesday, only five of the mobile homes had been moved—three to Brandenburg and two to Georgetown, Terrill said.

He said he expected as many as 100 mobile homes could be on their way to new destinations today. Virgil Kinnaird of Louisville, state HUD director, said the agency uses mobile homes for temporary housing as a last resort, because obtaining them is more time consuming.

HUD's Federal Disaster Assistance Administration (FDAA) has ordered the center to dispatch 11 mobile homes to Georgetown, 24 to Stamping Ground and 50 to Brandenburg.

When a disaster victim submits an application, Kinnaird said, "we determine from that whether an applicant is eligible."

HUD processed 654 applications from Louisville, Campbellsville, Brandenburg, Frankfort, Richmond and Georgetown through Tuesday night and determined that 391 were eligible.

But before the FDAA office in Washington can authorize the transfer of a mobile home from the Richmond storage center it must receive a recommendation from a HUD field representative.

The field representative's recommendation is based on the application plus an on-site assessment of whether the applicant's property is uninhabitable.

Before a mobile home can be sent to an area, a site must be available with sanitary, electrical and water hookups.

Sam Boazman, program officer of HUD's emergency preparedness staff in Washington, estimated 1,000 mobile homes would be dispatched and said "if orders are timely and sites are not holding up orders it will take about three weeks to get them delivered."

Gas System

The entire process will take about seven days, from the time the meter is read to the time the bills are sent. The shortened time between the day the meters are read and the bills are mailed will help make the statements easier to understand by consumers.

For example, Marshall explained, a bill received in May, during mild weather, would be for the month of March, when days of cold weather might have sent gas bills higher. But the consumer finds it hard to understand why a bill received in May could be for so much with the mild weather being experienced at that time. The new system will bring the billing periods closer to the day the statements are received.

The computer system will also provide a delinquent account list, and ten days later a cutoff list.

The system is trying to operate on a reduced budget, because no additional revenue can be brought in, since no new customers can be taken on by the system. The computer billing system, hopefully, will help cut operating costs.

Another new piece of equipment to be installed at the gas system office is a telemeter, a system to monitor the total flow of natural gas through the Texas Gas gate measurement station at Mayfield.

The Murray Natural Gas System will connect flow transmitters to the Texas Gas equipment to reveal the amount of gas being taken by Murray customers. This measurement will be transmitted over telephone lines to the central office and is received on a chart-type flow receiver.

This system will enable Murray to use all its allotment of gas, in order to make the most profit off gas sales, but at the same time will prevent costly overruns in gas usage. The penalty for using more gas than is allotted to a system can run as high as $10 per MSCF (Thousand Standard Cubic Feet) or over ten times as much as the regular rate.

Thus, on cold days, when gas usage is very great, the gas system can notify industrial users that they must lower their consumption of gas, in order to keep the system from going over its allotted amount of gas. On milder days, when consumption through the month has been lower, the system can notify industrial users to consume as much gas as they need, so that the entire quota for the Murray system can be used.

The gas system is presently conducting a program to correct all leaks in the gas system throughout the city, after hiring a firm specializing in such tasks to find and mark all leaks in the city.

"Not only is this a safety factor, but a conservation move as well," Marshall notes. The local system also has purchased a leak detection kit of its own to determine areas of waste.

Although Marshall feels that the conservation measures for the gas system are here to stay for a few more years, the Murray superintendent does not think that any exorbitant rate increases are facing Murray consumers.

Maybe that's some good news for a change.

Commonwealth's Atty. Pat Molloy said in his opening statement Monday that the prosecution had 40 witnesses to present; 25 had appeared by the end of Wednesday's court session.

Sloan and Wilmer Elvis Scott, 35, of Chattanooga, Tenn., are accused of murdering the Rev. John K. Barnes and his two children Oct. 1 at their home.

The two had escaped from a holdover cell at the Lexington Federal Building where they were awaiting a court appearance.

They were captured the next morning near Fort Thomas in Northern Kentucky, and were also accused of killing three men at a motel in Falmouth.

A fire broke out in the mattress in Scott's prison cell at the state penitentiary near Ed-dyville, and Scott died Feb. 8 of the burns he received.

Sloan faces five armed robbery charges, three murder charges, two housebreaking charges, and a rape charge all in connection with events during the escape.

A Fayette Circuit Court jury of eight women and six men heard testimony Wednesday from several policemen called to identify some of the 109 items so far introduced into evidence by the prosecution.

Among the exhibits are photographs taken in the home of the minister, the Rev. John K. Barnes, the day after the slayings.

Several Lexington Metro Police officers traced the history of exhibits from the time they were collected to the time the trial began. Many items had been sent to the Kentucky State Police laboratory in Frankfort for analysis.

Loans Available For Storm Victims

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Victims of last week's tornadoes are eligible for a variety of loans, usually at reduced interest rates.

One federal agency, the Small Business Administration, (SBA) is expecting about 40 additional loan officers, loan verifiers and attorneys in Louisville this week. Nine persons have already joined the 31 permanent members of the Louisville office, helping to expedite loans.

The SBA is offering loans for the difference between an owner's insurance coverage and the actual loss, at a five per cent interest rate.

A spokesman said the loans are available to all for the replacement or repair of damaged homes and businesses.

3. Card Of Thanks

Dear Panorama Friends,
It was very, very difficult for us to decide to leave Panorama for we loved every minute there. But after the great surprise you gave us with so many presents bringing the best of food, fellowship and fun, and so many more unable to come but represented with the beautiful gift of flatware, the lovely engraved friendship plaque, and a nice sum of money, it made us regret our decision to move, leaving friends like you who cared more than we ever dreamed of.

Age and the energy crisis were the only causes of our leaving. We take this opportunity to first, Thank Our Heavenly Father, for providing such a beautiful place ever showing his handiwork and then to each of you for every expression of love. You will always have a special place in our hearts.

Drop in at 512 Broad anytime. We'll be glad to see you. We love you all.
Sam and Mary Foy

ON THE behalf of the Brandenburg and Meade County residents we would like to thank all those who donated their time, money and merchandise to the tornado victims. We would also like to thank those who's thoughts and prayers were with us throughout this disaster period. God bless each one of you.

Recruiting Program Set For Reserve

An intensive recruiting campaign for the local Army Reserve has been announced by Lt. Larry Doyle of Murray.

The local reserve trains at the 100th division training center in Murray.

Men recruited will enter the reserve under the reserve enlistment program. Men between the ages of 17 and 26 are offered the opportunity to enlist in the Army Reserve for six years.

Training necessary will involve four months of active duty and one weekend per month for the remainder of the six years.

In addition, Lt. Doyle noted that there is a need for prior service personnel. Persons with prior service experience can start attending meetings with no additional training.

Doyle also added that there is a new program for women between the ages of 18 and 35, with two weeks training necessary.

Trap Shoot To Be Held By MSU Jaycees

The Murray State University Jaycees will sponsor a trap shoot Saturday, April 13, at the Calloway County Fairgrounds.

The shoot will begin at 11 a.m. and will continue until dark. Participants are urged to bring their own weapons, and prizes will be awarded. Sportsmen from Western Kentucky, West Tennessee and Southern Illinois are invited.

also to develop preventatives for the future.

"It's everybody's responsibility to put pressure on the community to show more interest in people in jail," Meredith continued, "but black people in particular need to show more unity."

Referring to that need for unity, he said it is important for blacks who have become educated and who have risen on the socioeconomic scale to retain their identity with the black masses.

A non-practicing attorney, Meredith urged a change in the judicial system "to the Magna Carta idea of trial by peers." He said whites as well as blacks are the victims of inequities in criminal matters.

"But the fact remains that a great percentage of suspects arrested in this country are blacks—and they are not being tried by their peers," declared Meredith. "And the situation is not likely to improve until the judicial system undergoes an overhaul."

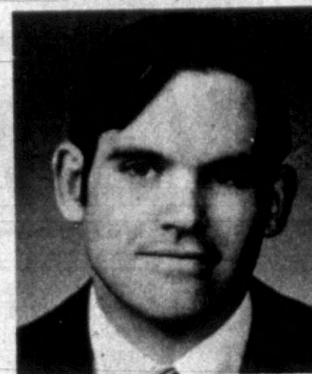

The 40-year-old Meredith, looking very much the same as he did in photographs when he burst into national prominence almost 12 years ago, referred to his days as a student at the University of Mississippi, where he became the first black to earn a degree.

"People for 10 to 12 years have tended to ask me if I was afraid there and how the students treated me. But nobody ever asks me what I learned—and that would certainly seem to be the point of it all," Meredith contended.

He puzzled about that. "Nobody ever asked me about what was there that was so good that the ruling class wanted to keep the non-ruling class out."

His lecture and visit to the campus was a highlight of the week of activities planned by the Black Advisory Council on the campus. Other events include films Thursday evening, a Greek show Friday evening, an open dance Saturday evening and a Gospel Jubilee Sunday afternoon.

Michael Lowery of Madisonville, a senior, is the chairman of Black Awareness Week. The council is being assisted by Walter Bumphus, adviser to minority students.

WAYNE PERRIN will be speaker at the sunrise service at the First Assembly of God, 16th and Glendale, Murray, on Sunday, April 14, at six a.m. Special singing will be by Bro. Perrin and his wife, Kathy, who operate the Christian Book Center here. Pastor Jerry Hendley extended an invitation to the public to attend.

The class of 1949 will hold a 25-year reunion at 3 p.m. in the dining room of the student union.

Scholarships to be awarded are 33 $500 alumni scholarships financed primarily by Century Club donations, along with special scholarship awards honoring several individuals.

A $500 award will also be presented to the faculty member recognized as the distinguished professor of the year.

A folk opera entitled "The Stubblefield Story," sponsored by the Calloway County Bicentennial Committee in cooperation with the College of Creative Expression at Murray State, will be presented at 9 p.m. in Lovett Auditorium following the alumni banquet.

Reservations for the alumni banquet are $3 per plate. Checks in payment for tickets should be forwarded before the April 19 deadline. Tickets may be picked up at the entrance on the evening of the banquet.

Reservations should be addressed to: Alumni Office, Administration Building, Murray State University, Murray, Ky., 42071.

'Pops' Concert Tuesday At MSU

Murray State University's Concert Band, under the direction of Roger Reichmuth, will present a "pops" concert on the porch of Ordway Hall on the campus at 3:45 p.m. Tuesday, April 16.

To feature highlights from "Hello Dolly" and selections from the musical "Man of La Mancha," "Lady of Spain," "Western Overture," "Suite of Old American Dances," and "Edifice," the program will also include several traditional marches.

Organized in 1972 to augment the Symphonic Band, the Wind Sinfonietta, the Marching Thoroughbred Band and Pep Bands, the Concert Band functions primarily as a laboratory organization.

Consisting of many non-music students as well as music majors, the band sight reads compositions for music conducting students, plays arrangements of orchestration students, and presents concerts as a by-product of classroom experiences. Reichmuth said many of the band members participate "simply for the enjoyment of continuing to play a musical instrument beyond their high school years."

He added that the concert will be held in the Recital Hall Annex of the Price Doyle Fine Arts Center in the event of inclement weather.
