NO right thinking people want a war, but they will fight one in order to have peace. They know that only while there is peace can there be real freedom, and that happiness and progress are the fruits of peace. The happiness of home and family is destroyed if it is haunted by the constant fear that fathers, sons, husbands and sweethearts may have to sacrifice their lives, no matter how noble the purpose.

We in America are engaged in a great world struggle . . . not just because our peace was treacherously violated, but because threatening forces were gaining strength in the world to carry out their long-planned plans for the destruction of all peace-loving and liberty-loving people. We are in this war to win it, not just for America, but for all the peoples of the earth—both for those whose governments safeguard the individual's rights and liberties and for those who have helplessly and unwittingly become the victims of vicious and unscrupulous leaders.

The people of warlike nations or those who are forced to live always in preparation for war are inevitably doomed to labor and misery and to the loss of their liberty. They become underprivileged and unhappy and fall easy prey to the deceptions that are practiced upon them. Compare this with our country which has lived most of its national life in friendship and in peace. We have been able to devote ourselves almost continuously to the pursuits of self-development and constructive projects, with the result that America has been the peace-setter of world progress and become the leader of the nations.

With the world drawn closer together through commerce, communication and aviation, it is clear that amicable neighborliness, economic freedom and mutual assistance must be the order of the day if we are to have permanent peace and continued world progress. Then all people can live free of the frustration that comes from the fear that war may put an end to all their hopes and ambitions. America will see to it that the United Nations win the present war and that all the peoples of the world win the peace that will follow. It must be a world where all people shall be free of fear, where "swords will be beaten into plowshares" and where there will be "Peace on Earth, Good Will Toward Men."

NEW IDEAS
For Home-makers
K. M. Waddell Writes

A change in the war economy will soon mean new directions in the everyday life of all Americans. The united effort of the American people is the key to victory. Wartime planning is the watchword. Therefore, let us consider these new ideas that help conserve, save, and increase production.

The war effort is everyone's responsibility. Every individual can help by using their resources wisely and efficiently. Here are some ideas for conserving resources:

- Use less electricity by turning off lights when not needed and using energy-efficient appliances.
- Reduce water usage by fixing leaky faucets and using water-efficient fixtures.
- Use fabric scraps to make pillows, cushions, and other home accessories.
- Repurpose old clothes into new clothing or use them as casual wear for the home.

These ideas can contribute to the war effort by conserving resources and supporting the war effort.

As Collier Sinks in Battle of Atlantic

A naval convoy, consisting of 18 merchant ships on the Atlantic coast, lost one to a mine planted by enemy subs, because there was no cover. In pictures at left a carrier divebomber spots the vessel. The ship was later captured and taken to the enemy waters. (Photo shows the wrecked vessel.)

New Methods to Speed Up Ship Production

You have seen pictures of big ships, powerful planes and giant guns for Uncle Sam's armed forces. But here is the story of bigger guns and more ships in less time, 40 of them, and at a cost of a million dollars in war dollars. It is the story of a government-allied system of war production, without which Liberty ships that carry our materials to the battlefield would be impossible.

Seven Groups Rank President on Continuation of Farm Security Administration; Veterans Observers See New Trend.

New York, N. Y., Jan. 12—President Franklin D. Roosevelt, the Farmer's Union and the American Railway Labor Executives Associations have been designated the seven most influential leaders in the nation's political arena in a national survey. The survey, conducted by Life magazine, included a poll of 6,000 voters in 500 towns across the country, and results were released today.

WASHINGTON D.C., Jan. 12—Presidential candidates' supporters were among the most influential leaders in the nation's political arena, according to a national survey conducted by Life magazine. The survey, which included a poll of 6,000 voters in 500 towns across the country, found that seven groups—President Franklin D. Roosevelt, the Farmer's Union and the American Railway Labor Executives Associations—were the most influential leaders.
