THE BOOFTLES

Phyllis Ringo Weds George James Jr., In Clinton

Mrs. George Thomas Jones Jr.

Out of six consecutive weddings baskets of white flowers. White flowers too. First was Miss Ethel Ann Ringo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Ringo, Clinton, and George James Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. James, Fultons, held at Clinton Presbyterian Church. The bridesmaids were Misses Betty Ringo and Margaret James, with Miss Rural Ringo as matron of honor. The groomsman was Mr. James A. James, and the best man, Mr. James A. James, Jr.

The ceremony was held at 2 p.m. in Clinton Presbyterian Church. Rev. F. R. McMillan officiated at the altar. The bride's presence was announced by Rev. W. A. James, who married the couple. The bride, Miss Ethel Ann Ringo, was seen in a white gown and a veil with a white rose. Her eyes were hidden behind a veil.

The bride and groom exchanged vows under the arch and the rings were exchanged.

A wedding reception was held in the church hall following the ceremony. The newlyweds left for their honeymoon in a white limousine.

Mrs. George Thomas Jones Jr., 42, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. James, Fultons, and George James Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. James, Fultons, were married at Clinton Presbyterian Church. The wedding was officiated by Rev. F. R. McMillan.

The wedding was one of many in the area surrounding Clinton. Many other couples were also married in the area.

Dodge Park Records Shattered Today

Field Park, Ill., Sep. 7—A new high school attendance mark was set in the third inning of a major league game played on the Chamberlain Field here today. A crowd of 11,288 fans bared a scene at one of the most popular hotbeds of Chicago's sporting life. The game was played between the Detroit Tigers and the Washington Senators.

SPORTS LAUGH
When Commissioner Kershaw prodded the official scorer to report the correct score, the latter said: "Kershaw, I'm going to refer you to the manager of the club, and he's going to refer you to the umpire, and he's going to refer you to the umpire, ad nauseum." Kershaw interrupted: "Don't do that, but I'll go to the manager and refer him to me, and he'll refer him to you, ad nauseum."
