Bulldogs Take First Game From Tiptonville 20-0 Without Much Trouble. "T" Attack Effective

Bulldogs Hold Tennessee To Two First Downs all night and trouble. The visitors made only 13 yards all night and actually threatened to score.

The Pitts Covert out in the Berthoud's last effort at the end of the game were the most serious of the night. Pitts was in the bowls back of 20 yards, and the Pitts' coaching staff looked at his movements and was pleased with their efforts.

The Earthquakes, big on the ground game, were not able to get much of a foothold. They gained only 19 yards on the night.

The Tennessee backs were crashed through by five straight efforts of 2-2-2-2-0 yards. After a second down from their own half yard line, they were stopped on a third down and had to punt out of their end zone.

The play was made on a third down and had to be punted out of their end zone.

The statement was approved by the conference and set as the official record.

The Secretary Steps Down
President Truman, "regrets" that Henry Wallace, under his writings as Secretary of Commerce, had resigned.

In a letter to the President, Mr. Wallace, who held the office of Secretary of Commerce since 1945, expressed his appreciation for the opportunity to serve under the administration. He also mentioned that he had been consulted on various matters by the President and that he had enjoyed his time in the office.

The Secretary's resignation has come as a surprise to many, as he had been a close associate of the President and had played a significant role in the administration. His departure is expected to affect the direction of the Commerce Department in the future.

The administration is currently reviewing options to fill the vacant position. It is expected that a new Secretary of Commerce will be appointed soon.

Following the invasion congressmen and governors of Kentucky held an informal session meetings occurred concerning the transportation of returning veterans. "We want to set aside some way of transportation," said one of the congressmen. "We have to think of the men who are coming back." The governor added, "We will do our best to make sure they get a ride home."

In the direction of maturity and tolerance, "I sit on the fence," said the governor. "I don't take sides."

"The principles of live and let live. And from where I sit, that's another thing," said the congressman.

"It's because they are slaves to form the present era," said the governor.
