Roll Call For All Rural Women Scheduled

A "roll call" for all rural women the week of March 1 to 7 will open a nation-wide home food supply for victory education campaign which will be continued through March 20. C. E. Brehm, Director of the U-T Agricultural Extension Service, states.

The goal is to get every rural family to produce and conserve as much of the home food supply as possible and to acquaint them with sources of information on home food production and conservation. This nation-wide program is based on the Tennessee program which has been conducted during the past three years with outstanding results.

The Tennessee program which is sponsored by Governor Cooper in cooperation with the Extension Service and other agencies interested in rural well-fare was started in 1940 to encourage each farm family to grow at least 75 per cent of their food. This year they will strive not only to produce most of their food needs but a surplus to sell as an aid to the National Food for Freedom program.

In Tennessee agents have been asked to maintain the 1942 enrollment of 201,504 and add as many more families as possible. All families enrolled last year are being asked by county farm and home agents to continue in the program this year, Director Brehm said.

University officials have emphasized the importance of men and women continuing their education at this time, pointing out the shortage of teachers and the demands for technical experts in various war industries as two good reasons for a speeding up of the educational processes.

In a pamphlet sent out to all Kentucky high school teachers, the University has called the attention of Kentucky educators to the statement of Lieut. Gen. B. B. Somervell, U. S. A., who has said: "We can lose this total war on the battle front as a direct result of losing it on . . . the educational front. Education is the backbone of an army."

ELIGIBLE EMPLOYERS CAN WITHDRAW NOW

FRANKFORT, Ky.—Eligible employers, desiring to withdraw from their coverage under the state unemployment compensation law, have until March 1 to file their applications, Director V. E. Barnes of the Commission announced today.

Barnes said eligible employers are those who during 1924 had fewer than eight workers of whom less than four had quarterly earnings of $50 or more each during three of the four quarters of that year.

In all cases where termination applications are approved, the director said, they will be retroactive to January 1. Failure of an employer to file application before March 1, Barnes emphasized, would result in an extension of the employer's liability for unemployment payments throughout the year and until such time as his termination application is filed and approved by the Commission.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Mind" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in Churches of Christ Scientist, throughout the world, on Sunday, February 21, 1943.

The Golden Text is "The Lord of Hosts hath sworn, saying, Surely as I have thought, so shall it come to pass; and as I have purposed, so shall it stand." (Isa. 14-24).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God is one Lord: And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might." (Deut. 6:4-5).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook: "There can be but one Mind, because there is but one God, and if mortals claimed no other Mind and accepted no other, sin would be unknown. (p. 469).

Fulton's Victory Book Drive, to get books for the various service centers in the country is now underway and all local citizens are urged to cooperate by donating good books. Mrs. Jessie Lee Fleming is chairman of the drive here.

Containers have been placed at the local U S O center, the public library, Fulton Theatre, Weeks Store, Owl Drug Store, and the Kentucky Utilities office, and you are asked to leave your books at one of these places.

"Any book that you want to keep is a good one to give" is a good test for the type of book desired.

The Victory Book Drive in Fulton will end on February 27th, and at this time the Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts will canvass the town in a final cleanup campaign. This drive, which is a national one, is being sponsored by the American Library Association, the American Red Cross and the U S O and is for the purpose of obtaining more and better books in 1943 for the nation's fighting men.

In last years campaign only 50 per cent of the eleven million books donated were suitable for distribution, and the aim of the drive this year is to get good books, in good condition. Books that are dog-eared or tattered are not wanted, books that can be read. Only books in first class condition can be used.

The armed forces have expanded so rapidly, it has been impossible for officials of our Army, Navy and Marine Corps to supply enough books or all the new camps and organized within the year. Therefore receiving stations which have been fore this drive is being held here with the hope that many good books can be collected for the soldiers, sailors and marines.

To make this drive successful your cooperation is needed. Donate good books to a worthy cause.

LIVING UP TO TRADITION

The medical profession hasn't done a lot of talking about the "sacrifices" its members are making. And yet doctors, perhaps more than any other group next to the service men, are making real sacrifices in this war.

Thousands of them have voluntarily given up their practices. They live in the fox-holes with the soldiers. They fight and die with the navy and the marines. They perform miracles amid blood and suffering. Gone is the business for which they spent so many years in preparation, often on a financial shoe string.

The doctors left at home are making sacrifices too. Men who should be enjoying the leisurely aftermath of useful careers are back in harness working at a killing pace. They are on duty 24 hours a day—and they don't yell for time-and-a-half when Mrs. Jones is having a baby at 3 A. M.

The doctors are carrying on the tradition of American medicine in every emergency. Their example might well be followed by workers in other fields.

ELECTRICITY AT WORK

TAKE CARE OF CORDS

Cords for lamps, irons and other electrical appliances are becoming more difficult to obtain. So, if you want to keep your appliances operating, keep your cords in good condition. Disconnect appliances by grasping the plug and removing with a firm quick motion. Don't pull on cord. Keep cords free of kinks and knots. Don't place cords where furniture will be moved over them, people will walk on them, etc. Keep cords dry. Don't place cords in such a way that they will rub against projections, corners, etc. If a plug is broken or a cord frayed, take it to an electrician; don't try to fix it yourself.

CLEANING ELECTRIC RANGE

To clean your electric range, first be certain it is cool, then wash outside with warm, soapy water. Avoid letting spilled food dry or harden on the range. Food spilled on open surface units (heating units) should be burned off. Avoid using stiff brushes or sharp instruments. To remove coating of fat which has burned on the sides of the oven of your electric range, place an open pan of household ammonia in oven when cool. Close door and leave overnight. The fumes will loosen fat, which then easily can be removed with soapy water or scouring powder.

WHEN A STAR EXPLODES

Once in every five or six centuries one of the billions of stars in the Milky Way explodes with an output of electrical energy approximately 100,000,000 times that of the sun. These explosions represent the most titanic sudden releases of energy that have been observed in the universe. The last was observed 369 years ago.

GOOD COFFEE SECRET

Keep your electric coffee maker clean. Oils that remain after the coffee is brewed grow rancid and give you that well-known bitter taste. If you use a cloth filter, be sure to rinse out the filter cloth thoroughly with cold water after each using. Between usings, keep the cloth in a glass of cold water. If you use a metal coffee-maker substitute a tablespoon of baking soda for the coffee every once in a while, add water, and proceed just as if you were making the morning coffee. This will remove any trace of oil absorbed by the metal, and your coffee-maker will remain sweet and clean.

DISH WASHER ATTENTION

Special care for your electric dishwasher seldom is required, for the dishwasher cleanses itself. However, if some sediment remains, due to water conditions, operate dishwasher without dishes. Fill with water to required level. Pour two cups of vinegar through the filler opening and let machine run for five minutes. Use two one-minute hot water rinses.

PIERCING NEW LIGHT

That yellow light is no better at piercing fog than the light of an ordinary tungsten lamp is shown by experiments recently carried out by Dr. Matthew Luckiesh, research physicist and Franklin medalist, and L. L. Holladay of the Lighting Research Laboratory of the General Electric Company.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

Uncle Sam's lighter 37-millimeter anti-tank guns are dubbed "tank killers." They are attached to the infantry, not the field artillery, and cost approximately $6,500 each. They have proved particularly effective in anti-tank warfare.

They are mobile, mounted on automobile tires and can be rapidly whisked from place to place. Your purchase of War Bonds will help pay the cost of these field pieces so necessary for our Army in this War. Join the Payroll Savings Plan at your office or factory and let's "Top that ten percent" by investing at least ten percent of your income in War Bonds. U. S. Treasury Department

THE ROAD TO DAMASCUS

by RUTH TAYLOR

Centuries ago a proud, ambitious man walked along the Damascus Road, down that great caravan trail which cut through the Middle East like a brown ribbon, winding over hills and down into valleys, through desert land into fertile oases, on its way to that walled city of antiquity, in whose bazaars could be found men from all the far places and of all races.

That journey on the Damascus Road marked a crucial date in history for all of us, for it was on that robber-manned road that the light came to Saul and changed him into the Paul who gave his life for the welfare of the world. On that road there came upon him the light that stripped him of self-pride and hatred, to clothe him in the robes of humility and love.

We, as a nation, are today plodding along the Road to Damascus. As we follow in Saul's footsteps, let us also follow in Paul's. Let us pray, too, to see the light at all times and to follow where it leads the light of the spirit of brotherhood, the light of the spirit of sacrifice, the light of the spirit of devotion to what we know to be the right.

We, as individuals, must today more than ever, put away the trappings of self-will and personal ambition. The supreme heroism will be called from us before these coming months are past. We cannot meet the challenge of the times if our interests are vested in ourselves alone, if we are weighed down under the burden of old prejudices, hatreds and desires. We, too, must see the light on the road to Damascus and follow the command of that other traveler along the road who said:

"Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all to stand."

Hitler feeds them unwholesome propaganda, Uncle Sam gives them wholesome food.

Buses Will Serve You Better
If you plan your travel for
MID-WINTER MONTHS

You can aid wartime bus service by planning essential trips for February or March—instead of Mid-Summer

Never in history has it been so important to choose with care the time and occasion for travel. Through the years bus travel has always been very heavy in some months, less heavy in others—and this has held true even in wartime when the demands on transportation are naturally increased. That's why Greyhound has long urged everyone to travel during less crowded periods—and February and March are just such times. Essential trips taken when possible, in mid-winter will greatly relieve overcrowding in the mid-summer months ahead.

You can aid wartime transportation still further by choosing the right day—in mid-week—the right schedule—the least crowded one. It's wise to take along as little baggage as possible—and to get information on any trip well in advance.

That Nagging Backache

May Warn of Disordered Kidney Action

Modern life with its hurry and worry, irregular habits, improper eating and drinking—the risk of exposure and infection—throws heavy strain on the work of the kidneys. They are apt to become over-taxed and fail to filter excess acid and other impurities from the life-giving blood.

You may suffer nagging backache, headache, dizziness, getting up nights, loss of appetite, feeling constantly tired, nervous, all worn out. Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are sometimes burning, stinging or too frequent urination.

Try Doan's Pills. Doan's help the kidneys to pass off harmful excess body waste. They have had more than half a century of public approval. Are recommended by grateful users everywhere. Ask your neighbor!

ON THE AIR BEAUTEUS SINGER

By Fred Emery

Josephine Antoine is as American as Horatio Alger, and her career reads like one of his stories.

The daughter of a grocer, Josephine was born in wind-swept

JOSEPHINE ANTOINE

Boulder, Colorado. She was crazy about radios, graduated from the State University, and thinks she is not "unusual". Except for her voice, of course, which has been acclaimed for its tone, flexibility and warmth.

Her climb to success up the ladder of American radio, beginning with an Atwater Kent award in 1929, landed her in the Metropolitan Opera House at 21, where she enjoyed the distinction of being the first coloratura in 25 years. The date of that debut, January, 1936, marked the first time an opera was heard and broadcast at the same time.

Now featured soloist of the "Contented Hour" Monday programs and a member of the Metropolitan, Chicago, and San Francisco Opera Companies, she is the personification of the new type opera star—possessing a coloratura voice, acting ability, a radiant personality, and a generous helping of "it".

TWO-FOLD RECIPE BOOSTS WAR-TIME FOOD PRODUCTION

CHICAGO.—A two-fold recipe for stepping up the production of foods and fibers needed specially in the war program was given midwestern farmers in a statement issued here by the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee.

"The two ingredients," says the statement, "are improved farming methods and the judicious use of fertilizer. By improved farming methods is meant taking advantage of the ever-accumulating store of information resulting from tests and research by the state agricultural colleges and experiment stations as well as by the Department of Agriculture."

"In any sound farming program the use of fertilizer logically has a place. Experience under practical growing conditions has proved that fertilizer can be profitably used in the production of practically every farm crop grown in the Middle West."

"Experience has likewise proved that farmers can expect dividends in the form of increased crop yields and crop values when they play fair with their soil by supplying it with plant foods."

War-Scarce Nitrogen Can Be Stretched by Good Handling
CHICAGO.—War-scarce nitrogen can be salvaged for crop production on thousands of Midwest farms if farmers conserve and utilize manure properly, according to a statement made public here by the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee.

Conservation steps outlined by the Committee include rapid transferring of manure from the barn to the field, or if storage is necessary, the construction of waterproof concrete pits. In either case, the Committee recommends treating the manure with superphosphate.

"The value of superphosphate," the statement adds, "lies in the fact that it prevents the loss of nitrogen in manure by absorbing the liquid ammonia and halting its escape into the air as ammonia gas. Fortunately the supply of superphosphate is adequate to meet farm demands."

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

Down in the Solomons and on the African coasts the Crocodile Boat or tank lighter played a most important role in landing our invasion armies. These self-propelled, light . . . fast boats haul tanks, artillery and other equipment from the big ships off-shore to the beach heads.

We need more and more of them, for they are essential to the successful operation of the war. They are made in several sizes from small fifty-footers, costing about $2,400 to the big 500-tonners costing around $37,000. Your purchase of War Bonds every payday will help pay for them.

TWO GREAT AMERICANS

THIS month we celebrate the birthdays of two of our greatest Americans, George Washington and Abraham Lincoln. These two men had little in common except their love for America and their determination to build and preserve a nation founded upon freedom and equality.

They started life under widely different conditions, but both arose to the highest office of our country. In this they typify the American Way of Life. Under the American system of free enterprise, you and your children, no matter whether you are rich or poor, have equal opportunity to succeed in life to the full extent of your ability. No other nation on earth can say truthfully that its citizens have the same opportunity.

Freedom of enterprise is possible only under our democratic form of government. Under it, we Americans enjoy the highest standard of living, the highest wages and the most liberties and conveniences of any nation in the world.

Only with freedom of enterprise could the United States have become so fully the "Arsenal of Democracy." Our war effort makes the efforts of national-socialistic, or dictatorship, nations seem weak and inefficient. The present war has exploded the old myth of totalitarian efficiency. But in spite of all this, there are some people in America who want to scrap freedom of enterprise and replace it with political control of all business and industry. Let's keep the system which has given every American so much and made our nation the strongest on earth!

The men in our armed services greatly need books for leisure-time reading. For the Victory Book Campaign, send those you have most enjoyed . . . both fact and fiction, but not dull old stuff. If you wish to leave books at our local office, we will promptly forward them to the Victory Book Committee.

Be Quick To Treat Bronchitis

Chronic bronchitis may develop if your cough, chest cold, or acute bronchitis is not treated and you cannot afford to take a chance with any medicine less potent than Creomulsion which goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ-laden phlegm and soothe inflamed throat.

Creomulsion is a powerful expectorant by special process with other time tested medicines for coughs. It contains no narcotics.

No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must take it the way it is given, or you are to have your money back. (Adv.)

"We've come to join you —
UNCLE SAM"

"We're just little fellows, Uncle Sam, but there's a whole lot of us, and now that we know just how valuable the telephone is to you in helping you win the war—we won't use the 'phone just any old time as we used to before the war. We know that you need the 'phone."

How we telephone folks wish that every American youngster and grownups, too, would feel just that way. We believe every one would if they could know the full importance of telephone service to government and industry in our all-out war effort. We cannot expand facilities sufficient to relieve the load on local and long distance lines because raw materials are needed more for the manufacture of the implements of war.

So won't you please join in helping to keep local telephone lines and central offices clear of needless calls and please make all your telephone conversations as brief as possible?
