PLANS ACCEPTED FOR NEW BANK BUILDING

The First National Bank Officials have Finally Got The Last Set of Plans and Specifications of the New Bank Building Survey and Specifications Will Be Published in the Advocate Next Week.

President Robert L. Haskins and the Board of Directors of the First National Bank have accepted the last set of plans and specifications for the new bank building. The survey and specifications will be published in the Advocate next week.

The new building will be located at the corner of Main and Fourth Streets in Paducah. It will be a three-story structure with a basement and will be constructed of brick and stone. The building will be 100 feet wide and 150 feet deep.

The architecture of the building will be modern and up-to-date, and will include such features as a central entrance, a large lobby, and spacious office spaces. The bank will also have a vault and a safe deposit box room.

The bank's directors have notified the architect that they are satisfied with the plans and specifications, and will proceed to have the building constructed as soon as possible.

DOCTOR CRISTED BP HIS FRIENDS

Dr. A. K. Purdy was in the city yesterday for the first time since he was appointed to the position of State Medical Examiner.

The doctor is recovering from a serious illness and will shortly be able to resume his duties. He has been away from the city for several weeks, but has returned to Paducah to take charge of the State Medical Examiner's office.

AL WINFREY INDICTED FOR WILFUL MURDER

THIS IS THE NATURE OF THE CHARGE BROUGHT IN TUESDAY AGAINST THE YOUNG FELLOW BY THE CIRCUIT COURT MAGISTRATE--A TRIAL UNTIL NEXT MARCH AS THE TERM OF CRIMINAL CASE IS NOT BAILABLE.

In a indictment charging Al Winfrey, a young fellow, with the murder of Morris, a young fellow, on Cairo road which is 11 miles continuo, the county jail until next March, he promised to get out to the Schaeffer home between 6 and 7:30 p.m. Winfrey then got his .44 caliber revolver from the Illinois arsenal in Cairo. The young fellow named Morris is the Schaeffer's son in Cairo, Ky., and little Morris was going to see his grandfather, my first husband, on the Thompson's store to see if he could get his car, which he had left there for his mother, in the Shaffer home where Mrs. Clark said, he was leaving her house. The Thompson's were going to the Thompson's store to see if they could get their car, which they had left there for their grandchildren, the Schaeffer's son in Cairo, Ky., and little Morris was going to see his grandfather, my first husband, on the Thompson's store to see if he could get his car, which he had left there for his mother, in the Shaffer home where Mrs. Clark said, he was leaving her house.

The young fellow named Morris is the Schaeffer's son in Cairo, Ky., and little Morris was going to see his grandfather, my first husband, on the Thompson's store to see if he could get his car, which he had left there for his mother, in the Shaffer home where Mrs. Clark said, he was leaving her house.
