Ted Atkinson and friend ...

HALL OF FAME jockey Ted Atkinson, one of the all-time greats of American turfdom, gets the lowdown straight from the horse's mouth as he visits a promising two-year-old colt that appears to have everything but a name! A son of famous Count Fleet, winner of the Triple Crown, the expensive thoroughbred will go to the person who comes up with a winning name for it in the annual Kentucky Club Derby Day Contest now underway. Atkinson selected the contest colt at the Saratoga Sales last summer.

Florida's "worst weather in 50 years" doesn't faze Miami model Mary Ann Webb, even though she's turning blue instead of tan. However, her leopard skin bathing suit, mink coat and motor scooter apparently are something new to lifeguard Denny Partain, who hasn't had much to do on the nearly-deserted beaches of the "Winter vacation paradise."

The Hooded Hepcats leaped to a cherished victory over the Flaming Firecrackers with a score of 9-6 at the Ladies Bloomerette basketball game at Sharpe last Friday night.

With a score of 4-2 at the end of the first quarter, the Hepcats pushed ahead and tied the Firecrackers with 4-4 at the half. With such players as Patty Lampley, Mildred Titworth, Linda Sparrow, Janice Williams, Donna Perry, Mary Larimer, Claudine King, Rebecca O'Dell and other staunch supporters, the defeat was almost certain.

The Firecrackers put up a stern rebellion, however, and with such forwards and guards as Paulene Angle, Irmaeadean Pugh, Hazel Story, Evelyn Bailey, Norma Koerner, Margie Harrington and Nina Heath, the victory did not come too easy when they leaped to a final 9-6 victory.

There was a grand parade of the queens and attendants, who assumed fictitious names for the occasion. Queen of the Hepcats was Mrs. Helen Rudolph, who was named Miss Ruby Valentino. She wore a long sheer green dress over green satin with a green bow in her hair. Her attendant was Mrs. Vernie Long,

Zero Cold Closes Schools, Curtails Travel and Trade

A wintry blast that struck Marshall County last Friday night and brought three inches of snow and sub-zero temperature began to abate Wednesday after four days of the worst weather the county has had since 1951.

The bitter cold and icy highways and streets caused considerable curtailment of business and travel throughout the county.

Biggest damage caused by the cold weather was to water pipes in homes and business places. Plumbers answered emergency calls to hundreds of homes and quite a few business places.

Not a single major traffic accident was reported during the icy weather, however, but there were several minor accidents in which automobiles slipped from roads and streets. Most persons stayed home during the worst of the bad weather. Those who had to use their cars put on chains for safe travel.

Large areas of huge Kentucky Lake were frozen over, with ice as thick as two inches in some places. Clark's River and farm ponds also were frozen over.

Many automobile radiators also were reported frozen, and hundreds of motorists reported they were unable to start their cars Monday and Tuesday mornings.

All schools in Marshall County were closed Monday and remained closed until Friday. Superintendent Rose reported frozen water pipes caused the closing of some of the schools and that dangerous roads were responsible for the closing of others.

Benton city schools remained in session all during the bad weather.

Lowest official temperature during the wintry blast was nine degrees below zero. The temperature dropped below zero each night, Saturday through Wednesday. The official thermometer was scheduled to rise above freezing (32 degrees) for the first time today (Thursday).

The extended weather forecast, today through next Monday, calls for temperatures 10 to 15 degrees below normal of 38. Slow warming trend through Saturday, then turning colder Sunday and Monday.

who posed as Gypsy Rose Lee. She wore a pale yellow tulle dress with a huge green satin sash.

After a close contest, Miss Ruby Valentino was crowned "Queen of the Bloomerettes for 1958" by George Little, president of the PTA.

Queen of the Firecrackers was Mrs. Verna Collins who was dressed as Miss Sadie Hawkins. She wore a tasseled straw hat, covered with red flowers and a red velvet jacket. Her dress was white tulle over long red satin pantaloons, in keeping with the bloomer costumes of the players.

Her attendants were Diamond Lil, Flapper Fannie, Miss Ida Redd and Sioux City Sue.

Mrs. Fred Rowland came dressed as Diamond Lil, in her white flared dress trimmed in gold braid. She wore gold and multi-colored jewelry and accentuated her costume with a large red sash. Mrs. Loyd Jessup was named, Miss Flapper Fannie, in her red flowered print costume. She wore a duster hat of red satin.

Mrs. Charles K. Rudolph was appropriately called Miss Ida Redd in her white flared skirt with a huge white ruffle. Her pill-box hat was tied with a large red bow, which complimented her red jersey overblouse. Mrs. Reece Barrett was Sioux City Sue in her gay, Indian fringed costume of red satin. She wore a picture hat covered with red and white bows and tied with red streamers.

The Hepcats opened the show as they circled the gym and did their rendition of the Bunratty Hop. Mrs. Edwin Waldrop paraded as a Vagabond Clown with large ears and Mrs. Zephia Stagner was dressed as a hobo with big feet. They assisted in a faked fainting act, in which one of the players was carried off the floor in a wheelbarrow. The kind old country doctor was played by Mrs. Ivan Lovett. Mrs. Alex Poe was dressed as a nurse.

Edie Sparrow, Lake and Gaylon Riley, and Albert Hatt paraded as clowns. Mr. Riley wore a large bunny mask with large ears. Charles Lynn, Billy Poe, and Ivan Lovett were dressed as cheer leaders. Omer Stagner and Govie Collins refereed the mens game in base-ball suits. Master of ceremonies was Dorse O'Dell.

It was all a hilarious evening of fun and proceeds were added to the P-TA fund.

Old Creek News

MRS. R. L. FOX and Gates — Let us wander about in the wilderness with their faces turned toward the promise of Canaan. There were temptations to the right way and the way of living was hard. Depend upon God to him, and because he listened to instruction, he was able to lead his people in a magnificent and victorious way. He warned these people to listen carefully to the commandments and to observe them; to be doers of all that the Lord had commanded. Read Deuteronomy 6:4-9, since these verses are the first Scripture verses taught to Jewish children. The Jewish name for this particular passage is the SHEMA which is the word "hear" in Hebrew. The passage is most often referred to as the Jewish Declaration of Faith.

Moses reminded his people that "the Lord our God is one Lord." They had not forgotten how the Egyptians worshipped many gods, and there were still times when they were tempted to worship something they could not see or touch. The children of Israel were to be taught to observe these statutes and later the Jewish law required the children to recite every morning and every evening, "The Lord our God is one Lord."

Aphylactery with a portion of the word of God placed inside the box was worn on their forehead to remind them of God. Another reminder is to have the SHEMA written on parchment and placed in a small box called the Mezuzah. This ornament is usually set at an angle about eye level to the right of the entrance to the house. In many of the Orthodox and conservative home they are found on almost every door in the house.

Moses reminded the people that if they observed all that the Lord commanded them, they would be blessed. However, he reminded them that punishment would come if they forgot God and failed to keep his law. Christians have a great appreciation for this Jewish faith. None of us would minimize the importance of keeping the commandments. None of us would deny that God demands all of life. No one of us would want to fail to recognize the importance of training our children in the way of the Lord. All would express belief in the triumph of the righteous and the ultimate punishment to those who break the law. We believe with our Jewish friends that this Scripture passage is important. If they could only believe with us another important truth which is found in the New Testament in John 10:9. The Christian today is concerned not only over a declaration of faith. He must be busy in living his faith in Jesus Christ the Saviour so that neighbors and friends will turn to him.

The WMU of the First Baptist Church, Gilbertsville, met Feb. 13 in the church parsonage. Mrs. Van Sled, was the hostess. Mrs. Sled was pleasantly surprised with a shower of birthday presents since her birthday was on Valentine Day. Refreshments were served and after the social hour a program was presented about Doorposts and Gates, which is mentioned above in this write-up. Those present were Mesdames Arvin Frizell, A. Harmon, Carl Yates, F. Gibbs, R. L. Fox, John Cook, Van Sled and Miss Christine Harmon. Additional guests were Mesdames Clifford Basham and Dayton Dexter.

The Kentucky Lake Bridge Club met Tuesday, Feb. 11, at the Pro Shop with Mrs. William Barlow as hostess. Sixteen were present, including two guests, who were Mesdames Fritz Krum and R. E. Parker. Prizes were won by Mrs. Tom Reed, Basil Brooks, Will Barlow and Val Winslow. Mrs. R. A. Purvis plans to be the next hostess.

Mrs. J. V. Gold, Lakeview Subdivision, entertained 12 guests at a Valentine luncheon held in her home Friday, Feb. 14, at 1 o'clock. The Valentine motif was carried out throughout the home with bouquets of red and white carnations decorating the tables. The guest list included Mesdames Aubin Moss and Joe Harker of Paducah; Mesdames George McClain and Jess Collier of Benton; Mesdames R. T. Durrett, Robert Van Doren, R. A. Purvis, R. L. Fox, Basil Brooks, James Pursley, J. H. Jones and Val Winslow. High score at bridge went to Mrs. R. T. Durrett and low score to Mrs. Jess Collier.

BENTON AND MARSHALL COUNTY WEEKLY Review

NEWS EACH WEEK OF BUSINESSES AND BUSINESS IN MARSHALL COUNTY

Louie Duncan Opened Cleaning Plant in 1946

Louie Duncan, owner and operator of Peerless Cleaners, opened his new cleaning plant in Benton, the son of Cris and Emmy Lee Duncan.

Mr. Duncan attended the County Schools and graduated in 1932 from old Birmingham High School. He was a star basketball player at Birmingham High and his team lost only three games in three years. Louie still is a great basketball fan, and seldom misses a game here in Benton.

Mr. Duncan went to the Army in 1941 as an enlisted man and was discharged in 1946 as a first lieutenant. He was with the 11th Airborne Division just before his and has a large number of satisfied customers.

The Peerless Cloth Shop is operated in connection with the cleaning plant. The cloth shop is operated by Mrs. Duncan. She sells all sorts of fabrics for wearing apparel and other uses. Mr. and Mrs. Duncan are the parents of a 9-year-old son and a 4-year-old daughter. The family resides at 905 Olive St. in Benton.

At the end of the war, Mr. Duncan moved to Benton and started his cleaning business. The plant then was located just a few doors from where his present business is located.

In 1952, Mr. Duncan purchased a building site at 1018 Main and erected his present modern brick and block building is a credit to Benton's business district.

Gilbertsville P-TA Has Founders Day Program at School

The Gilbertsville P-TA observed Founders Day on Thursday, Feb. 13. Rev. W. G. Harris gave the devotional and Den 5 of the Cub Scouts gave the flag ceremony in honor of Boy Scout Week.

Mrs. Clifford Monroe, Mrs. Jimmie Moore, Mary Joyce and Steve Browning also participated in the program.

Thomas Forrest, school principal, reported an attendance of 91 percent for the fifth month of school.

The P-TA voted a $25 scholarship to be matched by the district organization for an honor student at North Marshall High School who plans to teach in the First District.

A report was made on the fund drive for folding chairs for the school. Business firms are responding well by buying advertising space on the backs of the chairs.

A nominating committee was appointed to present a new slate of officers at the March meeting. The room count award was won by Mrs. Tracy's room and the church attendance award was won by the First and Second Grades of Mrs. Travis.

A social hour was held after the business meeting.

Tatumville Club Meets at Home of Mrs. W. L. Frazier

The Tatumville Homemakers Club met Feb. 14 at the home of Mrs. W. L. Frazier. The meeting had been postponed in January because of the death in the family of a club member.

The club friendship leaders, Mrs. E. S. Bryan and L. L. Higgins, demonstrated the making of lamp shades and gave hints on proper lighting.

Potluck lunch was served to 10 members. The next meeting will be held today (Thursday) Feb. 20 at the home of Mrs. W. Dunn.

Books and Bouquets

BY MRS. L. L. HIGGINS
Hope all of you saw Jesse Stuart on "This Is Your Life." The book of the week is T. D. Clark's "Bluegrass Cavalade." Mr. Clark has included in his selections of Kentucky literature a short story by Paducah's Irvin Cobb. This story "The Unreconstructed Rebel" is one of Cobb's best.

This year Kentucky Homemakers are urged to read Kentucky books and Kentucky writers.

The bouquet of the week goes to the Marshall County Library for its Kentucky shelf. For your convenience the libraries have collected all their Kentucky books in one group.

NORTH MARSHALL BOYS AT DISTRICT FFA EVENT
The North Marshall FFA Chapter sent three representatives to the district meeting at Heath on Feb. 5. Those who attended were Gordon Chester, adviser, Jerry Chumblor, district sentinel, and Eugene Powell, reporter.

Theme of the meeting was how to obtain more publicity for the FFA chapters. Jim Phillips, farm editor of the Paducah Sun-Democrat, gave the boys several pointers on how to get news and how to report it.

The meeting ended with a barbecue dinner.

Telephone Talk

by
MIKE SHERMSHEIM
Your Telephone Manager

WHAT'S IT WORTH? Seems to me the simple everyday pleasures in life are those we seem to enjoy most: a leisurely cup of coffee, a friend's cheery hello, the song of a bird. Such little things in life mean a lot, but you can't put a price on them. You only know you'd miss them if you couldn't have them. I like to think of the telephone this way . . . that it brings folks a lot of pleasure. Naturally, it's a real convenience, too, and it gets a lot of things done fast. But to me it does its best work when used to add a touch of happiness to your day or someone else's. That's why if I were asked to put a value on the telephone beyond its pure usefulness, I'd say it was the "heap of pleasure" it can bring to so many folks. Yes, it's fun to phone.

NO MATTER HOW SMALL THE PLACE, CASPER MUST HAVE A DEN WITH HIS OWN TELEPHONE.

UNDER THE BLANKET. That's where the first telephone booth was. Here's how it happened. Alexander Graham Bell, inventor of the telephone, and his assistant, Thomas A. Watson, were conducting their experiments. They put a telephone in Watson's boarding house room. Mr. Bell had his phone somewhere else and the two of them talked back and forth. Apparently, they were rather noisy and Watson's landlady complained. So, Watson improvised a telephone booth by throwing the blankets from his bed over the instrument to shut in the noise. Then he crawled under the blanket to talk. Today, we don't have "to holler" over the phone, and modern telephone booths keep noise out and let you call in comfort. These and other telephone conveniences are the result of continuing research to help make your telephoning more pleasant.

Valentine Party Held At Clubroom

By Brownie Troop 8

Benton Brownie Troop No. 8 held a Valentine party Wednesday, Feb. 11, at its clubroom at the residence of Mrs. G. C. McClain.

After opening exercises and a short business session, games were played and prizes awarded to winners.
