JUDGE DISMISSED ACCUSED AT PRINCETON YESTERDAY

HENRY MURTERS CHARGED WITH BEING ONE OF THE MILITANTS IN THE UNITED STATES ARMY INTERROGATION TERROR INCIDENT IN PRINCETON BY COUNTY JUDGE BLALOCK WHO DIED NOT TRUE STORY. STATE FIRE MARSHAL MOTT AYERS AND ATTORNEY "WILL MAKE YOUR LADY." NIGHT. THE FORMER WILL CONTINUE A VIGOROUS INVESTIGATION OF THE RAID.

The first attempt to State Fire Marshal Mott Ayers to ferret out the identity of the parties who dynamited the United States Army interrogation tank in Princeton was revealed yesterday by County Judge Blalock, who revealed that he had received an application for a license to dynamite from Henry Murters, who was arrested on a charge of ordering a man to dynamite the tank.

Judge Blalock disclosed that Murters, under warranty of the state, provides that if the judge does not have evidence sufficient to prove the charge in court, he will dismiss the case. The discovery was made in the course of an investigation of the bomb that was sent to the editor of the Princeton Press.

In addition, the judge also ruled that Murters is not under the bond that he was served with yesterday, and that he cannot be prosecuted in the meantime.

The next step will be a hearing before a court of record, at which time evidence will be introduced and a decision rendered.
