GIRL SCOUTS TO MAKE ANOTHER SCRAP DRIVE IN THIS VICINITY

The V. M. C. Scout Troop, and the first division of Fulton will again cooperate in another scrap drive.

The girls in this group have been successful in their previous drives, and are expected to be just as successful in this one. They have been notified that a large amount of scrap has been collected in the past.

FULTON BUSINESS MEN ARE AGRICULTURALLY MINDED

The editors of the News are greatly concerned with the progress of the farmers in the area. It is our belief that the farmers are the backbone of our country, and we are sure that they will continue to support the war effort.

FULTON STANDARDS ETHICAL

Beginning at the 30th cent of service on Westmoreland and northern Illinois, we will establish certain standards of ethical conduct for all farm men.

If we do not establish these standards, we shall have a current of mixed-up farmers, and we fear that the standard of living will not be maintained.

MEET MISS KELLY

Miss Helen Kelly the 11 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Kelly of Carlisle County is going to show the best of Western Kentucky club project and a dairy heifer ready shown her ability in boys at the County show the steer was injected for another year with a beef in one of 5 young 411ers of Carlisle Bardwell on August 7. Helen was weighed 300 lbs. at the start of the project in the Agricultural Department of the Railroad a County Agent John Watts in the steer was small and weighed 300 lbs. at the start of the breeding period in October 1945. All the County show the steer was planned to receive with a 300 lbs. weight that she was an average of form and very fat. The steer is expected to grow to 800 lbs. in the fall. These animals are two outlets for the dairy produce. Two excellent income is most effective-try raising, and those industries that service the dairy are very important in the life of the state. The milk may be more profitable than meat. There is no years. Meat production has reached an all time high. There are no years. In the same manner, the farmer is doing much the same thing for the supply of the needs of the farmer and it is not a question of what shall he produce.

WHAT EVERY KENTUCKIAN MUST KNOW ABOUT AN IMPORTANT TAX SOURCE

The Pocketbook of Knowledge

Money Talks

This nation is facing a crisis in the bond market. The gold and silver price of the nation's gold reserves has caused much concern among bond investors. It is important to understand the factors that influence bond prices.

The market for government bonds is highly sensitive to economic conditions. When interest rates rise, bond prices fall, and vice versa. This is due to the inverse relationship between bond prices and interest rates. As interest rates rise, the coupon payments on existing bonds become less attractive compared to new bonds issued at higher rates.

In addition to interest rates, bond prices are also affected by economic growth, inflation, and monetary policy. When the economy is growing, bond prices tend to fall because investors anticipate higher interest rates in the future. Similarly, rising inflation erodes the purchasing power of fixed-income investments like bonds.

Monetary policy, such as changes in the Federal Reserve's target for the federal funds rate, can also impact bond prices. Tighter monetary policy often leads to higher interest rates, which can cause bond prices to fall.

In summary, understanding the factors that influence bond prices is crucial for investors in the bond market. By monitoring interest rates, economic growth, inflation, and monetary policy, investors can better time their investments and protect their wealth.
