SOME GOOD EATERS

NEW ENGLAND APPETITES AND

American Food

Highly approved were Otis and Apper and from the views of the Canter and Stew of Poo.

The men who do the hard work are the ones who have the appetite. They are the ones who need the nourishment the food gives them. They are the ones who work hard, and get hungry.

The other night a bill, passed in Congress, authorized the Secretary of Agriculture to purchase and to sell the surplus food of the government.

When he had a chance to talk to Pres. Childs, Secretary of Agriculture, the Secretary said that this purchase would mean that the food would be sold at a loss in foreign countries.

At the time we find in the country a number of men who are hungry. They are the men who work hard, and who need nourishment. They are the men who have a real appetite.
