MRS. BOONE DEAD.

A Well Known Paducah Lady—
The Funeral This Morning.

Had Been a Resident of Paducah
Since She Was Eight Years of Age.

A beautiful Christian life was ended Saturday night by the death of Mrs. Lucy Matthei Boone, at her home, 808 South Sixth street, at 10:30 o'clock, after a lengthy illness of heart disease. The deceased was born in Harrison county, Ind., in 1833, and was married to Squire R. T. Boone, in the city, at the age of 18. She had been a resident of Paducah since 8 years of age. She was a member of the First Christian church, and was a devoted and consistent Christian. She leaves to mourn her and four children, Messrs. Elmer, Joe and Frank Boone, Mrs. Robert Orme, of the city, and Mrs. Ed Holland, of Atlanta, Ga. The funeral took place this morning at 9 o'clock from the residence, interment at Oak Grove.

FULLY INVESTIGATED

Will Those Council Bribery
Charges Be Against Councilman Kades.

Another Odorous Story in Municipal Circles. No One Can Foretell the Result.

The charges of bribery against Councilman Wm. Kades, which most people thought had been disposed of long ago, are to be fully and freely investigated by the council. This was obtained from an authoritative source this afternoon. When the fight for the city electric plant superintendent came up a few months ago, the retiring superintendent, Mr. Tom Davis, intimated in open court that his brother, Mr. Frank Davis, the present incumbent, had given Mr. Kades $50 to vote for him for the place. When the matter became public, it created quite a sensation, and nothing was done about it for some time, as no charges were regularly preferred against the councilman, and the council could not otherwise take cognizance of the affair. Davis' disappearance, and the charges were forgotten except in street talk and among a few of the officials.

Finally councilman Kades presented in the council one night an affidavit signed by himself, denouncing the charges as utterly false, and also a similar affidavit signed by Mr. Davis, the man alleged to have given the $50 check for a vote. The council received and filed the two documents, and nothing else was thought of it, until the ex-superintendent returned to the city a short time ago, and began to agitate the matter again. He claims the charges were true, and has named the bank upon which the check is alleged to have been given. One of the Sunday papers devoted a column to an exposition of the claims and so forth, and the result is that the council has determined to investigate it from first to last, and call the guilty to account, or else for all time to erase the stigma from the name of one of its members.

What the result will be, no one can tell, but it looks as though there will be very hard to sustain, unless there is evidence now kept in the dark.

PLANS CHANGED AGAIN.

The President Desirous of Securing Porto Rico Before Spain Can Sue for Peace.

WARSHIP GOES TO HONOLULU.

Will Remain There Until the End of the Hawaiian Islands. Is Sent to Carry Out the Vice About Our Troops.

TERRIBLE STATE OF AFFAIRS IN HAVANA.

Washington, June 13.—An important change has been made in the military and naval program in the West Indian waters.

The intention to postpone the Porto Rican campaign till Santiago has been captured and Cervantes sailed taken has been practically abandoned and efforts are being made to hurry the transportation of the corps which will occupy the island.

A definite decision on the matter rests on the views of Gen. Miles and others have gone to Tampa to consult him.

There is reason to believe that the president is influenced by the fear that Spain may seek peace soon and leave Porto Rico in the enemy's possession and also that there are not more than 6,000 Spanish troops in the island and that it would be easy work to capture it.

Naval authorities are not inclined to favor the scheme, but the president's desire to force things to an issue at once in the West Indies will probably prevail.

Then there is a chance that the work at Santiago may be completed before the second campaign is ready to start as the transports must return from Santiago to take the troops.

THE HAWAIIAN ISLANDS.

The Philadelphia Goes There to Remain Until Congress Acts.

Washington, June 13.—Orders have been sent to the cruiser Philadelphia to sail for Honolulu within ten days and to remain there pending the settlement of the future status of the islands.

It is expected that some action will be taken by congress on the question of Hawaiian annexation soon, or that the islands may be seized as a war measure.

GOMEZ' ADVICE.

Says No American Troops Should Penetrate Cuba Until After the Rainy Season.

Near Santiago, June 11, Kingston, June 13.—The Scripps-McRae correspondent took part in the landing

General Gomez advises that no American camps be established in the inner part of the island till after the rainy season.

He predicts that the American troops cannot endure the climate.

bills are being distributed by the Havana stronger. He is planting mines in the harbor and throwing up entrenchments and getting ready for a heavy siege.

MONDAY, JUNE 13, 1898.

The fellow who got up the fake about sinking the Spanish torpedo boat destroyer Terror by our fleet at Santiago a few nights since, is now shown up as something of a liar himself. This, however, is a small matter, so far as he is concerned, as nothing better could be expected of him. The scene was laid on a foggy night, and he knew it would take some days to catch up with his pipe dream. The quantity of this sort of stuff sent out by "reliable" news reporters is something wonderful.

There is little doubt the country is filled with the spies and evil disposed persons of Spain. The history of this race is one of a breed of conspirators and intensely malevolent persons. Both before and since the days of Guy Fawkes, the prevailing spirit of that race has been espionage and crime. There have been powder mills exploded, attempts to explode magazines, efforts to poison the water for soldiers, and other fiendish and cowardly designs sought to be carried into execution during this war. The hatred and black heartedness in the destruction of the Maine shows the depth of venom and malignity which this abominable race can conceive and execute. A war of extermination of these people, would be just and righteous as the breaking up of a den of copperheads or other vipers. The world has suffered untold millions of dastardly acts and crimes upon humanity by these vicious brutes insolent enough to call themselves men. May the Good Providence hasten the day for the settlement of accounts which the world and eternal justice hold against this race of people.

SPAIN'S SAD PLIGHT.

Powers Will Not Intervene to Save Her, and Civil War Stares Her in the Face.

Leaders See That the Cause is Lost—Don Carlos Awaits the Empire's Downfall—Looms of Cuba Accepted

London, June 13.—All rumors of mediation and peace proposals which the air has been filled during the past week have no basis in any action by Spain herself or any other power.

The Spanish government has not yet reached a definite conclusion to face the inevitable, although there is evidence that the responsible authorities individually are convinced of the uselessness of further resistance to American arms.

It is definitely known that no European power will volunteer intermediary offices in any capacity to the present situation. The fact is, no step has been taken to bring the war to a close except such as the American forces are taking to bring the campaign to a crisis.

The question is how long will it take the Spanish government officially to reach the conclusion which the Spanish government individually arrived at the inception of hostilities? Information from Madrid warrants the assertion that according to the personal views of these gentlemen they would be glad if the powers would bring diplomatic pressure to bear on the United States to obtain the assurance that America will not keep the Philippines.

The question is how long will it take the Spanish government officially to reach the conclusion which the Spanish government individually arrived at the inception of hostilities? Information from Madrid warrants the assertion that according to the personal views of these gentlemen they would be glad if the powers would bring diplomatic pressure to bear on the United States to obtain the assurance that America will not keep the Philippines.

As a matter of fact the Madrid cabinet is more harassed at present by the domestic situation than by the desperate position of Spain's fortunes in war. All advice from Spain agrees that the summer will not be far advanced before the country will be torn by civil war.

Don Carlos, the pretender, is in Brussels, calmly awaiting the completion of Spain's ruin. He is making plans and depots for arms and ammunition have already been established in northern Spain. Five batteries of artillery have been delivered.

TRIBUTE TO MISS LUCY WATTS

Inasmuch as death has taken from our midst our faithful and beloved member, Miss Lucy Watts, it was resolved at a meeting of the Ramsey society that, in recognition of what she was to them, and her many noble traits of character, they pay to her memory a tribute of their sincerest love and admiration. She was devoted to all the interests of the church, ever responsive to the calls of good work, and spent her entire life in the execution of little missions of love.

WOMAN IN TROUBLE.

Mayfield Woman Charged With Violation of Ecstacy Laws.

Mary Graham, of Mayfield, was arrested and brought in Saturday by Deputy U. S. Marshal Leake on a charge of selling whisky without a license. She is alleged to be a woman of bad repute, and to have engaged in the business for some time.

The evidence was partially heard, but being incomplete, the trial was left open until the 29th of this month, before Commissioner Puryear.

TERSELY TOLD.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Yeiser, of Cincinnati, are mourning the loss of their 10-year-old son, who died of congestion. The little fellow was a nephew of ex-Mayor Yeiser, of the city, and was a few months ago with his father on a brief visit.

Oscar McGinnis, the Mayfield boy arrested here Saturday for stealing a watch, was carried home by Officers Crawford and Hedge.

John White, colored, was brought through the city Saturday afternoon late by Marshal B. F. Wilborn, of Marion, Ky. He was arrested at Metropolis by Marshal Crouch on a charge of stealing $15 from the residence of C. E. Dumas, at Marion, and committed to return without a requisition. He is 15 years old.

Those Deadmen, who was on trial Saturday afternoon for shooting Mrs. Lee Stanley, was held to answer by Judge Tully in the sum of $2,000. Although the prisoner apparently proved an alibi, there was doubt of it, and for further investigation he was held, and executed bond, Wash. Herron becoming his surety.

Mr. W. C. Robinson and Miss Jennie Rice were married yesterday morning at 8 o'clock at 1120 South Eleventh street. The bride is from Marion, and the groom is from Cumberland county, Ill.

Mrs. Dr. Hessig and one of her two children left today for Brooklyn, N. Y. Mrs. Hessig recently sued her husband for maintenance, and he left the city with one of the children.

Carl Craft, aged 21, committed suicide Saturday night by taking laudanum. He had been drinking, and it is said had a quarrel with a woman over his condition. He purchased the drug twice at a drug store and took the first dose in a glass of beer, remarking that he would wake up in hell. He said he had the laudanum, and went back after more, saying he had dropped the first bottle. He went outside and was seen to swallow the contents. Dr. Robertson, Rivers and Redlick were called, and the young man was found over on West court street and brought back, and was unconscious in a short time. Emetics had no effect and the stomach pump was resorted to, but to no avail. He died about 12:30. He was a son of Mr. Hugh Craft, keeper of the county poor farm, and when a baby was horribly burned about the face and hand.

The coroner's inquest held yesterday resulted in a verdict in accordance with the above. The funeral took place at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon from the residence, burial at Oak Grove.

See Tribune's Report and Hearings on the Case.

TREE OF THIBET.

Fake Worked Off on the Public by Buddhist Priests.

Few persons, probably, have heard of the marvelous tree of Thibet; nevertheless, for a long time it has enjoyed a great reputation in the East. It is a sacred tree, and fabulous prices were paid for a few of its leaves.

In his "Souvenirs de Voyage au Thibet" Pere Hue speaks of this wonderful tree. It is essentially a literary and artistic turn of mind, and has the strange habit of producing images and hieroglyphs upon its leaves. Sometimes religious figures take the place of the letters. Pere Hue called the mysterious thing "the tree of a thousand images." These images are found on the leaves, on the stems and on the trunk.

Near the temple of Buddha, in the village of Louang, Thibet, that great tree has stood for centuries. The puzzle of the Buddhist who have ever received the gift of faith.

HOW AN INDIAN DIED.

Young Red Man Was Found Dead Without a Quail.

A resident of Little Rock, Ark., who passed through the territory of the Chickasaw nation recently tells through the Washington Post of the execution of a young Indian for violation of the laws of his tribe. Among the Chickasaws stealing is punishable by death, and it seems that this young buck had been three times convicted of larceny. The chief of the tribe, who alone could save him, refused a pardon, and there was nothing to do but carry out the sentence. The condemned man was placed in a wagon and driven to a graveyard just east of the little village where he had been tried. He descended from the wagon, and with stolid demeanor walked to where his grave had been freshly dug and surveyed it with apparent unconcern. Then he knelt and prayed with a preacher who had known him from boyhood. Arising, he walked firmly to the head of the grave, where he took his seat upon a large stone, facing death with a courage that seemed sublime. After saying a few words in which he advised all young men of his race to take warning and lead honest lives, he lay himself down, and a second later the sharp report of a down Winchester rang out, and his earthly existence was ended.

Argument

Is not necessary to convince a thinking person that money is thrown away when invested in a typewriter that has not passed its experimental period.

Years of hard, thoughtful effort and continual experimenting are necessary before reaching approximate perfection in a writing machine. It is wisdom, then, for one to contribute to this cost of experiment?

Reputation Established

Years of experience, constantly increasing sales the world over—the natural result of typewriter excellence—is the unquestioned record of

EMPLOYMENTS FOR WOMEN.

A Few Occupations to Which Some Have Turned

About 15 years ago the passengers in an express train through Georgia, of whom the writer was one, observed that the switch at a station where the train stopped was kept by a gray-haired old woman. One or two of the rougher men in the train jeered at her. She did not even glance at them, but kept her eyes fixed on her switch. The more civil passengers gave her a hearty cheer, as the train sped away, but she took no notice of this either, being busy with her work.

An Atlanta paper has recently the death of this woman, Mrs. Sally Carroll, in Marion, aged 96 years. She kept her post, it is said, for 20 years, and although many trains passed it each day, she never was known to have misplaced a switch. Her husband, I learn, as she understood his work she took it up.

We cite her case, not as an example, but as a practical hint to the countless girls who are stretching out their hands vaguely and helplessly for some work by which to earn their living.

If there is any one thing which a woman can do well, to which she can give her whole heart, and which she is likely to succeed in the doing of it, a woman will find a way with children, and no money. She was gently bred and educated.

"But I know nothing thorough," she said, "except cooking. I can cook."

"Then find opportunities to teach other women to cook," said a friend. A few appliances were procured, and she began lecturing and giving lessons to women in cooking in the city in which she lived, and in the neighboring towns. She has earned a moderate but comfortable income for herself and her children.

A young girl, suddenly left penniless, was an expert in nothing but dressing hair. She sought diligently for business in one of two important inland cities, where coiffure was unknown, teaching women how to care for their hair and to dress it becomingly, and thus supports herself.

Still another girl, obliged to earn her bread, resorted to what she had a peculiar skill in putting up luncheons for the children. She sent cards and made applications to the mothers of the pupils of a large private school, stating that she would furnish whole, some and dainty luncheons at prices.

An old colored woman with a white apron and gorgeous turban, carried the white packages in a huge basket. The trade was unique, and proved so successful that it extended to the students of a great university in the same city. Half a dozen "mammys" supply their voracious demand, affording a very satisfactory pecuniary profit to the young woman.

In unusual occupations there will be few rivals, and if they minister to the simple needs of a class of classes of persons they will generally meet with success if conducted with ordinary good sense and industry—Youth's Companion.

"Don't play for accommodation."

"Well, we keep these rooms open for accommodation, with the piano, reading matter, and other things. You must play for money, then."

"To make a living."

"Well, how have you succeeded?"

"Haven't succeeded at all. People all over here."

WRITTEN AT RANDOM.

C. E. J. Smith, of the Third regiment, has decided that no "centenarian" shall be established for his regiment at Chickasaw. It is probable that Kentucky regiments will be the only ones in camp without a "centenarian." Which is regarded as an almost indispensable evil, if you choose to call it an evil. A "centenarian" is designed principally to protect the soldiers from rapacious merchants or men, and to insure them the best returns for their money. It is a place where liquor can be purchased, but it is also a place where many other things can be bought. It is kept up by the boys themselves, and there are no profits to be gobbled up by an outside party.

It is admitted that it would be better for no soldier to drink, whiskey, beer or any other intoxicant, but there is no military regulation against it, and as an old army officer, recently here, said, "There are many men in a regiment who drink whiskey or use tobacco, and they are going to have whiskey and tobacco if there is any within ten miles."

To have no "centenarian" does not prevent their getting either but only results in their having to pay an exorbitant price for them. Hence it is extremely foolish to do without a "centenarian," and is particularly absurd for the people in Kentucky, of all states, to petition an officer to permit no "centenarian." If the object of the opposition to a "centenarian" were to be attained it would be different. Of course the people mean well, but they do not understand, and in attempting to protect the soldier they are harming him.

Secretary A. Knox, of the Y. M. C. A., walked in the association building a few days ago, and found a strange looking foreigner within. He greeted the visitor with his perennial cordiality and received in response a few disdainful grunts. During this brief interval the man was assiduously crossing himself.

The secretary noticed that the stranger carried a lot of music, "I was a musician, there's the piano, just help yourself."

"Don't play for accommodation."

The man nodded assent, and crossed himself.

after their arrival. It happened after that that every time he donned them, it rained and he got to wear them so seldom that this year they were good as new.

Saturday he ventured to put on the hooded pantaloons, and it wasn't two hours until it began raining. Sunday night he did likewise, and the farmers had reason to bless him before 10 o'clock.

The subsequent career of those breeches will no doubt be interesting, if it could be traced out during the summer.

Two popular entertainers who will be at Lathrop park soon are Louisie and Minnie—who so kindly volunteered their services to the charity entertainment of the Louisville Ladies' Mission last week, will leave the city shortly on their summer tour.

They have engagements of two weeks at Memphis, two weeks at Little Rock, two weeks at Chattanooga and two at Paducah after which they will come home for a short stay and then go to New York in October to join the Gypsy Burlesques, with whom they have an engagement of forty weeks. Their turn at the Temple the other evening was one of the neatest, cleanest and most artistic fancy dances and acrobatic turns ever seen in this part of the country, and the audience enjoyed it immensely as was evidenced by loud and repeated applause. They are two very popular Louisville girls.

Saturday an Irishman went to the court house to purchase a marriage license. After stating as best he could the object of his visit, the clerk took down the record book and proceeded to fill out the blank. When he reached the line "name of bride," the Irishman felt for his vest and then exclaimed "Shure an' Owe left my vest at home. Okey?"

It happened that he had the name and other essential data on a piece of paper which was in his vest pocket, and he had forgotten to wear his vest.

He sent the man who had come to set as surety and best man home for that very important garment, and finally it came and he found out his intended bride's name. It was also a remarkable feature of the incident that the old fellow did not know his own age.

Some of the alleged democratic newspapers of the district are becoming greatly exercised over the fact that the Six is giving the public the only reliable information it has been getting relative to the First district congressional race. A little sheet known as the Mirror, published in a place called Mayfield, had the following to say in its last issue:

"The Paducah Six seems a little disturbed because there is only one democratic candidate for congress in this district and it is casting about in search of other candidates. It has heard that the respective friends of Judge Robinson, of this place, and Col. Tom Corbett, of Paducah, are making strenuous efforts to get them on the track. The Six is a republican paper and should busy itself a little in getting out a republican candidate. As yet there is not a single one of that ilk in the field."

The Six might suggest that it has only given the news which the democratic papers seem to be afraid to give. They are as close as claims on the congressional race. It does not require any solicitude on the part of the Mirror relative to republican candidate being brought out. These things are usually attended to in time. The effort of good many democrats now seems to be to keep the candidates from getting out, instead of getting them out. The democratic papers did not even suggest that the congressional committee meet and declare the primary off when the opposite time elapsed for other candidates to come in, under the Six's mouthed matter.

And dispassion as it may be, certain factions in the democratic party, it is a well known fact that a strenuous effort is being made by men in that party to induce somebody to run against the only candidate now announced.

In order that the stockholders of the Illinois Central Railroad company may more readily attend in person the annual meetings, there has been placed in each station of the company a notice to the effect that, in accordance with a resolve of the board of directors, there may be issued to each holder of one or more shares of the capital stock of the Illinois Central Railroad company, as registered in the books of the company, a ticket, enabling him or her to travel on the company's lines from the station of the Illinois Central Railroad nearest to his or her registered residence to Chicago and return, for the purpose of attending, in person, the annual stockholders' meeting of the company, which will be held at its general office in Chicago on Wednesday, September 22, 1898, at noon. Details as to the necessary procedure to obtain such ticket, the date of its issue and its limit, are fully set forth on the posted notices referred to. THE TIE THAT BINDS (?)

Next Sunday, unless the trend of events change, the public will witness the remarkable spectacle of a secret organization having two annual sermons preached in the same city, at different places, on account of denominational differences.

In this latter-day civilization of our much boasted intelligence, when we pride ourselves upon having laid aside the ignorance, the prejudice and passions of the past, to see a secret organization—a body of men and women legally organized to do for humanity what the churches have failed to do—split asunder in denominational strife, bringing that strife into practice on the Lord's day, is contrary to every line and precept to be found between the lids of the Bible, a book upon which all secret organizations have based their origin, and puts a stick into the hands of the sinner or unbeliever that he will not be slow to grab against Christianity and all its followers.

Here is the tie that binds our hearts in Christian love," used to be believed and followed and sung with much Christian devotion, but now it seems "the tie that binds" has other been lost, strayed or stolen, and those who should be the most active in its perpetuation as Christians are doing whatever is convenient to obscure its whereabouts.

Of consistency thou art a Jew! These are the very things that have kept us so far behind in the march of the nations—envy, jealousy, prejudice and ignorance. We can never make the white race or any other race for that matter, believe that we want to be numbered among the progressive, and at the same time spit asunder by internal dissensions, too often based upon frivolous differences of opinion. There is no use to think that other races do not see these things, for they do.

"In union there is strength," is a fundamental truth we recognize, but in many instances fall far short of following. We are too prone to pre-empt without examples. We can readily see how other races and other people have gone wrong, but if we could only get a look at home.

Let us hope that in the days to come, intelligence will issue her emancipation proclamation and liberate us from the galling bonds of envy and ignorance, of prejudice and denominational strife. Then we may expect more union, better citizens and less strife; peace and good will from all to all.

Here is a word to those who seek reform for their own grievances and those of others, by appealing to the reporter to make himself a campaign. It is contrary to honor and principle. If you have any charges to make against another, they should be made openly, in good faith and with boldness. It is not in accord with any idea of fairness to shift the responsibility which rightfully belongs to you upon anyone else. Bear your own burden, and thus fulfill the law of human nature. Be manly, honest and brave, and do not onto others that you would they should not do unto you.

We have made great progress in the last thirty-three years, yet every day we see things, which if they did not exist, we might have made still greater progress.

Miss Edwena F. Kennedy will address an union meeting at the Washington street Baptist church tonight.

PAINFULLY ILL.

Horse Falls on a Young Man in the County.

Grundy Allen, a youth of the Woodville section, came near being killed on the road between Maxon's Mills and Palestine church a day or two ago. He was riding his horse along the ditch being dug by the contractors, when the animal slipped and fell. The boy was thrown and the horse fell on top of him, badly mauling him. He was found by Grover Carmel, and carried to camp, where he received medical attention. At last accounts he was not thought to be fatally injured.

POLICE COURT.

There Were Several Horse Cases Today and Others of Like Nature.

Judge Sanders Says Something About Dogs and Their Owners.

Frank Shaw, colored, had a badly distorted mouth when he was called before Judge Sanders this morning. He said when asked where he got it that he guessed he must have fallen down.

Officer Seneer said that Shaw was drunk Saturday night, and that when he attempted to strike a one-legged man, Berry Howard delivered the blow which produced such a swelling of the mouth.

Shaw then said he worked in the street and often got full of live bugs that he had to take a little spiritus to kill them. Despite this excuse, he was fined $5 and costs, and the other man, for the destruction he gratuitously bestowed on Shaw's face, was told to pay a "V" for the liberty he took.

Mr. Julian Greer was fined $5 and costs for failing to pay a license on a butcher wagon. Mr. Greer failed for the purpose of testing the law, and the decision of both Judge Sanders and Judge Hunsbald went against him, hence he paid his license and his fine.

Meersa Win. Karna, Lum Harshat, Klein Bros and Wm. Durrett, were ordered to pay costs that had accrued on horses and cows taken up by the city for running at large. The warrants were dismissed, but it took from $2 to $4 for them to get their respective animals. The law is being well enforced, and as long as the police do their duty and catch a good number the city will profit by it.

Wm. Johnson was charged with running a dray without a license. He paid $50 costs on it last year, and this morning claimed he gave it to his daughter, who is to be married. The court said he presumed he gave it to her as a bridal present. He also said that if the city took $30 cents of the dray for license last year, he could not help it. He gave the assessor to Johnson, as owner of the dray, 20 minutes in which to take out license.

Judge Sanders said before court adjourned that he would be busy all day issuing warrants for owners of dogs, and that he wanted to say now that all guilty of not getting them would be fined when arraigned before him, and the cost would be nothing small to the owners.

SCHOLARSHIPS WON.

Those of the Graduating Class Who Were Most Fortunate.

There will be awarded four scholarships to the four graduates who received the highest percent in the examinations just closed.

Those will be Messrs Willie Winston, Jessie Weil and Miss Myrtle Greer.

Two are to the state college at Lexington, and the other two are to a college that is to be started by Prof. Smith, of Louisville, next fall.

Mr. Winston, who is a son of Dr. R. E. Winston, received the highest percent in the class, it being 92.2, while Mr. Jessie Weil came next having 97.1. Miss Greer received 95. The two young men named above will receive the Lexington scholarships, and under the arrangements made, Mr. Winston and Miss Greer will receive the other two, making two for Mr. Winston, if he chooses to accept them.

MR. UNDERWOOD RESIGNS.

Officer Effect Wednesday Is Officer Crow Succeeds Him.

Officer G. B. Underwood, of the night police force, has resigned his position to take effect Wednesday, and Marshal Collins has placed in his position ex-officer Crow, and it is understood he will be permanently appointed to the place.

Officer Underwood has been on the force since the first of December, and is the first one of the present force to resign.

He has been offered a more lucrative position as agent for a sewing machine company, and for this reason resigned.

BROOKS' TRIAL.

It Is Set For Today at Evansville. New Developments.

The trial of Lafayette Brooks, of this city, charged with the murder of George Albritton at Evansville on the Hopkins last week, is set for today in Evansville.

The grand jury has indicted him for murder in the first degree, and he may not get off so lightly as was first expected. It is now said that he went up town after the pistol after the first trouble with the Albritton brothers, and when he returned where the difficulty would be likely to be renewed. He was not disappointed, when the other men began it, he drew his pistol and fired.

The Dust! The Sun! The Sewerage!

And Jones has a poet in the land, who unloads himself in the following:

While the bugle call is sounding,
And the mighty cannons roar,
Don't forget your home surroundings
And the comforts at your door.

Remember, that your little ones,
When they are grown to men,
Will look back upon their home
As their greatest treasure then.

Do not hesitate a moment
Less another day be lost
You can make your dwelling home like,
At surprising little cost.

Your credit's ever good with us,
For what you want to take
Should you not have the ready cash
We'll let you payments make.

Our stock is new and most complete.
Our prices close and right.
Our store is spacious, cool and neat
Our clerks are all polite.

Be cautious, and with all your "B's"
Be sure that the goods that hang to your list
Are brought from our store,
And selected with care from the following list

Bedroom suits in cherry and oak (They're fine as silk, and "Tain't no joke!);
Rockers, hat racks and sideboards too,
And wire spring cots that are strictly new;
Folding beds and desks that charm,
And cooking stoves that are mighty warm;
Baby buggies, cradles, refrigerators and trunks,
Which we'll continue to swap for a very few "plunks";

Awaiting your pleasure down at our store.

SOME HISTORIC BONES.

Those of Famous Englishmen Which Have Been Exhumed.

Horace Walspole himself scrutinized the body of Edward IV., in 1789, and he noted with satisfaction that the "collyer," his portrait in wax, was a good likeness in that case. We are assured that the skeleton measured seven feet exactly, which is not creditable. Anatomists allow four inches for shrinkage, and if Edward had been such a giant, surely his contemporaries would have stated the fact explicitly. Horace carried away a lock of the beautiful auburn hair. But the antiquary raged in thinking of that coat of mail, covered with crimson velvet, embroidered with the arms of France and England in pearls and jewels, which once hung over the tomb. It was phantasm, he says, by Captain James, the famous Windsor for the time, in 1812, it was lost without the chapel plate. It is this last relic. The bone was found with authority on the spot where Edward's grave was supposed to be. It is just to the credit of the Earl of Rivers, who was a noble fellow of the 14th century. The skeleton was found in a small grave, which was the skin of a dead man, and the death of the man was found in the grave. The bone was found in the grave, and the death of the man was found in the grave. The bone was found in the grave, and the death of the man was found in the grave.

Nickel Plating

We call attention to our nickel plating, which is done by electroplating, including dynamo, copper and nickel tanks. We can turn out this work equal to any factory in the country. A visit will prove this. We are also the only place in the city where brass is practically done.

There is Nothing Broken about a Nickel Plating. We Cannot Repeat.

THE SOUTHERN

Crumbaugh & Parke,
416 North Seventh St.

Reasons unstated, lost confidence after a while, and presently resolved that it was an other mistake. In the later editions of his book he says that the skeleton of the famous Englishman of Lady Jane Grey, who died a young death in 1554, was found with a wound in the back of the head. The Mr. N. S. surgeon, who was invited to a trial, professionally described the corpse as that of a very young man, with such uniform hair falling below the shoulders, in high preservation, except one arm, which had crumpled off. But there had been a rupture of the spine of any kind.

How, then, could Lord Nugent have assigned it to Hampden for years and Lord Denham for the whole of his life? For persons of imagination who have read the intimate details of that garden, over now, the life of Mary Queen of Scots, there is no character more interesting—in its way than that of Bothwell. A brutal, vulgar person, whom his gentle wife adored to the last after wrongs unutterable and Mary, the proudest, ablest of her sex, actually worshipped, must have had extraordinary fascination of some sort.
