What 'Dye Lack Gentles?

What 'dye lack gentles? what 'dye lack? Long ago that was the cry of the London apprentices as they stood by the stalls of wares which displayed their wares. That was before the time of Advertising, when indeed all martial occupations were held in contempt as if the handling of goods left a tender state than the faithful support of the King.

The Bloody Sword.

A great change has come over the readies. An apparatus with his apparatus cry has disappeared in the limbs of the past. In its place goes forth the advertisement which satisfies the question.

WHAT 'DYE LACK?

Now is the time to secure your waste at a great saving. Basket & Co. are making room for a heavy full stock and have slashed prices right and left.
