FROM THE FRENCH.

Impious Venus has less potent than caressing Venus.
To love is the least of the faults of a loving woman—La Rochefoucauld
Poetry has been the guardian angel of humanity in all ages—Lamartine.
Pittleness is a barrier to delicate natures as perfume is to flowers—De Froid.
Love is a tigger who still begs when she has given him everything—Rochefoucauld.
We like those to whom we do good better than those who do us good—De Saint-Real.
Beauty is often but a splendid cloak which conceals the imperfections of the soul—F. G. G.
Youth! thou often fearest thy wings against the thorns of voluptuousness—Victor Hugo.
A plume said: If I ignored the existence of God, I would adore the sun and women.
Hypocrisy is the shadow of man; remembrance of it follows him; hope of it precedes him—J. Petit-Senn.
It is easier for a woman to defend her virtue against men than her reputation against women—Rochefoucauld.
In retelling history, we name the originator, in order to give a pleasure without danger—Mme de La Fayette.
Man is nothing, but insincerity, falsehood and hypocrisy. He does not like to hear the truth and shuns telling it—Pascal.
One of the most seductive illusions of love is to imagine that we contribute to the happiness of those we love—Bernardin de St. Pierre.
Love is everything; love is the great fact. What matters the lover? What matters the beloved? provided one has the intoxication—A. de Musset.
O future ages, what will be your fate? Glory, like a shadow, has returned to heaven; Love no longer charms man, man, however, believes but to Death—A. de Musset.

A MAGNIFICENT DISCOURSE.

BROOKLYN, Jan. 28.—The usual large audience assembled in the Tabernacle today and listened to a sermon of remarkable power and interest by Rev. Dr. Talmage, the subject being "Feastivity." The text selected was Luke xiv, 17. "Come, for all things are now ready." It was one of the most stirring sermons in English history when Queen Elizabeth visited Lord Leicester at Kenilworth castle. The sermon was so powerful that it was considered so important that all the clocks of the castle were stopped, and the hands might point to that one moment as being the most significant of all. It was greeted by the guests with shouts of approval, and the thunder of cannon, and fireworks that set the night ablaze, and a great burst of music that lifted the whole scene into perfect enchantment. Then she was introduced in a dining hall the luxuries of which astonished the world. Four hundred servants waited upon the guests. The entertainment cost $50,000 each year. Lord Leicester made that great supper in Kenilworth castle.

A DEMAND

In the Name of the Farmers of Christian County

The New Era Demands that the Clarksville Tobacco Board of Trade

Publish that Letter Written to it by Fifteen Tobacco Dealers at Bremen, Germany,

When They Ceased to Buy the Weed on that Market on Account of Fraudulent Packing.

And Said That They Would No More There Until They Received a Guarantee Against a Continuance of Such Practice.

TELL US ALL ABOUT IT.

For some time the Clarksville papers have been saying that the investigation over there has helped the market, and a lot of rot of similar nature. About a week or ten days ago the Progress-Democrat contained an article on which we commented at some length. From that same Progress-Democrat article we clip the following:

"The recent 'shake-up' has had no other effect than to inspire confidence in the market, and to remove all suspicion of anything that is not good."

"Insured confidence has it, eh? Yes, it has inspired confidence, and lots of it, too, but it is a kind of a back-sight confidence, the confidence is turned the wrong way—the foreign dealers have the confidence, they are confident that they are done with Clarksville's tobacco market until some guarantee of security in buying is given them. They are confident that they will never have to do it again."

"A hoghead of tobacco that bears any resemblance to the sample by which they bought, and which purports to be a box of good cigars, and bears a bearing number, marks 45."

"Now we are coming to the point. We wish to ask the Clarksville Board of Trade and the Clarksville Newspaper if they ever saw or 'heard tell of' a letter written over in a town called Bremen, far across the deep blue sea, where tobacco is raised in the Clarksville tobacco district is sometimes handled? Did they ever see this letter to which fifteen tobacco dealers—all that do business in the Clarksville tobacco market, and which they said that the packing of tobacco at Clarksville had gotten worse and worse from year to year until the matter had now reached such a point that unless some guarantee was given that such frauds would be stopped they must in self-defense cease entirely to buy tobacco in that market, and saying that no more would be bought until some guarantee was given that they got from Clarksville? DID YOU HEAR OF IT?"

"We heard of that letter several days ago and have been waiting for the Clarksville Board of Trade to give it to one of the Clarksville papers—so we could see the full text of it—we are anxious to see it, and we call on the Board of Trade and the newspapers over there to publish it in full—with its fifteen signatures. The public has a right to know what that letter contained, and the newspapers over there to sell their tobacco to Clarksville for sale want to see that epistle from across the briny deep, that epistle in which they say that 'we wait your reply before making further purchases,' and in the name of these farmers, the KENTUCKY NEW ERA demands that you publish it. Such a letter has been written—PUBLISH IT."

"And when you saw it did you notice that it quoted in full an article which appeared in the Springfield Record in regard to 'Needing Tobacco,' and then said that this article described the condition of the tobacco that they got from Clarksville? DID YOU HEAR OF IT?"

ON THE WARPATH.

Mary Ellen Lease Denies the Charges Against Her.

Says Gov. Leavelle and His Office are Dishonest and Corrupt.

Special to the New Era.

Washington, Kan., Jan. 27.—The Herald, one of the leading papers of the State and the recognized organ of the administration, published a letter yesterday from Mrs. Lease, which is bound to cause a sensation in political circles.

She denies the various charges made against her, which have already been published, and adds that they have not only been untrue, but that they have been made for political purposes.

"That Gen. J. S. Weaver and I occupied the same room at the leading hotel during the campaign," she says, "the Governor and 'his gang' took bribes from three companies—Rock Island, Missouri Pacific and Missouri, Kansas & Texas (I have the proof); that we were in partnership with saloons and gambling houses; that we were dishonest and corrupt gang that ever disgraced the State; and they want to be remembered to the people as the cause of their ruin."

The letter closes: "I will go before the people of Kansas at the proper time and substantiate every assertion."

The Old and the New.

Changes take place in the medical profession as in all branches of science. We believe the greatest good will follow that generous offer made by Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th Street, New York, who invites all persons to send their names to him in any form of disease, to write a description of their complaints, and he will send them, free of charge, a complete explanation of their disease, with advice how to be cured. He gives most careful and explicit attention to all letters and explains each symptom so carefully that you cannot fail to understand exactly what ails you.

Dr. Greene is our most successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases. He is the discoverer of a new and powerful remedy, Dr. Greene's Nervine blood and nerve remedy, which is doing such a vast amount of good all over the world. He uses nothing in his practice but harmless vegetable remedies, which can in no manner injure you. This great system of giving consultation and advice through letter correspondence, free of charge, is especially important to the poor and those living at a distance from large cities, as such consultation and advice were formerly attended by great expense. The doctor, however, they can get in treating the sick through letter correspondence, and if you will write him about your disease it will undoubtedly lead you to cure.

Reduced to Epithets.

(Courtesy-Journal.)

The bitter partisan animus of the Republican organ on the Hawaiian matter, which has been an unending stream, is well illustrated by the malignancy with which every reference by them to ex-Minister Blount is made. They brand him as President Cleveland's "spy," although his official consists in simply having ascertained and reported the truth, his purpose in going to Honolulu having been openly proclaimed.

If it fact, Blount was found by Mr. Blount as the Republicans alleged them to be, the Republicans could not have landed him too highly. As it is, however, they can only answer the facts by heaping epithets on Mr. Blount. The care taken by the Provisional Government, when it was first organized, to suppress the acts and to refuse to allow Liliuokalani's version of the revolution to be sent over with the proposition of annexation, together with the preposterous basis with which the annexation was sent to the Senate, showed conclusively that it was the purpose of the annexation, both in Hawaii and in this country, to effect a change in the government of the Hawaiian Islands, and that it was not and cannot be a party question.

A Sudden Death.

Mr. Robt. L. Martin died quite suddenly Friday at his home on the corner of Ninth and Virginia streets. While Mr. Martin had not been ill, he had for several days been suffering from quite a severe attack of rheumatism which had affected his right leg, but he had not been confined to his bed. It is thought that his sudden death must have been caused by the rheumatism reaching his heart. At an early hour this morning the doctor was sent into Mr. Martin's room to kindle a fire, and as he came in he raised himself on his elbow and said to the doctor: "I feel better, but my husband has been turned toward the wall and did not speak, so I supposed that he was asleep, and as it was rather early, I made no effort to arouse him. Just as breakfast was being prepared he went in to wake him; he called him and he failed to reply, so I drew nearer to the bed, when he discovered that he was dead."

Mr. Martin had lived in this city for many years, and by his many friends was well known. He had a special mention. All who had used Electric Bitters slung the same song in praise of a pure medicine "does not exist and it is guaranteed to do all that is claimed. Electric Bitters will cure all diseases of the Liver and Kidneys, will remove Pimples, Boils, Salt Rheum and other affections caused by impure blood. Will drive Malaria from the system and cure all fevers. For cure of Headache, Constipation and Indigestion try Electric Bitters. Entire satisfaction guaranteed, or money refunded. Price 50 cents and 100 per bottle at R. C. Hardwick's drug store."

Mrs. Dick Simpson and Henry Grace, of the Fruit Hill neighborhood, were in town this week.

Rev. Thos. Dixon, during his stay in town, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. McCall at Bethel College.

Mrs. Geo. Clark and Milton Hicks, from Stewart's precinct, were in the city on business Wednesday.

Mrs. J. J. Reed and H. B. Clark, from the Bellevue neighborhood, were visitors to the city Wednesday.

Mrs. Downer and Miss Sadie Wilcox, of the Fairview neighborhood, were among the visitors to the city Monday.

Mr. O. B. Griffin, a well known and prosperous farmer of the Crofton neighborhood, paid us a pleasant visit Monday.

Miss Lillie Allen, Mayfield; Miss Maude Roney, Salem; Miss Virginia Jackson, Kelsey; Miss Mamie Williams, Paducah; Miss Estelle Brown, Fairview; Miss Rosa Wolfe, Kelsey, have entered Bethel College for the spring term.

THE MODERN INVALID

Has tastes medicinally, in keeping with other luxuries. A remedy must be pleasantly acceptable in form, purely wholesome in composition, truly beneficial in effect and entirely free from every objectionable quality. If it is to be considered a physician, it should be as pleasant as the gentle family laxative Syrup of Figs.

LaFayette Items.

LaFayette, Ky., Jan. 28th, 1894.—If you will allow us a small space in your valuable paper, we will write a few lines from this place.

The school at this place closed Wednesday with suitable exercises to celebrate Feb. 12th.

We are expecting quite a number of boarders next session.

Lonnie, the little three year old son of Manon Gilles, was burned to death Friday, at his home near Church Hill. Miss Kate Kinn, one of our former students, was teaching there at the time the accident occurred.

The present prospect indicates that our community will be well represented at the St. Louis meeting.

For fear of the waste basket we will close for the present. And if this is published you may again hear from LILLIE AND LESLIE.

IF YOU WISH

To enjoy good health, and prevent the seeds of disease from ripening in your system, you should use the best medicine in the world, Syrup of Figs, which will prevent your system from being all run down by making it strong and vigorous.—REV. W. R. RICE.

Hon. Henry H. Houston, of Paducah, has filed suit in circuit court at Owensboro against the Owensboro, Falls of Rough and Green River Railroad Company for $10,000 damages on account of injuries received in the recent wreck at Whitesville. His shoulder was badly jarred and the clavicle injured to such an extent that he was unable to pursue a course of lectures for which he had engaged, and he has since been confined to his room. He claims that the accident was due to the carelessness and negligence of the railroad company's employees in leaving a switch open, which caused the collision in which he was hurt. Col. Houston was traveling on a newspaper ticket on which a contract whereby the holder engaged the railroad company from damages for injuries to property or person, but he claims that such a contract is not binding when by gross negligence on the part of the company an accident occurs. Railroad companies, he says, are prohibited by the constitution from making a contract limiting or releasing their liability for damages.

On Friday morning the 4-year-old son of Mr. Manon Gilles, who lives near this city on the Cox Mill road, was standing near the fire place when his clothes caught fire and before any assistance arrived he was terribly burned to death. It is probable that some of the features of the meeting will be a trip up the Kentucky river.

The poor over-worked, poorly-paid honest old farmers over in Hancock county seem to be in an excellent humor. The following statement of the Plainesdale says: "No season has found our farmers so far ahead as this in the important work for next year. The most of the tobacco beds are burned and sowed, the fear of snow is all that has prevented them from being sowed. Their stock is in fine condition with plenty of provender. Their money is good, and being out of debt the farmers wear all air of independence which bode no good to men who live by their votes, and have heretofore grown as well as somebody's political chaffers."

After reading the following paragraph from the Lintontown News, we can come to only one conclusion, and that is, that the writer of it was inspired,—just listen at him: "When I am asked to advertise you can safely think he has seen his best day and his star is on the wane. The successful merchant is he who never forgets that he is a man, and that he is not made aware of the fact by general kicking and an all round display of littleness in business affairs. If you want business and fair treatment go to the man who wants you to know him through the columns of your home paper."

Salvation Oil does not simply assuage pain; but, by quickly finding its way to the seat of the disease allays the swelling and inflammation, and by removing the cause of the disease, it is a permanent cure. It is without a doubt a great liniment and ought to be known by every family. Price 25 cents. At all dealers.

In an interview Tuesday, Mr. Phil D. Armon, the Chicago millionaire, said: "What will not hurt anybody from this on. I am not predicting for a cent or so, but that the buyer of wheat now at this price is setting the part of a good merchant and will come out right. It's the first time in a year and half that I've owned any. There is no great present demand for it, but the price along with the price of everything else has felt the full effect of the depression. Wheat has seen the worst. It will feel the improvement which is ahead along with everything else. There are new men under wheat and good ones. My own interest is not in speculative trade. But there are men in the market who are able to take care of themselves. I feel certain that, as we go along into Spring, especially as the March report comes out it will develop that nature has taken care of the situation and righted some of the unnatural conditions."

Senator Linder, of H. P. Louisville, who is one of the ablest men on the Republican side of the State Senate, is not given to speech making, and only addresses that body when he has something to say. Some years ago two precincts in Union county issued bids for a railroad which was never built, and the bonds fell due the matter gave a great deal of trouble. A meeting of citizens was held in 8 years a few days ago to discuss the question of paying the tax. The meeting decided to offer the bondholders a compromise. The motion authorizes the Funding Bonds to negotiate with the bondholders and the compromise could be made the same to be reported to the people of their districts for ratification or rejection. The two precincts involved in the matter are Linder, whose debt is $20,000, and Caseyville, whose debt is $20,000.

Judge Carrill, in the Franklin Circuit court, in a strong and lengthy opinion decided Saturday evening the tax injunction cases of the C. O. & S. W. in that city in which all the banks of the State were interested in the test made of the Hewitt contract law of 1886, requiring banks to pay the State 75 cents on each dollar of the loan of all other state, county or municipal taxation. The banks rejected the sheriff from collecting the county tax of 1886, and the judge decided the injunction, holding that the new revenue law repealed the Hewitt law and there was no contract under the Hewitt law which the State could not withdraw from under the general act of 1886. An appeal of the case to the court of appeals will now be made by the banks. The national bank questions under the national law have been argued. Another circuit judge decided a similar case Friday in which the opinion was in favor of the banks.

Candidates for the Governorship to succeed Governor Brown are becoming numerous. The following are spoken of as more or less likely to make the race: Gen. P. W. Hardin, Judge J. Q. Ward, of Paris; Judge Jerry Morton, of Lexington; Treasurer Hale; Lieut. Gov. M. C. Alford and Cassius M. Clay. The candidacy of Gen. Hardin is regarded as certain. Of Mr. Clay's candidacy the Courier-Journal says: "Of Mr. Cassius M. Clay, Jr., as a candidate for Governor, Mr. Clay stood second to Gov. Brown in the nominating vote at the last gubernatorial convention. He will be remembered to the Louisville and Nashville railroad company was generally credited with being largely instrumental in defeating Mr. Clay, and it is probable that, now that the L. & N. is such a prominent issue in State affairs, he will make it interesting for that company during his canvass. Mr. Clay won his reputation and prominence in the State Senate by his persistence in opposing the L. & N. in the general assembly.

TWO LETTERS

That Show the Promptness Which Characterizes the New York Life Insurance Company in Settling.

Messrs. Garnett & Moore, Special Agents New York Life Insurance Company, Hopkinsville, Ky.

GENTLEMEN:—

On the 24th of January, 1894, I received through your office a check for $2,500.00 in full payment of a policy held by my late husband, Dr. P. T. Rogers in the New York Life Insurance Company.

I desire to thank both you and your Company for the courtesy of so prompt and satisfactory a settlement.

At a time of unparalleled financial stringency, a company that readily pays its losses immediately, when oaks and other strong concerns are struggling in hard times, surely is the best Company to insure with, and is beyond comparison with other life Companies. Very respectfully,

Mrs. Emma M. Rogers

Messrs. Garnett & Moore, Special Agents New York Life Insurance Company, Hopkinsville, Ky.

GENTLEMEN:—

I acknowledge receipt through your office of $1,000.00 that being in full payment of a policy held by my late husband, William B. Davis in the New York Life Insurance Company.

A few years prior to his death, he ceased to pay the premiums, and the insurance for full amount of policy was continued under Term Extension Policy that under your Company's contract pays the entire proceeds without deducting any premiums whatever. This settlement is entirely satisfactory to me, so I am reliably informed that other Companies make it a condition under extended insurance that if death occurs within three years thereafter to deduct all premiums that would have been paid had policy remained in force.

I will with pleasure recommend the New York Life Insurance Company to those desiring to protect their loved ones.

Very Respectfully, Mrs. Laura Davis.

Jan'y. 24th 1894.

New York Life Insurance Company's Accumulation Policy is marked by a total absence of Restrictions, and by the inclusion of valuable Guarantees not found in the policies of any other company. You should understand them before you spend money for "Fast which exists fast!" Insurance that does not insure. Don't judge the company by the agents of competing companies, but judge about it. Remember the story of the glow-worm and toad: "Why do you spit at me?" said the glow-worm.

"Why do you spit at me?" said the toad.

"Because I have 7,731,231 Accumulation Policies." Said the glow-worm.

We clip the following from the New Capital, a daily newspaper published at Ocala, Florida: "Mr. Max J. Mosyon, one of the leading merchants and capitalists of Hopkinsville, Ky., in company with his charming bride, nee Miss Birdie Myers, arrived in Ocala yesterday. The bride is the daughter of Mr. Jacob Myers, the well-known diamond broker of Louisville. While in Chicago we heard Miss Myers' sweet and cultivated voice, which won many friends at the Western Fair. The Chicago papers spoke of her in the highest praise. Dr. and Mrs. Mosyon will be with us several days, and we trust that their expectations of the Louisville Exposition will be fully realized that they will conclude to add their names to the list of our permanent residents."

THE SOLONS.

DID LITTLE SATURDAY.

Special to the New Era.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 29.—The House of Representatives today passed the bill for the protection of labor organizations.

FOOLING THE BIRDS.

How They Are Deceived From Their Hiding Places in the Forests.

Special to the New Era.

I have heard young women whistle merrily, mimicking the song of the birds, the blackbird and the thrush particularly.

OUR POETS.

Powerful Words and Noble Thoughts.

Special to the New Era.

How Closely are They Related to Our Daily Lives.

What One of Our Foremost Ladies Thinks About It.

Special to the New Era.

Henry W. Longfellow has said in his poem, "The Tide Rises and the Tide Falls," that "All things ebb and flow."
