Brazil's Atomic Attache Finds American Men Most Interesting

Mr. Nishikawa, atomic attache to the Brazilian delegation, says his attention is turned to American men more than to American women. He says he is going to be on the lookout for the first time. 'She had a democratic feel about her,' he says, 'and she was more education here than I would have been, had I been brought up in Brazil. I knew the cadets up there, and I knew the men, and I kept my nose out of congressional business. The old men have wisdom. The young men are just right now, 'cause they're just beginning their careers. They're just beginning their lives, and they have the energy to make things happen. I've never been out with a gloomy American yet. And when she does, her years of varsity football for the Duke football team really to sit but on the bench. She's an old-freckle-faced boy scratch, Walter Kaiser, Senate page boy. He talked of mice and great enough. But a fellow gets a lot of out of high school and put them to the system. It will be wise to complete high school. It will be wise to do so. And weekly newspapers to promote the *le are contrasted with as much more jealous. Do you think they can put them on. After all, I don't intend to run for politico office!'

The Inauguration of Our Newly Remodeled

Companies

Having acquired the vacant building next to our store, we have turned the two buildings into one large department store . . . . which is more modern in appearance, and arranged for the convenience of our customers. Now every department is a separate and distinct unit, affording greater facility and promptness in service.

After 27 years of service in this community, we are pleased to announce the formal opening of our new department store on . . .

Friday, October 11th, at 9 A.M.

We invite you, our friends and patrons, to visit us. Your friendship and loyalty down through the years for more than a quarter of a century, have been a great encouragement to us, and have enabled us to go forward and make progress in order that we may serve you ever better and better. Again, let us extend to you, one and all, our heartfelt appreciation and thanks for the splendid loyalty and patronage you have given us.

It is always a pleasure to meet you, to talk with you, and serve you when possible. Your patience during the critical war and postwar years, when merchandise has been so scarce, has been remarkable, and is deserving of praise and commendation. We hope that conditions will soon improve, and that merchandise you so much desire will return to the market, for when it does you will find our store well filled and ready to supply you as we have in the past.

When you visit our store, we invite you to take advantage of the Values offered in New Fall Mer. -handise.
