THE LISTENING POST

A friend accused me of being lazy Saturday because the Listening Post failed to appear. Well, I do not deny that I was, am and will be lazy, but this incident fails to prove the charge.

Perhaps some of the readers of the Leader noticed Saturday that the city published a long ordinance regarding a sale of bonds. This is the root of this yarn, for when an article comes into a small newspaper office which runs to a page and a half page quite a strain is thrown on the working force and mechanical equipment.

So on Friday afternoon two machines began tearing into this long ordinance and this columnist began proving the stuff and reading the proofs, along with dumping the stuff into the proper position. Hour after hour passed along and metal began to run short and I began rummaging in all corners and cubbyholes for stray bits of metal.

I rose before six o'clock Saturday morning and reported to the office. I carefully swept up all metal dust around the machines and the saw and then unpended the dross barrel to get some large chunks out of that. It is a curious thing about dross—every time a pile of it is burned by a redhot fire a certain amount of metal will emerge.

Then with a huge skimmer I began to ladle out the top stuff and in a few minutes reached pay dirt. Then minutes of skimming and I had a pool of real, shining metal, and another few minutes brought up enough metal to finish out the

CHOCOLATE LACK FOR ICE CREAM MAY AID PEACH

Atlanta.—With its customary way of turning up in unexpected spots to accomplish the unusual, wartime economy is about to change chocolate ice cream into peach.

The W. P. B.'s regional food division dished out the news that the only way this country can get anymore chocolate is to sneak it past the Axis submarines in shipping lanes to Central and South America.

This means, according to Fred A. Scott, regional W. P. B. food director, that chocolate for ice cream is being eaten away faster than it can be obtained. At the same time, though, there is an abundant supply of peaches.

"So why not substitute peach for chocolate flavoring?" Scott asked.

J. M. COCHRAN DIES IN PHOENIX

John McElroy Cochran, R. E. Grand Commander of Knight's Templar of Kentucky, Past Grand High Priest of Royal Arch Masons of Kentucky and present Grand Master of the Council, died in Phoenix, Ariz., Friday, July 10, 1942.

Masonic funeral services and burial will be held in Mayesville, Ky., Wednesday morning, July 15, at eleven o'clock.

COULDN'T SEE EYE TO EYE

Boston.—A natural error: Boston air raid wardens, filling in a questionnaire to obtain new identification cards, came across the query "color of eyes." The space beside it was stamped "number."

Many applicants wrote the numeral "2." The committee in charge later explained that the space was for the card's serial number and not the number of eyes.

Now is the time to subscribe for the Leader.

Fifth Son Of Tennessee Family Hopes To Get Into Armed Forces

Knoxville, Tenn.—Twenty-five-year-old Edward White, Alva, Ky., a coal miner, today again harbored high hopes of following his four brothers into the nation's armed forces.

White underwent an eye operation here this week to remove the only barrier to his service.

"The draft board told me that the only thing holding me back was my eye," he related from a hospital bed. "And since the operation was a success there's nothing to stop me now."

When he reports to the medical examiner the next time it will be

Washington.—A minority of the House Ways and Means Committee asserted today that proposed corporation taxes in the new $6,250,000,000 revenue bill are too severe, one calling them "a grievous burden" and all a back-breaking burden for many.

Representative Robertson (D., Va.), made that appraisal and was supported in this view by Representatives Disney (D., Okla.), and Duncan (D., Mo.).

Before approving the bill finally yesterday, a majority of the committee, voted to increase from 31 to 45 per cent the combined normal and surtaxes on corporation income.

45 Per Cent Rate Called "Murder"

Robertson said he had supported a 40 per cent rate and a post-war refund of part of excess profits taxes because "if we make it so our corporations can't satisfactorily function in the postwar era, the alternative is government ownership and government operation."

Disney said "the 45 per cent rate is murder." He and Duncan contended, too, that a last-minute vote to reduce the excess profits tax rate from 94 to 87 1-2 per cent tax-free too great a proportion of the swollen profits of many corporations.

The 94 per cent rate, once tentatively approved but then discarded, carried a provision for postwar return of 14 per cent to the taxpayers. This provision was dropped when the 87 1-2 per cent rate was adopted.

As drafting clerks worked over the week-end to get the bill ready for floor consideration by Thursday, members predicted that there would be several formal minority reports in addition to the lengthy description of the legislation being prepared for the majority.

Leaders planned to ask that the legislation be considered under a "closed rule"—or procedure barring any amendments except those recommended by the committee.

A fight was in prospect on the question of adopting such a rule. Representative Rankin (D., Miss.), for one, said he would oppose it. He desired, he said, to offer amendments limiting inheritances to a maximum of one million dollars, "at least until this war is won and paid for," and raising income rates to the point where no one would have more than $25,000 income after payment of taxes.

Duncan, who disclosed that he had voted against the bill in committee, said he thought rates on individual incomes up to between $5,000 and $5,000 were too high, although above that level "the rates are not too high and that includes myself." Congressmen receive $10,000 annually.

Now is the time to renew your subscription to the Leader.

Barkley Asks An Early Inquiry Into Chandler Swimming Pool

Washington.—Senator Alben W. Barkley today asked Senator Harry S. Truman to complete the investigation into Senator A. B. Chandler's swimming pool "as speedily as is consistent with thoroughness."

He also asked that the report of the investigation "be made public at the earliest possible date so that the people of Kentucky will know the facts."

Senator Truman, who heads the ten-member Senate committee on national defense, sent his chief investigator, Matthew J. Connelly, to Kentucky Tuesday night to investigate charges made by John Young Brown about Ben Collins' gift of a swimming pool to Senator Chandler.

"Validity Depends on Facts" In his letter to Senator Truman, Senator Barkley pointed out that only about three weeks remain before the August primary. He added: "If the construction of the swimming pool has any validity as a campaign issue, that validity depends upon the facts as they exist. Your committee is peculiarly qualified to develop these facts and report them and I am sure you will do so without favor or partiality. But, in view of the shortness of time between now and the date of the primary, I am urging upon you the importance of making as prompt an investigation and report as is possible."

Senator Barkley told Senator Truman he felt justified in making his request "as a senator from Kentucky and as majority leader of the Senate."

Expected Barkley Aid This is the first public expression Senator Barkley has made since Mr. Brown filed as a candidate against Senator Chandler and injected the Chandler swimming pool as an issue in the campaign.

When Mr. Brown was here on June 23, the day after his candidacy was filed at Frankfort, it was obvious that he expected Senator Barkley to help him in the fight against Senator Chandler.

However, it equally has been obvious in the last ten days that it is highly unlikely Senator Barkley will give any assistance to Mr. Brown. In fact, friends of Senator Chandler regard it as more than likely that Senator Barkley will be in the Chandler camp this time.

TELEPHONE GROUP COOPERATES IN BUYING WAR BONDS

Local Employees Are 100 Per Cent In Buying Bonds

Employees of Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company have become one of the first large employee groups in the nation to attain the goal of 10 percent of their wages for war bonds.

To achieve the records, 99 percent of the employees, or more than 26,000 telephone men and women in nine states, including this state, are now purchasing bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan at the rate of $3,780,000 a year.

Employees participating in the Payroll Savings Plan include 2,500 in Kentucky and 22 at Fulton. Announcement of the goal's attainment was made today by F. H. Riddle, Group Manager of the Telephone Company.

One hundred per cent of the local employees are purchasing bonds by the Payroll Deduction Plan, with an average of 10.1 of their weekly payroll. One of these employees is purchasing 27.9 per cent of her weekly salary and others as high as 25 pct.

The Southern Association of Bell Telephone Employees wholeheartedly cooperated in the voluntary campaign, and its efforts and the encouragement it gave employees was largely responsible for the quick attainment of the goal. Southern Bell employees have

J. S. ARNOLD DIES SATURDAY

Funeral Services Conducted Yesterday Afternoon

Funeral services for J. S. Arnold, 76, who died Saturday following a long illness at his home on East State Line, were held Sunday afternoon at the Church of Christ by the minister, Elder Charles L. Houser. Burial by W. W. Jones & Sons was at Greenlee cemetery.

He is survived by his wife; a sister, Mrs. George Reeves of Fulton and several nieces and nephews.

EXPANSION IS PLANNED FOR VICTORY MODELS

Washington.—"Victory" models of household appliances and other articles manufactured in standardized form and bearing no brand names may make their appearance on the markets before the war is much older, Price Administrator Leon Henderson has told Congress.

Publication of his testimony before a Senate Appropriations Subcommittee last week disclosed he told it diversion of nonmilitary production into plants that could not get war contracts was going forward as rapidly as possible.

"What that may mean," he testified, "is that victory models will be made by one manufacturer and distributed by other organizations in the field. It will undoubtedly mean simplification, standardization of many, many manufactured items. It is one of the most acute problems that faces the civilian economy."

been buying bonds under the Payroll Savings Plan since the American Defense Program Started, with the volume increasing with every pay day. When 10 percent of income was set as the minimum goal towards which civilians should strive, a voluntary campaign was organized at once to achieve the goal in the company.

President James E. Warren, of Southern Bell, through local officials, has presented awards of achievement to all the departments involved.

Speaking of the goal being achieved here and in the company as a whole, Mr. Riddle said "Telephone employees' quick response is indicative of their determination to back up with their full support the financial program and all other war programs to help America fight to survive and win this war."

Wagner Joins Fight On Price Gangsters - Upholds Henderson In Appeal To People Of Nation

Asks Adequate Funds For Henderson To Carry On Program

ARMY IS TESTING SPRING WHEELS IN TIRE SEARCH

Washington.—Army is testing springs as a substitute for tires, it was disclosed today in testimony heard by a senate appropriations sub-committee.

The device, as explained by Dr. Vannevar Bush, director of the Office of Scientific Research, consisted roughly of a wheel within a wheel connected by springs.

"There are an enormous number of such devices," Bush told the committee, "but they (the Army) seem to feel they have now found one that well warrants careful testing."

NELSON NAMES FIVE HEADS OF SMALLER WAR PLANTS UNIT

Washington.—Donald M. Nelson appointed five directors today of the Smaller War Plants Corporation, newly authorized by Congress to use $150,000,000 in bringing small factories and shops throughout the country into war production.

Lou E. Holland, Kansas City, Mo., manufacturer, one of the five appointees, also was named a deputy director of the War Production Board, charged with general supervision of subcontracting and the smaller war plant program.

There were reports that Holland likely would be made chairman of the Smaller War Plants Corporation.

Other members of the board are: James T. Howington of Louisville, Ky., district manager of the WPB field office in Louisville and former vice president of the Girdler Corporation of Louisville, manufacturers of foreign steel fillings for welded pipe.

William S. Shipley of York, Pa., board chairman of the York Ice Machinery Corporation and a leader in the "York Plan," one of the pioneer war work plans.

Albert M. Carter of Murphysboro, Ill., director of the First National Bank of Murphysboro and head of a company which mines kaolin near Anna, Ill.

Washington.—Senator Robert F. Wagner (D., N. Y.), Sunday night appealed to Congress and the country to support Price Administrator Leon Henderson in his plea for "adequate" appropriations to thwart runaway inflation.

Senator Wagner said that "every grasping landlord, every speculator in war materials and consumers' goods, every producer reaching out for undue profits at the Nation's expense, is today ganging up on the OPA."

"It therefore behooves the overwhelming majority of Americans—producers, property owners, consumers—who appreciate its supreme importance in the entire war effort, to give the price administration their effective support now, when its usefulness as an effective war agency hangs in the balance," he said.

As the senator spoke over the radio, Martin Popper, executive secretary of the National Lawyers Guild, made public a letter he sent to President Roosevelt, declaring that "all too many members of Congress" refuse to vote the OPA necessary funds, while uttering "pious exhortations of the necessity for price-control."

With the battle over OPA funds being carried to the country by Administration chieftains, including Mr. Henderson, a red-hot fight over the issue in the Senate this week was assured.

Republican and Democratic senators will clash with others, insisting upon appropriation of the $140,000,000 declared by Mr. Henderson to be the "rock bottom" amount necessary to carry on the price control and rationing programs.

The House has voted to allow only $75,000,000. The Senate Appropriations Committee recommended an increase to $120,000,000. If the Senate boosts the House figure as seems certain the issue will be fought out in conference between the Senate and House.

OWI Head Dissatisfied With Secrecy In Trial Of Saboteurs

Washington.—Dissatisfaction with the profound secrecy in which a military commission is trying the eight alleged Nazi saboteurs who landed in America from U-boats was expressed today by Elmer Davis, the director of war information.

At the same time, Rep. Monroney (D.-Okla.), said in a statement the procedure was a violation of "the Democratic principle for which America is fighting," and was "not satisfactory to the American people."

From the trial itself, there was little news. A statement issued at the close of the day said:

"This commission opened the third day's proceedings at 10:27 a. m."

"Before the proceedings opened, the commission permitted the United States Army Signal Corps to make photographs and silent motion pictures of the trial scene."

"Most of the day was taken up by the testimony of an FBI agent and by the reading of documents."

"Counsel for both sides stated to the commission that the great volume of evidence to be introduced was expected to prolong the trial. The commission will sit on Saturday."

This was an intimation that the trial would run into next week, although earlier Attorney General Biddle had expressed the view that it could be finished by tomorrow. It was understood that the commission would not sit on Sunday.

Davis was asked about the sabotage trial at a press conference called for an explanation of the organization and methods of the Office of War Information. The public he said, would "feel better" if it could get more news from the court room.

He tried, he said, to have reporters admitted on the same basis on which they have accompanied various American expeditionary forces—that is one man previously accredited to the Army should cover the trial for press associations and news agencies. The Army objected, he said, because evidence affecting the national security would be presented.

An arrangement was entered into, under which Maj. Gen. Frank R. McCoy, head of the commission, would issue periodic statements.

Davis said the present arrangement was unsatisfactory to both himself and to the Army, but was the best that could be devised under the circumstances.

The confection will come in seven flavors peppermint predominating. Contracts for 2,500,000 pounds of "very fine" quality candy were let last week by the Jersey City Quartermaster Depot, Col. Henry B. Barry, commanding officer announced.

The rations will be packed in half-pound paper bags with 20 bags placed in a special moisture-resistant, fibre container having metal ends. The pieces will be approximately 1 1/2 inches in length and 1/2 inch in diameter, with from 80 to 140 pieces per pound.

COULD FIGHT THE BOTTLE

Chicago, — Dr. Thomas J. Myers of Pasadena, Calif., president of the American College of Neuropsychiatrists, said at the annual meeting Sunday that chronic alcoholism was keeping 1,000,000,000 persons out of the war effort.

He added 60,000 new chronic cases were being discovered each year, and asserted an education program as well as treatment was required to meet the situation.

This educational program, he said, should include "sound training in mental hygiene to develop mental and emotional stability for meeting the shocks, failures and disappointments of life."

Knight said he was called into the case about April 1. He said Mrs. Gillis "looked like an Egyptian mummy."

SERVICE MEN GET GOUGE

New York, — Conditions in some United States ports are such that a sailor must pay 25 cents for a glass of beer and excessive rates for hotel rooms, and a Navy officer declared Sunday.

"We are trying to change those conditions," said Lieut. Comdr. C. B. Cranford of the Third Naval District in an address before a national Catholic community service communion breakfast.

The officer did not mention the names of the ports, but asserted that in one instance a Navy officer and his wife were required to pay $15 for a night's lodgings at a hotel.

"That was just for the room," he added.

By comparison, Commander Cranford said, New York City was a gobs' delight where tickets to shows and dances were bountiful.

IS PROMISES PUBLIC WILL GET ALL NEWS OF WAR

Outlines Duties Of New Office He Now Holds

Washington, —Elmer Davis, the director of the new Office of War Information, promised the public today that it would be given all the news of the war except information of value to the enemy.

The Army and Navy, he said, remain the judges of what would constitute data of help to the Axis, but he added that the rulings of the services on such points could be appealed to the President. In most cases, however, he thought an agreement could be reached without burdening the chief executive with such problems.

As far as he could observe in his few days in Washington, Davis said, the Navy has been "telling the truth adequately" about the sinking of merchant ships in the Atlantic. In no event, he asserted emphatically would bad news be withheld "just because it is bad news."

Davis held a press conference attended by fully 300 correspondents, radio reporters and public relations men from the federal agencies. Its purpose was an explanation of the objectives and methods of his organization.

It is intended, he stressed repeatedly, not to act in any way as a censor, but, on the contrary to supply the public with more news than hitherto. The Army and Navy will continue to issue their communiques as in the past, but after discussing their contents with him. Other departments with information to release pertaining purely to their own individual functions, and not importantly connected with the war, will issue their own statements as usual.

Training for Victory are striving to learn how to do a better job; they are really training for victory.

It is difficult for any foreman, workman, or unskilled laborer to spend his spare time reading and studying, especially after he has put in a day of hard work. It is that extra margin of effort, however, that will spell the difference between victory and defeat in this war. The enthusiasm for the job cannot be doubted when a man goes home in the evening and spends his leisure hours with a book that tells him how to be a better foreman or how to do his job in a more expert manner.

There is nothing glamorous or romantic about study as such, but the ambitious individual sees far beyond the pages of print into the work of the next day when he may approach a task with greater knowledge and confidence. He is more certain of himself and his place in the world.

The man who prepares is the man who dares.

NEW PLANE FOR NAVY IS CALLED QUITE SUCCESSFUL

"Sea Ranger" Is Designed To Hunt Submarines

Seattle, —The "Sea Ranger," a new twin-motored flying boat capable of hunting and destroying enemy submarines and ships far from established shore bases, was ready today to be turned over to the Navy after its test flight was pronounced a complete success.

Boeing Aircraft Company, which makes the famed Flying Fortresses for the Army, built the new ship behind locked doors after a year of secret experimentations. The Navy designated the new ship as XPBB-1, but Boeing christened it the "Sea Ranger."

Edmund T. Allen, head of the Boeing flight and aeronautic division, was at the controls yesterday when the first 25 minutes test

Rail oddities

RAILROAD REFRIGERATOR CAR SERVICE ORIGINATED IN 1857 WHEN AN ORDINARY BOX CAR WAS FITTED WITH BINS OF ICE TO TRANSPORT DRESSED BEEF FROM CHICAGO TO THE EAST

DURING WORLD WAR I, ONLY ONE IN EVERY FIVE RAILROAD CROSSIES HAD BEEN CHEMICALLY TREATED TO GIVE LONGER SERVICE. IN 1942, OF THE BILLION CROSSIES IN USE, ONLY ONE IN EVERY SIX HAS NOT BEEN SO TREATED.

LAST FALL, THE RAILROADS ESTIMATED THEY COULD HANDLE 200,000 BARRELS OF OIL A DAY TO THE EASTERN SEABOARD—LESS THAN NINE MONTHS LATER THEY WERE ACTUALLY HANDLING A DAILY AVERAGE OF MORE THAN 700,000 BARRELS.

flight was made from Lake Washington. With a six-man crew aboard, the boat made four practice take offs from the lake, then soared into the air for maneuvers over Seattle and Puget Sound.

The Sea Ranger, of all metal construction and heavily armed, is powered by two Wright Cyclone motors, said to be the most powerful in production. The ship has full living accommodations for a ten-man crew and is as large as a four-motored craft. It is expected to carry a larger bomb load for longer ranges than any Navy plane now in service.

SENATORS SEEKING TO BLOCK EFFORTS TO CONTROL PRICES

Financial Straitjacket Is Being Fashioned

Washington, —Members of a Senate appropriations subcommittee were reported fashioning today a financial straitjacket which might keep Price Administrator Leon Henderson from blocking sharp increases in the prices of such staple commodities as bread and canned vegetables. Likely to be offered in the form of a limitation, the proposal would prohibit the use of any of this year's OPA operating funds to place ceilings on processed agricultural articles that did not reflect the 110 per cent of parity fixed by Congress as the lowest point at which Henderson could step in and control prices.

Senator Thomas (D. Okla.), said an amendment of this nature was certain to be offered to the $1,808,000,000 supplemental appropriations bill now before the committee. He predicted majority support for it.

The committee has heard complaints this week from farm organizations that in his efforts to curb rising living costs Henderson has ruled that bread, for instance, does not fall within the field where Congress prescribed the administrator's authority.

Henderson has made no attempt to control the price of wheat, since it remains below 110 per cent of parity, a figure calculated to give farmers a return equal to that of a past period, usually 1909-14.
