McBrayer Urges Governor To Give More Power To Assembly

By DAVID HILL

Murray Ledger & Times Writer

State Representative Terry McBrayer poked a gentle jab at what could be his future home as he told the Murray Rotary Club Thursday that "The executive branch has run our state and federal governments for years and years, and will continue to do so until something dramatic is done."

Although McBrayer's speech was not politically-oriented, he did edge some legislative comments in as his opening remarks.

McBrayer, who has been rumored to be a potential candidate for lieutenant governor, called for the present governor to give the legislative branch of state government the power entitled to it under the constitution.

The five-term Democrat from Greenup told the Murray Rotary Club "Nothing is the matter with the United States of America if the silent majority will throw off its apathy..."

"Violence and opposition to the law cannot be tolerated," McBrayer told the Rotarians, and added, "If the law is wrong, then change it, but as long as it is law, it must be obeyed."

The former Speaker Pro Tem and Majority Floor Leader of the General Assembly continued that "If the right people don't run our government, the wrong people will. I sincerely believe our government should be of laws, not of men."

"I'm proud to be an American, and (I) thank God I am one," McBrayer concluded.

The Greenup representative also expressed a belief in his opening remarks in a strong regional university system, and called for more specialization in the state's universities. He suggested one school to turn out excellent lawyers, one to turn out excellent engineers, one for excellent scholars, and so on.

McBrayer and Benton legislator Richard Lewis were guests of Rep. Kenneth Innes of Murray, also a Rotarian.

City School Enrollment Figures Given To Board

Preliminary figures show the enrollment of the Murray City Schools at approximately the same level as at this time last year, the Murray Board of Education was told at its regular meeting Thursday.

Total enrollment for the city schools is now 1,912, compared to 1,893 last year.

In action taken at the meeting, the board voted to accept a bid from Parker Ford for a 1974 Galaxie 500 for $3,250. The bid was one of two letters sent; Taylor Motors responded to the bid request by saying it could not get a 1974 automobile.

Superintendent Fred Schultz was authorized by the board to dispose of a house at 107 South Ninth in the best possible manner. Supt. Schultz reported that after consulting with the Murray Fire Department, it was decided that it would not be feasible to burn the house.

Personnel recommendations by the superintendent included: Carolyn Colson, third grade; Martha Fenton, reading teacher; Ann McKeel, fourth grade; Annie Knight, fifth grade; Dorothy Merritt, Martha Tharpe and Julia Vick, teacher aides.

The feasibility of the Murray Board of Education affiliating directly with the National School Board Association was also discussed by the board, but no action was taken. The affiliation, which would offer several advantages to the board, would cost the system $250 per year.

A discussion of the paving of Poplar extended was also held at the meeting. It was pointed out that the city had agreed to pave the street, and it was suggested that the superintendent check with the city on the matter.

Motions Seek To Have City Privilege License Law Declared Unconstitutional

By DAVID HILL

Murray Ledger & Times Writer

The Murray City Council appears in danger of having its ordinance dealing with business privilege licenses declared unconstitutional according to a letter from city prosecutor Donald Overbey that was read to the council Thursday.

Two local builders have filed motions with Murray City Police Court after being cited for failure to obtain privilege licenses.

Woodrow Rickman and Jackie Burkeen, through their attorneys, have asked City Judge Steve Sanders to declare the ordinance, City Ordinance No. 513, unconstitutional on the grounds it is void for its vagueness.

The letter from Overbey informed the council that, through an informal response from Judge Sanders, Overbey now feels that the City Court will declare the ordinance unconstitutional and unenforceable.

The privilege license tax brings in about $80,000 to $85,000 annually.

The council, after some discussion, voted to let Overbey pursue the matter, with appeals to higher courts, if the ordinance is declared void by the city court. The council, at the suggestion of City Attorney Wells Overbey, agreed that Don Overbey should be paid extra compensation by the council for the pursuit of the issue.

The city attorney also said that, while he sees nothing unconstitutional about the ordinance, he would hesitate to predict what Judge Sanders would decide on the issue.

In a report from police committee chairman Ed Chrisman, the council was told that a stepping-up of enforcement of the parking meter law has resulted in fairly adequate downtown parking. Chrisman reported that he now feels the parking situation will resolve itself in the downtown area. He noted that about 25 or 30 offenders still park all day on meters, ignoring parking tickets. Councilman Chrisman said these offenders will be issued two and three tickets per day, and will be encouraged to find parking elsewhere. Most of the offenders seemed to be employees in the downtown area.

In another letter read by the mayor, the council was told that the state highway department has agreed to pave Glendale Road from Highway 641 to 121, if deeds can be obtained to all of the property.

The council was told that the only section of the road that is not owned by the city is a 600-foot strip just west of Highway 121, which was built, and is now owned, by Howard Brandon.

The mayor informed the council that Brandon, asking him to dedicate the road to the city, for state maintenance.

After a letter of resignation and retirement was read from Police Captain James Witherspoon, Councilman Chrisman gave his recommendations on promotions within the police department.

Approved by the council were promotions of: Sgt. Tommy Phillips to Captain; Patrolmen Billy Wilson, Dan Kelly, and George King to Sergeant. The promotions will be effective Sept. 1. Also approved by the council was the hiring of two new city patrolmen, who will be selected within a month.

Capt. Witherspoon was

COUNCILMAN Ed Chrisman presented several items of business to the Murray City Council Thursday. Chrisman presented a letter of resignation from Police Captain James Witherspoon, who is retiring; offered recommendations on promotions within the department; asked permission to hire two new policemen and a meter maid; asked authority to take bids on radar equipment, and asked authority to take bids on a new police car. ## President Ford Turning His Attention Back To Mid-East

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Ford is turning his attention back to the Middle East in a meeting with the Syrian foreign minister after huddling with top Republican campaign leaders to map strategy for the fall elections.

Today's White House meeting with Abdel Halim Khaddam of Syria is part of continuing talks that Ford and Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger are conducting with Middle East officials to lay groundwork for the next stage of negotiations for a peace settlement.

Ford hopes to meet with Israeli Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin and Saudi Arabian Foreign Minister Omar Sakaf over the next three weeks.

He moved through a heavy schedule of meetings and ceremonies Thursday, ending with a private dinner at the White House for Vice President-designate Nelson A. Rockefeller and six long-time congressional friends.

Ford stepped up his role as Republican campaign booster, posing for individual photographs with 135 GOP candidates. Earlier he took time to pose with a dozen senators up for re-election.

But White House Press Secretary Gerald F. terHorst said Ford will not campaign as much for GOP congressional candidates this year as he had planned before ascending to the presidency.

TerHorst said no political trips had been scheduled yet.

Ford discussed the fall campaigns for several hours in the Oval Office with Republican National Committee Chairman George Bush and congressional campaign committee chairmen Sen. William E. Brock III, R-Tenn., and Rep. Robert H. Michel, R-Ind.

Ford also signed landmark legislation revamping federal housing and community development programs and authorizing $11.9 billion in the next three years. About 200 mayors, members of Congress, state and county officials witnessed the signing of the Housing and Community Development Act.

Ten men and three trucks responded to the call.

The Calloway County Fire-Rescue Squad will conduct its fifth annual road block on Sunday afternoon, August 25, at various locations in Murray.

Max Dowdy, chief of the squad, said funds will be collected by members to help defray the expenses of the squad.

Thirty-one members are now included in the squad. Over one hundred calls were answered by the squad during the past year for fires, drownings, searches, etc.

Squad members work without pay and the funds will be used for equipment and other necessary expenses for the operation of the squad in Calloway County.

Miller Threatens Longer Shutdown By Mine Workers

By The Associated Press

United Mine Workers President Arnold Miller said Thursday the impact of this week's national coal mine shutdown would be insignificant as compared with the possibility of a full-blown strike later this year.

The five-day "memorial period" came at a time when the union and industry were set to begin negotiating a new three-year contract. The present national contract expires Nov. 12.

Speaking to about 3,000 coal miners and union supporters at a rally in Harlan, Ky., Miller said he had already notified government and industry that they "shouldn't worry about five days. If they don't do something before Nov. 12, they'll have a lot more than five days to worry about."

The "memorial period," called by the UMW to commemorate the thousands who have died in mine accidents, entered its final day today.

Thursday's gathering at Harlan, where the union has been engaged in a 13-month organizing strike against the Duke Power Co., served as a focal point for a week of marches, memorial services and rallies.

Led by a purple and black banner reading, "Pray for the Dead—and Fight Like Hell for the Living," thousands of miners and supporters marched through the small Kentucky coal town.

Out-of-state miners had begun arriving in Harlan Wednesday night for the march and rally.

Later in the afternoon, Miller told a rally at Cawood High School that the union is taking a new hard line in achieving its goals.

Funds Allotted To Hardin For Street Resurfacing

The activities authorized will be accomplished by Hardin with the Bureau of Highways financing all or a portion of the work in accordance with the Municipal Aid Agreement.

The program is supported by a one-half cent per gallon gasoline tax. The funds derived from this tax are distributed among the incorporated and unincorporated areas according to the terms of a formula chosen by the General Assembly in 1972.

Administration Considering 10-Cent Gasoline Tax Boost

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Ford administration is considering a 10-cent-per-gallon boost in the federal excise tax on gasoline as a possible anti-inflation move, officials say.

"This is one of those proposals under consideration ... along with many, many others," White House Press Secretary Gerald F. terHorst told reporters on Thursday in confirming published reports about a possible tax boost.

The excise tax is currently 4 cents a gallon, and nationwide surveys show that the average cost of gasoline now is 55.8 cents a gallon.

TerHorst and Treasury Secretary William E. Simon said President Ford has no immediate plans to ask Congress for a tax increase now. And Capitol Hill sources also said it was unlikely that Congress would enact such a tax boost in an election year.

TerHorst was asked to comment on a Los Angeles Times report that Ford may seek the gasoline-tax increase to fight inflation and conserve energy. "The President and his economic advisers are reviewing a whole range of possible ideas and recommendations," he said. "This is one of those proposals under study."

Simon said a gasoline tax boost has been discussed periodically since February 1973, "but it's only been one of many issues that's been discussed in the area of tax policy."

Sources reported that a detailed study of such a boost is still in the preliminary stage at the sub-Cabinet level. The Times quoted unidentified administration officials as saying that higher gasoline taxes could reduce consumption by as much as 5 per cent, thus pressuring oil-exporting nations to lower their crude oil prices.

Such a boost would raise $8 billion in federal revenues. The Times said some administration economic advisers suggest using the money to reduce income taxes for low and middle-income families, while others would prefer it be used to balance the budget.

Meanwhile, the Washington Post reported today that the administration also is studying whether to decontrol prices on about 75 per cent of domestically produced crude oil.

The Post said advocates of the decontrol conceded it would have a short-term inflationary effect but that it would reduce demand in the long run. Reducing demand for goods is one method of fighting inflation.

He treats his folks like tramps

By Abigail Van Buren
© 1974 by Chicago Tribune-N.Y. News Synd., Inc.

DEAR ABBY: Last year, our eldest son moved out of state and got married. Eventually he called and invited us to visit him in his new, three-bedroom, air-conditioned home. After traveling over 500 miles, we arrived hot and weary, and were shown to our "room"—a windowless garage, with a cast-off mattress on the floor! No pillows, no apologies and no explanations.

His father and I felt like two vagrants who had come for a handout. We estimated that in over 20 years, we have provided more than 7,000 clean beds and 20,000 nutritious meals to this ingrate, not to mention the scores of friends he brought home, who always got the best welcome we could offer.

After two mornings of eating breakfast out (while he and his wife slept late), and after buying everyone's lunch and dinner and providing baby-sitting services, we made an excuse to leave rather than to stay, or tell them how hurt we were.

Are we too thin-skinned? Or is this part of the new, casual lifestyle of the young?

DISENCHANTED

DEAR DIS: Please don't blame the new, casual lifestyle of the young for your son and his wife's laziness, rudeness and inconsiderate treatment. (P.S. Alas! Not all twigs grow the way they are bent, Mother.)

DEAR ABBY: What do you do when your wife always corrects you in public?

PUT DOWN

DEAR PUT: Tell her (in private) that you'd appreciate it if she'd cut it out. And if she doesn't—then tell her in public.

DEAR ABBY: I am a 15-year-old girl who is pre-engaged to an 18-year-old guy. He wants to get married and so do I, but my parents refuse to sign for me. We have even considered eloping because we are very much in love and can't wait.

We can't get married for at least three years, but we are so much in love that we can't control our emotions, if you know what I mean. We only want all the way a few times, but I know it will keep on happening because our love is so strong.

My mother never told me anything. Everything I know, I picked up on the street, and I'm really not even sure of my facts. How can I be sure I know everything I should? Can you recommend a booklet? I can't sign my name, but I'll be looking for your answer in the paper. Thank you.

IN LOVE

DEAR IN: I don't know what responsibilities go with being "pre-engaged"—but you are sure to wind up "post-pregnant" if you don't stop the intimacies and/or learn the facts.

The Planned Parenthood people have some excellent literature for mothers who can't talk to their daughters. Ask your mother to contact them, and good luck.

CONFIDENTIAL TO CONNIE: Being "Number 2" is no better than being "Number 99" as long as "Number One" is still in the picture.

Problems? You'll feel better if you get it off your chest. For a personal reply, write to ABBY: Box No. 69700, L.A., Calif. 90069. Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope, please.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller were married September 3, 1924, with Rev. L. L. Jones officiating. They now reside on North Seventeenth Street, Murray.

Mrs. Miller, the former Reba Brown, is the daughter of the late Emma and T. N. (Nat) Brown. She is a former teacher and spent most of her thirty-seven teaching years at Almo, Hardin High, Murray Training, Tilghman High, and Calloway County High Schools. Mr. Miller is the son of the late Viola and Henry Miller of Murray. He is a retired farmer and businessman.

They have one daughter, Clara Jane, now Mrs. Russell Phelps of Covington, Tenn., where her husband is band and choral director for the high school there.

The Millers have one son, Robert Brown Miller, M. D., who is a practicing orthopedic surgeon at Paducah. His wife is the former Glenda Sue McAllister of Fulton.

Their grandchildren are Janet Lynn Phelps, Keith Phelps, Margie Miller, Steven Miller, Evan Miller, and John Edward Miller.

Marriageable Females Come With A Price

By IVAN STEFANOVIC
Associated Press Writer
GOSTIVAR, Yugoslavia (AP) — Djemal Eypul, a laborer in this Macedonian city, worked hard to save enough money to buy a wife.

He reached his goal. They married. And she ran off with the money.

Djemal started saving again. In many villages and towns in Macedonia girls are heavily outnumbered by men and consequently at a premium. And although the Yugoslav Penal Code forbids the sale of brides through dowries, marriageable girls in these communities carry heavy prices on their heads.

Kadri Biljali, 23, gave his prospective father-in-law a $1,750 down payment on his 15-year-old daughter. To complete the marriage agreement he then had another $3,500 to find, half of it in gold.

Inflation on the marriage market is increasingly bothering Macedonian men. One of them, Nevzat Biljali, was moved to complain to President Josef Broz Tito recently in a letter imploring his aid.

"We must pay between 40,000 and 60,000 dinars — $2,300 and $3,500 — to the girl's father to set up the wedding," Biljali, 29, wrote from the village of Ceran, near here.

"We get this money together through hard labor. Then we have to pay another 40,000 dinars in gold."

"We are asking you, the dearest friend of Albanians living in this country, to abolish this excessive burden."

Nevzat's letter found its way to the Cabinet of the Macedonian state government.

A spokesman pointed out that the problem of barter brides could not be solved by legal means, as legislation banning the practice already existed.

He said the Cabinet had made no specific recommendations, but had urged "broad-based social action and the involvement of all social and political organizations in Macedonia to eliminate bride-buying."

A Consumer Tip from Extension Specialists at the UK College of Agriculture

Buy large, well-fleshed turkeys and chickens rather than small ones—if you have freezer space to store what you can't use at once. Larger birds usually have more meat in proportion to bone than smaller turkeys and chickens, according to UK Extension foods specialists.

Need Dutch Oven
You'll need a 6- or 8-quart dutch oven for boiling macaroni products and corn and making large quantities of chili or stew for parties.

Try Sauce
Bean soup taste a little bland? Try adding a few shakes of hot pepper sauce. It may be just what it needs.

Be careful about your judgments and emotional reactions. Dubious ventures may be proposed. Control enthusiasm. Do nothing without careful thought.

CANCER
(June 22 to July 23)

A good day for cementing old friendships, making new contacts, reaching understandings and planning moves for next week.

LEO
(July 24 to Aug. 23)

Don't trust to guesswork nor be lax in situations which require security treatment. A better day than you may anticipate if you are in there pitching.

VIRGO
(Aug. 24 to Sept. 23)

A time for broadening your mental horizons. Don't let yourself get bogged down in a sea of triviality. You should feel capable of BIG things now.

LIBRA
(Sept. 24 to Oct. 23)

Some unusual situations indicated. In all dealings, be direct. Avoid devious tactics or approach, and give others the benefit of the doubt.

SCORPIO
(Oct. 24 to Nov. 22)

Do others seem needlessly opposed to your ideas? Review your plans again. A few changes might bring them around to your point of view.

SAGITTARIUS
(Nov. 23 to Dec. 21)

Fine Jupiter influences encourage your particular knowledge, sensitivity to delicate situations and reasoning powers. These are winners always—but especially now.

CAPRICORN
(Dec. 22 to Jan. 20)

Caution and conservatism should be stressed. Above all, avoid persons who are impulsively taking risks.

AQUARIUS
(Jan. 21 to Feb. 19)

Keep emotions under stern control. Any tendency to "fly off the handle" could result in serious misunderstandings.

PISCES
(Feb. 20 to Mar. 20)

An excellent day for both business and personal interests. Even if you have to make some compromises, it will be profitable in the long run.

YOU BORN TODAY are endowed with an engaging personality and are highly gregarious by nature. The Virgoan is idealistic and sometimes suffers needlessly when others do not live up to his lofty standards. You have a great love of home and family and, though you enjoy travel, are happier in your own surroundings. You are extremely versatile; would make a good banker, journalist, real estate operator, confidential secretary or diplomat; would be happiest, however, in work which requires careful research and meticulous attention to detail—as in science. Try to curb tendencies to be overly critical and exacting with loved ones and associates.

Exposition Center Will Serve Region

The "regional concept" expounded by Dr. Constantine Curris when he took over as president of Murray State University last fall has received yet another boost with the announcement that ground will be broken on a $2.6 million livestock show and exposition center on the university's laboratory farm this Monday. This is a credit to the Agriculture people and others at the university doing some good "homework."

The center will be used primarily for livestock and horseshows and sales as well as for machinery exhibitions, horticulture shows and other farm-related events. This center, when completed in late 1975, will also serve as a focal point for all agriculture related interests in the Jackson Purchase as well as surrounding states.

The West Kentucky Horseman's Association will be able to utilize the facility extensively and we feel sure the exposition center will greatly enhance 4-H, Future Farmers of America, and other livestock shows that are annually held in the area.

We are thankful that the 1974 Kentucky General Assembly approved the funding of this project and look forward to the completion of construction.

From The Editor's Mailbag

Edited By GENE McCUTCHEON
Murray Ledger & Times Editor

(A compilation of notes gleaned from the daily mail—some of which will interest many, others that may interest only a few.)

(Today's mailbag is reprinted from the Memphis, Tn., Commercial Appeal.)

Now that the big news of Watergate is over and President Richard Nixon has retired to his hacienda in California, newspaper readers all over the nation have been writing letters to the editors asking what they are going to do for news.

This newspaper has been publishing for 135 years and the presses never have stopped for lack of news. Sometimes there has been more news than we could comfortably fit into the columns available. At other times the news has been somewhat thin. But there always has been news.

If things get awfully quiet this week, for example, we are sure our wire services will find space to tell us about the National Hoops Championships in Hollywood. Or of the Swiss Federal Wrestling and Alpine Herd-smen's Festival in Schwyz, Switzerland. Who knows, there may even be an item about Saturday being the 160th anniversary of the day the British burned the national Capitol and White House.

Then, next week, there is Women's Equality Day to commemorate the signing of the 19th Amendment. Rep. Bella Abzug (D-N.Y.) is sponsoring that zinger. And Aug. 30 will be Huey P. Long Day in Louisiana and the start of the Louisiana Shrimp and Petroleum Festival — gigantic shrimp boil where everybody eats. And on Aug. 31 Port Republic, Md., will be host to the Calvert County Jousting Tournament, Maryland's official state sport. Maybe Spiro Agnew will tilt there.

News? Shucks, there's always something. Buy tomorrow's newspaper and read all about it.

PERSONAL RELATIONSHIPS IN CHRIST

Colossians 3:12-25; 4:1, 5-6

In this lesson the Holy Spirit through Paul gave some pertinent and relevant instruction as to how Christians should conduct themselves in all areas and relationships of life.

Personal Relationships

To Christ — 3:12-17

Paul exhorted individual Christians to disrobe themselves of their sinful past, and to put on the virtues of compassion, kindness, humility, meekness, longsuffering, forbearance, and forgiveness. Prominence is given to forbearance and forgiveness. God's grace enables a Christian to for bear with those who disagree with him and to forgive those who have done him injury. The outer garment, which is to cover all of these beautiful and precious virtues and hold them together is love, "the bond of perfectness." Love binds all of these excellences together.

Paul appealed to the believers to let the priceless possession of peace, which they had received as a gift from the Lord, rule in their hearts. Christ's legacy of peace is the most precious of gifts, an inheritance which the world can neither give nor take away. Peace must be allowed to act as an umpire or to arbitrate in all spheres of the Christian's life. What a blessing that peace prevails among those who are at peace with God!

Paul admonished the cultivation of a thankful spirit. Such a spirit pleases the Lord, enriches the lives of those who observe it, and greatly benefits those who possess it. Thanksgiving is one of the most beautiful things that grows in the soil of the human soul. It is a duty incumbent upon us to render thanks unto God for mercies received and blessings enjoyed. Let us thank Him with the gratitude of our hearts, with the praises of our lips, and by the obedience of our lives for our material, physical, intellectual, and spiritual blessings, thereby honoring and glorifying Him.

Paul called special attention to the word of Christ by saying: "Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom." This "word of Christ" not only refers to what He said, but it includes the entire body of truth concerning the Lord Jesus, as was given by the inspired writers and recorded in the Scriptures. What a child of God says and does should be in the name of Christ and for His glory. Work cannot be done rightly unless it is done for Christ. Is doing the Lord's will the chief aim in your life? Is His glory your chief concern? The purpose of all Christian living, working, and praising should be that the Lord Himself may be honored and glorified.

Personal Relationships To

Relatives — 3:18-21

In verses 18 and 19 Paul exhorts Christian wives and husbands to accept their responsibilities and obligations in their families for the sake of Christ, the Lord of the home. It is the will of God that wives be in subjection to their own husbands, in the Lord. The husband has the responsibility of leadership, support, protection, and loving care. It is the will of God that husbands shall love their own wives, and give themselves in self-sacrificing love for their well-being. No wife has any cause for fear of cruelty whose husband has a love for her that is genuine, unselfish, and self-sacrificing. Real love eliminates domination and bitterness.

The child-parent relationship is set forth in verses 20 and 21. God's Word plainly teaches that children are to obey their parents promptly and cheerfully. Those who do so please the Lord, honor their parents, and bring credit upon themselves. In exercising control over their children, as God has commanded them to do, fathers and mothers should not make irrational demands of them. In correcting their children, parents do well not to administer chastisement in anger.

Personal Relationships Of Servants

And Masters — 3:22-25; 4:1

The one thing required of servants was obedience to their masters. Doubtless many of the slaves considered their tasks irksome and degrading, but Paul applied some principles to their situation which made them realize they were the servants of Christ. The principles which Paul applied to the servants in the households of his day are applicable to employees today, and to the servants of Christ in their work for Him. This service is to be done in the sight of God, in a noble Christian spirit and for His glory, and as service rendered unto the Lord. Paul said, "Ye serve the Lord Christ." All the work should be done heartily for the Lord.

If a child of God does wrong, he is going to carry along in his present life the effects of the wrong that he does. Chastisement for sins always comes in this life, if one is a Christian, whereas the punishment of the wicked usually comes in the world beyond this.

God's Word teaches that masters are to be considerate of their servants or employees. Ever mindful of the will and love of their Lord, employers should be fair and just with their employees. How different things would be today in these and kindred relationships if both parties were only governed by Christian principles!

Personal Relationship To

All Others — 4:5-6

The Christian's conduct must be consistent and substantiate his profession. Those who are unsaved are not influenced as much by the teachings of the Bible as they are by the way in which professing Christians live. The manner in which Christians live is scrutinized closely by unbelievers. Just as successful merchants purchase scarce commodities, Christians should buy up the opportunities which are available to them to witness to the lost. Merchandising opportunities is something that Christians must not delay. The Christian's speech must have two important qualities. It is to be characterized by grace, that is, reveal the spirit and emphases of God. It is also to be seasoned with salt, that is, made palatable and tasty. Impurities of thought, motive, and expression must be eliminated.

The Agitated Barometer

Price hikes scheduled for 1975 cars and trucks — by as much as $500, according to Ford and General Motors — emphasize the deep bite of inflation on spendable income.

Auto prices are not the only barometer to measure the spiraling cost of living, of course. They are the most dramatic.

And the average increase in GM prices, 9.6 per cent, reflects the general U.S. inflation rate.

Other factors are involved, it is true. Emission control and safety equipment demanded under new federal standards have contributed to production costs.

But so, too, have the cost of labor and materials, an influence generally felt in all areas of the consumer market.

With the under-$3,000 automobile going the same way as the under-$1 tin of coffee, the next stage in the wage-price cycle would seem to be fresh bargaining demands from labor leaders.

Unless the renewed efforts of President Ford and Congress to clamp a lid on inflation have the effect for which a distressed population prays.

A Valid Concept Of God

By Michael D. Robertson
Baptist Campus Minister
Murray State University

Many of our problems in life today came from either an inadequate or an invalid concept of God. The god of our concept often fails us and our faith is shaken, even abandoned. We begin to question God, His actions, His Nature, even His existence! The question I want to look at here is why people have trouble with their concept of God, and how we might come to know better the true and living God.

Paul Schilling, in God in an Age of Unbelief (pp. 115-134), lists seven major bases of unbelief in the God of the Judeo-Christian heritage. First, belief in God is rejected by many as untrue on the grounds that it can be explained as an objectification of purely human ideals, wishes, longings, or needs. Also, theistic faith is in one way or another inconsistent with the scientific method and the scientific view of reality as well as being irreconcilable with the extent of human suffering. The term "God" itself lacks clear, univocal meaning which can be unambiguously communicated. Again, belief in the sovereignty of God is inconsistent with the recognition of the worth, freedom, and full responsibility of man as well as producing passivity in the presence of injustice and opposition to social change. Lastly, Multitudes of persons have no personal awareness of God.

My first reaction to these arguments is that I recognize an element of truth in much of the argument. Also, I realize that people not only have an absence of the experience of God, but, as William Hamilton says, an experience of the absence of God. Another reaction I have is that I also have difficulty accepting some of the concepts of God which have been expounded in the name of Christianity. Therefore, any adequate concept of God must take these arguments into consideration. Before we look at what a valid concept might include we must realize that part, if not all, of our problem lies in our failure to accept our own finitude and lack of knowledge. We want to be God ourselves. We also fail to recognize the freedom given to man and the contingency of the universe.

A valid concept of God must utilize the thought forms familiar to contemporary man and also adequately interpret the data of human experience. Our thought of God must be related intelligibly to all relevant knowledge gained from secular sources. We should also affirm the intimate relationship of God to the world, seeing God as the ground and source of the world's unity, activity, and ultimate meaning. We must not limit our concept of God; to put "God in a box" fails to realize that God is other than and transcendent to all finite reality. God must also be conceived eschatologically, as the One who is in control of the future and gives man new hope and possibilities. But, God is also involved in the present as well as the future or past, and in temporal events, not just eternal. God shares the responsibility to create and sustain with man. Finally, we must see that God shares in our suffering—in the pathos and tragedy of human experience—but is always there to love and work good out of all that occurs.

Thus we see that a valid concept of God will include seeing God as being, as creative process, as love, and as personal life. The solution to our problem must come in all persons experiencing the presence of such a God through the manifold self-expressions of God—in nature, in Scriptures, in people, and ultimately in Jesus Christ.

As Christians we are responsible to formulate our own valid concept of the God we have met in Jesus Christ and then share that with others. But as Elisha in the story found in II Kings 4 could not raise the dead child with a lifeless staff, so also can we not raise a dead humanity with only concepts of God. Elisha had to totally identify with the dead child and impart himself to it. Therefore, all the precepts, teachings, exhortations, philosophies, moralisms, etc., cannot replace the identification of God's people with the problems of humanity and the world. To tell others the idea of a loving God is one thing, but to embody the Love of this God is quite different and as Christians who serve such a God we can do no less.

frame of the steering wheel begins to bend. Your head is near the sun visor; your chest is above the steering column.

4/10 of a Second

The first 24 inches of the car's body is completely demolished but the rear end is still traveling at 35 miles an hour, with your body going at 55. The motor block crumches into the tree and the rear of the car rises high enough to scrape bark off the low-hanging branches.

5/10 of a Second

Your fear-frozen hands bend the steering column up almost vertically. The force of gravity impales you on the steel shaft. Steel punctures your legs and intercostal arteries. Blood spurts into your lungs.

6/10 of a Second

The impact has ripped your feet from your shoes. The brake pedal shears off at the floorboard. The chassis bends in the middle, shearing body bolts. Your head smashes into the windshield. The rear of the car falls downward and spinning wheels dig into the ground.

7/10 of a Second

The entire body of the car is forced out of shape. Hinges tear, doors spring open and the seat runs forward, pinning you against the steering shaft. Blood leaps from your mouth. Shock has frozen your heart.

You are now dead.

"Low Down" FROM THE Congressional Record

By JOE CRUMP

(A Column for Readers Who Haven't Time to Review the Congressional Record Daily)

PLEA BARGAINING DEFEATS GUN LAWS

Rep. Mario Biaggi (N. Y.) "...Lawmakers, local, State and Federal, have in recent years, attempted to fulfill their responsibilities to their constituents by enacting strong criminal laws designed to help allay citizen fears about the ever-surging crime rate in this country.

"Those responsible for law enforcement, particularly the judiciary, have on the other hand systematically destroyed these efforts through lax and lenient methods of imposing and enforcing these laws...

"New York State currently has one of the strongest gun control laws in the United States which was brought about largely to attempt to combat the dramatic increases in homicides by handgun in the State. Included among the provisions of the law is a penalty of up to 7 years in prison for the conviction. Yet as good as the law is in theory, thanks to the judicial system in New York State, it has been virtually ineffective...

"One must ask? What is the sense of a town council or State legislature, or even the U. S. Congress enacting strong criminal laws, when the enforcers to these laws are so lax and reluctant to enforce them?

"Out of the convictions which were achieved, many of them were garnered through the use of plea bargaining which resulted in these charges being reduced to misdemeanors...

"The American judicial system has for years religiously upheld the rights of the criminal at the expense of their obligation to the law-abiding citizens of this Nation who look to the judiciary to use every method at their disposal to get the lawless elements in our society off the streets and behind bars...

"As a former policeman, for 23 years, I have seen firsthand how efforts to uphold and enforce the law have been devastated at the hands of soft judges who would rather coddle a criminal than punish him..."

CRUMP'S GRASS ROOTS COMMENT

Last September, New York enacted a law to get hard-drug pushers off the streets. Restrictions on plea bargaining put the violators in jail; some for life. The number of pushers dwindled and the flow of heroin virtually stopped.

Plea bargaining for hand-gun law violators should also be restricted.

ACCIDENTS

Los Angeles—Ernest Franklin wasn't expecting company, so he was rather surprised when he awoke and saw three strangers in his living room. Surprised wasn't the word to describe how he felt when he noticed the 15-foot hole in the front wall of his house. Two policemen were standing over a 45-year-old youth who tried to out-run a patrol car after being stopped in a stolen auto but only managed to crash the vehicle into Franklin's house. (L.A. Times)

Chap named Mat Braveman fell on an icy pavement recently and hurt his leg. Carted off to the emergency room of a hospital, he sat for nearly two hours before being X-rayed and another stretch before a doctor came back and told him he had a broken leg. "Thanks," muttered our hero. "At least now I know where I stand." (Robert Sylvester)

And God heard their groaning, and God remembered his covenant with Abraham.—Exodus 2:24.

Even so, man groans within himself as he waits for God to fulfill His covenant that guarantees that more abundant life beyond the grave.

AN INVESTMENT IN YOUR FUTURE

...ATTEND CHURCH

to walk by faith

Often we have seen blind people walking down the street. Their whole life is based upon faith in what they cannot see. Of necessity, they seem to be truly following Paul's admonition to literally walk by faith and not by sight (II Cor. 5:7).

But Paul wasn't talking about the physically blind. He was referring to spiritually blind people... to those who only believe in what they actually see. Unfortunately, these people don't realize that what they are seeing is temporary and will not last forever. Only the unseen God will last.

The unseen God is the heart of Paul's statement. Therefore, don't center your faith around temporary things which you can see. Center them around the eternal God whom you cannot see. By faith you can know, as Paul knew, that one day you will see Him.

Don't be blindfolded by the sights of this world. Throw it off. Develop true vision. Walk by faith.

There's Been Some Changes Made!!!

The first of July we transferred our dealer sales agreement covering Plymouth, Dodge, Chrysler and Dodge Trucks to Jim Fain Motors, Inc., now located at 9th & Sycamore in Murray.

We wish to take this opportunity to personally thank our customers for their patronage and express our deep appreciation for your business over more than 25 years.

We are continuing in business but devoting our time exclusively to the sale and service of International Harvester and Diamond Reo Trucks and trailers. We will be selling and servicing the International Harvester pickups, Scouts, Travelalls, and farm trucks in addition to our IHC and Diamond Reo medium and heavy duty line.

We were reluctant to sever our relationship with the automobile business, however our cramped facilities indicated this would be in the best interest of our customers as well as our business. We feel extremely fortunate in transferring the car business to a young man of honesty and integrity. We are confident that Jim Fain will continue to provide Chrysler Corporation products with fine service and integrity.

A word of "thanks" is due our employees over the years for their loyalty and cooperation, but especially we want to thank and express our appreciation to Grayson, Aline, Don and Marsha McClure. We extend our heartiest best wishes for their continued success in their recreation business, Happy Holiday Travel, Inc.

When in need of anything in the truck line from pickups to cabovers, we solicit your business.

Sincerely,
TAYLOR MOTORS, INC.
Tommye D. Taylor
President

Being unable to see each and every one of you personally, I wish to take this means to say thank you. Thank you so much for each and every favor, for every effort on your part to refer your family, your associates, and your friends to us during the past 15 years we have been associated with Taylor Motors.

We wish to say thank you from the depth of our heart for being our customers and sincerely apologize if we have failed your expectation in any way. Our rewards have been great in that we have been able to meet our day by day costs of living, but so much more is that we have gained new acquaintances and those new acquaintances have turned into new friendships that we hope and trust shall be life long.

Your good will means so much to us and we will be forever obligated to you. Again may we express a heartfelt thanks to you our friends and customers and to each and every employee that we have had the pleasure of working with thru the years, but most of all may we say "Thank you" to our Creator that makes it all possible.

Whatever success we may have attained thru the years had to come by a coordinated effort of many fellow employees and whatever failure I willingly accept. In the whole wide world of employers never would there ever be a finer person to work for and with than Tommye Taylor.

We also would like to take this opportunity to wish Jimmy Fain a highly successful and profitable venture into the automobile world. Surely he shall claim many of the wonderful customers that we have had the pleasure of dealing with as well as a host of new ones. The new, clean, attractive facilities along with being an exclusive automotive dealership should favor our former customer.

Don, Marsha and I are now working full time in the boat business at Panorama Shores. Seems like sometimes it keeps up jumping on something like an 8 day week, 25 hours a day, but we are not complaining. Matter of fact, we are thankful, and grateful that the boat and trailer business has been exceptionally good and we offer you a most cordial invitation to come by for anything you might need in the marine world. Any type boat from a houseboat, pontoon boat, runabout or fishing boat. We are also a distributor for a heavy duty line of boat trailers - selling both wholesale and retail.

Once again, a sincere thank you for favoring us with your business, for every association that has been our pleasure with you, for your friendship and we hope and trust that it may continue thru the years. Come by Panorama Shores and visit us anytime if just to say "Hi".

Thank you one and all for everything.

Grayson McClure

I have sold Shirley Florist and have taken over the Dodge, Plymouth, dealership in Murray. Your patronage to me in the past in the florist business has certainly been appreciated and it was a joy to serve you in this capacity.

Now I shall look forward to serving you in a different way in the Dodge car business in Murray and Calloway County. I will appreciate your stopping by my business, now located at Sycamore Street, Murray.

We will be glad to serve you in any way possible at our new business.

Jim Fain

We too, would like to take this means to express our thanks and gratitude to each and everyone of whom we have met and had the pleasure of being associated with in the past several years while employed at Taylor Motors, for your business, friendship, and courtesy shown to us.

It is truly rewarding the friends you make from day to day while working and dealing with the people you come in contact. Friends you will never forget regardless what field of work you may enter.

We would also like to say "thank you Tommye" for being a wonderful person to work for and with. You were always willing to listen to each problem or consider each request we might have had.

We would like to wish for Jimmy Fain the best of luck in his new dealership, knowing he will get the same satisfaction from dealing with people as did we.

We would extend to you a "welcome" to visit us at our new employment, Happy Holiday Travel, located at Panorama Shores. We have a wide variety of boats such as ski boats, pontoons, fiberglass fishing boats and sail boats. Drop by anytime for a visit and should you become interested in boating we would appreciate you considering us for your boating needs.

Thanks again.

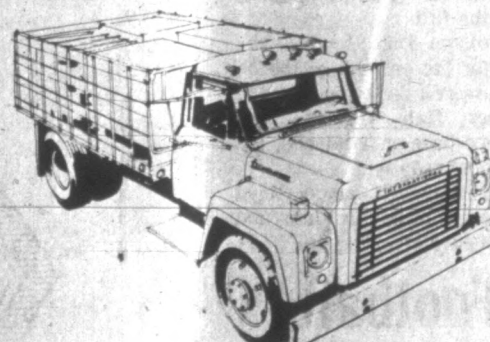

Don and Marsha McClure

Two Putts Keep Palmer From Sole Possession Of Top Spot

By BOB GREEN
AP Golf Writer
HARRISON, N.Y. (AP) — A two-foot putt that wouldn't drop—followed immediately by an 18-inch putt that missed—kept Arnold Palmer from sole possession of first place in the $250,000 Westchester Golf Classic.

The 44-year-old Palmer, who has won but one individual title since taking the Westchester title in 1971, three-putted from two feet in Thursday's first round, but still got out with a 68.

That's four under par on the 6,614-yard Westchester Country Club course and just one shot back of the group of four tied for the lead at 67. They were former Tommy Aaron, Miller Barber, Dale Douglass and Larry Ziegler.

"I was not happy," said a grim-faced Palmer after his almost incredible three-putt that cost him a double-bogey on his sixth hole.

He came up short with his approach shot, then chipped up to two feet.

He rallied soon after that lapse, however and birdied six of his last 10 holes—he needed only 13 putts on the small, undulating greens on those last 10. A par instead of the double bogey on the sixth would have given him the lead alone at 66.

"My putting on those last 10 holes was the best I've done in a long, long time," said the popular man who was trailed by the biggest gallery of the day.

Also at 68 were Jack Nicklaus, Bob Murphy, Tom Watson and eight others, leaving 16 players locked within one shot of each other at the top of the standings.

Leading money-winner Johnny Miller and defending champion Bobby Nichols were two strokes out at 69. U.S. Open champion Hale Irwin, coming off a seven-week break, birdied his last two holes for a 70 and was tied with Tom Weiskopf. South African Gary Player had a 71.

PGA champion Lee Trevino is not competing.

Ziegler, Barber, Aaron and Douglass all had to put together some last-hole heroics to escape the huge group at 68.

Many Paychecks On Line In NFL Exhibitions This Week

By ALEX SACHARE
AP Sports Writer

More than a few paychecks will be on the line in this week-end's National Football League exhibition games.

With only three weekends of exhibition action left until the regular season begins, coaches around the league will soon have to do some wholesale roster paring—and this weekend's action will go a long way in determining just who gets pared.

Many veterans will get their first extensive game action since reporting to camp under the NFL Players Association's two-week cooling-off period

Aug. 14. Most were used sparingly last week.

For the rookies and free agents who held the fort until the veterans arrived, this could be one last chance to show what they can do. The 14-day strike cooling off period ends Tuesday, but if the veterans do not leave camp then, some of the rookies will have to.

Joe Namath is expected to make his debut tonight when the New York Jets visit St. Louis to face the Cardinals.

Three games will be nationally televised: Miami, 2-1, at Los Angeles, 2-1, Saturday on NBC; Buffalo, 2-2, at Minnesota, 0-2, Sunday on CBS, and Detroit, 1-2, at Cincinnati, 3-0, Monday on ABC.

Saturday night's other games have the New York Giants, 2-1, at Pittsburgh, 3-0; Philadelphia, 0-3, at Oakland, 3-0; Denver, 2-1, at Green Bay, 3-0; Dallas, 2-1, at New Orleans, 0-3; New England, 2-1, at San Diego, 2-1; Washington, 0-3, at Cleveland, 1-2, and San Francisco, 0-3, at Kansas City, 1-2.

Two other games will be played Monday night: Chicago, 0-3, at Baltimore, 1-1, and Atlanta, 1-2, at Houston, 2-1.

Jets Coach Charley Winner will get a chance to beat the team which let him go in tonight's game. He coached the Cardinals from 1966 through 1970.

Although Dennis Shaw threw for two touchdowns and Gary Keithley one in last week's 48-14 romp over San Diego, veteran Jim Hart is expected to start at quarterback for St. Louis.

The Rams are coming off a very impressive 58-16 thrashing of Kansas City in which they rolled up 517 yards of total offense, including 357 on the ground. Veteran quarterback stars Bob Griese of Miami and John Hadl of Los Angeles will start.

Veteran quarterback Greg Landry is expected to see his first action of the year for Detroit Monday night, against the Bengals, who sacked Atlanta quarterbacks eight times last week.

Veteran Philadelphia quarterback Roman Gabriel will get the starting nod against an Oakland defense which already has intercepted nine passes.

Second-year man John Huftnagel has quarterbacked all the way in Denver's three games thus far, but Coach John Ralston is expected to give veteran Charley Johnson some work against the Packers, whose defense was impressive in a 20-10 victory over Chicago last week.

Roger Staubach will quarterback Dallas, while Archie Manning is to open for the Saints.

The Washington offense has been dormant, scoring only one touchdown in the Redskins' first three games, while Cleveland was whipped 37-3 by Baltimore last time out.

Fire Blasts Wheels 35-23 In WFL Action Last Night

By LARRY PALADINO
AP Sports Writer

YPSILANTI, Mich. (AP) — Coach Dan Boalster says his Detroit Wheels "need stability and some kind of security."

They also need a victory. Thursday night the Chicago Fire saw to it that that didn't happen for the seventh consecutive time.

The Fire took advantage of the absence of star Wheels quarterback Bubba Wyche and beat Detroit 35-23 before a national television audience but only 10,300 patrons at Rynearson Stadium here, some 35 miles from Detroit.

The triumph was the sixth for Chicago against one loss.

"This is as good a game as we've played this season," said Chicago Coach Jim Spavital, who got a superb game from quarterback Virgil Carter and a balanced running attack from Cyril Pinder and Mark Kellar.

A 90-yard kickoff return for a second-quarter touchdown by Walter Rhodes didn't hurt, either. In fact, it turned a 14-8 Chicago lead into a rout and only a pair of fourth-quarter Detroit touchdowns made the score look respectable.

The Wheels, plagued by skimpy crowds, a lack of money and consequently lack of top players, have been rumored headed somewhere else—perhaps Charlotte, N.C.

"I have a feeling something will happen very shortly," Boalster said.

Detroit was out of it early, perhaps as early as four hours before the start of the game.

That's when Wyche, second-leading passer in the WFL, suffered from an inflammation of a pulled back muscle and was put on the injured list.

The Wheels had to go with second-string quarterback Eric Guthrie and Bruce Shaw, neither a match for Carter, the league's fourth-leading passer.

He fired a 12-yard touchdown pass to former Notre Dame star Jim Seymour in the first half and a nine-yard TD aerial to tight end Don Burchfield in the third period.

Carter completed 14 of 20 passes for 176 yards. Detroit totaled only 50 yards passing.

Petty Heads Entry List For Sunday's Yankee 400 National

By BLOYS BRITT
AP Auto-Racing Writer

CAMBRIDGE JUNCTION, Mich. (AP) — Richard Petty, currently the hottest driver in auto racing, heads the entry list for Sunday's Yankee 400 Grand National stock car event at Michigan International Speedway.

Practice for the $80,200 Winston Cup race, launching a nine-race, $800,000 windup to the 1974 campaign, opened today at the two-mile oval 70 miles southeast of Detroit.

Thirty-six starters will be determined in qualifying trials Saturday. Front-row pole position contenders include Petty in a Dodge, David Pearson in a Mercury, Cale Yarborough in a Chevrolet, Bobby Allison in a Matador and Buddy Baker in a Ford.

In addition to the "front five," four of whom are previous winners at the Irish Hills oval, the entry list includes Ford-driving Charlie Glotzbach, who won the event in 1970.

Pete Hamilton, no longer active in Grand Nationals, set the one-lap qualifying record of 161.909 miles an hour in August 1971. Because of carburetor restrictions, however, Sunday's No. 1 starter may have to settle for about 156-157 m.p.h. to get the honor.

Petty, who won the Motor State 400 at the track in June, is wheeling toward his best season in the sport in a 17-year career that already has netted him $1.75 million in prize money.

He has logged eight triumphs; five second and three third place finishes this year in 21 starts and tops the money and point standings. His financial ledger shows $201,000 for the year.

The four-time Grand National champ has won the last three distance races on the circuit and his record shows victories in six events at 400 miles or better. Moreover, there are six of the big ones left before the 1974 finale at Ontario, Calif. Nov. 24.

Petty, 35, won a 250-mile at North Wilkesboro, N.C., on April 21.

Since then, he has grabbed five other victories, including the prestigious July 4 Firecracker 400 at Daytona and the Talladega 500 in Alabama on Aug. 11.

Taiwan Entry Once Again In Little League Finals

By BOB WARNER
Associated Press Writer

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (AP) — Playing almost flawless baseball, the entry from Taiwan once again has reached the finals of the Little League World Series, seeking the island's fourth consecutive championship.

Kao Hsiung, the Taiwan entry, won its semifinal game 11-0 Thursday over Tallmadge, Ohio, as pitcher Kao Sun-Teh allowed just one infield single.

The team's opponent in Saturday's final game is Red Bluff, Calif., which used three unearned runs in the next to last inning to edge Maracaibo, Venezuela, 4-3.

Tallmadge had played 10 games on its way to WilliamSPORT and none of its opponents managed to get more than three runs in any game.

But Taiwan scored seven times in the first inning and first baseman Lin Wen-Hsiung hit his second home run of the series. He homered again in the third.

Kao's shutout extended to 41 innings the streak in which Taiwan teams have held their World Series opponents scoreless. He had eight strikeouts and walked two.

Tallmadge starter Jim McConnell took the loss.

In the nightcap, Red Bluff took advantage of three Maracaibo errors for its winning rally in the fifth.

Shortstop Don Howard singled for the only hit of the inning, scored the tying run and catcher Gale Gilbert, who reached base on a miscue, got the winning tally.

Red Bluff right-hander Boyd Hedden allowed two hits and struck out 13 for the win.

Clark Ordered To Lose Weight

WILMINGTON, Ohio (AP) — Cincinnati Bengals Coach Paul Brown has ordered running back Charles "Boobie" Clark to lose 15 pounds by Sept. 15 for the regular season opener with the Cleveland Browns.

Clark, in his second season, reported to camp late with the NFLPA strikers weighing 250 and since has gained five more pounds.

Trainer Marvin Pollins Thursday was assigned to supervise Clark's cafeteria tray at meal-times.

"We're going to make that guy push his chair away from the table if it's the last thing we do," said Brown.

Brown, meanwhile, said Clark and Essex Johnson will start as running backs Monday night in the exhibition game in Cincinnati with the Detroit Lions.

Draw Set For U. S. Open Tennis Meet Next Week

NEW YORK (AP) — The draw is set for next week's United States Open Tennis Tournament and if form holds up in the early rounds, the semifinals should be something special.

If the seeding prevails, Jimmy Connors and Stan Smith, who share the No. 1 men's ranking in this country, will clash in one men's semifinal while Sweden's teen-aged sensation Bjorn Borg and World Championship Tennis king John Newcombe of Australia will meet in the other. Newcombe defeated Borg for the WCT crown.

Wimbledon champion Connors will open against Jeff Borowiak of Berkeley, Calif. Smith, seeded No. 3, starts off against Chilean Jaime Fillol. Newcombe, seeded second, opens against Sweden's Lef Johansson and Borg meets West Germany's Harold Elschenbroich in the first round.

Among the women, top-seeded Chris Evert, Connors' fiancée and also a Wimbledon champion, drew Gail Chaffre of France for a first-round opponent. Also in Miss Evert's division are Australia's Kerry Melville and Yvonne Goolagong.

In the other half of the women's draw, second-seeded Billie Jean King opens with Isabel Fernandez of Columbia. Included in Ms. King's division is Russia's Olga Morozova, who beat her at Wimbledon, and Virginia Wade of Great Britain.

The roster of players who will compete at Forest Hills when the tournament gets under way next Wednesday reads like a tennis who's who. Among the men playing in Connors' division is sixth-seeded Tom Okker of the Netherlands, Jan Kodes of Czechoslovakia and Alex Metreveli of Russia. Included in Smith's division are the Nastase of Romania, Spain's Manuel Orantes and American Dick Stockton.

Arthur Ashe of the United States is in Newcombe's section and Australia's Ken Rosewall and Masty Riessen of the United States are in Borg's division.

The $275,000 event offers tennis' richest payoffs with both the men's and women's singles champions collecting $22,500, a $5,000 ring and a new automobile. It also will be an historic tournament, the last one played on grass at the West Side Tennis Club.

Charles Tucker, chairman of the Club's Open committee, announced at Thursday's draw that six of the main courts at Forest Hills will be converted to a clay-type surface before the 1975 competition.

The reason for the conversion, Tucker said, is the difficulty in maintaining a good turf during August's hot weather. The conversion will cost between $150,000 and $200,000 and will leave Wimbledon and the main cities in Australia as the last grass court holdouts.

Midwest Teams Have Problems

By JERRY LESKA

AP Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP) — Notre Dame, Ohio State and Oklahoma last season gave the sprawling Midlands the nation's top three college football teams.

But two of that talented threesome have new problems this year and the third has a holdover fly in the ointment. National champion Notre Dame ran into summer woes with the loss of seven potential starters through injuries and violation of campus rules.

The Big Ten's Ohio State, ranked No. 2 in the final Associated Press poll, has a still-bristling squad but an ailing coach—Woody Hayes, recovering from a summer heart attack.

No. 3 Oklahoma, again tabbed the Big Eight team to beat, once more is all dressed up with no place to go—bowdler, that is. The Sooners have one more season left under conference probation for recruiting irregularities.

Elsewhere in the Midlands, Tulsa is a slight favorite over North Texas State to take the Missouri Valley Conference title both shared last season, and Kent State is a strong choice to dethrone Miami of Ohio in the Mid-American Conference.

Everything pointed toward Notre Dame catapulting from its classic 24-23 Sugar Bowl triumph over Alabama to another perfect season until trouble began mounting for Coach Ara Parseghian.

Among the keenest losses are key running back Eric Penick, who tore an ankle in spring practice and may be benched until midseason or later, and two regulars among six players bounced recently for violation of school rules—defensive end Ross Browner and safety Luther Bradley.

But Parseghian still has back eight offensive starters, including talented quarterback Tom Clements, and six defensive regulars to tackle an Irish schedule starting Sept. 9 in a nationally televised game at Georgia Tech and winding up Nov. 30 with another national TV contest against perhaps the sternest foe of the season, Southern California.

Ohio State returns 16 regulars from the Buckeye club which tied Michigan 10-10 for a share of last season's Big Ten title and then, as a controversial conference delegate to the Rose Bowl, clobbered Southern California 42-21.

Hayes' protegee and current arch-rival coach at Michigan, Bo Schembechler, also has suffered a heart attack.

Schembechler came back strong from his 1972 attack. Like Michigan, again bracketed with Ohio State as the Big 2 against the Little 8 in the Big Ten race, the Buckeyes have an outstanding quarterback. It could be that the Big Ten title again will be settled on the

By The Associated Press

Billy Martin, the fiery and sometimes feisty manager of the Texas Rangers, isn't ready yet to talk about next year.

After the Rangers beat the Baltimore Orioles 6-2 Thursday night and moved two games over the 500 mark, Martin was asked how much the Rangers needed to become contenders. Martin started to answer, but then cut himself short.

"We can make a run at the pennant this year," he said. "We're seven games behind, and we have seven games left with Oakland. We can beat them, too."

"Nobody believed me last spring when I said we'd be contenders," Martin recalled. "They all laughed. Maybe they'll listen next time."

In the only other American League baseball game Thursday, the Kansas City Royals dropped the Cleveland Indians 3-1. No National League teams were scheduled.

Texas, which Martin took over last Sept. 1 after being released by the Detroit Tigers, finished last in the Western Division with a 57-105 record.

The team finally seems to have shaken its losing feeling.

Pitcher Ferguson Jenkins, new to the American League this season, won his 18th game with two innings of relief from Steve Foucault.

Toby Harrah slammed a three-run homer during a five-run rally in the fourth inning which chased Jim Palmer.

Dave Nelson singled home another run in the inning off Palmer, last year's Cy Young award winner who earlier spent 54 days on the disabled list and is now 4-9. Jeff Burroughs then recorded his 103rd RBI, off reliever Doyle Alexander.

Burroughs, who fanned three times, was ejected after being called out and arguing with an umpire in the ninth.

Jenkins allowed three of his six hits in the seventh.

Foucault, in his 56th relief appearance, continued his season-long mastery of the Orioles.

Coalmont Jon Leads

Louisville Downs Trot

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Coalmont Jon led wire-to-wire on the way to a three-length win in the featured 5th race Wednesday night at Louisville Downs, a $1,200 trot.

The winner, driven by Fred Hayden Jr., covered the mile in 2:08 2-5, returning $4.00, $3.40 and $3.80. In second place, Galophone Star paid $4.40 and $4.20. Miss Spinning Song paid $4.60 to show.

The daily double combination of No. 5, Roger Rock, winner of the first race, and No. 5, Tarport Abbey, winner of the second, was worth $9.10.

The Rangers have a 6-3 edge over the Orioles this year and Foucault has been in all six victories. He has allowed eight hits and no runs in 15 2-3 innings, while gaining one victory and four saves against Baltimore.

Royals 3, Indians 1

At Cleveland, Kansas City pitcher Paul Splittorff had a shutout going into the ninth inning, but the Indians' Joe Lis spoiled it with a solo homer.

Splittorff, now 13-12, said he was just happy that the Royals got the win, because it puts them only four-and-a-half games behind the American League's Western Division-leading Oakland A's.

Royals Manager Jack McKeon agreed with Splittorff that every win right now is important.

"We need every one we can get," McKeon said. "We usually have a rough time with Cleveland so two-out-of-three here is real good."

The Royals scored two runs in the fourth on Amos Otis' two-run homer. It was his 12th of the season. Vada Pinson preceded the shot with a single.

Hal McRae added another roundtripper off loser Jim Perry, 18-9, in the ninth.

Curci Expects To Know More After Today's Practice

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — Kentucky football Coach Fran Curci said he expected to know more about his Wildcats after today's practice.

The team had its last day of practice without pads Thursday and Coach Fran Curci said he was "fairly well pleased."

"But I can tell a lot more tomorrow about what's really happening when they put on pads and start hitting," Curci said.

He said the players all seemed anxious for their first scrimmage Saturday.

Ernie Lewis, a quarterback for the past two seasons, has been playing safety in practice. Mike Fanuzzi started at quarterback most of last season.

Sophomore Cliff Hite has been practicing in the No. 2 quarterback spot.

Elizabethtown Battles For Berth In Babe Ruth Tourney

ABBEVILLE, La. (AP) — El Segundo, Calif., and Elizabethtown, Ky.—each with one loss—battle today for the right to meet unbeaten Puerto Rico in the Babe Ruth Baseball World Series for boys aged 13-15.

The championship game will be played Saturday.

In Thursday's action, El Segundo beat Monterey, Mexico, 6-5 while Puerto Rico topped previously unbeaten Elizabethtown 5-1.

Chris Doukakis doubled home two runs in the bottom of the seventh to give El Segundo, Calif., a come-from-behind victory over Monterey. Doukakis' hit scored teammates Marcello Gigena and Doug McCann with one out.

Monterey had broken a 4-4 tie in the top of the seventh, scoring one run on two El Segundo errors.

Doukakis was the winning pitcher for El Segundo, relieving starter Don Johnson in the first and giving up five hits and two Monterey runs.

Puerto Rico's Carlos Arroyo went the distance in allowing seven Elizabethtown hits while walking one and striking out eight.

Puerto Rico scored twice in the third inning on Orlando Isaacs' single, then added two more runs in the seventh.

Wilkie Bids To Restore Reputation In Swimming

By NOEL HUGHES

Associated Press Writer

VIENNA (AP) — There is no time for tears Friday as world record holder David Wilkie bids to restore his reputation as Britain's golden hope at the European Swimming Championships.

The 20-year-old Scot, a student at the University of Miami, made a disastrous start in his campaign at Vienna's colorful and often noisy open air swimming pool.

Wilkie suddenly stopped swimming at the beginning of a heat in the 100-meter breaststroke and he was eliminated.

Later a tearful Wilkie sat under a tree and said: "I thought there was a false start."

He explained he had mistaken the horns of Swedish supporters for the recall signal.

Now he tries again, in the 200-meter breaststroke in which he holds the world record of 2 minutes, 19.28 seconds, set at the world championship in Belgrade last year.

Wilkie has to overcome the tension and disappointment of the earlier fiasco to do it.

He may have most to fear from West Germany's Walter Kusch and also Nikolai Pankin of the Soviet Union, who won the gold medal in the 100-meter breaststroke after the Briton dropped out.

Meanwhile in the women's events, the all-conquering East Germans were expected to maintain their extraordinary gold medal march.

They already have set 10 world records here, including four in a dramatic burst of less than an hour Thursday.

And two more could be snipped again Friday in the final of the 100-meter breaststroke and the 100-meter backstroke.

It will surprise most fans here if the East Germans don't collect gold and silver medals in the latter.

In the heats, East Germany's Ulrike Richter broke her own world record with a time of 1:04.09. The second fastest qualifier was her compatriot Ulrike Tauber in 1:05.29.

Their teammate, Renate Vogel, took away the 100-meter breaststroke world record held since 1972 by American Cathie Carr. The old time, 1:13.58, was considered one of the toughest marks to beat until Miss Vogel sailed along in a heat and did it in 1:12.91.

Little Current lost three races at three different tracks before he won the 1974 Preakness by seven lengths.

Dental Care Is Getting Recognition

By SANDRA GITTENS
NEW YORK (AP) — Dentistry is probably where health care was in the '30s, just beginning to break through as a recognized responsibility beyond individuals, claims Martin Dubilier, chairman of the board for a dental products and services group.

According to his statistics, 50 percent of all Americans never go to the dentist and half of those have severe tooth problems. This is particularly true of people over 40. Once teeth deteriorate, he says, a person would have to spend anywhere between $1,000 to $2,000 putting his mouth back into decent shape. "Most people," he explained, "don't have that kind of money, so their teeth get worse."

"But the thing is, dental insurance is going to cause a revolution in the field of dentistry. Right now there are some 22 million Americans covered with some form of insurance. And this is giving the older person a chance to get work done in his mouth."

Dental procedures are simple, Dubilier declares. Yet for a sophisticated job requiring coloring, matching, the use of attachments and bridge work, he says only 20 percent of dentists are well qualified to carry out those procedures, along with perhaps 10 percent of the lab people. He notes it takes a good ceramist approximately five hours to build a bridge, depending on how many teeth he's constructing. So it's labor that brings about high costs.

"But if people start getting coverage from a dental plan they're going to get the work done. In the future," he says, "this is going to be a major problem."

"Dentists up until five years ago were only 60 percent occupied. Because of dental plans, this has changed, with most dentists being between 80 to 90 percent occupied. Dentists have reached a point where they've just about used up their capacity. Although there's a 2 percent increase in dental population a year, that doesn't even come close to satisfying what's happening in terms of demand."

His statistics also forecast that between 80 and 100 million people will be covered by 1980 owing to recent trends for unions to negotiate dental plans in their packages. Within the next five years almost everyone can expect some form of dental coverage, he says.

"But assuming," he continues, "60 million new patients are added to the roster, and of the 60 million some 25 million need major work done, that means something like five visits per person. So you're adding 125 million visits over and above what dentists now have, just for people having major work done. The dental population can't handle it. There's no way they can take 125 million new chair patients. That's really a problem and no one's come up with solutions yet."

For those seeking insurance, Dubilier does not recommend the majority of existing private companies. His reason — cost. He says the primary need for insurance is in case of a catastrophe. But in the event a serious accident should happen requiring dentistry, one's medical insurance would cover it. So the purpose of dental insurance has to be different.

"Most of the individual plans I've seen are not worthwhile," says the Sterndent executive. "Usually these companies call for an individual to join the plan getting so much per procedure. But the amount he gets is so small, leaving him with 30 to 40 percent of the costs."

"The good ones are where companies pay a piece of the action and negotiate a rate that's reasonable. Basically, it's like health insurance. You can get health insurance reasonably or unreasonably; some are state regulated, some aren't. The same holds true for dental insurance, only they are newer so there isn't as much regulation. But there will be."

Preventive dentistry is still the best effort, according to Dubilier. And there are devices on the market now which drastically reduce the rate of deterioration, particularly for youngsters. Fluoride, he says, is just one.

The dental industry is working on a number of new products to reduce the time factor involved in dental procedures. For example, he says, it takes an orthodontist 12 hours on the average to treat a young patient and it requires three years of his time thereafter before he's completed the mouth. Now there are methods available which allow him to do the same thing in four hours and one year and charge the same amount of money. "So you can imagine per hour of work, he's getting a fantastic return. This is attracting a lot of intelligent people," says Dubilier.

Other new things coming out include a device that measures teeth color with absolute certainty. Others include one that gives the dentist a clear view of the total mouth without having to look in the mouth. Another, under study, will allow teeth to be drilled without the use of a rotating device.

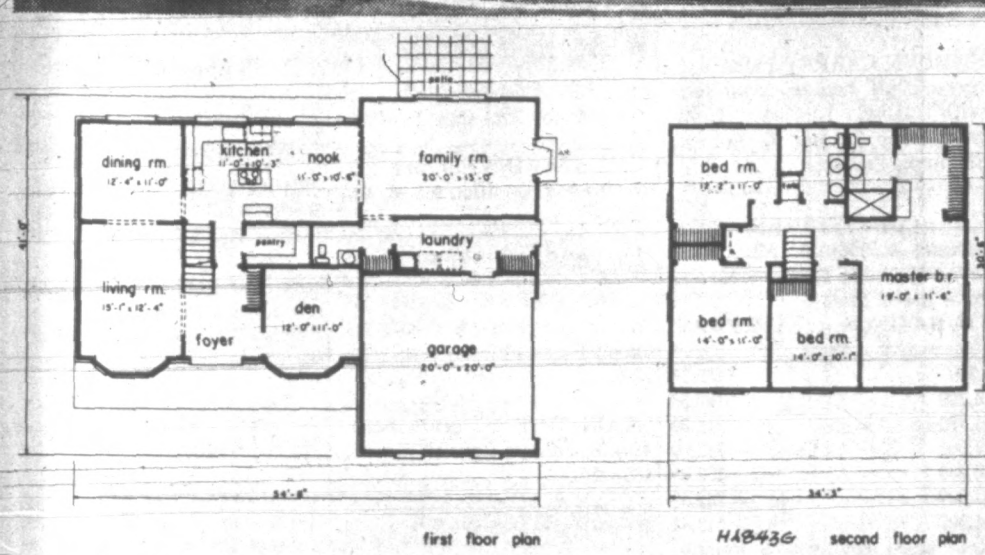

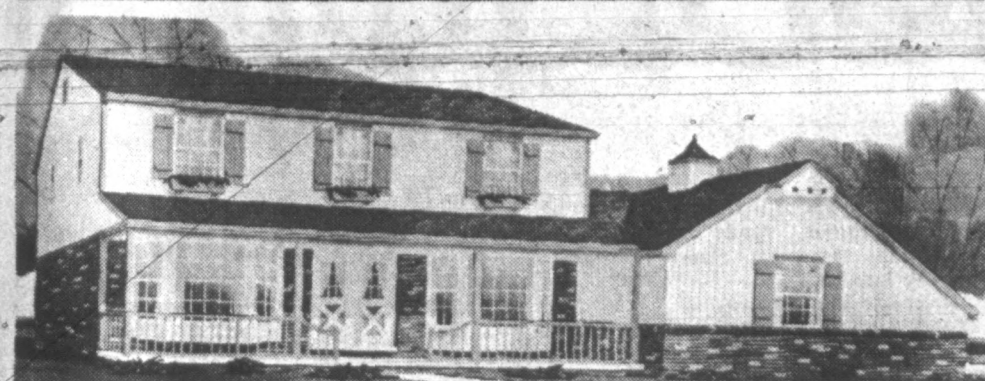

"All this will cut down on patient-dentist time," Dubilier says. "Finally, there's beginning to be a lot of money spent on dental research."

Blindness Proves No Bar To Job of Tending Bar

BELLINGHAM, Wash. (AP) — Dick Aregger gets tired of people who keep telling him how wonderful it is that he has overcome his handicap. He'd rather pour them a drink — and that's not unusual, because he's a bartender. A blind one.

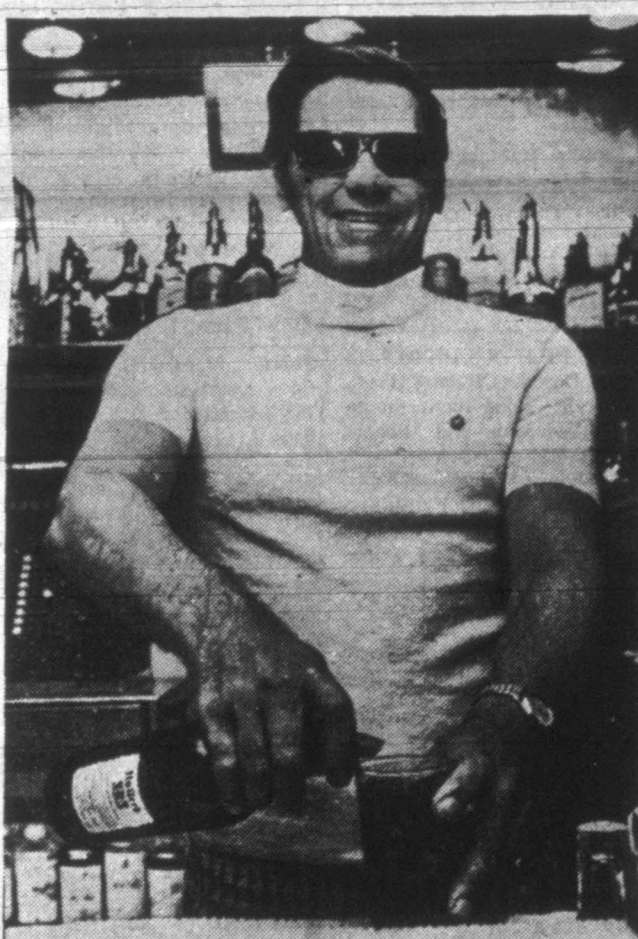

Aregger's regular customers know he's blind but most strangers never notice. If they do, he puts them at ease with one of his quips about blindness, such as saying that his cocktail waitresses are "hand-picked."

Aregger lost an eye at age 11 in a B.B. gun accident. Eleven years ago he lost the other eye in an industrial accident.

"After I went through the Orientation Center for the Blind in California, I was supposed to be 'completely independent.' But when I thought about trying to get a job I was scared to death. I went back to school for a while and got an associate degree in psychology. That's great for a bartender."

Aregger worked as a stock broker but then bought a bar in California prior to moving to Hawaii and then to Bellingham, where he owns Aregger's Fine Goods, a restaurant and cocktail lounge.

"I love bartending, love the people. I learned bartending from my own employees. I figure what I didn't know I could of people who want to shake his hand because of his success as a blind person. "I'd a lot rather have someone get mad and say 'You blind SOB' and treat me like an equal," he said.

Aregger's bartending technique is to keep an index finger on the rim of a glass. This way he can feel the ice cubes rise when a highball is poured. "I don't waste much," he said.

Aregger says he has never been "ripped off" by a customer trying to pass a $5 bill for a $20 bill.

"And if my regular customers are in, and a guy lays a bill on the bar, there are 20 eyes on it to make sure it's what he says it is."

BETTER LATE THAN NEVER

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (AP) — Michael J. Ellis of Bloomington was such a chronic truant in high school that his principal penalized him by lowering his grades by 5 percent. And counselors told him to forget about college.

Ellis followed that advice for two years, then convinced Indiana University officials to give him a chance.

He graduated this year with a perfect four-year attendance record. "It may sound corny, but I really like going to classes," Ellis said.

Waialeale, Hawaii, receives an average of 486 inches of rain annually.

Congress Taking Summer Recess

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress is at last taking a summer recess, but many lawmakers believe they will have to hold a post-election session late in the year to complete action on major business.

Tax revision, a national health plan, restrictions on campaign expenditures and a trade bill furthering detente with the Soviet Union remain on the agenda. There is no way all of these can be enacted by mid-October, the still official but now highly doubtful date for winding up the 1974 session.

In addition, leaders are reported privately convinced that the confirmation of Nelson A. Rockefeller as vice president, sure to involve extensive investigations and hearings on his far-flung business involvements and long public career, cannot be concluded in as little time as six weeks.

Congress took all these considerations home with it Thursday. The Senate returns Sept. 4, the House a week later.

One source close to Democratic leaders said that the need to handle the presidential succession this year by itself guarantees that Congress, after taking time out in October to campaign, will have to return about Nov. 11 for a four-week "lame duck" session in which retiring and defeated members will participate.

Incumbents seeking re-election in a year of public disenchantment with officeholders can point to some solid achievements of the 93rd Congress.

Among these are passage of a broad bill designed to protect participants in private pension plans, establishment of new machinery for Congress to grapple with the budget and increases in Social Security benefits and the minimum wage.

But the unfinished items also include some likely to provoke pointed questions by voters—and campaign opponents.

Congress has been promising for years to close tax loopholes and ease the burden on those with middle and low incomes.

A new element entered this year: A demand to recoup for the general treasury some of the windfall profits energy companies reaped from the oil crisis.

Rockefeller Gives Capitol Hill A Taste Of His Political Style

WASHINGTON (AP)—Nelson A. Rockefeller has given Capitol Hill its first taste of his political style, turning a series of courtesy calls on key members of Congress into a campaign tour complete with handshaking and kisses.

"It was perfectly natural. That's the way I always am," he told the pack of reporters that trailed him on Thursday through the Capitol and five Senate and House Office Buildings.

Nominated for the vice presidency by President Ford just two days earlier, Rockefeller was laying the groundwork for his confirmation hearings by visiting all members of the Senate Rules Committee and a few key members of the House Judiciary Committee.

The two panels already have launched preliminary probes into Rockefeller's background, and it is likely to be at least mid-September before formal confirmation hearings can start.

At the day's last Capitol Hill stop, House Republican Leader John J. Rhodes said he thinks the House and Senate can approve the Rockefeller nomination in time to adjourn for the year on Oct. 15.

Rockefeller then sped off to the State Department for a visit.

Young Manning Is Still Hospitalized After Accident

Anthony Manning, age 9, is listed in satisfactory condition at Lourdes Hospital in Paducah after being injured Wednesday in an accident north of Kirksey.

Trooper James Barnett, who investigated the accident, said Manning was riding a small motorcycle about seven tenths mile north of Kirksey when it collided with a car driven by Freelon Pierce.

Both vehicles were going south on Highway 299 when the accident occurred.

He repeatedly told well-wishers, "I'm keeping my fingers crossed."

In the morning, he usually signed "Nelson Rockefeller." By afternoon, it had been shortened to "Rocky."

His reception seemed equally warm from Democrats as from Republicans. Two New York Democratic congressmen, Reps. Charles B. Rangel of Manhattan and Benjamin S. Rosenthal of Queens, greeted him enthusiastically.

Aides said Rockefeller plans to remain there until after Labor Day.

Starting with a 9:30 a.m. meeting with Sen. James O. Eastland, D-Miss., the Senate's presiding officer until a new vice president is approved, Rockefeller rarely rested until the late afternoon session with Rhodes.

"This is a great way to start the day," he declared, as two secretaries kissed him in the doorway of Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark.

When a girl asked for a vice presidential autograph, Rockefeller replied, "I'll sign it as a nominee for vice president."
