Summer had really passed.

Success, and steadily the clouds and eddied and whirled in the chill as well as there, for the Country Club. At no other place, in this brown, and only flecks of green, spread the green. Here other trees are be-

Sunday I caught unfamiliar glimp-ties. During tournaments, and it is a simple matter to keep up with players in this various holes came out. If a player again drives first on Number Three, this Number Two fairway to see formed a screen for these many trees, and the clubhouse. - V a way visible from as far away as

The greatest difference, how-

This cycle, he said, "clearly shows that the more one is inclined to do and respond the more you are called upon to do and respond your inner nature."
Hoyt Moore
Editor and Publisher
Martha Moore
Assistant Editor
Nega Mae Cullum
Assistant Editor

TEN TEN YEARS AGO

J. L. Tut, one of Fulton's oldest residents, died Saturday morning after a long illness. Milk producer and farmer Tut lived on the Tut farm about three miles west of the city.

Gail Galloway, owner of the Fulton Drug Store, died yesterday at the home on the tract of land opposite the store.

W. D. Davis, owner of the Davis Drug Store, died yesterday at the home on the tract of land opposite the store.

FOURTEEN YEARS AGO

Elma Bell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Bell, died yesterday at the home on the hill just west of the city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hubbard of
died yesterday at the home on the hill just west of the city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dill of
died yesterday at the home on the hill just west of the city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Baker of
died yesterday at the home on the hill just west of the city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Baker of
died yesterday at the home on the hill just west of the city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Baker of
died yesterday at the home on the hill just west of the city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Baker of
died yesterday at the home on the hill just west of the city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Baker of
died yesterday at the home on the hill just west of the city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Baker of
died yesterday at the home on the hill just west of the city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Baker of
died yesterday at the home on the hill just west of the city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Baker of
died yesterday at the home on the hill just west of the city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Baker of
died yesterday at the home on the hill just west of the city.
SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

N. M. (Gage) CULLEY, Editor-EZlication—Office Phone 4—Business 75

FULTON DAILY LEADER • FULTON, KENTUCKY

Mrs. Glenn Walker

Mrs. Glenn Walker was honored by a dinner at her home on October 5th. The dinner was attended by many friends and relatives of the family.

Halloween Party

At Brillhart School, Mrs. Glenn Walker sponsored a Halloween party with dance and bonfire. Thursday, October 31st. Everyone went in costume and enjoyed the festivities.

Recent Bride Honored

At Brower Friday, Mrs. Gertrude Melton was honored as the recent bride of Mr. Charles W. Looney. The ceremony was held at the Baptist Church and the reception followed at the home of the bride.

Brower Friday

At Brower Friday, Mrs. Gertrude Melton was honored as the recent bride of Mr. Charles W. Looney. The ceremony was held at the Baptist Church and the reception followed at the home of the bride.

PERSONALS

Lowell's Cafe

Fulton's Most Popular Restaurant

Serves Efficient Service

The Best in Foods

Bungalow Room in Connection

LOWE'S CAFE

Fulton's Most Popular Restaurant

Serves Efficient Service

The Best in Foods

Bungalow Room in Connection

OPEN DAYS AND NIGHTS

LAKES STREET PHONE 121

We've Got a Real Job to Do

—Sally Eileen Sam

But because we have a real job on our hands there is no need to neglect the ordinary, even the most mundane of affairs, such as painting and cleaning. Real estate is the one true treasure for all of us, and home ownership is something no one can ever take away from us.

Frosty Mornings

City Coal Company

Phone 51

Do You Need a NEW ROOF? or the Old One Repaired?

If you don't pass this up, we will sell you a BEAUTIFUL NEW ROOF as long as we sold it TWO or THREE YEARS AGO You should take advantage of this while our stock is complete Also have Windows, Doors, Paint, Glass and Builders' Hardware at bargain prices all this week.

KRAMER LUMBER CO.

Phone 90 — Walnut Street

Frosty Mornings

City Coal Company

Phone 51
Saturday night, when the Big Blue Terrors took the Missouri and at Madisonville.

The game had been regarded as a tight one by the experts, and Madisonville was favored to win. Coach Gill had concentrated on the backfield the week before, and it was expected that the Big Blue would have a strong attack.

During the game, the Big Blue Terrors were strong on defense, and the Missouri team was unable to score more than two touchdowns. The Big Blue Terrors swamped Ty Holland's team 35 to 0. The Tigers held the Missouri team to only a couple of first downs, and the Big Blue Terrors made many tackles.

As the game progressed, the Big Blue Terrors gained more and more ground, and the Missouri team had to play catch-up. The Big Blue Terrors scored their third touchdown early in the second quarter, and the Missouri team was down 21 to 0.

The Missouri team tried to rally in the second half, but the Big Blue Terrors were too strong. The Missouri team scored their first touchdown late in the game, but the Big Blue Terrors scored one more time to win 35 to 7.

The Big Blue Terrors were led by their backfield, which was strong throughout the game. The Missouri team was led by their defense, but they were unable to stop the Big Blue Terrors.

The game was a great victory for the Big Blue Terrors, who are now in good shape for their upcoming games. The Missouri team will have to work hard to improve their defense if they hope to have a successful season.