Truman Expected To Decide Federal Action In Meat Crisis Soon

President Truman is expected to decide federal action in the meat crisis soon. The crisis began when the government stepped in to stop the price wartime controls.

The government, however, has not been able to reach a decision on how to proceed. The crisis has caused a panic in the meat industry and has led to a shortage of meat in many parts of the country.

Several proposals have been made for ending the crisis. One proposal is to allow the price controls to continue. Another proposal is to allow the meat industry to regulate its own prices.

President Truman is expected to decide which of these proposals to follow.
Unusual Diplomacy

By J. ALBERT S. FOREIGN AFFAIRS

The United States government is to seek a enlightened solution to the Middle East crisis that would be acceptable to both sides. The problem is complex and requires a long-term commitment of resources. The Mediator has proposed a two-stage plan: first, a cease-fire and withdrawal of all foreign troops, followed by negotiations for a permanent settlement. This approach is expected to be more acceptable than immediate military action.

Dyer Happy In Knowledge His Cards Have Chance To Win

By Jack Brooks

Boston, Oct. 11—(AP)—Now there's a new feeling about the Red Sox. The players are coming off a third-place finish with a purpose. They are determined to beat the heavy favorites, the mighty Yankees. The Sox have confidence in their young and talented players. They believe they have the right attitude to take down the champions. The Sox are playing with a chip on their shoulder, and that's the kind of determination it takes to win.

Three years ago—Bill Dickey's sixth inning home run with Charley Gehrig's assist off a Babe Ruth drive clinched the second World Series title for the New York Yankees. Today, the Sox are determined to repeat history. They are not intimidated by the awesome task at hand. The Sox have the talent and the spirit to pull off the upset. The Sox are ready to hit the ball and not be afraid to make contact. The Sox are ready to run the bases and be aggressive. The Sox are ready to win.
