City Council Adopts Flood Control Ordinance

For Straightening, Widening Harris Fork Creek; $40,000 In Bonds Needed To Finance Project

Measure Designed To Halt Flooding Of Low-Lying Land Near Creek Bed; Drainage Area Boundaries Given

ORDINANCE WILL BE PUBLISHED TOMORROW

The Fulton city council last night passed unanimously an ordinance providing for straightening and widening Harris Fork creek for flood control purposes to stop the periodic overflowing of the creek which, according to the ordinance, causes property damage and is a menace to public health.

The ordinance, which will be published in its entirety in tomorrow's Leader:

1. Sets forth boundaries of the flood control district or canal.
2. Designates a drainage area including property which will be benefited by the project.
3. Provides that cost of the project is to be assessed against property in the drainage area.
4. Authorizes issuance of bonds in the amount of $40,000 to finance the expense of straightening and widening the present creek, and states that these bonds may be retired through city taxes or assessments on drainage area property.

WORTHY WOMEN'S WORK

As the district has not received its just recognition, we are going to try to have a little better work done in this. We are going to try to have better work done in this district and to improve the conditions of labor that people are working on.

The leader believes that if there were more cooperation between the leaders of the country, there would be more cooperation between the leaders of the nation. He thinks that the government should work with the leaders of the country to improve the conditions of labor.

According to news reports yesterday, there was no need for the United Nations military expedition to be sent to the Balkans. The United Nations had already sent a military expedition to the Balkans to stop the fighting.

The opposing forces of the United Nations and Japan were not able to agree on the terms of the cease-fire. According to news reports, the United Nations was willing to accept Japan's terms, but Japan was not willing to accept the United Nations' terms.

John Kiser spent yesterday in Louisville and was represented at the First Congressional Convention by Mr. and Mrs. W. A. J. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. R. Smith, and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Smith. The convention was in session all day.
