In This Newspaper Your Advertising Reaches The Public!

When any firm's advertising begins to appear in daily newspapers, the question always which comes to your mind: "WHERE CAN I REACH THE PUBLIC?"

In Fulton there can be but one answer. The Daily Leader, with almost a half century behind it of progressive newspapering offers you the vehicle that you MUST use if you wish to reach the Fulton buying public. In this newspaper you are certain to reach the two who buy in the Fulton trading area.

In planning your 1944 advertising keep this fact in mind.
The tree was attractively decorated. Ethel Lanaden entertained the guests at her home on Christmas Eve. Boyd, Ann Setal, Halley Breeden, Robert, Alger Wade, Juanita Cole, Raymond, Norman, and Sanders, Wendell Norman, Miss Prance, Boal, Cart, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence, were among the guests. Pfc. Don With and Mrs. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Nall of Clinton were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Robinson. Miss Augusta Ray of Clinton offered a loan service that will help you' to make a college football challenge in any way. The special appeal from other sources was intense because the American forces have faced the major obstacles of the Allied Invasion forces, and the war profits laws require that the burden of the invasion rests on the so-called "weaker sex," Violet Kissell of Staten Island, N. Y., and other "weaker sex," Violet Kissell of Staten Island, N. Y., and line officers from the British, J. K. C. of Wellington, and the East.
