BOB BLANKS IN LUCK.

Gov. Bradley Has Refused to Ask for a Requisition, and He is Still in Jail at Cairo

He Will Not Be Brought Back to Kentucky to be Tried.
What Will Be Done
is Unknown.

There is an probability of Bob Blanks being taken back to Mayfield soon. An application was made to Governor Bradley to make a requisition on Governor Tanner for him, and this morning Governor Bradley flatly refused to make a requisition on Tanner, alleging as his reason that Blanks could not get a fair trial if carried back to Mayfield.
This will no doubt cause great disappointment at Mayfield, where preparations are being made to have a necktie party, according to reports.
It is not known what disposition will be made of Blanks.

Bob Blanks, as will be recalled by readers of the Sun, was arrested near Cairo several days ago for a rape committed at Mayfield last January, and which was one of the worst in the history of Kentucky.

Threats of burning him were made at the time, and if he had been captured then he would no doubt have suffered untold agonies before being hanged.

When one of the Mayfield papers revealed the news of Governor Bradley's action, the telegraph operator ticked back: "Well, it's not far to Cairo."

TENT BLOWN DOWN.

Several Injured at the Divine Healers' Meeting Last Night.

One Young Lady Had Her Shoulder
Made Broken—Many More
Have Been Killed.

There was a panic at the "divine healer's" meeting at Eleventh and Tennessee streets last night. The wind storm blew down the tent in which the meeting was being held, and the canvas collapsed, catching many to its fall.

As soon as the wind arose and struck the tent there was a rush for the exit, but it was too late. The big center pole fell and struck among others Miss Lucinda Glenn, of Tennessee street, breaking her shoulder blade, and otherwise injuring her.
Others were hurt, but none seriously so far as could be learned. It is almost a miracle that some one was not killed.

Among those painfully hurt was Pat Lydon, who had an arm hurt.

THE BATTLE MAY BE TOMORROW.

Secretary Long Issues a Bulletin Which is Somewhat Inde-nite—Not Our Fault If There is No Fight.

SPAIN MAY HAVE SOME FRIENDS

This Government May Consider France and Germany as Spanish Allies. Serious Complications May Result.

NEUTRALITY LAWS MUST BE OBSERVED.

Washington, May 20.—Official Bulletin—Secretary Long says there may be a naval battle tomorrow and may be not for a week. It won't be the fault of Admiral Sampson. If the great naval battle does not take place tomorrow.

FRANCE AND GERMANY.

Washington, May 20.—The developments of the past few days may cause this government to treat Germany and France as allies of Spain.
This government will insist on a strict observance of the neutrality laws.

GARCIA ON THE MOVE.

Kingston, Jamaica, May 20.—A cable from Santiago says that Gen.
Garcia is marching on that city with eight thousand well-armed insurgents.

Washington, May 20.—A cable from Hayti says that Gen. Gomez, with an army of fifteen thousand men, is marching on Havana with the determination of giving battle on the outskirts of the city.

A SPANISH TRICK.

Washington, May 20, 3:17 p. m.
—Bulletin: It is not thought here that Admiral Cervera is at Santiago, but that the report was sent out to draw our fleet south while the Spanish fleet gets into Havana.

SAMPSON AND SCHLEY JOIN.

Washington, May 20.—Rear Admiral Sampson, with the division of the North Atlantic squadron under his command, which attacked San Juan, Porto Rico, returned to Key West yesterday where he has effected a junction with the Flying squadron.
This means that he has under his orders the battleships Iowa, Indiana and Massachusetts, second class battleship Texas, and armored cruisers Brooklyn and New York, which makes him superior by two armor-plated to the Spanish fleet.

ANOTHER VERSION.

Washington, May 20.—It is now known that the government is giving out false reports about Sampson to throw the Spanish off. One bulletin just issued says Sampson is not at Key West.

Madrid, May 20.—The reported arrival of the Spanish fleet under Admiral Cervera at Santiago de Cuba,

Spain. It is considered here that Cervera has outwitted the American fleet and it is believed that in the bay of Santiago the fleet cannot be defeated. The people are everywhere shouting the praises of Admiral Cervera.

One prominent man Paducahans will have an opportunity to see the week of the 29th, will be Chas. Diamond, the renowned harpist, who is known all over the country as one of the greatest harpists and specialty men in the profession. The Louisiana Courier-Journal says of him:

Bijou Theater, Louisville. With Hart's Boston Novelty Co. Charles Diamond, advertised as the premier harp soloist of the world, came on last night. The audience expected much from him, as much was promised.
They got it and much more, for besides playing on the harp of gold framed with blue enamel, he wore blue silk tights and picked his harp with a finger that had a diamond ring upon it as big as an engine headlight.
It was printed on the program that "he was the talk of Europe, where he had the honor of entertaining royalty nightly," so of course, he took the bakery last night.

Later, the high diver, will make a fully improved their enjoyment will be greatly enhanced. None should fail to be there the opening night. A special feature has been arranged for last week. Later, the high diver, will make a dive from a pole 100 feet high.

GLADSTONE'S FUNERAL.

London, May 20.—The government has decided that when the announcement of Gladstone's death is made to parliament today it shall be proposed that the identical honors shall be paid to Gladstone which have been accorded to only two statesmen, Chatham and Pitt, in the course of England's history.

The procedure is that the house of commons upon learning of Gladstone's death will resolve that an honorable address be presented to her majesty praying that the remains be interred at public charge and a monument erected in the Collegiate church of St. Peter, Westminster.

FRIDAY, MAY 20, 1906

The condition of Broadway is a good illustration of the up-to-date methods of our City Council.

The last reason for believing the Spanish fleet in San Juan is the fact that it was sighted 1000 miles to the south yesterday.

Commonwealth's day says his name should be pronounced "Mey," and we think Admiral Cervera's name should be pronounced the same way.

That alleged Board of Strategy at Washington might take a few lessons from Admiral Cervera. He seems to be the greatest naval strategist of the day.

Tax Register's hot telegraphic service is illustrated by the fact that it has not yet learned of Gladstone's death, which was told in full in all the other morning papers in the country yesterday. Also it publishes this morning the startling news of Ben Key's nomination, which was published exclusively in the Sun day before yesterday.

It seems strange that the City

Engineer does not discharge the City Council. He does just as he pleases in all things, either in expending the city's money or in making arbitrary changes to the sewer system. As a matter of fact it is difficult to see what use the city has for a council, especially that it now has a City Engineer who imagines he is the whole thing.

The Sun is now settled in its new quarters and to a few days will be strongly at home. Staying days in a newspaper office are times when the contentions of the other newspaper offices are greatly appreciated. Through the courtesy of Mr. C. M. Leake, who alluded to the Sun day before yesterday.

PHILIPPINE EXPEDITION.

Washington, May 20.—General

Merritt is here completing arrangements to send the City of Pekin to Manila this week with troops for Admiral Dewey.

Washington, May 20.—Major General Merritt's advice as to the Philippine expedition will be followed.

He is to have 14,000 men, 5,000 of whom will be regulars. The City of Pekin will probably sail Saturday with the 1,400 men. General Otis will command the first expedition.

ALLOWED EXPENSES.

Washington, May 20.—A house bill reported by the committee on claims passed this week, directing the payment to Samuel McKee, of Kentucky, $1,718, for expenses incurred by him in a contest for his seat in the Fortieth congress.

MAY BEGIN NEXT WEEK.

Washington, May 20.—Unless some unforeseen movement of the Spanish fleet occurs the invasion of Cuba by the United States army will begin the latter part of next week.

SENT AWAY.

clothing, was given transportation to

ANOTHER MEMBER ARRIVES.

member of the stock company at La

DIED YESTERDAY.

Henry Randle, colored, died yesterday. He was released from the county jail a few days ago to die, after having been there for some time with consumption. The case against him was dismissed.

LICENSE RAISED.

Manager Fletcher Terrell has notid-ed the board of education that he will charge $2 more per night extra for the opera house for the two commemoranda of the Paducah public schools. The board has heretofore paid $15 a night on commemoration, but this year the manager wants $10 for each night, or $20 for both.

has accepted the invitation, and will deliver the address. Central College is GLADSTONE'S CAREER.

A Sketch of England's Greatest Statesman—A Life Work Intimately Connected With England's History.

The Champion of Irish Home Rule and the Friend of the Oppressed—America's Staunch Admirer.

History records few careers so remarkable as that of William Earl Gladstone. Of his 88 years he has been spent in active service for his country.

He contributed more than any single man with pen and voice has done, to create Italy and to destroy the Turk in Europe. As prime minister or "Pensioner" he established the British influence in Egypt, he annexed New Guinea, North Borneo and Bechuanaland, but ardently condemned every extension of the empire that was not forced by inexorable necessity. He established the great precedent of the Alabama arbitration, and was the first British statesman to recognize that in the future the United States will supersede Great Britain as the most powerful and the English speaking country.

Gladstone's parliamentary career dates from December, 1832, when he took his seat in the house as a member from Newark, a nomination brought about by the Duke of Newcastle. He was then a graduate of Oxford of one year's standing and was just entering his 23rd year. In the course of two seasons he established such a reputation that when in 1834 Sir Robert Peel was called to form a government he named Mr. Gladstone junior lord of the treasury, and soon after under secretary for the treasury.

From this period in his life many high places. In 1841, under Peel's second administration, he became a member of the privy council and was appointed vice president of the board of trade and master of the mint. He was president of the board from 1843 to 1845; secretary of state for the colonies from 1845 to 1846; and chancellor of the exchequer during three administrations, the first from 1852 to 1855, the second from 1859 to 1861, and the third from 1873 to 1874.

When Peel retired upon his great illness in 1845, the government was confronted with a deficit of $12,500,000 in the revenues. The task was therefore, reform and the great labor involved in the successive development of the many changes in the tariff developed mainly upon Mr. Gladstone. The revision of the customs tariff of the following year was his able work. At one stroke he initiated free trade by striking 750 of the 1250 duties paying articles from the tariff, or reducing the tax. It further fell to him to fight for the measure, clause by clause, in the midst of the common. The effect of this tariff measure of the Parliament was a change from a deficit in the revenue of $12,500,000 in 1841 to a surplus of $12,500,000 in 1844.

Mr. Gladstone's Toryism was re-sounded in the year 1852, when he declined a position in the Cabinet of Lord Derby. On assuming the Chancellorship of the Exchequer under Lord Aberdeen in the same year he introduced his famous budget in a series of addresses pronounced by Lord John Russell "the ablest exposition of the principles of finance ever delivered by an English statesman." This budget of 1850 was followed by six annual budgets, all Mr. Gladstone's and all rare successes, and the skill shown in the management of finances excited the admiration of all Europe.

On the death of Lord Palmerston in 1865 Mr. Gladstone became leader of the liberals in the house. In 1868 he introduced his famous resolutions favoring the disestablishment and disendowment of the Irish church, the ablest exposition of the principles of finance ever delivered by an English statesman. This budget of 1860 was followed by six annual budgets, all Mr. Gladstone's and all rare successes, and the skill shown in the management of finances excited the admiration of all Europe.

recovered from the effects of a stroke which he suffered in 1874. He was then 82 years of age, and his health was such that he could not have been expected to live long. The Bright Side "The execution of Dr. Pritchard, a prisoner, was carried out during the period of a general election," said a London exchange. "One of the journalists who witnessed the execution, and who also had been working hard on the election reports, began his introduction for his Edinburgh paper in the train in this way: 'The execution of Dr. Pritchard at Glasgow yesterday adds another to the long list of liberal victories by which the recent races have been distinguished.' Then he fell asleep."

A Lively Session of the City Council Last Night.

Mr. Harney Is Elected Assistant City Engineer, at $75 Per Month.

There was a sort of monkey and parrot time of it in the council last night. The meeting was called to elect an assistant engineer.

The Coburn company was given permission to extend the water mains in the vicinity of the plant.

Mr. Pat Lally was accorded permission to move a house at Tenth and Trimble streets.

The election of an assistant city engineer was entered into. Messrs. H. L. Lyon, W. Robert Paige and R. O. Harney were nominated. Mr. Paige's name was afterwards withdrawn.

There was a hot discussion, after which the vote was taken. Mr. Harney received seven votes, while Mr. Lyon received five.

CASE SETTLED.

The Muller Will Is Broken by the Court.

The case of John Muller and others against Will Muller was decided yesterday afternoon in the circuit court, by a verdict for the plaintiff.

The case was to break a will purporting to be the last will and testament of the late Mrs. H. H. Muller, in which she left two of her children $5 each. The plaintiffs claimed that she made a later will, which has never been found. The estate is now being divided equally among all the children. It is valued at about $6,000.

COLORED MINERS.

Three Hundred Passed Through Paducah Last Night En Route to Carterville.

Will Work in Place of Strikers. If They Live Long Enough, for Trouble Is Expected.

A special train passed through the city at 11:30 o'clock last night en route from Jellico, mines to Carterville, Ill., where the miners are on strike. On board were 300 colored miners, who go to Carterville to take the places of the miners.

It is predicted they will be trouble when they are put to work, as colored miners are not allowed to work there even when there is no strike, and now that they are to take the places of strikers, there is a much greater probability of trouble.

Some of them learned on the way there was danger, and none of them had even heard there was a strike, and were badly frightened. They said at the depot that they knew the true condition of affairs they would have never come.

SUDDEN DEATH.

Mr. Hermann Harris Dies of Heart Failure at the Home of His Daughter.

Had Been a Resident of Paducah Several Years—Leaves a Family.

Mr. Hermann Harris, the well known traveling man, who had for several years been connected with the firm of Hecht Bros., died suddenly last night at the home of his son-in-law, Mr. Max Hecht, of West Broadway, after several months of failing health. He had been complaining for two months or more, but was out day before yesterday. He recently returned from Louisville, where he had been under the treatment of physicians, but did not seem to be benefited.

The deceased was born in Germany, but had spent most of his life in America. He was 64 years old, and came here from Louisville about five years ago. He died of heart failure.

Besides a wife he leaves six children, three daughters and three sons, as follows: Medaunes James Weile, Max Hecht and Mrs. Herman, of the city, and Messrs. Ike Harris, of Louisville, Louis Harris, of New York, and Milton Harris, of Ashville, N. C.

The funeral will take place in Louisville Sunday, but further than this nothing is known of the arrangements for it.

HE SKIPPED.

Eldridge Wright, of Memphis, Tenn., in company with Will Mount, son of Buck Mount of Paducah, and Oscar Rose, thought he was privileged to insult a colored girl, who resented the insult. Oscar Jarrett asked Mr. Wright to attend to his own business and let his sister alone. This brought on a row between the three parties on one side and a lot of colored men on the other side. A number of the men left the boat and went to Brooklyn by rail as a result. Wright was arrested, taken to the police court on complaint of Capt. Cowling and bonded for his appearance at 8 a. m. May 18, but failed to appear. The bond was forfeited and paid by $25. Cowling—Wright crossed the river at 10 p. m. Tuesday night.—Metropolis Journal—Republican.

HURRAH FOR THE CHAMPION HEATER!

How dear to my heart is our snug little bathroom. Our refuge from sickness, discomfort or dust its marble, its nickel, its neat-painted flooring. So shiny and free from all foulness and rust. But the best thing there is within that enclosure. The object that pleases us most of them all. That soonest can warm us when chilled by exposure. Is the good Champion heater that stands by the wall. The Champion gas heater, the nickel-plate heater. The nice, handy heater, so shiny and tall.

When the fires are all out and the children awake me. With coughs or with croup, at once, with all speed. To light up the heater I straightway betake me. And find it is always a good friend indeed. For laundry, for sickroom—most all pain relieving—For milk that is malted, beef extract or tea. For hot water bags—why, 'tis past all believing. How handy a good Champion heater can be. The Champion gas heater, the nickel-plate heater—No living without one henceforward for me.
