Commencement At Gilbertville School Scheduled May 19

Mr. and Mrs. Redge Thompson and children of near Nashville spent a part of last week in Benton with his mother, Mrs. Alice Thompson, who returned home with them for a visit. Redge Thompson spent the past eight months in Alaska at work and has just recently returned home to his family near Nashville.

The Gilbertville Grade School will hold its annual commencement exercises Monday night, May 19, at 7:30 o'clock in the school auditorium.

Alice Riley is valedictorian of the 8th grade class and Diane Heise is the salutatorian. There are 12 members in this year's graduating class.

Rev. George Sleeker will be the principal speaker at the commencement exercises. Rev. William Harris will deliver the invocation and the benediction.

The school principal, Thomas Forrest, will present diplomas to the graduates. The school chorus will sing the class song and also a number titled "I Would Be True." Mary Joyce will play for the professional.

Members of the graduating class are Eddie Darnall, James Futrell, Diane Heise, Edna Henson, Thomas Herrold, Janice Holland, Carolyn Pace, James Potter, Alice Riley, Charles Sanders, Fred Tacy and Vickie Van Doran.

Word from Vanderbilt Hospital in Nashville from Dr. G. C. McClean who is a patient there, states that he is much improved and will return to Benton on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Early Riley have returned to their home in Norwood, Ohio, after visiting relatives here. Her mother, Mrs. Janie Downing went home with them.

Mrs. John Sarber and son of Coronado, Calif., will arrive this weekend to visit in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Nelson in Benton.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Hurst of Benton are the parents of a son born Saturday at the Baptist Hospital in Paducah.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cox of Gilbertville Route 1 were Monday shoppers in town.

A Likeness

The following article written by Mrs. Lyda Travis of Louisville was first published in the CARAVAN, an Arabic paper printed in English in New York.

Mrs. Travis formerly lived at Old Birmingham.

BY LYDA TRAVIS
My friends adore the likeness of Jesus in paintings and statues, but you should see how very surprised they are when I tell them that I found his likeness in an Arab groceryman.

His name was Hamid Zater. He lived alone at 6128 15th St. in Detroit, Michigan and owned a little neighborhood failing store in a settlement of shabby rooming houses and factories at 2123 Howard Street only a mile from Detroit's famed Cadillac Square. He was treasurer of the Mohammedan Mosque in Dearborn, one of the largest in the United States, so I am told. He never corrected us Christians when we called it a church.

He was tall and slender with a face so gentle that people turned in their hurrying to gaze at him. He didn't seem to mind if we Southerners stared. He even let us call him Herman because we found it easier than his Arabic name.

Herman had a business partner called Nick. When I began trading at their store, I surmised that they were from some far-away country because I often overheard them talking together in a strange language. With typical backwoods curiosity I asked Nick where they were from. (I hesitated to ply Herman with my quizzes; he possessed such quiet dignity.)

Nick told me several times, but somehow I couldn't understand. At last somewhat impatient he exclaimed: "We are from the country where Jesus lived." Ah, that solved the mystery. That was why I thought of Jesus when I looked at Herman! He might have posed for some of the great artists.

No, it wasn't altogether his looks that made me think of Jesus. It was his never failing kindness in his day by day dealings with the hot-tempered Southerners who were in the North only to make as much money as possible so they could go back home.

Whenever I think of his being like Jesus I remember how he treated little children. There was that time when I came downstairs from the office where I worked near his store and saw police squad cars in the street. Stringy-haired housewives with squealing children were crowding the sidewalk in front of his grocery. Curious, I asked a woman what the trouble was. She told me that a 5-year-old boy had been held up and robbed. His mother had sent him to Herman's with her grocery list and some coins. Bigger boys pounced upon him and took his money. He was crying forlornly while his angry mother was jerking his arm and calling him a dumb cluck for letting himself get robbed. Herman took pity on the hapless child, and filled his mother's grocery list free of charge.

The next morning I saw him at Herman's, still somber, but with a penny clutched tightly in his grubby fist. I noticed the tenderness Herman showed in serving him as if to try to comfort him. While customers with real money waited, he let the erstwhile robbery victim take his own good time selecting a piece of penny candy from a tray which he held for him.

Once I heard him asked to be a judge or divider. A teen-age girl was denouncing her brother because he would not pay his half of their mother's grocery bill. Herman let her vent her rage without his saying a word. When she had finished he promised that he would speak to her brother and would try to get him to pay his rightful part. Later I heard that the boy said he couldn't let Herman down so he paid his half, straightened up, and mended his ways.

In mid-afternoon one sunny October day in 1950, Nick locked the store and went away. Disappointed customers seeing the locked door wondered why. That night they read in the death notices: "Hamid Zater, aged 55". The notice told that he dropped dead from a heart disease on Sasse Street in downtown Detroit.

There was sadness along Howard. A woman who traded at his store came by taking up a collection to buy flowers for his funeral. There were many sweaty pennies in the box for everyone wanted to give. The next morning I saw the little boy who was robbed pressing his face against the glass door of the grocery. Soon he was joined by other children. As I started upstairs to the office he asked beseechingly, "Herman ain't dead, is he?"

That afternoon as I typed, I found myself repeating the lines of a long-remembered poem: "To live in hearts we leave behind is not to die."

MAN HURTS FOOT WHILE OPERATING POWER MOWER

Joe Willis Lovett of Benton suffered cuts on his right foot and big toe Friday on the past week when he fell backward while mowing the lawn and caught his foot in the mower. The wound required 5 stitches to be closed. He was treated by a local doctor and returned to his home. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lovett.

Fred Dees of Calvert City was a business visitor in Benton Friday.

BIDS DUE JUNE 10 ON BARKLEY DAM TURBINES

The Army Corps of Engineers will take bids June 10 for the design, manufacture, and delivery of four 58,000-kilowatt hydraulic turbines for Barkley Dam, Ky. They will cost several million dollars.

Barkley Dam is on the Lower Cumberland River near Eddyville, Ky.

Duck Bouland is a patient at Outwood.

Ira Harris of Calvert City was a business visitor here Friday.

Mickey Landon And Paducah Girl Are Wed

The marriage of Miss Rose Ann King, Paducah, and Michael Edward Landon, Biloxi, Miss., and Benton, took place at 7:30 p.m. Friday, May 9, in the sanctuary of the First Baptist Church. Reverend Hankins F. Parker performed the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with palms, ferns and spiraea.

The bride is the daughter of Kruger King and the late Mrs. Ann Hannin King. Mr. Landon is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Landon of Benton.

Following the ceremony a program of nuptial music was presented by Miss Elma Reed Allen, organist, and Mrs. Margaret Rose Ward, soprano.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a Lanz original fashioned of white Swiss embroidered organza. Scallops edged the neckline and sleeves and finished the waltz length hemline. Her finger tip veil of French illusion was attached to a headpiece of rosebuds. The bride carried a white Bible centered with white satin streamers.

Miss Gracie Elizabeth Vaughn was maid of honor.

James Smith was the best man and groomsmen were Jim Phillips, Mickey Hall, and Jerry Highland, all of Benton.

Mrs. Landon, mother of the groom, wore a navy embroidered taffeta dress with pink accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

Following the wedding a reception was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Hannin. The reception room was decorated with spring flowers in antique containers. The bride's table was centered with an arrangement of white azaleas in a silver bowl, a three-tiered white wedding cake topped with a bride and groom, and a crystal punch bowl was placed at either end. Mrs. Beasley poured the punch and Mrs. Charles Simmons served the cake. Mrs. Ernest Hannin, Miss Ellen Morgan and Miss Nancy Trevathan assisted in serving.

Mrs. Landon is a junior at Paducah Tilghman High School and Mr. Landon is in the Air Force, Airman 3c, located at Keesler Air Force Base, Biloxi, Miss. He is being transferred to a new base in the state of Washington after which Mrs. Landon will join him.

George Slept Here...

He pulled off the highway and asked if he could take a little snooze.

We pride ourselves that Phillips 66 Stations are first-rate service stations. We're even glad to make them sleeping stations in an emergency. So George took his snooze.

Good thing he did because, dog-tired and drowsy, he might have fallen asleep at the wheel while driving.

This little incident suggests, in a small way, the hospitable attitude of Phillips 66 Service men generally. Ask any regular patron of Phillips 66 Stations and he'll tell you that Phillips Dealers go out of their way to treat you and your car right — perform many a service you wouldn't expect to get elsewhere.

Better yet, drive in and see for yourself what "Hospitality on the Highway" means.

News From South Benton

By MRS. M. U. SIESS

It's Sunday again. Gee, how I would have enjoyed going to church this morning. I have been a shut-in for four weeks now, but I am not sorry for myself because I feel like I am recuperating.

Just as I start to write, some children from the Junior Class at Sunday School come in and bring flowers. All are smiling so sweet and happy. I called them to my bed and told them how nice it was for them to think of me. Mrs. Lalah Green is the teacher of the class.

When they started to leave I thought of the old song, "Can the World See Jesus in You." I felt that I could see Jesus in those children's faces.

My company this Sunday was Mrs. Susie Owens and Mrs. Ruby Nell Owens. At about 4 o'clock, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond English and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Greenfield came and carried me to see Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gordon at Wadesboro. Mr. Gordon broke a leg two or three years ago and never recovered from it.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Watkins were supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Luther White Saturday night.

Mrs. Hallie Canup visited Mrs. Lavada Siess Saturday night.

By ROBERT L. RANDOLPH

Wheat—Reporters are measuring 1958 wheat now. Any producer who has wheat that has not been measured or estimated should notify the county office at once. It is necessary that all wheat be measured as soon as possible because any excess allotment or any acreage above 15 on non-allotment farms must be disposed of by June 1, before price support can be obtained on allotment farms or marketing cards issued for non-allotment farms.

Wool—All applications for shorn wool and unshorn lamb incentive payments are complete for the 1957 program year, and payment will be made as soon as the national average rate is established. For any who did not get applications in by April 30, on 1957 sales, these may be applied for during the 1958 year.

ACP Soil Samples—To help farmers properly identify soil samples brought to the soils laboratory, a supplemental sheet is being prepared to help in identifying fields and also record the practice to be carried out in this field. Each producer who must obtain soil samples should request a leaflet that is available in the ASC office on how to take soil samples.

Spring Clean-Up—The U. S. Department of Agriculture is cooperating with the National Fire Protection Association in spring clean-up campaign on farms. Here is what to do to prevent fires: Check all electrical heating and cooking equipment, defective chimneys, cover inflammable roofs, remove dry leaves and grass from near buildings, check for defective wiring; do not use matches carelessly; do not operate tractors, autos, gas engines near combustible materials; if burning trash, brush, grass, keep under control. Dispose of junk and trash in house, barn and yard.

Emergency Conservation Practices—There is still money available for restoration of drainage ditches, pond dams, terrace outlets and stream banks from funds allocated Marshall County to help repair damage caused by flooding and excess rainfall in 1957.

NEWS EACH WEEK OF BUSINESSES AND BUSINESS IN MARSHALL COUNTY

Joe Darnall is Agent For Standard Oil Co.

Joe Darnall of Benton has been agent in Marshall County for the Standard Oil Company since Jan. 1, 1951. He succeeded the late Tullus Black, who was Standard Oil agent here for many years.

Mr. Darnall himself has been connected with Standard Oil for many years. Before becoming an agent, he operated the Standard filling station at 11th and Main in Benton for seven years.

And before that, he drove a Standard Oil truck, operating from the Dawson Springs headquarters.

Mr. Darnall is widely known in Marshall county. He is a graduate of old Hardin High school and also attended Murray College.

He has been active in civic and club affairs and is a former member of the Benton City Council. He is a member of the Benton Methodist Church.

Mr. Darnall is married to the former Ruth Booker of Hardin, and they are the parents of one son and one daughter. The family resides in the Green Hill section of Benton.

Mr. Darnall is a son of the late Joe Darnall, former sheriff of Marshall County. He is a brother of Paul Darnall, vice president of the aBnk of Benton, and of Clay Darnall, postmaster of Hardin.

Mr. Darnall invites his friends to visit him at the Standard Oil headquarters located near the N.C. & St. L. Railway station in Benton, at any time.

Mrs. Rena Durard arrived last week to visit her sister, Mrs. Minnie Ethridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Toy Starks of Route 1 were Saturday shoppers in Benton.

Mr. and Mrs. James Sloan of Route 1 were visitors here Saturday.

Mrs. Sam Sledd has been ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Moscoe Franklin, for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Brien of Route 7 were shoppers in Benton Friday.

20 YEARS AGO

From The Courier
Files of 1938-39

Social events were being held in Benton and Marshall County 20 years ago, just as they are nowadays. In fact, there might have been a few more parties 20 years ago because the folks didn't have television for entertainment in the good old days.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Beasley had announced the marriage of their daughter, Dorothy, to Paul Chambers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Curt Chambers.

Attendants at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Thompson. Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Roberts of Benton had entertained a group of friends at a Sunday dinner. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Harris.

Piano Pupils Give Recital at Church in Gilbertsville

Mrs. Thomas Edwards presented her piano pupils in a recital held last Friday night, May 9, at the Gilbertsville Baptist Church. The following pupils took part in the musical event: Jan Cash, Tim Barter, Vannie Marshall, Steve Major, Janice Monroe, Mary F. Tracey, Wanda Evans, Pamela Ligon. Nellie Ruth King, Terry Hatch, Patsy McDougal, Vicki McDougal, Susie McDougal, Sandra Monroe, Janet Heise, Mary Joyce and Flane Heise.

HOMEMAKERS CLUB OF NORTH MARSHALL MEETS

The North Marshall Homemakers Club met May 8 at the home of Mrs. Fred Chumby on Route 7. Eleven members and one visitor were present. The lesson, "Accessories for the Home," was given by Mrs. Lee Robinson and Mrs. Walter Binkley. Potluck dinner was served at the noon hour.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to take this opportunity to thank our friends and neighbors for the many acts of kindness shown us during the illness and death of our beloved mother, Mrs. Florence Peck. We especially wish to thank Dr. Harold King, Bro. Lake Riley, the Pilbeck-Cann Funeral Home, the donors of the beautiful flowers and all others who helped in any way. May God's blessings be with each of you. The Children.

Major, Mr. and Mrs. Matt Soakman, Mr. and Mrs. Rollie Creason and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Z. Lents of Paducah and Misses Kathleen Shemwell, Remy Long and Sammie Shemwell.

Mr. and Mrs. John Shemwell of Benton Route 2 had entertained a group of friends at supper. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. James T. Southerland, Mr. and Mrs. Mose Shemwell, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Mathis and Mrs. Della Mathis.

Among the comings and were: Miss Elizabeth Shemwell of Louisville had visited her mother Mrs. Willie Shemwell, in Benton. Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Trevathan of Mayfield had visited Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Trevathan in Benton. Miss Charlene Ely of Paducah had visited her mother, Mrs. C. W. Ely, in Benton.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Sanford of Carrollton had visited her parents, Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Howard.

Mary Frances Hitchen and Martha Lou Chambers had visited with Julia Beth Long, who was celebrating her 12th birthday.

Mr. Mrs. Lionel Solomon and Mr. and Mrs. Homer Solomon had visited the Lester Solomons in Tennessee.

John Clay Lovett was in Benton on vacation from Harvard University.

Joe Creason and H. H. Lovett Jr., students at the University of Kentucky were home on vacations. C. W. Eley of Lexington had visited relatives in Benton. "Uncle Sid" Parker had fallen on a sidewalk in Benton and suffered an ugly cut on his face. He was Benton's oldest citizen.

Hardin High School had held a big program. A feature of the event was a play directed by Mrs. Mary Cole. Other leaders were Mrs. Kelley Hughes and Rev. E. D. Farris.

The Church Grove Correspondent had reported that Rev. T.

S. Parham had preached a good sermon at the church.

And that Mr. and Mrs. Jack English had had the following dinner guests: Mrs. Lyda Gibson and son, Mrs. Greenville Gibson, and son, Mr. and Mrs. Clint English, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Finch and son, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Paul and son of Paducah, Ina Jean Myers and Howard Rickman.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Barnes had had as their dinner guests: Mr. and Mrs. Coleman Riley, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Clail Thompson and Tommie Barnes.

And that's all the old-time news for this week. See you next week.

TEACHERS LISTED FOR WEST MARSHALL, GILBERTSVILLE

In the list of teachers printed last week in the Courier, the West Marshall teachers were listed under Gilbertsville and the names of the Gilbertsville teachers were omitted. WHY PAY 50% MORE?

We defy anyone to buy this quality at 50% more. The reason is this: Country Boy takes the entire output of a paint factory in the dull winter months, thereby getting a much better price. Then, too, freight rates are high on paint; Country Boy uses his own trucks and saves transportation costs. All this savings is reflected in the consumer cost.

I'm really PROUD of my great new
DURO DURETTE
Convertible Jet Water System!

AND HERE are the REASONS

It's the lowest priced quality water system on the market, for deep and shallow wells.
A complete system with a quality 1/2 H.P. Motor (not split phase), quiet and efficient pump, switch, 12 gal.
galvanized tank, air charging control and foot valve... fast, easy conversion from shallow to deep well, nothing extra to buy... and it's completely covered by Duro's guarantee.

Home Water System

PUMPS 400 GALLONS STEADILY EVERY HOUR!

Even an old-fashioned 3-story farmhouse can have running water on the top floor when you install this small but powerful pump.

The heart of the home water system shown here is its double-acting piston pump. Delivers a steady, full flow of water at maximum capacity. An ideal pump for supplying multiple outlets, fifteen and even twenty years of use, with only minor expense for leather or belt replacements, are common records of service for this pump.
