Area Ministry In LBL In 9th Year

Coordinating the religious concerns and resources of the Kentucky Lake-Lake Barkley vacationland is the purpose of the Land Between The Lakes Area Ministry.

The Area Ministry, which is in its ninth year, was developed in response to the religious needs of the tourists, the impact upon the residents of the region, and the unique problems related to ministering to persons in a public sector, such as TVA's Land Between The Lakes, and the Kentucky and Tennessee state parks.

Chaplains are in attendance at Hillman Ferry, Rushing Creek, and Piney Campgrounds in Land Between The Lakes from Memorial Day through Labor Day weekends.

The visiting minister presents an 8:30 non-denominational Sunday morning worship service at each campground. Outdoor Catholic masses are conducted at Grand Rivers at 8:00 a. m. and at Aurora at 10:00 a. m. each Sunday, Memorial Day through Labor Day. Casual clothes are fitting attire.

Emergency help is available for those visitors who have particular needs such as accidents or illness. During the day visitors can call 354-8639 or 322-6157, and in the evening 327-8758 or 924-1117. Collect calls will be accepted.

Weather Forecast

Mostly cloudy, very warm and humid today with a 30 per cent chance of a thundershower. High in the mid to upper 80s. Partly cloudy and mild tonight, low in the low 60s. Partly cloudy, very warm and humid Saturday, high in the upper 80s to around 90.

Kissinger in the plumb case be quashed.

Kissinger has been subpoenaed by lawyers for John D. Ehrlichman, one of four persons accused of plotting the 1971 break-in at the office of Daniel Ellsberg's psychiatrist. Meanwhile, the prosecution planned to end its case today and Ehrlichman was expected to take the stand in his own defense later in the day to answer prosecution testimony that he approved the 1971 break-in at the office of Dr. Lewis J. Fielding of Beverly Hills, Calif.

To support the request for quashing the subpoena, Kissinger presented a statement to U.S. District Judge Gerhard A. Gesell saying he had no information about the guilt or innocence of the defendants.

There has been testimony in the trial that Kissinger was among those who wanted derogatory information about Ellsberg made public after the former Pentagon analyst made public the Pentagon papers study of the Vietnam war.

In court today, Gesell called a Monday hearing on the Kissinger subpoena issue where defense lawyers would be compelled to disclose what they expect Kissinger to tell the jury.

Kissinger is on a European trip to inform North Atlantic Treaty Organization allies about President Nixon's trip to Moscow.

Ehrlichman's attorneys also had initially planned to subpoena White House chief of staff Alexander M. Haig Jr. to appear as a witness.

However, defense attorneys indicated today that Haig's appearance would not be required. Nonetheless, the White House asked that a subpoena for Haig's appearance be quashed.

Two other defendants, Miami's Bernard L. Barker and Eugenio R. Martinez, also are to testify in their own behalf.

Their attorneys have indicated they believed they were working on a legitimate, if clandestine, CIA operation approved by the White House when they

Gil Gilbert Joins MSU's Info Staff

Gil Gilbert of Murray has joined the information and public services staff at Murray State University as a radio-television specialist.

Gilbert, 26, earned the B. S. degree in communications (radio-television) at Murray State. He will work primarily as a university newsman with the broadcast media in the area.

His addition to the staff was termed "a significant step forward in the effort to provide full coverage of university news" by M. C. Garrett, director of information and public services.

"By expanding our operation to include a full-time specialist to work with radio and television, we believe we can now offer appropriate service to the electronic media which have become so important to news coverage," he said.

Gilbert, a Paducah native, graduated from Marion County High School in Jasper, Tenn. He is single.

President Was Warned That Trip To Middle East Might Kill Him

KEY BISCAYNE, Fla. (AP) — President Nixon's doctor says Nixon was warned that a permanent blood clot in his left leg might kill him during his Middle East trip but that the President insisted on going ahead with travel plans.

"The danger is now past," Dr. Walter R. Tkach said late Thursday.

Tkach for the first time disclosed Nixon has thrombophlebitis, which he said involves the presence of a permanent blood clot in his left leg.

"The clot is pretty well fixed," Tkach said, explaining it has attached itself to the wall of a vein and no longer is likely to break loose and go to his heart or lung—a development that could prove fatal.

An Army major general, Tkach said he considered hospitalization for Nixon at the time the President first told him of leg swelling. But he said Nixon, who had kept the ailment secret from him for several days, was insistent on going forward with his Middle East trip although "we told him what the potential hazards would be of a clot breaking off and hitting his heart or lung."

Tkach said Nixon informed him of the swollen left leg after arriving in Salzburg, Austria, on June 10 en route to the Mideast.

For several weeks, the White House has declined to describe Nixon's phlebitis as involving a blood clot but Tkach acknowledged.

Three Persons Die On State Highways July 4

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — Three persons died on Kentucky highways as the four-day Fourth of July holiday weekend got underway.

Huston Barbour, 26, of Louisville, died Thursday after the car he was driving was involved in a two-car collision in Meade County, 4 miles west of Muldraugh on the Otter Creek Road. State Police said the other driver was uninjured.

A 37-year-old Flemingsburg motorist and a 29-year-old Lewisburg motorcyclist also were killed in traffic accidents Thursday.

Earl Gene Prater died when his car crashed off KY 32 just east of Flemingsburg and Michael E. McReynolds was killed when his motorcycle ran off KY 106, a mile west of his hometown.

The holiday weekend death count started at 6:00 p. m.,

CDT, Wednesday and the lone fatality reported in Kentucky on July 3 was recorded prior to that time.

Since the Independence Day holiday occurred on Tuesday last year there was no weekend traffic death count. Two persons died in July 4 traffic accidents on Kentucky roads in 1973.

Traffic on Kentucky roads was reportedly "moderate to surprisingly light" by State Police.

Kentucky Turnpike toll plaza operators at Shepherdsville and Elizabethtown reported no traffic back-ups.

State Police Commissioner Ron Johnson had noted 14 persons died on state roads last weekend and he expressed the hope that the figure did not represent an indication of "an even greater toll this holiday weekend."

Fireworks-Related Accidents Cause Injuries; One Death

By The Associated Press
Fireworks crackled and cannons boomed. Even the sun delighted the patriotic this Fourth of July, tossing in a display of spectacular solar flares.

But the national taste for Fourth of July pyrotechnics had its grim side too, as fireworks-related accidents caused at least one death and a spate of injuries.

The death was in Cook County, Ill., where two 16-year-old boys put together a pipe bomb for the Fourth using black powder. One died and the other lost an arm. In Concord, N.H., 11 spectators at a municipal display were injured when an errant rocket fell in the crowd, but none required hospitalization.

The fireworks displays were part of an extravagant program of celebrations that included tamer features such as a 1,000-pound pizza in Columbus, Ohio, an American flag made of ice cream in Boston and a visit from Santa to fishermen and their families in Bethel, Alaska. Billed as the biggest of the day was a fireworks display run by officials of Expo '74 in Spokane, Wash. Blazing lights drew pictures in the sky of the Apollo 11 moon landing, the Statue of Liberty, and the Capitol dome. The show's cost was put at $70,000.

In New York City, another major fireworks display was exploded over the city's harbor after a 50-gun cannon salute was detonated by men clad in historic artillerymen's costumes.

It was the first time in about a century that the city revived its tradition of a National Salute—one cannon shot for each state.

Other major fireworks displays were held in San Francisco, Boston, Washington and Philadelphia.

Most of the fireworks accidents were with those in private hands—still legal in 18 states. Officials of the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission are planning hearings to seek a nationwide ban on such private use.

A Seattle, Wash., man lost an eye and was riddled with fragments when 50 large firecrackers exploded in his kitchen.

Four persons were injured in Ohio—the most seriously a 17-year-old youth whose right hand required surgery when a firecracker exploded.

A Milwaukee, Wis., boy was reported in satisfactory condition at a hospital after an exploding firecracker injured his

Phil Bryan Assumes Duties As Director Of School Relations

Phil Bryan, formerly a guidance specialist with the Kentucky Department of Education in Frankfort, has assumed new duties as director of school relations at Murray State University.

Bryan, 32, will coordinate the work of a staff which serves as a communications link between the university and schools in the region. His organization provides information to prospective students about academic programs, admissions procedure, available financial aid and campus life at Murray State.

Bryan succeeds Charles L. Eldridge, who has been named assistant dean of admissions.

A Frankfort native, Bryan taught five years at the junior high school level in the Franklin County school system and served three years as a guidance counselor at Franklin County High School before he took the state position.

During the 1973-74 school year he was named by the Frankfort Elks Club as the Elk of the Year for Youth Work. He was honored by the Frankfort Jaycees in 1971-72 as an Outstanding Young Educator.

Bryan earned the A. B. degree at Kentucky State University and the M. S. degree at Indiana State University. He has done additional graduate work at Eastern Kentucky University.

He is a member of several professional organizations, including the American, Kentucky and Central Kentucky Personnel and Guidance Associations and the Kentucky and National Education Associations.

Bryan and his wife, the former Sarah Thacker of Frankfort, are the parents of three children, Lucy Lee, 11, Amy Louise, 7, and Phillip, 4. They live in the old Corn-Farmer House on Ky. 94 west of Murray.

Ford To Visit Murray Friday

Murrayans and other Western Kentuckians will have the opportunity to discuss problems with Gov. Wendell Ford and other state officials when state government comes to four area communities next week.

Plans were announced earlier this week for branch offices in Wickliffe and Clinton on July 11, and Mayfield and Murray on July 12. The visits are part of the governor's continuing effort, initiated last year, of taking state government to the people.

The governor and his staff will be in the Calloway Circuit Courtroom from two to five p. m. on Friday, July 12.

Residents of the surrounding area can discuss matters with the governor or any other state government representative on a first-come basis.

"The branch office is an excellent forum for effective two-way communication," Ford said, explaining the reasoning behind the "government-to-the-people" program. "It permits people to express their problems and concerns, and it permits me and my staff to let them know that we're in government care. Additionally, it gives me the opportunity to find out first hand the issues which are foremost in the minds of our citizens."

Murray State Awarded 'Right To Read' Grant

Murray State University has been awarded a $49,072 federal grant for a "Right to Read" preservice teacher preparation program to improve reading instruction at the elementary level.

Authorized by the U. S. Office of Education, the grant to the division of reading in the department of special education covers a 12-month period beginning July 1.

Dr. Yancey Watkins, associate professor of special education and author of the grant proposal, will serve as the project director.

Emphasis in the program will be on the individualization of instruction in the reading component at the elementary level and on the adjustment of course content to meet individual needs.

Watkins listed five phases for the program: (1) detailed planning and needs assessment; (2) determining course content for the reading component; (3) preparing instructional units; (4) experimental teaching; and (5) evaluation and assessment of program effectiveness.

Public school personnel from several systems who teach reading in the regular classroom will serve as consultants for the project. School systems who be represented are Paducah, McCracken County, Murray, Calloway County, Trigg County, Louisville, Jefferson County, Union County, Christian County and Owensboro.

Selected personnel from other universities with teacher preparation programs will evaluate the project, make specific recommendations and document progress at specific points during the year. They will represent the University of Georgia, Ball State University, Southern Mississippi University, Western Kentucky University and Nicholls State University.

Murray State has from 175 to 200 prospective teachers completing the preservice training program at the elementary level each year.

Three Men Charged In Robbery At Coldwater

Three men have been charged with grand larceny and robbery in Calloway County in connection with a robbery of a Coldwater Grocery Wednesday night.

According to Kentucky State Police Detective Joe Hill and County Sheriff Maurice Wilson, the men arrested were identified as Willie Lewis Wilson, 25, Indianapolis; Orlando Bob Wilson, Paducah; and Fred Lewis McCovens, Paducah.

Hill said the three men are alleged to have stopped at Haneline's Grocery in Coldwater and two of the men diverted the attention of the grocery clerk while the third entered the store and took about $60 from the cash register.

The men were stopped by state police in Folsomdale at 7:15 p. m. Hill said the men were driving a vehicle allegedly stolen June 30 in Kokomo, Ind. A .25 calibre handgun also was reportedly found in the car. The gun later was discovered to have been stolen June 27 in Bardstown.

Officials said all three men have previously served prison terms and that the Federal Bureau of Investigation is investigating two charges in the case. Hill said there is a federal law which prohibits felons from possessing a weapon. Also the FBI has been asked to investigate a charge of interstate transportation of a stolen motor vehicle.

The three are currently lodged in the Calloway County Jail, according to Sheriff Wilson.

Two Injured In Auto Accident Wednesday

Two persons were injured in a two-car accident Wednesday on Olive St., according to Murray Police.

Cars driven by Betty Hornsby, 813 Olive, and Robert A. Mick, Shady Oaks, collided as they were headed east on Olive St., according to police.

Officers said the Hornsby car was making a right turn into a driveway when the accident occurred. Damage to the Hornsby car was to the right rear, and damage to the Mick car was to the right front.

Injured in the accident were Mick, age 24, who suffered a head injury, and a passenger, Mary Jane Mick, 16, who suffered a broken leg, according to police. Reports could not be obtained from the Murray-Calloway County Hospital this morning.

A second accident occurred Wednesday at 1:09 p. m. at the intersection of 13th and Main Streets, involving cars driven by Suzanne Dick, 500 South 13th, and Autry Farmer, 1307 Wells Blvd., according to police.

Investigating officers said the cars were making left turns from both sides of Main St. at the stop signs on 13th when the accident occurred. Damage to both cars was to the left front.

No accidents were reported over the July Fourth holiday, according to Police Chief Brent Manning.

YEARBOOK PREMIERE—Kaj Spencer, assistant to the president at Murray State University, gets one of the first looks at The Shield, the university yearbook, for the 1973-74 school year. Presenting a copy to Spencer is Patty Alvey of Reynolds Station near Owensboro, a senior art major who will be the editor of The Shield next year. Miss 1/2's gift list reflects full-blown greed

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1974 by Chicago Tribune-N.Y. News Synd., Inc.

DEAR ABBY: Listen to this: We are 2 1/2 girls living together. [The "1/2" girl lives here half the time, and with her fiancé the other half.]

The 1/2 girl friend is getting married next month, so the other roommate and I offered to give her a shower.

We asked "Miss 1/2" to give us the usual type list for both wedding and shower gifts. [We wanted to know what colors, and pattern of china, silver and glassware she selected, in case someone wanted to add to it.]

Her list floored us. It went something like this: "Enamel pots and pans only. No Teflon—I hate them! A battery-run kitchen clock. I won't accept one that's electric. No tea towels. I hate them. I don't want any cheap glasses, only crystal. Money is always best."

My roommate and I were embarrassed to read such a list. When I asked "Miss 1/2" to be a little more specific, she said she didn't have time to go into it, but if people didn't want to give her what she wanted, she didn't want anything.

What should we do? She's 30 years old and has never been married.

TWO CONFUSED ROOMMATES

DEAR CONFUSED: "Miss 1/2" gave you an out: Give her what she wants, or give her nothing.

DEAR ABBY: There must be many others with my problem.

Two years ago I was "the other woman." Today I am "a wicked stepmother" to four teen-agers.

The children and I get along fine. More importantly, my husband and I are very much in love. His "ex" and I do not speak (her terms, not mine).

Problem: My husband wants us to spend a fortune traveling to see his son graduate from high school. While his "ex" hasn't objected, I know this will be an uncomfortable day. Should I stick by my husband's side like glue—or skip the whole scene and stay home by myself?

HAPPY AT HOME

DEAR HAPPY: Stay home and make everyone happier.

DEAR ABBY: Lately you've published several letters about people who have sent gifts and never received an acknowledgment. It happens to me nine out of ten times.

I blame parents and grandparents for furnishing the names of their friends who should be good for at least one $20 spoon toward completing the set of silver.

Now I mail everything insured and if I don't get an acknowledgment in 30 days, I file a claim. Don't think that doesn't shake 'em up. Sometimes I get three thank-yous in one week. From the kids, Mama, and Grandma. L. W. R.

Problems? You'll feel better if you get it off your chest. For personal reply, write to ABBY: Box No. 69700, L.A., Calif. 90069. Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope, please.

MURRAY LEDGER & TIMES For and about Women

Inner beauty hidden by an 'ugly' exterior

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1974 by Chicago Tribune-N.Y. News Synd., Inc.

DEAR ABBY: Regarding that "Double Ugly" guy who says ugliness is a curse because no one wants to associate with physically ugly people. You said, "Ugliness—like beauty, lies in the eye of the beholder. The qualities that make one loved and wanted have nothing to do with the way one's face is formed. Honesty, patience, kindness, generosity—all the virtues—can be developed. A beautiful character counts for more with people who count than physical beauty."

Abby, you missed the whole point. This ugly person should seek out the blind for friends. He should volunteer to help in a school for the blind, or get a job there.

They say if a deaf lion roars in the desert, there is no sound. Nothing looks ugly to those who cannot see, so forget all that rot about developing honesty, kindness and a beautiful character, and give the poor guy some practical advice. He might find what he's looking for in the world of the sightless.

PRAGMATIST

DEAR PRAG: Who says: "If a deaf lion roars in the desert, there is no sound?" Just because the lion can't hear the sound he makes, doesn't mean it's nonexistent.

To suggest that physically ugly people should seek out the blind in order to be loved is an insult to the sightless. Although they are unable to see physical ugliness, they are better able to "see" those qualities which are far more intrinsic to a person's real worth than physical beauty.

So if a physically ugly person has an ugly character, he should stay away from the blind—for they may "see" him better than those with 20-20 vision.

DEAR ABBY: In reply to Double Ugly: I have never met an ugly person I didn't like. They have personality plus! When I was a young girl, I learned the little fellows with the big freckles and the stringy red hair that hung in their yellow-green eyes were the ones to ask a favor of. The handsome guys were too busy thinking about themselves.

Mr. Ugly, I like you already, for you have shown a lot of character and humility by asking for help with your problem. That is beauty right there! So you see, you aren't as ugly as you thought you were. ONE WHO KNOWS

DEAR ABBY: When I first saw this nurse, I said to myself: "That has got to be the ugliest woman I've ever seen!" She was shaped like a pear, had a pockmarked complexion, an enormous nose and buck teeth, and she wore thick glasses.

But an hour later, after watching her work with disturbed children, and observing her gentle, patient, kind, loving personality, I completely forgot about her looks.

Everyone who knew her adored her. She had the disposition of an angel and a way of bringing out the best in people. If I had to name the most beautiful woman I've ever met, I would have to say that nurse wins, hands down. CAPTIVATED

FOR SATURDAY, JULY 6, 1974

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

ARIES

(Mar. 21 to Apr. 20)

Important decisions, research, experimentation are left to your discretion now. Therefore, everything must be carefully worked out BEFORE taking action.

TAURUS

(Apr. 21 to May 21)

Some intrigue still evident. Keep suspicion and involvement to a minimum. Go your sturdy way unaffected by pettiness or deception.

GEMINI

(May 22 to June 21)

Especially favored now: Advancement in electronics, research, writing, intellectual pursuits, generally.

CANCER

(June 22 to July 23)

Dividends indicated from past good work and interest in progressive methods. There may be some complex situations but, with astute judgment, you can solve them.

LEO

(July 24 to Aug. 23)

Mixed influences. Question and investigate where there is margin for error. Do not accept suggestions blindly. And do not expect more than is reasonable.

VIRGO

(Aug. 24 to Sept. 23)

Scattered efforts will confuse, lead you off course. You can win big gains if you buckle down to essentials and STAY with them.

LIBRA

(Sept. 24 to Oct. 23)

Maintain a business-like approach in serious matters without, however, taking yourself or others too seriously. Challenges indicated now should uplift, give you new ideas.

SCORPIO

(Oct. 24 to Nov. 22)

Wait for needed facts before taking action, but don't dally so long that you actually lose out on opportunities. Stress good judgment.

SAGITTARIUS

(Nov. 23 to Dec. 21)

Consider results from past actions or decisions you intend repeating. If they were inadequate, strive to better your efforts this time.

CAPRICORN

(Dec. 22 to Jan. 20)

You may experience temptations to dodge obligations, to "take off" on tangents. DON'T! This is a day in which you can only achieve through stick-to-itiveness.

AQUARIUS

(Jan. 21 to Feb. 19)

A day which calls for careful discrimination. Listen thoughtfully, observe, but do not read meanings into things not intended. Stars warn against hasty decisions.

PISCES

(Feb. 20 to Mar. 20)

Better-than-ordinary planetary influences. Take up the reins and drive straight, strong and with eagerness.

YOU BORN TODAY are highly conventional and ultra conservative; also idealistic and humanitarian in your impulses — could not only succeed, but be eminently happy in any career where you could be of service to your fellowman, such as medicine, nursing, institutional or any other kind of welfare work. Teaching is also an excellent field for you but, here, you will have to learn to be more patient with those less gifted than yourself. If so inclined, you could take up writing — with marked success. Traits to curb: Jealousy and hypersensitivity. Birthdate of: John Paul Jones, American naval officer.

MRS. CHARLES DAN (Marilyn) Bazzell stands beside the piano in her home north of Coldwater. Hanging above the piano is an oil painting Mrs. Bazzell completed while taking an art workshop at Murray State University. She is a candidate for the Master Homemaker Award and was nominated by the Coldwater Homemakers Club.

Mrs. Bazzell Nominee For Farm Homemaker Award

(Editor's note: This is the second in a series of stories and pictures on the candidates for Master Farm Homemaker award for Calloway County. The winner will compete with other county winners for the area homemaker award and then to the state contest.)

Mrs. Charles Dan (Marilyn) Bazzell and her family reside on their farm of 58½ acres north of Coldwater on Farmington Route One.

The Bazzell home is located on a beautiful location on a hillside with panoramic views on all sides of the home and especially on the east and south. The home is also situated in a site with shade trees.

Mrs. and Mrs. Bazzell have lived in their present home for eight years. They brought the home and farm from Mr. and Mrs. Herman Darnell and have since remodeled the house doing most of the work themselves.

The Bazzells have thirty acres of soy beans, some tobacco, raise cattle, grow their own vegetables, have their own beef, and also have cherry, apple, and pear trees.

Mr. Bazzell also is employed at the Murray Division of the Tappan Company and is magistrate for the fourth district of Calloway County. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Bazzell of Farmington, Route One.

They have one son, Mark Evans, age seven, who just completed the first grade at Kirksey Elementary School making all A's and having perfect attendance, and one daughter, Nicole Rae, age four, who will attend kindergarten this fall.

Mrs. Bazzell, the former Marilyn Youngblood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Youngblood of Mayfield Route Seven, is a graduate of Kirksey High School and completed a twelve months executive course at Draughton's Business School at Paducah. She has also attended art workshops and is now taking a home study course in decorating.

The Coldwater Homemakers Club nominee for the Master Farm Homemaker award now works through Enix Interiors as an interior decorator and also makes draperies for the store's customers. She has also held the position of secretary at the County Attorney's office and has worked at other firms in Murray and the area.

Mrs. Bazzell is a member of the Coldwater Church of Christ where she teaches a Sunday School Class, a member of the Kirksey PTA, a member of the Young Democratic Club, a member of the Murray Art Guild, and a member and present president of the Coldwater Homemakers Club.

She has as a hobby painting, working in both oils and ink. She also likes ceramics along with antiques. Attending auction sales is another of Mrs. Bazzell's hobbies, along with playing tennis and horseback riding.

The family as a group enjoys camping, swimming, picnics, and bicycling.

Mrs. Bazzell in giving her philosophy of life said "I believe one should put God first in one's life, family, then friends, and live each day as though it were the most important day of your life and everyone with whom we are associated."

Miss Herndon Complimented At Shower Recently

The Community Room of the Murray Federal Savings and Loan Building was the scene of a miscellaneous shower held on June 17 for Miss Nancy Herndon, bride-elect of Steve Herndon.

Mrs. Louis Kerlick, Mrs. Paul Lyons, Jr., Mrs. Ed Mathis, and

Upon arrival the hostesses presented the honoree with a gardenia corsage to accent the blue slack and white cardigan set she wore. Miss Elizabeth Herndon, sister of the bride-elect, kept the guest register.

Several enjoyable games were played with the winners presenting their prizes to the honoree. The gifts were presented to the honoree to open by Little Misses Terry Roberts and Mitzi McDougal. The hostesses' gift was a silver tray.

Refreshments of party sandwiches, pastries, nuts, and mints were served from a beautifully decorated table covered in white and centered with an arrangement of daisies and burning tapers. Punch was served from the punch bowl placed at one end of the table.

About thirty guests signed the register along with the hostesses and Mrs. C. W. Herndon, the honoree's mother, and Mrs. Earl Herndon, mother of the groom-elect.

Baseball's Little Lib-bers

From the Norfolk (Va.) Ledger-Star

Little League baseball has thrown in the towel on defending its for-boys-only national charter. The governing board has decided the organization no longer will oppose girls' playing in the leagues it sanctions.

With lawsuits sprouting and some leagues accepting girls at risk of losing their affiliation, the board did the only sensible thing: It opted for leaving the matter to the local leagues and teams, and to the girls with a hankering to play baseball. Henceforth, they are to be physical capabilities and baseball skills.

What the girls are going to find out is that Little League is a highly structured competition, between adult managers as well as youthful players, with a high premium on performance. Not every candidate is placed on a team and not every player avoids some time on the bench.

Considering baseball's long tradition as a boy's game, girls may not always find easy recognition for their prowess. But if they prefer baseball to Barbie and Ken, it is simply fair play for them to have the opportunity to try. And, of course, one can count on Little League parents to see to it that their young players get a fair shake, be they little boys or little Lib-bers. Here and there around the country girls who can run and hit and catch are already competing on equal terms with the boys. But it isn't baseball that's changing - it's the girls.

Meals On Wheels

From the Charlotte (N. C.) Observer

A friend of ours who rides the bus to work regularly said that one morning last week his bus driver stopped for breakfast. That's right: just pulled the bus over to the curb, said not a word to the three passengers on it, left the motor running and went into a streetside coffee shop. Five minutes later he returned with an egg sandwich and a Coke.

We asked our friend if the unexpected delay made him angry. "Not at all," he said. "I was really grateful that he ordered his breakfast 'to go' instead of eating it in the coffee shop."

That is the proper attitude, we think. There is no sense in adding "hungry drivers" to the bus company's list of problems.

Credit Pinch

From the Atlanta (Ga.) Journal

And then there's the case reported in the New England Journal of Medicine of a doctor who suggested his patient stop carrying a bill-stuffed wallet in his back pocket while driving his car.

The diagnosis was painful sciatica and the condition was described as "credit carditis."

We've heard that credit cards can be a dangerous possession but have never heard it explained in those terms.

GOD'S ETERNAL PURPOSE

Ephesians 3:1-13

Paul's imprisonment in Rome was due to the hatred and persecution of the Jews caused by his proclamation that the gospel of Christ was intended for all the world, that Christ was ready to save Jews and Gentiles alike, and that God had called him to minister to the Gentiles. Paul never ceased to marvel at the fact that God had chosen him for the high and holy task of preaching His gospel of grace to the Gentiles. He readily acknowledged his stewardship of God's grace and was loyal to his commission. That Paul became a minister of Christ is a very extraordinary fact. He had not only rejected the gospel message, but he had also persecuted the followers of Christ. Then, at a given time and place he was saved, and he later became a great minister.

As used in God's Word, a "mystery" was a truth once hidden or hitherto withheld and later revealed. A mystery is something that is undiscoverable apart from divine revelation. The mystery which God revealed to Paul concerned Christ and centered in Him and the relationship which He desired to have with the Gentiles. The mystery which Paul declared and explained was that God in Christ was able to reconcile to Himself those who were estranged from Him, and also to make the Gentiles, who were estranged from the Jews, fellow-heirs of the promises in Christ through the gospel. Christ made known His hitherto hidden purpose to save both Jew and Gentile and make them His very own for eternity, but someone had to convey this message to the Gentiles; otherwise they would have lived in ignorance of it.

Paul said that the source of his ministry was the gift of God's grace and the working of His supernatural power. He readily and gratefully acknowledged that all the power of his ministry came from God. As to Paul's spirit, he was completely overwhelmed by the sense of his personal unworthiness. His humility was the direct and immediate product of the grace of God in his heart. Thinking of himself as "the chief of sinners," because of the way in which he had persecuted the children of God, he expressed his humility of spirit by coupling a comparative with a superlative in referring to himself as "the less than the least of all the saints." Without hesitation Paul acknowledged that all that he was and ever hoped to be was due entirely to God's wondrous grace. He gave God credit for saving him and putting him into the ministry, wherein he had the wonderful privilege of proclaiming the glorious gospel of Christ to many who otherwise would never have known the truth.

It was God's will and purpose that Paul should preach the unsearchable and indescribable riches of grace in Christ. "The unsearchable riches of Christ" constituted the message which Paul delivered. Present-day Christians are under obligation to proclaim the same message. The words "unsearchable riches" convey the idea of something precious being exceedingly abundant, which is not usually the case. Paul mentioned the riches of Christ's goodness (Romans 2:4), the riches of His grace (Ephesians 1:7 and 2:7), the riches of His gifts (1 Timothy 6:7 and Romans 10:12), and the riches of His glory (Ephesians 3:16). The riches of Christ, or the boundless resources in Him, must not be hoarded in miserly fashion, but they must be distributed freely and cheerfully to all. Paul yearned to be able to enable his readers to understand the almost unbelievable truth that through the gospel of Christ God's grace is offered to all who hear it.

Since God made the world and what is in it, He is certainly entitled to do with it what He deems best, and His creatures do not have any right to object or to interfere with His doings.

The intent or purpose of Paul's ministry was set forth in verses nine to twelve. It was the Lord's purpose for him to make known the gospel of Christ to those who had not heard this message or received salvation from Him. Of course, it has ever been the purpose of God that His manifold or many-tinted wisdom shall be made known by His children in and through His churches. It remains the responsibility of every Christian to carry out the Lord's purpose by proclaiming the gospel to unbelievers everywhere. The grace and strength which are needed for this important service are made available to us through Christ; the One Who has made it possible for us to have free and unrestricted access to God the Father.

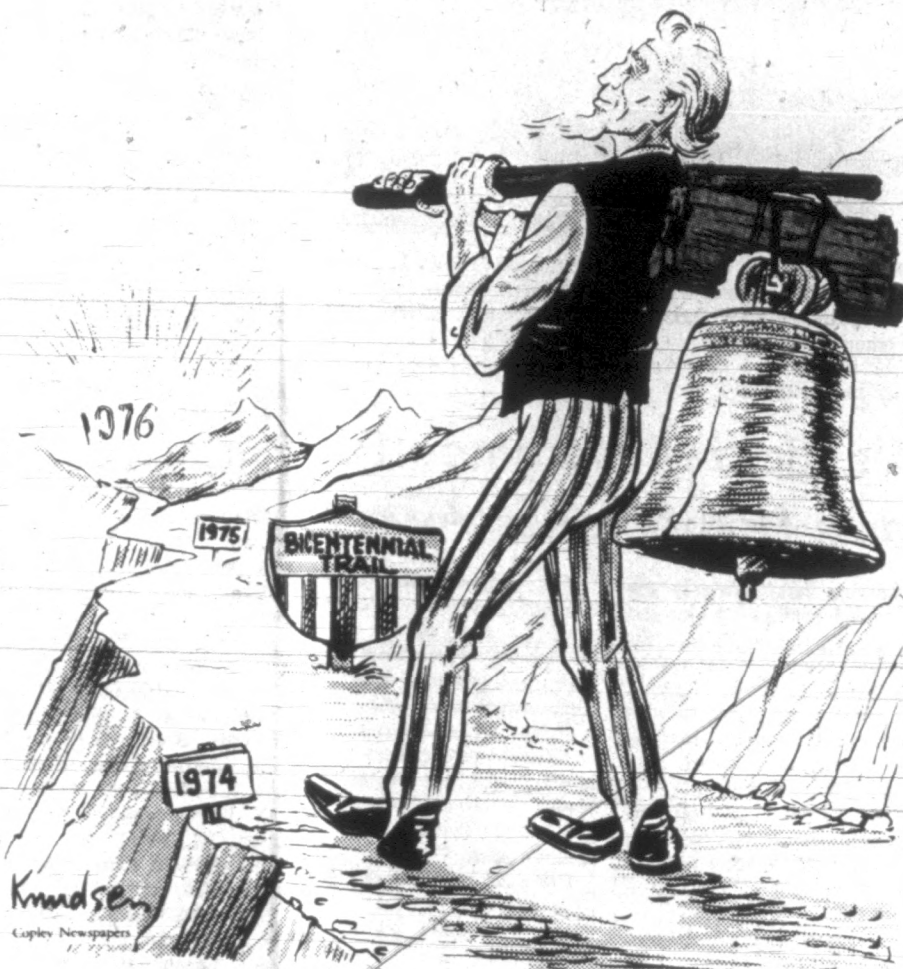

It is certain that we cannot accomplish God's great purpose for us in our own strength. To do that we must rely absolutely on Him for both the wisdom and the power which are necessary. With an awareness and an appreciation of the benefits derived through God's grace, let us give ourselves unreservedly to a ministry of proclamation, evangelization, and reconciliation, as did the Apostle. God has entrusted us with the same gospel that Paul preached so faithfully and earnestly, therefore, we should be faithful in our stewardship of it. In view of God's eternal purpose for us, we should never become discouraged because we are called upon to proclaim the gospel of Christ in an uncongenial environment and under difficult and trying circumstances. His promise to be with us and to bless us in the performance of our Christian duty should challenge us to put forth our very best efforts in conveying His message to those who need it. By our painstaking obedience and undying devotion to Him we can bring glory and honor to our wonderful Saviour and Lord, and at the same time be a channel through which He can convey blessings to those who are now strangers to His marvelous grace.

Whales Endangered

In resisting the call for a world-wide 10-year moratorium on whale hunting, Japan points out that the whaling industry supplies a livelihood to 50,000 Japanese and produces 10 per cent of the protein consumed in that country. There is no minimizing the economic impact which the moratorium would have on Japan, but there also is no way to argue around the fact that whales are going to disappear altogether from the seas if the annual harvest goes on.

Japan and the Soviet Union are the only countries with whaling fleets of significant size. They are also the only countries resisting the United Nations call for a total whaling moratorium to provide time for rebuilding the herds.

They must face necessities dictated by Nature. Otherwise there will be no protein or employment from a whaling industry at all — and never again in the future.

Tuppence?

Not surprisingly, the U.S. Treasury Department is considering a two or two-and-a-half cent coin because inflation has reduced the value of the penny.

One of the problems of minting the new coin, we understand, is that the proposal could start a row in Congress over who should adorn it.

We fail to see a problem. Since the tuppence — or whatever it will be called — will be a monument to inflation why not a rendition of a filet mignon or a 5-cent cigar?

CONTEMPORARY RELIGIOUS THOUGHT

Independence-Dependence

by Pastor Jerrell G. White
Memorial Baptist Church

We have just celebrated our nation's birth. July the fourth is a special day - family picnics, relatives visiting, a day off from work, patriotic thoughts. I hope that many Americans during these days of celebration have agreed with the sentiments expressed by these words written long ago: "God bless America, land that I love; stand beside her and guide her thru the night with a light from above."

Independence and dependence are important themes in man's relationship to God. God has given man moral and spiritual freedom. Each individual is responsible for his own decisions and actions. Man can best use this freedom or independence by declaring his dependence on God and by giving Him supreme allegiance and loyalty. (see Romans 6:16-23).

Independence is great and for it we should be thankful. But as individuals we are also very dependent - on each other and on God. Have you declared your dependence?

Isn't It The Truth

by Carl Riblet Jr.

The scientists ought to invent a device that could determine exactly what is or is not in the mind of any particular candidate for public office. If the voters learned, after getting a peek into the handsome head of a candidate of either Democratic or Republican persuasion, that the space contained therein was a mish-mash of knots and snags, a vacuum, or solid, they could then elect it, reject it or preserve it in a jar against future need in politics for knotheads, empty heads or that specialty of Congress — boneheads.

Neither be on the outs with others nor with yourself, but eager and tolerant. Defly meet punch with punch, talent with talent.

PISCES

(Feb. 20 to Mar. 20)

If you REALLY have time for "extras" on a busy day, take them on judiciously. Anchor your sails to the well-founded, and engage opponents with enthusiasm.

You would make a salesman without equal, a politician with enormous influence or an entertainer with sensational crowd-appeal. Gulls pose peril for Air Force

"Last year the Air Force lost $24.5 million as a result of bird strike hazards," according to Dr. John Stout, professor of biology who is conducting research in seagull communication.

"Thirty per cent of these losses were caused by gulls interfering with landings and takeoffs. Through the use of artificial models, we believe we can prevent at least half of these losses with annual savings of $3 or $4 million."

Mel Purcell Defeated In California Tourney

Murray tennis star Mel Purcell has been eliminated from competition in the California State Junior Tennis Tournament being held this week in San Jose, Calif.

Purcell, seeded number four in the 16-year-old division, fell in split sets Thursday to Neal Carl of Richmond, Va.

In the first set, Purcell led 5-3 but wound up losing 7-6, dropping the tie-breaker 5-3.

Purcell came back in the second set to win 7-6 on a 5-2 tie-breaker but then lost 6-4 in the third set to drop the match and missed a chance at moving into the semifinals.

Carl was seeded sixth in the tournament.

In a previous match played two years ago, Purcell lost to Carl.

Purcell won his first round match Monday by default and then Tuesday, won in straight sets over Mike Cootsona of Santa Cruz, Calif. Purcell took the match 6-2, 6-4.

In Wednesday's match, Purcell had to win a 5-4 tie-breaker in the third set to win over Darrell Goldman of Los Angeles. Purcell lost the first set 6-3 but came back to win 6-0 in the second set before winning the match in the third-set tie-breaker.

In the doubles, Purcell and his partner, Ron Hightower of Los Angeles, still remain in competition.

They have defeated a team from Los Angeles and a team from Boston thus far.

Purcell, who has been on the road since June 5, will be playing in the highly prestigious Southern Open in Atlanta next week.

He will return home about July 16 and will play in the Kentucky State Junior Closed Tournament which will begin August 6 in Murray.

In the same tourney last year, also held in Murray, Purcell won the 14-year-old division and finished as runnerup in the 16-year-old division.

After playing in the state Juniors here next month, Purcell will go on a playing tour of Europe.

Unknown Ed Sneed Still Leading At Milwaukee

By BOB GREEN, AP Golf Writer

MILWAUKEE (AP) — "Of course," Ed Sneed said, surveying the scoreboard that showed him three shots clear of the field in the $130,000 Milwaukee Open Golf Tournament, "you start thinking about winning."

"It's the thing that comes to mind. It's almost impossible not to think about it. But there's another 36 holes to go. I've got to just try and play as well as I did the first two rounds."

Sneed, riding a hot putter that has taken only 55 strokes in two rounds of play, put together a five-under-par 67 in Thursday's second round and extended his lead to three strokes midway through this chase for a $26,000 first prize.

His 133 total, 11 under par, was within one stroke of the best 36-hole total of the year on the pro tour, and left him well ahead of former Masters champion Tommy Aaron, alone in second with a pair of 68s and a 136 total.

Cesar Sanudo followed with 68-138 and Bob Zender and 70-139.

Lee Trevino moved into contention with a 69—despite a double bogey five—and was tied at 140 with Dave Hill.

American Rowing Champ Seeking To Gain Revenge

By NOEL HUGHES, AP Sports Writer

HENLEY-ON-THAMES, England (AP) — Jim Dietz, the slim American rowing champion from the New York Athletic Club, sought revenge today against tough Irishman Sean Drea in the coveted Diamond Challenge Sculls at the Henley Royal Regatta.

Drea, the defending champion, is something of a jinx for Dietz, America's top singles sculler.

Dietz, 25, has been beaten several times by Drea, a chunky Dubliner studying business administration at St. Joseph's College in Philadelphia.

"I'm stronger now than I've ever been," said Dietz, who has crossed the Atlantic on three previous occasions in unsuccessful bids to win the Diamonds over Henley's one-mile, 550-yard River Thames course.

"I really want to win this one," Dietz said Friday.

His 26-year-old, straggly haired rival is full of confidence.

"I beat Dietz in the Schuykill Navy Regatta in Philadelphia last month," Drea said. "I won there and finished 10 seconds ahead of Dietz who was third and I'll beat him here, too."

The Irishman said he was going to shatter Dietz' dream.

Chuck Courtney and Curtis Sifford.

Hill's 67 matched the best round of the windy day on the 7,010-yard, par-72 Tuckaway Country Club course. Courtney had a 69 and Sifford 72.

Sam Sneed, still a challenger at age 62, had another 71 and a 142 total. Hubert Green, a three-time winner this season, also was at that total after a second-round 70.

Sneed, who scored the only victory of his six-year pro career last fall in the Kaiser Open, chipped in from 30 feet for a birdie on his first hole, which, he said, started him off.

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Top second-round scores Thursday in the $130,000 Milwaukee Open Golf Tournament on the 7,010-yard, par-72 Tuckaway Country Club course:

80,000 Fans To Watch Dutch And West German Teams Play

By GEOFFREY MILLER, AP Sports Writer

MUNICH (AP) — Sunday's World Cup soccer final will not exactly be a confrontation between Munich and Amsterdam, but for most of the 80,000 spectators at the Olympic Stadium it will seem like it.

More than half of the West German team plays for the Bayern Munich club and are local heroes. Most of the Dutch team has starred for Ajax of Amsterdam and are local favorites in the Dutch port city.

Munich residents will turn out in force for the game, by far the biggest sporting occasion in the city since the 1972 Olympics. Thousands of Dutch, mostly from Amsterdam, will stream south down the autobahns to cheer their players.

Seeking reasons why West Germany and The Netherlands are the two best teams in the tournament, most analysts have pointed to the club spirit which is the nucleus of both teams.

Among the West Germans, goalie Sepp Maier, defenders Franz Beckenbauer, Paul Breitner and Georg Schwarzenbeck, midfielder Uli Hoessens and striker Gerd Mueller play alongside each other in the Bayern lineup weekly through the German season.

On the Dutch team, defenders Arie Haan and Wim Suurbier, midfielders Ruud Krol and Johnny Neeskens and winger Johnny Rep are Ajax men. Johan Cruyff, the captain and Dutch superstar, used to play for Ajax too, until he was sold to Barcelona in the Spanish league. But the Dutch fans still think of him as an Amsterdam player.

In addition, Dutch team manager Rinus Michels coached Ajax to the European championship. He now coaches Cruyff at Barcelona.

Helmut Schoen, the West German coach, agreed that club spirit had much to do with the success of both teams.

"If you can rely on a hard core of players from one club, it is a big advantage," Schoen said.

Bayern and Ajax both had relatively small stadiums and outgrew them by their success.

Chris Evert Wins Title In Wimbledon Singles

WIMBLEDON (AP) — Teen-ager Chris Evert won the women's singles title at the Wimbledon Tennis Championship today by beating Russian Olga Morozova 6-0, 6-4.

The biggest victory in the career of 19-year-old Miss Evert of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., came after her fiance Jimmy Connors gained Saturday's men's final with a comeback 4-6, 6-2, 6-3, 6-4 victory over Dick Stockton.

For a time it appeared the 21-year-old Connors, of Belleville, Ill., would be meeting Stan Smith in an All-American final. Smith won the first two sets against Ken Rosewall, but then the 39-year-old Australian staged a sensational rally to win 6-8, 4-6, 9-8, 6-1, 6-3.

By FRED COLEMAN, Associated Press Writer

WIMBLEDON, England (AP) — America's Chris Evert was to meet her "very good friend" and doubles partner, Olga Morozova of the Soviet Union, in today's women's singles final of the All-England Tennis Championships, a match-up of two of the coolest competitors in the game.

Miss Evert, 19, from Fort Lauderdale, Fla., entered her second straight final here with a reputation as "the ice dolly." She lost to Billie Jean King last year.

Mrs. Morozova, 24, the wife of a Moscow electrical engineer, upset both Ms. King and Britain's Virginia Wade to become the first Russian to reach a Wimbledon final. Her name in Russian means "frost" and she too has nerves of ice.

In today's men's semifinals, third-seeded Jimmy Connors of Belleville, Ill., faced unranked Dick Stockton of Dallas and fourth-seeded Stan Smith of Sea Pines, S.C., took on ageless Australian Ken Rosewall, seeded No. 9.

Miss Evert reached the finals with a convincing 6-2, 6-3 victory over Australia's Kerry Melville. Mrs. Morozova had more trouble, coming from behind to beat Miss Wade, 1-6, 7-6, 6-4.

Chris Evert was talking to newsmen when she learned her final opponent was to be Mrs. Morozova. The Florida girl was clearly disappointed.

"Olga is going to be very tough," Miss Evert said. "She is so consistent and so full of control of herself..."

Mrs. Morozova returned the compliment, praising Miss Evert as a cool customer "twice over."

She said she had lost to Evert four times this year. "But these matches were on clay. It's easier playing her on grass because the bounce is faster," the Russian added. "But with Chris, you have to play the points all the time."

Miss Evert said she met Olga at the French championships in 1973 and "We hit it off immediately. She is quiet and I'm the quiet type. We began practicing together and became very good friends. We play very well together, we complement each other."

Miss Evert and Mrs. Morozova, the top-seeded pair left in the women's doubles, were to play a semifinal match together Friday after they compete for the singles title.

Both losing semifinalists in the ladies singles—Miss Wade and Miss Melville, predicted Chris Evert would take the title.

Others refused to count Mrs. Morozova out. Miss Evert said the Russian has "an American game. She has a good serve and rushes the net and volleys well."

Mrs. Morozova was delighted to be in the final. "I called my husband last night after beating King," she said in flawless English. "He was thrilled. He'd love to come here and see me but it isn't possible. There isn't time to get a visa."

"In Russia everyone thinks of Wimbledon as the world championships and my husband told me everyone was talking about my win over King. I hope somehow they'll be showing the final on Moscow television."

Players Strike Trying To Lure Away Rookies

By NICK ALLEN
Associated Press Writer
SAN DIEGO (AP) — Picketing members of the National Football League Players Association were waiting today to see whether their talks with San Diego Chargers rookies and free agents would convince any of them to leave training camp.

"Both sides have their points, and we're caught in the middle," one free agent at the Chargers' camp said Thursday after talking with about 30 striking members of the Players Association.

The association, which went on strike Monday and threw up a picket line two days later, hoped the rookies would leave camp, making it impossible for the Chargers to play exhibition games, and that rookies at other NFL training camps would follow suit.

But while some said they were thinking about quitting the camp, they all appeared for the first practice session after their talks with the strikers outside the training grounds.

The team's 53 rookies and free agents first met for an hour in the training center with association executive director Ed Garvey, president Bill Curry of the Houston Oilers and Chargers player representative Joe Beauchamp.

Chargers owner Eugene Klein had agreed Wednesday to let the three onto the U.S. International University campus, site of the training camp, for one meeting.

After the meeting, the rookies and free agents walked down the hill and talked to about 30 other picketing vets, who originally tried to go onto the campus but were stopped when the Chargers officials protested.

"I thought about the issues and made my decision before I came to camp," said quarterback Jesse Freitas, the Chargers No. 6 draft choice. He conceded that at least some of the rookies and free agents probably would quit training in the next few days. Several free agents, who asked not to be identified, agreed, as did picketer Ray May of the Denver Broncos.

The strikers argued that the strike would be settled more quickly if the rookies and free agents pulled out of camp before the game.

cause management would not even be able to field a "pickup game."

They said the Chargers hope only be able to prove their talents against veterans, not against other inexperienced players, and added that the teams would practice the rookies until the veterans returned, when they would have to make cuts and the veterans would take over. Only five draft choices and one free agent will make the Chargers, Norman predicted.

Meanwhile, the general counsel of the NFL management council, Sarge Karch, said it would be "surprising if there is no call from the federal mediation service in the next week or two." Both sides said that if a call were issued they would return to the bargaining table immediately.

A federal mediator called a halt to talks between players and management on June 26 when it became apparent there would be no immediate agreement on the 63 demands the players made March 16.

Demands include elimination of the option clause and the waiver system and removal of the NFL commissioner from injury grievance procedure.

Dodgers Edge Reds To Move To 9 1/2 Game Lead

By HERSCHEL NISSENSEN, AP Sports Writer

The Los Angeles Dodgers are out to prove they're not riding a bicycle built for two collapses in a row.

"Down with the Big Red Machine," said second baseman Dave Lopes after a two-run ninth-inning rally Thursday that produced a 3-2 victory over Cincinnati and dropped the defending National League West Division champion Reds to a whopping 9 1/2 games behind the runaway Dodgers.

"This is the year of the Little Blue Bicycle," Lopes added, referring to the Dodgers' color.

"We blew it last year and we haven't forgotten. It won't happen again."

Los Angeles' biggest lead over the second-place Reds a year ago was 8 1/2 games on July 17.

In other National League action Thursday, the Chicago Cubs edged the St. Louis Cardinals 3-2, the Montreal Expos nipped the Pittsburgh Pirates 2-1 in the opener of a double-header but dropped the nightcap 3-2, the Philadelphia Phillies lost their opener to the New York Mets 5-3 and then ended an eight-game losing skid by taking the nightcap 6-2, the Houston Astros shaded the Atlanta Braves 4-3 in 10 innings and the San Francisco Giants trounced the San Diego Padres 9-2.

Cubs 3, Cardinals 2
Rookie Andre Thornton's double keyed a three-run fourth inning and Chicago held on to beat St. Louis.

Expos 2-2, Pirates 1-3
Richie Zisk doubled home the tying run in the eighth inning of the nightcap against rookie Dennis Blair after an intentional walk to Willie Stargell, and Bob Robertson followed with a game-winning sacrifice fly.

Pepe Frias drove in the deciding run for Montreal with a fluke double in the seventh inning of the opener.

Doctors Say McCarthy Improving After Surgery

TUPELO, Miss. (AP)—Doctors for James "Babe" McCarthy said that the former American Basketball Association coach was responding well after two operations for cancer of the colon.

The former coach of the Kentucky Colonels of the ABA was operated on at North Mississippi Medical Center last month. The second operation was conducted to deal with complications which followed the first. Doctors Thursday said that McCarthy was showing progress, but still could have no visitors.

McCarthy was fired as the Colonels coach last spring after coaching other ABA teams. Before joining the ABA he coached several championship teams at Mississippi State University and other southern schools.

Jackson And Carew Are Dominating Balloting

NEW YORK (AP) — Oakland slugger Reggie Jackson and Minnesota second baseman Rod Carew continue to dominate the voting by fans for the American League's starting lineup for major league baseball's All-Star Game July 23 in Pittsburgh, according to figures released today by the commissioner's office.

With just three days left in the voting, Jackson leads all comers with 1,524,790 votes. New York's Bobby Murcer has moved ahead of Detroit's Al Kaline for second place among outfielders. Murcer has 614,923 votes to Kaline's 562,187.

Carew maintains a huge lead over runner-up Cookie Rojas of Ed Brinkman at shortstop, 986,512 to 393,783.

Brooks Robinson, Baltimore's veteran third baseman, leads runner-up Sal Bando of Oakland, 684,334 to 429,475.

Balloting ends Sunday.

Pearson Wins Race And Petty Gets Very Upset

By F.T. MacFEELY
Associated Press Writer
DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (AP) — David Pearson admits he needed a trick to win the Firecracker 400 stock car race for the third straight time Thursday.

Richard Petty called it a dirty trick.

Pearson, 39, the gray fox of racing, and Petty, 37, the king to NASCAR fans, are both million-dollar career winners and respected for their courtesy and concern for safety.

But each accused the other of unsportsmanlike conduct as they jockeyed through the last of 180 laps around the 2.5-mile Daytona International Speedway.

Passing the grandstands—filled with a record crowd of 65,000—going into the final lap, Pearson suddenly cut the throttle of his Mercury, with Petty's Dodge right on his rear bumper.

"I never thought he'd let off that quickly with somebody so close behind," Petty fumed. "I had to let off. Otherwise I couldn't have turned the steering wheel fast enough to miss him."

Pearson complained that Petty tried to drive him into the pits in a sprint to the finish line off the final turn.

"I gave him a lane," countered Petty, not mentioning that it was the asphalt track apron he left open.

Pearson, using the familiar slingshot technique off the high bank, managed to cross the finish line a little more than one-half car length in front and $18,000 richer. Petty had to settle for $10,925 and second place for the fourth straight year.

Although it was a two-car race on the last lap, Buddy Baker in a Ford and Cale Yarborough in a Chevrolet had been contenders to that point.

They finished in a dead heat for third, as not even a photo could separate them at the finish. Because of qualifying and equipment money, Baker had the bigger payday of $6,087 to Yarborough's $5,912.

Bobby Allison, taking a one-race ride in Roger Penske's Matador, was one of nine drivers who held the lead at various times and was very much in contention until valve trouble in the last 30 miles dropped him to fifth place for $4,650.

At 138.302 miles per hour, it was the slowest Firecracker 400 ever run.

Indianapolis 500 winner Johnny Rutherford, starting next to last, smacked the outer concrete wall along the west turn when his Chevrolet engine exploded after only seven laps. He was taken the hospital and checked but was uninjured.

'Innocent Old Lady' Really A 64-Year Old Private Detective

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — White-haired and 64, Florence Sperbeck tries hard to "look like an innocent old lady."

She should. She's a private investigator.

"It's a marvelous career field for women, and age is no barrier," said Mrs. Sperbeck, a tall, full-figured mother who investigates cases ranging from shoplifting to runaway juveniles.

"I believe, with many others, a woman is more disarming. People open the door and invite me in. They would never do that for a man."

She has a closet filled with wigs and change-of-personality costumes, a background in acting and professional police work, a quick wit and a fast tongue—all tools of the trade.

"All the things I've done in my life have brought me to this point—the drama and little theater acting, the (U.S. Navy) Waves, the University of California police work courses, the FBI training, the juvenile officer assignment with the Contra Costa County sheriff's office, stints as a policewoman," she said.

Mrs. Sperbeck began her investigative career with the Oakland Police Department in 1942. She said her superiors disliked replacing drafted police officers with women.

"The captain called me in and told me, 'Women don't belong on the police force. The only reason I hired you was because the war's on and we need the men out on the street. As soon as it's over we are going to get rid of you,'" she said.

In 1947, Mrs. Sperbeck joined the police department in nearby Alameda. Later, she transferred to the Contra Costa County sheriff's department. Bad health forced her retirement in 1964.

She later recovered and began doing investigative work for her husband, Ivan Sperbeck, a prominent Oakland criminal attorney. They have a son, 44.

Investigations in personal injury allegations, security analysis for stores and businesses and finding runaway juveniles account for the bulk of her work.

"I like the idea of showing there is a place for women in both police and investigative work," said Mrs. Sperbeck, who graduated at the top of a special FBI training school class she took before her 1964 retirement. "We still have to go out and prove we can do it."

FBI Preparing To Move Into New Building After 12 Years

WASHINGTON (AP) — After 12 years of planning and construction, the FBI is preparing to move in September to a gigantic and costly new building towering over a full block of Pennsylvania Avenue.

The moving itself may take as long as eight months, FBI officials said.

When the transition is complete, the FBI's vast headquarters operations will be housed in one building for the first time and the building itself will become Washington's biggest monument to the man who dominated the agency for four decades, the late J. Edgar Hoover.

Named for Hoover after his death, the building was authorized by Congress in 1962, but it took another six years before construction began.

Sprawled halfway between the White House and the Capitol, the sand-colored concrete structure sits across the avenue from the FBI's parent agency, the Justice Department.

FBI executives and much of the headquarters staff currently use offices in the Justice Department building. But computer systems, the fingerprint division and some other operations are in eight buildings scattered around Washington.

Currently, the FBI must move hundreds of records from one location to another daily. The records, encased in locked metal boxes, are shuttled under guard in vans.

Thomas Jenkins, deputy associate FBI director in charge of administration, said no files have been lost or stolen in the shuttle service, "but you always run that chance the more you have to move them."

Jenkins said the new quarters will enable the FBI to increase its daily tourist capacity from 3,500 to 5,000.

The FBI tour is a popular attraction for Washington visitors, especially in the summer, when long waiting lines often form.

"We feel bad when we have to cut them off out there on 10th Street and they've come all the way from Seattle," he said.

Jenkins and Assistant Director Eugene Walsh said the structure's cost amounts to $126 million, more than double that first estimated by Congress a dozen years ago.

Constructed in one 11-story section and another seven-story section, the building will accommodate about 7,400 employees and contains underground parking for about 500. The structure surrounds a landscaped open courtyard with a fountain.

From Taiwan — with flowers

Taiwan's subtropical climate enables it to grow flowers under natural conditions, making the cut flowers stay fresh twice as long as those grown in greenhouses, according to a flower specialist on the Nationalist Chinese island.

Flower exports have grown 100 per cent per year since 1965, with Japan and Hong Kong the biggest markets for Taiwan blossoms.

Woodcutter Charged In Slayings And Kidnapping

TRUCKEE, Calif. (AP) — Authorities were silent today about clues that led them to a brawny woodcutter sought in a triple slaying and the six-day kidnaping of three other persons.

John Wayne Card, 26, of Woodland, was arrested in this Northern California mountain town late Thursday by FBI agents and sheriff's deputies. The FBI said he was armed with a .45-caliber automatic pistol but offered no resistance.

Card's arrest came 10 hours after a widow and her two children, kidnaped last Friday, escaped from chains in a forest and walked to a ranger station.

Card was wanted for investigation in the slayings last Friday of a veterinarian, his wife and daughter of Willows, a farming community 70 miles north of Sacramento.

Authorities said he would be booked for investigation in the kidnapings and the slayings after being transferred to Willows in Glenn County, about 100 miles away, later today.

"All I'm concerned about is that he is in custody. That's a relief," Undersheriff Jim Kennon of Glenn County said.

Neither Kennon nor other authorities would what led them to Truckee in the Sierra Nevada 70 miles southwest of Reno, Nev., and the arrest of the 6-foot-2, 240-pound Card.

"We have been very close to him on several occasions," Kennon said. "We have been following our leads which led us to Truckee Thursday."

Card was sought in the death of Dr. Clayton B. Griffiths and his 13-year-old daughter, Lisa Ann. Both had been strangled with baling wire. Griffiths' wife, Nancy, was found shot to death in a field 20 miles from their home.

Officers have said they could determine no motive for the slayings.

Earlier Thursday, Kay Skillin, 34, her son, Wesley, 13, and her daughter, Debbie, 12, all of the Butte County farming community of Dayton, walked into a forest ranger station in Wilbur Springs, 55 miles northwest of Sacramento.

They told authorities they were chained to a tree Wednesday about a mile from the station. They said they worked their way free and walked to the station at daylight Thursday. Their captor had left plenty of food and water for them, they said, but they didn't know whether he planned to return.

Sheriff Joel McDermott of Colusa County said Mrs. Skillin told deputies they had been driven through parts of California, Nevada and Utah since their abduction, staying in motels and a truck camper. He described all three as "very tired" but apparently in good health.

John Reed, FBI agent in Sacramento, said Card was carrying more than $3,000 in cash when arrested. A .30-caliber rifle was found in a nearby vehicle Card had been driving, Reed said.

Don't 'mix' snow tires says expert

If you are putting snow tires on a car equipped with radial tires, you should get radial snow tires, according to Malcolm R. Lovell Jr., council chairman of the Tire Industry Safety Council.

Radial tires are built in such a way that when they are turned they immediately assume the new direction. If the snow tires on the rear are of a different type, the risk of slipping and causing a skid is increased.

For scoring highest of any senior 4-H'er (ages 14-19) competing in the state 4-H dairy judging contest in Lexington, June 25, Alene Paschall (right) Calloway County, received both a silver cup and a plaque. Making the presentation here is Mrs. Lewis Porter, representing Happy Valley Farms, Danville, donor of the plaque. Those competing in the contest judged both Jersey and Holstein cattle, and Alene scored highest in Holstein judging and fourth in judging Jerseys.

For scoring highest of any senior team (ages 14-19) competing in the state 4-H dairy judging contest in Lexington, June 25, the Calloway County 4-H senior team received a plaque, being presented here by Mrs. Lewis Porter (left), representing Happy Valley Farms, Danville, donor of the plaque. They are (from left): Alene Paschall, who also had the highest individual score in the senior Sandra Stark, who scored seventh highest overall; team coaches Kathy Stubblefield and Ted Howard; Steve McCuiston, who was sixth highest in individual scores; and Steve Howard, who ranked thirteenth in individual scoring. Those competing in the contest judged both Holstein and Jersey cattle, and the Calloway County team placed first in judging both breeds.

Humphrey Papers Restricted From Public View For 25 Years

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey's tax-deductible documents are being restricted from public view for 25 years and it's not known when President Nixon's pre-White House papers will be opened to scrutiny. But the nation's archivist says such restrictions can help the cause of history.

A spokeswoman for Humphrey, the Minnesota Democrat who served as Lyndon B. Johnson's vice president, said Tuesday night that when the senator gave personal and official papers to the Minnesota State Historical Society in the late 1960s he restricted their access for a quarter-century.

But she said the 25-year rule was the society's "general guideline for donors of historical papers" and that "no one who has requested access has been denied access" by Humphrey.

"It's not only a protection for the senator's privacy but also for the people who wrote him letters now among the papers," she added.

In donating pre-presidential papers and memorabilia to the National Archives, Nixon stipulated that no one, other than archivists processing the items, may examine them without his written permission as long as he remains President.

The deed also gives Nixon the right to modify that restriction anytime during his lifetime.

Dr. James B. Rhoads, archivist of the United States, told a reporter that such access restrictions are "not uncommon." Without the restrictions, he said, the only alternative would be to destroy documents that otherwise might provide historically valuable.

Humphrey has said he took deductions totaling $199,153 for some of the papers in his federal income tax returns for the years 1969 through 1972.

Nixon also claimed $482,018 in deductions for the same purpose during the same years. But the Internal Revenue Service and a congressional committee ruled last spring that the donation to the National Archives had not been made until more than eight months after a new tax law abolished gifts of papers as a charitable deduction.

The adverse ruling was largely responsible for Nixon receiving an assessment of some $467,000 for back taxes.

Former Forger Now Helps Businessmen

LEBANON, Ky. (AP) — A Kentuckian once imprisoned for cashing forged checks now offers to tell businessmen how to recognize bogus checks and phony check cashers.

James Shively, 29, of Campbellsville, tried his hand as a check artist, counterfeiter and forger of payroll checks and found the potential return would be "maybe $15,000 a week if you work every day."

But in an Ohio prison Shively decided he wanted a different life, and he told Lebanon storekeepers Tuesday he's now hard at work advising businessmen.

Shively can demonstrate techniques used to cash counterfeit checks and imperfections in different kinds of checks, and can give tips on how to spot shoplifters, he told the Lebanon Retail Merchants Association.

Also, he said he can keep the merchants up to date on new confidence rackets as soon as they are introduced.

Shively said his life turned to crime in 1968 when he and some associates were denied a small business loan and went to work on "a plan to survive." The group transported a printing press and was prepared to copy 12 check forms. Shively said he learned printing in vocational school.

"We tried to pick companies and banks that did business with each other," he said. "We would move into the town and set up residence in a black neighborhood. Then we would get busy preparing fake identification papers."

"We even forged doctors' signatures on papers saying we were epileptics. That helped us register at stores where we could get checks cashed," he said.

"On a good day," he said, he could cash 35 or 40 checks for amounts "generally around $100."

Shively ended up in prison about three years ago after a "poorly planned day" in Springfield, Ohio.

"We usually checked crime statistics in a town before we did anything," he said. "We didn't do that in Springfield, and, as it turned out, another check gang had taken the town for $60,000 just two weeks earlier."

Shively noted extra-suspicion on the part of a store clerk, he said, and later "They were waiting for me at a store where the check had already been approved for cashing."

Shively offered his services to the Lebanon merchants, for a fee to be set later, and said they could expect an honest effort from him: "I don't want any more of that incarceration."

Solons' expenses cost a bundle

Taxpayers pay not only the $42,500 yearly salaries of their U.S. representatives and senators, but also foot the bill for staff salaries in legislative offices at home and in the nation's capital.

Additionally, taxpayers support free mail or franking privileges for members of Congress, costing $21.2 million per year, stationary allowances running $4,250 per member per year; and other substantial telephone, telegram and travel benefits for each elected representative on Capitol Hill. — CNS edged the President has one.

"The clot will always be there," he said, adding that the swelling results from blood forcing its way past the area of clotting.

Itch also disclosed Nixon was given medication for a week during his overseas journey—something the White House had denied repeatedly. He would not name the drug.

The doctor said that by the time the President left for Moscow last week, the danger to Nixon was not as great as during the Middle East trip. He declined to say whether he had advised against both journeys but the New York Daily News quoted him earlier as having said he had wanted the President to rest.

Itch said Nixon "felt he had an obligation" to go forward with his Mideast trip and that "We watched him daily and he did well."

broke into Fielding's office Sept. 3, 1971.

The fourth defendant, G. Gordon Liddy, has refused to testify before grand juries and a congressional committee, and is expected to remain silent in the break-in trial.

The raid against Fielding's office was devised by the White House plumbers, a special investigative unit created to close news leaks. Their first mission was to investigate publication of the Pentagon Papers study of the Vietnam war, leaked to the press by Ellsberg.

Now that President Nixon has returned from Moscow, he is to be asked a series of questions in Ehrlichman's defense. The written questions and answers are to be admitted into evidence.

Testimony has shown it was Nixon who ordered Ehrlichman to probe the motives of Ellsberg when the Pentagon Papers were first published in the summer of 1971.

Testimony is expected to end sometime next week.

Festivities At Park Enjoyed By Many

There was something for everybody at the Fourth of July Celebration Thursday at the Murray City Park. And unfortunately, there was something for ducks, rain!

The cloudburst that pounded the area forced the cancellation of two Little League games, a greased pig contest, two softball games and of course, the fireworks.

All of the events will be rescheduled for Saturday with the fireworks display to begin at 9 p.m. in the City Park.

Rain did not spoil the entire day.

Most of the City Tennis Tournament was completed, with only three matches still left to be played.

There were three softball games played and a number of games were held for youngsters.

The crowd on hand for the day's event was very large and city park officials were very pleased with the turnout.

remove that mask

Is this man under the illusion that he is deceiving someone? Is he some sort of fraud? Why the deception? Many a person today is wearing the mask . . . playing the double-person role. Under the transforming grace of that piece of cover-up, he claims a wonderful understanding and a deep appreciation of what is good. But he is faking with the skill of a master. One's friends can read that 'mask-look' too well. He has not changed in his way of doing business. His church attendance and support records have not improved. Let us not be deceived. Let us not deceive ourselves. There is too much to be done for us to be hiding under a mask. How wonderful it is to be the true person . . . a person who is ready to lift his load and do his part in the community and in his church . . . the original person. Remove that mask!

EAT OUT THIS WEEK

Pagliacci, pronounced (pol-yah-ache), specializes in Italian foods.

With old Italian favorites as lasagne, antipasto, ravioli and pizza, Pagliacci also features a cast of gourmet dinners.

Peppe (pep'pay) is Pagliacci's choice extra thick cut steak and unique potatoes. Canio (kah'nee-oh) is spaghetti with chicken in mushroom sauce. Tonio (toh'nee-oh) is spaghetti with shrimp and mushrooms in sherry flavored cheese sauce. Silvio (sil-vee-oh) is spaghettini with chicken livers and mushroom sauce. Needa (ned'dah) is shrimp and spinach in cheese sauce. Pagliacci also has Michelob beer on tap.

With private dining rooms, private parties can be held Sunday through Thursday nights. Free entertainment is featured on Friday and Saturdays nights.

Located on the New Camden Highway (U.S. 641 South) in Paris, Tenn., Pagliacci is only a few miles from Murray. Visit Pagliacci soon and remember, Eat Out This Week.
