Many Local Youths Aided By Manpower Program In Summer

The Summer Youth Program found part-time jobs for some 289 high school and college aged youths in Calloway, Fulton, Graves and Hickman counties.

"The program has three objectives - it provides needed income to young people so they can buy clothes and books they need to continue school; it provides a valuable work experience; and thirdly, it provides help for the public agencies that employ the youths during the summer," said Norman Willard, Jr., commissioner of the Bureau for Manpower Services, Department of Human Resources (DHR).

The youths held a variety of jobs - they worked in soil conservation and as surveyors' aides for Area Soil Conservation; in the Graves County Museum supplying information and helping people; and as clerical assistants for Murray State University.

Also, five worked at the airport in Graves County; one team of youths worked as nurses aides in Hickman County Hospital; and two worked for a federal housing project in Fulton County.

Most of the youths worked for the city and county governments and local school boards, performing clerical, maintenance and labor tasks.

"All responses from the agencies indicate that they are pleased with the work they have done," said Deborah Landeck of DHR's Manpower Services in Mayfield. "Many agencies have requested more student workers for next year," she added.

For the job slots, Manpower Services contracted with public and private non-profit agencies that needed extra help but could not afford to pay the salaries themselves. Salaries and administrative costs were funded entirely through the federal government's Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (CETA).

"Because of their age, lack of marketable skills and the part-time nature of the work they seek, many of these youths would not have had a chance for a job this summer if forced to compete with the existing labor force," Commissioner Willard said.

"Hopefully, this summer experience will increase the youth's awareness of the worth of their education and will help them in their future selection of careers," he added.

A second phase of CETA - also designed especially for youths - is the Recreation and Transportation program which just began operation in Kentucky. Federal funds are available for educational group outings until the end of September.

THE MURRAY HIGH SCHOOL marching band will make its initial appearance of the year tonight during the Murray High-Reidland football game at Holland Stadium here. The band will present the same show tonight that it will use at the Memphis Southern-Houston World Football League in Memphis Saturday night. Officers of the band are, left to right, standing, David Hall, Sally Matarazzo, Marilyn Howard, Terri McConnell, Amy Lovett, Mike Conner, Mona McCuiston and Elaine Eversmeyer. Band directors are; kneeling, left to right, Joe Sills, James Light and Frank Schwab.

Ford Launches Search For Cure To Nation's Economic Problems

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Ford has launched his public search for a way out of the nation's economic woes and has received assurances from the Democratic Congress that it will stay in session as long as he has proposals for it to consider.

The word from Capitol Hill came as Ford met on Thursday with some 30 economists who offered a wide range of suggestions, including an apparent majority view that the money supply should be expanded to bring interest rates down. There was less agreement on how to moderate the wage-price race.

"There is no question but that we will cooperate with the President," House Majority Leader Thomas P. O'Neill Jr., D-Mass., said in a telephone interview from Cambridge.

"We have got to instill confidence in the public and if remaining in Washington will do it, then we have to stay," Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield, D-Mont., concurred, with the observation that Congress alone cannot act on the economic problem.

At the end of the day-long, televised session, about half of which he attended in person, Ford told the economists, "I couldn't agree more that we have to act ... on sound and responsible recommendations."

He made no commitments on the suggestion that the Federal Reserve Board be urged to ease its tight money policy or on any other specifics.

These included suggestions from individual economists for renewal of mandatory wage-price controls, for avoiding even the suggestion of such controls and for intermediate steps such as giving the new Council on Wage Price Stability standby rollback powers or concentrating on big industries and big unions whose policies were relatively immune from competition.

But Ford dropped a hint that he would avoid extreme measures.

"As in the political arena, there is a wide area of agreement, and a few in both parties fall on the far ends. Most of the American people fall in the middle, and they want us to take those actions, I believe, that fall within the middle ground of the spectrum."

While they differed widely on particular proposals, the economists generally agreed that the way out of what has been called stagflation - simultaneous inflation and sluggishness in the economy - would not be simple, quick or painless.

Speakers emphasized that the economic malady has no single cause but a variety, both national and international, that would have to be attacked separately.

And Arthur M. Okun, a former presidential economic adviser, said (See Ford, Page 16)

Gov. Ford's Authority Challenged

Suit Filed To Prevent Spending Surplus Funds

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — Two Republicans filed suit today to block Gov. Wendell Ford from spending state surplus funds.

The action in Franklin Circuit Court was filed by Rep. Larry Hopkins, R-Lexington, and Albert Christen, finance commissioner under the prior GOP administration.

They challenged the constitutional authority of any governor to spend public funds without consulting the legislature.

The 1974 General Assembly gave Ford power to make certain budget expenditures after he said he would such leeway because of uncertainties stemming from the energy crisis.

However, what looked like a recession-type budget for the current two fiscal years has turned out to be one of vast surpluses.

Hopkins said at a news conference "the so-called experts missed by $125 million this year alone. This is the largest mistake in revenue estimates in modern Kentucky history and perhaps the worst guess."

Hopkins said not only did the legislature accept the administration's wrong estimates, but it gave the governor unprecedented authority to spend the surplus generated by the low revenue estimate.

The GOP legislator called this "the worst financial blunder in Kentucky history" and said nobody has done anything meaningful yet about the situation.

Hopkins said the suit is the only adequate response to Ford's determination to spend the $125 million surplus for this fiscal year.

The suit asks the court to enjoin the governor, the state treasurer, and the finance commissioner from spending the surplus without direction from the legislature.

"This is not a political suit," Hopkins said. "A very serious legal question is at stake here and the answer by the court will have tremendous bearing on the future shape of Kentucky government."

Christen said he had resolved when leaving Frankfort in December 1971 not to make public statements about the incoming state administration.

"Now when the chief executive begins to commit and obligate unrealized, unbudgeted and estimated state revenue, that's just too much to take silently," Christen said.

Carroll Presents Suggestions To Help General Assembly Work

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — Lt. Gov. Julian Carroll has come up with some more ideas to help the general assembly get more of its work done prior to its formal session every two years.

He presented the suggestions at a Legislative Research Commission (LRC) meeting Thursday which was attended by interim committee chairmen and vice chairmen as well. The LRC is comprised of the bipartisan leadership of the House and Senate.

Carroll divided the LRC membership up into five subcommittees to study various aspects of the legislature to try to improve it. Those studies will include a consideration of Carroll's proposals.

He also appointed several legislators to a subcommittee on collective bargaining rights for public employees, which he said probably would again be a major issue in the 1976 General Assembly.

Named to that body, each representing a committee involved, were: Rep. Glenn White, D-Winchester; Rep. David Karem, D-Louisville; Rep. Kenneth Imes, D-Murray; Rep. Bruce Blythe, R-Louisville; Sen. Michael Moloney, D-Lexington; Sen. Walter Baker, R-Glasgow; and Rep. Bobby Richardson, D-Glasgow.

One of the most substantial changes in procedure Carroll proposed would have the biennial pre-legislative conference become a 10-day working session at the capitol instead of a two-day session at Kentucky Dam Village State Park. Last year, that session was preceded by a two-day orientation session for freshmen at the park.

At his proposed pre-session conference here - perhaps in November - Carroll said, leadership would be selected, committees appointed and legislators would begin meeting with

$12,500 Swindle Is Reported In Mayfield

Authorities in this region are looking for three men suspected in a swindle that took place in Mayfield Thursday.

Graves County authorities said William Palmer, 812 West Water St., Mayfield, reported being swindled out of $12,500 yesterday by the men.

According to Sheriff Burl Youngblood, Palmer was stopped by one man and asked directions to an address printed on a card which the man had. Palmer didn't know the address, so the other man called across the street to a second man, thought by authorities to be his accomplice.

In some manner, the two men got into a card game, and were betting on the outcome, with Palmer still watching. The stakes reached $12,500, when one of the men said he didn't have that much money.

He offered Palmer $400 interest if he would loan him

$12,500. Palmer finally agreed, and got the money.

They then went to the Holiday Inn, where they met a third man, also thought to be an accomplice. The four men then drove around for a few minutes, until the three suspected swindlers said they had to leave for a few minutes.

To show good faith, they said they would leave the money in the trunk of Palmer's car, but they would keep the key.

The men threw a red bandana supposedly containing the money into Palmer's trunk, took the key, and left. Palmer waited a few minutes, got suspicious, and went to get another key. He returned to find that the bandana contained nothing but toilet paper.

The men fled in a light-colored 1973 Oldsmobile, and were seen heading south by Wingo officials. They are still being sought by area authorities.

Bicentennial Van A Part Of Kentucky's Celebration

By STEVE W. GIVENS

Ledger & Times Staff Writer

From the rear and the backside it appeared to be just another tractor-trailer rig, but the closer one approached the larger symbolic seal of the Commonwealth of Kentucky promptly gave the mobile structure an appearance of dignity and importance.

Inside the tall trailer, although, the visitor found the lifestyle of the 1700's when Daniel Boone was a living legend and the long rifle over the fireplace as the law of the settlement and the wilderness.

One of hundreds of displays honoring the 200th birthday of the founding of Kentucky, the long silver Historymobile pulled from the Murray-Calloway County Vocational School parking lot Wednesday afternoon after a two day visit.

Tom Gatewood, Jr. left Frankfort two years ago taking his message and information about the early pioneer days of Kentucky from the eastern mountains to the western river bottom lands ... and he's still traveling!

"We spent nearly the entire winter (last year) constructing this particular van to get it ready for the celebrations," he said as he directed a pair of students up its steel steps.

Financed by the Kentucky Historical Society, Gatewood handled the interior construction "in a realistic attempt to show the people how life really was in the early days." He also played a major role in directing a film shown to all visitors in the Historymobile which traces an early settler's lifestyle from youthful corn-shucking contests, through a pioneer wedding, and the starting of another new family in a community-constructed log cabin.

The only major problem Gatewood has suffered in his many miles has been the lack of assistance in operating the unit.

"For example, if I had only known in advance about the

One Charged With Forgery Thursday

A Hazel man has been charged with forgery after allegedly passing about $800 in bogus checks at the U-Tote-Em Grocery in Hazel, according to County Attorney Sid Easley.

Calloway County Sheriff's Department personnel have charged Richard E. Watkins, 22, with forgery in connection with the alleged theft and forgery of several personal checks. He is being held on $2,500 bond.

Stafford And 'Nitty Gritty Dirt Band' To Appear At Murray State

Singer Jim Stafford and the "Nitty Gritty Dirt Band" are scheduled to share the stage Sunday evening, Sept. 15th in the first of a series of concerts planned for Murray State this fall members of the student Activities Board were told during a campus meeting last night.

In charge primarily of securing entertainment for students, the board originally had attempted to obtain solo artists John Sebastian and Harry Chapin for separate performances but both indicated they could not appear.

The concert slated for 7:30 p.m. in the MSU Fieldhouse will feature one of the hottest individual singers in America today as Stafford's latest release "Wildwood Weed" is nearing the million mark in total sales.

Also included in the $5 ticket price will be the music of one of the country's older rock groups in the "Nitty Gritty Dirt Band" who will offer a review of their past hits and a sneak preview of future album contents.

Lou Turley, SAB president, indicated the school had encountered "some difficulty" in scheduling the groups which it wanted due to conflicts in time and funds. "But regardless, we are confident that we can get some good talent...in fact several big name groups are being discussed for November," the Virginia Beach, Va. native said.

During discussion at the meeting several key figures of the sports world were named as possible campus speakers: Ted Williams, Bobby Riggs, Howard Cosell, Walt Frazier, and Joe Spitz, Joe Frazier, and Joe Namath. If terms could be met, one or two of these athletes would participate in a possible campus program centered around a common theme similar to the format of the popular Insight series.

Turley also named Dave Loggins and the "Righteous Brothers" to appear at MSU's annual Homecoming concert on October 19th which will be held at a time to be announced.

THESE LITTLE PIGGIES—Meredith Newton, the 15-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walker Newton of Murray, finds that her toes are "tickled pink" by the warmth of the sunshine on the Murray State University campus in front of Lovett Auditorium. Meredith's father is currently a graduate student at the university, and this outing was taken with her mother and sister, Jessica.

Richard Harrington, of 713 Elm Street, Murray, was an exhibitor at the Second Annual Mountain Crafts Fair, according to R. J. Immel, general manager of Fontana Village Resort. He had an unusual display of tiny trees he makes and mounts on native rock. Also of interest to the public was his paintings of the various trees and other scenes of the forest, which he had done with an electric pencil.

Weather Forecast

Dames Club To Hold Tea

The annual "Fall Get-Acquainted Tea," sponsored by the Murray State University Dames Club, will be held Sunday, September 8, from 2:30 to 4:30 p.m. in the lobby of Wells Hall.

This organization is for married women students and wives of students. A person does not have to be a student herself to belong to the group. Interesting programs are planned for the bi-monthly meetings.

The club members also participate in intramurals with the first sport being softball. As an annual project, the club sponsors the "Mrs. Murray State" contest in November.

Persons having questions or needing a ride to the tea are asked to call Elizabeth Vanderveer at 767-4253.

Officers Named For Sunnyside Homemakers

The newly elected officers of the Sunnyside Homemakers club met Tuesday evening, August 27, for a planning session for the new year at the home of Mrs. Betty Dowdy.

New views and ideas were discussed to make the following year a success, with very interesting lessons and exciting crafts to be taught.

Also discussed was the change in the meeting date for September. The date for this meeting is Thursday, September 12, at seven p. m. with the hostess being Peggy Jennings.

All meetings are held at the Extension Office at 209 Maple Street and every person interested in joining the Sunnyside Homemakers is welcome to attend this meeting.

New officers and chairmen for the following year are as follows:

President: Betty Dowdy;
vice-president: Sandy Barnett;

Homemakers Clubs Here To Open New Club Year

The twenty-three homemakers clubs in Murray and Calloway County will open the 1974-75 club year with meetings at each of the various clubs starting Monday, September 9. Place and time of the meetings may be obtained from the Community Calendar in the Murray Ledger & Times or by calling the Extension office, 753-3452.

Mrs. Margaret Taylor, county president, and Mrs. Barletta Wraether, county agent in home economics, said all persons interested in the clubs' programs are urged to attend one of the club meetings or contact the hostess for information.

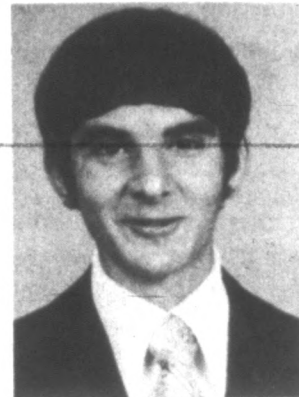

Lessons to be studied during the month of September are "Energy Crisis," "Mental Health and Child Abuse," and "Consumer Information and Clothing Guideposts."

The annual meeting of the Calloway County Homemakers Clubs will be held at the Holiday Inn on Monday, September 30. Clubs here are Cheerful, Coldwater, Contemporary, Dexter, Friendship, Harris Grove, New Concord, New Frontier, New Providence, Night Owls, North Murray, Pacers, Paris Road, Penny, Pottertown, Progressive, South Murray, South Pleasant Grove, Suburban, Sunnyside, Sunshine, Town and Country, and Wadesboro.

MRS. KATIE SIMMONS of 502 Walnut street, Murray, was honored recently with a birthday dinner at the Murray City Park. Mrs. Simmons was celebrating her 80th birthday and has written a column, "Kentucky Bell," for the Murray Ledger & Times for many years. This was a surprise party for Mrs. Simmons who was the recipient of many nice gifts.

Mike Outland Named Appear Who's Who

Mike Outland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Outland of 1700 Holiday Road, Murray, has been notified that he will be featured in the Eighth annual edition of Who's Who Among American High School Students.

Students from over 20,000 public, private and parochial high schools throughout the country are recognized for their leadership in academics, athletics, activities or community service in the books.

Mr. Outland is a senior at Murray High School and is active in several school activities and in the youth activities at the First Baptist Church. He was a finalist in the State Safety Driver Contest and competed in Louisville last spring. In addition, the senior works for a local grocery store. The Murray student plans to attend Murray State University after graduation.

Your Individual Horoscope

Frances Drake
FOR SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 7, 1974

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

ARIES

(Mar. 21 to Apr. 20)

You have more working for you than you may realize. Associates are putting in a good word quietly, and you should soon profit from some efforts you have long forgotten.

TAURUS

(Apr. 21 to May 21)

There are some who may try to make the grade in the devious or "easy" way. Don't try this yourself. In fact, you should make it a point to counteract the misleading and irregular.

GEMINI

(May 22 to June 21)

This day will need team players as well as individualists. Try to curb your usual desire to "go it alone," and cooperate!

CANCER

(June 22 to July 23)

As with Taurus, you, too, may now encounter the deceptive and unscrupulous. Be alert and don't forsake principles.

LEO

(July 24 to Aug. 23)

Don't get ahead of yourself. There's a tendency now to rush matters to a too-hasty completion, to plan ahead without getting all facts. Care!

VIRGO

(Aug. 24 to Sept. 23)

Better advantages than you may anticipate. An especially good period for revitalizing projects which you may have thought of dropping.

LIBRA

(Sept. 24 to Oct. 23)

If you don't get all the cooperation you expected, don't worry about it. Try working things out another way—quite possibly with better results.

SCORPIO

(Oct. 24 to Nov. 22)

Don't run with the conformists now. A little daring could pay off—which usually pleases those born in this Sign.

SAGITTARIUS

(Nov. 23 to Dec. 21)

Caution urged in financial matters. In all spending, keep one eye on reserves. Don't deplete them.

CAPRICORN

(Dec. 22 to Jan. 20)

Saturn auspicious. You have fine opportunities to advance, so seek them out and don't sit moaning while others take their place in the sun.

AQUARIUS

(Jan. 21 to Feb. 19)

Some changing situations. Be alert, ready to take prompt action, and be guided by procedures which have proved successful in the past.

PISCES

(Feb. 20 to Mar. 20)

Meet as many people as you can now—studying them objectively and listening to all points of view. You will not only enjoy the contacts, but widen your mental horizons considerably.

YOU BORN TODAY have been endowed with a keenly analytical mind, a remarkable memory and a perceptiveness that allows nothing to escape your observation. You are a paradoxical combination of the extrovert and the introvert: gregarious and making friends easily, yet exceptionally reserved, even secretive, about expressing your real thoughts and feelings in their company. Actually, few persons, including yourself, can intimately probe your mind. You have sharp critical faculties and these, coupled with your gift for words, would make you an outstanding drama or literary critic. Other fields in which, properly developed, you could excel: Education, the law, statesmanship, diplomacy, the theater and music. If so inclined, you could also do well in the business world and, if the business is related to mechanics, your success could be even more outstanding. Birthdate of: Queen Elizabeth I, of England; Peter Lawford, film star.

"Sir or Madame" looks better all the time

By Abigail Van Buren
© 1974 by Chicago Tribune-N. Y. News Synd., Inc.

DEAR ABBY: A reader signed "Ms. W." requests a non-sexist salutation for business letters.

Why is a salutation necessary at all? It should have been discarded years ago with such useless phrases as, "Beg leave to reply to your favor of the 15th instance," and "your most obedient servant."

"Dear Anybody" is both redundant and archaic, along with the traditional "Very truly yours," which, in a business letter, is the ultimate in hypocrisy. No?

MISS BRANIGAN

DEAR MISS B.: Yes. Many non-sexist salutations for business letters were submitted. For example: "Gentleperson," or the plural, "Gentlepeople."

Others suggested the bright and cheery, "Good morning!" (How about those who don't get around to reading their mail until 4 P.M.?)

Try, "Dear Person." (That's too impersonal, like "Occupant.")

Also, "Hi there," or would you believe, "Howdy!" Come to think of it, "Dear Sir or Madame," or "To whom it may concern" are beginning to look better to me.

DEAR ABBY: After 13 years of marriage, my husband and I were divorced for the age-old reason. Another woman. We have two children, 10 and 12, which made it a very painful ordeal for me.

My husband married the "other woman." He has visitation rights, which are fair enough, but when he comes to pick up the children, he and his wife and her eight-year-old son come right to my door. I feel I have to invite them in, and then I have to ask them to sit down. Once they are seated they stay and stay until I feel compelled to offer them some refreshments.

Meanwhile, making small talk with them is sheer torture because I feel so uncomfortable in this woman's presence. I can hardly look at her at my husband's side without wanting to burst into tears.

It seems an eternity until they take my children and leave. They sometimes come back "early," and again they are all at my door, expecting to be invited in. These visits are a terrible strain for me.

I can't help how I feel, Abby. Am I wrong? How should I handle this?

STILL HURTING

DEAR STILL: Ask your lawyer to write your husband a letter suggesting that he either pick up the children alone, or leave his wife and stepchild in the car. You're not wrong. There's no reason why you should be cast in the role of an unwilling hostess.

DEAR ABBY: I was pleased to see that you view reading a spouse's mail as a violation of privacy, and place it in the same class with reading a child's diary or listening in on the extension telephone. Those are exactly my sentiments.

I don't want to see my wife's mail, and that means even after it has been opened and is in plain view. When my wife has had a telephone conversation, I never ask: "Who was that, dear?" I figure if she wants to tell me, she will volunteer the information.

I offer you free of charge my father's philosophy: "Don't ever put another person in the position of having to lie to you."

VALUES PRIVACY

DEAR VALUES: We agree—to a point. But no one "has to lie." Simply say, "I prefer not to answer that question."

Everyone has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to ABBY: Box No. 69700, L.A., Calif. 90069. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope, please.

Miss Sheila McCuiston Is Married To Mitchell K. Ward In Church Ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell K. Ward

The Northside Baptist Church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Sheila Carol McCuiston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. McCuiston, and Mitchell K. Ward, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ward, on Friday, August 9.

Bro. John Dale officiated at the candlelight ceremony read at seven o'clock in the evening.

The vows were exchanged under a brass arch banked by arrangements of pink mums, snapdragons, and baby's breath. On each side were seven branch candelabra. The family pews were decorated with pink mums and baby's breath surrounding a lighted candle.

Preceding the ceremony a program of nuptial music was presented by Mr. and Mrs. Mike Casteel. Selections included "We've Only Just Begun," "One Hand, One Heart," "Somewhere," and "Walk Hand In Hand."

Mrs. Mike Ward, sister-in-law of the groom, kept the guest register.

Bride's Dress
The bride was escorted to the altar by her father and given in marriage by her parents. She was lovely in her Regal Romance gown, fashioned in ivory satrapeau and peau d'ange lace. Peau d'ange lace formed the high neckline and enhanced the diminutive camisole bodice.

More lace adorned the lantern sleeves and topped the lace ruffle which encircled the demibell skirt and attached chapel length train.

Her headdress was a raised Juliet crown encrusted with Venice lace and seed pearls. A tiered formal veil was attached to the headpiece.

She carried a bridal bouquet, fashioned of tiny pink rosebuds and stephanotis. Her only jewelry was a pair of tiny gold earrings, a gift from the groom.

Miss Jane Rose served as maid of honor. She wore a formal gown of silk screen printed organza in pink tones over pink and white checked taffeta, accented with a deeper pink bow at the empire waist.

Her picture hat of pink braid bonded in pink organza completed her ensemble. Her bouquet was a single long stem pink rose with baby's breath and ribbon.

The bridesmaid was Miss Shan McCuiston, sister of the bride, who was attired identically as the maid of honor and also carried a bouquet like the honor attendant.

David Kempf, friend of the groom, served as best man. Ushers and groomsmen were Ralph Dibble, Dayton Lasater, Johnny Williams, and Mike Ward, the latter being a brother of the groom. They all wore boutonnières of stephanotis and the groom had a boutonniere of stephanotis and baby's breath. Lighting the candles in the two seven branched candelabra were Ralph Dibble and Dayton Lasater.

Shelly Ward, sister of the groom, served as flower girl. She wore a floor length dress of deep pink organza and carried a white basket with rose petals. In her hair, she wore a pink rose bud accented with baby's breath.

Mrs. McCuiston, mother of the bride, chose to wear a floor length dress of pale pink knit. Her matching accessories were white and she wore a white cymbidium orchid at her shoulder.

The groom's mother, Mrs. Ward, was attired in a floor length dress of pale green knit complimented with white accessories. Her flower was a pink long stemmed rose.

Mrs. Harold Boyd, maternal grandmother of the bride, wore a floor length dress of pale green knit accented with seed pearls around the neckline.

The bride's paternal grandmother, Mrs. Kelly Brooks McCuiston, chose a deep pink floor length dress with long chiffon sleeves.

Mrs. Lennis Ward, paternal grandmother of the groom, chose an off white dress with matching accessories.

All the grandmothers were presented with corsages of pink and white carnations.

The wedding was directed by Mrs. Shirley Smith of The Showcase.

Reception
Following the ceremony the bride's parents entertained with a reception at their home on Gatesboro Circle for the bridal party and relatives of the bride and groom.

The bride and groom's table was covered with a white lace cloth that held the three tiered wedding cake and crystal punch bowl. Completing the table setting were two white candelabra and an arrangement of summer flowers.

Serving at the reception were Mrs. Cletus Colson, aunt of the bride, Miss Cindy Colson, cousin of the bride, Mrs. Max Sykes, and Mrs. Wayne Doran.

Later in the evening the couple left for a wedding trip to Florida with the bride wearing a melon knit pant suit. Pinned at her shoulder was her mother's corsage.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Ward are residing at 1608 College Farm Road, Murray. She is a 1974 graduate of Murray High School and is now attending the Ezell School of Cosmetology. Mr. Ward attends Murray State University where he will be a senior this fall.

Out of town guests included Mrs. Nell Outland, Clearwater, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. James Rah-m, Marble Hill, Mo.; Mr. and Mrs. Mike Ward, Biloxi, Miss.; Miss Janie Lewis, Princeton; Miss Allegra Jones and Reid; and Karen Ward, Paducah; Matthew Adams, Houston, Texas.

Rehearsal Dinner
Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ward, parents of the groom, entertained with the rehearsal dinner on Thursday, August 8, at the Colonial House Smorgasbord.

The table was centered with arrangements of summer flowers accented with ivy. Approximately twenty persons were present for the dinner.

The bridal couple chose this occasion to present gifts to their attendants.

Personals

HOSPITAL PATIENT
Calvin Milby of Murray Route Four has been a patient at the Western Baptist Hospital, Paducah.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Willie B. Beane and Mr. and Mrs. Otis Dunaway, all of Farmington Route One.

Debbie Hamby & Sarah Sams Present Program At Meeting

The Kathleen Jones Group of the First Baptist Church Women met Monday, September 2, at 7:15 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Luther Dunn on Poplar Street.

Miss Lorene Swann, chairman, presided and opened the meeting by asking Mrs. Denny Smith to lead in prayer.

Mrs. Mac Thomas Tarry, program chairman, introduced Miss Debbie Hamby of Owensboro and Miss Sarah Sams of Murray, students at Murray State University, who gave talks on their summer mission work. Miss Hamby was in Richmond, Va., with a Baptist church there, and Miss Sams was in Hawaii with the Baptist Churches there. Their talks were inspiring and slides of the work were shown by Miss Hamby. They were summer missionaries for the Baptist Student Union of Kentucky.

Delightful refreshments were served by Mrs. Dunn during the social hour. Other members present were Mrs. Stanford Andrus, Mrs. Solon Darnell, Mrs. Robert Jones, Miss Hazel Tarry, Mrs. R. H. Thurman, and

Pay Cash? They Don't Trust You

When it comes to economics, I've got a hunch I was the all-time anchor man in Carolina's old School of Commerce.

I took statistics so many times Dr. Cowden thought I was his lab assistant.

But the more I see people fret about inflation, the more I keep wanting to know how we arrived at this point. Back in 1940 when I was making $18 a week and managing to put away about 50 cents a week, I had to listen to my Dad tell me how he used to drive a team of horses hauling logs for 25 cents a day. If he wanted to play baseball Saturday afternoon, he worked Saturday morning, then paid a friend his 25 cents for working for him that afternoon.

Now I discover my son is making $25 more per week than I made 25 years ago. And this, after I felt I was well along in a rather successful career.

So what brought it all about? I'm convinced it's the "runaway" use of credit. There was a time when few people ever bought anything unless they could pay cash. Even our government's operated on a "pay-as-you-go" budget.

On a trip recently I was checking in a motel. The girl at the desk asked, "Will this be cash or credit card?" I told her cash. She said, "I'll have to have it in advance."

Seems no one can trust a person who pays cash any more.

TV And The WC

People at the water works in Lafayette, La. have come up with a better way to measure television audiences.

They plot sudden surges of water use and relate them to what's on the tube.

Result: A very clear indication that at 9:19 on a recent Sunday night, when suddenly it seemed like everyone in Lafayette had decided there was a pause in the old Redford was instead simply the fact that there was a pause in the old Redford film they'd revived to exploit this summer's Redford crase. So, while the dulcet-voiced sex symbol sold shaving cream, a lot of watchers decided it was a good time to go to the john. Therefore, so much drain on the water pressure means so many viewers for "Downhill Racer".

GOD CHOOSES A PEOPLE

Genesis 12:1-3, 7

I. The Plea. 12:1
While Abram was living quietly in Ur, supervising the company of servants who were looking after his large flocks and herds, a summons came from God pleading with him to get out of his native country and away from his kindred, and to go into a land which He had chosen for him. He wanted to get him away from his pagan forebears and their worship. The call of God is always away from the sinful manner of life. In God's call to Abram we see the sovereign grace of God in action. His call was both "from" and "unto." It was from the idolatry of his own land, from fellowship with his kindred, and from occupation with the pursuits of his own people. It was unto fellowship with God, unto purity of worship, and unto the purposes which had been formulated in heaven. God wants separated and dedicated believers in every day.

II. The Promises. 12:2-3
Along with that sovereign and gracious call from God for Abram to become the founder of a new nation, through which He could work out His redemptive plan, there came an invaluable seven-fold promise: to make of Abram a great nation, to bless him, to make his name great, to make him a world wide blessing, to bless those who blessed Abram, to curse any who might curse him, and through him to bless all the families on the earth.

These promises should serve as a reminder to us that God's protecting care is guaranteed to all of His children today who are engaged in doing His blessed will. Those who honor Christ will be honored and blessed by the Father.

III. The Product. 12:7
Having learned the folly of compromise and procrastination, Abram resumed his pilgrimage which brought him through a realm of danger (verse 6) into the presence of God (verse 7). Consequently he built an altar and "called upon the name of the Lord." The altar signified that Abram was a worshipper of God and made sacrifices to him. All of God's children, who by faith enter and walk in the pathway of obedience to Him, will be rewarded with intimate fellowship with God and increasing usefulness and fruitfulness in life. As we go forth, obediently depending on Him, we may rest assured that He will see us through every trying experience in this life, and then take us to our heavenly home.

Genesis 17:1-8

Here we behold again the marvelous grace of God in His dealings with "the father of the faithful." Concerning the covenant God made with him we shall note three things:

I. The Prelude To It.

At length Sarah, seemingly believing God's promise about the nation which was to spring from her husband, and at the same time doubting God's ability to perform through her that which He had promised, suggested that Abraham take natural steps to acquire an heir by attempting to secure a son by her "handmaid, an Egyptian, whose name was Hagar." This Abraham did and to him and Hagar was born a son, whose name was Ishmael.

For thirteen years Abraham lived in the presence of his attempt to assist God, and all of that time he knew that his way was not in accord with God's plan and will. For him this interval was simply a period of spiritual barrenness. Nothing ever comes from carnal living except trouble and the loss of personal communion with God.

II. The Parties To It.

When Abraham reached the age of ninety-nine, God's promise was yet unfulfilled, and it appeared to him to be an utter impossibility. Then God confirmed His purpose of grace saying: "I am the Almighty God: walk before me, and be thou perfect. And I will make my covenant between me and thee, and will multiply thee exceedingly." To walk before God in the proper manner, it was necessary for Abraham to recognize God's rights, bow to His authority, and be upright in personal conduct. God was calling upon him to think each thought, speak each word, and perform each deed with the realization that he was in the divine presence. The multiplying was the result of entering into covenant relationship with God. Fruitfulness always follows this relationship. Abraham dropped to his knees, fell on his face before God, and touched the ground with his forehead, in a spirit of amazement at the divine favor shown him notwithstanding his lack of faith and his impatience. In humility, reverence, adoration, worship, and submission, he put himself in the place where he could be useful to God. Then God talked with him about His purpose in his life. How beautiful is this picture of the holy familiarity between the mighty God and His servant!

III. The Promises In It.

In the words, "As for me, behold, my covenant is with thee, and thou shalt be a father of many nations," God was simply reminding Abraham that He had never been unmindful of His solemn promises to him. After reminding His servant of an already existing covenant, God proceeded to tell him some of the forthcoming results, for the silence of thirteen years could not alter His purposes or change His mind concerning Abraham. From this we need to learn the necessity of patience in awaiting God's time for the carrying out of His purposes. God assured Abraham that it was grace that prompted, planned, and provided all of the blessings which He covenanted to give him and the multitudes of his descendants in the various nations in the future generations.

Congressional Hypocrisy

In the years that Congress has been writing legislation to outlaw ethnic or other discrimination in employment, the hiring practices of congressmen themselves were somehow overlooked. Now we have some well-documented reporting by the Fort Worth Star-Telegram that shows blatant discrimination in hiring by a score of congressional offices — Republicans and Democrats alike.

In their requests for administrative help, legislators or their staff members specified such things as "whites only," "no minorities," or "no blacks." Conversely, one lawmaker asked for a young female "from Texas and black." He also was recorded as preferring clerks with Spanish surnames.

Any private employer sending such requests to an employment agency would be cited for violating the Civil Rights Act of 1964. Yet there will be no prosecutions of congressmen because Congress is not an employer subject to the federal anti-discrimination statutes.

Private employers are faced with rigid requirements to prove that they are complying with federal laws forbidding racial, ethnic, religious or sex discrimination in hiring. The government is wide open to charges of hypocrisy when members of congressional staffs resort to such repugnant practices in their own offices.

This Is Our Hope!

Dr. James A. Fisher, Sr., Minister
First United Methodist Church
Murray, Kentucky

God's promises are fulfilled in History! The world belongs to Him and everything is dependent upon Him. This is never an easy way to rid ourselves of the responsibility that He has given us, but an opportunity to grow in His likeness.

Our task is to become like God! Everyday, He directs us in our growth in His likeness. The spirit of Christ is always the test! If we show the spirit of Christ we are His, if the Spirit of Christ is absent from our lives we do not know Him.

Tomorrow has to be a better day! Christ's way assures it, not as by magic, but simply because there is redemptive power in Him. Our hope is for a better day, a better day for everyone, everywhere. There is really no other way for us to know and love Christ except to know that tomorrow comes.

"The redemption of the world is left to the power of our conversion." God has no wish for any other means of perfecting His creation than by our help. He will not reveal His kingdom until we have laid its foundation.

Unbelief does not let God be God, but belief releases His love so that tomorrow will be a better day for everyone. This is our Hope!

(A compilation of notes gleaned from the daily mail—some of which will interest many, others that may interest only a few.)

The National Park Service has announced it has terminated its 1974 campground reservation system which has been in effect since July 1 in 21 national parks.

The National Park Service (NPS) Director Ronald H. Walker said that an interim authorization contract to operate the system with Park Reservation System (PRS) of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, would not be extended past August 29.

All-campsite reservations made on or before August 29 for subsequent days will be honored, he said.

While the system initially was plagued with problems of overloaded telephone circuits which made reservations difficult, Walker said the decision to end the service was "based on the failure of NPS and PRS to agree on the interpretation of a proposed 5-year contract, and our conclusion that it was unwise to continue operations on an interim agreement basis."

they that mourn

"Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted." Matt. 5:4.

We know the story of the Good Samaritan, the man who had compassion upon a wounded Jew. We admire him for helping his traditional enemy. We also condemn the rabbi and the Levite who offered him no aid. They had hardened their hearts to avoid seeing their own sins. They could not feel compassion for anyone. This is what the second beatitude warns against. We should never lose our ability to mourn conscience. We may try to avoid such inner torment by hardening our hearts, but God tells us to repent and He will comfort us. If we cannot reach others for God until we can reach God for ourselves. Those who mourn will be comforted.

An Inside Look At Murray State's Roy Stewart Stadium

MURRAY STATE'S NEW 16,800-seat Roy Stewart Stadium will be dedicated at halftime of Saturday night's game with Cameron University. An open house at the stadium will be held from 12:30-3:30 p.m. Game kickoff will be at 7:30 p.m.

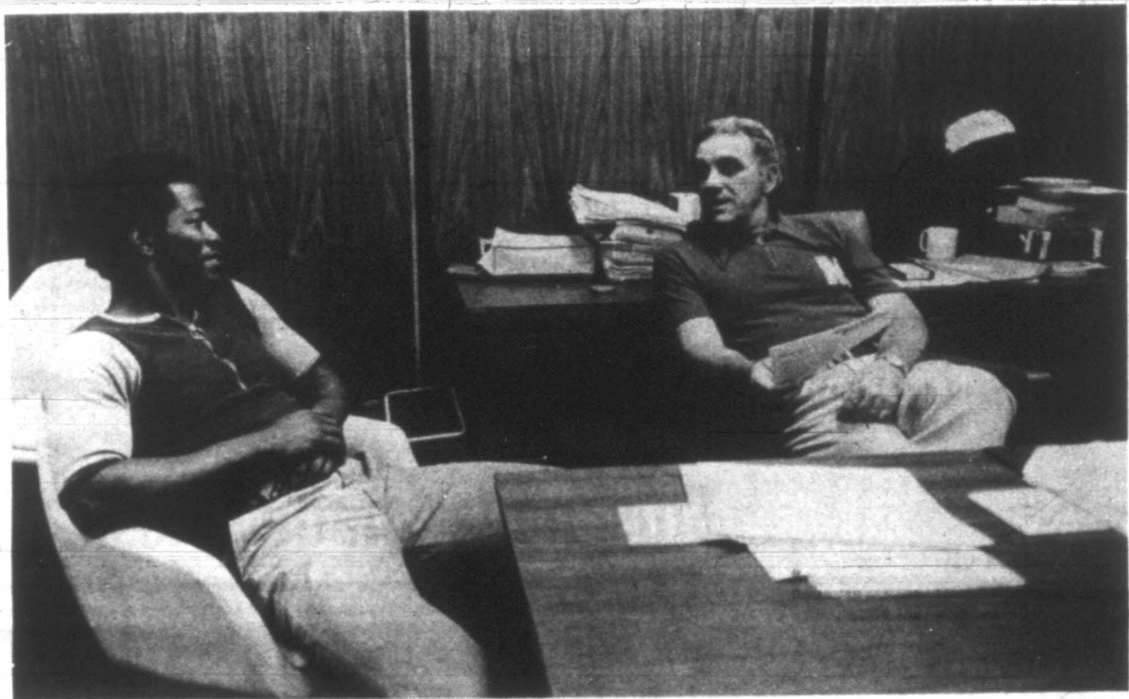

DEFENSIVE BACK AL MARTIN assists tightend Marty Strouse dress in the spacious, carpeted Racer dressing room. The dressing room has walk in lockers for each player.

Murray State University officially dedicates its new 16,800-seat Roy Stewart Stadium Saturday, Sept. 7. Activities, beginning at 12:30 p.m. and continuing through halftime of the Murray State-Cameron State football game, which opens the Racers' 1974 season, will mark the occasion. An open house program has been arranged at the stadium from 12:30 until 3:30 p.m. with the public cordially invited to tour the huge facility, one of the finest of its kind in the South and used for the first time last season.

Pre-game ceremonies, begin at 7 p.m.

Murray State President Constantine Curris will introduce Lt. Gov. Carroll during the extended halftime ceremonies, and the lieutenant governor will make the dedicatory remarks.

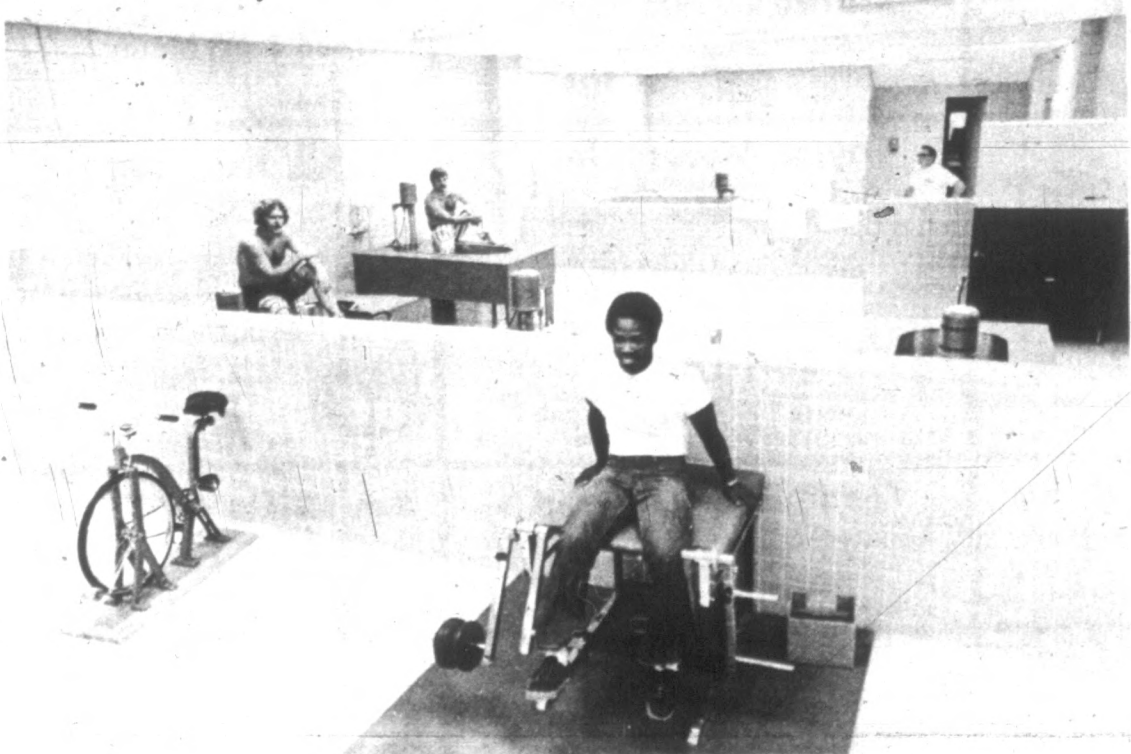

COACH BILL FURGERSON talks with All-American tailback Don Clayton in the head coach's office.

TOM "DOC" SIMMONS has one of the best equipped training rooms in the nation in the new facility. Here he tests wide receiver Willie DeLoach.

WILLIE DeLOACH (foreground) uses a weight machine in the training room while center David Mains and Russ Carlisle test the whirlpools.

DEFENSIVE COACH BILL HINA instructs all-conference tackle Charlie Carpenter in the stadium's weight room.

Notre Dame To Open Season In TV Contest With Georgia Tech

By HERSCHEL NISSENSEN

AP Sports Writer

"Only a few months ago I felt our biggest challenges this year would be our schedule and ourselves," says Ara Parseghian, coach of Notre Dame's defending national champions.

Having come out second best against themselves, Notre Dame is about to begin its schedule. The Fighting Irish, third in The Associated Press preseason poll, meet Georgia Tech in Atlanta Monday night in a nationally televised game (ABC-TV, 9 p.m. EDT).

The college football season actually gets under way Saturday with a slim schedule of 20 games involving at least one major team. The national TV slate opens at 4 p.m., EDT, with 12th-ranked UCLA facing 16th-ranked Tennessee in Knoxville.

North Carolina State, No. 18, begins defense of its Atlantic Coast Conference crown at Wake Forest while 15th-ranked Arizona State entertains No. 11 Houston in a night contest. New Mexico State is at Wichita State for a Missouri Valley Conference meeting.

The remainder of Saturday's schedule:

East Tennessee State at Apalachian State, night; Dayton at Drake; Cal Poly, Pomona at Fresno State, night; Kent State at Central Michigan; Memphis State at Louisville, night; Mississippi at Tulane, night; William & Mary at Mississippi State, night; Northern Illinois at McNeese State, night; Oregon State at Syracuse; Sacramento State at Pacific, night; Villanova at Richmond; San Jose State at Santa Clara, night; Arkansas State at Southwestern Louisiana, night; Tampa at UT-Chattanooga, night, and Texas-Arlington at Western Michigan.

Notre Dame's biggest concern is the secondary, where only Reggie Barnett returns. Bob Zant and Tim Simon were lost with knee injuries in practice while Luther Bradley, one of last year's sensational freshmen, was one of six players suspended from school for breaking dormitory rules.

Two other 1973 freshmen, defensive ends Ross Browner and Willie Fry, also were suspended, along with speedy running back Al Hunter. Eric Penick, a starting halfback, suffered a severe ankle injury in spring practice while guard Steve Quehl was injured in a summertime truck mishap.

"Injuries, accidents and suspensions have changed the picture radically," says Parseghian. "Now we must regroup and face the challenge of bouncing back from adversity."

Pepper Rodgers, Georgia Tech's new coach, isn't having any of that.

"Notre Dame's losing those people is like the man with $10 million who lost a million dollars," Rodgers says. "He's still got $9 million left."

The Irish don't know too much about Georgia Tech, but they are well aware that Rodgers' UCLA team knocked off Nebraska, another defending national champion, in the 1972 opener.

Vols Open Against UCLA In Television Contest

By The Associated Press

Tennessee, picked to finish in the second division of the Southeastern Conference this season, launches the 1974 campaign in the South Saturday with a nationally televised battle with UCLA.

A crowd of 55,000 is expected in Knoxville for the 4:20 p.m. EDT kickoff, with UCLA rated a slight favorite.

Five other Southeastern teams also open action this weekend. Mississippi and Tulane collide in New Orleans and William & Mary tangles with Mississippi State in Jackson in a pair of night games involving SEC teams.

The other three games involve area independents, the big one matching Georgia Tech against defending national champion Notre Dame in Atlanta Monday night on national television. It will be the first regular season Monday night telecast in college football history.

Elsewhere, Memphis State is at Louisville and Tampa at Chattanooga. Both Memphis

State and Tampa had 8-3 records last year.

Tennessee is led by All-SEC quarterback Condredge Holloway, who passed for 1,100 yards and ran for another 433 last season.

Both the Vols and Bruins will be running from a veer offense.

UCLA also has an outstanding quarterback, John Sciarrra.

Tulane is favored to down Ole Miss and break the 23-23 deadlock in their series dating back to 1893. Ole Miss has won the last nine encounters.

Mississippi State, featuring quarterback Rocky Felker, is heavily favored to down William & Mary of the Southern Conference.

The Notre Dame-Tech clash is scheduled for a 9 p.m. kickoff in Grant Field, with the Irish overwhelming favorites.

Pepper Rodgers, the new Tech coach, apparently was destined for television on the first week of the season. He coached at UCLA last year before deciding to return to his alma mater.

Rodgers said Thursday he made the switch just to get two more days of practice time before opening the season. He pointed out the UCLA-Tennessee game is Saturday.

"Heck," said Rodgers, "I don't have to play national champions Notre Dame until Monday."

Nicklaus Missing For First Time In Five Years In Series

By BOB GREEN

AP Golf Writer

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — For the first time in five years, Jack Nicklaus is missing from the select, four-man group of the world's major titleholders who make up the field for the World Series of Golf.

The two-day, 36-hole affair begins Saturday with South African Gary Player, the Masters and British Open champion, U.S. Open king Hale Irwin, PGA champ Lee Trevino and host pro Bobby Nichols chasing a $50,000 first prize.

Only the winners of the game's Big Four tournaments—the British and U.S. Opens, the Masters and PGA—have automatic entry into this event that ranks as the game's most elite.

With Player sweeping two of the qualifying tournaments, hometown hero Nichols—who combines his duties as head pro at the host Firestone Country Club with a heavy tour schedule—became eligible as the first alternate, winner of the Canadian Open.

Nicklaus didn't make it. He challenged in the last round of the Masters, had a shot at the Canadian national championship and lost by a single shot to Trevino in the PGA. And he won last week's Tournament Players Championship, an event that aspires to major championship status.

It wasn't enough. With Nicklaus missing—for only the fourth time in the history of the tournament—Player ranks as a solid favorite.

He has two things going for him:

First, he's enjoying perhaps the best season of his career, with his two major titles, another victory in Memphis, several more in South Africa and more than $100,000 in official winnings.

Second, he's shown a marked affinity for this tournament. He's won it three times. Only Nicklaus has won it more often.

Portions of both rounds will be telecast nationally by NBC-TV.

We Salute Roy Stewart

Roy Stewart, for whom Stewart Stadium is named, came to Murray State in 1931 as assistant football coach. He was named head coach the next year and held that position until 1941 when he became athletic director. When Jim Moore, who followed Stewart as head coach, entered the service after the 1941 season, Coach Stewart again took over the head job until Moore returned in 1946.

Stewart received his Master's Degree at Columbia University, New York. His academic studies have also included graduating from Union University and attending the University of Missouri, University of Wisconsin, and Northwestern.

During Coach Stewart's tenure as athletic director the Murray State basketball arena was constructed and most of the preliminary planning for Stewart Stadium was done before his retirement in 1966.

Coach Stewart, who has been named the outstanding athlete ever at Union University from which he graduated in 1926, was named to the Murray State Athletic Hall of Fame in 1971.

Since retirement Coach Stewart and his wife, the former Ryan Jones, have traveled extensively and he has worked on improving his golf game. They have one daughter, Mrs. Bobs Hopper of Radio Station WNSB-WAAW, and one son, Dr. Chad Stewart, chairman of the Murray State Recreation and Physical Education Department. Their two grandsons are Jerry Hopper and Lee Stewart, and their great granddaughter is Mitzi Leigh Hopper.

Racer Soccer Team Set To Open Season Sunday

By MIKE BRANDON
Ledger & Times Sports Editor

Murray State soccer coach Schellas Hyndman has something good going and he hopes it will rub off on his team.

Hyndman, a native of Dayton, Ohio, played for a winner throughout his collegiate career as a soccer player.

In fact, in 1969, Hyndman's Eastern Illinois University team was the national champions.

And with that background, plus five returning starters off last season's team, Hyndman is hoping for a successful start in his first year of coaching.

If the lack of overall experience is the main problem, the Racers shouldn't have too much to worry about.

Because what is lacking in experience is more than made up for in speed as several of the Murray State track team members are on the soccer team.

One of those track team members on the soccer club, Cuthbert Jacobs, is playing his fourth season of soccer at Murray State.

Jacobs was a double winner last spring in the 100 and 220-yard dashes at the Ohio Valley Conference track meet held in Murray's Stewart Stadium. And this summer, the senior from Antiqua ran his best 100 ever, a 9.2.

Jacobs has also been a MVP selection once while playing soccer for Murray.

Joining Jacobs in the fullback positions will be veterans Lou Turley and Mike Brangers plus freshmen Sylvester Emodi.

Turley, a senior, has also been an athlete of outstanding caliber, having once been selected as the Most Valuable Player on the soccer team.

"This should be the strongest area of our team because of the outstanding speed we have here," Hyndman said.

Besides Jacobs and Turley, Geg Gelhot, Trevor Athill and Patmore Chatman all started last year.

Freshman Hamid Siadat of Persia, freshman Jim Lukeman of Jacksonville, Ill., freshman Lekan Biobaku of Nigeria and sophomore Patmore Chatman will compose the forward line. Chatman has great speed and power as he is a member of the Racer track team, specializing in 440-relay, the long jump and the triple jump.

"I'm looking for a lot out of these people. . . they are all skilled, it's just that they are going to take a while to get used to playing together."

The halfback positions appear to be strong with Royston Bloomfield, a senior from the West Indies and a member of last year's team which compiled a 4-2-1 season mark and Greg Gelhot starting.

Gelhot, a junior from St. Louis, was one of the big scorers for the Racers last season.

Trevor Athill, another member of the track team, returns to his goalie position and will get backup help from freshman John Larson of Connecticut.

"If we don't have any injuries, we should be rather good," Hyndman said.

"We just don't have very much reserve power to rely upon."

The season for the Racers opens Sunday at 2 p. m. in Cutchin Stadium with Murray taking on Vanderbilt. There is no admission to the match.

The next contest for Murray will also be in Cutchin Stadium, that being September 14 with Southern Illinois University of Carbondale visits for a 2 p. m. match.

In all, the Racers are scheduled to play nine matches, not including the State Tournament which will be held in November at Berea College.

The entire roster for the 1974 season is as follows: Lekan Biobaku, John Cox, Lou Turley, Sylvester Emodi, Gustavo Jimenez, Dave Kennedy, Michael Mullins, Emanuel Dokubo, Lester Flax, Tim Marler, Bert Jacobs, Roger Biggs, John Larson, Adrian Hall, Patmore Chatman, Jim Lukeman, Trevor Athill, Reza Salehi, Greg Gelhot, Hamid Siadat, Mike Brangers and Mike Sanders.

The schedule is as follows: September 8 Vanderbilt September 14 Southern Illinois September 28 at Bellarmine October 5 at SIU October 12 at Vanderbilt October 20 Alabama October 26 Berea November 3 at Fort Campbell November 10 Fort Campbell November 15-16 State Tournament

Charlie Carpenter, the Murray State University football captain and starting offensive guard, is predicting a fine season for the Racers this year.

"We're improving every day, making fewer mistakes, learning our assignments, getting more excited, and I know I've never seen a group that works together so well or is so determined to have a good season."

"We've kinda picked up where we left off last season. We don't get upset when someone causes a breakdown. We just call a halt and talk things out and correct them. Our offense didn't look very sharp at the beginning of practice but we had a lot of new people who were still learning but we're catching up with the defense now and we'll be ready Saturday night."

The Racers will open their season Saturday against Cameron University of Oklahoma. Their new Roy Stewart Stadium, first used last season, will be dedicated at the game.

Carpenter, 6-3, 245 pounds was an all-conference offensive tackle for Murray the last two seasons but was moved to guard, the position he played as a freshman, last spring. "I really love to play guard," he says. "There's more action there than at tackle. You get to hit more people and I like pulling and leading plays. I really feel like I'm more a part of the game there."

Carpenter, has worked diligently on weights since he has been at Murray and is exceptionally strong and has outstanding speed for so big a man. However, offensive coach Carl Oakley says the difference in Carpenter and a great many other big, fast players is his desire and his belief in himself and his abilities.

A native of Loveland, Ohio, and an outstanding player at Loveland High School, Carpenter enrolled at Murray after a three-year hitch in the Marine Corps. He was the first sophomore to make the All-Eastern Hills League team when he was at Loveland and he repeated the honors and also made the All-Cincinnati team as a junior and as a senior. He was a tackle on offense and a middle linebacker on defense when he was in high school. He's married to the former Vicki McCoy of Loveland and they are the parents of a 4-year-old son, Charles Jr., and a two-year-old daughter, Stacy.

Carpenter has attracted the attention of most of the pro teams the last two seasons and there's nothing he'd like better than a shot at the pro game. "I'm working on improving my strength and speed and I'd like to get my weight up to 250 pounds. And if I can have some good performances this year, I think they'll give me a chance."

As for Cameron, Carpenter says scouting reports show them to be big, quick, and physical and that he expects them to be a tough test for the Racers. As for Ohio Valley Conference competition, he thinks Eastern Kentucky may be the team the Racers will have to beat if they win the championship. "But Western Kentucky may be just as tough and you can bet there won't be a team in the league that can't beat you. We'll have to play the best we possibly can every Saturday to stay in the championship picture."

Marathon Club To Meet On Saturday

The Murray Marathoners will meet at The Palace at 8:45 a.m. Saturday for a morning coffee. Following the short meeting, the Marathoners will watch the Murray State cross country team's five-mile time trial.

After viewing the Racers' time-trial, the marathoners will meet at Hart Hall with the main topic of discussion at the business meeting being the possibility of affiliating with the Road Runners Club of America.

After the meeting, the marathoners will go out for a six or seven-mile fun-run. The pace will be run at the pace of the slowest runner.

Anyone who would like to run or is seriously interested in the sport is urged to attend the meeting.

Racers To Open Year With Cameron With Little Knowledge Of Aggies

By MIKE BRANDON
Ledger & Times Sports Editor

Murray State University football coach Bill Furgerson is going to learn something Saturday night about Cameron State College.

But the thing that's worrying him is that he doesn't know what he's going to learn about the Oklahoma School.

Preparing for the opening game of the season has been much like a fighter training for a match against a boxer he's never seen.

That is, all the work has been done and the fighter is in top shape. But he doesn't know exactly what to be aware of, the left hook or a stinging jab.

So when the Racers take the field at Stewart Stadium at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, it will be much like that fighter stepping into the ring. And the first few minutes of the contest could be a deciding factor.

Cameron State has been anything but helpful in cooperating with Murray State. The Oklahoma school sent a scout to view the Racer spring practice game, upon the condition, of course, that Murray could see the Cameron spring game.

However, Cameron State didn't mention that their spring game was held a week before Murray's.

And instead of the usual trading of game films, the Racers drew a blank card there too as only a short highlight film of Cameron State was made available.

The biggest concern about the unknown is that Cameron State has 22 transfer players on its squad. That one element is certain to make the Racers' opening game one of the toughest ever.

"We're not really afraid of the unknown factor but we are very concerned over it," Furgerson said.

"We are even more concerned about the unknown factor of ourselves."

"When you practice only against yourself and the offense doesn't go, does it mean you have a good defense or is it a sign of a weakness in the offense?"

Recall Players

MONTREAL (AP) — The Montreal Expos have recalled two players from the Quebec Carnivals, their Eastern League affiliate which was eliminated from the playoffs Thursday night.

Third baseman Larry Parrish and outfielder Warren Cromartie are expected to join the Expos in time for tonight's National League baseball game against the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Parrish hit .282 with 17 home runs and 77 runs batted in for Quebec, while Cromartie was the Eastern League's second-leading batter with a .336 average, 13 homers and 61 RBI.

Huge Team

Cameron State will be the biggest team the Racers have met in several years.

The interior offensive line of the Aggies averages almost 258 pounds.

In the middle of the line at center will be Larry McRoy, a 6-0, 234-pound sophomore from Scottsdale, Ariz. McRoy is one of the transfers who has earned a starting berth.

The tackle spots will be occupied by 6-2, 311-pound sophomore Mike Breshears and 6-2, 248-pound senior Royce Lee. Breshears is a transfer while Lee returns from last season's 5-5 squad.

The guards for the Aggies are 6-2, 255-pound Mike Jones and 5-10, 241-pound Ronnie Prince. Jones is a senior and a starter off last season's team while Prince, a sophomore, was also a starter last year.

Another starter, senior Bill McNeel, 6-4 and 216 pounds, will be at tight end. He also handles the punting chores for the Aggies.

The wide receivers are sophomore James Herron and sophomore Don Brown. Herron, a starter last season as a freshman, is only 5-9 and 169-pounds but was the NAIA decathlon champion this past year. Brown is a transfer student from Abilene, Tex.

Vince Hobbs, a 5-11, 215-pound senior and a returning letterman, is the quarterback. Last season, he started in only one game for the Aggies.

Sophomore fullback Jerry Darnell is a 6-2, 217-pounder from Fort Worth while sophomore Jesse Cohee is a 5-8, 175-pounder from Lawton, Ok.

The Aggies should have a rugged front four at 6-4, 273-pound freshman Phil Welty holds down one tackle position and 6-2, 230-pound senior L.C. Stewart the other.

At the defensive end spots are 6-1, 204-pound Ken Burroughs and 5-11, 197-pound Mike Bunning.

Euell Pope, a 6-1, 228-pound senior, is the nose guard.

The linebackers are 5-10, 191-pound Bud Briley and 6-1, 226-pound Carlos Stone.

At the corners are 5-8, 165-pound Dick Bryan and 5-9, 190-pound Joe Boley.

Safeties are 6-1, 180-pound Glen Davis and 6-0, 210-pound Anthony Grant.

Racers Healthy

With the exception of a few minor injuries, the Racers are healthy as they prepare to keep their unbeaten string going in Stewart Stadium.

Senior Tom Pandolfi, an All-Conference selection in a pre-season poll of coaches, will get the starting assignment at quarterback. He was second in total offense last year in the league.

Behind him in the fullback position will be sophomore B.F. Behrendt.

And of course, at tailback, is senior All-American Don Clayton.

Junior Tony Menendez will start in his first game at center while the tackles will be sophomore Buff Fritz and junior Mark Lacy. At guards are All-Conference pick Charlie Carpenter and veteran Russ Carlisle.

Doug Sanders has earned the vacated spot of Bill Farrell at tight end while redshirt freshman Gary Brumm will start as the wide receiver.

The only post undecided is the other wide receiver position where Willie DeLoach and freshman Larry Foxwell are expected to platoon duties.

The Racer defense will find eight of 11 starters returning. The front line will have 6-2 junior Jay Waddle at one tackle spot while 6-2 sophomore Robert West starts at the other tackle position.

Veteran David McDonald will start as the weak side linebacker with junior college transfer Larry Jasper on the strong side. In the middle will be junior Don Hettich.

Another pair of veterans, Don Dieken and Bruce Walker, will be at the cornerback posts while Al Martin will start as the "Racerback" and Mark Hickman as the safety.

"We're anxious to get after someone else," Furgerson said.

"Our kids have accepted the responsibility of being ranked number one in the Ohio Valley Conference and we're going on the field to prove we deserve that rating."

The game will be the dedication of Stewart Stadium. Tours will be conducted of the structure throughout the day Saturday with pre-game festivities beginning at 7 p.m.

Duane Thomas To Comeback

By BERT ROSENTHAL
AP Sports Writer

Duane Thomas, the recalcitrant, controversial running back, begins his comeback with the Washington Redskins tonight.

Thomas was being counted on as a starter until recently, when he became involved in a disagreement with assistant coach Charley Waller and was put on waivers. Thomas later apologized to head coach George Allen, was recalled from waivers a week ago and was reinstated by earlier this week.

But he hasn't yet regained his starting job. "He's got to work his way back up," said

Allen.

Thomas will begin that work tonight, when the Redskins meet the Baltimore Colts in a National Football League exhibition game at Washington.

In other NFL preseason action tonight, the New York Giants will be at Buffalo, St. Louis at Kansas City and Cincinnati will play Green Bay at Milwaukee.

On Saturday, it will be the New York Jets against the Oakland Raiders at Berkeley, Calif., Cleveland at Detroit, New Orleans at Houston, Miami at Chicago, and San Diego at Minnesota.

The NFL exhibition season will conclude Sunday, with Los Angeles at San Francisco, Philadelphia at New England and Atlanta at Denver in a nationally televised game. The regular season begins Sept. 15.

The final weekend of exhibitions began Thursday night, with the Pittsburgh Steelers romping over the Dallas Cowboys, 41-15, in another nationally televised game. Joe Gilliam threw two touchdown passes to lead the victory.

Boston Drops To Second After Losing To Brewers

By DAVE O'HARA
AP Sports Writer

BOETON (AP) — Gorman Thomas checked in with the Milwaukee Brewers, took one look at Fenway Park's famed left field wall and thought he was back in Sacramento.

Just recalled from the Pacific Coast League where he capitalized on Sacramento's 233-foot left field fence for 51 homers, the 23-year-old slugger took aim on Fenway's "Green Monster," just 315 feet down the line.

He hit some tremendous shots in batting practice Thursday night, but then failed to get the ball out of the infield in his first three times at bat against the Boston Red Sox.

Then, with the score tied 2-2 and one out in the ninth, he became another of Fenway's long list of fence-breakers, belting a two-run homer to provide the Brewers with a 4-3 victory over the reeling Red Sox.

In handing Boston its seventh consecutive defeat, the Brewers knocked the Red Sox from the American League East lead for the first time since July 14. The idle New York Yankees moved one-half game in front. Third-place Baltimore, also idle, remained two games off the pace.

There was some good natured joking when Thomas was announced as Milwaukee's starting right fielder. Wags kidded that National League umpire Tom Gorman had reversed his name to play against the struggling Red Sox.

However, there was no joke about the homer, a towering drive which cleared the screen high atop the 37-foot wall near the foul pole. A quick check failed to turn up any complaint of a broken window downtown.

After watching Mike Hegan and Pedro Garcia hit solo homers in the seventh, tying the score, Thomas got the idea. With Darrell Porter on first with a walk, he looked at two balls thrown by Boston reliever Diego Segui. Then he unloaded. "It was a slider up high and I got good wood on it," Thomas said. "It felt the same as the one which went foul rpy first time up in the second inning. It felt good."

Twins 4, Royals 1
Steve Busby's throwing error on a bases-loaded pickoff attempt in the sixth inning let in two runs and triggered Minnesota over slumping Kansas City.

It was the eighth straight loss for the Royals, who now have dropped 10 of 11 on the current homestand. Busby, 19-13, failed for the third time to gain his 20th victory while left-hander Vic Albury, 6-8, stopped the Royals on six hits.

"I just went out and tried to throw strikes," said Albury, who noted that he had "promised" his son, Victor, that he would win Thursday night.

Facing Busby, Kansas City's ace, didn't bother Albury. "I figured if I had good stuff it didn't matter who was throwing."

Busby said, "The Twins probably have the best hitting club in the league as far as being able to send nine men up there who can swing the bat."

A's 3, Rangers 0
Jim "Catfish" Hunter notched a personal single-season high of 22 victories by pitching a four-hitter in Oakland's decision over Texas.

The victory put the A's 8½ games ahead of the Rangers in the American League West race.

Hunter, 22-10, has won five games in a row and eight of his last nine. The only hits he allowed were singles by Sonny Randle in the second inning, Joe Lovitto in the third, Cesar Tovar in the fifth and Duke Sims in the ninth.

The A's scored two runs of losing pitcher Jackie Brown, 11-11, in the third-inning and another in the fifth Ray Fosse led off the third with a single, Dick Green sacrificed and Bill North singled to put runners on second and third.

Bert Campaneris singled to score one run and Jackson drove in the other with a single. A triple by Campaneris and a wild pitch made it 3-0 in the fifth.

White Sox 1, Angels 0
Ken Henderson's sixth-inning double drove in Jorge Orta with the only run of the game as Chicago beat California.

Loser Ed Figueroa, 2-7, permitted only three hits but two of them came in the decisive sixth—a lead-off single by Orta, who had two of the Chicago hits, and Henderson's one-out double.

Chicago starter Bart Johnson, 7-3, yielded only a pair of infield singles to fleet rookie Morris Nettles before getting into an eighth-inning jam. Reliever Terry Forster saved Johnson's victory by pitching out of a two-on, one-out situation in the eighth.

Phillies 6, Cubs 5
Bob Boone's bases-loaded single in the top of the 11th inning delivered two runs as Philadelphia defeated Chicago.

The Cubs had tied the score 4-4 in the eighth on triples by Jose Cardenal and Peter LaCock.

The triumph snapped a three-game losing streak for the third-place Phillies, who moved within 6½ games of the idle Pittsburgh Pirates, leaders of the National League East.

The loss was the fourth straight for the last-place Cubs.

Shadow Elegance

Horse Show Champ

SHELBYVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Shadow Elegance of Dickson, Tenn., captured the three-year-old walking horse championship Thursday night in the rain-plagued Tennessee Walking Horse National Championship.

The stallion, ridden by Frank McMeen, earned the $500 first-place award for its owner, Edwin Underhill of Dickson.

Runnerup was Winston's Colonel, mounted by Don Bell, and owned by Judge Roy Bean & Associates of Langtry, Tex.

The 36th annual Celebration, billed as the world's largest walking horse show, will end a 10-night run Saturday with the crowning of a new world champion walking horse. With the title goes $3,000.

Attendance at Thursday night's competition was way down from last year's same competitive night, 8,748 compared with 15,709 a year ago.

Plagued by rain and unusual chilly weather on several nights, the overall Celebration attendance has dipped this year to 15,381 fewer than in 1973.

Tonight's competition will be highlighted by the two-year-old walking horse championship and the junior walking horse championship.

Sign Center

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Philadelphia 76ers say they have signed rookie center Harvey Catchings of Hardin-Simmons and veteran Bob Rule.

Catchings, 23, 6-foot-9½, was a third-round selection in the National Basketball Association college draft this year.

Storm 3½ Games Out But Coach Believes His Club Is In Race

By FRED ROTHENBERG
AP Sports Writer

Coaches are by birth and nature an optimistic lot. But Portland Storm Coach Dick Coury appears near the head of the class.

Portland is 3½ games behind the first-place Southern California Sun and the guaranteed playoff spot in the Western Division, but Coury thinks his team "may not be out of the West Division race by any means."

"If we put together a strong finish in the last 10 or 11 games, we have a chance for a playoff spot," said Coury, whose optimism got a powerful injection last week when the Storm broke into the victory column by topping the still-winless Detroit Wheels.

Coury's positive thinking meets a big test tonight when the Storm, 1-7-1, can move up a notch in the standings by beating the third-place Hawaiians, 2-7, as the 10th week of the World Football League continues.

In other WFL action tonight, the New York Stars, 6-3, and Florida Blazers, 6-3, share the bill and the billing, but one club is almost assured of second billing when their Eastern Division tangle is over.

And in Detroit, Southern California, 5-4, gets its chance to spin the Wheels, 0-9.

The Jacksonville Sharks started this week's WFL football bouncing Thursday night when rookie quarterback Reggie Oliver outgunned flamboyant King Corcoran to beat the Philadelphia Bell 34-30. Oliver passed for 321 yards and two touchdowns.

On Saturday night, the Chicago Fire, 7-2, attempts to give the undefeated Birmingham Americans their first taste of defeat in a Central Division rumble, while two second-place teams with divergent records get a chance to rough it up in Memphis. The Houston Texans, 3-5-1, who trail the Sun by 1½ games, play the Southmen, 7-2, two games behind Birmingham.

Coury and the Storm received a big reinforcement in their battle against odds and the standings when big, bad Ben Davidsson moved his 6-foot-8, 280 pound frame into Portland.

Big Ben, who sat on loads of NFL quarterbacks in his 10 years with the Oakland Raiders, was released by that National Football League club Tuesday and jumped on the Portland bandwagon Wednesday.

Tonight Coury hopes Davidsson will get a chance to disrupt the plans of the Hawaiians.

Connors and Tanner To Highlight Net Tourney

By KAROL STONGER
AP Sports Writer

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (AP) — Top-seeded Jimmy Connors and long-shot Roscoe Tanner are only 22 years old, but they have been competing against each other on tennis courts longer than old pros John Newcombe and Ken Rosewall of Australia.

The two big-serving American left-handers will meet Saturday in the semifinals of the U.S. Open Tennis Championships, a crown neither has won.

Newcombe, 30, and Rosewall, 39, meet in the other. They first met in 1968 after each already had taken the first of two U.S. titles.

In the women's semifinals today, Connors' fiancée, Chris Evert, the Wimbledon winner and top seed, tries her luck against Evonne Goolagong, the 1971 Wimbledon champion

Chris has yet to beat on grass.

And Billie Jean King, the No. 2 seed, was given another chance against Julie Heldman. Mrs. King defaulted to her American foe last year in the third set.

With three Americans and an Australian left in the women's bracket, an all-American final was a possibility. But the men's final was assured of being a duel between the two tennis powers: the United States and Australia.

The all-American semifinal was shaped when Connors overpowered Alex Metreveli of the Soviet Union, 3-6, 6-3, 6-4, 6-1 and Tanner topped third-seed Stan Smith, 7-6, 6-2, 3-6, 6-1.

The Australians advanced when Rosewall defeated Indian Vijay Amritraj, 2-6, 6-3, 6-3, 6-2, and Newcombe ousted No. 8 seed Arthur Ashe, 4-6, 6-3, 3-6, 7-6, 6-4.

Murray Only Conference Team Favored To Win

By The Associated Press

Four Ohio Valley Conference schools open the football season Saturday against tough opponents and only Murray State is favored to win.

Murray, the pre-season pick to win the OVC crown, hosts Cameron State, while Middle Tennessee State plays Tennessee State in Nashville, Tennessee Tech visits South Dakota and East Tennessee State is at Appalachian.

An anticipated crowd of 30,000 is expected at Vanderbilt's Dudley Field as Tennessee State and the Blue Raiders oppose each other in a season opener for the second straight year.

Tennessee State, The AP's college division national champ last season, won last year 23-0 before a crowd of 25,000.

However, Tennessee State lost most of the key players from last year's team.

Tennessee Tech also will be out for revenge, having lost to South Dakota 30-0 last season. Tech's success will depend on its offensive line, which coaches have had to rebuild entirely.

"Our defense is going to have to be one of our strong points, until we can get the offensive line straightened out," Tech Coach Don Wade said.

"There's hope for us," he added. "But right now we just have to play and make our mistakes, take the good with the bad and hope for the best."

Western Kentucky, Eastern Kentucky, Morehead and Austin Peay open the season next week. C. W. Post is at Western Kentucky, Eastern Kentucky at Dayton, Marshall at Morehead and Austin Peay at Youngstown.

BIKE RIDERS REPEAT

NEW YORK (AP) — Billy Bauer and Jeanne Azzarello have won the Pepsi-Cola bicycle marathon in Central Park the past two years. Bauer, a 33-year-old Bayville, N.Y., louty-pist, covered 430 miles in 24 hours. The 23-year-old Miss Azzarello of Flushing, N.Y., pedaled 225 miles.

Special gold medals went to two members of the U.S. Military-Academy team.

Big Question At U. S. Open Is What Happened To Attendance?

By WILL GRIMSLEY
AP Special Correspondent

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (AP) — At the U.S. Open, the big question is, what's happened to tennis crowds, anyhow?

Tennis audiences used to be the most sedate in sports. When a player prepared to serve, you could hear a pin drop. In the course of a rally, it was a capital offense to sneeze or clear your throat.

Also, with thousands in the stands, it always was a dreadful breach of etiquette to get hungry or suddenly have to go to the bathroom.

"Will the spectators please refrain from moving while play is in progress," the umpire repeatedly admonishes. The rule has been: don't dare move until the players change courts.

No more.

All of tennis' traditional parlor decorum and lace-and-ruffles nicety have suddenly gone down the drain. It's a different crowd now. It's a football or bull ring crowd — a loud, boisterous, popcorn-eating, beer-guzzling breed.

"I think Team Tennis is responsible," says Bob Howe, the Australian who is assistant director of the U.S. Tennis Championships.

"They're bound to get worse," says Charles Tucker, the West Side chairman.

World Team Tennis admits that it fosters fan involvement. It encourages supporters to bring out bells and horns and their worst manners. It is seeking to appeal to the baseball, basketball, hockey fan as well as the tennis fan.

But the tennis purists rebel at the idea.

The crowds at the Open have been bigger then ever — already over 100,000. They also have been the most unruly.

Umpires have been compelled to make public announcements from the stands: "Will the spectators please refrain from making calls. It is very distracting."

TWO PINS OFF RECORD

HOUSTON (AP) — When Carol Miller of Waukesha, Wis., and Jane Leszczynski of Milwaukee won the 1974 WIBC doubles bowling championship with 1313 pins. They were just two pins off the tournament record. The mark of 1315 was set by Judy and Gloria Bouvia of Portland, Ore., in 1969.

Mrs. Leszczynski rolled 674 on games of 196, 234 and 244. Mrs. Miller had a 639 total on games of 222, 255 and 162. It was Mrs. Miller's second WIBC crown. A physical education teacher, she won the 1967 All-Events title.

"Will the spectators please take their seats."

Don't move. Hold your breath. Stifle that sneeze. It's hard on the sensitive athletes.

Except when Billie Jean King plays. Then it is okay. No holds barred.

"The trouble with tennis," says Billie Jean, who has been in the front of the let-'em-yell campaign, "is that it is too stuffy."

"I think noise is good for the game."

Soaring Medical Bills Blamed For Aiding National Insurance

WASHINGTON (AP) — Skyrocketing medical bills are "giving ammunition to people who want nationalization of the health industry," Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare Caspar W. Weinberger said today.

Weinberger made it clear in an interview that he opposes any further federal controls on doctors and hospitals.

"There has got to be some voluntary restraint or, without it, there will have to be some sort of government cost controls," the secretary said.

Health care costs have risen 50 per cent faster than the over-all rate of inflation since federal wage-price controls were lifted April 30, Weinberger said.

Eight per cent of the Gross National Product is spent on health, he said, and that could exceed 10 per cent if the present rate of price increases continues.

"That means every individual with a health bill will have to pay a larger portion of his total income for medical care than he has ever had to before," Weinberger said.

Unless checked, inflation will add more than $9.1 billion to the price American consumers pay for medical care over the next two years, Weinberger said on Thursday.

In a speech before the American Association of Medical Clinics, he urged the health care industry to cool down its inflationary spiral or face the prospect of an outraged public demanding federal intervention.

He said that if voluntary cooperation fails, "the American people are in real trouble on the health care front."

Rising health care costs now threaten to add another billion dollars to the federal budget.

increase that he delivered to Congress this spring, he said.

At that time he argued unsuccessfully for extension of federal wage-price controls on health care, which expired April 30.

The American Medical Association and the American Hospital Association have said their price increases were an expected bulge after nearly three years of profit limitations.

"Since price controls were lifted, the cost of medical care has increased 50 per cent faster than the economy as a whole — and this we must and will moderate," Weinberger said.

He said physician fees have jumped at an annual rate of 19.1 per cent and hospital charges at an annual rate of 17.7 per cent, compared with an over-all inflation rate of 12.5 per cent.

Rain Brings Trouble To Burley Leaf Crop

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) —

Eight days of rain have brought trouble to Kentucky's burley tobacco farmers, but a University of Kentucky agricultural economist says he expects next week's burley tobacco poundage estimate to be up from a month ago.

The poundage estimate on Aug. 12 was 563 million pounds.

Milton Shuffett explained that the rains after the last poundage estimate and prior to last week's deluge were a "net plus" for weight.

Between two and seven inches of rain has been dumped on Kentucky's major cash crop in the past eight days.

Shuffett said that in areas where the rainfall was not too heavy, late-planted tobacco kept growing, "whereas, under normal conditions this time of year, we come into the dryer season and the plant tends to slow down on growth."

Tobacco in the field for a wilting period was soaked by the continual rains.

Another problem which farmers faced was houseburn, or "rot," a condition caused by high humidity without heat, affecting tobacco already in the barn.

Dr. Joe Smiley, tobacco specialist in the University of Kentucky agronomy department, said "there's no doubt" that tobacco already cut and caught in the field and some in the barn was damaged by the rainfall.

He said that coke, used as a heating element, was almost nonexistent, and farmers not already equipped with gas heating equipment and who bought gas last year, could probably not get it this year.

Smiley said two factors lessened the houseburn problem: —most tobacco had not been in the barn long enough for such a condition to develop.

—the temperature during the rainfall was not high enough to cause houseburn.

Members Named To State Horse Council

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) —

Gov. Wendell Ford has appointed six members to the Kentucky Horse Council.

They were: Mrs. Charles Crabtree, Simpsonville; John R. Gaines, Lexington; Ben P. Walden, Midway; P. J. Baugh, Lexington; Frederick L. Van Lennep, Lexington, and Douglas A. Hughes, Crestwood.

Ford also appointed Mrs. Nancy Latham, Elkton, and Chester Milton Owens, Bowling Green, to the County Officials Compensation Board.

And he appointed George French, Louisville, to the Prevailing Wage Review Board.

Nixon Expects Indictment, Hopes For Pardon From Ford

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former President Richard M. Nixon expects to be indicted in the Watergate cover-up case but is hopeful of a pardon from President Ford, the Washington Post said today in a story quoting friends and associates who have visited with Nixon in recent days.

The Post said they described the former President as a despondent man who spends much of his time looking through stacks of unanswered mail, playing the piano, walking on the beach.

The story, by reporter Lou Cannon and datelined San Clemente, Calif., quoted one unidentified Nixon friend as saying, "He's terribly depressed, with much to be depressed about."

The friend continued, "Any-one would be depressed in his situation. I don't mean he's going off the deep end. I just mean that everything happened to him, seemingly all at once, and he doesn't know what to do about it."

The Post said Nixon, living in near isolation at his seaside estate at San Clemente, has delayed any decisions about his life as a former president, pending resolution of his legal problems.

"He just can't say anything or do anything until (Special Watergate Prosecutor Leon) Jaworski acts," the Post quoted one person who has spoken with Nixon. "It's a terrible period for him."

The newspaper also quoted another friend, while not suggesting that Nixon has lost control, as saying the President's mind wanders when he talks. The friend described Nixon as absent-minded.

THE KING'S SONS will present special music Sunday, Sept. 8, from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. at the Old Salem Baptist Church. Members of the group are Rand McClure, Tony McClure, Bill Salmon, Gary McClure and Lloyd McClure. Vester Moreland is pastor of the church, which is located three miles southeast of Murray on Hwy. 121 at the junction of Old Salem Road.

Miss Kentucky Winner In Miss America Preliminary

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) —

Miss Kentucky, Darlene Compton, a University of Louisville graduate student, won the second talent award at the Miss America Pageant preliminaries Thursday night.

She sang "Mira" from the musical "Carnival."

Carrying a suitcase and wearing a blue dress and a white beribboned straw hat, she sang the ballad about a naive young woman who longs for "a street that I can know, and places I can go where everybody knows my name."

Miss Compton, who is 25, is preparing to take oral exams to finish her masters degree in music.

Earlier Thursday, the head of the pageant said daredevil Evel Knievel "isn't stealing any of our thunder" this year.

Albert A. Marks conceded that the pageant's appeal shares a certain escapist quality with Knievel's planned extravaganza — a Sky-Cycle leap over the Snake River, Idaho, canyon Sunday.

But, he said, Knievel is "nuts."

"That's just a personal opinion," he added.

"Our girls neither jump high, fly so far and they're never over a grand canyon that we know of," said Marks.

Marks made the statement to a roomful of reporters. Despite earlier indications that news organizations have shown less interest in the pageant than in past years, press attendance at the nation's oldest beauty contest has increased this year.

Body Found At Pennyrite Park

HOPKINSVILLE, Ky. (AP) —

The body of an Evansville, Ind. man has been found in the lake at Pennyrite State Park.

Christian County Sheriff David Norfleet said the man's hands had been handcuffed behind his back.

The victim was identified as Richard Lawson Stevens, 47.

Christian County Deputy Coroner Alan Beard said the death resulted from drowning. Both the coroner's and sheriff's offices are continuing their investigation into the death.

The body was found about 11 p.m. Wednesday by a local rescue squad.

Stevens' family had reported him missing after he failed to return home from what he had described as an overnight trip to the state park.

Ministers Make Plans For Year Here Thursday

The Murray-Calloway County Ministerial Association voted to participate in the MSU TV-Channel 11 FOCUS Program weekly during the television season, starting immediately, according to Dr. James A. Fisher, who presided at their September meeting held Thursday at the First Christian Church Library. Pastor David Roos served as host.

Mrs. A. C. LaFollette was the Association's special guest who presented the Lauback Teaching Method, "Each One Teach One" and urged the ministers to have volunteers at the School of Instruction September 16, 17, and 18 at 6:30 p.m. at the First United Methodist Church.

Mrs. LaFollette also reported on the Bi-Centennial Forums to be held this fall emphasizing the churches' role in early Kentucky History, the Church and Public Affairs, and the Church and its relationship to the State.

The Ministerial Association approved its continued participation in the five minute devotionals each afternoon - Monday through Friday on MSU TV Channel 11. It also voted to continue the weekly column titled "Contemporary Religious Thought" featured in the Murray Ledger and Times with Rev. John Churchwell serving as chairman.

The Association provides the following ministries to the area: Chaplaincy to the Murray-Calloway County Hospital and Convalescent Unit, Sunday Afternoon Worship Service to the Calloway County Jail, Weekly Worship Services for the Westview Nursing Home, and Monthly Worship Service for the Fern Terrace Lodge.

Newly elected officers include Fisher as president, Rev. Paul Wanger as vice-president, Rev. Jerrell White as treasurer and Keeper of the Poor Fund, and Dr. David Roos, secretary.

Funerals

Funeral Saturday For Jack Howard

Funeral services for Carlton H. (Jack) Howard of Route Three, Paris, Tenn., have been set for 10:30 a.m. Saturday at Ridgeway Morticians, Paris, Tenn., with Rev. Jerry Lee officiating. Burial will be in Hillcrest Cemetery.

Palbearers will be Ben Nanne, James Harold Linman, Earl Townsend, Hallie Ray, Junior Kuykendall and John Townsend.

Howard died at his home early Wednesday morning at the age of 70. He is survived by his wife Ruby; a daughter, Mrs. Richard (Margie) Caldwell; a son, Carl Howard, all of Paris; and six grandchildren.

The deceased worked with the livestock auction at Murray and Paris.

Rev. Thomas H. Shelton

Rev. Shelton Is Hazel Speaker

A revival meeting will be held at the Hazel Baptist Church beginning Sunday, September 8, and continuing through Sunday morning, September 15.

The evangelist for the meeting will be Rev. Thomas H. Shelton, Director of Evangelism for the Kentucky Baptist Convention. He is a native of West Kentucky, a former pastor of Memorial Baptist Church in Murray, and a member of a widely known "preacher family" of West Kentucky. His Grandfather Shelton was a Baptist pastor and he is the son of Rev. T. G. Shelton, a widely known pastor in Calloway County and surrounding areas. His brother, Rev. R. G. Shelton is Superintendent of Missions of the Green Valley Baptist Association in Henderson.

Bro. Shelton has been active in evangelism conducting many area revivals as well as church revivals.

Gene Orr Miller and Dr. James B. Carlin will be in charge of the music for the services.

Revival services will be at 10:00 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. on weekdays and at 11:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m. on Sundays.

Rev. James T. Garland, pastor, and the Hazel church invite everyone to attend these services.

Presbyterians To Hold Banquet And Painting Session

The first Presbyterian Church has planned a Mother-Daughter Banquet for Sunday at five p.m. in the church fellowship hall. The dinner will be prepared by David Dickson and served by a group of men from the congregation.

Tickets will be $1.50 for Mothers and 75 cents for daughters under twelve. For reservations, call Betty Robertson at 753-7774.

The women of the church held a shower on Tuesday evening on behalf of the church kitchen. Members donated sugar, coffee, utensils, linens, dishes, glassware, and cleaning supplies.

The kitchen will be painted next week by a team of women headed by Janet Kirk who said she will be glad to hear from additional volunteers. Her phone number is 753-7418.

situation in various communities, I feel that a better result would have occurred."

Smiling, the thickly bearded former University of Kentucky history major admitted "that I had suffered some minor trouble because of moving around so much, but never anything I couldn't fix where I stopped next."

Antique buffs would have a field day inside of the converted moving van which, incidentally, is air conditioned for the visitors' comfort. Iron kettles and primitive cooking utensils surround the authentic wood fireplace and rustic log benches provide seats as the film is viewed.

"I think this film is one of the better ones the state has ever used," he said, "because it seems to reach out and capture the viewer's spirit of adventure."

Mike Waddell, a Louisville free-lancer, was the creator of the production which used Kentucky actors and realistic settings. "There has been talk of bringing the Kentucky Educational Television system into future presentations such as this," Gatewood speculated, "which would be great for our promotions."

Talking about how the Historymobile has been received across the Commonwealth, he laughed as he lit a crooked pipe, "You'll think I'm just saying this, but the people in the western portion of the state have really accepted the display better than in any other region."

"In fact, I'm due to head home soon to meet a couple who have been hired to help me on the road and afterwards, we all are going to head east and spend some time there to promote the unit."

Optimistic about the future of Historymobiles, he indicated that he thought someday "there might be four or five on Kentucky's roads at the same time. . . it would not at all be impossible."

From Murray, Gatewood has scheduled to pull his rig to Owensboro for the next showing and from there to Bowling Green. And beyond that, the Commonwealth's borders are the limits in his long journey towards giving all Kentuckians a look at their past in an idea of the future.

District Nursing Workshop To Be At Mason Hall

Murray State University and KNA District 13 will conduct a workshop entitled "Creating a Climate for Mental Health" - "Conscious Raising in Nursing Practice" on Wednesday, October 2, at Murray State University Nursing Building, Mason Hall.

Committee Chairmen Isabel Lopez is an instructor of nursing at MSU. Committee members include Lou Ann Atkins, Kathryn Culbert, Patsy Denison, Roberta Garfield, Joyce Morrison, Mona Purdom and Vida Trenholm.

Realizing the importance of continuing education for all health oriented personnel, the committee believes the workshop will be of benefit to interested individuals.

The general purpose of the workshop is to improve interpersonal relationships by exploring problems, ideas and solutions while sharing learning and increasing awareness of self and others, committee members said.

The morning session will begin with registration 8:00-8:45 a.m. The group will then divide into specific areas of individual interest with topics including: Depression, Anxiety and Fear, Manipulative, Demanding "problem" patients, and Hostility and Aggression. Group leaders have been designated for each discussion topic.

The afternoon session beginning at 1:30 p.m. will include reports from discussion groups and a multi-disciplinary panel will be available for questions.

Advance registration by September 15 is necessary for the planning committee to arrange discussion groups. Registration forms may be obtained from committee members, Murray-Calloway Co. Hospital Nursing Office, Murray School of Practical Nursing, and Murray State University Nursing building.

Benefit Country Music Show To Be On Saturday

The annual benefit country music show for the Calloway County Mental Retarded Children will be held Saturday, September 7, at 7:30 p.m. at the Murray Middle School auditorium.

Proceeds from the show will go to the Calloway County Association for Mental Retarded Children and all the money will stay in Calloway county, a spokesman said.

The show had originally been scheduled for Friday, September 6, but due to the Murray High football game at Holland Stadium, the show was changed to Saturday, September 7.

Featured at the show will be Bun Wilson and His Group, Recording Vocalist Janice Lynn from Nashville, Tenn., Jan and Jim Allbright, Dany Mack, and various other country music vocalists and groups.

The show is sponsored each year by the Calloway County Association for the Mental Retarded Children. Leon Phillips, president, with the assistance of Gary Nance of Murray and Bun Wilson.

Girl Scouts To Hold Meeting Here Monday

The Murray Neighborhood of the Bear Creek Council of the Girl Scouts, USA will hold its organizational and registration meeting Monday, Sept. 9 at 7:30 p.m. at Robertson School. The Neighborhood includes Calloway County.

Parents of all girls between the ages of 6 and 17 are invited to attend.

Girl Scouts is the largest national organization for girls. Recreational and educational programs are available in four age levels: Brownies (grades 1-3), Juniors (grades 4-6), Cadettes (grades 7-9) and Seniors (grades 9-12). Activities center around weekly troop meetings under the guidance of volunteer adults trained by the Bear Creek Council.

The broad program has interests for all girls. Individual and group projects in citizenship, homemaking, the arts, and out-of-doors fun encourage friendship and service to others, a spokesman said.

Mrs. Gordon Loberger, Neighborhood Chairman, announces that troop sizes will meet national standards. Mrs. James Byrn serves as Troop Organizer for Calloway County.

Practical Nurses To Hold Meeting Tuesday

The Licensed Practical Nurses will meet Tuesday, September 10, at seven p.m. in the conference room of the Murray-Calloway County Hospital.

This will be a business meeting and LPNs are urged to attend, a spokesman said.

staff on bill requests. That would give the staff up to six weeks to draft bills before the session began in early January, he said.

Further, he said, it would enable the legislators to introduce up to one-half the entire session's bills on the first day of that session, rather than half-way through it.

"It would require a lot of work, but it can be done and it's got to be done," Carroll declared.

"Demands on you are increasing," he continued. "We can't afford to take the chance of being wrong by cramming most of the significant work of a session into the final weeks."

"There no longer is anything you can do that does not directly affect some individual or some business," he asserted. "We can't make mistakes."

Another of Carroll's suggestions was to have a legislative coordinator be named for each major state department. That person would attend interim legislative committee meetings, bringing legislative proposals and facts of the agency's operations to it.

Senior Citizens Plan Fontana Village Trip

The Senior Citizens of Murray and Calloway County have made plans for a bus trip to Fontana Village, North Carolina, adjoining The Great Smoky Mountains National Park.

Verona Grogan, director of the Senior Citizens program, said thirty persons are needed in order for the group to make the trip for the three days on October 14, 15, and 16.

Mrs. Grogan said the cost will be $29.00 for the bus fare and $8.00 for the lodging for two nights at the two bedroom cottages there, this $37.00 does not include meals or any other extra sight seeing, Mrs. Grogan said.

Persons must pay the $29.00 on or before September 19 before their names will be on the list to go and the balance for the rooms must be paid by October 4, the director said.

All interested persons in Murray and Calloway County are urged to attend. The group will leave Murray on Monday, October 14, at seven a.m. and arrive at Fontana Village at seven p.m. the same day. They will return on Wednesday, October 16.
