NO ONE INJURED — No one was injured in two accidents which occurred this morning about ten miles north of Murray on Highway 641. State Police said Ed Brandon, 405 N. Cherry, reported meeting a car with its bright lights on at about 5:25 a. m. today, and lost control of his vehicle, which turned on its side at the bottom of a steep bank. About an hour later, Homer Smothers, driving a truck loaded with 150 wooden crossies, was also heading north on 641, and said cars were backed up at the site of the first accident, and he had to leave the road to keep from hitting them. The Smothers truck left the road on the west side, and the Brandon car had left the road on the east side.

641 To Be Zoned Business

Council Authorizes Zoning Ordinance For Annexation On North Side Of City

A zoning ordinance for the over 1,100 acre annexation on the north side of Murray was ordered drawn by the Murray City Council last night following a lengthy discussion and a change in the recommended zoning proposed by the Murray Planning Commission.

The council voted 8-4 in favor of commercial zoning for a strip on either side of U.S. 641 from the northern city limits to a point intersecting with the property line of the city owned sanitation system garage, near Bee Creek.

Much of the area, which has been a subject of controversy between the council and the planning commission, had been recommended by the commission to be zoned for high density residential and agricultural purposes.

Voting in favor of the change in the recommendation were councilmen W. R. Furches, Melyin Henley, Howard Koenen, Art Lee, Tom Rushing, Phillip Tibbs and Fred Workman. Opposed to the change were councilmen Rex Alexander, H. Ed Chrisman, Jerry Henry and Dave Willis. Mrs. Jo Crass was absent from the meeting.

In other action related to planning and zoning, the council approved the employment of Dan Grimes to replace Richard Nash in the position of City Planner and Building Inspector. Nash has resigned his position effective October 31 to take a position with a Paducah firm. Grimes is expected to begin work Monday.

The council also approved the appointment of Robert R. (Buddy) Buckingham to a four year term on the Board of Zoning Adjustment. Buckingham had just completed filling out the unexpired term of Guy Spann, who had resigned from the board.

Grimes, age 25, is a graduate of Murray State University with a degree in urban and regional planning and geography. He is presently taking graduate level courses at MSU toward a degree in guidance and counseling.

He and his wife, Sondra, both natives of Frankfort, make their home at 831 Glendale Road with their two-year-old son, Jason.

Mrs. Grimes is a psychologist with the Murray Comprehensive Care Center.

Grimes has worked as a student intern with the Purchasing Area Development District in the physical planning section.

Report On Central Purchasing For City Explained To Council

A study on the feasibility of centralization of purchasing for all city departments was presented to the members of the Murray City Council last night. Dr. Rex Alexander, chairman of the council's purchasing committee which has been investigating the idea, introduced Dr. Maurice G. Clabaugh of Murray State University who explained a study prepared by himself, Robert L. Warren, Jules Harcourt, Drane Shelley and other university connected personnel on behalf of the city.

The researchers listed three alternatives to current purchasing procedures and said that, in their opinion, the best alternative would be to hire a full-time purchasing agent "with the intent of ultimately achieving complete centralization of City purchasing."

The researchers reported that Murray State has offered assistance in training a purchasing agent for the city over a six-month period.

Clabaugh also pointed out that the city could realize substantial savings on office supplies by purchasing them through the central stores at the university. He added that the city could utilize state contracts on equipment and other purchases and possibly realize considerable savings.

Dr. Alexander's committee will study the proposals and make a recommendation to the council at a later date.

In other business, the council authorized the police department to sell a police car and postponed action on radio equipment for the Fire Department.

The council authorized the sanitation department to purchase a giant vacuum leaf loader in an effort to alleviate a leaf problem within the city. Councilman Dave Willis made the proposal to the council and reported two models were

The Murray Postoffice will be closed all day Monday, October 28, in observance of Veterans Day, a national holiday.

No rural or city mail delivery will be made, according to G. B. Jones, superintendent of mails. Mail will be placed in the postoffice boxes and stamps will be available in the stamp machine in the lobby.

The holiday dispatch schedule will be observed and persons are asked not to call the Postoffice on Monday as only a "skeleton" crew will be on duty, Jones said.

Nixon Request For Transcripts Granted

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. District Judge John J. Sirica today granted a request by Richard M. Nixon's lawyers that the former president be supplied with transcripts of White House tape recordings so he can prepare to testify at the Watergate cover-up trial.

Meanwhile, former White House counsel John W. Dean III was on the witness stand today for his eighth, and possibly last, day of testimony.

Nixon's attorney, Herbert J. Miller, requested the transcripts recently, pointing out that Nixon had no other records available to him and could not come to Washington to prepare adequately because of his illness.

Nixon has been suffering from phlebitis, a blood clot condition, since before he left the White House.

He has been subpoenaed as a witness by both the prosecution and defense and Miller said recently he expected to be able to report soon that Nixon was well enough to come to Washington and testify.

However, Nixon was hospitalized in Long Beach, Calif., Wednesday night because blood clots in his leg were not responding to drug treatment and doctors said Thursday the former president may have to undergo surgery.

There has been no word to the court on whether Miller's earlier prediction that Nixon would be able to testify still stands in light of his present condition.

Temper in the courtroom became so strained Thursday that Sirica threatened to take action to prevent "a carnival atmosphere."

"I mean it," the 70-year-old federal judge said, exasperated and often angered by continual bickering and back-biting among lawyers. "If I don't get the cooperation I want, I'm going to have to do something about it."

As its second witness, the government planned to call E. Howard Hunt Jr., the former CIA agent and White House consultant, who pleaded guilty to being one of the principals in the Watergate break-in.

City System To Hold Line On Lunch Prices Despite Losses

School lunch prices will not be raised at this time in the Murray City School system, despite a report given to the board of education Thursday that says the program lost $334 from August 26 through October 11.

A report prepared by Food Service Director Margot McIntosh, presented to the Murray Board of Education Thursday, showed 39,984 meals prepared in the period, with income of $27,704 and expenses of $28,038.

The board decided not to raise prices of school lunches at this time, but asked for another report to be given in December, with a close examination of that time.

In other action, Donald Henry was asked to serve as chairman of the board for the remainder of this calendar year, after the resignation of Dr. C. C. Lowry. Will Ed Stokes was elected to serve as vice-chairman.

A discussion was held on a report from Dr. Mary Ann Russell and Murray High Principal Eli Alexander on the philosophy and objectives of Murray High. Dr. Russell is the committee chairman for the self-study the school is conducting for the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

When a new bus is put into operation next week, the bus fleet of the city schools will number six, with one bus for a reserve. It was noted that the number will leave the system "in good shape" for the winter months.

Supt. Fred Schultz reported on the security of school buildings, and it was the consensus of the board that security lights be continued and certain restrictions be placed on the use of school parking lots after hours.

Five MSU Economists At Monetary Meeting Today

Five representatives of the College of Business and Public Affairs, four from the Department of Economics, at Murray State University are in Louisville today (Friday) participating in discussions on the nation's economy.

Participating in the meeting, sponsored by the research department of the Federal Reserve Bank at St. Louis, are: Dr. John Lindauer, dean of the college; Dr. Howard Giles, chairman of the Department of Economics; and Dr. Gilbert Mathis, Dr. Leonard Elzie and Dr. Dan Harrison, all professors of economics.

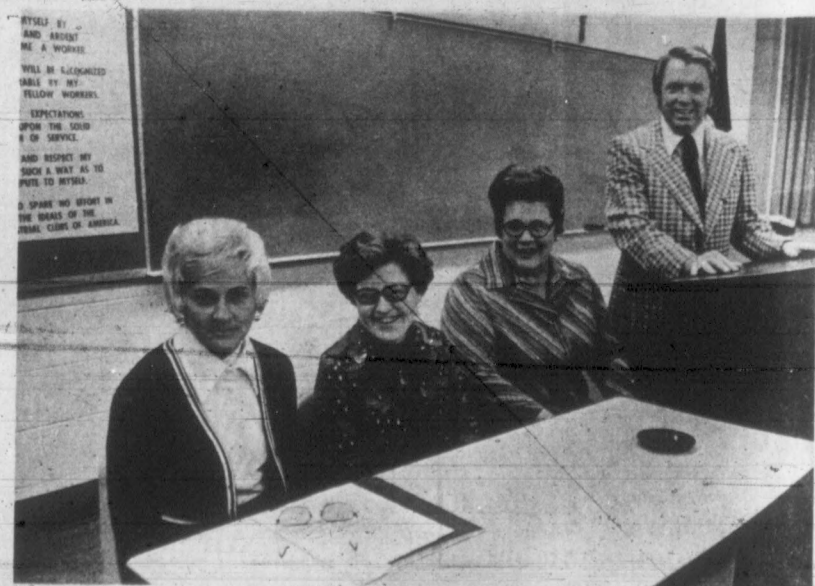

The meeting, being held at the Louisville branch of the Federal Reserve system, was called primarily to discuss problems in the international monetary area, according to Dr. Giles.

The discussions are being led by Ted Balbach of the St. Louis bank and are dealing with the current state of the nation's economy, economic forecasts for the United States in the months ahead and the roles of the Federal Reserve banks in relation to the money supply in the determination of the gross national product.

TerHorst Says Ford's Experience As Congressman Slowing Him Down

Former Presidential Press Secretary Jerald terHorst said here Thursday that President Ford's experience as a congressman is slowing him down in assuming strong leadership of the country.

TerHorst, who spoke at Murray State University Thursday, said "the congressional 'layer has not yet peeled off' Ford, and is standing in the way of strong leadership of the country."

The journalist from Detroit made his observations in a "rap session" Thursday afternoon at Ordway Hall. He also held a press conference on university television, and spoke at eight p.m. at Lovett Auditorium. TerHorst made his most candid observations of Ford at the "rap session," but did not return in depth to the subject at either the press conference or his lecture.

The press secretary for one month, terHorst resigned his position after disagreeing with Ford's pardon of former President Richard Nixon.

He noted that Mr. Ford "still is more of a congressional president than he is a presidential president." He continued that "I think that probably in time, and I hope soon rather than later, he'll realize that and become a strong presidential president. What I'm saying is that President Ford should push the congressional Ford in a closet someplace."

TerHorst, the Washington bureau chief for the Detroit News, said that his stand on the pardon has not changed, even after developments such as Nixon's latest health reports.

"I grew up with the understanding the Constitution provided equal justice for all," he said. "I really felt that an act of forgiveness, which pardon really is, actually cannot precede an act of confession...but must follow."

The former press secretary said he would not be so hard as to call President Ford politically naive, but that his recent campaign statements "have not seemed to help the Republican cause very much. There is not much that can be gained by that kind of rhetoric."

YOU BORN TODAY: The native of Scorpio is a brilliant, magnetic and usually powerful individual. Those born on this particular date, however, are usually more warmhearted and sentimental than their counterparts; also have a touch of the poetic and the mystic not always found in the Scorpio.

You have tremendous business acumen and may start life out in the fields of commerce or banking but, later in life, could quite possibly, abandon the whole thing (even though successful), to pursue either a more intellectual or artistic career. These leanings are within you from birth and you will probably never be content until you have given them a true outlet. You may take up art, literature or music as an avocation—and wind up successfully commercializing it.

You may have an affinity for science also, and, in this area, would be happiest in medicine. Birthdate of: Mahalia Jackson, noted gospel singer.

Has thirteen kids and she's proud of it

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1974 by The Chicago Tribune

DEAR ABBY: I am a good Catholic woman. God gave me 13 children and I am proud of it. When people find out how many kids I have, they look at me like I committed some kind of crime. I am not on welfare, and I am not asking anybody else to help me raise them.

Some people ask me if I ever heard of birth control. I have, but the only method permitted by the Catholic Church is called "the rhythm system."

Why can't people mind their own business?

—PROUD MOTHER

DEAR PROUD: One reason may be that they are concerned about a very real problem, which cannot be ignored. It's overpopulation.

At present, the world population is increasing at the rate of about 68 million a year—much more than the total population of Great Britain, France, Italy, or West Germany!

Every day there are 185,000 more mouths to feed. This means that the present world population of 3,632 million will double by the year 2010!

But criticizing parents of large families after the fact strikes me as not only irrelevant to future solutions, but as meddlesome and unkind.

DEAR ABBY: Our son, who will be 16 his next birthday, is fast-talking, persuasive and attractive. Jeff can charm the birds out of the trees when he wants to. He keeps making remarks like: "I can't wait until my next birthday so I can drive." He's all set to sign up for driver's ed in school.

He doesn't have a car to drive, and we hadn't planned on buying him one, but he's been buttering up his grandparents lately, hoping they will buy him a car for his sixteenth birthday. (I have news for him. He still needs OUR permission to drive.)

Jeff's grades are just so-so, he doesn't always keep his word, and he has to show a lot more maturity and responsibility before we'll let him drive.

He had a summer job and didn't save a dime. How do we get it across to this boy that just because the law says he's old enough to drive doesn't necessarily mean he's going to?

MOM AND POP

DEAR M. AND P.: You seem articulate enough. Why don't you just TELL him?

DEAR ABBY: I would like to just walk away from my home and husband, and start a new life somewhere where nobody knows me.

I hate being married. I've been married for 25 years. I have no children at home. I didn't really want to get married and I didn't have to, but in those days, social pressures made a girl feel like if she wasn't married there must be something the matter with her.

Abby, could this feeling I have be the "change of life" blues?

RESTLESS

DEAR RESTLESS: Could be. Women in their middle years (men, too) sometimes become depressed and dissatisfied with their lot. That "let-down" feeling could be caused by a hormonal change. Get a thorough physical checkup without delay, and tell your doctor what's on your mind. I promise you, he's heard that tune before. There IS help for you.

Everyone has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to ABBY: Box No. 69700, L.A., Calif. 90069. Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope, please.

For Abby's booklet, "How to Have a Lovely Wedding," send $1 to Abigail Van Buren, 132 Lasky Dr., Beverly Hills, Calif. 90212.

Corporations Must Stop Profiteering

The announcement by the Great Western United Corp., the nation's largest beet sugar corporation, that its after-tax profits soared 1,200 per cent during the third quarter of this year is hard to accept from our vantage point.

Great Western officials credited the sharp boost in earnings, from 3 cents per share during the same period in 1973 to $9.23 per share this year, to the continuing high level of sugar prices.

An increase in profits is healthy for any business, and practically every business has been forced to hike prices in the past year in order to meet higher costs for raw materials and overhead, but a twelve fold increase in profits, from $1.6 million in 1973 to $20.96 million this year, smacks of profit-mongering at the expense of the everyday citizen of this nation.

Sugar prices have increased from 79 cents for five pounds to as much as $2.50 in some parts of the country, because we have been told, costs of producing sugar beets and sugar cane have leaped. Apparently these costs have not risen as much as we have been lead to believe. If they had, the profit margin would not have grown by leaps and bounds.

The major corporations of our country, like Great Western and Shell Oil, which, by the way announced a profit increase of over 150 per cent last week, can do a great deal more for our nationwide battle against inflation and a sagging economy than can the average citizen, who seems to be complying as best he can with inflation-fighting measures requested by the administration.

These corporations must hold the line on profits, they too, must change their "life-style" just as the housewife has been forced to revamp her weekly shopping list to make ends meet.

How can we expect to win the first battle in our war on inflation if this grossly exaggerated profiteering continues?

Let's Stay Well

Classification Of Severity Of Heart Attacks

By F.J.L. Blasingame, M.D.

After a heart attack, the major question concerns the extent of damage to the heart and its ability to carry on its function.

To assist in the management of care after a heart attack, the American Heart Association has issued a new table of classification, published in The Journal of the American Medical Association. The grouping includes four degrees of damage, depending on the severity of the attack. They are as follows:

1. Uncompromised: The outlook is favorable. The muscle of the heart has no significant damage. Its beating is unimpaired. The heart pumps satisfactorily and has some reserve capacity. Little regular treatment is required.

2. Slightly compromised: Prognosis is also favorable. Some muscle is damaged permanently, and its power is impaired. Regular treatment may be required to make the most of the residual heart muscle, which has less, but adequate, reserve strength. Activity has to be more carefully watched.

3. Moderately compromised: The outlook is less favorable, even with treatment. The remaining heart muscle is more limited, and activities have to be cut down. Treatment has to be followed to lessen the burdens on the heart and to utilize medications, diet, and exercise to best advantage.

4. Severely compromised: Prognosis is guarded in spite of treatment. The remaining heart muscle is limited. Its blood supply may be impaired by narrowing of the other coronary arteries. The heart beat may be irregular or speed up on slight exertion. Regular treatment is needed to assist the patient in scheduling activities and managing medications judiciously to avoid heart failure.

After any heart attack, the tolerance of the heart to carry out its function is the best measure of its reserve. When done deliberately, tasks can be performed and tolerated which would compromise the heart if done in a rush. Gaining weight and smoking add to the work load of the heart muscle.

Such classifications will aid the physician in managing the care following a heart attack and assist the patient in understanding the severity of the illness in the hope that he will cooperate.

Q: I am certain that I pass much more urine on some days than others. Could such differences mean that something is wrong with my kidneys?

A: Such differences do not mean that you have kidney trouble. Urine output is influenced by your fluid intake and diet and the amount of moisture you lose from your breath, bowel, and skin. The best procedure is to have a urine examination if you have not done so in recent months.

Q: Does honey have any unique value?

A: No. Honey is a source of carbohydrate — about 60 calories per tablespoonful. In addition, honey contains meager amounts of iron — much less than other common foods, such as eggs, oatmeal, or cane syrup. Of course, for many persons, honey has a pleasant flavor.

GOD'S CONCERN FOR JUSTICE

Amos lived in a day when there was great prosperity, but also many evidences of moral and spiritual deterioration. With penetrating insight he took note of the social, political, moral, and spiritual conditions throughout the land. Abhorring the terrible wickedness of the people, Amos called upon them to repent of their sins, to get right with God, and to be ethical in their living.

Amos 5:10-15

There is such a surprising similarity between the shocking picture which Amos painted of his day and the conditions in our world today that one is prone to think that the prophet was describing the age in which we live. In speaking to the people of Israel, Amos denounced their sins of hating judgment, oppressing the poor, perverting justice, practicing idolatry, failing to perform their spiritual duties, and practicing gross immorality. Wealthy and greedy landlords took advantage of the helpless poor and defrauded them in every manner possible. They did not have a semblance of pity for the poor or compassion upon them. Even those whose task it was to administer justice were so corrupt that they permitted the rich to rob the poor of their very rights. It is a sad day in any country when such injustice is permitted to prevail. After Amos had denounced the terrible sins of the people, he foretold the inevitable and approaching judgment which was coming upon them. He made it clear that it is utterly impossible for any people to indulge in such sins without being subjected to the judgment and chastisement of God. Amos let the people know that their sins would never prove to be profitable to them. In the final analysis people never profit by bribery or crooked dealing of any sort. Gains acquired wrongfully take their toll in the deterioration of character on the part of those who get them. Mistreatment of the poor is despicable in the eyes of God and of right-thinking people.

God's prophet earnestly and urgently admonished the Israelites to repent, to turn away from the evil habits which they had cultivated with such assiduity, to turn to the good, to be zealous in doing good, and to establish righteousness in the land in the hope that "it may be that the Lord God of hosts will be gracious."

It is a certainty that God will not manifest His presence and power in the midst of His people, nor in their behalf, when they are living in open sin. To do so would make Him a partner in their sins, and that He has always refused to be. Through Amos, God warned the people that there was still time for them to repent and to find grace in His sight. What God was longing for was true righteousness. He still longs for the same. He will not accept prayers, church attendance, or contributions of money as a substitute for obedience to Him. He is the God of absolute consistency.

In spite of their observance of many religious assemblies and feasts, underneath all of their outward show there remained many corrupt practices and terrible sins. With their many religious services they hoped to obtain the favor of God and at the same time to continue in their sinful ways. But all of the pomp and display, which characterized their religious services, was an offense to God. God abhors religious observances that are not accompanied by upright living. He requires obedience to Himself, and compassion and justice toward others.

Amos 8:4-6

Without hesitation Amos, God's fearless prophet, here turned the fire of righteous indignation against those outwardly respectable and professedly religious, but greedy, proud, immoral, idolatrous, self-indulgent, and dishonest schemers and hypocrites, and denounced them harshly and strongly because of their injustice and wrong treatment of others. Amos emphasized the great truth that outwardly perfunctory religion is not sufficient. Any pretense of religion which is accompanied by unkind, unfair, and dishonest dealings with others makes a complete mockery of one's faith.

In their consuming desire for greater riches many of the rich actually and indignantly begrudged the new moon and the sabbath because it was necessary to suspend business transactions on those days, thus depriving them of the privilege of exploiting, oppressing, and robbing others.

Amos told the people that God would not ignore the evil works of the rebellious, disobedient, unfaithful, and impatient. Neither will God allow them to escape judgment and punishment or chastisement. Amos warned his impatient listeners that a judgment was awaiting all those who deceived the people for their own personal gain; also, that God's woe would rest upon them. Both individuals and nations will receive that which they deserve because of their disobedience to God. Amos taught that God wants people to love Him supremely and to love others dearly. God doeth all things rightly, inasmuch as He is the embodiment of justice. It is His will and purpose that people shall repent and get right with Him, and then live righteous lives, thus making it possible for justice to prevail in society.

Strong Prescription

The nation's recovery from the agony of inflation will depend to a great extent on the intensity of the patient's desire to get well.

There is no alternative, really, to the prescription envisioned in an announcement from the San Clemente White House that the federal budget will be balanced in fiscal 1976, the Bicentennial year.

A balanced budget involves a cut in government spending. Slashes in federal expenditures mean cutbacks in the money supply that nourishes a sputtering economy. Congress and the business community will be quick to point out that unemployment and tight credit could be among the temporary pains of the inflation cure.

But the "maximum fiscal restraint" proposed by President Nixon for federal agencies and departments, if shared by Congress, industry and the consuming public can be an effective remedy.

And the prospect of a return to full economic health should sweeten the taste of the essential strong medicine.

Editor's Note: This is the last of three articles on unemployment conditions in some regions of the United States.

By JOAN MURARO
Copley News Service

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. — It may be like a little pregnancy or a little garlic, but the Midwest seems to be only slightly bothered by inflation, recession and unemployment.

For now, anyhow. Like the other conditions, hints of what's to come already are there.

A recently laid-off trucker, for instance, expects to get back to work within a week or so, "but I'm registering for unemployment compensation now, just in case."

Miners' wives, particularly in southern Illinois, are freezing, canning and shopping for food bargains, stockpiling against an almost inevitable strike which will leave more than 11,000 men voluntarily unemployed.

The less fortunate, involuntarily unemployed, queue up on schedule at the unemployment compensation office, the state employment office (and sometimes, eventually, the public aid office).

"I hate coming here, it de-motates me," said a former part-time public relations worker for a public social agency. "My former boss said I should, though — he'd paid for this and I'm entitled to it. But I hate it."

The unemployment compensation office stresses that the benefits aren't charity or a dole, but an earned benefit. But an elderly man referred to his day to report as "stand-in-line-day" and the attempted humor was grim.

"It hurts to know you're not wanted after you've given your best to a company for years," says another older worker, dumped by a major company in a "reorganization," which left space for younger, less experienced but cheaper help.

Of five central states sampled, Illinois falls in the middle, with Iowa in the best shape with an unemployment rate of only 3.2 (up only .1 per cent from last year). Wisconsin comes second with 4.2, followed by Illinois with 4.4, and Missouri with 4.6.

Indiana, with a jobless rate of 6.3 per cent of its general work force, is the only one of the five which would be classed as "high" by U.S. Labor Department standards. By that scale, rates of 1 through 2.9 are "very low," 3 to 5.9 are "moderate" and 6 and above is high.

The national level stands at 5.4 per cent.

If the statistics sound good compared with national figures, it's little consolation to the man or woman with continuing obligations but discontinued income, with overdue rent, facing repossession of items purchased in more hopeful times, on credit.

Actually at this time Illinois has only two serious areas of unemployment, according to Stanley Nayhouse, supervisor of research and analysis in the State Labor Department's Chicago office.

"Unemployment hasn't skyrocketed in Illinois as yet," he said. "Absorption of new workers is our biggest problem right now. The 'war babies' of a few years ago are coming into the job market in swarms, and in places where they do manage to get taken in, they tend to displace older workers, so the over-all employment picture isn't gaining."

In Missouri, there are 93,100 workers out of work as of last July, compared with 82,000 in July of last year. Missouri authorities tabulate St. Louis figures at 15,497, or 6.8 per cent, on their side of the river, and using a four county rather than a two county base for Illinois, they list 20,405 workers, or a staggering 8.3 per cent, out of work on the Illinois side.

For comparison purposes, some of Illinois' other neighboring states show the following:

Wisconsin: For the week ending Sept. 7, they added 4,730 new claims, up 1,700 from the preceding week and

2,400 more claims for unemployment compensation than a year ago. They continued to give benefits to another

25,143, which represents 6,900 more continuing cases than there were in the same week of 1973. Their estimated total claims as of Aug. 31 were 25,100. The state's major employers include the durable goods chiefly nonelectric machinery industries, employing 110,500; nondurable goods like food and kindred manufacture, 71,100; 380,000 in trade; 280,300 in service occupations; and 262,400 in government.

Indiana's work force at the end of this July totaled 2,408,000 with the unemployed numbering 152,000. Last year, there were 2,348,000 in the labor pool with 110,300 unemployed.

Breakdowns by industry were not available, but in July of this year, there were 748,200 workers in Indiana engaged in manufacturing, 577,000 producing durable goods and 171,200 manufacturing nondurable goods. In July of '73, there had been 586,000 in the durable goods industry, 169,300 working in nondurable goods, for a total of 755,300 employees.

Iowa's employment security commission reports that as of the end of last July, there were 1,346,000 workers employed, and 43,800 out of work. The same period in 1973 showed 1,306,300 working and 41,400 unemployed.

Proportionately, nonmanufacturing activities employ far more workers in Iowa than manufacturing. There were 759,400 engaged in non-manufacturing areas in 1974, compared to 742,100 in 1973, while 251,400 worked in manufacturing activities in 1974, compared to 242,800 in 1973. Manufacturing includes lumber and furniture industries, in both of which areas the figures hovered around 10,000.

Comments From Others

BARNESVILLE, MINN., RECORD-REVIEW: "Here's one that ought to make you taxpayers burn! Amtrak will receive a $155 million federal subsidy this year to operate rail passenger service in the nation. Of that amount, $600,000 is spent to buy airplane tickets so that employees of Amtrak can make business trips; trips they could have made free on Amtrak. Maybe they don't even believe in their product."

Contemporary Religious Thought

That Inscrutable Faith

By John R. Churchwell
The United Methodist Church
Hardin, Ky.

To a Christian life is a wonderful gift of God, with a divine purpose for every individual who lives. Not one of us came into the world by choice, but through the infinite wisdom of God. Man came into this world endowed with the responsibility to make the ultimate decision about his destiny—and that decision is by faith.

Often times our way is not well marked, and it is through faith, that we must be "persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord." (Rom. 8:38-39)

It is through the eye of Faith, that we see the value and reality of the invisible; and seeing such motivates us to action and service for our Lord, who we have not seen, but patiently wait His return.

Timeout With Brandon

By MIKE BRANDON
Sports Editor

The Day Of The Crawl Is Coming Rumble In The Jungle Tuesday

The day of the "rumble in the jungle" is drawing near.

What Muhammad Ali called the greatest thing since the moon walk will take place at 9 p.m. local time this coming Tuesday. Actually, in Zaire, Africa, where the fight is taking place, it will be at 4 a.m. Wednesday.

Thus far, the pre-fight publicity this time around has been very limited.

As most of you know, the fight was to have taken place in September but heavyweight champion George Foreman suffered a cut over his eye and thus the fight was postponed.

There are several reasons why Foreman would now have the advantage in the fight.

The first is a physical one, he has lost about 20 pounds and is in much better shape than he would have been if the fight would have went off as scheduled in September.

The second is a mental reason, that being that Ali might have reached his psychological peak before the fight was postponed and regaining that attitude might be impossible to do.

I will still stand by my word of crawling around the track at Murray High on my hands and knees if Ali loses to Foreman.

I might add one thing though: When I first made the statement, the fight was to have been on September 24. If I'd known for sure then, I'd never have promised to crawl around the track, since Foreman has now had the opportunity to get back into shape, which he wasn't a month ago.

There are 11 people on the list who have also promised to crawl if Ali defeats Foreman. They are: Linda Suiter, David Frank, Bob Wilder, Donnie Williams, Phil Miller, Mark Williams, Ed Harcourt, Brett Harcourt, Stanley Bone, Brad Taylor and Mitchell Mowery.

I expect those people to be at the high school at 3 p.m. Wednesday to crawl their lap around the track, like they promised.

Also, whoever winds up crawling, whether it be me or the 11 others, will have their picture in the sports section of the Murray Ledger & Times Wednesday.

I haven't made any plans for getting my knees in shape, since I don't expect to have to crawl.

One final prediction: Ali will win the fight, by a TKO and it will be in less than eight rounds.

Grid Forecast

After a miserable week in predicting games two weeks ago, last week's effort was most gratifying.

Going into the weekend games, my season record stood at .696 but after hitting 13 of 16 predictions, the mark shot up to .726.

The breakdown: Nine of 10 high school predictions were right, with most of the point spans being reasonably close, missing the Murray High game by a mere point.

On the college level, it wasn't a great weekend as I hit four of six. The upsets were East Tennessee over Furman and of course Tech of Western, something I felt might happen but unfortunately, didn't predict.

Here's the forecast for this week:

Caldwell County at LONE OAK—The Purple Flash is 5-3 overall but hasn't won a Class AA game yet. It's about time they do so I'll take Lone Oak by nine.

CHRISTIAN COUNTY at Todd Central—It's simply a feeling and that's all. Todd Central should win but just on a feeling, I'll take Christian County by four.

GLASGOW at Franklin-Simpson—I've picked Franklin-Simpson the past two weeks and they've lost both times so Glasgow by 10.

FULTON CITY at McLean County—McLean County is 1-6 and after this week's loss, will be 1-7. Fulton by 23.

Webster County at HEATH—The Pirates are even for the season and Webster County is 2-5. I'll take Heath by 12.

Madisonville at TILGHMAN—The Blue Tornado is rapidly becoming the Class AA team to beat and a win here will bolster their chances when they play at Mayfield in the final game of the season. Tilghman by 12.

TRIGG COUNTY at Russellville—The powerful backfield of the Wildcats is minus sophomore standout Vic Grubbs who quit the squad this week. But I'll still have to go with Trigg County. It's time they snapped their losing skid. The Wildcats by nine.

MAYFIELD at Reidland—No doubt about this one. The Cardinals should win by at least 35.

Murray High at HOPKINSVILLE—Minus Doug Shelton and Craig Shirley, the Tigers are in trouble against their tough hosts. Hopkinsville should win by at least seven.

Marshall County at Fort Campbell—The Falcons in a waltz, by at least 20.

College games: Austin Peay at MIDDLE by 10, Eastern at WESTERN by six, TECH at Morehead by nine and East Tennessee at MURRAY by four.

Win Meal At Rudy's

If anyone has wondered why there hasn't been a column this week, it's simply because I haven't had the space to do one.

I feel the daily pro basketball roundups and the hockey roundups are a must each day in addition to several other important stories that break each day.

Therefore, I feel that sometimes it wouldn't be fair to the readers to throw in a column when there isn't really anything of earth-shattering value in it.

So for those who've wondered about the free meal at Rudy's, here is the question:

"Name the individual in Murray who missed breaking the four-minute mile barrier by a half-second. He still holds many collegiate records."

If you think you have the correct answer, call 753-6977 at 1 p.m. Saturday.

The first person with the right answer will win up to $2.50 of his choice on the menu at Rudy's.

The ONLY way to win is by calling me, not by calling Rudy's.

Storm Upsets Memphis 26-25 In WFL Contest

By MELINDA S. EDEN
Associated Press Writer

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — When Rufus Ferguson sprinted 12 yards for a Portland touchdown with 2:07 on the clock, the Storm was sure it had upset Memphis in a nationally televised World Football League game Thursday night.

Portland won 26-25, but only after Bob Etter of Memphis missed a 48-yard field goal attempt as time ran out.

After the kickoff following Ferguson's score, reserve quarterback Danny White moved the Southmen 68 yards in seven plays, connecting on a two-yard pass to Ed Marshall in the end zone. Memphis trailed by one point with 43 seconds left.

Etter's onside kick struck Portland's Phil Borjas and rookie David Thomas recovered for Memphis. Six plays later, Etter's field goal try went wide to the right.

"I think Portland deserves to be in the playoffs," said Memphis Coach John McVay. "They beat us and Birmingham. They've shown on the field that they have a right to be in the playoffs."

A crowd of only 13,288 watched Portland snap the Southmen's 11-game winning streak at Civic Stadium. They got quite a show in the first quarter.

Veteran quarterback Pete Beathard fired a pair of scoring tosses to Jeff Baker, a rookie wide receiver from San Diego State. His first touchdown pass came 3 1/2 minutes into the game after the Storm marched 72 yards in 10 plays, the first four on passes.

Memphis scored right after Baker's first touchdown when wide receiver Tim Beamer returned the kickoff 82 yards. But Portland knocked down a pass from Memphis quarterback John Huarte to Marshall for the action point, and the Southmen trailed 8-7, eventually the one-point game-winning margin.

Baker scored again in the first quarter on an eight-yard pass from Beathard, and Memphis moved within 15-14 on a two-yard scoring run by J.J. Jennings late in the second period.

Memphis went ahead only once, 17-15, on a 32-yard field goal by Etter midway through the third quarter. Portland regained the lead 18-17 three minutes later when Booth Lusteg kicked a 36-yard field goal.

The Southmen got rolling again in the fourth quarter after a 50-yard Etter field goal try fell short. But Bob Schmit, a rookie from Nebraska, picked off a Huarte pass and returned it 18 yards to Memphis' 21-yard line. Five plays later, Ferguson scored and Wayne Patrick ran for the game-winning action point.

"A superb win for us," said Portland Coach Dick Coury. "Our game plan was to throw tonight and to try to control the ballgame ... we needed this win badly."

"I hope tonight's game puts to rest some of the talk of us leaving Portland," he said. "I was disappointed in the crowd, but I really think it's the stadium. But the people we do have following us are very loyal."

Memphis winners, their event, and their den number were: 40-yard dash for eight-year-olds - Steve Beyer (2) first, John Reed (4) second, Paul Reed (6) third, Robbie Marquardt (4) third, Bill Chaney (4) third, and Robin Adams (4) fourth.

60-yard dash for nine-year-olds - Kyle Evans (2) third, broad jump for eight-year-olds - Steve Beyer (2) second, shot put for eight-year-olds - Robin Adams (4) first, Steve Beyer (2) third.

440-yard walk-run - John Reed (4) first, Steve Beyer (2) third, Three-legged race - John Reed (4) and Steve Beyer (2) first, Bill Chaney (4) second, Shane Guthrie (2) and Dale Dycus (2) second, Ross James (2) third, Robbie Marquardt (4) and Robin Adams (4) third.

Browns Win Crown In Middle School League

The Browns won the championship in the Middle School Football League Thursday night as the season came to an end in Holland Stadium.

Undefeated and unscored upon all season long, the Browns finished with a 5-0-1 record after winning a 26-0 contest over the Bears in the opening game of the evening. The final contest found the Steelers winning 19-0 over the Colts to take second place and run their season record to 4-1-1.

The Browns got on the board early in the first period as Mike Gough took a handoff on the reverse from quarterback Randy Mayfield and scampered 45 yards to paydirt.

The action point failed and the Browns, coached by Tommy Rushing, were out in front 6-0.

A big break for the Browns came in the second period when Eric Chapman picked off a pass and ran it all the way, 40 yards, for the six-pointer. Little Eddie Requarth went in on the action point and the league champions led 13-0.

Just before the end of the half, Mayfield, who connected on five of five passes, hit Mike Gough who went 35 yards for the TD and after the action point failed, the Browns had a 19-0 lead at intermission.

The final score of the game came when speedy Gary Sims passed on the reverse, 35 yards to Robin Roberts for the score. Again, Requarth scored on the conversion and the final of 26-0 was on the board.

The coaching staff of the Browns gave credit to the following offensive players: Robin Roberts, Mike Gough, Gary Sims, Eddie Requarth, Doug Henry and Keith Houston. Defensive players gaining recognition were Mike Gough, Robin Roberts, Mike Miller, Bruce Taylor and Dewey Thompson.

Defensive standouts for the Bears were Tripp Purdom, Danny Thompson and Darwin Bumpus.

The Bears' coaching staff gave credit to the following offensive players: Darwin Bumpus, Tripp Purdom and Mark Smith.

The coach for the Bears this season was Kenneth Turner.

In the second contest, the Steelers, already assured of a second-place finish, won a 19-0 game over a scrapping Colt team.

The Steelers scored in the first period when Charlie Santagado hit Phil Resig on a 15-yard scoring pass. On the conversion, Santagado went around left end on a bootleg and the Steelers led 7-0.

After the Colts got the ball, the Steelers got a break as Darren Hooper picked off a pass on the Colt 30 and returned down to the seven.

Two plays later, fullback Jerry Spann scored from three yards out and the Big Green Team led 13-0.

In the third quarter, the final score of the game came when Rusty Bogard received a fumble, setting up a 10-yard TD run by Jerry Spann. The action point failed and the Steelers led 19-0.

The Colts had a good drive going in the fourth period but Resig came up with a pass interception on the Steelers' five and that sewed up the victory.

Nicky Ryan, coach of the Steelers, cited his entire offensive and defensive teams and gave special recognition to Eric Lovins for outstanding defensive game.

The coaching staff of the Colts gave credit to the following offensive players: David Honchul, Scott Turner, Quentin Walls, Barry Lee, Tony Herndon, John Mark Rickman, Chris Grasty, Paul Austin, Bill Shelton, Greg Schanbacher and Gary Utley.

Special recognition was given to Kevin Gassam for his outstanding game.

Gassam had two sensational catches, one with three men covering him. The play picked up 35 yards.

Defensively, Tony Herndon, Gassam, Utley, Walls, Schanbacher, Jeff Cartwright and Shelton were recognized.

The coach of the Colts for the season was Barry Deow. His defensive coach, Charles Fowler, will be coaching seventh grade basketball at Murray Middle School when the season opens next month.

North Freshmen Show Promise Of Future For Marshall High

By MIKE BRANDON
Ledger & Times Sports Editor

There's no question how tough Marshall Central High School is going to be in football in a few more years.

Since the new school was formed, the three former high schools in the county are now junior highs and each has an eighth and ninth grade football team.

In addition, there are hundreds of youngsters throughout the county participating in Little League football.

The enthusiasm and the promise of the bright future brought out a huge crowd Thursday night at North Marshall Junior High School where the freshman Jets were to play a tough Murray High freshman team.

And playing before a crowd that was larger than many schools draw for varsity games, the Tiger freshmen were once again involved in a shutout.

In fact, in the five previous games, the Tigers were 4-1 and the one loss was an 18-0 setback at Mayfield while the four wins were all shutouts.

So, one might think Murray won't be the game with North Marshall Thursday, since it was another shutout. But nothing doing.

The freshman Jets, who will move up and play for Marshall Central next season, ripped apart Murray High 18-0 and made it look easy in doing so.

So, if you can imagine how tough just the North Marshall freshman team would be in a couple of more years, triple that image and that's how tough Marshall Central's varsity team will be with the feed-in system from the three junior highs.

Playing an eighth grader in the tailback spot, the Jets ran all over Murray, particularly with sweeps to the sidelines.

The eighth grade tailback, Pat Holland, ripped Murray High for 139 yards, including one brilliant TD run for 89 yards down the right sideline.

The straw that broke the camel's back came at the outset of the second quarter.

Each team had the ball for one series in the opening eight-minute period and both moved well on the ground but failed to score.

But on the first play of the second quarter, the turning point of the game came as North Marshall punted the ball and while it was rolling on the ground, the ball brushed the leg of a Murray High player.

The officials, of course, ruled the ball was "alive" and North Marshall pounced on the pigskin for the recovery, on a third and 15 from the Murray High 30, following the recovery, quarterback Jim Riley handed off on the option to Holland, who in turn fired a pass downfield to end Roger Lents for the completion at the Tiger four.

Two plays later, Holland carried two Tiger defenders with him into the endzone and the Jets led 6-0. The two-point conversion failed.

Murray moved the ball well in its next series but the drive ended as did the half with the ball resting on the North Marshall 21.

Icing the Win

The icing on the cake of victory for North Marshall back on its own 11, Holland broke down the right side for 89 yards and the score. Several Tigers had an opportunity to catch him but gave up once Holland crossed midfield.

The conversion failed and North was left with a 12-0 lead. Murray had the ball three more times during the remainder of the game.

The first drive ended in a fumble, the second an interception and the last drive ended when time expired.

North's final TD came with 7:06 left in the game when quarterback Jim Riley scored on a keeper from three yards out.

Finals stats found North with 152 net rushing yards (188 gross) and 43 in the air for a total net of 195.

For Murray High, the Tigers had just 94 yards on the ground while quarterback Greg Garland completed four of six for 44 in the air, giving the Tiger frosh 183 net yards.

North Marshall ends its season with a 3-2-1 record. One of their losses was a 14-0 setback to powerful Mayfield.

The tie was a 0-0 deadlock with Benton, a team Murray defeated last week 36-0.

The Murray High freshman, playing without their top two tailbacks, Grettis Bumpus and Bob Thurman, both of who are sidelined with injuries, finish a fine season with a 4-2 record.

Top Four College Teams Heavy Picks To Win Saturday Games

By JOHN NELSON
AP Sports Writer

The game is called football. Say it over and over again. The game is called football. Memorize it.

And remember it - Saturday when:

—No. 1 Ohio State meets Northwestern.

—No. 2 Oklahoma meets Kansas State.

—No. 3 Michigan meets Minnesota.

—No. 4 Alabama meets Texas Christian.

And if it doesn't look like football when it's all over, also remember that it would be an understatement to say the first four teams in the Top Ten are heavily favored.

Ohio State, 6-0 and nursing a 17-game unbeaten string, is led by Archie Griffin, who probably will match a national college rushing record by gaining more than 100 yards in his 17th consecutive game against the 1-5 Wildcats.

Completing, even rivaling, Griffin is Buckeye quarterback Cornelius Greene, who leads the Big Ten in passing, total offense and scoring.

In the Big Eight, Oklahoma, 5-0, is a five-touchdown favorite over Kansas State, and Oklahoma Coach Barry Switzer hasn't even bothered to examine Wildcat game films. That's how worried he is.

The Michigan-Minnesota game is a rivalry that dates back to 1909 when the battle for the Little Brown Jug began. Michigan has won the past six meetings in the Big Ten series and will be protecting a 32-game unbeaten streak at home.

A Turkey Shoot will be held behind the Calloway County High School building, College Farm Road, on Saturday, October 26, from eight a.m. to five p.m.

The shoot will be sponsored by the Calloway County High School Band and the Band Boosters Club.

Ammunition will be available for the shoot and lunch will be served on the school grounds.

tal offense and rushing — 161.8 yards a game — and scoring — six points a game.

Tennessee Tech is 2-0 in the conference with victories over the two teams who were expected to be the class of the league — Murray and Western.

"We're certainly surprised, and grateful, and we take great pride in the position we find ourselves in now," said Tech Coach Don Wade.

Even though Morehead has lost five straight, Wade said

"we'll have to fight for every inch and first down we get. They've looked good losing, even to Ohio by that lopsided score. They've got a lot of good spirit and morale."

Morehead lost to Ohio 49-10 last week.

Austin Peay takes a two-game winning streak into the game with Middle Tennessee, which has lost three straight. Both teams are 1-2 in the OVC, with Austin Peay 3-3 overall and the Blue Raiders 2-4.

In night games, No. 8 Texas A&M is at Baylor, No. 13 Texas plays Rice, and New Mexico is at No. 14 Arizona State.

Oklahoma State Coach Jim Stanley says his Cowboys "will have to give a super effort to have a chance to win," but Nebraska Coach Tom Osborne rates the two teams as very even.

Auburn, 6-0, meets a Seminole team that has lost 18 straight, but Tigers' Coach Shug Jordan says, "We certainly can recognize that Florida State has improved ... When you have Alabama beaten until the final minute, it should tell you something."

In the Pacific-8, Southern Cal is a top-heavy favorite over Oregon State with Anthony Davis averaging 116 yards a game rushing for the Trojans.

Talbert And Eastern Kentucky To Play At Western Saturday

By JOE EDWARDS
AP Sports Writer

Things haven't changed much in the Ohio Valley Conference.

As in several past seasons, Western Kentucky and Eastern Kentucky will put national rankings on the line when they collide Saturday afternoon in Bowling Green.

And chances are their annual blood battle will be instrumental in determining the eventual OVC champ — just like always.

Other conference games Saturday are Tennessee Tech at Morehead, East Tennessee at Murray and Austin Peay at Middle Tennessee.

Western Kentucky, which was upset 10-6 by Tennessee Tech last week, is ranked seventh nationally. The Hilltoppers are 4-1 overall and 2-1 in conference contests.

Eastern Kentucky, ranked 16th, has won four straight after a season opening loss and leads the OVC with a 3-0 record.

Western Kentucky Coach Jimmy Feix says the Colonels "probably have the best balanced offense of any team we'll play all season."

"They have a great runner in Everett Talbert — he's been leading the nation in rushing all season — a gifted passer in their quarterback, Jeff McCarthy, and some really outstanding receivers like Elmo Boyd and John Revere."

Talbert leads the OVC in total offense and rushing — 161.8 yards a game — and scoring — six points a game.

THE $4,000 DASHER.

"$4,000.
FOR A VOLKSWAGEN?"

The $4,000 Dasher. It's a completely different kind of car from Volkswagen. The test reviews say it all.

"This new Dasher is more than a car. It's a 7-point Richter shock wave..." (CAR AND DRIVER) "The family car of the future... the car for the next 25 years!" (POPULAR MECHANICS)

"VW has achieved the almost unheard-of—excellent performance, fuel economy, and driveability..." (GUIDE TO CAR ECONOMY) "The body is a perfect combination of styling and engineering." (POPULAR MECHANICS)

"The Dasher is small on the outside and big on the inside, with uncramped seating..." (ROAD TEST) "You can stack every seat full of passengers with no complaints about lack of room..." (ROAD TEST) "The trunk is bigger than some Manhattan apartments..." (CAR AND DRIVER)

"Excellent performance and fuel economy..." (POPULAR MECHANICS) "The cheapest performance that 97 octane will buy..." (CAR AND DRIVER) "It's not hard to justify giving Dasher the title of 'Top Economy Car.'" (GUIDE TO CAR ECONOMY) "Dasher's engine is part of the fun... driven hard it sounds virile and provides lots of performance." (ROAD AND TRACK) "You can fairly well leap your way through traffic... the ride is outstanding." (ROAD TEST)

"Dasher... has a level of performance and handling that few drivers have the skill to exploit..." (ROAD AND TRACK) "The agility and ease with which the car can be made to negotiate an obstacle course... is nothing short of amazing." (ROAD TEST)

$4,000 for a Volkswagen? No! $4,000 for a Dasher!

IT'S WORTH IT!

Bruins And Blues Fight To 4-4 NHL Deadlock

By DAVE O'HARA
AP Sports Writer
The Boston Bruins are doing weird things in a wacky, struggling start in the National Hockey League.

What are the odds on a team pulling a goalie in favor of a sixth skater in the final minute and getting a tie? What about twice in a season? Make that, what about twice within 24 hours?

With a four-game unbeaten string, but only a 2-2-3 record, the Bruins have pulled off hockey's version of an "impossible dream" with ties on sixth skater advantage twice in a row.

Boston, which earned a 5-5 deadlock in Pittsburgh on Carol Vadnais' goal with 32 seconds remaining Wednesday, did it again Thursday night, gaining a 4-4 tie with the frustrated St. Louis Blues on Bobby Orr's tally with 34 seconds left.

"I'm going to be old before my time," said Boston's first-year coach Don Cherry, only 40, after Orr's 35-foot backhand spoiled a brilliant effort by St. Louis goalie John Davidson.

The Bruins had a 47-24 advantage in shots on goal, but had to rally from a 2-0 first period deficit. And two Boston goals, by Ken Hodge and Phil Esposito, were on power plays.

"There's nothing wrong with the system," Cherry said. "We had 89 shots in two nights, but we didn't put it in. Two nights in a row we've pulled the goalie and scored. Wow! How many times do you see that?"

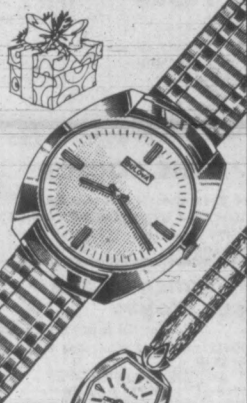

In the highest scoring game of the season for Los Angeles, Don Kozak tallied three goals and assisted on two others for the Kings while teammate Whitey Widing chipped in another pair of goals.

The Kings, 4-1-3, in first place in the NHL's Division 3, held off Buffalo, 3-3-1, the Division 4 leader, while the Sabres fired 55 shots on goal against 31 for the winners.

In the WHA, Minnesota's Fran Huck and Murray Heatley each had a goal and an assist to lead the Fighting Saints to their first victory in three starts. Indianapolis, meanwhile, dropped to 0-4.

San Diego downed Phoenix on Norm Ferguson's decisive power play goal, which broke a 1-1 tie with less than five minutes remaining.

blessed are the meek

"Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth." Matt. 5:5. Before his conversion, Paul was filled with anger and hatred. Zealously he persecuted all believers. He was on his way to arrest more Christians when the spirit of the Lord overcame him and he was converted. This experience changed Paul and that change is the essence of this attitude. Paul became meek. He submitted himself completely to God and sought only to do His will. His selfish, violent anger was changed to love and concern. Like Paul, our meekness depends upon being firm in our faith, submissive in our will, gentle in our relationships, and zealous in doing God's work. For this we will inherit the earth. That is, we will have inner peace now and eternal peace or eternity later. For blessed are they.

Speaking on the subject of "Why Christians Suffer" dealing with the process of grief will be Dr. Bernard Segal, Murray State University professor, Dr. Clegg Austin, and Rev. John Churchwell.

Other courses being offered in the school include "The Sermon on the Mount" taught by Rev. Fred Morton, and "The History and Doctrine of the Christian Church" by Rev. William M. Porter.

Fred Wells, chairman of the Christian Education Committee, is the dean of the school. A nursery will be provided and youth sessions will be held at the same time. Refreshments will be served, Wells said.

In the 1630s, when Japan had shut itself off from the world, an imperial decree forbade the building of large ocean-worthy ships. Today Japan builds almost half of the world's tonnage, or more than 20 times United States production, National Geographic says.

available to the city, one at a cost of $3,000 and one at a cost of $3,815.70. The cheaper vacuum, Willis said, would only be available if the City of Danville decides not to purchase it.

Fire Chief Jackie Cooper praised the action by the council and pointed out that state and federal laws strictly prohibit the burning of leaves within the City of Murray. City policemen have been issuing warnings to citizens who are burning leaves.

The leaf vacuum will be used by the sanitation department and residents will be required to rake their leaves within 10 feet of the street in order for them to be picked up. Residents will be notified if the city is able to acquire the vacuum in time for use this season.

Street committee chairman Art Lee presented Lee Bolen, street department supt., who reported that work on the five new tennis courts at Murray High is approximately 50 per cent completed and that if the weather remains "good" the project should be completed by the end of the year.

Councilman Ed Chrisman reported police activities for the period Oct. 4-17. The department issued 76 citations during the period of which 10 were dismissed in city court. Chrisman said that 36 of the citations were for speeding. Officers investigated 30 accidents during the period, opened nine investigations and made 11 arrests.

Surplus Funds Apparently Now Will Be Released By Governor

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — The $73.6 million allocated to various state agencies and school districts from surplus state funds apparently now will be released, in light of a court ruling saying it is legal.

State Finance and Administration Commissioner James O. King said Thursday the rest of the funds not previously released now would be freed.

King made the statement after Franklin Circuit Judges Henry Meigs and Squire Williams held Thursday the 1974 Budget Act giving Gov. Wendell Ford authority to spend the estimated surplus funds was legal.

The judges held the budget act did not unconstitutionally delegate legislative authority to Ford nor was it so vague or ambiguous as to render it void. And neither did Ford appear to have abused that authority, they added.

The suit has been brought by State Rep. Larry Hopkins, D-Lexington, and Albert Christen, former GOP Gov. Louie B. Nunn's finance commissioner. Hopkins said only the general assembly could allocate the surplus funds and argued Ford should call a special legislative session to do so.

Ford used revised revenue estimates to allocate $73.6 million in surplus funds for schools, capital construction projects and other purposes since early June. Of that total, only $55 million of the surplus was on hand at the end of the fiscal year.

While most spending of the funds was held up when the suit was filed, part of it had been released even before Thursday. For example, King said, the surplus allocated to all school districts was released because otherwise nearly all the districts would have a deficit this year.

But everyone who was spending the allocation still was greatly relieved by the court decision, he added.

Christen and Hopkins said Thursday they would not decide whether to appeal the Circuit Court decision to the Court of Appeals until after their lawyer has seen Thursday's opinion.

But Christen said: "I think it was a foregone conclusion before we went into it that either way it would be appealed. There is no question in my mind but that the law is on our side."

Hopkins said his primary purpose in filing the suit was accomplished by Thursday's circuit court decision, even if it goes no further.

That purpose, he said, was to have the spending be reviewed "by more than one man," that is, Ford.
