THOROBREDS DEFEAT WESTERN 21-0 TO WIN KIAC TITLE

Team Completes Perfect Season Over State Squads

Murray Wins Fourth Game in Traditional Series With Toppers

Murray State College climaxed one of its most successful football seasons Saturday, November 22, in Cutchin Stadium by trouncing the Western Hilltoppers by a 21-0 count.

The win over the Toppers gave the Breds the KIAC championship with three wins against no defeats to state teams. Closest to the Murray eleven in the conference was Louisville who had won two victories over state teams.

The Thoroughbred record for the '47 season reads six victories and three losses.

4th Win

The win Saturday marked the fourth time that a Murray outfit had beaten a Western aggregation. The Hilltoppers have won seven of the 14 games with three ending in ties.

The Murray-Western game this year, like the one in '46, saw a Thoroughbred eleven that completely outclassed the Red and Gray. Had the Toppers been with their ace freshman passer, Jim Pickens, the 21-0 score might have been boosted to the 55-6 score that the Breds ran up last year in the Western stadium.

Even with Pickens the Warren county eleven was still ineffective. The Princeton passer was rushed all afternoon by a powerful Thoroughbred line and he was able to complete only short passes that picked up little ground. When Pickens was able to hit his receivers far down the field his ends and backs couldn't hold on to the wet pigskin.

No Time Wasted

The Thoroughbreds wasted little time before they put the Hilltoppers in the hole.

Bob Sanders kicked off for Murray and the ball was downed on the Western 24. On the first two plays from scrimmage the Hilltoppers lost 17 yards with Pat McNeil, Western flash from Louisville, carrying the ball backwards for 11 of the 17 lost yards.

From his own five Harold Murphy kicked the ball to Tommy Walker in Murray territory. The all-KIAC, halfback returned the ball to the Western 43. Walker picked up 16 yards with two tries and Ralph McClain followed with three to place the ball on the 22. Dale McDaniel ran for five yards and Murray scored on the next play.

McClain Laterals

McClain ran over left tackle and about to be tackled on the ten, lateraled the ball to McDaniel. The South Bend speed master threaded his way through Western would-be tacklers and put Murray out front 6-0 with less than five minutes gone of the game. End Bob Sanders kicked the extra point to make it seven for the Blue and Gold.

Murray failed to capitalize on a scoring drive the next time the Breds had the ball. Starting on the Western 43 the Breds racked up three first downs and moved the ball to the seven yard marker before Tom Covington fumbled.

Western recovered, but failing to gain ground, had to kick the ball. Murray began the third drive and this one was good for the second tally.

Out of Bounds

After Murphy had kicked out of bounds on the Murray 46, Joe Bronson and Bill McClure picked up 11 yards each and McClain added two to the Murray cause to place the ball on the Western 30.

McClure, getting plenty of protection from the Murray line, took his time and hit Winfred Dill in the end zone 30 yards away for the second Thoroughbred score. Sanders again converted to put Murray ahead 14-0 before the first period had ended.

Shultz Addresses State Education Group In Arkansas

Professor Fred Shultz of the education department was one of the speakers at the annual convention of the Arkansas Education Association, held recently at Little Rock.

Mr. Shultz made three addresses at the convention. "The Show Must Go On" was the topic of the address presented to the Retired Teacher section at a luncheon. In the afternoon, he spoke to the departmental group on the subject, "The Secondary Teacher."

While attending the convention, the professor also addressed a section of the Arkansas Negro Education Association.

State Home Ec. Groups To Meet In Louisville

Miss Caroline Wingo of the home economics department who is state adviser of college home economics clubs has begun detailed planning of the program for the state home economics meeting.

The state meeting will take place on December 12, at the Brown Hotel in Louisville. The various colleges in Kentucky will send delegates.

A delegate will be selected by the MSC Home Economics club as a representative at the state meet.

DR. HERBERT HALPERT ASKS FOR CONTRIBUTIONS OF FOLKLORE MATERIAL, "RESOURCES UNLIMITED"

December 4, Thursday—Basketball game with Evansville College, here.

December 10, Wednesday—Chapel, "The Messiah."

December 12, Friday—Basketball game with Delta State, here, 8:00.

December 13, Saturday—Christmas Party in the Student Center, 8:00 p.m., sponsored by the Student Org.

December 19, Christmas Vacation begins.

Religious Council Conducts Vespers

"Ceremony of the Soil" was the theme of the Thanksgiving Vesper service held by the Religious Council Sunday night, November 23, in the Presbyterian Church.

Students form the various religious organizations on the campus participated in the service. Don Prince directed the speaking chorus, and Pat Cronin directed the student choir.

Murray's folklore authority and author of several articles on the subject, Dr. Herbert Halpert, head of the literature department, has issued an urgent plea for contributions of folksongs, ghost stories, rhymes, superstitions and other suitable folklore material.

Stating that some material has been contributed by students, Dr. Halpert feels that the amount of folklore in this territory is unlimited and much of it has never organized into any written account.

As representative of the kind of material wanted, Dr. Halpert gives a song, "I'm Determined To Be An Old Maid," brought in by Gloria Jean Spans of Murray and words and music to "As I Walked Out One Morn in May" from Anna French of Princeton. Several "play-party" songs have been contributed by John Freeman of Benton.

Other materials include tall tales collected by Bill Brown of Princeton and ghost stories and superstitions peculiar to the Pennyrile section of the state.

Dr. Halpert hopes to interest students and townspeople of Murray in making a permanent record of the folklore of the section.

"This particular section of the country was isolated by lack of communication and natural barriers for so long that it should contain some very original lore," he added.

The professor plans to use some of this material in articles for publication in national folklore magazines and emphasized that full credit will be given anyone contributing useable material.

Dr. Halpert evidenced an interest in starting publication of a local folklore magazine if enough interest is shown in this region.

Dr. Halpert plans to make recordings of some of the more unusual lore as a means of retaining authentic color.

This would also serve as a permanent record as the professor hopes to interest Dr. Duncan Emrich, head of the Archive of American Folksong of the Library of Congress, in accepting copies of the recordings.

A course in folklore is scheduled for the winter quarter and will be taught by the department head. Students taking the course will do field work for a term paper as part of the requirements of the course.

"Unlike some term papers," states Dr. Halpert, "the material collected will be useful and the student will be contributing something new and useful for a change. It will also afford the student a chance for publication of his material."

Dr. J. W. Carr Observes 88th Birthday

Became First President of College In 1923

December 13 Dr. John W. Carr, first president of MSC, will quietly observe his eighty-eighth birthday. The "College News" extends its heartiest congratulations to one who has done education, in general, and Murray State, in particular, such great service.

On December 13, 1859, as pre-Civil War crises rapidly developed, John Wesley Carr was born in the "Kaintuck" section of southern Indiana. Today, almost 88 years later, Dr. Carr, the president emeritus of Murray College, may look back with complete satisfaction on six decades of public service in the field of education.

Beginning as a teen-age "Hoosier schoolmaster" in the 1870's, Dr. Carr has since been continually associated with the teaching profession, which he predicts will become "the greatest profession in the world."

In 1923, he came to Murray to accept the presidency of the newly-established normal school.

Following his presidency, Dr. Carr served as dean of the college, again as president, and for a second time he was named dean. Since his retirement, he has held the position of president emeritus. The Carr Health building was named in his honor.

Dr. Carr is at present preparing a history of the college and has recently completed chapter 13 of his book.

Speaking of his life-long service in the classroom, Dr. Carr says, "I have been associated with youth continually for 81 years, and I still like and have faith in them."

Alumni Secretary Mails Ballots For Election of Officers

Ballots for the election of Alumni Association officers and class representatives were sent out last week by the secretary of the alumni group, Mrs. George Hart.

Active members of the association will receive ballots and the results of the voting should be known within three weeks, according to Mrs. Hart.

Vets Drive Nets $188 For Friendship Train

The city of Murray, faculty members and students, and Murray State College organizations contributed 188 dollars worth of food to the Friendship Train last week.

The Veterans club on the campus under the leadership of its president, William Presson, directed the drive for donations in Murray and on the college campus.

According to Presson the citizens of Murray and members of the faculty and students of the college cooperated in making Western Kentucky's only contribution to the train a success.

Only Organization "As far as I know, we were the only organization in this end of the state that contributed to the worthy cause," the head of the veterans said.

The Friendship Train was an outgrowth of an idea by Drew Pearson, American news analyst. The first sections of the train were formed in California several weeks ago and proceeded east toward New York. The train added cars in major cities and approximately 400 have arrived in the eastern city.

CHRISTMAS PARTY SET FOR DEC. 13

Location For Yule Celebration Not Yet Decided Upon

A Christmas party will be given Saturday night, December 13, either in the Student Lounge in Wilson Hall or the lobby of Ordway Hall.

The party is being given to arouse a Christmas spirit among the students, according to Mr. Yancey. Mr. Yancey said that there would probably be carol singing in keeping with Christmas festivities.

The plans are not definite but have been assigned to committees. Dean Yancey said that any suggestions from the student body to these committees would be appreciated.

Jaqueline Robertson as chairman, Clarence Walker, Len Foster, Billy Crossway, Pinky Niceley, Prof. Syndergaard, and Prof. Joseph Goltz make up the entertainment committee.

Mrs. Alta Presson is chairman of the refreshment committee and Dix Winston heads the decorating committee. Danny Altman is in charge of the advertising committee.

Commerce Club Pictures Taken

The Twentieth Century Commerce club held a special meeting November 18, at 5:00 p.m. in the typing room of the library to have pictures taken for the Shield.

A group picture of the club was taken in the typing room. A picture of the officers of the club was made in room 309 of Wilson Hall.

The proposed request for next year calls for employing 13 additional faculty members. This point is also in line with recommendations made by Griffenhagen.

It was also brought out by the research company and presented to the legislators, that with the completion of the science building, the present administration building should be remodeled to provide more office space.

That a student union building be constructed, providing student enrollment does not decline and when construction costs are reduced.

That the present physical plant be repaired and remodeled and the heating plant be made more adequate.

A partial breakdown of the capital outlay report reveals that, during 1948-49, $450,000 is needed as a continuing appropriation to complete the science building; 160,000 for new boilers and reworking the present heating plant; and 25,000 for repairs and improvements to the water system.

The report also shows that for the 1949-50 fiscal year, $35,000 is needed to remodel and repair the administration building; 15,000 to add face brick to the mechanical arts building and 50,000 for instructional equipment.

BIOGRAPHIES OF NOTED MEN IN MANY FIELDS FEATURED IN ADDITIONS TO COLLEGE LIBRARY

Featuring this week a selected list of recently published biographies, the college library offers an extensive list of books to suit a varied range of student tastes.

For those readers who are interested in the fine arts, the library has available such publications as "Florestan, The Life and Work of Robert Schumann" by Robert Schauflier.

The story of his career and appraisal of his works by an authority tells of his pampered youth and young manhood as the revolutionary genius of piano music and musical journalism. It also presents the stark picture of his gradual breakdown and his wife's affair with Brahms while he perished in the asylum. The second part of the book is an account of Schumann's music and notable discoveries of his, such as the invention of a new notation form.

Composers Lives "Famous American Composers," a selected collection of the lives of America's best known composers is written by Grace Overmyer. The book comments on the niche the composers have made in the history of America.

Still in the field of music, Israel Nestev's "Sergei Prokofiev, His Musical Life" has received critic's acclaim as a remarkably full and revealing life of a well known musician. The book includes much critical and interpretative material.

"Men and Women Who Make Music" is an interpretation of well-known musicians by David Ewen who is often called the country's foremost music interpreter.

Artists Lives Biographies of artists include such works as "Vasari's Lives of the Artists," which has been abridged and edited by Betty Burroughs. This work has been classified as an indispensable sourcebook for students of Italian art.

Martin Birnbaum, authority and author of several books on art, has presented a collection of essays on eight artists, all important in their field. Mr. Birnbaum gives readers an introduction to the character and work of the men concerned. Included in the group of artists are Alexandre Jacovleff, William Blake and others.

Debate Squad Members Chosen; Four Are New

Professor James A. Tracy announces the debate squad has been chosen and assignment made for the winter quarter.

New candidates are: Eugene Allen, junior; Royal Targen, junior; Jim James, freshman; and Robert Prince, junior.

Walker Lands on AP All-KIAC Team 2nd Year, Wyatt, Hackney Win Spots

By Virgil Adams

The Murray State College football team placed three players on the Associated Press all KIAC eleven for 1947. Tommy Walker, Jack Wyatt, and John Hackney were the Thoroughbreds making the all-star eleven.

Murray was the only team in the state to have three men named on the honor team. Walker, a triple threat from Brownsville, Tenn., made all-KIAC last year. His performances this season have exceeded his 1946 showings when the 178 pounder was bothered with injuries.

Walker played at Murray before the war and returned to don the blue and gold in 1945 after being discharged from the Navy. Though Walker can pass and kick, he excels as a runner. The 24 year old halfback will graduate from Murray in 1948.

Jack Wyatt, a 210 pound end from Dyersburg, Tenn., is hailed by many Thoroughbred fans as the best end ever to carry the blue and gold of Murray State. Wyatt came to Murray last year a transfer from Southwestern of Memphis. He made the varsity in '46 but was slowed down because of injuries.

Wyatt, however, made a name for himself during last year's season. Dan Seism, sports editor of the Evansville Courier, said that Wyatt could play end on any team in the nation. Seism's statement came after he had watched the big wingman perform against the Purple Aces at Evansville last year.

Wyatt was named on the all-KIAC, second team last season and later received honorable mention for all-American.

Rated one of the best pass receivers in the south, Wyatt is a powerhouse on defense. Opposing Murray teams admit that it is next to impossible to gain ground around Wyatt's end.

Before coming to Murray the popular end had served as captain of his Dyersburg Highschool team and had led his mates at Southwestern before the war. He has been captain of the Murray team this year. Wyatt is a senior.

John Hackney came to Murray last year from Hopkinsville and made the Thoroughbred eleven as a freshman.

Had Hackney been an upperclassman with more football experience he would have placed on the conference team last year. The 19 year old tackle has been a spark in the Murray line this season.

Rated one of the roughest tackles in the state on defense, Hackney is also a deadly blocker. The six feet, 195 pounder is expected to improve during his next two years of college football.

Three Murray guards received honorable mention on the AP K.I.A.C. team—Ken Ewitt, Floyd Hooks, and B. I. Middleton. Jim Humphrey, Murray halfback, also rated honorable mention on the all-star team.

The 1947 Christmas Season Is Here

Throughout the country stores are being decorated. Trees and lights and wreaths are going up everywhere. The store counters are filled with presents for all. Greeting cards are being bought which wish "Merry Christmas—Happy New Year."

Along highways we see livestock; cattle feeding from big haystacks, pigs so fat they hate to raise their weight, and yet the grain is piled for them to eat more. These livestock help supply the American people with Christmas season meats.

At Murray State we eagerly wait for December 19, the day we leave for our Christmas vacation. We plan to go to homes that are comfortable and well heated; homes with full coal bunkers to insure us warmth when the weather gets cold. We look forward to big snows and zero temperatures. We expect a table piled high with stuffed turkey and other things that make the Christmas dinner.

This is a picture of America, of your state or your community, a picture of Murray or your school. It is a picture of plenty, of a fairly happy, fairly contented and fairly secure people. It is a picture we like.

But there is another picture, a picture of hunger and starvation, a picture of Europe or China or India, or of many other places.

While north winds blow through towns of desolation in western Europe, undernourished children that have never had sufficient food huddle in a cold room, and a mother, scantily clothed, trudges the rounds of the stores in search for food not to be found.

In Europe the supply of coal and other fuels is running out. The people see a Christmas of cold rooms and empty tables. They see a future of insecurity; they see a life of unhappiness. This is a picture we hate.

From the newspapers and radio they learn that in America friendship trains are being loaded with food to ship to Europe to help them survive the winter, that the United States Congress is meeting to appropriate money to supply them with necessities until the European recovery program is underway. They learn that experts have estimated their needs and recommended to Congress that this amount be approved. The people like these reports. But they also learn Senator Taft disagrees with these experts and says Europe can get by on far less than has been recommended.

Back at Murray State College some students discussing the European situation say, "Don't send them anything; let them starve. As they starve we plan our Christmas vacation. As we plan we listen to Bing Crosby or Perry Como sing of a white Christmas."

And we of the College News wish for everyone a Merry Christmas. To the people of Europe, even though their Christmas can not be merry, we sincerely wish a prosperous and happy new year.

Prof. A. Carman Goes To Memphis Hospital

Professor A. Carman, head of the agriculture department was admitted to the Baptist Memorial Hospital in Memphis, November 19.

He is now undergoing medical treatments, and it is believed that an operation may be required. According to his family, Professor Carman is resting well, and it is believed that the operation will not be serious.

Mr. W. H. Brooks, former agriculture teacher in the Training school is teaching Professor Carman's classes during Mr. Carman's absence.

Vets Club To Give Novelty Dance

Murray State's Veterans club will present a novelty dance in the student lounge of Wilson Hall, Friday night, December 5.

Admission will be charged at the door following the weighing in of the ladies. Men will be admitted free with the girls paying one-half cent per pound. Stags will be charged one-fourth cent per pound. The weighing will begin at 8:00 p.m.

William Presson, president of the Vets Club, told The College News that the dance will be very informal. "A prize will probably be given the largest and smallest date," he added.

VA Officials Will Continue Advisory Visits

The Veterans Administration has announced that it will continue to send representatives to all schools each month to confer with veterans and make an effort to speed payment of their subsistence allowances.

Starting in December, a representative will visit each school during the second week of each month. Student-veterans will be advised in advance of the time and place.

All veterans who are not receiving their allowances on time will be interviewed personally.

Dix Winston Elected President Of German Club

The German Club held its first meeting of the school year Thursday, November 20, for the purpose of reorganizing the club. Dix Winston was elected president.

Last year's president, Frank Vitetow, opened the meeting for the election of the new officers. Clarence is the new vice-president, and Joe Head, secretary-treasurer. A financial report was given by last year's secretary, Mrs. Pat Yokum. It was stated in the report that $7.00 was contributed for food to the Friendship Train.

Plans were tentatively made and discussed for the reorganization of the club. A new meeting date has not been made as yet, but will be announced at a later date.

A CAPELLA GIVES CHAPEL PROGRAM

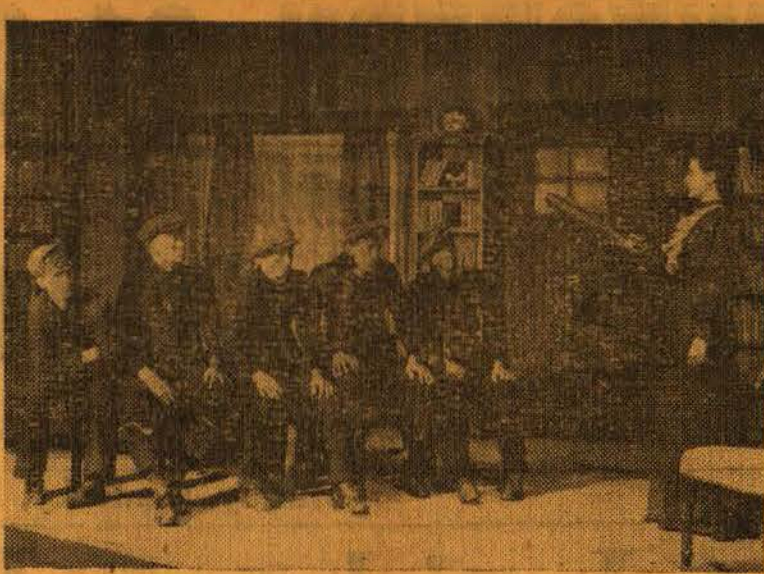

Group Presents Religious, Secular Music To Student Body November 19

Led by Professor Joseph A. Golz, the A Cappella Choir of 33 voices entertained students in Chapel November 19.

Opening with "The Alma Mater" the choir followed by singing "Gloria Patri," by Palestrina, Three Chorales by J. S. Bach: "Come Soothing Death," "Now Let Every Tongue Adore Thee," and "Jesu, Priceless Treasure."

The group then sang a group of secular songs, "Swansea Town" an English folk song arranged by Gustav Holst, "The Orchestra Song," by William Schuman, "Go Way From My Window," an American folk tune arranged by John Jacob Niles. Two Negro Spirituals, "Soon-ah Will Be Done," by William Dawson and "Set Down Servant" arranged by Fred Waring were also presented.

Solos in "Set Down Servant" were by Doris Ryan and Hugh Mc Gee. Ola Mae Harrell sang the solo in "Go Away From My Window."

'Corn Is Green' Skillfully Done; Was Well Received

The second performance of "The Corn Is Green," given by Sock and Buskin on November 21, ran as smoothly as a well oiled machine, and the audience of approximately 700 called the cast back for several curtain calls.

The first night the question on everybody's lips, including Joseph Cohorn, director, was "will she make it?" and make it she did, "she" being Anne Lowry, who had last her voice several days before the premiere.

Miss Lowry started out weakly, but picked up strength from the second scene and went straight through. Miss Lowry, because of her voice difficulties, was over-shadowed on numerous occasions on the first night, and it was unfortunate that she could not reach the peak she had arrived at in rehearsal. She did remarkably well the second night even though she was still a trifle hoarse.

Barkeley Jones was excellent in his role of John Goronwy Jones, the teacher whose principal interest was whether people were "church or chapel." Jones had a good sense of audience reaction, and he worked the rabby characteristic of the role to the hilt. William Pettit showed great improvement in the second performance and did well as Morgan Evans the uneducated coal miner who developed from an unthinking machine into an idea-conscious man.

Dialect is not particularly Pettit's forte, however, and if the production can be criticized on any score it is on the matter of lapses from dialect by several members of the cast. Patsy Sowers, who played the cockney, Bessie Watty, got a hand as she made her exit in the third act at the second performance. Her development from the frustrated adolescent to the worldly-wise hussy was very good.

The role of Miss Ronberry, taken by Faye Edwards, called for a flutty female, and that is what Miss Edwards did to perfection. Gerald Bullis, who took the part of the Squire, was impressive in appearance, but he overplayed his part on a great many occasions. Martha Gaskins amused the audience with her portrayal of Mrs. Watty who was always bringing in a cup of "tay" or being "syved."

Three small parts were done very well. Idwal, played by Leroy Jessup, Robbart by Bill Johnson, and Mr. Tom by Bill Herman, were examples of how small parts can be built and capture the audience's interest. The designers and constructors of the sets are to be congratulated for the excellent piece of work they did, as are those responsible for properties, lighting, and costumes.

The Welsh folk tunes played by the theater orchestra and sung by the men's glee club were notable, and Prof. Joseph Golz deserves kudos for having added authentic color instead of depending upon standard works. Director Cohorn did a good job of molding in the four weeks he had at his disposal. —EGS

Orchard Heights

Occurrences on the hill are at a premium with one exception—that of a new male addition to the Witt family. According to "Papa" Witt, the offspring, Randy Kurt, was born at 9:08 p.m. on November 14, at the Mayfield Hospital. He weighed in at six pounds and nine ounces.

Of Syndergaard must be bearing down on the boys in G202. As a matter of fact, Harry Dubia, Danny Altman, Neal Hobart, Chester Kerth, and Ken Eviit met at Don Souder's apartment for a mid-night oil-burning session ("course there were refreshments).

Mr. Broach has announced that fire escapes are now under construction at the carpenter shop. Each building will be equipped with four escapes. The project should be completed within a week.

A surprise stork shower was held for Suzie Stout at Betty Ean's apartment on November 18. Among those present were Ann Smith, Elizabeth Morgan, Mary Ruth Hobart, Mary Joe Looney, Merriell Pierce, Dot Williams, and Ruth Coleman.

The annual Thanksgiving program was held around the fireplace, Thursday afternoon, for the fourteen girls who remained in the dorm during the holidays.

Wells Hall council and the house mothers were guests of Miss Ashmore for dinner, Tuesday, 5:00 p.m. Wonder if their main topic of discussion was the fifteen call-downs issued in less than a week.

Now that Sue King has thrown her crutch away, the house mothers can again use the elevator without waiting for her to get in and out.

Wells Hall has lost another of its occupants. Ann Sinclair has returned home to prepare for a different institution—marriage. Her marriage to Bill Ragland will take place at Christmas. Congratulations. Rumor has it that Lucy Smith will take this step sometime in April.

Lois Spangenburg's parents and grandparents from New Jersey were visitors on the campus last week. The food was delicious but Jinny Hurt wasn't the least bit surprised at the birthday party held for her by her roommates Saturday.

Harriet Weaver was called home Thursday due to the death of her uncle.

Now that the play is over, everyone can again settle down to regular hours. No more excuses for being late. Too bad, gals.

Miss Ann Herron Gives Three Talks

During the past week, Miss Ann Herron, assistant librarian, has spoken before the Mayfield Woman's club, the Murray United Daughters of the Confederacy and the fifth grade of the training school.

On Tuesday, November 18, Miss Herron read the play "State of the Union" to the Women's club in Mayfield. She was accompanied by Miss Mayrele Johnson, president of the Murray Women's club.

Miss Herron read the same play to the United Daughters of the Confederacy on November 19 at a meeting held at the home of Mrs. W. W. McElrath.

A story hour for the fifth grade of the Training school was held under Miss Herron's direction on Thursday, November 20. Miss Herron entertained the children with witch stories.

MORE ON Appropriation

The college president also points out that because of the unprecedented enrollment, an acute need has arisen for science laboratories and a contract has been awarded for one story of the science building.

Dr. Woods further states that the contractors have estimated that $450,000 is the minimum necessary to complete the science building, due to increased cost of labor and materials. The size of the building has not been increased.

Dr. Woods and the other college heads state that even with the requested appropriations, the colleges will not be as well supported as some institutions in other states. However, they are of the opinion that if granted, the increased appropriations for operation, maintenance, and capital outlay will enable the colleges to maintain a reasonable place in the educational pattern of the nation.

Industrial Arts To Offer New Courses In Future

With the completion of the industrial arts building, the department is expanding and expects to offer a variety of courses to its majors and minors and also to students in other departments, states officials of the industrial arts department.

The department instructs in five major divisions of courses and a complete list of subjects to be offered include the following:

The engineering drawing division offers elements of mechanical drawing, principles of mechanical drawing, descriptive geometry, A and B, and advanced mechanical drawing.

General house planning and advanced architectural drawing will be given in the architectural drawing section.

Courses offered in woodworking include hand finishing and machine finishing of wood.

Metal work will be composed of general metal work, work in sheet metal, art metal methods, and machine shop.

The fifth course offered is general shop.

OHIO LEADS LIST IN VETS ENROLLED IN SCHOOLS

Kipa Pi To Sell Basketball Pins

Kipa Pi met Wednesday night, November 19, at 7 o'clock in the Journalism room. Plans were made to buy 500 basketball pins to sell to the student body before basketball games.

It was announced at the meeting that Professor E. G. Schmidt, director of publications, and Robert Shanklin, vice-president of Kipa Pi and "College News" editor, would attend a reorganization meeting of the Kentucky Inter-collegiate Press Association in Lexington, November 29.

Kipa Pi is a member of KIPA and will be under the sponsorship of the state press association.

Pictures will be made at the next meeting of Kipa Pi, which is Wednesday night, December 3, at 7 o'clock. All members are urged to attend.

Survey Shows Vets Favor Education Over Job-Training

That Kentucky veterans are favoring education rather than job-training under the G. I. Bill is shown by the latest statistics released by the Veterans Administration regional office at Louisville.

The entrance of 19,175 veterans in Kentucky schools and colleges during October raised the total to 30,054 veterans attending educational institutions in this state.

This figure may be compared to the 9,508 veterans who are participating in job-training courses. The number of veterans taking job-training courses has shown only a slight increase in the last three months.

The total number of veterans under the G. I. Bill and Public Law 16 in Kentucky is 39,562. This is slightly below the peak of 39,977 veterans who were receiving money from the VA in April of last year.

When the one great scorer comes to write our name, he writes not whether we won or lost but how we played the game.

Murray State Hoopsters Defeat Anna 57-42

The Murray State Thoroughbreds opened the 1947-48 basketball season with a 57-42 victory over the Anna, Ill., Independents November 25 in Carr Health Building. The Breds turned on in the last half after holding a slim 20-18 lead at halftime.

Paced by Tom Peeler, who was playing against his home town, the Miller men rolled up a 13 point advantage before Anna was able to score in the last stanza. The visitors kept firing away and, at one time in the final 10 minutes reduced the Murray lead to 40-34. At this point Murray pulled away to the ultimate margin of 57-42.

Peeler, Cliff Cavender, and Odell Phillips each threw in nine counters to top the Murray attack. Rex English, Anna center, took high honors with 13 points followed by Belcher of Anna with 10 markers.

Coach Miller used his entire squad of 16 players and 11 of them broke into the scoring column. Scoring summary:

Toppers Roll

After an exchange of punts, the Toppers began to roll after taking the ball on their own 36. Picking up four first downs they moved the ball to the Murray seven on the strength of Pickett's passes and the running of Shirley Underwood.

When they hit the seven that was all. Three passes by Pickett were incomplete and Underwood failed to gain on the ground. The Breds took over on the seven and the Toppers never threatened again.

The third period saw the teams defensive minded with the battling taking place between the 20 yard markers.

Murray scored the third touchdown in the final period after ten minutes of it had been spent with Murphy and McClain kicking. Murphy kicked the ball to Neil Hobart, a speedy, shifty senior, on his own 30. With excellent blocking by his mates, Hobart carried the ball to the Western 20. Billy Ferguson and John Singleton picked up 10 yards and Hobart crashed over from the 10 to score. Dave Carlisle surprised the fans by proving he was more than a runner and passer when he kicked the extra point to make the final score read 21-0.

Murray's victory provided a perfect climax to the college football careers of six seniors. Capt. Jack Wyatt, Tommy Walker, Neal Hobart, Max Carlisle, Perk Marquess, and Bill McClure wore Blue and Gold for the last time Saturday.

Rollins Eleven Defeats Murray Breds 13-7

Murray's travel-weary Thoroughbreds dropped a 13-7 decision to the Rollins College Tars in Orlando, Fla., Saturday night, November 15. Orlando newspapers said that the game was one of the best seen in that city in years. Thoroughbred coach Jim Moore told "The College News" that the Murray eleven played its best game of the year against the Tars. Long trips the last two weeks—3000 miles—and the heat in the southern state contributed to the Murray defeat.

The Rollins team broke a 7-7 tie in the final period after center Harry Hancock intercepted Billy Ferguson's pass at mid-field and ran it to the Murray 31. Peacock moved the ball to the 18 for Rollins Justice ran the ball over center to the six after failing to connect with a pass in the end zone. Three plays later Darty scored over tackle on a reverse.

Rollins' first score came with 11 minutes gone of the first period. Ralph McClain, Murray Fullback, kicked the ball out to the Tar 49. Horton, fleet Florida back, crashed through center for 37 yards. He would have scored but McClure, Bred quarterback, pulled him down 14 yards short of a touchdown. Peacock picked up six yards in two tries and Justice scored on a reverse.

MURRAY JAYVEES WIN 7-6 OVER JUNIOR VOLS AT MARTIN IN HARD FOUGHT HOMECOMING BATTLE

The Jayvees of Murray State spoiled the gay homecoming festivities of U. T. Junior College Friday night, November 21, by downing the young Vols 7-6 at Martin, Tenn.

The young Thoroughbreds had downed the junior college eleven 40-7 earlier in the season. The losses this year marked the fourth setback in two seasons handed the Tennessee school by the Murray outfit. The Kentucky team has been the only thorn in the junior Vols' side this season. They have been victorious in all their tilts except the two played against Murray.

The Jayvees found the orange clad Tennesseans a much improved team over the one they defeated 40-7 and were hard-pressed to win by an extra point.

The junior Thoroughbreds scored midway in the second period after a defensive battle during the first quarter that saw only one first down, that one being made by U.T.

The scoring drive started on the Murray 45 yard marker. Bill Finell passed to Fred Saunders who caught the ball in the middle of the opponent's secondary. About to be tackled on the U. T. 35, Saunders lateraled the ball to Charles Fields. The Milan, Tenn., end carried the ball for five more yards to the 30. Murray scored on the next play when the Jayvee captain Bailey Gore, crashed over right tackle and outran the junior Vol secondary for the touchdown. John Pettillo's kick for the extra point was good and provided the margin of victory.

The Rollins lead was short-lived. Neal Hobart, subbing at left half, took Rollins' kick on the Tar 47 and raced for a touchdown behind perfect interference. End Bob Sanders converted for Murray to tie the game at 7-7.

After Hobart's dash, the game developed into an offensive battle with Murray holding the edge. Several times the Thoroughbreds moved deep into Rollins territory but lacked the scoring punch to push the ball across.

The third period saw the two teams more defensive minded with the lines slugging it out at midfield. Rollins' game winning tally came with six minutes gone from the final period.

WAA POSTPONES HOOP TOURNEY

Practice Sessions Are Scheduled By Club For Remainder Of Quarter

The annual Women's Athletic Association basketball tournament was postponed this year to the winter quarter by WAA members in a meeting, Thursday, November 20.

The remaining three meetings of the fall quarter will be used for practice. The teams that show the most promise, according to club members, are "Dirickson's Fillies" and "Fletcher's Flashes." However, by the arrival of the winter quarter, "Duncan's Daredevils" and "Hughes' Dead End Kids" hope to be well in the race. The captain of the teams are respectively: Ann Dirickson, senior, Benton, Mo., Billie Fletcher, Junior, Palmersville, Tenn., Virginia Duncan, senior, Savannah, Tenn., and Sue Hughes, freshman, Murray.

It was also decided to hold the table tennis tournament during the winter quarter. There has been more participation in this sport than in previous years and several members have been practicing for the event.

President Bobbie Grubbs announced that the pictures for the Shield will be taken at the next meeting in the girls gym.

MSC-Maroon Tilt Tickets On Sale

Tickets for the Murray State-Southern Illinois basketball game to be played in the Tilghman High school gymnasium in Paducah at 8:15 P. M. on December 9, 1947, are now available for sale at the business office of Murray State College. The price is 75c each.

These are general admission tickets and no reserve seat tickets will be sold to the College games played in Paducah this year. Officials at Paducah have computed the capacity of the gymnasium and are placing on sale the exact seating capacity of the gymnasium of general admission tickets for each game.

Numerous scoring opportunities for the junior college stalled inside the Murray 15 with big Ed Dunn and aggressive Charles Fields in on almost every tackle.

'Blues' Win 66-48 In Intra-Squad Contest

The Blues defeated the Golds, 66-48, in a pre-season game played by the 1947-48 edition of the Murray State Thoroughbreds in Carr Health building, November 19. The game was a glorified scrimmage session in which every member of the squad took part.

The first half of the encounter matched the freshmen against the returning lettermen of last and previous years. The old timers held a 16-14 edge at the end of the period, which seems to indicate that Coach John Miller has some hidden power among his prospects.

Second Period Mixed
The second period was a mixture of everyone playing with everyone else in some semblance of teams. Paced by Alexander, the Blues forged ahead midway in the period and continued on to the ultimate margin of 18 points.

Rex Alexander, junior forward, led the scorers with nine buckets and two free tosses for a total of 20 points. Harold Loughary, sophomore guard, threw in 12 markers to be runner-up for the night. Among the freshmen, Tom Peeler and Charlie McKee divided honors with eight markers apiece.

Not Impressive Showing
The Breds were not too impressive as a whole, but the play of the first year men impressed the crowd of several hundred fans. Perhaps the most important factor disclosed by the game was the fact that the Breds will have depth this year. Coach Miller seemingly has a capable group of boys that can be of help in case of injuries and ejections via the foul route.

FCC DECISION GRANTS MURRAY RADIO STATION

One of WNBS' Studios To Be On Campus

The final decision that grants Murray the permission to operate a radio station has been received by George E. Overby, the president of the Murray Broadcasting Co., Inc., from the Federal Communications Commission.

The station will operate on 1340 kilocycles and 250 watts, both day and night. The call letters will be WNBS in honor of Nathan B. Stubblefield, the inventor of the radio. The tag line will be "Murray, the birthplace of radio."

There will be a studio on the campus of Murray State College and also an office downtown. The corporation has an option on property on the Paducah highway, about one and one-half miles from Murray, where the transmitter will be located. The company is now awaiting the arrival of the steel for the tower which has been promised to be delivered about the first of January, after which time, work will begin immediately.

Ray Moffield, graduate of Murray State College and now with station WFAD in Paducah, will be the manager of the station. Veterans, who at present are students at Murray State College, will be employed as announcers. Also, other students will be given the opportunity to display their talents in the broadcasts given by the college. A proposed program schedule has already been made out by the college.

Kappa Delta Pi Plans Banquet

Kappa Delta Pi is planning a banquet for the winter quarter, according to Miss Annie Smith.

Plans for the banquet were discussed and a committee appointed at a recent meeting of Kappa Delta Pi. This committee will report at the next meeting which will be held on December 5 and the date for the banquet will be set.

The purpose of this national fraternity is to further education and membership is open to junior, senior and graduate students that show high scholastic ability and professional leadership.

Phil Cutchin Holds Coaching Position In Ohio

Phil Cutchin, son of Mr. Carlisle Cutchin, Murray baseball coach, is now freshman coach at Ohio Wesleyan University at Delaware, O.

Cutchin is in charge of freshman football, baseball, and basketball, and also scouts football games for the Ohio school.

After playing left halfback for the University of Kentucky last year, Cutchin passed up several professional football offers in favor of this job at Ohio Wesleyan.

DOGPATCH DAYS OBSERVED HERE

"No Honest Man Gotta Chance" Cry Mangled Men After Party, Dance Nov. 15

Lil' Abner and Daisy Mae portrayed by Frank Parker of Harrisburg, Ill., and Martha Dell Brown, Paducah, were almost married in a five dollar ceremony with much weepin' and wailin' and gushin' of teeth at the Dogpatch Party held November 15 in the Farris Loose Leaf Floor.

Marryin' Sam, Wilber McGill, Camden, Tenn., was pronouncing them man and wife when the ceremony was interrupted by the Scrag boys. Mammy and Pappy Yokum, Mona Geveden, Bardwell, and Gene Clark, Paducah, were present for the ceremony.

Prizes were awarded for the best Daisy Mae, Martha Dell Brown; Lil' Abner, Sidney McKee, Murray; best dressed character, Acton Cohoon, Guthrie.

The girl and boy winning the prizes for catching the greased pig were Frances Poole, Clinton, and Clifton Simmons, Wickliffe.

Available Jones, Nelson Williams, Mayfield, serving as master of ceremonies awarded prizes to John Cromwell, Paducah, and Robert Agee, Springfield, Tenn., for the best local talent.

All prizes awarded were donated by the merchants of Murray. The use of the warehouse was donated for the party by Mr. Bunnie Farris.

Home Ec Club Has Buffet Supper

The Home Economics club had a hamburger supper in the home regular meeting date on Thursday, November 20, at 5 o'clock.

Twenty-five members and two visitors attended the supper. The visitors were Miss Clara Eagle of the art department and Miss Ruby Simpson, head of the home economics department. Miss Caroline Wingo, club sponsor, was also present.

The buffet supper was served in the dining room. Alta Presson, chairman of the foods committee, was in charge.

The next meeting on December 4, will be a formal initiation banquet for pledges. The banquet will be held at the Collegiate Inn. The club picture for the Shield will be made at this meeting.

Lowry To Address Church Group

"Challenge of Communism" will be the title of Dr. C. S. Lowry's speech to the Methodist Brotherhood of the Broadway Methodist Church, Paducah, Friday, November 21.

Dr. Lowry will approach the subject as to the effects communism has on the present religious and economic conditions.

Work is being done on the courses that will be offered in the new catalog in the social science department, announces Dr. Lowry. Plans are being made for new courses in the fields of history, geography and economics.

Prof. Rex Syndergaard was the guest speaker of the Parent and Teachers Association at Murray High School, Thursday, Nov. 13. His speech, "Educating for Peace," suggested the revision of the educational system in the interest of international peace. He named the UNESCO as one step in the right direction of this goal.

WAA OFFICIAL SAYS MSC USING SURPLUS MATERIEL WELL

R. E. Sturgis, Head Of Priorities, Visits Campus

MSC's industrial arts department is putting machinery which it got from government surplus to good advantage, according to Mr. R. E. Sturgis, War Assets Administration priorities chief.

Mr. Sturgis visited the campus recently and said, "I am very pleased with the use to which the machinery and other equipment is being put."

The prominent official indicated that there were other MSC departments which could utilize war surplus stocks, notably the physical sciences and that he would recommend that such material be given to the college.

Mr. Sturgis was shown around the campus by Mr. Marvin O. Wrather, assistant to the president, and other administration officials.

Procedure in getting surplus goods from the government was outlined by Mr. Sturgis. The War Assets Administration has a system of priorities, with governmental agencies, state and local, entitled to first choice. Then, educational institutions are allowed to buy if the first two priority holders do not exercise their options.

The surplus goods are sold to educational institutions at liberal discounts, and in some cases materiel is given gratis.

Thanksgiving Theme Carried Out In YWCA Program

The Thanksgiving theme was carried out in the YWCA program on Tuesday, November 25 in the little chapel. Final plans were made for a Thanksgiving basket to be given to some needy family during the holidays.

The Misses Frances Copley, president, and Caroline Jones told the group of some of their experiences at the 75th Anniversary of the YWCA, which they attended at the Illinois State Normal School. A later program will be presented on this material.

Miss Evelyn Honchell, program leader, directed the Thanksgiving service.

Shultz In Demand As Speaker

The number of speaking engagements that Prof. Fred Schultz has indicates that he is in demand as a speaker throughout Western Kentucky.

On Sunday afternoon, December 7, Mr. Schultz will deliver an address at the annual memorial meeting of the Elks Club at Madisonville.

Recently, he addressed the annual meeting of the Lyon County 4-H club at Eddyville.

MOVIES RESUMED BY SOCIAL GROUP

Syndergaard Continues In Charge Of Saturday Cinematic Offerings

The campus movies are now being operated by the Social Committee under the supervision of Prof. Rex Syndergaard, Dean A. F. Yancey announces, and will continue throughout this quarter.

The Student Org assumed financial sponsorship of the movies after the International Relations club had presented the program one week.

The Student Org president, Frank Vittetow, said that his organization assumed financial responsibility when IRC indicated its inability to continue the work due to other activities.

Syndergaard Originated Prof. Syndergaard brought the idea of Saturday movies to the Social Committee this fall and managed the project when it was approved.

"Without the work of Prof. Syndergaard, it would be impossible for this program to be carried on," Dean Yancey stated in an interview.

Prof. Syndergaard has the responsibility of securing and showing the movies with the aid of two or three student operators and backed financially by the Student Org.

The various groups and clubs on the campus, including the Social Committee, have volunteered to lend Prof. Syndergaard whatever assistance he needs to carry on this Saturday evening program, Dean Yancey added.

Two More Shows There are two more movies scheduled for the remainder of the fall term. On December 6, "History Is Made At Night," starring Jean Arthur and Charles Boyer, will be given. December 13, "It Happened Tomorrow," starring Dick Powell and Linda Darnell, will be screened.

A Murray student, Harry Meyers, was admitted to the Riverside Hospital in Paducah November 21, for an appendectomy.

COLLEGE CAFETERIAS TO OBSERVE THIRTY MINUTE SERVING PERIOD FOR MORNING MEAL SAYS DIETICIAN

The two college cafeterias will serve breakfast from 7 until 7:30 rather than the previous 45-minute feeding time that has been in effect, announces Miss Lydia Wehling, college dietician.

Miss Wehling stated in a recent interview with the "College News" that she had but one purpose—to work for the students of Murray State.

Confident that all students can be fed in the shortened period, the dietician says that the change resulted from continued lateness on the part of some students in eating breakfast.

"After consultation with Mr. Preston Ordway," she said, "I have decided to make this move. I have received no cooperation from the students in getting to the dining room on time for breakfast and, too, the continued lateness imposes a hardship on my student helpers."

Previously, the student helpers had 15 minutes to get to class after the cafeteria closed and it is believed that the present plan will relieve this situation, stated the dietician.

According to Miss Wehling, this move has the full approval of Mr. Ordway, the college business manager.

Tri-Sigas To Have Initiation Tonight

On November 24, members of Tri Sigma met for a short business meeting. The president called a meeting of all officers and chairmen for Tuesday night. A committee was appointed for the initiation service which will be held this evening. The meeting was concluded with singing.

Alpha Chi Chapter of Sigma Sigma met Monday night, November 17 in the Fine Arts building. A short business meeting was held and Ranny Whittle was appointed magazine chairman.

After a short meeting with the pledges the meeting was adjourned.
