YMBC IN DINNER MEETING TUESDAY

The Young Men's Business Club held its regular dinner meeting Tuesday night at the First Methodist Church, with the ladies of the church serving the dinner.

A letter was read from R. G. Wilson, athletic director of Union City high school, to Mr. Holland, principal at Fulton High, concerning the advance sale of tickets to be held before the Fulton-Union City football game in Union City September 26. The tickets will be on sale downtown in Fulton and a special sale will be staged by the high school students, with Fulton getting one-half of the proceeds from sale of tickets here. Advance tickets will cost less than tickets at the gate.

F. A. Homra, president, made a report on the Ken-Tenn Exposition and stated that it was a success.

Expressions of gratitude were extended to members who worked so faithfully as ticket sellers and ticket takers during the Exposition, and also to non-members who assisted the club in this work. Cards of appreciation will be sent to the non-members.

It was suggested that the club buy several defense bonds. A discussion was held and action was deferred until the next meeting.

A discussion was also held concerning the fairgrounds project and it was agreed to cooperate with other civic clubs in Fulton in doing their share to improve the fairgrounds.

A financial report was made by Bertes Pigue, treasurer.

HELP WANTED!

100 Young Men between the ages of 15 and 25, unmarried, to help clean-up and improve the Fulton Fair Grounds. Good pay, short hours. Must live in Fulton County east of M. & O. Railroad. See Mr. Curlin, NYA Project Director, at the Fair Grounds, Friday at 2:00 P.M., or report to The News Office.

Discussion Held At Chamber of Commerce Meeting Monday Night

Civic Groups, Farmers and Citizens To Cooperate

The Chamber of Commerce discussed the plan now being worked out to improve the old Fair Grounds here, and erect a Community House, or a meeting place for all community events, such as the annual Farm Bureau picnic, the Ken-Tenn Exposition, meetings of the various civic and farm groups.

The School Board of Fulton recently completed negotiations for the purchase of the Fair Grounds, with a plan in mind to inaugurate a broad program of improvement of the grounds, with the intention of making it a real community center. For the past few years the Young Men's Business Club has been sponsoring the Ken-Tenn Exposition annually, and this has aided in re-creating interest in the Fair.

Present plans call for a NYA project with an estimated expenditure of $11,400 plus $975 to be raised locally for improving the grounds. One hundred boys and young men are wanted. They will be paid a good weekly salary under the NYA program, to assist in the clean-up and general improvement of this community center. Plans include cleaning the grounds of all rubbish, grass, dead trees, filling in holes and leveling of ground, cleaning out the pond, improving the fences and track, tearing down of all old buildings, etc.

After preliminary work, another grandstand will be rebuilt, new livestock and poultry houses built, and a large community house, where various community meetings may be held from time to time. The community house could also be used for farm exhibits during the Farm Bureau and Kenn-Tenn gatherings. But in order to bring about such improvements, help must first be secured, and an urgent appeal is made to those wishing to work and earn a good salary. You may register at the Fair Grounds Friday (today) at 2:00 P.M., with Mr. Curlin, District NYA Project Supervisor, or at The News office.

The school board is unable to spend any money for improvement of the grounds, but is supporting a movement to get the job done. The Kitty League Park is not included in the improvement program, but will be maintained as it is. The high school football field will be maintained at the Kitty League Park each season, as it has in recent years.

All civic and farm groups and citizens of this community are urged to cooperate in this plan to make the Fair Grounds into the finest community center in this area. R. H. White, chairman declared this week. Only by community wide interest and cooperation can such a project be carried out successfully.

Ensign Wayne Morris Seeks Wings

Wayne Morris, recent star of "I Wanted Wings," became a member of Uncle Sam's Navy in May, 1941, when he was appointed to the rank of Ensign.

When asked what he thought of the United States Navy, Morris said, "I think every man who is considering joining a military service should look into the 'chance of a lifetime' which the Navy and Naval Reserve offer to get into the big pay field of the future—aviation. In the Navy you can attend the finest flight training schools in the world, and receive instruction from Navy pilots who introduced dive bombing, aircraft carriers and catapult take-offs to the rest of the world. Also, there are opportunities in Naval Aviation for men who don't want to fly. They can be trained as aviation machinists, metalmiths, photographers, observers, or they can receive instruction in many other trades. It's a great life in the Navy."

WHAT Do You Know About That?

MODERN MAGIC

THE sleight-of-hand artist who "saws a woman in two" has a good trick, but he's fooling you.

A DIME'S worth of electricity will shave you every day for the next four years and two months... The American people spend over twice as much each year for tobacco as they spend for household electric service.

About 80,000,000 American men, women and children own the electric companies, because American savings are paid to insurance companies and banks and are re-invested in business enterprises. Every family with a life insurance policy or a bank account is part owner of some electric company.

THE low cost of electric service didn't just happen. It is because business men have been running the electric companies in the American way of business operation.

War Brings Change In Buying Clothes

Summarizing changes in the clothing field as a result of the European war and America's defense effort, Miss Verna Latzke of the Kentucky College of Agriculture and Home Economics gives the following suggestions as to 1941-42 and perhaps later:

Avoid the twin evils, hysteria and hoarding.

Buy clothing of good materials and good cut.

Get the so-called basic clothes first, spending the bulk of the clothes-income on them: as, warm topcoats, well-constructed suits, woolen or cotton sweaters, etc.

Get accessories last: some of them may not be so necessary after all.

Take the utmost care of all clothes; do not delay cleaning.

Do not buy unnecessarily, nor too much. Use everything to the utmost, and throw nothing away that can be salvaged.

Miss Latzke adds that in war-time the public does not save by trying to "get there first" and hoard. Rather, all consumers suffer as a result of sky-rocketing prices when this is tried. It should be kept in mind that even if one type of material disappears entirely, adequate substitutes probably will be available. For instance, cotton and nylon stockings (now being made in many beautiful designs and colors) soon may be the only fashionable thing, so that hoarded silk stockings will not be especially desirable.

HOME DEMONSTRATION AGENT

At the State Fair in Louisville September 6-13, in the 4-H club home economics division, Josephine Brady won a blue ribbon and Ruth Browder a red ribbon in clothing. Josephine's outfit consisted of a cotton chambray suit and Ruth Browder's was a sailor dress outfit. Both girls are members of the Fulton 4-H Club group. Exhibits this year were usually large, representing the work of Kentucky's 45,000 4-H'ers.

CRUTCHFIELD HOMEMAKERS

Mrs. J. W. McClanahan was hostess to the Crutchfield Homemakers Club Tuesday afternoon, September 9, at her home. The president, Mrs. McClanahan, called the meeting to order and the secretary, Mrs. Paul Williams, gave the roll, read the minutes and gave the treasurer's report.

Mrs. Paul Newhouse and Mrs. William McClanahan gave a very interesting lesson on fall style trends, discussing materials, kinds and colors, style of sleeves and hats for the fall season. Also purses, shoes and gloves for the well groomed woman.

A short talk was given by Mrs. Percy Veatch on National Defense. During the social hour a contest was enjoyed by the members. The hostess served delicious refreshments.

OUR DEMOCRACY—by Mat

BUT FIELD AND GARDEN HAVE A WAY OF MAKING THINGS BESIDES FOOD GROW.

THE WHOLE TRUTH

For a long time now it has been no secret that the strike situation in defense industries has become a major cause of production delays, although a recent statement from labor sources tends to minimize that fact.

According to the statement, "only" 6,500,000 man days were lost through industrial disputes last year, as against 25,192,000 days lost because of industrial accidents and injuries. The inference the reader may draw from such a comparison is that the strike situation is not so grave as many people think and that America need not worry about it.

To every American who has observed the present labor situation, such news would indeed furnish welcome relief—if only it were true.

Unfortunately, it's not. The fact is that days lost through illness or accidents do not disrupt an entire factory and stop production. They generally affect only a small number of people in a plant, sometimes only one, whereas a strike involves the complete personnel of a company—those who want to work as well as those who don't. And not only does it stop production in a whole factory, but, in doing that, it often forces other plants to close.

One large airplane factory, for example, depends upon 600 other plants for materials and parts that are essential to its own work. A strike in any one of them could easily force the airplane company to suspend production, even though none of its employees wanted to stop work.

At first glance, the possibility of such an occurrence may seem remote, but actually such situations have already occurred. A strike of "only 400 men" in a California die-casting factory, for instance, held up production in eight different airplane plants. A strike of "only 1-700 men" at a steel company kept 24,000 men in automobile plants from making cars for the Army.

The truth is that while the strike situation shows no great evidence of improvement, industrial health and safety programs are steadily reducing plant accidents and illness and the time lost because of them.

The Kentucky income tax is driving industry and capital out of our state and tending to keep out many new industries badly needed here to increase wages and payrolls of our wage earners, expand the markets of our farmers, and increase land values generally. It was declared today by George T. Holmes, executive secretary of the Kentucky Tax Research Association.

Holmes called attention to a comparative study of taxes and incomes only one, whereas a strike involves the complete personnel of a company—those who want to work as well as those who don't. And not only does it stop production in a whole factory, but, in doing that, it often forces other plants to close.

"The facts show," he said, "that our state has all the natural resources and advantages needed to make a great industrial state. Yet we stand at the bottom of the list of all the states touching our borders, with respect to industrial development."

"These facts have been obtained from official records of the Bureau of the Census at Washington, and we hope to present them fully to the people of our state before the next General Assembly meets, in an effort to create public sentiment that will result in the repeal of the state income tax. This tax, we feel, is a primary cause of our backward industrial development, in comparison with other states in competition with us for the location of industrial plants."

Other facts revealed in the Association study show that three of Kentucky's neighboring states, Ohio, Illinois, and Tennessee impose no tax at all on individual earned incomes, and that West Virginia, Ohio, and Illinois impose no income tax at all on corporations. In the other neighboring states, Indiana, Virginia, and Missouri, the income tax is considerably less than it is in Kentucky.

NEWS ITEM: SUBCONTRACTING SPREADS DEFENSE PRODUCTION TO THOUSANDS OF SMALL PLANTS.

NAVY OFFERS GOOD OPPORTUNITIES NOW

"Never in the history of the United States has there been a greater opportunity for loyal young Americans to serve their country and build their own future than right now," states Frank Knox, secretary of the U. S. Navy. "Today your country is engaged in an all-out effort to build a Two-Ocean Navy—the mightiest the world has ever known. Battleships, cruisers, destroyers, aircraft carriers—every ten days a new warship slides down the ways. And every new ship offers countless opportunities to red-blooded young Americans."

Men and young men who would like to learn a skilled trade, or who will be called into the Army before long, should investigate the opportunities offered in the Navy. Full details can be obtained from the Navy Editor of the Fulton County News.

The Navy is more than battleships—more than the crews that man them. It's a far-flung network of land bases for ships and planes . . . for tankers, transports and hospital ships. It's drydocks, wharves, machine shops, ramps, anchorages, barracks, fuel, tanks. It's a vast fleet of merchant ships carrying supplies throughout the world. It's a great system of factories, steel mills, arsenals, ordnance depots. It's air power . . . with thousands of pilots and ten times as many skilled mechanics to keep them flying. It's more than a score of the finest training schools in the world. It's an unbeatable opportunity for any young American who wants to go to the top in almost any skilled trade he may choose.

THEY HAVE THEIR CAKE AND EAT IT

In the case of some profitable farm practices it is actually possible to reverse the old adage and make it read "You can have your cake and eat it, too." This is particularly true in the case of farmers who are following recommendations of their county agents and apply fertilizer to their fall wheat crop. By doing so they not only will get increased yields of wheat but also add fertility for the following year's hay crop.

"It is not infrequent for the increased yield of clover and other hay crops which follow fertilized wheat to be sufficient to pay for the whole fertilizing operation," according to H. R. Smalley, Director of Soil Improvement Work, The National Fertilizer Association.

On a demonstration farm in Michigan, the increased yield of alfalfa hay during a two-year period following wheat which was fertilized with complete fertilizer, amounted to 3,771 pounds of hay. At the average price of alfalfa hay, the increase is worth $19.90 an acre for the two years.

One of the best ways to start a high-producing pasture is to fertilize the wheat crop heavily this fall and seed the pasture next spring. In an experiment at Wooster, Ohio, an application of 450 pounds of fertilizer gave an increase of 18 bushels of wheat and more than doubled the pasture yield for several years following.

KENTUCKY FARMERS CAN HELP RAILWAYS AVOID TRAFFIC JAM

CHICAGO.—Whether American railroads can handle the biggest freight hauling job of the decade this year depends on two factors, authorities believe:

1—The cooperation of shippers in speeding the loading and unloading of cars; in keeping freight equipment in circulation and making each unit do a more efficient job.

2—A speeding up of the new car construction program now seriously hampered by shortages of steel and delays due to strikes.

"To these two might be added a third—the cooperation of agriculture," says a bulletin issued here. "Right now this cooperation can consist of avoiding delays in ordering supplies that run into tonnage."

"For instance, if such essential commodities as fertilizer are bought immediately and shipped to the farmer before peak traffic clogs the tracks, this will help take some of the strain off the transportation system later on. This applies not only to rail shipments but to trucks, also, for with the greatly increased rail movement trucks have been pressed into extra service all over the country."

"Moreover, such a procedure can help in the defense program, too, for the farmer's ability to produce bumper crops depends on the productivity of the soil. And this soil productivity, in turn, is dependent on whether the land receives a sufficient supply of necessary nitrogen, phosphorus and potash. By ordering his fertilizer now the farmer can be assured of an adequate supply later on which will help him make the slogan 'Food Will Win the War' a reality."

Crops Need Well Rounded Diet Same as Do Livestock

CHICAGO.—Placing plant food within handy reach of growing crops is as important to farm profits as setting feed within easy reach of hungry livestock, according to a statement issued here by the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee. "Crops need a well-rounded ration the same as cattle," the statement points out. "A farmer's responsibility does not end merely in supplying his soil with fertilizer. His job is effectively done only if he places that fertilizer where it will do the most good."

The practical value of correct fertilizer placement has been demonstrated by thousands of corn growers throughout the Middle West. "Ten years ago many corn growers applied all the fertilizer broadcast or part in row and part broadcast. But the rapid improvement in equipment for applying fertilizer near the row or hill and the higher yields resulting from this method, have encouraged farmers to adopt this system of placement."

BUY FERTILIZER NOW TO BE CERTAIN OF SUPPLY, FARMERS TOLD

Transportation Systems Face Highest Traffic Peak.

CHICAGO.—With rising defense demands confronting the railroads and truck lines with the heaviest traffic volume in years, farmers were urged to purchase their fertilizers earlier than usual this year to help ease the strain on the nation's transportation systems.

"By so doing," says a statement by the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee, "they can avoid the possibility of delays in delivery later on and assure themselves of adequate supplies of fertilizer at planting time."

Car Construction Lags.

"The ability of the rail and truck lines to handle the constantly growing volume of freight depends as much on the cooperation of farmers as it does on industrial shippers. Every car and truck load moved now will help relieve the carriers of extra burdens when traffic reaches its peak a few weeks hence."

The transportation problem is complicated by the fact that new freight car construction is lagging behind schedule, according to the statement, which quotes from a recent address by Ralph Budd, transportation commissioner of the Council of National Defense.

Victory or defeat of America's defense program, the statement concludes, depends as much on transportation and farm production as it does on the output of guns and planes.

Farmers Can Help.

"The transportation systems need all the help they can get in meeting their problems. Farmers can cooperate by placing orders for fertilizer and other supplies running into tonnage now instead of waiting until later on. They can reinforce their own food producing efforts as well."

"In the vital job of growing abundant crops for defense needs, the productivity of the soil is of No. 1 importance. By combining sound farming practices with the use of fertilizers containing nitrogen, phosphorus and potash, farmers can increase the per acre yield of their crops and improve the all-around fertility level of their soil."

DEFENSE EFFORT TESTS METTLE OF RAILS AND TRUCKS

CHICAGO.—All-out defense efforts, plus more civilian jobs and faster pay envelopes, resulted in a 17.3 per cent increase in freight car loadings handled by American railroads in the first six months of 1941, compared with the corresponding period of 1940.

With peak traffic periods still ahead, the increase for the entire year of 1941 over 1940 is expected by some authorities to total at least 5,000,000 carloads.

"Threats of a possible shortage of freight cars later on," says an agricultural bulletin, "make it advisable for farmers to place their orders as soon as possible for supplies such as fertilizers, machinery, etc., that run into tonnage. It should be emphasized that not only railroads, but trucks, as well, are being called on to carry an increasingly heavy traffic load."

"Agriculture is being called on to produce food in larger quantities as part of the defense program. Farmers can accomplish this effectively if their soil is given the benefit of fertility-building plant foods. By ordering such supplies now they can reduce the strain on the nation's transportation system and assure themselves of adequate quantities later on."

FERTILIZER CONSUMPTION REACHES NEW HIGH

Washington, D. C.—An all-time record fertilizer consumption was established when farmers used 8,511,000 tons of commercial fertilizer on their land during the past crop year, according to the annual consumption report of The National Fertilizer Association. This is an increase of more than one-half millions tons over prior years.

"Tonnage figures in themselves do not tell a complete story of plantfood consumption in this banner year, since there has been a significant increase in the amount of plantfood contained in a ton of fertilizer," said Charles J. Brand, Executive Secretary and Treasurer of the Association. "This year's tonnage figure was 16 per cent above 1920, but the amount of plantfood contained and used was 64 per cent greater." It seems likely that another tonnage increase is in store for next year. Tag sale figures for the first six months of 1941 are 6 per cent over 1940.

COUNTY AGENT

Now is the time to treat peach trees for the control of peach borers, evidence of the peach borer may be found by examining the trunk at the top of the ground, if peach wax is found you may know that this is caused by the peach borer. The treatment is simple and inexpensive and is a very effective control. Please write or call at the County Agent's office for Circular No. 370 which will give you full details and what to use, when and how to prepare.

Poultry

Begin to get your laying flock ready for winter production, no doubt your pullets are already in production, if so it is to your interest to keep them in production through the fall and winter months. Examine your birds and laying house for lice and mites and get them under control before winter. Get your laying mash formula, planning now if you intend to feed home mixed feed. Feed plenty of grain and laying mash at all times, yellow corn, oats, barley should constitute the grain. Do not leave out the grain entirely as it helps to fatten which is needed for a helpful winter production of eggs. Do everything that is helpful for egg production for I think you will realize from fifty to sixty cents a dozen for eggs within the next year.

Wheat

The treating of wheat in Fulton County proved very successful in controlling smut, rust and similar diseases last year. This was effective enough that I think each farmer should treat their seed before planting. The treatment is easily applied and quickly done. We recommend Ceresan for small grains, the one pound can will cost 75c and that is enough to treat thirty bushels of seed. The seed may be treated a few days before planting or it may be treated a few minutes before planting, the seed are not wet therefore will drill immediately after treating. For further information call at the County Agent's office.

"Agriculture will put the defense effort first—Through supplies already on hand, by conserving their soil, and by keeping their framing operations sound, farmers are offering to the Nation an agricultural industry that is a strong force for National strength and unity, but also an industry that will be able to meet its problems after the war is over."—R. M. Evans, AAA Administrator.

Britain formally denies misuse of lease-lend supplies.

Fall weather is approaching, and with it we can expect fog, rain, and sleet. Streets will be wet and slippery, and windshields will be coated with ice. Driving under such conditions makes extra precautions essential.

In these articles I have tried to stress the importance of constant attention when driving—not one second should be given to any other matters while you are driving. Long strips of straight pavement encourage higher speed; driving becomes more or less monotonous and invites inattention. Just one moment of inattention, especially when weather conditions are not very favorable, may put you out of circulation forever.

Don't let anything distract you! Pay attention to your driving!

It has been some time since I have written about courtesy, especially the courtesy of dimming lights.

It is almost a universal custom, whether it be a law or not, that drivers dim their car lights when passing one another. Drivers rounding curves or climbing hills especially should dim their lights to avoid blinding the drivers of approaching cars.

Frequently, however, you find some fellow bolting along who pays no attention to such courtesies, who must have all the light for himself, and who pays very little attention to the comforts of his fellow traveler on the other side of the road.

Let's be decent about this. Let's treat others as we like to be treated. That rule—to treat others as we like to be treated—would prevent the largest percentage of the automobile accidents on our highways today. It's greed and speed in driving that cause so much trouble on our highways.

It's smart to be careful.

SOUTH AMERICA TO GET SCENIC HIGHWAY FILM

National Defense Council Will Distribute Greyhound Picture "Amazing America"

Carol Hughes Keeps John King in Hot Water—in Technicolor Comedy "This Amazing America".

As part of its program to promote cultural and trade relations in the western hemisphere, the Council of National Defense, an agency of the federal government, has selected the technicolor picture "This Amazing America" for distribution in all South American countries. This is a 3 reel production designed to show the most beautiful scenic and historic areas of the United States, as seen on a romantic tour by highway. The picture was produced for the Greyhound Lines and was released early this year for use in the United States. Many of the full color shots are pronounced exceptional in the technicolor field.

"This Amazing America" was previewed by the Council of National Defense (commonly known as the Rockefeller Committee), along with more than 100 other commercial productions, and was selected as the most appropriate to give our neighboring southern nations a glimpse of natural beauty spots throughout the United States.

First distribution plans for South America call for 30 prints of the picture, which will reach an estimated audience of more than two million people—and it is quite likely that additional prints will be put into service. For showings in Brazil, the Portuguese language will be added to the sound track, while Spanish will be used in all other South American nations.

Some of the high points which give the picture its "Amazing" flavor are: a mountain range below ground—a highway that goes to sea—the "Superman" of the North Woods—a natural bridge that works for a living—the cradle of the great Mississippi—a war dance in a Peace Park—the world's oldest and largest living trees—a square dance in the Great Smokies as performed before the King and Queen of England.

The motion picture was planned and supervised for Greyhound by the Beaumont and Hohman advertising agency. The screen adaptation and production are by Wilding Picture Productions.

A Few Questions For You

1. Is there anything wrong with your eyes, ears, nose or throat? If you have suffered defects of vision or hearing, have lost voice entirely, don't give up hope, but investigate Chiropractic.

2. Have you so-called Rheumatism, Pleurisy, Catarrh, Asthma, Bronchitis, Tonsillitis, Goiter, Paralysis, Epilepsy, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Piles, Insanity, Appendicitis or a Constant Headache? Chiropractic will adjust the cause and permit nature to bring about a cure.

3. Have you stomach, lung, heart, liver, kidney, bowel or bladder trouble?

4. Have you Sciatica, Gallstones or Diabetes? The results are wonderful. Try Chiropractic.

5. Perhaps you have stiffness in the joints in the arms or legs. This system is most effective.

6. Our methods not only stimulate, but eliminate the cause, thus permitting nature to perform her work. Health is the greatest blessing we can have.
