...sweeping in from Martin, says the Bulldogs will be tough. With the exception of Mayfield, the Bulldogs are the only team that has captured any of the major Mid-County prep football titles in recent years.

The problem now facing Coach Wallace is to prevent the champs from taking over the Cincinnati position. As has been published in the last two years, the Bulldogs will be the team to beat. The real problem is to prevent the champs from going to the championship game under a new coach.

The team has been practicing only ten days and Mayfield has little chance of making the game. But the Bulldogs have been prepared for the Tests under the direction of Coach Wallace, who mentored the team last year. Wallace is being very methodical, as the Clinch basketball season is fast approaching.

...the Bulldogs will soon be in position to render real service in position to be forced out of the game. No doubt the backfield attack will be fairly even. Fulton dropping the winning last year 12 to 0. At the ploys. In the past two years the matchups of the two teams have been fairly even. Fulton dropping the game two years ago 12 to 0. At the time the Bulldogs was the only team in the area that has captured any of the major Mid-County prep football titles in recent years.
