SATURDAY, APRIL 28, 1888.

Personal.

(Please furnish the names of your visitors and absentees, for this column, and thereby confer a favor that will be appreciated.)

C. A. Brasher, of Creston, was in the city Friday.

Warren Lander, of Salubria, was in town this week.

M. A. Baras, of Garrettsburg, was in town this week.

J. D. Shaw, of Fairview, was in the city Thursday.

Mrs. E. A. Wilson, of Howell, spent Thursday in the city.

J. W. Hillman, of Trigg county, was in the city Thursday.

Mrs. Richard Caudle, of Newstead, visited friends in town Thursday.

Miss Ellen and Lide Garnett, of Caskey, were in the city Thursday.

Miss Rose, a prominent young farmer, of Hennestown, spent Thursday in the city.

Miss Rosalie Dagg, who for some time past has been teaching in Birmingham, has returned to her home in this city.

Misses Viola and Nellie Long, the two daughters of our jailer, left Friday to spend a few days with relatives in Creston.

Messrs. J. C. McKnight, P. Giles, W. M.
Sargent, Jno. Northington and Ed Jones, of South Christian, were in the city Friday.

Misses M. McKnight, of Christian county, were visiting Mrs. F. M. Rapsdale at the Shelby House, Wednesday—Clarksville Tobacco Leaf.

Miss Edith Rapsdale, of Hopkinsville, spent Wednesday in the city, the guest of her friend Miss George V. Wood, of Union street. Come again, Miss Edith, and bring Miss Bettie with you—Clarksville Tobacco Leaf.

Elkton Progress: Mr. Long, a Hopkinsville contractor, was in the city Tuesday. Dr.
Zaroor, was in Hopkinsville Saturday and Sunday attending to business. Mrs. S. G.
Rickman has returned from a visit to relatives in Hopkinsville. Dr. J. M.
Gull, Rev. Griffin and Dorris, attended the presbytery in Hopkinsville Saturday and Sunday last.

Marriage Licenses.

COLORED.

Moss Williams to Leavy Joiner.
Geo. Buckner to Rebecca Hughes.

On The Carpet.

Question there can be but one opinion, and that is that the best styles of all grades from the finest to the cheapest can be had only at Latham's. All goods bought direct from the factories and no interior qualities carried.

Warn't His Fault.

Jim Yancey is looking a little blue over the defeat of the ward bill. He did his duty faithfully and worked nobly for the measure, and has nothing with which to reproach himself. He is entitled to no little credit for his generous efforts. It is awfully provoking to think that victory was so near and yet so far.

Fatally Injured.

Anderson Stuart, who owned and operated a saw mill near Gravel Springs, was seriously and probably fatally injured Thursday, while attempting to roll a very heavy saw-log. The heavy timber becoming detached from its support rolled over him crushing his right foot and ankle and breaking his left leg.

Postoffice Inspector.

An United States postoffice inspector was in the city this week looking into the management of the office here. He informed a New Era reporter that he found everything in good business shape and that the complaints did not amount to much, in fact were not worth considering, as their like were made against nearly every postmaster in the service.
He left after a day's investigation for St.
Louis.

Shrimps and Buttercups.

One of the most artistic jobs of painting that has lately come under our observation is that recently done on Mr.
J. M. Giss's residence on Seventh street, by our local artists, Collins & Price.
The body of the house is in buttercups, the trimmings of shrimp pink and the window blinds terra cotta. The blending is harmonious, the workmanship first-class and the general appearance beautiful. The painters understand their business and have excellent taste and judgment.

Republican Convention.

The Republicans of the second congressional district met in convention at Nortonville, Wednesday and organized by electing Maj. Jno. W. Breathitt, of this city, permanent chairman. Geo. W.
Jolly and Ed Glass, colored, of this city, were elected delegates to the Republican national convention. W. O. Bradley, of Ky., was indorsed for vice president.
P. W. Gardner, of Hopkins county, and Wm. Cabbie, colored, of Henderson, were selected alternate delegates. Wm.
Bowling, of Madisonville, was chosen district elector and A. H. Anderson, of this city, assistant. The convention was one of the largest ever held by Repulicans in this district.

Purgative Pills prevent fevers and all kinds of sickness by removing all poi- sonous matter from the bowels. They operate briskly yet mildly without any pain. For sale by H. B. Garner.

Local News.

Asa D. Hicks, Fire Insurance.

Hopkinsville Limestone stable.

Col. E. G. Seabree, of Trenton, is improving slowly.

Go to A. G. Bush for boots and shoes and save money.

Tobacco plants throughout the county are looking healthy.

The prospects for an unusually large fruit crop are flattering.

All the officers of Henderson division were in the city this week.

Jno. Burnett is still playing sick at his father's residence on South Main street.

A large delegation from Hopkinsville will attend the Nashville races.

Cut-worms are still playing sick havoc with clover fields in south Christian.

Repainting buggies a specialty at Ducker's. Old stand, 8th and Virginia.

A brick pavement is being laid on Ninth street from the corner of Main to Webster.

Repairing of all kinds, cheaper than ever before on buggies, carriages etc., at Ducker's.

Lost.—Postoffice key; finder will please return to the New Era office and receive reward.

J. S. McCauley had a horse killed by a freight train on his farm just south of the city, Wednesday night.

Music.—Mrs. J. M. Dennis will give lessons in vocal and instrumental music at her residence on Sixth street.

Attention is directed to the calls for the state and county conventions, which may be found on the second page.

FOR SALE—Elegant two-story residence on Seventh—desirable location, good improvements.—R. P. Stevens.

The overhauling of the Bell building on Main street will soon be completed.
This will be a very desirable location.

Seventy cases have been filed in the clerk's office for the first term of the common pleas court which convenes Monday, May 7th.

Clarksville Tobacco Leaf: H. C. Bro-naugh, a popular and worthy young man of Christian county, is clerking for Philip Lieber.

The Methodist conference of the Russellville district will be held at Elkton, Thursday. A delegation from this city will be in attendance.

Corn thieves are getting in their work among the farmers around the city.
Several crops have been robbed recently by three midnight depredators.

FOR SALE—Five houses and lots in Hopkinsville and a farm of 150 acres in this county. Terms reasonable and easy.—M. HANNA.

Capt. Lewis marched the Latham Light Guards to the Sixth street Presbyterian church Thursday night to hear Rev. J. C. Caldwell, chaplain of the 3rd regiment.

Harvey Williamson and Grandison Greer were thrown from a buggy near Wood's mill, Wednesday evening, the latter striking a rock with considerable force received very painful bruises.

The Muhlenberg presbytery of this city to-day, and will be in session for several days. Many distinguished di-vines from a distance will be in attendance during the session.

Subscriptions to the Progressive Age —20 cents for balance of the year with back numbers—will be taken at this office and Mr. Thos. L. Metcalfe, of the "Age," is authorized to receive subscriptions to the New Era.

Madisonville Times: Miss Willie Wallace, one of the delegates from Hopkinsville to the W. O. T. U. at this place, was prominent in the work and made many friends among our people on account of her beauty, intellect and zeal.

We hope farmers will give the quotation a close and careful perusal this week. By comparing the prices paid on the Hopkinsville board with our rivals' prices, it may be readily seen that our tobacco market is second to none.

Herman Cox and Miss Bettie Faulkner, both of Bellevue, were married at the Phoenix Hotel Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Dr. Bingham, of the M. E. Church, officiating. The attendants were Mr. John Reed and Miss Sadie Cox.

The improvement that a trip across the Atlantic will create can be seen by sending over to Crumman at Clarksville for a jug of that Old Bourbon that was exported to Bremen in '82 and brought back in '85 thus having enjoyed a couple of voyages across the Atlantic.

Elkton Progress: The cards have again been shuffled in the graded school matter and the deal gives the contract to Forbes & Bro., Hopkinsville, at $10, 000, building to be located on the Sullivan gift, opposite the E. & G. depot.
Now let us hear the hammers.

Rev. J. M. Peay, of Russellville, formerly pastor of the Baptist church, of Pembroke, is quite ill and it is thought will not recover. The church at Pembroke raised a handsome sum which they donated to him to go on a visit to Texas, but his illness has prevented his doing so.

Dr. E. R. Cook gave a banquet at his beautiful residence, on Seventh street, Wednesday evening, in honor of his guests, Col. Lewis T. Buckner, of Louisville. The doctor's most intimate friends were present and passed an evening of pleasure that they will not forget.

SUBSCRIBERS who are in arrears on this paper will please take notice that they may pay at the rate of $2.00 per year and get a ticket for every dollar, provided they will pay to date and for another in advance. This offer is open until the 1st of May. Let everybody remember and act accordingly.

Elkton Progress: The Todd county Republicans met in the court house in this city Saturday and appointed delegates to the Chicago convention, Judge Petrie being endorsed as a district delegate to the national convention.
Resolutions were passed landing the Republican party for its past record.
In the language of Chairman Edwards the entire gathering was strictly "undemocratic."

Mr. W. T. Hanbery, the young man who was recently shot and killed in a personal difficulty at Australia Landing, Miss., was a nephew of Mr. Tom Han-bery, of this county, and a cousin of Max and Gordon. He was formerly a resident of this city but left in 1882.
Those who knew him speak of him in the highest terms. The particulars of the unfortunate affair are not known.

The latest railroad information we have is to the effect that the managers of the O. V. have made arrangements with the Henderson Bridge Company for transportation across its bridge, and that the O. V. is being extended to Evansville with all possible speed. We also learn that as soon as work is completed on that end the work will be extended south from Princeton—Cadiz Telephone. The New Era hopes the Telephone's information is reliable, but it cannot believe it is.

Mrs. Bettie Morris, wife of E. F. Morris, died at the residence of her husband in this city Friday morning. She had been an invalid for many months before death relieved her. She was a member of one of the best families in the county and was esteemed and loved by all who came in contact with her. She was a consistent member of the Ninth-street Presbyterian church. Her husband and four children have the sympathy of many friends. The remains will be taken to Newstead this morning for interment.

Madisonville Times: We hear of great complaints in regard to the ravages of the crawfish in this county. Sam Webb says that they have got to catching his young chickens by reaching out of their holes, taking them by the legs and going under ground with them. A large one caught Will Rigbins' calf by the nose the other morning and held on until it was pulled off by main force.
There is danger that they will get to catching the children. It will be well enough to be on the watch for these voracious creatures.

Madisonville Times: Last Monday Wyatt Brian, of this place, met with a bad and painful accident. He and G.
R. Lyon have recently started a sawmill near Lyon's store. While at work on Monday morning Mr. Brian by some means missed his footing and fell backward, falling down upon an iron "dog." The piece of iron stuck into him the distance of several inches, making a fearful wound. Physicians were summoned and did all they could to relieve the sufferer. While it is thought he will recover, yet it will be some time before he can be out and he will be compelled to suffer much. At present he is doing as well as could be expected.

WHERE ART THOU, O ROMEO!

A Work-House Prisoner Escapes—Others Refuse to Work.

The first attempt to work the county and city prisoners was not a gigantic success. Thursday morning Mr. Taylor Brown, the recently appointed manager of the work-house, started with three prisoners from the county jail and one from the city lock-up to the quarry on the Greenville road. No sooner had Dud McCarty, who was confined in the work-house, stepped outside the portals than he made a break for liberty. Being fleet of foot in a few minutes all that was left to tell of his unceremonious departure was a cloud of dust and a distressed manager. The manager continued on his way with the remaining three, and reached the place of work.
Two of the three, Ed Vincent and Grundy Dulin, very coolly informed Manager Brown that such work as quarrying rock was beneath the dignity of Kentucky gentlemen; that they preferred to bask in the warm rays of a spring sun and listen to the warbling of the little birds as they warbled forth their notes of joy, to the unpleasant, if decidedly novel business of bustling rock.
And not a bust would they do.

The men claim that they do not come under the provisions of the order, as their conviction was before the court made the decree. Judge Winfree holds that they can be forced to work out their fines, but not the jail sentence unless it is so specified in the conviction.

Officers are on the trail of the escaped prisoner. The law provides that when a prisoner escapes and is caught and returned, his sentence shall be increased ten-fold. So when Mr. McCarty is caught he will have to work just ten times as long as he would have had he not attempted to get away. Judge Winfree will order the two prisoners to work who refused on Thursday morning, and if they still refuse then they will be punished according to the provisions of the law.

Marion Harland's Opinion of Baking Powders.

Our readers have doubtless noticed the numerous discussions by the scientists and hygienists as to the relative value of the various baking powders.
A careful sifting of the evidence leaves no doubt as to the superiority of the Royal Baking Powder in purity, wholesomeness and strength, from a scientific standpoint. An opinion, however, that will weigh heavier than any other with our practical house-keepers, is that given by Marion Harland, the best known and most popular of American writers upon matters pertaining to the science of domestic economy, of housekeeping, and home cooking. In a recent letter to the Philadelphia Ladies Home Journal, this writer says:

"I regard the Royal Baking Powder as the best manufactured and in the market, so far as I have any experience in the use of such compounds. Since the introduction of it into my kitchen, three years ago, I have used no other making biscuits, cakes, etc., and have entirely discarded for such purposes the homemade combination of one-third acid, two-thirds cream of tartar.

"Every box has been in perfect condition when it came into my hands, and the contents have given complete satisfaction. It is an act of simple justice, and also a pleasure, to recommend it unqualifiedly to American housewives.

MARION HARLAND.
"Brooklyn, N. Y., Nov. 20, 1887."
