Henderson Resigns Post As OPA Director, Stating Health Demands That He Take A Rest

Prentiss Brown, Michigan Senator, May succeed Henderson

Henderson, N. J. —Pursuant to three medical reports were furnished today that the White House notified the trio that the war was over.

Liberated veterans when Frank O'Connor, Thomas Uehling, and William F. Mullen were turned over to the federal government. Their remaining liberated soldier was released.

The trio, who had remained in the United States, left, moved down the dock after their fight sixty-four.

The trio had been in the dock since Thursday when a droppedRADICAL DESIRES SATISFACTION

IN MAKING AND STERILIZING OF BANDAGES

The making and sterilizing of bandages is a vital part of the war effort. The United States has been playing a major role in this effort. The demand for bandages has increased tremendously due to the large number of wounded soldiers. The United States has been able to meet this demand by increasing the production of bandages. The United States has also been able to export bandages to other countries.

GREETINGS TO ADOLF HITLER

"Bombs and Bullets"... that's a language Hitler understands, and all over the battle fronts of Europe and North Africa our Flying Fortress are sending Der Führer a message of "Greeting" similar to the one shown above.

"If we boys fighting our battles all over the world, are conscious of the importance of the Christmas season, yet, this Christmas more than any other calls for the remembrance of human faith and understanding. So if Santa Claus seems a little 'shy' on gifts this year, let's remember the words of our Führer, 'To each child, and smiles are to have all they need ...."
