Legislative Log-Jam Is Threat To Congress And Night Sessions Will Be Needed To Pass Bills

Five Regular Supply Bills Are Tied Up By Various Disputes

WASHINGTON—Confronted by a log-jam Thursday of the city's business, the Senate on Friday morning took up a consideration of Senate Bills Nos. 1501, 1502, 1503, 1504 and 1505, the regular supply bills. The measures have been referred to the Senate Committee on Appropriations and to the Senate Committee on Rules and Administration, and the appropriations bill is a major piece of legislation for the city this session.

NEW TAX IS PROPOSED

Doesn't Tax the Ask the Tax Collector

Washington — The Department of Revenue is seeking to impose higher income taxes than those in the pending bill without penalizing those persons who have benefited from the tax cut. The new bill is aimed at a special income level from which the tax cut is not to be exempt.

The plan called "opportunity tax" would be imposed on all persons who have benefited from the tax cut. The bill approved last week by the House Ways and Means Committee is expected to be concurred in by the Senate, and the Senate will vote on it.

The proposal is aimed at a special income level from which the tax cut is not to be exempt. The plan will call for a special income level from which the tax cut is not to be exempt.
