Wives and Daughters Help Keep Nation's Lands Full

If victory begins at home, it is up to the women to start it.

You will find rural women helping in many ways, from farm groups and in large groups. Farm work, what must be done to strengthen the home front and doing it.

First and foremost, the production of food must not be interrupted, even if hardships, troubles, new and varied men take their places. Women are also taking positions in war industries.

Victory Gardens.

Many women's clubs have established victory gardens, a project of the Department of Agriculture. "We are not to be all hands farmers, but the many who are interested contribute to their utmost capacity," said the women's club of Wellesley, Mass.

Another leader in the women's clubs said, "We are not to be all hands farmers, but the many who are interested contribute to their utmost capacity.

They returned home at dusk, the mother of the family said. The mother of the family said, "We are not to be all hands farmers, but the many who are interested contribute to their utmost capacity.

The White House.

Mr. Batt disclosed that many earnest ministers are at work in Washington, studying the defense program. "They are interested in cleaning up their school surroundings," he said. "They are interested in cleaning up their school surroundings."

The naval building program this year will produce 100 new warships, he said. The naval building program this year will produce 100 new warships, he said.

President Roosevelt today addressed the nation. "I do not know how many more people there are in the world now than there were in the world last year," he said. "I do not know how many more people there are in the world now than there were in the world last year.

WAR BONDS:

"I believe we ought to have a bond issue to help the Allies in their war against Germany," he said. "I believe we ought to have a bond issue to help the Allies in their war against Germany."
The right of the human being to speak and to express himself is as undeniable as a law of nature. Without it there is no hope for happiness, no promise of progress, no unity for national strength.

Only so long as we can speak out openly and without fear, as in public meetings so typical of free America, is it possible to consider important issues or arrive at practicable conclusions affecting public interest. It's the only way a decision agreeable to the majority or a compromise satisfactory to the minority can be determined. This is American, democratic self-government.

Because of the working of this process America was prepared to make the decision suddenly forced upon us by the treachery of an enemy. It is American democratic self-government.

The voices that had been many on both sides of the issue of war became one voice — the voice of free America, ringing out its determined answer to the challenge of the forces of destruction and oppression.

Here in America we know our course in this present world struggle and we know the principles for which we fight. This is a fountain of strength in our struggle against the dictators whose subjects know only what their masters want them to know, who think what they are told to think and who fight because they are ordered to fight. Theirs is a great silence; theirs is a world that is dead.

Without the voices of the people a land might just as well be without any sound, even the noises of nature. The sound that free speech has made in our country will echo through the world. The force that free speech has built will restore speech to the downtrodden nations. It must be . . . or all the people on earth will be doomed to eternal silence. America will not fail.

The armies are winning, the navy is winning, the air is winning, and the responsibility varies, the committee of public information and the responsibility of the President's program.

Our factories are now producing roads, as well as other materials necessary for the war effort. They have left office jobs to take on our war effort to get the war won, and they are working day and night to see that the war is won.

We are fighting this war for our way of life, for our constitution, for our democracy, for our way of life. We are fighting this war for our future, for our children's future. We are fighting this war for our country.

It is imperative that we continue to support the United States, the United Nations, and the United Nations. We must continue to support the United Nations, the United Nations, and the United Nations.
