Would You Pay 83 Cents A Week For Family Recreation? It's Little League Baseball

By Jo Westpheling

You won't find a juvenile delinquent on a baseball diamond, especially on a summer evening. That could well be the theme of current program in the twin cities to have teen-agers occupied in wholesome and worthwhile recreation this summer.

Tuesday night the board of directors of the Twin Cities Baseball League and other interested citizens witnessed a superb film produced by the Chrysler Corporation reviewing the tremendous growth of Little League Baseball in the United States. The film is called "A Summer Evening" and should be "must" viewing for every man, woman and child in the country to learn how an organized program of recreation for young people can work wonders to wipe out juvenile delinquency in the United States.

Currently the twin cities are caught up in the spreading contagion of Little League Baseball for this summer, and as always the two communities are going a step further. Appealing to interested citizens, merchants and professional people in the Fulton area to help get the program "moving along", patrons' passes have been sent in the mail to help defray the cost of buying equipment, uniforms and paying necessary expenses of the league. The contributions are voluntary.

The step further is to organize a girl's league this year so that little league baseball in the twin cities will become a "family affair". Louis Weeks, chairman of the girl's league says that managers, team captains and other workers have already been contacted and are ready to begin work on the first year's program.

Girls from the ages of 9 through fifteen will be accepted for the league. And the boy's league ages range from 10 through 17 with the ages of the Little League, ten through 15, and the Pony League ages 15 through 17. Application cards are being distributed today.

From the information revealed at the meeting it is obvious that all is in readiness to "Play Ball" on May 29, the day before Memorial Day, with the only drawback the lack of funds in hand with which to operate the leagues.

Most families have been sent two patron's passes as have been most businessmen. The season of play lasts twelve weeks, making a recreational cost of the summer for baseball approximately 83 cents per week. If two children are entered into the league the Present entries in the parade scheduled for downtown Paducah at 10:00 A. M. Saturday, April 29, indicate it will be one of the most colorful parades ever to be staged in downtown Paducah.

Fulton, Hickman Counties Get Sharpest Road Fund Cutbacks; Chandler's County Gets 456% Increase

Fulton County is getting one of the biggest cuts in allotments this year from the State Rural Highway Fund of any county in the State.

The average annual expenditure in the years 1956-60 in Fulton County was $157,934, while Fulton County is allotted for the year 1960-61 only $69,847.

When it was brought to light recently that some counties are faring far better than others, depending on political favoritism, Governor Combs and Highway Commissioner Henry Ward said that future allotments of rural-secondary funds to the counties will be based on four factors.

Although the Hickman County decrease is sizeable ($314,059 per year under Chandler, $71,053 under Combs) the county received the third highest amount of rural-secondary road money in the State. Only Pike and Johnson counties received slightly more. The Hickman County allotments surpassed even those funds allocated to Kentucky's largest county, Jefferson.

The formula to be used is this: One-fifth of the available funds will be divided equally among the 120 counties; one-fifth will be distributed on a basis of rural population; one-fifth on a basis of rural-road mileage; and two-fifths on a basis of rural area.

Each administration has rewarded home counties of influential State officials legislative friends, etc.

The pattern of rewarding political friends seems to be working

"Happy" Chandler received nearly 400% more. The average road expenditure in Woodford County during Chandler's own term was an average of $51,717 a year while during the 1960-61 term of Governor Bert Combs Woodford County will receive $236,232. While Chandler's home county "splashes" in road county, Hickman County the home county of defeated gubernatorial candidate Harry Lee Waterfield was "drowned" in cutbacks. The average annual expenditure in Hickman County while Mr. Waterfield was lieutenant-governor was $314,059 while the 1960-61 average was only $71,053.

Veteran political figure Emerson "Doc" Beauchamp, present commissioner of Agriculture seems to have a pipe-line into the road money expenditures under the present administration. While Logan County received $99,263 annually under the Chandler Administration, it will receive $370,794 during the next fiscal year. Beauchamp, supported the present Administration during the campaign.

Fulton County was not the only home county of a key campaign worker to get the "axe" in road money. Notable cutbacks in the counties of campaign workers are:

Adair County, home of Ed Faris, secretary to both Governors Clements and Wetherby and organizational chairman for the Combs-Wyatt ticket - received $217,433 during Chandler's term and only $89,036 during the Combs term.

Others with the Chandler figure appearing first and the Combs figure second are:

Christian County, home of Ned Breathitt early Combs supporter, and now a member of the Public Service Commission $211,245 - $164,086; Davies, home of Wendell Ford, executive administrator to Combs, $151,494 - $137,410; Fayette, home of Commissioner of Motor Transportation Foster Ockerman, early Combs supporter and also of Dick Moloney, early Wyatt supporter, $195,701 - $99,437; Hart County, home of Public Information Commissioner Cattle Lou Miller, and secretary to both Governors Clements and Wetherby, $150,446 - $102,528.

Henderson County, in the senatorial district of J. Murray Blue, whose wife was also State co-chairwoman, $136,263 - $2,196. Senator Blue, whose home county is Webster received $122,128 per year during the Chandler Administration for his county and only $115,988 for the next fiscal year. Mrs. Blue is national committee woman and Senator Blue is seeking re-election.

Memories Of Old Time Revivals In Store As Methodists Plan Crusade For Christ

By Mary Nelle Wright

Remembrances of the old time revivals once held in the Tabernacle of Carr's Park will come alive again when the Methodist Churches of the Ken-Tenn area unite for the "Twin Cities Crusade For Christ" which will be held for a two-week period beginning June 18 through July 2.

New York City. Howard Whitmore, talented tenor soloist and song leader will also be with the evangelistic team.

Plans are under way for the revival which will be held in a large tent tabernacle on the Fulton Ball Park grounds each evening.

On Tuesday evening various committees from the 11 participating churches met at the First Methodist Church in Fulton with L. S. Miller of Wilmore, Kentucky, advance agent for the Ford Philpot Evangelistic Team.

Mr. Miller reviewed the responsibilities of each committee chairman at the meeting. He stressed the fact that "a successful revival is something that can never come to pass unless God is in it. God has to be on the scene," he added. Methodist churches in the revival and the pastors are Bethlehem and Wesley, Rev. Norman Crittenden; Chapel Hill, Harris and New Hope, Rev. Dave Hillard; Walnut Grove, Dukedom and Rice City, Rev. Keith Smith; Water Valley and Palestine, Rev. Charles Brinkley and The First Methodist Church, Fulton, Rev. J. L. Leggett.

Kentucky's Floral Clock Can Bring National Honor and Many Tourist Dollars Into State Coffers

What's wrong with the State of Kentucky planting a magnificent floral clock as a showpiece on the Capitol grounds at Frankfort?

Nothing. As a matter of fact it is a splendid idea since it will beautify and enhance the Capitol grounds for Kentucky natives visiting in Frankfort, as well as be an item of interest for visiting tourists. If the clock is distinctive, an unusual item, a talking and photography piece that will afford Kentuckians a little extra pride in themselves, it is an asset.

In Washington, the Government spends thousands of times this amount to make Washington the attractive show-place that it is, and the Nation is proud of Washington and its lovely appearance.

Why can't Kentuckians try to be proud of THEIR State Capitol instead of grousing around when some floral improvement is attempted? Goodness knows, Frankfort can stand a lot of it.

The clock episode suffered at the outset from bad public relations, and unfortunately the rabble-rousing "Politician" now has seized it for his spiteful bantering and it may be in for a long siege of wagging. An alert Public Relations staff in Frankfort can yet pull the fat out of the fire by arranging appropriate ceremonies and a little national recognition to put the project in its proper perspective when the clock starts to function; so far the only recognition has been a few spiteful digs by newspapers and other media that ought to know better.

The whole thing reminds us of an incident in a midwestern community that began some 25 years ago: The mayor at that time, a man of vision, planned and built a boulevard system linking the parks of the city, with much of the road running through former ravines, trash dumps and undesirable neighborhoods. In doing so, he had to weather a storm of criticism and abuse. During the following years the ugly ravines were cleared and beautified and today that boulevard system stands as one of the outstanding in the nation.

So more power to Bert Combs and his floral clock. May it take its place alongside the Kentucky turnpike project of Lawrence Wetherby's—a project soundly cussed at first but as happily praised today.

Shoplifting Becomes Problem

The students at FHS are facing one of their most serious problems. What is to be done about the shoplifting that has been going on in the business establishments?

It is known that teenagers are responsible for some, if not most, of this thievery. "So what?" you say, "I'm not responsible for it." Maybe not, but you might be. If you saw a good friend of yours calmly pick up something in a store and walk out with it, what would you do? Would you think he was pretty tricky and admire him for it? Would you try it the next time you had the chance? Or would you try to convince him that he was wrong?

We are responsible for the reputation that our school and its citizens earn. Good or bad, it is up to us, not the police or the shopkeepers. By our disapproval of their actions we try and convict them, which can be worse than any jail sentence. This is our privilege, our duty, to ourselves, our school and our companions.

SERMONETTE OF THE WEEK

Comfort And Conformity

By Robert T. Reilly, public relations director, Creighton University, Omaha

All around us are evidences of the decline of sacrifice. Cigarette smokers produce pipes and movie addicts double up on television. We complain about sermons, heat, humidity, hard kneelers and collections. Students find exams too difficult and leadership too taxing. Parents consider discipline cruel and mortification medieval. The key words are comfort and conformity.

WE ALL aspire to the charcoal-scented, stein hoisting, caricature of manhood that stares at us from the full color ads. He is odorless, sports a wash-and wear shirt, sanforized underwear, transistor entertainment and mint-flavored smokes. His breath is clean his shoes don't scuff; his stomach is capsule-soothed; his eyes are medically propped open or shut. Even his dog is itchless and thrives on one-minute gravy.

We have been led to believe that happiness consists in a satisfaction of our physical appetites. But Christ chose the way of suffering to be our redemption. This is a truth we have hidden carefully from ourselves, like an unflattering photograph or a dentist's appointment card. We do not think of pain or adversity, and we regard suffering only as a punishment for sin. That suffering can also mean love is a fact few people have grasped.

I'd like to buy a full page in some magazine, fill it with some shots of struggling young families and caption it, "Suffering Belongs!"

AFTER ALL, we are not talking martyrdom. The strange paradox for today is that many Christians who would march proudly to the lions, cannot make it up the hill to evening devotions. We mean the sacrifice involved in accepting illness and loneliness and disappointment, foregoing some pleasures and developing a code of conduct. And this means, not the forty days of Lent, but the 52 weeks of the year.

Our society demands genuine dedication if we are to survive. What disturbs us most about the Communists is their acceptance of life as a struggle and their willingness to suffer in order to spread their doctrine. Have we, the free men of this universe, been outstripped by a pagan belief? Goethe warns us: "What you have inherited from your fathers, earn over again for yourselves or it will not be yours."

THE FIRST STEP must be a willingness to face up to suffering. We'll develop in character. Compare a picture of some current movie queen with the photo of an oriental elder. The difference is not mere line and blemish. It is life and character written into one face absent in the other.

Marriages and friendships that last are solidified by the sharing of problems and pain. Dad tries to understand mother's frustrations, and she tries not to envy his apparent freedom. Her sacrifice is in being the wife and mother she promised to be during the marriage ceremony. These trials are the crucibles that mold us as men and women.

Turning Back The Clock—FROM THE FILES—

April 25, 1941

Louis Weeks, field commissioner of Scouting in Fulton, reported that Edgar Jones, the Fulton scoutmaster, has moved to Milan and will be succeeded here by James Meacham.

One was killed and three injured last Saturday night at midnight when the north-bound Panama Limited struck an automobile at the State Line crossing near Browder Mill. The occupants were Negroes.

The fourth annual Lions Club Minstrel will be presented Tuesday night at the Science Hall under the direction of Mrs. T. A. Parham. Billy Whitnel will act as interlocutor and specialty numbers will be given by Doris Branch and Ivan Jones, Mrs. Montell Manley, and Wallace Crowe. Included in the cast as end men will be Donald Hall, Edwin Gunter, Leon Hutchens, Enoch Miller, James Warren, James Mullennix, Paul Hornbeak, James Cullum, H. P. Allen, Tillman Adams, Maurice Bailey and Edward Pugh.

Constable Barney Hicks of Scotts Mills, is hot on the trail of the culprit who took the refreshments from the ante-room of the Whittiers Club last Friday night. The club had to eat the limberger sandwiches dry.

Luke Simms, of Scotts Mills, who played the north end of a reindeer in the Christmas pageant, will be a whole grizzly bear in the new church play, "The Last of the Mohicans."

Clocky Cortright of Scotts Mills, lost his pay envelope last Saturday night and stayed out until two o'clock in the morning looking for it. He was so tired after his long search that he staggered home and remained in bed until Monday morning.

Railroad activities in this section have been picking up in recent months, as stimulus is gained from defence efforts throughout the nation. Local railroad employees are working steadily and there has been an uplift in payroll on the Illinois Central system.

The Jackson Purchase Track and Field meet will be held at Murray Saturday. Contestants from Fulton will be William Cannon, W. J. Dunning, Billie Hassell, Fred Hassell, David Holloway, Hugh Mac McClellan, Joe Treas, Dick Meacham, Billie Reed, Johnny Sharp, Joe Browder Williams and Edward Willingham.

100 Years Ago This Week

An historical review of THE CIVIL WAR DAY-BY-DAY (Material is from publication of exactly one hundred years ago original wording from references in the Library of Congress, Washington. Reporting in the papers was usually very one-sided; we seek to be fair in coverage and preserve a national balance. . . . ED.)

By William H. McHenry
Fourth week in April

The bombardment of Ft. Sumter by South Carolina troops has divided the history of the United States. We have "before Sumter" and "after Sumter", but still, there was another three months before there would be the first big battle of the Civil War.

The time between Sumter and Bull Run was a time of confusion, a cold-war time during which business went on almost as usual, with people taking sides, but everyone hopeful that a full-scale shooting war would never happen between the North and the South.

Just before Sumter as ardent a secessionist as Cobb of Georgia said that there would be no war . . . but he added: "Unless some act of idiocy by either the North or the South sets off such a war." Sumter and its surrender by Anderson and his less than a hundred U. S. soldiers served to clarify the thinking of millions of people. Lincoln said the nation was faced with insurrection and asked for 5,000 volunteers for a period of three months.

Virginia seceded on the 17th of April. For some months . . . ever since the John Brown affair, the men of Virginia had been busy forming companies of soldiers. By April 30 of that year of 1861, Governor Letcher of Virginia had made offered a total of 65,000 troops. So many cavalry companies had offered their services that the State had been obliged to turn them down. So many men would not be needed! Nor was there equipment for them!

Gov. Letcher noted that there were few soldiers volunteering from the Northwestern part of the state of Virginia. (What is now West Virginia.) However, said Letcher: "Good men are coming from the extreme Southwest!"

who chose to join the Confederacy. Some of the men preferred the South. Ft. Sumter's paymaster, Major Hulter, resigned his commission in the U. S. army and took a similar position with the Virginia State troops.

Other U. S. Army officers were resigning and "going South". Almost three hundred out of a thousand officers would go to the Confederacy from the regular U. S. army before the fighting was over.

Sumter had been a question-point in the mind of the South, since the secession of South Carolina in December, 1860. Now that Sumter was taken, everyone in the State could return to work. Said the papers: "The mailmen returned to their work . . . after Sumter there was a great deliverance of mail in South Carolina." (Using mostly U. S. stamps.) Immediately after the secession of Virginia, April 17, there was a movement of U. S. army men from the State. Harper's Ferry and its rifle-making machinery was left to the South on the 18th. Union soldiers fired the buildings, but the Virginia troops arrived in time to save the most important machinery. The machines were soon moved to Richmond where they were installed in the Tredegar Iron Works where they would make guns for the Confederacy during the next four years.

Confederate soldiers stopped the train to Washington as it ran through Harper's Ferry. "Got anybody aboard?" they asked the conductor.

"Just an old duffer who's been asleep all the way."

The soldiers awakened the old duffer who identified himself as being General Harney, one of the top-ranking officers of the U. S. army. Harney was arrested, sent to Richmond under guard, and at first was considered a prisoner of war. Commander Maury, formerly of the U. S. Navy, and Gen. Robert E. Lee, formerly of the U. S. Army, advised the Governor of Virginia to release Gen. Harney. The elderly general was soon on his interrupted way to Washington.

Washington was surrounded by Secessionists. Many Virginians called for the occupation of Washington, but others were willing to stop at the borders of Virginia. The time had not come when men could see the scope of the coming war . . . and a good thing for the Union Capitol! Washington was occupied by only a few hundred "loyal" . . . (meaning Unionist) troops.

Union soldiers held Ft. Monroe across the bay from Norfolk but there were no Union men to hold the city of Norfolk. The Norfolk Navy Yard, which any U. S. sailor knows, is up the Elizabeth River from Norfolk, could not be defended by the handful of Navy men available. The Virginians used a ruse to get the Navy to evacuate the Yard. Running past the Yard is the railroad from Portsmouth to Norfolk. The Virginians loaded their few soldiers on a train, ran the train over the bridge where the Navy men could see them. The Virginians clung to the sides of the cars as if the cars were chocked full of soldiers. Soon the train returned from Norfolk . . . with the soldiers hidden inside the cars. Again and again the train made the trip, and soon the Navy men were sure that Norfolk would be so strongly held by Secessionists that the U. S. Navy men would be captured. The Navy men did some damage to the buildings, burned a ship . . . the Merrimac . . . and left in a hurry for Ft. Monroe.

Virginians entered the Yard, where they found the Merrimac sunken, but still usable. It became the first iron-clad ship. They also found great stores of seasoned ship timbers, a great number of cannon "3,500 to 4,000" said the newspapers, with some exaggeration. There was a "million pounds of powder, most of it the large-grained kind suitable for heavy guns. Virginia needed powder, it all saw use during the Battle of Bull Run that July.

The ship "Star of the West" was captured by Texas soldiers in Galveston. The Texas soldiers, a company of 90 under Capt. Van Buren, treated the men kindly and sent them home. The Texans further amazed the sailors by paying them their wages which amounted to $1,800.

NEW, IN THE BARNYARD! It's the farmer's newest "hired hand"—the Farm Interphone. If you farm and want to save time, effort and money, you'll be interested in this completely new telephone system that gives you both regular telephone service and intercom service from various locations around your farm. With the Farm Interphone you can take and make calls from work areas, talk on-the-spot with people in the house and other buildings, monitor sounds around the farm—and do many more things than we have room to list! We'll be glad to give you all the details if you'll drop by our business office.

"He said not to interrupt him unless it was a matter of life and death . . . now, Sir, are you alive or dead?"

WHAT'S COOKIN'? . . . For Mom, 1,092 meals a year. And maybe 55,000 meals in a lifetime! For the woman who has to prepare those meals, convenience means a lot! Here's a suggestion for a kitchen help that'll save a lot of time and steps, give pleasure, too. Why not get a kitchen extension phone—a wall phone that's out of the way of all the doin' and fixin' but always at hand when it rings, or when you need to make a call. Just call us to order your kitchen extension in your favorite color.

SPEAKING OF EXTENSIONS, here's another way you can get one—just ask any Installer-Repairman you happen to see in the neighborhood. He'll be happy to install handy extension phones wherever you need them.

Diary of Doin's

(Items gathered along Fulton's merryway for your pleasure and your scrapbook)

Those who missed the "Miss Jaycee" Contest last Friday night really missed seeing a lot of beauty, both in the forty-five lovely girls and in their beautiful formal dresses. Of course, the hit of the whole show was the gorgeous white satin ballerina length formal worn by the candidate from "George's Hash House", "Miss Betty Jean" Forrest. The lovely young "girl" also appeared in a striking black and white printed bathing suit, black patent heels and a large straw beach hat. (We thought Billy Joe played the part quite well!!)

Seriously though, many of the girls had lovely dresses and all of them looked very pretty. The queen, Miss Sharrye Johnson, had one of the most eye-catching dresses because of its simplicity. It was a white, floor-length dress made of taffeta with a draped organza-over-taffeta bodice. She also wore white heels and white formal gloves.

The first maid, Miss Chan Covington, and the second maid, Miss Linda Thorpe, also wore white floor-length formals. Chan's was white organza and net ruffles over taffeta and it was trimmed with or hid velvet ribbon. Linda's was white lace and net tiers over taffeta. Both girls also wore white heels and long white gloves.

Miss Sandra Stephens, one of the top twenty-five finalists, wore a beautiful mint green floor-length formal which caught the attention of many in the auditorium. It was made of organza and net over taffeta and had embroidered organza panels down one side. She wore white heels and mint green formal gloves.

Miss Kelly Reams and Miss Brenda Brockwell, both from South Fulton, had on lovely dresses. Kelly's was an orchid floor-length formal with blue-green organza over taffeta. Brenda's was blue embroidered organza over taffeta, also floor-length.

Miss Elaine Beggs, one of the top ten finalists, was wearing a white floor-length dress composed of lace tiers over taffeta. Miss Martha DeMyer also had on a lovely formal with blue-green organza and white lace tiers over blue-green taffeta.

We only wish we could describe all the other lovely dresses in the pageant, but since that is practically impossible, we would just like to say that they were all beautiful and that we here in the twin-cities are proud of all the lovely girls in our midst.

Miss Sharrye Johnson, winning out over a field of forty-five of Fulton and South Fulton's loveliest girls, was officially crowned "Miss Jaycee of 1961" at the annual beauty revue held Friday night at the South Fulton auditorium. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Johnson of Water Valley and is a sophomore at Fulton High School.

Her attendants are Miss Chan Covington, First Maid, and Miss Linda Thorpe, Second Maid, Chan, a senior at Fulton High, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Covington of Second Street. She has been a member of the cheer-leading squad for four years.

Linda, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Thorpe of South Fulton, is a sophomore at South Fulton High and is a member of the Devilette Basketball team.

Seven other lovely girls reached the top ten finalist division. They were: Miss Darlene Bennett of South Fulton High, Miss Joyce Owens of Fulton High, Miss Delores Myers of Hickman County High, Miss Ann Bowers of Fulton High, Miss Carrol Schrader of South Fulton High, Miss Elaine Beggs of Fulton High, and Miss Sandra Toon of South Fulton High.

Five out-of-town judges selected the top twenty-five, then eliminated all but ten of them and after talking with each of them, chose the top three. Miss Nancy Dame, "Miss Jaycee of 1960" presented the trophies and crowned her successor.

The date of the annual "Evening of Music" has been changed from May 1 to Friday, May 5. The program will be presented by the Music Department of the Fulton Woman's Club, at the clubhouse. It will begin at 7:30 p. m. The public is cordially invited to attend this always-entertaining event.

Mrs. Elvis Babb, Miss Patsy Babb, Miss Bonnie Usrey and Mrs. J. B. Lee were the hostesses for a linen shower honoring popular bride-elect Miss Nancy Dame. The event was held in the home of Mrs. Babb on Tuesday, April 18.

Miss Dame, dressed in a lovely pink embroidered sheath dress with black accessories, was given a corsage of pink camellias by the hostesses. She also received many nice gifts from the thirty guests.

Refreshments consisting of nuts, mints, cakes and Cokes were served from a beautifully decorated table covered with white lace over pink and centered with pink variegated tulips and candles.

Mrs. Glenn Veneklasen was elected chairman for the coming year at the regular monthly meeting of the Drama and Literature Department of the Fulton Woman's Club last week. Other officers selected were Mrs. R. O. Brown, vice chairman; Mrs. James Green, secretary and Mrs. A. B. Roberts, treasurer.

Mrs. E. E. Mount presented an interesting program, "What Art Has Meant To Me" and displayed a number of her paintings before the group.

Seven members and one visitor were present at the recent meeting of the Fulton Library Board in the home of Mrs. Ernest Fall, Jr. Plans were made for activities and publicity campaigns during National Library Week. The group also decided to attend a meeting of the Kentucky Library Trustees Association at Paducah on April 30, with long range plans of coming into a regional library.

The recent Junior Woman's Club annual benefit card party was a success with a large crowd present. Many beautiful prizes, donated by several local merchants, were given both as door prizes and as prizes in the card games. Mrs. James Green was the lucky winner of the Kolinsky fur-piece. Dessert and coffee were served the many guests upon their arrival.

rival and cold drinks were served during the evening.

All proceeds from the party will go to the Fulton Kindergarten, a project of the department.

Fellowship Hall at the First Baptist Church was the setting for a lovely miscellaneous shower given Mrs. Larry Sullivan, nee Jill Edwards, last week. The hostesses were Mrs. Robert Stephenson, Miss Scarlet Turner, Miss Elaine Beggs and Miss Cleta Beggs. Mrs. Sullivan received many nice gifts from the thirty-six guests present. Fifteen others also sent gifts.

They will also take several sight-seeing trips.

Four adult counselors including a director, a nurse, a dietitian and a business manager will travel with the group which will also include eight young women from the Memphis District.

Alternates to the local girls are Sherry Bingham of Martin and Kelly Reams of Route 3, Fulton.

At the final meeting of the school year, the West Fulton P-TA installed its new officers for the coming year. These include Mrs. Don Sensing, president; Mrs. Lonnie Roper, vice president; Mrs.

Reginald Williamson, second vice president; Mrs. E. R. Hefley, secretary; and Mrs. L. M. McBride, treasurer.

During the business meeting, it was reported that the plans which the group made to improve the teacher's lounge at the high school have been partially completed with the purchase of a rug and chairs and the donation of a couch.

Miss Katherine Williamson of Terry-Norman presented the program on "Vacation Plans". She took the group on an imaginary tour of interesting vacation spots in Kentucky.

Mrs. Charles Pawlukiewicz was selected to serve as president of the Fulton High Band Parents Club next year. She was chosen at the final meeting of the school year held last week. Other officers are: Mrs. Kenneth Turner, vice president; Mrs. Cecil Bolin, secretary; Mrs. W. H. Wells, treasurer.

In other action taken at the meeting, the organization voted to supply transportation for thirty-seven band members to the World's Biggest Fish Fry at Paris, Tennessee, on Friday, April 28. The band will march in the parade there.

Bands, Queens, Paraders Signal Clean-Up, Paint-Up Week In Fulton

The big Clean-Up, Fix-Up, Paint-Up Parade last Saturday, featuring group after group of little "street sweepers" and "painters", was a huge success and was viewed by a large crowd of Fultonians and visitors. The parade followed a route stretching from the Park Terrace down Broadway to East State Line, on to Browder Mill, across the railroad and on down Lake Street, down to Fourth Street, and on up to the corner of Fourth and Eddings, where it disbanded.

The parade was led by the Fulton and South Fulton police cars and the Fulton fire truck. A long line of floats, trucks, marching units and convertibles followed. The "street sweepers" and "painters" mentioned above were brownie and cub scout packs and young school children. They depicted the theme of the parade.

The much-improved Fulton High School band, with thirty-five members, marched and played several peppy numbers. The Miles High School band of Union City was also in the parade.

Riding in one of the official cars was the new "Miss Jaycee", Miss Sharye Johnson. Also in the Queen's car was the undisputed hit of the Jaycee Beauty Revue, "Miss Betty Jean Forrest" alias Billy Joe Forrest. "She" wore a lovely white satin formal and a gorgeous blonde wig.

The first maid, Miss Chan Covington, and the second maid, Miss Linda Thorpe, also rode in convertibles following the Queens car. There were several lovely floats, including those entered by the Chamber of Commerce, the Pepsi-Cola Bottling Company, the Ferry-Morse Seed Company, Kellen's Hat Shop and others. One float which received a lot of attention was the one entered by Puckett's Service Station.

HIGHWAY FUNDS—

er Paul Brannan and now Civil War Coordinator at the same $12,000 a year salary, received a cut of $44,926 average per year.

The home county of former Highway Commissioner Earle Clements, fared much better under Chandler than under Combs, with the average 1956-1960 road expenditures amounting to $166,628 and the 1960-1961 $114,992. Warren County, home of Combs-Wyatt campaign co-chairman David Francis, got an average $52,565 annual cut in road funds.

In the first district, whose slim majority for favorite son Harry Lee Waterfield, contributed greatly to the Combs-Wyatt victory, only six counties have received higher road money appropriations. They are Caldwell with an $19,042 increase; Graves with a slim $6,383 increase. While the increase in Graves County can be termed slim the overall appropriation is generous with $245,996 per year during the Chandler Administration and $252,281 for the next fiscal year. Other counties receiving an increase are Livingston, $16,898; Logan, $271,531; Todd, $26,120 and Trigg, $57,857.

Even with the top-sided cutback and increases in Hickman and Logan counties respectively the First District road funds have been sharply cut.

cost per week is forty-one and a half cents. Fact of the matter is that the number of children entered should be divided into the per week cost and when one or more are entered in the program the cost becomes less than the price of one admission to the movie.

Admission price will not be charged for the individual games. A patron's pass, is not an admission price, merely a contribution to the wholesome recreation of the citizens of tomorrow.

Charlie Pawlukiewicz is president of the twin cities baseball league and as the father of four children knows the value of organized recreation for the community's youth. He asks your help!

Three Hurt In Accident When Car Hits Bank

Three area youths received serious injuries Saturday night when their car went out of control and slammed into a creek bank about four miles east of Hickman, Kentucky. Two of the youths live in the Walnut Log community and one is from Memphis.

The boys, identified as Larry Lee Basham, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Basham of Walnut Log; Wayman Beard, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Beard of Walnut Log and Charles McQueen of Memphis, 24, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond McQueen of Plymouth, were taken to the Obion County General hospital and their condition was listed as "fair".

Fulton County Sheriff M. E. "Red" Garrison said that when he arrived at the scene of the accident, the car was rammed into the creek bank and the Beard and McQueen youths were unconscious in the front seat. The Basham youth had already returned to Hickman for help. The two were taken to a Hickman doctor and then rushed to the Union City hospital.

Basham was also taken to Union City after he blacked out on his way back home.

With little more than 3 weeks left until the Primary, I would like to take this means of writing to you if I have not already contacted you personally.

It is my hope to see everyone personally to seek your support and influence in this, my first bid for public office.

I am asking you to give a young man a chance to serve you. I think the demands of this office can be served very well by the stamina and enthusiasm of a young man. I believe my experience and qualifications fit me for this job.

I represent no clique or political faction and intend to serve everyone in the county impartially.

AUSTIN SPRINGS

Mrs. Carey Fields

Mrs. Jennie Johnson remains very sick at this writing, at the home of her sister Mrs. Hattie Shephard, suffering some complications that developed several months ago.

Richard Lynn, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Ruble Thomas was confined to his room last week suffering from a siege of scarlet fever. The small children of Mr. and Mrs. James Roy Roberts, the children of Mr. and Mrs. Almond Blaylock, Rosie and Wanda Chambers were victims also. Each are improved and will re-enter Welch Elementary school today (Monday).

Mrs. Ed Fields is doing well since his accident six months ago, altho he remains in bed.

Mrs. Lucy Pettit is reported to be about the same as for several weeks, and children are remaining at her bedside.

Mr. and Mrs. Eric Cunningham and son George Ed, spent the past weekend in Bowling Green attending the bedside of their son, Robert Cunningham who was injured ten days ago while at work with Bass Lumber Company. He is resting some better at this writing. He is wearing a temporary cast, later to get a permanent one.

Mrs. J. W. Bynum entertained all the members of the Sunday School class, of which her daughter Gloria Ann is a member, Sunday at her home. A nice dinner was served and some outdoor games were conducted. Each enjoyed the day in the Bynum home.

Mrs. Joe Westbrook fell at her home a few weeks ago and suffered a rather bad sprain to her wrist. We hope she will soon gain better use of it.

(Last Week)

During this National Library week it is hoped that extra thought will be given to library service that is available to all people. In Weakley County we are fortunate in having library service that is serving the people in each community. This is a good time to express our appreciation to the custodians of the library service in each community in the county, who care for the books and attempt to obtain any book that anyone desires with no pay except the pleasure that they enjoy in feeling that they have given a worthwhile service to their community. In the Chestnut Glade Community Mrs. J. B. Nanney has served as the very efficient custodian since Harry Watts has had a deposit of books in her home that has a very good record of circulation. Mrs. Winnie Cunningham in the Lone Oak Community has one of the top records of circulation for the deposits in the County. So why not tell them this week or just any time that you appreciate their contribution to this most worthy project in their community. Remember that books of all types are available, and that any book that is in print may be obtained. The spot announcement that has been on the were exchanged Sunday afternoon, April 23, 1961 by Miss Lynn Wright and David Littlton Lassiter both young and popular among our young people. The ceremony took place at New Hope Baptist church at 3 P. M. in a double ring service with the Rev. James Holt officiating in the presence of their immediate families.

The bride was given away by her father Mansil Wright. Eugene Lassiter served his brother as best man, while Mrs. Eugene Lassiter served as matron of honor.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mansil Wright of Fancy Farm, while the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Buton Lassiter near here.

The wedding party was entertained in the Wright home with a wedding dinner after which the couple left for a short honeymoon. Best wishes are extended for a long life of happiness by all friends over this area.

radio this week reminds one that perhaps Weakley County is more fortunate than some in having the Reelfoot Library service that is available to everyone.

Ulysses Harris passed away suddenly of a heart attack last Tuesday. Although he had been in declining health for some time, his death came as a shock. The funeral service was held by Brother T. A. Duncan at the Jackson Bros. Funeral Home last Wednesday. Sympathy is extended to the family.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Max Richards of Hawthorne, Calif. on the arrival of a son recently. Also to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Edward Qualls of Aurora, Colorado on the arrival of a daughter, Mary True Richards and Roy Edward Qualls formerly lived in this community.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Terrell who have been visiting the Richards in California for the past month are reporting a wonderful time. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Graves and family from Fayetteville, Tenn. enjoyed a visit with Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Jones.

Mrs. Durrell Terrell is a patient at the Fulton Hospital where she underwent surgery. Mr. and Mrs. Wilma Jones were recent visitors with the Durrell Terrells. Jane Ann stayed to be with her mother during her stay in the hospital.

Seven With All A's Lead Honor Roll At Fulton High School

A total of 54 Fulton High School students made the fifth six-weeks honor roll, with seven making a perfect standing of all A's.

Thirty-one per cent of the senior class attained the honor of being placed on the A and B roll. They were: Mike Callahan, Thomas Carney, Bobby Joe Hancock, Carl Hurst, Herbert Patton, Charles Rice, Mike Walker, Lynn Bushart, Chan Covington, Karen Dublin, Dortha Duke, Brenda McKee, Ophelia Speight and Sandra Stephenson.

Also, thirty-one per cent of the junior class made the honor roll. They included: Jim Burton, Bill Leneave, Warren Nanney, Cleta Beggs, Wanda Cash, Kay Morris, Linda Pittman, Scarlet Turner, and Linda Whitnel.

The sophomores placed thirty-two per cent of their class on the honor roll. They were: Barry Adams, Tom Germain, Tommy Harwood, Stanley Jeffress, Douglas McAllister, Barry Roper, Lynn Williamson, Mary Bondurant, Ann Bowers, Faye Bransford, Martha Lee DeMyer, Sheri Lou Elliott, Annie Lee Green, Beverly Haman, Josephine Hancock, Phyllis Pigues, Darlene Roberts and Nancy Sisson.

Finally, the freshmen had twenty-three per cent of their class members on the honor roll. They included: Terry Beadles, Curtis Hancock, Duane McAllister, Freddy Wells, Mary Grant DeMyer, Carol Dunn, Carolinda Hales, Sally Hall, Jo Ann Haman, Judy Hoodenpyle, Mary Virginia Page, Judy Patton and Linda Warren.

Those attaining an all-A standing were: Thomas Carney, Carl Hurst and Dortha Duke, seniors; Linda Whitnel, junior; Lynn Williamson and Martha DeMyer, sophomores; Freddy Wells, freshman.

lot of kidding from the other students from that remark!

After we were entertained by several college groups including the Phi Mu Alpha Dance Band and the Acapella Choir, we were fed a sack lunch in the new fieldhouse. Then came the various career conferences all afternoon. All in all, it was a very enjoyable day and one which no senior should miss.

For the seniors, this is the most critical time of the whole year. There are only about four weeks of school left and in those four weeks we must cram in one more issue of the KENNEL, our final exams, graduation practice, worries about whether we will be accepted by the college of our choice and finally graduation, which is just about the biggest worry of them all! The Baccalaureate Service will be held on Sunday night, May 21 and Class Night will be on Tuesday, May 23. "Bon Voyage" will come on Thursday night, May 25, with the Commencement Exercises. The Commencement speaker will be Dr. Frank Steeley of Murray State College.

A very interesting assembly program was presented on Wednesday morning when the Fulton County High School music department played several numbers for the students and faculty.

Tuesday was also a big day at Fulton High as inspectors visited the school in connection with the Clean-Up Fix-Up Paint-Up Week activities here in Fulton. Everything was spanking clean and we seemed to have passed the inspection with flying colors!!

Last Thursday and Friday were real hectic days for members of the senior class. The long-dreaded research themes were due Friday morning and many students were up till one and two o'clock that morning, typing and writing their "masterpieces". But all were in by the set-deadline and are now being (ugh!!) graded.

So long until next week, when business should be picking up considerably around Fulton High.

FROM THE FHS "KENNEL" FHS May Organize Business Club Soon

Some interest has been displayed in the formation of an F.B.L.A. (Future Business Leaders of America) chapter in Fulton High School.

The F.B.L.A. Chapter as a local level is responsible for the development of activities that will help the individual student become more familiar with the requirements of business and the skills that are required in college.

Some of the activities that appeal to many of the students are the competition on a state level, the various areas in which competition covers, business math, spelling, a Chapter project, Scrapbook and state officers.

Requirements for membership in the Fulton Chapter will include a minimum of their units in business.

Letters To Editor

April 20 1961

Mrs. Paul Westpheling
Fulton County Camp. Dir.
New March of Dimes
Fulton, Ky.

Dear Mrs. Westpheling:

As a Campaign Director for the 1961 March of Dimes, I know that you were called upon to make many sacrifices both in terms of time and money, not to mention what it meant in terms of your family. The same was also true for your co-workers.

As another co-worker and as President of The National Foundation, I hope you will accept this simple expression of appreciation and pass it on to all who helped. We are indeed grateful for all that you have done and attach great significance to the fact that you decided it was a job worth doing.

It is my hope that now the campaign is finished, or nearly so, you are able to look back upon it with a large measure of satisfaction, secure in the knowledge that the funds raised will be spent to speed up our comprehensive fight against disease and disability.

Again, warmest thanks to all.
Sincerely yours,
Basil O'Connor
President

Feed Program Sign-Up Begins

The sign-up of farmers in the 1961 feed grain program is expected to get under way this week, in Fulton County, according to word from Mr. Roy Bard, Chairman, County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee. The program provides payments to corn and grain sorghum producers who divert a portion of the acreage formerly planted to these crops to an approved conservation use.

The average county rate is $31.30 per acre for reducing such acreage a minimum of 20 percent below the base 1959-60 average. Individual farm rates may be higher or lower, depending on the farm's productivity in relation to the county average. A higher rate will apply for reducing corn and grain sorghum acreage from 20 to 40 percent below the base.

Corn and grain sorghum producers must cooperate in the 1961 feed grain program in order to be eligible for price support on the normal production of this year's corn and grain sorghum acreage, as well as for support on any of their other 1961 feed crops—barley, oats, and rye.

Acreage diverted under the feed grain program must be put to an approved conservation use, and it must represent an additional amount over the farm's average acreage devoted to a conservation use in 1959 and 1960. Where applications are made in advance and program funds are still available, farmers may receive ACP costshare assistance in installing the conservation-use practice on the land.
