VOLUME III.

HOPKINSVILLE, CHRISTIAN COUNTY, KENTUCKY, SATURDAY, JUNE 30, 1888.

NUMBER 120

CONDENSED NEWS.

The grand jury of the Frankfort circuit court Wednesday evening returned four indictments against James W. Tate, late state treasurer, for the crime of embezzlement. The total amount set out in the indictments is $404,085.85, dating from January 1, 1878, to January 1, 1888, leaving the period between 1888 and the time of Tate's flight unprovided for.

A frightful accident occurred at 3 o'clock Wednesday morning at a culvert on the Louisville & Nashville road near Harrison Bayou, twenty-seven miles north of Mobile, by which Engineer John Morgan, Fireman Sam Williams, Mail Clerk Alonzo B. Davis and two tramps, unknown, lost their lives. The train was the fast limited express, and when it went crashing into the culvert was going at the rate of fifty miles an hour. The engine went in first and was followed by the mail and baggage cars. The passenger cars were thrown down the embankment, thirty-five feet high, and two of them and a Pullman sleeper badly wrecked. Almost miraculously none of the passengers were killed, although four of them and Conductor Pickett Coleman are injured.

For some time past Charles B. Hill of Mayville, Ky., has lived with a young woman named Lucy Rice, who was employed as a domestic in a number of families. Wednesday morning he reached Mayville on a boat coming from Cincinnati. On the boat with him was another woman named Barbara Stone, whose home is at Ripley, O. At the time he was about to get off the boat he saw the first named woman apparently waiting for him, and calling the attention of his companion to her, he got out of the way. The Ripley woman walked up the grade, followed by Lucy Rice. In a few minutes a shot was heard, and those who hurried to the spot found Barbara Stone laid out on the pavement at the top of the grade with a bullet through her brain, dead. The murderer was arrested, and is now in custody.

Personal.

Mr. N. H. Frohlieist, of Mobile, Ala., writes: I take great pleasure in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, having used it for a severe attack of Bronchitis and Catarrh. It gave me instant relief and entirely cured me. I have not been afflicted since. I also beg to state that I had tried other remedies, but without result. Have also used Electric Bitters and Dr. King's New Life Pills, both of which I can recommend.

Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, is sold on a positive guarantee, at H. B. Garner's City Pharmacy, 50 cents and $1.00 per bottle.

NEIGHBORHOOD NOTES.

A negro named Turner was shot by William Jackson, another negro, on last Friday night at Dunmore. Jackson escaped and Turner died the next night from his wounds. The shooting occurred over a gambling quarrel.

No Republican in the city of Paducah has smiled since Monday afternoon. The nomination of Harrison was as much of a wet blanket on their enthusiasm as was Charles Brooks' speech at the recent city convention. It is doubtful if they will ever smile again.

Sheriff Pannell arrested on Caney Creek Friday morning a man named Crouch, charged with shooting a man named Sullivan some five or six years ago near Smithland. He took him to that place on Saturday. Since the shooting Crouch has been a fugitive from justice, and had until recently been in Missouri.

Mr. Wm. A. Corral Hill, killed a veritable hoop snake in his garden, a few days ago. The snake was about the length of a medium leg and carried the heavy substance known as a hoop on its tail. Tradition says that when enraged the hoop snake rolls himself up like a barrel hoop, takes his tail in his mouth, and rolls away with the velocity of lightning. In its course it sometimes strikes a tree with its bony tail with such force as to stick the horn deep into the wood, and kill itself, and that the tree always eventually dies. One of these snakes can now be seen at Locke & Smith's, preserved in alcohol.

Mr. Alex Davasher, of the Pageville country, was telling some of his friends in Glasgow a curious tale a few days ago. Mr. Davasher says his section was visited by a severe thunder storm. After the rain subsided one of his sons went down into the old field and soon returned with the information that a large stone had fallen in the field, crushing all the oats for several feet around, and sinking several inches in the ground. Mr. Davasher went down, inspected for himself and found everything as stated. The rock was undoubtedly of meteoric formation, and had landed from some other far distant planet in the storm. It was of entirely different formation from the surrounding soil and rocks.

To Tri-Weekly Subscribers.

Our offer to delinquents (allowing them to pay at the rate of $2.00 a year, when they pay to date and for a year in advance) has been responded to in a very satisfactory manner, but there are a few who have not been heard from. For the benefit of those few we will extend the time in which they may come up and settle under the above proposition to July 1st. We now hope all will come in and secure a ticket in our drawing for every dollar they pay. Note well the terms; old scores at $2.00 a year, a year in advance $2.00, a ticket with every dollar until July 1st to come in.

Save the children. They are especially liable to sudden Colds, Coughs, Croup, Whooping Cough, etc. We guarantee Ayer's English Remedy a positive cure. It saves hours of anxious watching. Sold by H. B. GARNER, Hopkinsville, Ky.

The Office Seekers.

ANTIOCH, KY., June 25, 1888.—The candidates for the office of sheriff and judge of the court of common pleas spoke to a pretty good crowd here today. Mr. Wiley opened the speaking. He was very much embarrassed and his speech of accordingly. He made but few points and they were done away with by his opponents. Mr. Hanberry came next; he was a little embarrassed at the start but warmed up to his subject and wore his embarrassment off. He asserted that there was a court-house clique and that they were many and mysterious; he also asserted that he was going to down the clique. Mr. Hanberry is nothing if not honest in his principles and convictions. He deserves to belong to a better party than the Republican party of Christian county. Mr. West came forward, looking as pleasing as if he enjoyed the situation, which I guess he does. He said his little say in a manner to convince all fair-minded men that he is the man of the three for the next sheriff. As sure as the election comes off, Mr. West will be elected. Mr. Wiley in his reply tried to ignore Mr. Hanberry and his charges, hoping the people will do the same, but he shall see. Mr. Brethitt came next, in his glowing style, claiming Judge McPherson too old for a position of the kind to which he aspires, and arguing that he is the man of all men for the judgeship. He also denounced the president as the enemy of the soldier and the people generally. He gave G. W. Buckner a shake and those who elected Tate a kick, but did not once mention the fact that the state was made safe by Tate's boulenmen. Judge McPherson spoke in a plain and impressive manner. He referred Mr. Brethitt's tirade against Cleveland to Mr. Henry, the elector for this district. He also showed that it was not a political office which he sought and politics cut no figure in the case. KITTIE.

Wonderful Cures.

W. D. Hoyt & Co., Wholesale and Retail Druggists of Rome, Ga., say: We have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery, Electric Bitters and Bucklen's Arnica Salve for four years. Have never handled remedies that sell so well. Ackers' English Remedy. It is the best preparation known for all Lung Troubles, sold on a positive guarantee at 10c, 50c. H. B. GARNER, Hopkinsville, Ky.

From the Springs.

CERULEAN SPRINGS, June 26.—The continued rains have had a depressing effect on our farmers and a proposition was gravely made to me by a friend to build an ark in anticipation of another flood.

Mr. Craven Faulkner, of this place, and Mr. Saunders, of Wallonia, made extensive preparation for a barbecue at the latter place, but unfortunately for the boys the rains came down in torrents and spoiled the whole thing. They lost fifty or sixty dollars in cash besides their labor.

The infant daughter of Robert Goodwin died on last Saturday, after an illness of twelve or fifteen days. The sorrowing parents have the hearty sympathy of this community in their bereavement.

Prof. Coyner, of the Bainbridge neighborhood, paid our town a flying visit last Monday. We understand that the people of the Mt. Carmel district have secured him as their teacher this fall.

Mr. John Stewart and Miss Elizabeth Cook were married last Sunday morning at the residence of the bride's parents.

Wallonia was stirred up over the elopement, Sunday evening, of Mr. Cherry, a student in Mr. Roscoe's school at Wallonia, and Miss Lucy Gardner, daughter of Mr. Jack Gardner, of that place. We understand the run-a-way couple were pursued by the brothers of the young lady, but do not know with what result.

Prof. B. A. P'Pool, of our village, made arrangements for a concert on Friday night, the fifteenth, the day his school closed, but the rain interfering, it was postponed until the following Monday night. There was a large crowd in attendance, and the dialogues, declamations, etc., were well recited and everything went off nicely. Prof. P'Pool we understand, will teach the public school in Christian this fall.

Prof. B. E. Thom has returned from a visit to Dawson. He reports quite a number of visitors.

Misses Jennie Baker and Carrie Mitchell, of Friendship, were in our town today on a shopping expedition.

The proprietors of the Springs have dismissed the Italian band first employed on account of their inferiority, and have engaged another, the one that was employed year before last. F. B. W.

The Dudes Know It.

Or if they don't they know that Ransom Root Liniment cured Big Head in mules for W. E. Hunt, of Adairville, Ky. J. H. Mallory, of Fort's Station, Tenn., cured his hogs of blind staggers with it. In fact this King of Liniments is valuable for man and beast, and no family should be without it. Sold by all druggists.

A correspondent of the Farmers Home Journal from Lewisport, Ky., writes:

There has been about one half of the intended crop of tobacco set in this neighborhood, but the cut worms have destroyed most of it, and the season being light, some of it died. The crop is going to be mostly dark, on account of the failure of the Burley seed to come up. Plants are now very large and a great many will spoil if there is not a season within the next few days.
