The Panama Canal is one of the largest projects in the world. It is a great engineering achievement and has won the admiration of the world. The Panama Canal is a maritime thoroughfare which connects the Atlantic Ocean with the Pacific Ocean. It was constructed to facilitate trade between the two oceans. The canal was completed in 1914 and is approximately 50 miles long. It consists of a series of locks and channels which allow ships to pass through the isthmus of Panama. The Panama Canal is a vital link in global trade and has played a significant role in the economy of the United States. It has been described as "the Eighth Wonder of the World."

How the New Order Limiting Telephone Installations May Affect You

To turn out more guns and more weapons for our fighting men, our Government has called upon the telephone industry to reduce the number of new telephone installations to an extent that will divert large numbers of tons of vital mettals and rubber to war production.

If you are a user of the service or a host or residential subscriber, the limitations of the War Production Board have no effect on you, depending upon how much equipment is now available to serve the future requirements of essential individuals or agencies in your community.

Specifically, this is how the order affects your non-subscribers, business or residential publishers, the inmates of the War Production Board. It affects you only if you can see how much equipment is now available to serve your needs.

1. You may not have your telephone removed unless you are notified in writing in advance.

The August issue of "The Christian Science Monitor" reported: "A recent survey of 1000 young people in the metropolitan cities of the United States indicates that while the majority of them are loyally supporting the war, their first loyalty is to their friends and to their families. This is a most interesting report, and one which should cause us to pause and reflect upon the true meaning of patriotism."

The favorite cigarette with men in the Army, Navy, Marines, and Coast Guard in Camel (found on actual sales records in Fort Exchanges, Sales Commission, Boy's Service Stores, Ship's Stores, and Canteens).
AMERICA stands as the world's greatest monument to Religion and to Faith. However, unlike most monuments, it is one that was never built. It is a living monument that has grown.

Our country was founded because a band of freedom-loving people insisted on the right to go about their daily lives thinking and believing and worshipping openly, according to their own conscience and not according to the dictate of some arbitrary authority. Consequently, there can be no place in America today for even the thought of any such order that would impose upon or hamper the individual's spiritual beliefs.

The soreness of the individual's right to worship in his own way is forever instilled in all real Americans and in their children. Respect for this right and tolerance for the other fellow's beliefs are principles that form two of the sturdiest pillars of our Democracy.

The preservation of religious freedom as one of the inalienable rights carried America through the hardships of early colonial days, through the sacrifices of the War of the Revolution, and through the troubled days of the first Federal Government. Always it has been faith in the Divine and devotion to individual freedom that have kept our country moving steadily ahead to the place of leadership among the nations of the world and now to the task of saving them.

Approximately two hundred thousand religious organizations and churches of some two hundred and fifty different faiths bear witness to the freedom and the vitality of Religion in America. Its teachings and its practices have influenced our people to live better and more useful lives, not just for their own sake, but for their fellowmen and for their country. Religion asks that the individual treat his fellowman as his brother and to be an example to him. All real Americans realize what this freedom of Religion means to us as individuals and as a nation and will safeguard it eternally for us and for all the world.

These sentiments are presented to you through the co-operation of the following
