Fulton's first tin can drive, which was held Sunday afternoon by the YMBC, assisted by the Boy Scouts and other volunteer workers, met with considerable success, a total of 2,922 pounds of tin being collected.

Fultonians responded well to the requests of the YMBC committee to save their tin cans and the committee is well pleased with the results of the drive. The merchants who responded by lending their trucks for collecting of the tin were: Coca-Cola Company, Graham Furniture Co., Fulton Hardware and Furniture Co., Kentucky Utilities and Pepsi-Cola Bottling Co.

U. K. ENROLLMENT DROP PARTLY DUE TO WAR INDUSTRIAL DEMANDS

Enrollment for the winter quarter of the 1942-43 school year at the University of Kentucky dropped approximately 415, in comparison to figures for the same term last year, according to a compilation from the office of the registrar. The loss is partly due to enlistments in the armed forces, the Selective Service, and the demands of industry.

In spite of the decreased enrollment, 26 Kentucky counties showed an increase in enrollment, as did nine states. Only seven Kentucky counties of the 120 in the state, were not represented, while students registered from 37 of the 48 states and from six foreign countries. The total registration was 2,480.

Among those registering from Fulton County are Jane Purcell, Anna Mary DeMyer, Mary Laverne Burnett, Myrtle Pearl Binkley, William Glen McAllister, James O. Lewis, Virginia Ann Hill, and Felix M. Gossum, all of Fulton, and John C. Bondurant, Hickman.

FULTON MAN IS NAMED BRIGADIER GENERAL IN ARMY

A former Fulton man, and one who is well remembered here, has just been named Brigadier General in the United States Army. James C. Crockett, a native of Troy, Tenn., brother of the late Mrs. Don C. Taylor and son of the late Cave J. Crockett, who made his home here for a number of years with his daughter, was recently promoted from the rank of Colonel to the rank of Brigadier General, according to announcement Tuesday morning from Washington.

General Crockett was a frequent visitor here in his days of youth, and is well known to many citizens. He attended the University of the South at Seawannee, Tenn., and entered the United States army immediately after his graduation. He served as military attaché in Berlin for four years and was in the German capital in 1934 during Hitler's great blood purge of Nazi army officers. He has been of invaluable help to the army since war came, with his intimate information affairs, and has been stationed at Fort Knox.

Many friends here will be interested in the news of his promotion. General Crockett and his family were visitors in Fulton last summer, being guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Bradford.

COME, GO, AND GROW WITH US

I would like to make an appeal to the boys and girls on the farms of Weakley county, to ask your fathers and mothers to join the Weakley County Farm Bureau. We need this cooperation in Washington, Nashville and very community of Weakley county. Through the unrelenting efforts of our late beloved president, Poutbrook, a survey was made in Weakley county with the result that many of you are now enjoying Electricity on the farm. It makes the farm home more attractive and labor less drudgery, and the daughter can say to her city cousin, we too use an electric cleaner, by having an electric pump and a water system Johnny does not have to wait until Saturday night or go down to the creek to have a bath. Just now we have a war to win. We must have food for our fighting men. No one can produce it but farmers. If we are short of machines and tools, can't get the fertilizer we need, labor is scarce and a multiple of other reasons to slow down production. Let us still do our best and not let down our fighting boys. Then when peace comes we will go after some more TVA lines to serve the boys and girls of Weakley county. We are now at the threshold of history-making period. Democracy and the American ideas are being challenged as they have never been in the past. As each of you assume your part of the responsibility in collecting scrap, Red Cross work, selling War Bonds and Stamps, working with the 4-H Clubs, and Farm Bureau by mastering these small tasks, you will be better prepared to render a worth while service to your community, your county, your state and your nation. Join the Weakley County Farm Bureau.

General Crockett was a frequent visitor here in his days of youth, and is well known to many citizens. He attended the University of the South at Seawannee, Tenn., and entered the United States army immediately after his graduation. ELECTRICITY AT WORK

NEW "ELECTRIC EYE"

Another all-seeing "electric eye" is helping to make aircraft production in the United States the most efficient in the world. Oil lines, drilled deep into aircraft engine castings, are being examined for flaws and the presence of foreign matter with the bronchroscope, which also is used to remove pins and other foreign objects from babies' lungs. A miniature light bulb at the end of the instrument inserted deep in the rifle-drilled oil line, and a high-power magnifying glass at the other end make detection of flaws, cracks and loose metal particles easy. Foreign bodies can be removed by grips at the end of the same instrument.

DEFROST WEEKLY

Defrost your electric refrigerator at least once a week, according to the manufacturer's instructions. This is important because when too much frost collects, your motor must work harder to keep the temperature safe. Empty drip water as soon as defrosting is complete. Wash inside of refrigerator with baking soda and water each time it is defrosted. Don't forget to clean the freezer—that where food odor collects.

USES MEGNETIC NEEDLE

Dr. Frederick C. Leonard, of the University of California at Los Angeles, has discovered tiny meteorites weighing less than a 300-h of an ounce by use of the magnetic needle. He has been experimenting with this method in Arizona since last spring, and says meteorites can be discovered when buried ten or twelve feet in the ground.

MAN'S STRENGTH 150 WATTS

Dr. N. C. Beece, Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company, says we often talk of watts, kilowatts and horsepower without really having any clear idea of what they are. The strength of a small kitten, he says, is one watt, and that of a man is 150 watts. A bee would have to get the help of a million of his fellows to equal the pulling power of one man.

MISSISSIPPI DIVISION SUP- ERVISORS CLUB ORGAN- IZED AT JACKSON, TENN.

Supervisors of the Mechanical, Transportation and Traffic Departments of the Illinois Central Railroad are in attendance at a special meeting at Jackson, Tenn., on January 10, 1943 to organize the Mississippi Division Supervisors' Club.

Mr. J. F. Sharkey, superintendent of the Mississippi Division was unable to attend due to illness and the meeting was conducted by Mr. W. L. Jones, Master Mechanic of the Mississippi Division. Mr. Jones outlined the basic principals of the organization and stated that one of the major ideas in the organization of the Supervisors' Club was to bring together the supervisors of the various departments and thereby acquaint the supervisors with the problems and conditions that exist and prevail in the departments not under their respective jurisdiction. Mr. Jones also stated that this would, no doubt, tend to bring about a greater degree of cooperation and unity among the different departments and supervisors.

Mr. Jones received nominations for officers of the Supervisors' Club for the ensuing year and the following officers were elected:

Mr. F. B. Wilkinson, Agent at Jackson, Tenn., President; Mr. E. M. Scarbrough, Acting General Cars Foreman at Jackson, Tenn., Vice President; Mr. James C. King, Secretary to Master Mechanic at Jackson, Tenn., Secretary.

It was decided to hold quarterly meetings with the site of each meeting to be selected at a later date. The first regular meeting will be held at Jackson, Tenn., during the latter part of February, at which time the above officers will be installed and the charter and by-laws will be adopted.

The following representatives of the Mississippi Division were present:

J. T. Sisson, foreman, Haleyville, Ala.

RURAL BOYS AND GIRLS MOBILIZE TO AID WAR EFFORT

This week, February 6 to 14, National 4-H Club Mobilization Week.

During the week the million and a half rural boys and girls already enrolled will endeavor to add another million to their ranks and will pledge themselves to devote their efforts to production of more meat, milk, eggs and vegetables and do other jobs to help win the war.

In Tennessee, 80,000 club members already enrolled expect to increase their number to 100,000.

Another major objective of the week will be to lay plans for 4-H Clubs in an organized way to help meet local farm labor shortages, collect scrap and buy war stamps and bonds.

Tennessee 4-H Club members raised more than a million chickens, 24,000 hogs, 4,000 beef animals and owned 3,700 head of dairy cattle in 1942. They raised more than 300,000 bushels of vegetables in 4-H Victory Gardens and canned over 350,000 jars of fruits, vegetables and meats. They bought over $150,000 dollars worth of war bonds and collected 3,000,000 tons of scrap.

In order to help farmers to increase Save every pig possible. If we could market 80 percent of all the pigs born instead of the 60 percent average, pork production would jump one-third.

MYERS PLEDGES FIGHT AGAINST INCOME TAX

Lieut. Governor Rodes K. Myers in his address announcing his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for Governor of Kentucky, this week, pledged his full support in aiding to repeal the state income tax and all other nuisance taxes.

He also promised that the tax on real estate would not be increased, and that no sales tax would be enacted. Other planks of Myers platform call for aid to debt-ridden counties, free of toll bridges at the earliest possible time, exemption from tax on gasoline used on the farm and continuation of assistance to the blind and aged citizens.

Mr. Myers also stated in his speech which was broadcast over a state-wide hookup, that he favored the program of rehabilitating the state institutions and declared that the health and education activities must continue and be increased.

Mr. Myers also asserted that he would assist in helping to relocate war veterans and would improve the position of the laboring man. If elected, he says, he would appoint a Governors citizen advisory committee to meet with the Governor at least each quarter of the year to review what had been accomplished by the state government and what could be done for the general welfare of Kentucky.

The Lieutenant Governor said that he was seeking nomination as a candidate for no fraction and against no fraction. Mr. Myers declared that he had not asked Governor Keen Johnson for his support and that he hoped the Governor would decide not to use his influence in the selection of any Democratic gubernatorial nominee.

THE VALLEY OF THE SHADOW

By RUTH TAYLOR

Every hour of every day all over this world, on land, sea and in the air, the finest and best of our youth are passing through the valley of the shadow of death.

When they are sent into danger, it is not asked of them from what class or from what national or racial stock they come, or by what religious creed they live. The phrase "Selective Service" does not mean selection by these discriminative canons. Instead, it may mean that they are chosen for their physical fitness and their mental ability to endure hardship, strain, stress and privation, to obey and carry out orders, to follow and to lead—in short, that they have the resiliency and high courage of youth.

So our boys go into the valley of the shadow. Some will come out—not unchanged, for who that faces death bravely, fears death? Many will never return. Differing though they may in class, color or creed, they will be alike in distant graves, in land honored forever by the fact that there they died that other men might be free.

Three such boys died in the line of duty a short time ago—a Protestant named Vogel, a Catholic named Spowsky and a Jew named Goldberg. There is room for editorials galore in that statement. But more significant to me than any editorial was a phrase in the government story—"Three American boys in the Navy, a Protestant, a Catholic and a Jew, united by their common faith in American democracy and in freedom, met death together."

They met death, as brave men meet the thing they fear. United by their common faith in American democracy and in freedom, they walked into the valley of the shadow never to return.

Our hearts go out to those they left behind them, those who, too, go through the shadows of separation. But to them is one consolation they share in common. Though these lads followed different roads of faith—to each was vouchsafed the promise of the Prophet David: "Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for Thou art with me. Thy rod and Thy staff, they comfort me." And each family who mourns rests secure in the faith that beyond lies the valley of the shadow lies an eternal peace.

chester, Tenn., told how Retonga relieved him after years of suffering. Now Mrs. Hodge makes public her own happy experience with this noted medicine.

"I feel that Retonga was a veritable blessing to us," states Mrs. Hodge. "Many days I didn't feel like I could stay up all day. My appetite was practically gone, and what little food I forced down brought so much distress from acid indigestion that I felt like it did me more harm than good. I suffered from sluggish elimination and bilious headaches, and the muscles in my shoulders felt sore."

"The relief Retonga brought me seems almost marvelous. I enjoy eating, and I have much more strength. The soreness in my shoulders and the sluggish elimination also are relieved, and I feel so much better in every way that I can never thank Retonga enough."

Such grateful evidence speaks for itself. Retonga is a purely herbal gastric tonic combined with liberal quantities of Vitamin E-L. Accout no substitute. Retonga may be obtained at DeMyer Drug Store. -- Adv.

One of the outstanding features of Retonga is the large number of ministers and their wives who have come out with strong public endorsements of this noted medicine.

Recently Rev. A. L. Hodge, widely known retired Methodist minister now living on his two hundred acre farm on Route 5, Manchester, Tenn., told how Retonga relieved him after years of suffering. Now Mrs. Hodge makes public her own happy experience with this noted medicine.

Recently Rev. A. L. Hodge, widely known retired Methodist minister now living on his two hundred acre farm on Route 5, Manchester, Tenn., told how Retonga relieved him after years of suffering. Now Mrs. Hodge makes public her own happy experience with this noted medicine.

"I feel that Retonga was a veritable blessing to us," states Mrs. Hodge. "Many days I didn't feel like I could stay up all day. My appetite was practically gone, and what little food I forced down brought so much distress from acid indigestion that I felt like it did me more harm than good. I suffered from sluggish elimination and bilious headaches, and the muscles in my shoulders felt sore."

"The relief Retonga brought me seems almost marvelous. I enjoy eating, and I have much more strength. The soreness in my shoulders and the sluggish elimination also are relieved, and I feel so much better in every way that I can never thank Retonga enough."

The morning was spent sociable, in the afternoon the devotionals was conducted by Rev. Houser, who gave a scripture reading and several song selections.

The business meeting was then conducted and we were glad to have Miss Tice and also Mr. Garth present. Miss Tice gave out year books, also gave a very interesting information on "Fitting Problems" and different kinds of patching which were very helpful.

We adjourned to meet in March with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Patterson, Jr.

Whereas, Mrs. Bettie Gates Cannon, wife of E. E. Cannon, died December 19, 1942, and whereas she was a member of the Bowers Community Club.

Therefore, be it resolved that in the death of Mrs. Cannon the community in which she lived has lost a fine Christian character and her family a loving and devoted wife and mother, the church of which she was a member for 45 years lost a devoted and consecrated member, and the Bowers Club has lost one of its most loyal and devoted members.

Be it further resolved that a copy of this resolution be spread upon the minute books of the community club, a copy be sent to the local papers, and also a copy be left with her husband.
