Several Items To Be Discussed By Council

Members of the Murray Common Council will be faced with a rather lengthy agenda including eleven items at the regular meeting of the city governing body at 7:30 p.m. at City Hall Thursday.

Major items listed on the agenda include:

—Discussion on a proposed rate increase for the Murray Water & Sewer System;

—The second reading of an amendment to the electrical inspection ordinance;

—The first reading of an ordinance designed to control the operation of motorcycles within the city; and;

—Discussion on the employment of a dog warden for the city, the employment of a special investigator for the police department and the employment of four firemen;

Also scheduled for the meeting are three promotions in the fire department and consideration of advertising for bids on a utility vehicle for the sanitation department.

Owensboro Suit Challenges State's Sunday Closing Law

OWENSBORO, Ky. (AP) — Owensboro Mayor Waitman Taylor says he will present to the City Commission Friday a proposal that the state Sunday-closing law be amended to outlaw only retail sales on Sunday in Owensboro.

Taylor said his proposal will be an attempt to clarify the controversy surrounding the city's recent stepped-up enforcement of the law.

"I'm going to make an attempt to define this blue law," he said. "It's almost impossible to administer. By this Friday we will know clearly where we stand on this. It should be an interesting Friday."

State law allows cities some leeway in their application of the closing law.

Meanwhile, John Martin, manager of the Big K department store, one of the targets of the city's enforcement of the Sunday-closing law, distributed handbills downtown and in the store Tuesday, calling for the resignation of Taylor and city Police Chief Vernie Bidwell.

The handbill noted, among other things, that Taylor is an official at General Electric in Owensboro, and charged that GE is in violation of the Sunday-closing law by starting a work shift at 11 p.m. Sunday nights.

Taylor said he had "no reaction whatsoever" to the handbill, adding: "In this job you find a lot of people are critical of you."

Three Big K employees were arrested two Sundays ago on charges of violating the Sunday-closing law but were acquitted after the city police judge ruled the city couldn't enforce the law against Big K only. The next Sunday, the city conducted raids at seven locations, arresting about 35 persons, including several at Big K.

Meanwhile, Big K has filed suit asking Daviess Circuit Court to declare the Sunday-closing law unconstitutional. The suit also seeks a total of $1 million damages against the city commissioners, Taylor, Bidwell and the Downtown Merchants Association, including $500,000 actual and $500,000 punitive damages in connection with the first arrests.

BLOOD PRESSURE CHECK—Ella Murray Kee, R. N., checks the blood pressure of Desiree McGehee while others wait in line at the Seventh-Day Adventist Community Service Van. The van was on display at the Calloway County Courthouse and is equipped for service in disaster areas. It has a complete kitchen, its own electrical and water supply and is stocked with food, clothing and bedding to be distributed in disaster areas.

The van, which is normally parked at the office of the Kentucky-Tennessee Conference of Seventh-Day Adventists in Madison, Tenn., is available for emergency use in the Calloway County area if needed, a spokesman said.

White House Vows Not To Turn Over Any More Tapes

WASHINGTON (AP) — Saying "the story is out," the White House has said it will turn over no more Watergate tapes to Congress or the courts even if it means a constitutional confrontation.

White House lawyer James D. St. Clair said Tuesday that President Nixon had reviewed Watergate special prosecutor Leon Jaworski's subpoena for 64 tapes and ordered his attorneys to fight the demand to the Supreme Court if necessary.

St. Clair declined to say what Nixon would do if the Supreme Court should rule against him, saying "it is rhetorical and hypothetical and I don't think we will get to that point."

A spokesman for Jaworski said, "We plan to continue with our litigation."

St. Clair also said Nixon would give no more tapes to the House Judiciary Committee for its impeachment inquiry. The committee has requested tapes of about 75 Watergate-related conversations, besides the 42 for which it was given White House-edited transcripts instead of the tapes.

Asked what Nixon would do if the committee issues another subpoena demanding tapes, St. Clair said he would "respectfully decline to comply."

If the committee persisted, St. Clair said, "Then, we're going to have a confrontation because the President is firm in his resolve that he already has told the facts."

The last tapes confrontation came last fall when Nixon ordered then-Special Prosecutor Archibald Cox fired rather than give him tapes subpoenaed for the Watergate grand jury.

St. Clair said, "Nixon gave no more tapes rather than risk a Supreme Court test. Since then he has given the prosecutor's office other tapes for a total of 19."

By a party-line 20-18 vote the committee declared Nixon guilty of non-compliance with its subpoena for the 42 tapes and many members believe that in itself could be an impeachable offense. But St. Clair said he did not think failure to supply the tapes was an impeachable offense.

Neither Chairman Peter W. Rodino Jr., D-N.J., nor ranking Republican member Edward Hutchinson of Michigan had

Murrayan To Serve For Year

Mitchell K. Ward, of Murray, a senior at Murray State University, will serve during the 1974-75 school year as president of the newly-chartered chapter of Pi Sigma Alpha national honorary political science society on the campus.

He was installed recently, along with other new officers of the Zeta Phi chapter, during charter night ceremonies.

Also installed were: Robert L. Devers, Paducah Route 3 senior, as vice-president; Scott Tyler, Eddyville Route 1 senior, as secretary; and John Borsenberger, Fulton junior, treasurer.

They are among 27 charter members in the chapter, including 21 students, five faculty members and Dr. Constantine W. Curris, university president, who is a former president of the Pi Sigma Alpha chapter of the University of Kentucky.

Curris was the banquet speaker and installing officer for the charter night program. Dr. Joe Rose, associate professor of political science, will serve as the chapter adviser for next year.

Blindness Doesn't Stop Young Bob Arnold From Seeking Goal

By MIKE BRANDON
Ledger & Times Staff Writer
Bob Arnold is like any other person; he has goals set and one of them is to become the President of the Kentucky Young Democrats.

He works for that goal by spending many long hours traveling throughout the state, in an attempt to familiarize himself with other Young Democrats.

But Bob Arnold is somewhat different; he has an inconvenience.

For 26-year-old Bob Arnold of Frankfort, is blind. He has been that way for the past five years. "Some people might call it a handicap but I call being blind an inconvenience," Arnold said. "Everyone has an inconvenience, whether it be dandruff or athlete's feet. It's only a handicap when it rules you."

Arnold, who is spending this week campaigning in the First District, saw perfectly until the age of six.

By the time he was 13, his vision was reduced to a blur that could distinguish only light and dark.

And at the age of 21, he became totally blind.

But when he was in high school, he started as an offensive guard on the varsity football team at Franklin County.

"The coach told me to just knock down whatever was in front of me," Arnold said.

SEEKING OFFICE—Bob Arnold is seeking the office of the presidency of the Kentucky Young Democrats. Arnold, 26-years old, has been totally blind for the past five years. He is spending the entire week campaigning in the First District. (Staff Photo by Mike Brandon)

"If I knocked down one of my own men it was all right because the coach said they weren't supposed to be there anyway."

Arnold received a degree in political science and special education from the University of Kentucky where upon graduation, he became the Director of the Kentucky Office of Youth Affairs.

He resigned that position April 15 to devote fulltime effort to his campaigning.

Arnold hopes to have enough delegate support to win the presidency of the Young Democrats.

The convention will be held June 6, 7 and 8 in Owensboro. There are approximately 70 Young Democrat clubs in Kentucky. Each club will receive one vote for each 1,000 persons in voting in the Democratic ticket in the 1971 gubernatorial election.

In addition, for each five members of the local club, a delegate vote will be added. Arnold has been a member of the Young Democrats since 1966.

Three years ago in the gubernatorial election, he was the College Coordinator for the Ford-Carroll ticket.

In 1972, he received the Outstanding Campaigner Award for his direction of the college campaign in the gubernatorial election.

"I plan to be a fulltime president, something the Kentucky Young Democrats have never had before," Arnold said.

"Because of the awareness of young people, there is more interest in getting involved now because of Watergate, rather than getting out because of Watergate."

In addition to visiting Calloway County today, Arnold also planned stops in Marshall, Graves, Crittenden and Lyon Counties.

An inconvenience isn't going to stop Bob Arnold from reaching his goal. And though he can't see it, he knows it's there.

Visitors To Area Spend $58 Million Last Year

The ten counties around Kentucky Lake, Land Between the Lakes and Lake Barkley were enriched by almost $58 million spent by visitors to the area during 1973, according to a report made public today by Kentucky's Western Waterland, Inc., (KWW).

KWW executive director Hank Lindsey noted that the 1973 figure reflects an 11 per cent increase in tourist spending last year over 1972. The report was prepared for the tourism spending promotion and development association by Dr. Lewis Copeland of the University of Tennessee.

Lindsey said that the report on visitor spending in the lakes area counties points out the impact of the tourism dollar on the economy of the entire area.

"This year's study tends to confirm what we have contended for some time," Lindsey noted, "that the tourism industry is becoming a more and more important part of the economy of Western Kentucky."

The Copeland Report on tourist spending in the KWW region shows that spending by out-of-state visitors increased to $41 million in 1973, or up $4 million from the previous year.

"The increase of more than 11 per cent in tourist spending in the Kentucky Western Waterland area keeps us growing at a steady rate," Lindsey added. The increase in 1972 had been $3.4 million over 1971.

The report noted that personal income to people in the Kentucky Western Waterland area, as a direct result of tourism, comes to $14.5 million and cites the fact that almost 20 million dollars go for goods and services. Both figures are up considerably over the previous year. More than $4.6 million tourist go into the state treasury in the form of taxes while local and federal governments each collected $1.3 million in taxes from tourists.

Commenting on the 1973 report, Lindsey said, "The Copeland study of the economic impact of tourism in Western Kentucky is one of the best information forms to work with in assessing past promotional programs and services."

"We are pleased with the successful year we in Western Kentucky had in the field of tourism during 1972," Lindsey added, "and we are optimistic that 1974 will show comparable increases in tourism in the area."

"Many of us involved in tourism in the lakes feel the current gasoline situation will work to our advantage. We feel people will probably be taking shorter trips, and the length of stay will increase somewhat. Our geographical location will mean much to the tourism picture this season. Nearby markets such as St. Louis, Memphis, Louisville, Lexington, and Chicago will help make this summer one of

UK Trustees Approve Budget For School Of $151.6 Million

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — The University of Kentucky Board of Trustees has approved a record operating budget of $151.6 million for fiscal 1974-75, described by President Otis Singletary as being essentially a continuation budget.

Singletary said it "provides no significant dollars for new programs (or) expansion or enrichment (of existing ones)."

The new budget is about $10.5 million above last year's, and Singletary said the majority of the new funds were earmarked for faculty and staff salary increases of about 5.5 per cent along with other employee benefits, and increased fixed costs such as utilities and fighting inflation.

While costs have increased, student fees have not been raised, Singletary pointed out. Student fees were increased during the 1972-73 biennium.

The university will receive $74,395,600 from the state in fiscal 1974-75 and a total of $8,271,200 in federal funds. Student fees account for $15,643,300. Gifts and grants total $4,562,500.

In other action, the trustees awarded the university's employee group life insurance package contract to Commonwealth Life Insurance Co. of Louisville.

The contract had been the subject of a state attorney general's opinion after Lexington financier Garvis Kincaid, a member of the trustees, said he owned stock in the firm. Kincaid said Tuesday, however, he had sold the stock.

The attorney general had advised that Kincaid could be subject to a suit under conflict-of-interest statutes if the trustees awarded a contract to a firm in which he held an interest.

Murray Craftsmen To Exhibit At The Berea Craft Fair Next Week

Seven craftsmen from Murray will be among the nearly 100 exhibitors this year at the annual Kentucky Guild of Artists and Craftsmen Fair, May 16-19, at Indian Fort Theater near Berea.

Those from Murray include Clara Eagle (jewelry), Kent Forrester (wooden toys), Satian Lekrsariari (ceramics), Jim Phillips (ceramics), W.E. Watson (Cabinet making), Emily Wolfson (weaving), and Harry Furches (jewelry).

Others at the fair will include Kentucky's finest painters, woodworkers, sculptors, jewelers, weavers, spinners, and potters. Crafts on display will include candles, corn shuck dolls, quilts, leather, stuffed toys, chairs, furniture, baskets, toys, brooms, and baskets. Artists will show paintings, hand prints, and batiks.

All are members of the Kentucky Guild of Artists and Craftsmen, the statewide organization which sponsors the Fair and maintains the excellence and quality of all works displayed and sold, a spokesman said.

In addition to over 60 booths of arts and crafts, the Fair will feature demonstrations of spinning, basketry, weaving, and other craft skills. A collection of the Guild's best efforts will be housed in a Member's Exhibit area.

The Berea College Puppetry Caravan and singers of Kentucky folk music will be entertaining on the grounds.

Admission will be $1.50 for adults; 50 cents for children under 12, and includes all entertainment. Hours are 12-9 Thursday, 10-9 Friday and Saturday, and 10-6 Sunday. Special rates are available for adult groups.

Berea, home of Berea College and Churchill Weavers, is 40 miles south of Lexington; signs mark the way to the Fair.

The Kentucky Guild also maintains its offices in Berea, and coordinates programs for its nearly 500 members. A major Guild project is the Guild Gallery, a shop for member's work located at 811 Euclid Avenue, Lexington.

The Guild is a non-profit, membership organization open to all Kentuckians. For information write to Garry Barker, Director, Kentucky Guild of Artists and Craftsmen, Box 291, Berea, Kentucky 40403, or phone 606-986-3192.

LUNCHBOX SPECIAL Cheese and Green Pepper Sandwiches

Peanut Crunchies Beverage

PEANUT CRUNCHIES

Double peanut treat!

1 cup unsifted flour

1 teaspoon baking powder

1-3rd cup butter or margarine

1-3rd cup granulated sugar

1-3rd cup packed light brown sugar

1/4 cup creamy peanut butter

1 egg, separated

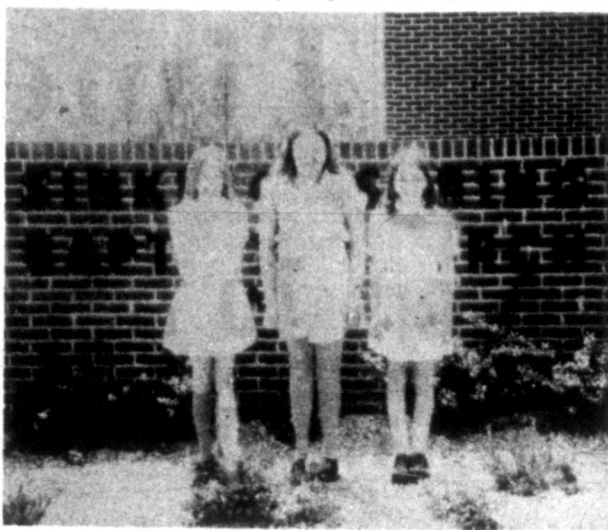

1/2 teaspoon vanilla

1/4 cup chopped (medium-fine) cocktail peanuts

12 candied cherries, halved

Thoroughly stir together the flour and baking powder.

Cream butter and sugars; beat in peanut butter, egg yolk and vanilla until combined. Gradually stir in flour mixture until blended. Shape into balls, using 1 level tablespoon for each. Dip each ball into egg white beaten until frothy, then in chopped peanuts. Place, 2 inches apart, on greased cookie sheets. Make a deep indentation in top of each ball; place a cherry half in each indentation. Bake in a preheated 350-degree oven about 12 minutes. Remove to wire racks to cool. Makes 2 dozen.

Debbie Johnson Is Honored At Bridal Shower Recently

Another delightful courtesy extended to Miss Debbie Johnson, bride-elect of Jimmy Brandon, was the lovely bridal shower given at the Community Room of the Murray Federal Savings and Loan Association.

Hostesses for the special occasion were Mesdames Mason Billington, Coffield Vance, Hubert Brandon, Bobby Horning, J. W. Wilham, Judy Adams, and John Compton.

Miss Cindy Johnson, sister of the bride-elect, greeted the guests as they arrived by asking them to sign the guest register. Games were played. Refreshments were served from a table overlaid with a yellow cloth centered with an arrangement of spring flowers.

The hostesses presented the honoree with a corsage of white daisies and roses. They also presented Mrs. Bobby Johnson, mother of the honoree, and Mrs. Hubert Brandon, mother-in-law to be of the honoree, with corsages of white daisies.

For the special occasion the honoree chose to wear a long yellow dress. The theme of yellow was used in the decorations throughout the room.

High Officers At Quota Club Meet

The Quota Club of Murray met recently at the Triangle Inn for the annual visitation of the Governor of the 23rd District, Grace Mulhern, Memphis, Tenn.

Also in attendance was the Lt. Governor, Iris Magoffin, Whitehaven, Tenn.

Reports by chairmen of the various committees were given to the Governor. Both the Governor and the Lt. Governor urged members to attend the 1974 International Convention in St. Louis, July 14-17, and the District Conference in October in West Memphis, Arkansas.

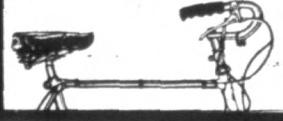

TOMMY PERSALL of City Florist, Humboldt, Tenn., formerly of Murray, took first place in the recent America Cup Flower Design Competition held at Paris Landing, Tenn., by District 13-D of Florists Transworld Delivery (FTD). Mr. Persall will next compete in FTD Region 13 semi-final contest to be held in Lake Charles, La., June 10-12 in conjunction with the Louisiana State Florist Convention. Regional winners will earn the right to the finals in Dallas, Texas where the champion will earn the right to represent the U.S. at the Interflora World Cup Flower Design Competition in Miami, Florida this August. Persall is the son of Lt. Col (Retired) and Mrs. Jack G. Persall of Murray. He is a 1971 graduate of Murray State University where he was a member of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia Fraternity, the MSU Marching Thoroughbreds Band, and sang in the MSU Choir for 4 years. Prior to moving to Humboldt he was associated with Juanita's Flowers, Inc., in Murray.

7TH DAY ADVENTISTS MORE RESISTANT TO CANCER?

In California, about 100,000 Seventh-Day Adventists will be studied by a Loma Linda University School of Health research team in an attempt to learn why their cancer death rate is 50 per cent less than other residents of the state. Medical Lab reported recently.

"It is well-known that Adventists abstain from cigarette smoking and drinking of alcoholic beverages," said Jan W. Kuzma, Ph.D., project investigator. "But the low cancer death rates for Adventists occur as well for types of cancer unrelated to smoking or drinking."

A large proportion of health-conscious Adventists also refrain from eating meat and spices, drinking coffee or tea, while many use whole grains and other unrefined foods in their diets.

Heat French bread without a foil covering if you want the bread to be crusty.

Veal, Calf or Beef?

The correct term, which consumers sometimes find confusing, is based upon the age of the dairy or beef animal from which the meat comes. Age also has a distinct influence on taste and tenderness characteristics of the meat, and its price. Veal is meat from milk-fed animals less than three months old, while calf is from animals past the veal stage, but younger than beef. Beef, which accounts for the really big volume, is the meat from animals usually marketed at 1 1/2 to 2 years old.

Don't monkey around with chimps

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I hope you won't laugh when you read this because I am sincere. I love all animals, but I am especially fascinated by chimpanzees. I go to the zoo and watch them for hours.

I would like to own a chimp as a pet, but don't know where to buy one. How much would a young chimp cost? Are they hard to care for? What do they eat? Would I need a heated cage to keep one in Ohio?

Any information you can give me on chimps would be greatly appreciated.

LOVES CHIMPS
DEAR LOVES: According to John Fletcher, head zoologist at the Como Park Zoo in St. Paul, Minn., chimps are presently in very short supply. When available for circuses, zoos or behavior research, a young chimp costs between $500 and $1,000.

Dr. Fletcher informs me that a single chimp would not make a very good house pet, because when a chimp reaches sexual maturity he becomes frustrated, ill-tempered and unpredictable. So the word from here is, don't monkey around with chimps or you'll have nothing but problems.

DEAR ABBY: Billy and I have been married a year. I am 20 and Billy is 22. We get along fine. The problem is Billy's mother, who lives near us. Billy gave her a key to our house so she can get in in case of an emergency or so if we go out of town, she can come in and water our plants. We have never had an emergency and we don't go out of town that much.

Several times after we've gone to bed his mother has walked right into our bedroom without even knocking. She says she got "lonesome" or she had something to tell us. What she had to tell us could have waited until the next day.

I didn't expect our honeymoon to last forever but I can assure you, it has ended because all I have on my mind is worrying that his mother will come walking in on us. I have told Billy to ask his mother for our housekey, but he says he doesn't want to hurt her feelings. I don't want to ask her for it because I don't want her mad at me. Can you help me?

FRAIDY CAT
DEAR CAT: Don't be afraid. You are entitled to your privacy, so if Billy refuses to ask his mother for the key, you ask her. Tell her if you leave town you'll give her the key. And if you can't do that, get a bolt and chain for your bedroom door.

DEAR ABBY: Magazine rippers is (or is it "are?") my problem. I operate a beauty salon and keep up-to-date magazines for my patrons. It takes only one or two magazine rippers to ruin the magazines for everyone else.

Not only do they tear a small piece out of one page, they rip out entire articles and consequently the whole magazine falls apart!

I have put up signs asking people to please leave the magazines whole. Or if there's something they can't live without, all they have to do is buy one at the store, or ask me to save it for them, and I will.

I'm sure many businesses have this problem. I just hope the offenders will read this—and maybe you can add something to help us out.

DISTRESSED IN WASHINGTON
DEAR DISTRESSED: If you've posted signs you've done all you can do, but as one who has been the frustrated victim of magazine rippers, may I add my plea: PLEASE, either copy the recipe you want or buy another magazine (if it's still available). If it isn't, ask the manager to please save it for you. [P.S. You could also clip this and post it where it will be seen. Good luck.]

Problems? You'll feel better if you get it off your chest. For a personal reply, write to ABBY: Box No. 69700, L.A., Calif. 90069. Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope, please.

Much Pride Remains In Normal School Building

Guest Editorial

House of Murray Must Stand

By L. J. Hortin

With the demise of the old Training School Building and Cutchin Stadium comes the staggering thought: What about the other old structures of Murray State? Will the "Old Normal School Building"—now known as Wrather Hall—give way to concrete and steel of a new day?

University officials have given assurances that no such action is contemplated, for they agree with the 22,000 alumni and the citizens of Murray and Calloway County that THE "HOUSE OF MURRAY" MUST STAND....

On May 31, 1922, the sum of $117,000 contributed by 1352 citizens and residents of Calloway County was tendered to the State Normal School Commission "as a gift to the State of Kentucky for the location and establishment of a State Normal at Murray, Kentucky, under the provisions of the Act of the General Assembly of 1922." Of this amount, $100,000 was to be used for the construction of the "Normal School Building," and $17,000 was for the real estate which was to become the original campus and site for the new building.

The Murray and Calloway citizenry, led by the founder of the new "Normal School," Rainey T. Wells, "dug down deep in their pockets" to raise the money which made Murray State possible. Many gave money by installments as small as $5 or less. The average contribution was $82.10. The largest gift was $2,500.

On September 1, 1922, in Judge E. C. O'Rear's office the State Normal School Commission chose Murray as the site of the Normal School for the Western part of the state.

On September 24, 1923, Murray State Normal School opened its doors to 202 students with Dr. John Wesley Carr as president. The new "Normal Building" had not been completed and the new college opened its doors in the Murray High School Building.

A bronze plaque in Wrather Hall lists the members of the Normal School Commission and the date of its construction—1924: THIS BUILDING ERECTED BY THE CITIZENS OF CALLOWAY COUNTY UNDER SUPERVISION OF THE NORMAL SCHOOL COMMISSION...Edward C. O'Rear, Chmn., Earl W. Senff, Sec'y, Thos A. Combs, Alex Barrett, W. S. Wallen, J. L. Harman, A. Peter, S. Goodpaster, Forbes MFG Co. Joseph & Joseph Architects.

President John W. Carr wrote in his diary on July 25, 1924: "Held first Assembly in Normal Auditorium: address by Mr. Wells." On August 29, 1924, Dr. Carr noted in his diary: "Summer school closed. Moved office to the new Normal School Building. (The first year the Normal School was operated in the High School Building)."

On Sept. 22 (Mon.) 1924, Dr. Carr wrote: "Dedication of Normal School Building. Barrett, Colvin, Harman, etc. present. Begin Fall semester. The Normal School at this time opened on its own campus."

Through the years this building has been the heart and home of Murray State. Daily chapel sessions, pep rallies, memorial services, Christmas programs, plays by Sock and Buskin, debates, speeches and conventions—all were held in the Old Chapel. In this building were housed classrooms, The College News, laboratories, registrar's office, and administrative staff. All presidents except Dr. Harry M. Sparks and Dr. Constantine Curris have had their offices in Wrather Hall.

The Shield of the "House of Murray" was first engraved on each side of the new building. The official emblem of Murray State Normal School was designed from the coat-of-arms of the old Scottish family of Murray. There are several versions of this shield on the campus, but the first one on a building was on Wrather Hall. This shield has the three stars and an open book.

Murray State University, of course, takes its name from the City of Murray, which was named for the Hon. John L. Murray, who served in Congress 1837-1839. Born in Wadesboro, Calloway County, 1806; Congressman Murray died in February, 1842, and was buried on his home place at Wadesboro. If there was ever any marker for his grave, it has become lost.

But the name of Murray lives on in Calloway County and on the campus. The Shield, according to Dr. Carr, was suggested by a member of the Normal School Commission, Alex G. Barrett, as the insignia of the new institution. "The Murray Shield—three gold stars on a blue field with a double gold border—will be the only bit of historic ornament on the new building...."

"From earliest times three silver stars or mullets upon a field of blue have been incorporated in the insignia of almost all Murray families," according to William R. Murray, Fresno, California.

There have been several variations mentioned as to the meaning of the three stars. The News-Democrat of Paducah on Jan. 13, 1924, reported: "The three stars on the Shield have been taken by the school to typify hope, endeavor, and inspiration, not only to the students of today but to those who will come after them."

In some later versions, the word "aim" is used instead of "hope" and the word "achievement" has been designated instead of "inspiration." Whether these are reportorial errors or they represent official changes is not known.

Dr. Carr on August 5, 1931, wrote of his "discovery" of the original Murray Shield in Westminster Abbey. I came upon a familiar symbol, a shield carved in stone bearing three stars. I paused in glad surprise. I had seen that shield ten thousand times. I could not be mistaken: IT WAS THE MURRAY SHIELD....I was standing before the monument of William Murray and gazing at the heraldic shield of the Earl of Mansfield. William Murray was Lord Chief Justice and Earl of Mansfield. He was born at Scone, Scotland, March 2, 1704 and died at Kenwood March 20, 1793.

Presumably, Congressman Murray of Calloway County, for whom the city of Murray and the college were named, was descendent of the old "Moray" Scottish Clan. This clan was doubtless the origin of the famed William Murray immortalized in Westminster Abbey.

Dr. Carr concluded his letter to the writer of this article with this comment: "But as I lingered, my thought went out to another Murray—a new Murray across the seas—A Murray which has the same shield carved on its walls and wrought in its windows and written on the tablets of the hearts of its students. The old Murray stands amid the shadows of the illustrious dead; the new Murray basks in the sunlight of the living."

So let us, the living, take these steps to "cherish the traditions" of the House of Murray—the shrine of Murray State and the heart of Jackson Purchase:

1. Renovate, repair, and refurbish Wrather Hall, the Old Normal School Building. Restore the old chapel to its former grandeur as a meeting place for visitors, high school students and Alumni as they come back to stroll across the campus.

2. Make it a repository, museum, or a Heritage Hall for documents, letters, mementoes, photographs, especially of the first President, Dr. Carr, and the founder and second President, Dr. Wells, could be placed on periodic exhibit at special occasions such as Homecoming or reunions.

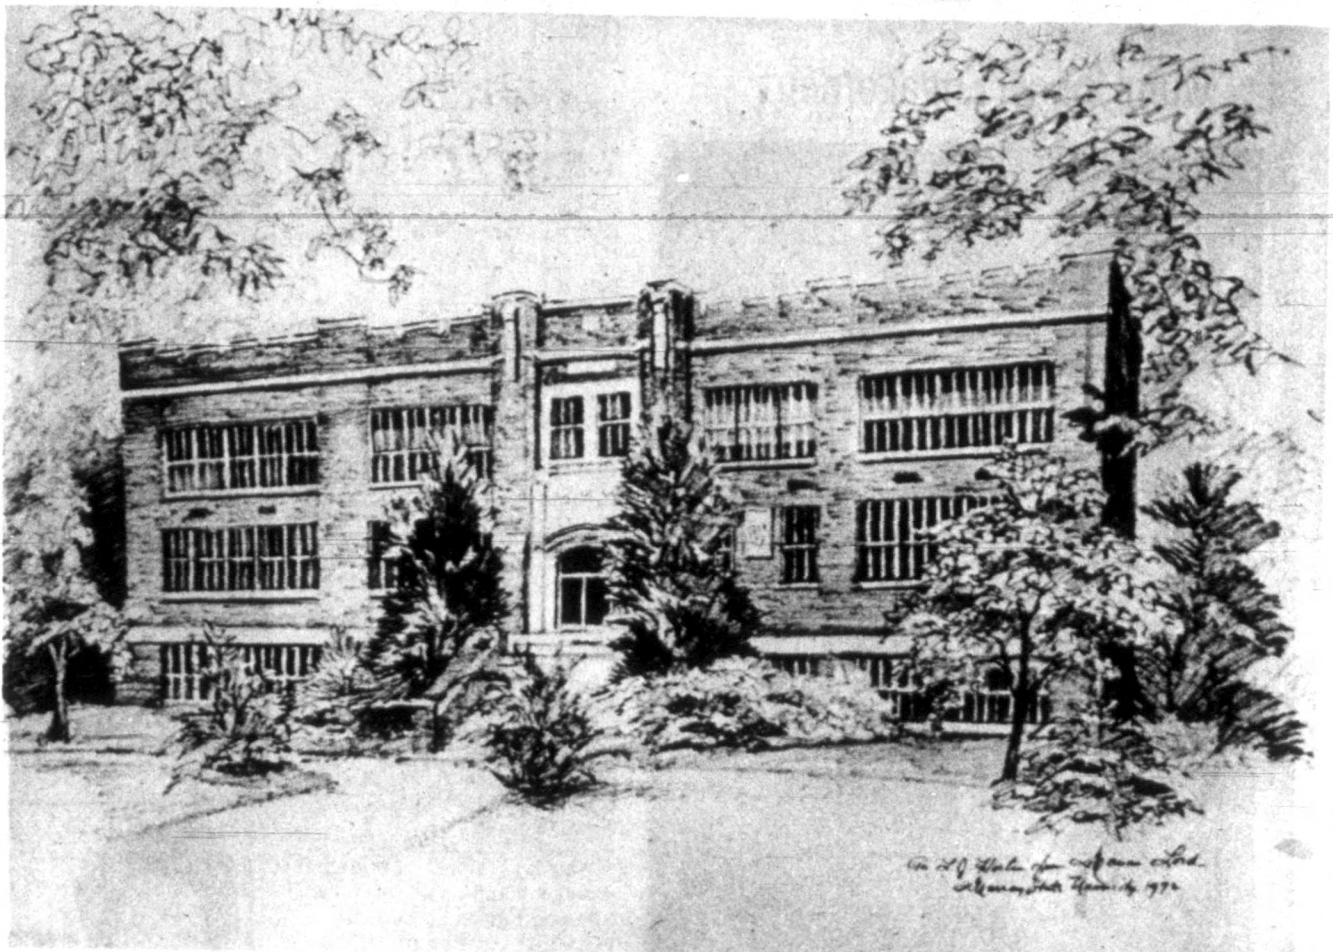

3. Since Murray State University serves the entire region, it could become the Heritage Hall for the entire Jackson Purchase. It is understandable that many county historical societies would prefer to place most of their documents and materials in their own county seats. Some, however, would be willing to deposit relevant materials with the University for display and preservation, either as gifts or on loan.

4. Such a museum, of course, would not at first have enough materials to fill the building. Until more archives space is needed, offices and class rooms could be maintained as at present. Two vaults are already included in Wrather Hall and they would serve an admirable purpose in storing valuable items of historical interest.

"Oakhurst," the President's Home, is rightly called the birthplace of Murray State, for it was in this home that Dr. Rainey T. Wells first conceived the idea of building a great school for Murray. It too, is a shrine endeared to all.

But the "Old Normal School Building" is the building that made it all possible. Without it, there would have been no Murray State. Without the $117,000 given with the sweat and tears of Murray and Calloway County for this building and campus, there would not be the 22,000 alumni of Murray State University.

Truly this grand old building is the home of Murray in the Heart of Jackson's Purchase. "May we cherish thy traditions, hold thy banner high." The House of Murray with its Shield from Scotland must always stand and not "perish from this earth."

Murray and Calloway Gave $117,000 To Build This Hall

This original sketch of the old "Normal School Building," now known as Wrather Hall, was made by a Louisville artist, Mrs. Marian Lord, while she was attending the Jesse Stuart Workshop at Murray State University. Mrs. Lord, a graduate student in Journalism at Murray State University, presented the sketch as a gift to Dr. L. J. Hortin.

Letters To The Editor

Thanks Offered

Dear Editor:

Although the attached letter is one of appreciation to the multitude of people who gave of their time, talent, and money through Easter Seals in behalf of handicapped Kentuckians, I want to also take this means of thanking you and your fine staff for the splendid job you did in helping publicize this years campaign efforts.

Contributions to the 1974 Calloway County Easter Seal Campaign total $4,561.61. Locally raised funds account for $3,186.36 of this amount, with the remaining $1,375.25 involving funds mailed by Calloway Counties to the Kentucky Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults in Louisville.

As chairman of this year's campaign, I want to thank the multitude of people, organizations and business firms who supported the drive in so many wonderful ways. A special "thank you" is hereby extended the several University and off-campus groups of young men and women who planned and worked unusually hard to make this year's efforts so fruitful.

Contributions to the fund and the many volunteers who gave of their time and talents, including those who helped publicize the story of the needs of crippled children and adults, can be assured that their efforts are deeply appreciated by members of the local campaign committee, as well as by the more than 5,000 handicapped Kentuckians who benefit from gifts to the Easter Seal fund.

Easter Seal care for the handicapped children today means useful, self-reliant, independent citizens tomorrow.

The Society today owns and operates facilities in seven Kentucky cities and the work of helping disabled people goes on every day of the year. This year the society is observing its 50th anniversary and you are invited to visit any of the Easter Seal Centers to see first-hand the wonderful work made possible by the support of Easter Seals.

Best wishes,
Lloyd Jacks, Chairman
Calloway County
Easter Seal Campaign

Comments from Others

LIME SPRINGS, IOWA, HERALD: "Even if the cost keeps going up indefinitely, education will never become as expensive as ignorance."

GRAYSLAKE, ILL., TIMES: "Along with this newspaper's campaign to rid our countryside of blight, the automobile ashtray dumper has to be rated a spot right next to the nocturnal roadside dumper as one of society's most unpopular people. There is nothing more disgusting than pulling into a parking spot and finding a mound of cigarette butts heaped on the roadway."

BUCKEYE, ARIZ., NEWS: "...do you realize that some 76,000 Americans didn't bother to claim their (tax) refunds last year? That's right—the IRS has more than 76,000 undeliverable refund checks on hand totaling more than $18 million. However, almost 63 million people did claim refunds and the IRS handed $25.8 billion to taxpayers. Good luck in the months ahead."

SCOTTSVILLE, KY., ALLEN COUNTY NEWS: "Deficit spending is peculiar to governments. No businessman would or could continue to operate his business by pursuing a policy of more outgo than income. Yet governments persist in it, to include small municipalities. Fiscal responsibility is one thing that we think everyone should expect of their civil servants, and by that we mean also the elected officials who take an oath that we think includes such a requirement. It is helpful, perhaps, to turn the rascals out but if they have been in office too long, the harmful effects are usually irreversible. The answer: Look closer at your candidates' qualifications, encourage better candidates to run by not only pledging but giving your full support, and then work with them and know what they are doing while in office. You must either protect yourself or pay attention to those who are trying to help."

BUNT SINGLE—Steve Miller laid down this perfect bunt in the third inning for an RBI to score Johnny Hewitt who had tripled. ## Tigers Revenge Loss By Smacking Tilghman

Tony Thurmond survived one bad inning on the mound and then bounced back to contain Paducah Tilghman Tuesday at Holland Stadium as Murray High took a 10-5 win.

The victory leaves Murray with a 6-2 mark for the spring and avenges a 12-2 loss to Tilghman a week ago at Brooks Stadium.

Thurmond had a 7-0 lead going into the top of the fourth when Tilghman exploded for four runs and six hits.

Although not as sharp as he had been in past performances, Thurmond did manage to go the distance and gained his third win of the season.

He was smacked for 12 hits while striking out only three men.

Murray got three runs in the home half of the second inning, with the big blow being a two-run single by Terry Melton.

With one man out, the rally began with Gary Dick smacking a single to right and then successive walks to Johnny Shelley and Craig Suiter filled the bases and Melton delivered his timely hit.

Another run came across when Thurmond singled in Suiter and Murray led 3-0.

In the third inning, the Tigers struck for three runs and threatened to run away with the game as two Tilghman pitchers were chased from the mound.

Johnny Hewitt opened the inning by hitting a screamer into deep right for a triple.

Then on the first pitch following the triple, Steve Miller laid down a perfect bunt for a single and Hewitt came across to score.

Catcher Ricky Garland grounded toward short with Miller being forced at second and Garland reaching on the fielder's choice.

Dick again singled to put men on at the corners and then Shelley singled for an RBI.

The final two runs of the frame crossed when Suiter hit a rifle shot by the third baseman.

Tilghman came back with four in the fourth and batted around before Thurmond finally worked out of the jam.

Flatt, Mills, George and Paschall all had run-scoring hits in the inning for the Bluejays.

Murray scored two more in their half of the fourth with Jackson, who had walked scoring on a two-base error and Hewitt coming in on Garland's sacrifice fly.

In the fifth, the Tigers had the bases loaded with nobody out but failed to score.

Both teams scored a run in the sixth.

Hewitt and Dick each had two hits for Murray while Miller, Garland, Shelley, Suiter, Melton and Thurmond all hit safely.

Treese had three hits for Tilghman with George and Flatt both getting a pair.

The Tigers play at home today, weather permitting, against North Marshall.

On Thursday, Murray is at Mayfield for a pair of games before hosting Lone Oak to a twinbill Friday at Holland Stadium.

Blancas And Mahaffey Rank Among Favorites For Houston Golf Tourney

By BOB GREEN
AP Golf Writer

HOUSTON (AP) — A couple of hometown boys—Homero Blancas and John Mahaffey—rank high among the list of favorites in the $150,000 Houston Open Gold Tournament.

The 72-hole event gets underway Thursday on the beautifully conditioned, 6,905-yard, par 72 Quail Valley Golf Club course with a slim field of the famous going after a trimmed-down purse.

This tournament offered $205,000 in total prizes last year, one of the richest on the tour. But it failed to attract the glamour names and—very unusually in this area of skyrocketing purses—the sponsors cut back on the money this season.

Most of the great names still are missing from the 144-man field that includes 51 qualifiers.

The Houston event immediately precedes next week's Colonial National—the first of the newly designated tournaments in which leading players must compete. Many of the game's top attractions are taking off this week to rest and attend to business commitments.

Johnny Miller is in Japan on business. Jack Nicklaus and Tom Weiskopf are fishing in Mexico. Gary Player is at home in South Africa. Arnold Palmer, Billy Casper, Lee Trevino and Buddy Allin, winner of last week's Byron Nelson Classic, are taking time off.

Even with those absences, the Texas-dominated field—one quarter of the entries live in this state—includes five men who have won tour titles this year, along with defending champion Bruce Crampton, a strong contender for the $30,000 first prize.

The sturdy Australian, a Dallas resident and one of the game's six $1 million winners, scored his third victory on the season in this tournament a year ago but hasn't played up to that standard in 1974. But he has shown marked improvement in his last few starts and at one time challenged for the title in the Byron Nelson.

Hubert Green, a two-time winner this year, is on hand. So are Allen Miller, New Zealand's Bob Charles, Leonard Thompson and Dave Stockton, all of whom have won this year.

Blancas and Mahaffey, both Houston residents, are the favorites, however.

The veteran Blancas has played well in his last few starts and led for two rounds last week. Mahaffey hasn't won this year but ranks among the game's most outstanding young stars.

Cardinals Edge Reds 1-0 On Smith's Fly

By HERSCHEL NISSENSEN
AP Sports Writer

Tom Griffin and Fred Norman were brilliant while pitching to the plate Tuesday night but their throwing to other bases left something to be desired.

Griffin hurled a one-hitter—Willie Stargell hit a second-inning single—but his Houston Astro teammates made up for his throwing error by rallying to edge the Pittsburgh Pirates 2-1.

Norman wasn't so lucky, although he allowed only six hits and struck out 13, most by a Cincinnati pitcher in six years. His wild pickoff throw set up the game's only run in the ninth inning and the St. Louis Cardinals nipped the Reds 1-0.

Elsewhere in the National League, the San Francisco Giants swept a pair from the New York Mets 4-3 and 3-0, the San Diego Padres beat the Philadelphia Phillies 5-3 in 13 innings and the Chicago Cubs shaded the Atlanta Braves 3-2. Los Angeles at Montreal was rained out.

Pittsburgh took a 1-0 lead over Griffin in the fifth inning without a hit when third baseman Doug Rader committed two errors and Griffin made a wild throw attempting to pick Richie Zisk off second base, allowing the run to score.

The Astros tied it in the sixth on Bob Watson's single, a wild pitch, a groundout and Rader's single. They won it in the eighth on a single by Watson and a triple by ex-Pirate Milt May.

Cardinals 1, Reds 0

The Cardinals beat Norman and the Reds when Reggie Smith opened the ninth with a single, took second on the left-hander's wild pickoff throw, went to third on an infield out and scored on Joe Torre's sacrifice fly.

"It's ridiculous," moaned Norman. "I can throw home and not to first base. I was so conscious of stepping correctly and not balking that I didn't concentrate on the throw. Losing a game like that is like losing 10-0 to me."

Giants 4-3, Mets 3-0

Gary Matthews slammed a three-run homer off Tom Seaver in the eighth inning of the opener and broke up a pitching duel in the nightcap with a run-scoring double in the ninth. Steve Ontiveros also homered in the opener while Bobby Bonds doubled home the other two runs in the nightcap.

Padres 5, Phillies 3

Dave Winfield and Fred Kendall hit consecutive home runs in the 13th inning off rookie Dave Wallace, pacing the Padres to their 11th win in the last 14 games. Derrel Thomas hit a two-run homer for the Padres in the second inning.

Cubs 3, Braves 2

Vic Harris rapped two hits and scored twice and Billy Williams drove in two runs for Chicago. Steve Stone, making his second start, posted his first victory in a Cubs uniform with ninth-inning relief from Horacio Pina and Jim Krummel.

American League scores: New York Yankees 4, Texas Rangers 3 in 12 innings; Chicago White Sox 1, Detroit Tigers 0 in 11; Minnesota Twins 3, Milwaukee Brewers 0; Baltimore Orioles 9, Oakland A's 3; Cleveland Indians 5, California Angels 3.

WIN HONORS—David Bowker of Murray took second in the Asian Full Class at the third annual Paducah Chief Bike Show over the weekend. His Honda 750 was one of over 70 bikes entered in the class.

Eight-Year-Old Girl Is Banned From Rugby Team

SYDNEY (AP) — Male chauvinism has cost Lisa Bailey her place as the only girl on a junior rugby football team.

The Newcastle Junior Rugby League Association has banned her from playing on the same team as boys.

"She went into a corner and had a little cry when she got the news," said Lisa's mother, Mrs. Vivienne Bailey.

"I was disappointed, too. But she's decided to have a game of soccer with her sister in the Charlestown girl team."

Red-haired, green-eyed Lisa scored 10 tries (touchdowns) for her side last season.

The secretary of the Junior League Association, Doug Cross, said the association "didn't mind too much" little girls playing football with little boys, but they had decided to impose a ban because 13-year-old girls were appearing in mixed teams.

FOOTBALL
LOS ANGELES — Pro guard Tom Mack signed a multiyear contract with the Los Angeles Rams, ending speculation that he would jump from the National Football League club to the World Football League.

Racer Net Team Wins Match Over SEMO 9-2

Murray State ran its spring tennis record to 12-7 with a 7-2 win in a dual match Tuesday afternoon at Southeast Missouri State University.

The Racers took five of six singles matches and two of the three doubles matches.

Murray won the first five singles positions in straight sets and only one match, the number one doubles, went split sets.

Mikko Horsma won at number one 6-4, 6-1 over Andy Leonard while Arnie Knudsen stepped up and played number two to defeat Steve Hogberg 6-2, 6-3.

Knudsen was playing in the spot vacated by freshman Charles Wadlington, who has returned home to Florida for a couple of days.

Mike Owen continued his outstanding play as he won at number three 6-0, 6-3 over Ron Dahlin.

Freshman Del Purcell had an easy match at number four as he won 6-1, 6-1 over Curt Han-nenman.

In the number five singles, Ross Boling defeated Scott McDaniels 6-2, 6-4.

The only loss in the singles came at number six where newcomer Joe Szostak dropped his match in straight sets, 6-1, 6-0, to Harold Sallert of SEMO.

Horsma and Knudsen played the number one doubles and in the first set, had to win a 9-1 tie-breaker to take the set. In the second set, they fell 6-2 to Leonard-Dahlin.

But the Racer duo bounced back in the third set to turn the tables and won the match by taking the set 6-2.

In the number two doubles,

Owen-Boling won 6-4, 6-2 over Hogberg-Hanneman while at number three, Purcell-Szostak lost 7-5, 6-2 to McDaniels-Sallert.

The Racers will host Western Kentucky Monday before beginning play on their home courts next Thursday against the field in the Ohio Valley Conference Championships.

Aeros Coach Hoping His Team Isn't Complacent

By MICHAEL A. LUTZ
AP Sports Writer

HOUSTON (AP) — Houston Aeros Coach Bill Dineen says he hopes his World Hockey Association Western Division champs won't be complacent when they meet Chicago in the World Cup championship series beginning Sunday.

The Aeros, led by the Gordie Howe family, blitzed through their regular season schedule with the winning record in the league. In two best-of-seven playoff series, they've lost only two games, beating Winnipeg 4-0 and Minnesota 4-

Celtics Take 3-2 Lead Over Bucks In Playoff

MILWAUKEE (AP) — It was simple execution, and this time it was the Boston Celtics' turn to pull the trigger.

John Havlicek, symbol of the matchless Celtic tradition, poured in 28 points and teamed with Paul Silas to smother Milwaukee's forwards Tuesday night as Boston wore down the Bucks 96-87 for a 3-2 lead in the National Basketball Association championship playoffs.

Dave Cowens also hit 28 points, 17 in the second half, while Jo-Jo White sank 18 for the Celtics, who can clinch the best-of-seven series by winning in Boston Friday. A seventh game, if needed, will be here Sunday.

"We dug back deep for this one," said the 34-year-old Havlicek, veteran of six NBA championship teams and 135 playoff games in 11 magnificent seasons with Boston.

"We are a team with a great deal of pride, but not many of the players on this team were on any of those championship teams," Havlicek said. "They always hear about them, though, and now they want to win one for themselves."

The Celtics took permanent command in a third period surge, unleashing their fast break to outscore the Bucks 22-5 and transform their lead from one to 18 points.

The Bucks' defeat destroyed the home court advantage they had earned by winning in Boston Sunday. Moreover, it shattered the widely held opinion that the Bucks, by starting 6-foot-7 reserve forward Mickey Davis at guard, finally had found the matchup combination to neutralize the Celtics' tireless pressure defense.

Davis, who had scored 15 points Sunday and forced Boston out of its trapping defense by taking the 6-3 White to the baseline, barely was a factor this time.

Boston had a five-point lead and control of the tempo when Davis was benched with 4:48 left in the first quarter. He played 29 minutes and scored seven points. His replacement, Jon McGlocklin, played 25 minutes with a painfully torn calf muscle and scored just two points.

Kareem Abdul-Jabbar fired in 37 points and Oscar Robertson 23 for the Bucks, but their teammates managed only 27 more combined. Bob Dan-dridge sank just four of 17 shots under pressure by Havlicek and scored only 10 points. Cornell Warner, Milwaukee's other forward, scored two.

"We didn't do a single thing differently," Celtics' Coach Tom Heinsohn said. "All the adjustments by both teams were made by game three. It's now a matter of execution. There's not much a coach can do."

Park League Has Meeting Scheduled

An organizational meeting of the Park League will be held at 7:30 p.m. Thursday at the home of Dave Marquardt at 1637 Miller.

All coaches and interested parents are urged to attend the meeting.

Marquardt, formerly the president of the league, said a president is needed for this summer and if someone would like to volunteer for the job, he should attend the meeting.

The Park League is for boys who are eight and nine-years old.

SPORTS MURRAY LEDGER & TIMES Tiger Track Team Is Third In Triangular

Murray High won four events in a triangular track meet held Tuesday afternoon at Trigg County.

Hopkinsville won the meet with 75 points with Trigg County second with 51 and Murray third with 41.

Alan Jones won the 100-yard dash with a 10.6 with Dale McCuiston taking fourth in the event.

McCuiston bounced back to win the 220 with a 23.5 while Mark Cavitt was fourth.

One member of the Tigers won a field event, that being Steve Porter who took top honors in the discus with 122-0½ while freshman Tim Lane was fourth with 105-5¼.

The other first place finish for Murray was in the mile relay where the Tigers won with 3:40.9.

Running legs in the event were Dean Lampkins, Todd Harrison, Eli Alexander and Dean Lanning.

The Tigers managed to gain five second place finishes in the meet. Lanning was the runnerup in the 120-high hurdles with 16.4 while Alexander recorded a personal best of 2:06.5 to finish second in the 880.

Lanning had another second in the 440 where he turned in a 54.5 while teammate Todd Harrison was third with 55.7. Dewey Siegler was second in the two-mile run with 11:18.

The 880-relay team composed of Jones, Cavitt, Tony Thompson and McCuiston was second with a clocking of 1:37.

Tim Lane was forth with a 37-6¼ in the shot put competition.

The Tigers will be host to the WKU coming Saturday at Stewart Stadium.

OTTAWA — Canadian Health Minister Marc Lalonde said Tuesday he might amend his bill intended to ban American football leagues in Canada, allowing teams from American leagues into the country under strict conditions.

Flyers Win Everything But Game

BOSTON (AP) — The Philadelphia Flyers figure they won everything except the game against the Boston Bruins in the opener of their showdown for the National Hockey League's coveted Stanley Cup.

Now all the Flyers have to do is figure out a way to change their luck on Boston Garden ice, preferably by Thursday night's second game of the best-of-seven championship series.

Philadelphia spotted the Bruins a 2-0 first-period lead, came back to tie and appeared to be stronger in the third period of Tuesday night's opener.

Then, just after the public address announcer sounded, "One minute to play in the period, one minute," the Flyers missed a golden opportunity to score.

The puck slid across an open Boston goal and defenseman Bobby Orr sat on it.

The whistle blew with 55 seconds left. The mighty Bruins then sped up ice and pulled out a 3-2 victory on Bobby Orr's slap shot of a rolling puck from about 35 feet out.

"I'd like to say I aimed it, but I just turned around and shot," Orr said after just his second goal in 11 playoff games this spring.

It wasn't one of Orr's patented goals. After Wayne Cashman dug the puck out of the corner, he sent a pass to Ken Hodge, who spotted Orr. The Boston superstar merely took a swipe and the puck bounced through a maze of players past Philadelphia goalie Bernie Parent.

The goal spoiled a tremendous performance by the Flyers, who hadn't won in Boston since their first appearance here as an NHL expansion team Nov. 12, 1967.

The Flyers argued vainly that Cashman had held defenseman Andre Dupont in the corner. That cost Dupont a 10-minute misconduct. Cashman said that Dupont's skate got caught in his sock, and the Boston forward showed a torn sock as proof.

"I just saw the rubber as I was coming in," Hodge said. "It was just laying loose and I picked it up. I turned to look for (Phil) Esposito and saw Bobby breaking into the slot area and got it to him."

"We'll still bring that Stanley Cup to Philadelphia," Parent said. "I didn't have a clear view on their first two goals and Orr's was no different."

Cashman also played a key role in another manner. He engaged Philadelphia defenseman Ed Van Impe in a high-sticking and punching duel in the second period. Flyers defenseman Jim Watson jumped in to help, and drew an automatic game misconduct penalty for being the third man in a fight.

People Need To Be Wary Of Phrases

By JOHN CUNNIFF
AP Business Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — There are certain automatic phrases and assumptions about which the citizenry should be especially wary and critical, lest they fill their heads with misconceptions and disillusionment.

This has long been so. For two decades Americans referred to "the balance of payments" and took pride in the nation's trading accomplishments, mindless of the fact that it really was an imbalance and the country was bleeding.

Incredibly, you can still be served with the advice that stocks are a hedge against inflation, although it is either a lucky or a brilliant investor who could demonstrate that contention during the past five years.

There are lots more misconceptions. For many months you had the banks encouraging people to chase after daily compounding, suggesting that there was a big advantage over quarterly compounding, when in fact it was a matter of pennies.

These are harmless, however, when compared to that automatic response that comes from government officials about "the fight against inflation." What fight, what battle, you ask?

The response comes back automatically — the freeze, the controls, the promises, the dedication. But then you look at the government red ink and you question whether rhetoric and appearance constitute the real effort.

While extolling the virtues of the balanced budget, the present administration will, by the end of the present fiscal year, have exceeded its revenues by about $68 billion. And another deficit is anticipated for 1975.

Almost any economist will readily agree that spending in excess of revenues, especially to such a degree, is a fundamental and probably the strongest contributor to inflation.

Another phrase repeated so often that it is seldom questioned anymore is this: The prime rate is the interest rate commercial banks charge their most credit-worthy corporate customers. It is now 11 per cent, a record high.

But is it effectively 11 per cent, or might it even be more? Yes it could. A lot of very good customers pay considerably more than 11 per cent even though their credit rating is as worthy as any in the land.

In addition to paying a fractional percentage over the prime rate they are also asked to leave 20 per cent of the loan on deposit. That might bring the rate to an effective 14 per cent, although that in turn is reduced by the interest earned on the deposit.

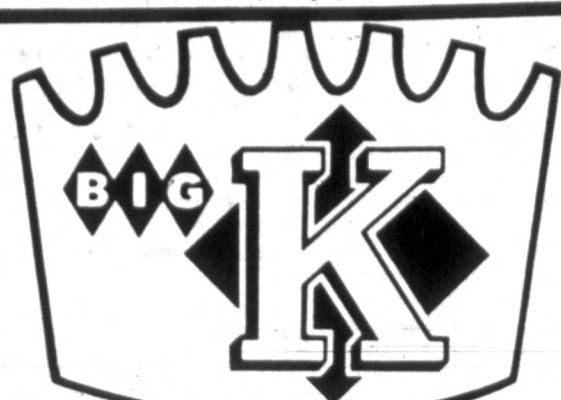

But the effective rate is influenced upward by another possibility — that the loan might be amortized, or paid back in installments over a period of time. That has the effect of making an 11 per cent rate come out to more than 20 per cent in simple interest.

More disillusionment is probably spread by so-called cost of living adjustments than any other misconception. In most cases those adjustments are made on last year's inflation rate — not on the higher prices to come.

It's a
maturity.

A lot of people don't buy U.S. Savings Bonds because they think it takes them 10 years to mature. Take another look. The old green Bond ain't what it used to be. Now Bonds mature in less than 6 years. That's one reason Bonds are so popular nowadays. They're simple to buy, and one of the surest ways to build a nest egg for something (or someone) special. U.S. Savings Bonds. Maturity at 5 years, 10 months. If you don't want to use that money right away, there's a 10-year extension privilege. Either way, you'll find that Bonds mature at just the right age for you.

Take
in America.

Bonds mature in less than six years. New U.S. Bonds pay 5 1/2% interest when held to maturity of 5 years, 10 months or 15 years. The first year, Bonds are replaced if lost, stolen, or destroyed. When you need them, they can be cashed at your bank (interest is not subject to state or local income taxes, and federal tax may be deferred until redemption).

Simon To Take Over Treasury Post Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — Like a busy surgeon rushing from one operation to another, William E. Simon moved today from the energy crisis to the nation's inflation crisis.

Simon was scheduled to be sworn into office as the administration's new secretary of the Treasury, succeeding George P. Shultz, one of the most powerful Treasury secretaries in recent history. President Nixon planned to attend the ceremony, scheduled for 11:30 a.m. EDT at the East Room in the White House. Simon, 46, will be his fourth Treasury secretary, after David Kennedy, John B. Connally and Shultz. Simon has been the nation's energy chief since December and will be succeeded in that position by John Sawhill.

A millionaire and former Wall Street bond trader, Simon has made no secret that he considers the nation's 10.8 per cent inflation rate to be his major challenge.

But he has not promised any spectacular new initiatives to deal with rising prices and told senators at his confirmation hearings he opposes a tax cut and wage and price controls as remedies.

He urged a return to economic fundamentals to control inflation, which implies policies that are a little removed from those favored by Shultz and other Nixon economic advisers.

If Simon sticks to his fundamentals plan, Americans can expect him to give major attention to restraining government expenditures and possibly even trying to balance the federal budget.

Sen. Walter Mondale, D-Minn., said after listening to Simon at the confirmation hearings that his policies sounded like "a typical old-fashioned, big-banker's approach to the economy."

But Mondale did not oppose Simon and he was confirmed by the Senate without significant opposition.

One potential handicap for Simon will be that while the problem of inflation is worse than when Shultz became secretary, he will not have all the economic authority that Shultz had.

Nixon did not name Simon to Shultz's post as chairman of the White House Council on Economic Policy, nor did he give Simon the title of assistant to the President, a position held by Shultz.

One reason for the reduced authority, sources have said, is that budget director Roy L. Ash and others wished to have a bigger economic policy role for themselves.

Fund-Raising Dinner Scheduled For Cook

WASHINGTON (AP) — The first major re-election fund-raising event for U.S. Sen. Marlow Cook was scheduled Wednesday night in Washington.

An aide in Cook's office said there was "no significance" to the fact that the Republican senator has begun his fund-raising appeal here rather than in Kentucky.

About 700 persons have been invited to the $100-a-ticket reception. Co-hosts for the reception were Republican Sens. Ted Stevens of Alaska, Glenn Beall of Maryland, Robert Taft of Ohio and Robert Griffin of Michigan, and Interior Secretary Rogers C. B. Morton. Rep. Tim Lee Carter, R-Ky., is chairman.

Murray High Classes Plan For Style Show

The home economics classes of Murray High School will have their annual style show on Saturday, May 11, at 7:30 p.m. at the University School auditorium.

"Sunshine and Lollipops" will be the theme of the show featuring fashions made by students in the classes. Admission will be 60 cents for adults and 35 cents for student.

Government To Propose Stringent Measures For PVC

WASHINGTON (AP) — The federal government plans Friday to formally propose stringent new measures to protect workers from exposure to the chemical vinyl chloride.

A spokesman for the Labor Department's Occupational Safety and Health Administration, the agency making the proposal, said initiation of the new standard could come as early as July. The proposal calls for "no detectable level" of vinyl chloride gas in work places where the chemical is used.

The proposed measures follow the disclosure earlier this year that the chemical caused a rare cancer that had been fatal to five workers at the B.F. Goodrich Co. plant in Louisville, Ky. There have been at least four other deaths attributed to the chemical.

The standards would apply directly where more than 6,500 workers are involved either in production of vinyl chloride or in conversion of the chemical to polyvinyl chloride—of which more than seven billion pounds was made last year.

Stubblefield Endorsed By Education Association

PADUCAH, Ky.,—Public-school teachers in Kentucky and the nation today gave their endorsement and a $1,000.00 contribution to Democratic Congressman Frank A. Stubblefield for his re-election campaign.

First District Education Association (FDEA) president Wayne Harvey of Smithland presented the check to Stubblefield in ceremonies at the Kentucky Education Association (KEA) UniServ office in Paducah.

Harvey, a teacher at Livingston Central High School, Burns, represents FDEA on the Kentucky Educators Public Affairs Council (KEPAC) state committee.

Also on hand for the presentation was KEPAC chairman Preston Young of Louisville, a teacher at Jefferson County's Western High School and a member of the National Education Association Political Action Committee (NEA-PAC).

"Today," said Harvey, "our support is going to Congressman Stubblefield in the form of a check to be used for the expenses of his campaign, along with a pledge that teachers will actively be supporting and working for him!"

Stubblefield for the Several local political action groups in the First Congressional District join with KEPAC and NEA-PAC endorsing Stubblefield for the May 28 primary and November 5 general election, Harvey pointed out.

Harvey said that during Stubblefield's 15½ years as Kentucky's First District representative he has been "a real friend of education" through consistent support of legislation to move education forward in the state and nation.

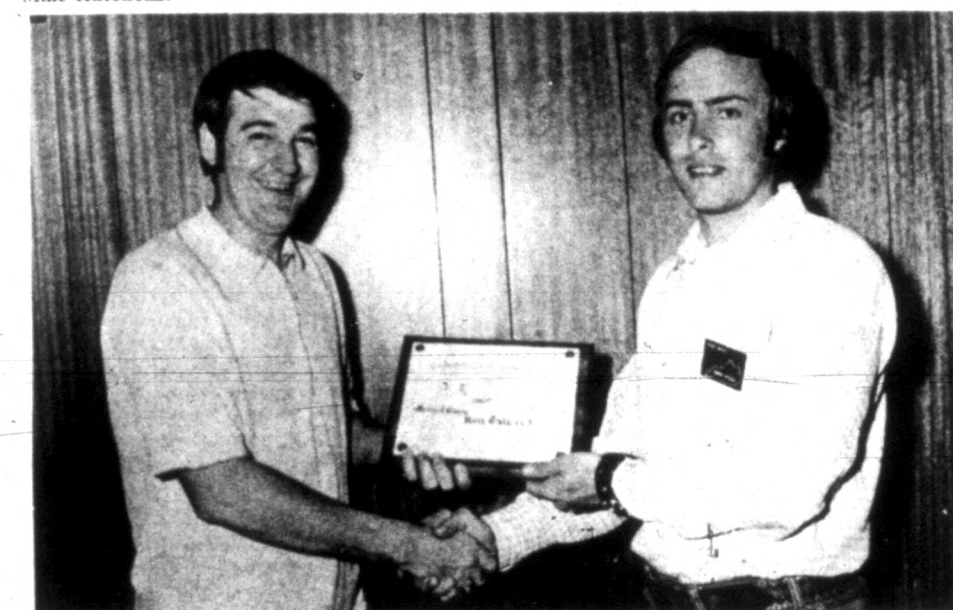

During the first session of the 93rd Congress last year Congressman Stubblefield voted for the position taken by teachers on all five of the most important education bills before the House, Harvey noted.

"Further, this year in the second session he already has voted to extend the federal aid program to school systems that have been hit by the impact of federal actions."

"Teacher political action groups," Harvey said, "already have endorsed several candidates for Congress who have proved they truly do support good educational legislation including Kentucky's Sixth District Congressman John Breckinridge of Lexington and we expect to announce our endorsement of others at appropriate times."

NEW PRESIDENT—D. Chris Emmert, left, the outgoing president of the Murray Jaycees, presents the gavel to incoming president Joe McKinney. Other officers of the Jaycees are external vice-president, Willard Allis; internal vice-president, David King; secretary, Jack Watkins; treasurer, Bob Bryar and the board of directors is composed of Jerry McCoy, Donald Lovett and Mike Hutchens.

JAYCEE OF YEAR—D. Chris Emmert, outgoing president of the Murray Jaycees, presents an award to Jerry McCoy (right) for the Jaycee of the Year. McCoy chaired drives for the War Memorial monument which is now on the lawn at the courthouse, the Christmas Food Basket Project, the Jaycee "Speak-Up" Program and was also the chairman for the Murray High Basketball Banquet.

23. Exterminating

TERMITE-CONTROL. Salesmen may be unsavory pests.

Termite swarms are not the only things that emerge with warm days. So do door-to-door salesmen who would like to sell you termite control or protection. If you feel your house has a termite problem, seek out a professional pest-control firm in your area. Check to make sure it has an established place of business.

Don't hesitate to ask a firm for business references and check them. Reliable firms welcome this approach.

Kelley's Pest Control, 100 South 13th, Street an old reliable establish firm-locally owned and operated for over 30 years. Members National Pest Control Association, Kentucky Pest Control Association and Murray Chamber of Commerce. Free inspection, call 753-3914 Sam Kelley, owner.

Deaths and Funerals

Funeral Is Today For Elvis Lamb At Local Chapel

Elvis Lamb of Kirksey died Tuesday at 10:45 a.m. at the Murray-Calloway County Hospital. He was 61 years of age and his death followed an extended illness.

The deceased was a member of the Kirksey Church of Christ. He was born June 9, 1912, in Calloway County and was the son of the late Walter Washington Lamb and Neva Ann Black Lamb.

Survivors are two daughters, Mrs. Paul (Neva) Hester and Mrs. Billie (June) Hester, both of Kirksey Route One; two sons, Cletus Franklin Lamb and Elvis Gene Lamb, both of Murray; five grandchildren, Jerry Don Lamb, Louise, Douglas, Peggy, and Martha Hester.

The funeral is being held today at two p.m. at the chapel of the Max Churchill Funeral Home with Bro. Clifton Willis and Bro. Johnny Hester officiating.

Serving as pallbearers are George Hester, Darrell Miller, Headley Swift, Hugh Beach, Monroe Hester, and Noble Cox. Burial will be in the Bazzell Cemetery.

Superintendent Of Paris Landing Park Dies On Monday

William Reeves (Rut) Garnett, superintendent of Paris Landing State Park for some 20 years, died at 1:30 p.m. Monday in Henry County General Hospital, Paris, Tenn. He was 53.

Last August, Garnett was transferred from Paris Landing to become head of the state's new Big Cypress Tree Natural Area, located between Sharon and Greenfield. The Garnetts resided in Greenfield, Tenn.

Funeral services were held this morning at 11 a.m. in Grace Episcopal Church, Paris, Tenn., with Rev. William Patten officiating. Burial will be in Garnett Cemetery in Somerville, Tenn.

A native of Somerville, Garnett was born Aug. 5, 1920, the son of Rutledge and Eva Reeves Garnett, who survive. He and the former Jane Johnston were married April 4, 1947, and she survives.

He served as a pilot in the Air Force in World War II, graduated from the University of Tennessee with a BS degree in agriculture and was with the Tennessee Department of Employment Security in Fayette County seven years before being called back into service during the Korean conflict.

In addition to his wife and parents, he leaves a son, Lt. William R. (Sputt) Garnett, with the Army at Fort Campbell, Ky.; and a brother, Francis Garnett of Somerville.

Persons who so desire may make contributions to the Heart Fund in lieu of flowers.

Jack James Dies From Injuries In Accident Sunday

Jack James, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. John Latimer of Hazel Route One, died Sunday afternoon from injuries sustained in an automobile accident while on vacation in Florida.

Mr. James, age 20, journalism student at Auburn University, Auburn, Ala., was killed along with another young man. A young woman was also reported to be have been critically injured in the accident.

Survivors are his mother, Mrs. Julia Kathryn James, of Birmingham, Ala.; grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Latimer of Hazel Route One; one sister, Mrs. Carol Lawson of Dooca, Ga.; three brothers, George James with the Air Force in Korea, Ronnie and David James of Birmingham, Ala.

Funeral services will be held today at 3:30 p.m. at the John Ridouts Funeral Home, Birmingham, Ala.

Graveside rites will be held Thursday at 2:30 p.m. at the South Pleasant Grove United Methodist Church Cemetery with Rev. A. H. McLeod, Jr., officiating.

Pallbearers will be Ricky, Richard, Wilmore, Ray, James Ed, and Ralph Latimer.

In charge of local arrangements is the Miller Funeral Home of Hazel where friends may call after eight a.m. on Thursday.

Claude Lamb Dies Suddenly Tuesday; Rites Thursday

Claude Lamb of Hazel died suddenly Tuesday at four p.m. in the yard of the home of his sister, Mrs. Fannie Owen of Hazel. He was 77 years of age.

The deceased was a member of the Calvert City Church of Christ. Born April 27, 1897, in Henry County, Tenn., he was the son of the late James Lamb and Tiny Pullings Lamb.

Mr. Lamb is survived by one son, Shelby Lamb of Galveston, Texas; two sisters, Mrs. Roy Scarbrough of Murray Route Six and Mrs. Fannie Owen of Hazel; three grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held Thursday at four p.m. at the Mt. Pleasant United Methodist Church with Bro. Charlie Sweatt officiating.

Pallbearers will be James Ray, Harold Ray, Dee Lamb, J. C. Lamb, Raymond Clayton, and Herbert Clayton. Burial will be in the Mt. Pleasant Cemetery with the arrangements by the Miller Funeral Home of Hazel where friends may call.

RADIO CLUB MEETING
The MSU Amateur Radio Club will hold its monthly meeting tonight at 7:30 p.m. at Swann Hall. The program will be field day planning. Anyone interested in amateur radio is invited to attend.

Parents Without Partners Chapter Meeting Planned

Plans are underway in Murray for an organizational meeting of Parents Without Partners (PWP), according to Mrs. Jean Hurt.

Zone District Supervisor, Bill Cobb of Paducah, will be in Murray to conduct an organizational meeting on May 16 at 8:00 p.m. at the United Campus Ministry Building, 202 N. 15th St.

Parents Without Partners is an international organization with over 90,000 members. It is described as an educational, social organization designed to serve the needs and interests of single parents, regardless of the reason for being single.

The activities PWP sponsors are absorbing, with programming both social and educational. Such activities as tours, bowling, skating, swimming, picnics, arts and crafts, discussion groups, plays, house parties and many more things are held monthly for both the children and adults.

Membership is open to all parents who are single, widowed, separated or divorced.

Persons interested in helping form a chapter of PWP in Murray, should be in attendance on May 16 (Thurs.) at 8:00 p.m. at the UCM Bldg. to learn more about the organization. Sufficient interest has to be shown that night in order to further plans for organization, Mrs. Hurt said.

For any additional information, contact Mrs. Hurt, 753-3992.

Hazel Lodge No. 831 To Meet On Friday

Hazel Lodge No. 831 Free and Accepted Masons will meet Friday, May 10, at 7:30 p.m. at the lodge hall.

Work will be in the third degree and all Master Masons are invited, according to Max Weatherford, Master of the lodge.

Watergate . . . (Continued from Page 1)

any immediate comment on the latest White House edict.

However, Rep. Tom Railsback, R-Ill., a committee member, called St. Clair's announcement "most unfortunate."

"This decision is certain to provoke a confrontation with the Judiciary Committee, the end result of which will certainly be bad for the country as well as for the Republican party," Railsback said.

Rep. Don Edwards, D-Calif., said, "I'm sure we'll issue a subpoena."

There was further sign of a tightening White House stance toward Watergate on Tuesday when presidential counsel J. Fred Buzhardt refused to answer some of the hundreds of questions asked of him by the Senate Watergate Committee.

Buzhardt invoked executive privilege, national security and the attorney-client privilege to avoid the questions. However, Sen. Lowell P. Weicker Jr., R-Conn., who conducted the interrogation, said Buzhardt answered most of the questions.

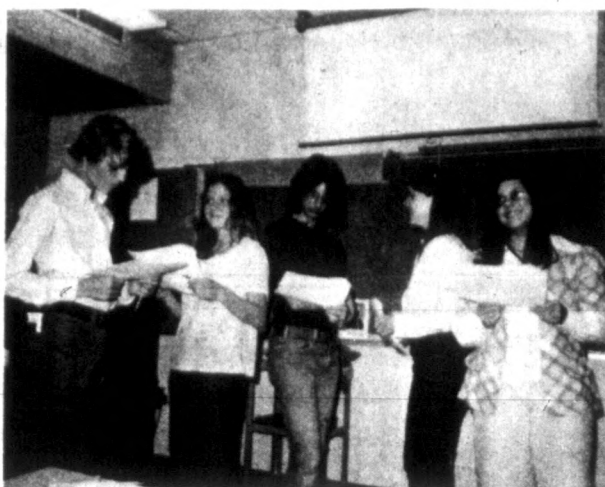

In another Watergate development Tuesday, Senate Republican Leader Hugh Scott said the transcripts of key Watergate conversations already released by Nixon reveal "a shabby, disgusting, immoral performance" by all involved.

Scott who has supported Nixon in the Watergate controversy, declined to criticize Nixon directly, but in talking to reporters and in a floor speech he said, "I am not going to take any position supporting any action which involved any form of immorality or criminality as the transcripts indicate."

St. Clair said Nixon still is willing to consider turning over additional evidence to the House Judiciary Committee dealing with political contributions by the dairy industry and the settlement of an antitrust suit against the International Telephone & Telegraph Corp.

The committee has outstanding requests for materials dealing with the milk and ITT cases, and St. Clair differentiated between these and the Watergate case.

St. Clair said Nixon had taken his Watergate stand because he believes there would be a "never-ending" stream of requests and because he has to preserve the presidency from such demands.

Country Music Show To Be, New Concord

A Country Music Show will be held at New Concord Elementary School on Saturday, May 11, at 7:30 p.m. The show will be sponsored by the eighth grade class.

Bands to be featured include Gene Kimbro and the Kentuckians, Bluegrass Ramblers, and Eugene Kirk and the Country Gentlemen.

The admission is 75 cents for adults and 50 cents for children. The public is invited, a school spokesman said.

Hazel Club Plans Luncheon Saturday

The luncheon for the Senior Citizens of the Hazel area will be held by the Hazel Woman's Club at the Educational Building of the Hazel Baptist Church on Saturday, May 11, at eleven a.m.

No invitations will be sent and all area senior citizens are invited.

Persons in need of transportation may call Mrs. Charles Knott 753-6416, Mrs. Charles Parker 492-8826, Mrs. Hughes Bennett 498-8324, or Mrs. Houston Ray 753-1920.

Wallace Wins Third Nomination

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF
AP Political Writer

Former astronaut John H. Glenn Jr. won the Democratic nomination for senator from Ohio on his third try and Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace won renomination for an unprecedented third term on the first big Tuesday of the 1974 primary season.

Candidates for three Senate seats, two governorships and more than 50 House seats were chosen as Alabama, Ohio, Indiana and North Carolina held primaries for the November mid-term elections.

Voters in the District of Columbia, meanwhile, gave overwhelming approval to a charter that restores a measure of self-government to the nation's capital for the first time in a century.

The 52-year-old Glenn, who 12 years ago became the first American to orbit the earth, showed surprising strength in Ohio's urban areas to end the brief Senate tenure of Howard M. Metzger, appointed last December when Republican William B. Saxbe resigned to become attorney general.

Inflation Causes Apprehension Among Credit Officers On Quality Of Loans To Consumers

By JOHN CUNIFF
AP Business Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — As consumers find themselves caught in the pinchers of rising prices and shrinking buying power, credit officers are growing a bit apprehensive about the quality of their loans.

Similar conditions in the past almost always have caused the number of "slow pay" accounts to rise automatically, and almost nobody expects this year to be an exception. Evidence of deterioration already is clear.

What makes this year's situation potentially critical is the likelihood that inflation will continue unabated or at a high level for many months more, possibly accompanied by a deteriorating economy.

The worst situation seems to exist in mobile home loans, where delinquencies for the January-February period rose sharply to 4.34 per cent, and repossessions averaged 7.21 per 1,000 loans.

The American Bankers Association, which made the report, considers a loan delinquent when a payment is more than 30 days overdue. However, some merchants and lenders also report deterioration of non-delinquent accounts.

William Ford, ABA chief economist, said the delinquency ratio for all installment loans rose to a record high of 2.69 per cent, breaking the previous high of 2.53 per cent set in the final two months of 1973.

The situation in the home mortgage area is less clear. While the Mortgage Bankers Association reported delinquencies for the final quarter of 1973 at a 20-year high, savings and loan associations found little or no increase.

The mortgage bankers said 4.7 per cent of its loans were a month or more past due in the final three months of the year, topping the previous high of 4.65 per cent in the comparable period of 1972.

The U.S. League of Savings Associations reported, however, that "The recent runaway inflation appears to have had no appreciable effect on the regularity with which the American family pays its mortgage payments."

It reported that loan delinquency for the first quarter of 1974 was only .82 per cent, or less than 1 per cent of all its loans outstanding. A year ago the rate was almost identical.

The savings associations use a much more liberal measure of what constitutes a delinquency, at least from the borrower's point of view. In its compilations a loan isn't delinquent until it is 60 days overdue.

These are the delinquency ratios compiled by the ABA for various types of installment loans:

Personal, 3.24 per cent of outstanding loans, up 6 per cent from the previous two-month period; mobile homes, 4.34 per cent, up 23 per cent; property improvement, 2.20 per cent, up 20 per cent; direct automobile loans, 1.66 per cent, no change; indirect auto loans (through auto dealer), 2.55 per cent, up 8 per cent.

'Coffee Nerves' Could Lead To Psychiatrist

DETROIT (AP) — Unrecognized "coffee nerves" could lead you to a psychiatrist and months of useless treatment with calm-down drugs, a psychiatrist said today.

Too much caffeine in coffee, tea or cola drinks can bring on all the symptoms of an anxiety state, said Dr. John P. Greden of Walter Reed Army Medical Hospital in Washington, D.C.

Drugs can help in true anxiety states but may not work against the effects of too much caffeine, he said.

Doctors should routinely ask patients about their caffeine intake, Greden suggested to the American Psychiatric Association.

Over-doses of caffeine can bring such symptoms as nervousness, irritability, tremulousness, occasional muscle twitching, sensory disturbances, attacks of diarrhea, insomnia, irregular heartbeat, drop in blood pressure and even circulatory failures, he said.

A doctor could interpret it all as an anxiety attack. Greden told of reviewing records of 100 psychiatric patients, 42 diagnosed as having anxiety, with no question ever having been asked about caffeine consumption.

He cited a new case of a woman, 27, suffering attacks of headache, lightheadedness, tremulousness, and irregular heartbeat two or three times daily. The symptoms developed over a three-week period.

Rejecting a diagnosis of anxiety reaction to something in her life, she did her own detective work, tracing the symptoms back to her purchase of a fresh-drip coffee pot.

"Because this coffee was 'so much better,' she had begun consuming an average of 10-12 cups of strong, black coffee per day, more than 1,000 milgrams of caffeine." That's four times the 250 milligrams considered a large dose. When she reduced coffee consumption to normal, her symptoms disappeared.

An Army officer took calm-down drugs for 14 months without effect. His dizziness, "butterflies in the stomach," diarrhea and other complaints went away when he cut back from consumption of as many as 14 cups of coffee daily, interspersed with three or four cola drinks.

He had been consuming 1,200 milligrams of caffeine daily.

STUBBLEFIELD APPRECIATION DINNERS—An appreciation dinner is scheduled for First District U.S. Congressman at Calvert City tomorrow night. A tri-county appreciation dinner is also scheduled at Lake Malone State Park next Monday night. The above scene is from the appreciation dinner held in Calloway County recently and attended by more than 1500 supporters. Rep. Stubblefield was in Paducah today to receive the endorsement of the political arm of the Kentucky Education Association. Rep. Stubblefield will be in all areas of the district throughout the remainder of the month.

She was among the 1,241 mid-year and spring graduates recognized during the 51st annual spring graduation exercise.

Blacks In Army Predicted To Reach Over 25 Per Cent

WASHINGTON (AP)—Army officials predict that black representation in the ranks may rise to 25 per cent over the long term.

This would be about 5 per cent higher than the current level and roughly double the percentage of young blacks in the general U.S. population. April recruitment figures have not yet been published, but black enlistments in the Army reportedly rose last month after leveling off in January through March.

Army manpower officials said they were unable to explain the increase, but it appeared the unsettled economic situation might be a factor.

While insisting they never will impose any racial quotas, officials are concerned about achieving what they call a "representative Army."

Secretary of the Army Howard H. Callaway said recently that "if it were perceived by the American public that the Army was a place only where blacks really belong and we got into this kind of position, I think it would not be a representative army."

"There is always the question that it would not be fair in times of combat for blacks to give more than their share of the danger and the suffering," Callaway said.

This suggests the Army still is sensitive because of allegations, denied at the time, that blacks took disproportionate casualties in the Vietnam war.

At the same time, Army officials indicate they are pleased with the quality of blacks in their units. One general noted that the Army's crack 82nd Airborne Division is 26 per cent black.

The Army has been the focus of attention for those trying to gauge progress under the all-volunteer concept, because the Army was the most draft-dependent of the armed forces before the selective service law died about 10 months ago.

There is no word yet on how black recruitment went in the Marines, the Navy and Air Force in April.

However, the Marine Corps reported that just under 21 per cent of its recruits were black in the nine months since the draft law went off the books. The Marine Corps has had trouble getting enough qualified volunteers, but not as much trouble as the Army.

The Navy, which has experienced recruiting ups and downs, recorded close to 10 per cent blacks among its recruits in that same nine-month period ending in March.

The Air Force, which has easily filled its volunteer quotas month after month, listed 16 per cent blacks among its recruits over the same span.

Study To Begin On Burley Marketing

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP)—A legislative staff study apparently will be begun soon on marketing burley tobacco in Kentucky, aimed at exposing alleged abuses in the system.

The Legislative Research Commission called for such a study Thursday along lines the 1974 General Assembly had asked the state Agriculture Department to do. Dr. John Nelson of the LRC staff reported Thursday that agency had said it did not have the money or resources for the job.

The study was first requested to correct the allocation system, under which some tobacco men say farmers are paid lower prices for their product because it is sold in large lots by general grade.

The federal government is going to look into that practice, Nelson said, but only for flue-cured tobacco at the outset. A study for burley tobacco apparently is some time off, he said.

Nelson said the interim committee on agriculture and natural resources could perform a real service by conducting such a study for burley tobacco over the coming months. He suggested at least one public hearing be held.

The LRC accepted his recommendation unanimously. On other matters at its first meeting since adjournment of the 1974 General Assembly, the LRC (comprised of the leadership of both parties and houses):

—Agreed with a suggestion by Lt. Gov. Julian Carroll that a study of automobile title laws in other states be expanded to also include how transfers of car ownership are handled here and what the tax on transfers will be.

Sen. Joe Graves, R-Lexington, commented that dealers say there are three different ways such taxes can be computed and they are unsure which to use.

Atty. Gen. Ed Hancock's Consumer Protection Division went to court this week to require several car dealers to refund to their customers excessive payments charged them for usage taxes.

—Approved a suggestion by House Speaker Norbert Blume, D-Louisville, to have Carroll appoint a commission to study the compensation of legislators, including pay and expenses.

Gov. Wendell Ford vetoed a 1974 bill that would have had a citizens panel study such compensation every two years. That panel would have been able to recommend increases which then would take effect automatically unless the next legislative session took action to stop them.

Carroll said he would be inclined not to appoint legislators to that panel, a feeling with which most LRC members seemed to agree. Some said some members could be former legislators.

—Agreed to give Dr. James Peyton a $6,000 personal service contract for consultant work for one year while he is on leave from the LRC staff working on a project for Kentucky educational television.

Dr. Peterson Installs New Alpha Chi Chapter

Dr. Clell T. Peterson, professor of English at Murray State University and a member of the national council of Alpha Chi, was the installing officer recently of a new chapter of the society at Brescia College, Owensboro.

The new Brescia chapter is the third active chapter in Kentucky, and the 13th in the nation of the society, which, since its founding in 1923, has inducted more than 70,000 members.

Because Alpha Chi differs from other general honor societies by trying to maintain close relations among the various institutions with chapters, Dr. Peterson expressed the hope that the three active chapters in Kentucky, Murray State, Kentucky Wesleyan and Brescia, will have joint meetings occasionally.

"Such meetings could lead to campus-wide programs that will be mutually beneficial to all three institutions," he said.

Your Individual Horoscope

Frances Drake

FOR THURSDAY, MAY 9, 1974

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

ARIES
(Mar. 21 to Apr. 20)
Some past agreements may have to be revised, strengthened. Competition should enliven the day in an interesting and challenging manner. Be responsive to new ideas.

TAURUS
(Apr. 21 to May 21)
Consider all propositions and suggestions offered, but do not be inveigled into anything that's not your dish. Fine influences stimulate your ambition.

GEMINI
(May 22 to June 21)
Don't give up on a pet project because it seems to lack luster. Try a novel twist in approach — to restore incentive and get going again.

CANCER
(June 22 to July 23)
Organize your schedule so as to eliminate time-wasting confusion. A good activity day for those born under this Sign.

LEO
(July 24 to Aug. 23)
Your judgment a bit cloudy now, so make no major decisions and, above all, don't launch any new undertakings. Stick with the familiar.

VIRGO
(Aug. 24 to Sept. 23)
Certain dilemmas and obstacles will not be as difficult to handle as you may think. Don't let them keep you from appreciating your advantages.

LIBRA
(Sept. 24 to Oct. 23)
No matter what changes are made in your routine, even in your environment, you can make quick adjustments, should get along well and even make notable improvements.

SCORPIO
(Oct. 24 to Nov. 22)
Unexpected interruptions may slow you down a bit but, if you coordinate as you should, you will find the means to straighten everything out satisfactorily.

SAGITTARIUS
(Nov. 23 to Dec. 21)
Adjustments, revisions, quick changes may be the order of the day. Take all in stride. Distribute energies judiciously; don't argue where tact, finesse will win.

CAPRICORN
(Dec. 22 to Jan. 20)
Some things may bother you more than usual. Don't fret.

Your native intuition and self-reliance stimulated now. And both will be needed if you are to solve some possible "tricky" situations. Don't become anxious, however.

YOU BORN TODAY are extremely versatile and are endowed with a personality so engaging that you can sell yourself and your wares with an almost unbelievable ease of effort. You are especially gifted along creative lines, with music, literature and the drama in the front line of your many affinities. You have also been endowed with the proverbial "green thumb" and would make an excellent horticulturist, botanist or agriculturist. You are self-sacrificing and will lend yourself to causes of humanitarian value. As a teacher or physician you would be outstanding but, no matter what you take up as a career, it will have distinctive touch — the mark of the true artist. Birthdate of: Sir James M. Barrie, novelist, dramatist; Henry J. Kaiser, industrialist.

What did you say about lady drivers?

Women are holding an increasing share of drivers' licenses in the United States. In 1940, women accounted for 24.3 per cent of all licenses, while in 1973 the figure was 44.2 per cent. — CNS

Networks Plan Full Coverage of Hearings

NEW YORK (AP) — Although public portions of the House Judiciary Committee's impeachment investigation may be at least 2½ weeks away, plans already are afoot for full TV coverage, both live or videotaped.

The Public Broadcasting Service says it definitely will cover the open hearings. But it hasn't decided yet if it'll televise them live or record them on videotape — as it did for most of the Senate Watergate hearings — for replay in full during prime evening time.

A spokesman for the ABC

Television network said his company planned live coverage and is working out final arrangements with CBS and NBC for "rotating" the coverage, a system the networks adopted last June 5 in the early stages of the Senate Watergate hearings.

CBS and NBC officials say there is a tentative agreement for the networks to rotate live coverage among themselves, but that the deal isn't final yet. They expect no problems in reaching an agreement.

It appears that live or videotape coverage of the Judiciary

Committee's public inquiry into the possible impeachment of President Nixon won't be anywhere as lengthy as the coverage of the Watergate hearings.

Those proceedings began on May 17 a year ago, lasted 53 days and didn't leave the nation's TV screens until November.

A spokesman for the House committee said once the group's open hearings start, "the best estimate is that they're going to run about five or six weeks."

And he noted that the committee's chairman, Rep. Peter W. Rodino Jr., D-N.J., "has said he's going to run them (the open hearings) three days a week, morning and afternoon."

The start of these sessions, the spokesman said, may come "the week after next. That's the best estimate right now."

He said the committee may have to close some sessions to the public and reporters if certain testimony might "affect someone's constitutional rights in an ongoing court case or something like that."

"But otherwise they plan on keeping the hearings open."

Insurance Companies Asked To Exercise Restraint In Rates

By SY RAMSEY
Associated Press Writer
FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — Expressing concern about potential increases in health insurance rates, Insurance Commissioner Harold McGuffey asked companies Thursday to exercise restraint.

"This is an opportune time for the health care industry to demonstrate community responsibility," he said in a statement. "We urge them to use all techniques that tend to reduce costs without lowering the quality of care patients receive."

The commissioner said later in an interview that an informal agreement could be worked out among physicians, hospitals and health insurance firms under which doctors would try to reduce hospital admissions and get their patients released earlier.

McGuffey cited two factors that point inevitably to health insurance premium raises: —The industry has been freed from federal price controls this week. —At the same time a federal minimum wage law has taken effect, raising the pay floor from $1.60 to $1.90 per hour.

"Sixty per cent of a hospital's costs are labor," McGuffey said. "Also, when the lowest paid workers get minimum raises, the tendency is to step up the salaries of all others, too."

An estimated 400 companies white accident and health insurance in Kentucky, and perhaps 85 per cent of the policies leave room for rate increases.

Deputy Insurance Commissioner Gil McCarthy said the state is not in an enviable position in deciding whether a company's rate request should be approved, rejected or modified.

If the premiums are kept too low, he said, a firm could simply refuse to renew policies or stop doing business in the state.

Although McGuffey mentioned "widespread indications" that many companies would seek increases he declined to estimate the probable range.

When asked about 10 per cent he replied: "That's within the ball park."

Several analysts will review every filing and, with McGuffey, will judge whether the request is excessive or reasonable.

Proof of the need for an increase is on the company, but McGuffey implied the minimum wage aspect would carry considerable weight.

He said the pattern of giving a number of firms "nominal" premium increases the past few years under federal price guidelines could soften the latest round of requests.

McGuffey also suggested, in light of the recent tornadoes in Kentucky, that employers and workers recheck health protection plans to make sure they are up-to-date and meeting the rising cost of health care.

MAKE THOSE TIRES LAST
AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Getting the most out of your tires is doubly important during the energy shortage because 80 per cent of the materials that go into tires are made from petroleum and other hydrocarbons, the Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co. says.

Business Economists Gather For Discussion

By JOHN CUNIFF
AP Business Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — After a long, hard, puzzling week, several prominent New York business economists, some of whom are inclined to depart early on Fridays, gathered instead for dinner and discussion.

As one of them said, "We'd been comparing notes all week long and we didn't seem to agree on much. I'd been on the road a good deal and I just didn't understand other viewpoints and I think I should."

To the distress of this economist and scores of others, nothing in the economy seems to tie together neatly. Frayed, loose strings are hanging everywhere and it's almost impossible to trace them to their source.

For example: Joblessness in April dropped to 5 per cent of the labor force — from 5.1 per cent in March and 5.2 per cent in both January and February — when almost all forecasts were for an increase.

If this was a recession, in other words, it certainly wasn't showing up in the unemployment figures. The nation's industrial output may have shrunk, but for debatable reasons the number of jobs dropped by 95,000.

The various economic pieces are numerous as those in a jigsaw puzzle, but they don't seem to fit at all. Inflation rages, for instance, but labor so far this year seems less insistent than last year on big pay increases.

And if there is a downturn in the economy, you certainly can't tell it by corporate profits. They're way up. And you'd hardly know interest rates are at historic highs, because capital spending plans are higher too.

In fact, the latest survey by McGraw Hill indicates that business intends to spend 19 per cent more on improvements to plant and equipment than it did last year. That would mean a total of $119.1 billion, or $19.4 billion more.

It is spending intentions such as this that have the Federal Reserve Board as anxious as it ever has been in years. The Fed feels it must cut those spending plans if inflationary chaos isn't to ensue.

But the Fed's case isn't that clear cut at all. Thousands of businessmen and investors maintain that with the country's output shrinking, and productivity declining, the Fed should be encouraging activity.

In other words, they disagree 100 per cent with the Fed, both in its outlook and approach. If high interest rates were the way to price stability, they ask, wouldn't results have shown up by now?

Some congressmen feel pretty much the same as do the Fed's critics, and are advocating a tax cut. They feel that individuals need some relief from rising costs and that the economy as a whole needs a spur.

If, therefore, you are confused about where the economy is and where it is heading, you have plenty of company, such as Congress, the Federal Reserve Board, elements of labor, economists, bankers, industrial-

Grain Losses Could Hurt State Farmers

PRINCETON, Ky. (AP) — Kentucky farmers could lose nearly $3 million on this spring's small grain crops because of spring freezes and plant diseases, according to a University of Kentucky grain specialist.

James Herbek, grain specialist at the UK research and extension facility near here, said barley apparently has been the hardest hit, with about two-thirds of the state's 60,000 acres damaged.

Wheat, barley and oats were affected by the hard freezes in early spring, while barley yellow dwarf disease affected all three.

Herbek said, in a good year, farmers could expect a yield of about 70 bushels of barley per acre. "But as a result of the freeze damage and disease the yield will be more like 40 bushels."

Based on a market value of $1.50 per bushel, the financial loss would be about $1.8 million, he said.

He said there also is sharp concern about wheat, noting that some farmers who sold their wheat under contract may not have it now to deliver.

Herbek estimated 15 per cent of the total wheat acreage has some damage.

The result, he said, could be a financial loss of at least $800,000.

Los Angeles Residents Are Discovering Busses

By DAN BERGER
Associated Press Writer
LOS ANGELES (AP) — After 25 years of depending heavily on the car, many residents of this freeway-filled city are discovering a new way to get around: The bus.

There has been a rapid transit bus system in Los Angeles for years, but most persons have found their cars more convenient.

Now comes the 25-cent ride. And for many motorists, plagued by high gasoline prices and spiraling parking fees, the bus and its quarter ride have become too good to pass up.

On April 1, county supervisors authorized $9.6 million from federal revenue sharing funds to allow riders to go anywhere in an area 110 miles wide and 55 miles long for just 25 cents.

"The 25-cent ride has changed things and brought a lot of people around," says Jack Gilstrap, general manager of the Southern California Rapid Transit District. For one thing, the number of riders jumped 15 per cent.

District officials hope the program will lure up to 25 per cent more passengers by June 30, when the program ends. If supervisors agree on the scope of its success, the program will be continued.

To carry the new riders, the District bought new buses, refurbished 150 old ones and hired 130 drivers to bring the total to 3,000. Buses now carry about 670,000 persons a day, about 75,000 more than before the 25-cent ride began.

To increase bus business, Sunday rides were cut to 10 cents. Also, motorists can park free in District lots in suburban El Monte and San Gabriel and ride the buses to Los Angeles via a special freeway lane. The success of the "park and ride" sites has stirred plans for more, Gilstrap said.

He estimates the 25-cent cost replaces $1.32 that commuters used to pay for riding from Long Beach to Pasadena, a distance of about 35 miles. For passengers traveling the 65 miles from San Bernardino to downtown Los Angeles, the fare has been whacked from $2.02 to $1.43. Riders on that run pay the old fare schedule only for the portion of their trip outside Los Angeles County, where the quarter fares do not apply.

Man Who Turned Over An Ocean Liner To Burn Tallest Building

By BOB THOMAS
Associated Press Writer
LOS ANGELES (AP) — The man who overturned an ocean liner—and the film industry—is now going to set fire to the world's tallest building.

Irwin Allen is the man with the match, and his studio-made disaster begins Wednesday with opening scenes of "The Towering Inferno."

A producer who is prone to hyperbole, he claims these records for the new film: the most expensive cast of all time, the costliest sets in Hollywood history and the first coproduction by two major studios.

Allen is the man who produced "The Poseidon Adventure," which, he reports, has already pulled in $139 million at the world's box offices. Its success prompted film companies to search for other people-in-disaster projects.

That's how "The Towering Inferno" came about. Allen's home studio, 20th Century-Fox made a bid of $350,000 for an unpublished novel, "The Tower," about a group of celebrities trapped in a burning skyscraper the night before its opening. Warner Bros. snatched it away with a $410,000 offer.

"Then a miracle happened," Allen related. "Along came another book 'The Glass Inferno,' about the world's tallest building which catches fire during a celebration on the night before the opening. Different writers with different publishers working on different coasts had come up with the same plot. I gulped real hard and told the Fox executives: 'Buy it.' They shelled out $400,000."

The producer proposed, "Let's do something very dramatic." His idea of a coproduction was at first dismissed as impractical, but Fox chairman Dennis Stanfill and president Gordon Stulberg agreed to discuss it with their Warner Bros. counterparts.

All met in Allen's office, and Warners chairman Ted Ashley asked, "Why should we be partners?" Allen invited his visitors into an adjoining office. On the walls were dramatic sketches depicting the skyscraper holocaust. Seven designers had worked for 10 days to complete them.

"Let's be partners," Ashley remarked.

The two companies made a unique agreement. Both would share production costs, and 20th-Fox would release the film here, Warners abroad. Irwin Allen bears responsibility for making the film, but he admitted that he consults both managements on major decisions.

Stirling Silliphant, who wrote "Poseidon," did the script for "The Towering Inferno," drawing characters and events from both books. The script has been refurbished from time to time to fit the dimensions of new cast members.

The cast so far: Steve McQueen, Paul Newman, William Holden, Faye Dunaway, Fred Astaire, Jennifer Jones, Robert Wagner, Richard Chamberlain, O. J. Simpson.

Army Begins Investigation Of Ad Agency

By MIKE SHANAHAN
AP Military Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army has begun a preliminary investigation into alleged mis-handling of funds by an advertising agency that holds a $35 million contract for enticing new military volunteers to enlist.

Officials say Army investigators will be reviewing the records of N.W. Ayer & Son, a Philadelphia agency that writes the volunteer Army ads that appear in magazines, newspapers and billboards.

In a statement released Monday in answer to questions, the Army said: "As a result of certain allegations made concerning the Army advertising account for recruiting and related matters, the Army Criminal Investigations Command is conducting an inquiry into the matter."

A spokesman said results of the inquiry would determine whether a full-scale formal investigation was warranted.

Reports of the initial inquiry first appeared in the trade magazine Advertising Age. It could not be determined how large a dollar amount the alleged mis-handling of funds involved.

One official source who asked not to be named said an employee of the Ayer agency reported to the Army the government was being overcharged for some magazine ads. The Ayer employee reportedly said rebates from various publications were not reported as called for in the Army contract.

The rebates were said to be due the Army because some ads should have cost less than initially charged against the Army account.

A senior executive in Ayer's Philadelphia headquarters said Monday the "allegation is totally unfounded." The executive asked not to be identified.

However, Neal W. O'Connor, chairman of the agency, called for a speedy investigation into "the charges which the press tells us have been leveled."

Illiteracy Rate In U.S. Termed 'Alarming And Discouraging' By Government's Reading Experts

WASHINGTON (AP) — One million U. S. children aged 12 to 17 cannot read even at the fourth-grade level, according to a new federal report.

Results of the special four-year testing program, suggesting illiteracy to be more pervasive than ever before realized, were termed "alarming and discouraging" by Dr. Ruth Love Holloway, the government's reading expert.

The problem was found to be the most severe among low-income black males, of whom one out of five could not read formal schooling without being able to read a simple paragraph.

The National Center for Health Statistics, an arm of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, said the findings indicate that existing government definitions of literacy "might lead to serious underestimates" of the problem.

Part of HEW's Health Examination Survey, the special reading tests were administered to a sampling of 6,768 youths between 1966 and 1970.

The scoring showed that 4.8 per cent were illiterate. Projected nationwide, that means about 1 million of 22.7 million school-age children who should be in grades 6 through 12 cannot read a fourth grader's materials.

Illiteracy was found to be most prevalent among boys, especially blacks from low-income families where parents had little or no formal education.

For example, 4.7 per cent of white males and 1.7 per cent of white females could not read, compared with 20.5 per cent of black males and 9.6 per cent of black females.

In families with less than $3,000 annual income, 9.8 per cent of white youths and 22.1 per cent of blacks were judged illiterate. But the inability to read dropped to 3.5 per cent and 12.6 per cent, respectively, in the $5,000-$6,999 income level, and to .8 per cent and 4.7 per cent in families earning more than $10,000.

For those whose parents parents had little or no formal education, 22 per cent of whites and 53 per cent of blacks could not pass the test.

When one parent had finished elementary school, the illiteracy rate fell to 6 per cent for white youths and 18 per cent for blacks.

Dr. Holloway, director of HEW's Right to Read program, said the testing results were "alarming and discouraging."

But, she added, "I wouldn't argue with the validity at all."

"It's an alarming figure but even more alarming when you're talking about people in school. The schools obviously are not meeting the kids' needs," she said.

GRADUATION AT MURRAY STATE—Nancy Holland Curtis of 711 Elm, Murray, a graduate of Murray State University in the 1974 spring commencement May 3, accepts her degree and the congratulations of Dr. Constantine W. Curtis, university president. Mrs. Curtis earned the B. S. degree in psychology. She was among the 1,241 mid-year and spring graduates recognized during the 51st annual spring graduation exercise.

'Swerving' Said To Be Cause Of Tape Miscues

WASHINGTON (AP) — At last, an explanation for some of those "inaudible" and "unintelligible" gaps in the White House transcripts of President Nixon's Watergate conversations.

Swerving caused them. Swerving? According to White House lawyer J. Fred Buzhardt, swerving is the noise on the tape during the time it takes an automatic recorder to start and get to recording speed.

The White House taping system was actuated by sound. The microphones pick up a noise—a voice, a slamming door, a clock ticking loudly—and the reels begin to turn.

Buzhardt is a lawyer, not an audio specialist, but he was one of the first and one of the few to listen to the tapes.

He offered his explanation in an interview with Westinghouse Broadcasting Co.

"Probably the most predominant cause of inaudible or unintelligible is the voice actuator system on which the system operates," he said. "When there is a hesitation or interruption in speech the gain (volume) control usually moves from the lowest point of sensitivity to the highest point of sensitivity."

Still with us? "At the same time the tape reels, which have stopped turning with the interruption, then accelerate and pick up to playing speed. The combination of the gain control movement plus the acceleration of the tape through the recorder produces a swerving noise which normally obscures the first few syllables spoken after the interruption of speech."

Buzhardt also said that there is a relationship between how deep the voice is and the fidelity of the recording. The lower the voice, the more distortion.

He said the President has a lower voice than John W. Dean III and therefore the former White House counsel comes through more clearly.

Dean, he said, has a higher-pitched, rather flat tone of speech.

"The President has, relatively speaking, a more bass voice than does Mr. Dean," Buzhardt added. "I guess Mr. (John N.) Mitchell has the basses of the voices in any of the tapes that were recorded and he is almost impossible to hear on the recordings."

For the record, it should be noted that there are about 1,670 portions claimed by White House transcribers to be inaudible or unintelligible. In 1,075 of them the President was speaking.

There is no count yet on how many were caused by swerving.

Rational Behavior Therapy Being Practiced In Theory

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—"I never did believe that Freud was right," says a psychiatrist at the University of Kentucky who is practicing a new treatment known as Rational Behavior Therapy.

Dr. Maxie Maultsby Jr. calls Rational Behavior Therapy "mind-blowing" because it is based on the theory that behavior is learned and that patients can be "taught" new ways to behave and feel. He contrasted it with Freudian theory, which he labeled "magic" because it relies on forces outside the patient for an explanation of behavior.

"People now talk about the go like it was your right hand," Dr. Maultsby commented. He said terms like ego and id are just mental concepts that were given the status of fact by therapists.

"In rational behavior therapy there's no need for the unconscious," Maultsby said.

The theory behind RBT is that it's "what you think and believe about what you are aware of that makes up how you feel," he said.

"The brain works like a lousy camera," he said.

"The average person bases reality on what he sees—when really that's an image." People tend to ignore objective reality and color things.

"Everybody does it to some extent," he added, "but it's of little consequence unless you're not getting the response you want in every situation."

Dr. Maultsby believes his system can be used to treat phobias, inferiority complexes, self-hatred and obsessions.

"The only people in-appropriate for RBT are those with brain damage or those unwilling to help themselves," he said.

The therapy has "as much potential for helping people who are coping inadequately or who would never think to go into therapy as it does for those with more serious problems," he said.

Rational behavior is a legitimate goal because "the world is an orderly place," he said.

"Magic does not exist." A rational behavior therapist treats his patients in a manner "closer to the way you would approach a medical patient—you would take his medical history and proceed from there," Dr. Maultsby said. "In RBT you proceed on the basis of the patient's habits of thinking and perceiving."

The "rules" or criteria in RBT involve teaching the patient to view reality objectively, to be interested in preserving his life, and to have goals.

Patients are also taught to keep out of undesirable trouble with others and to learn to feel the way they want to feel.

Along with individual therapy and group sessions, patients work on mental exercises and do intensive review of their thoughts and actions aimed at conquering their particular problems.

Dr. Maultsby said that in working to live by the five RBT rules, patients are working toward their optimal emotional health and that the rules could be taken as a capsule description of maximum mental health.

Although rational behavior therapy is beginning to be widely practiced in the United States, Dr. Maultsby said the University of Kentucky is the only hospital that offers intensive training in RBT and which offers patients intensive one-and two-week RBT sessions.

Doctors refer out-of-state patients to the UK hospital who haven't made progress in other kinds of therapy.

Mary Smith (not her real name), a woman in her late 40s, was one of those referred to the hospital recently for rational behavior therapy.

Mary came to the hospital depressed and confused, but after two days of therapy said, "What was formerly a big muddle became so clear ... it's so simple, it was so easy to follow it."

"The thing that impresses me that you zero in so fast — it cures you so fast," she said.

"It's like getting over any sickness," she added. "You'll still be weak but the cure has taken place."

Bob Jones, (not his real name), a slightly built man in his mid-30s, said after two weeks of therapy, "I don't know if I'll be changed. I just know I'll be able to grab hold of things."

Bob, whose main problem is reacting with anger to situations he can't deal with, said, "I'm still going to get angry — but the more I practice, the better I can control it. I feel good here."
