So You Thought We Were JEWELERS

Well, doesn't that beat all how these ideas seem to go around? Just because we have diamonds and precious jewels, you naturally jumped to the conclusion that we are selling jewelry.

What we really sell is something quite different from what you think. Yes, we deal in diamonds and precious, the most fragile, the most beautiful things, things that symbolize the beauty of love, the faithfulness of friendship, the romance... and Adventure. We follow the path of Beauty, to prepare somethings for a future day, that are as precious as the beloved old memories... and the makers of Dreams that will live forever.

And you thought we were jewelers! Only to the extent that it's our business to translate what you feel for someone into a permanent message that will give joy for always, today and every day. To that end we use jewels...

So make your Valentine gift one that will last and bring happy memories throughout the years.

Today is September 17, 1923, which is the day before Columbus Day. Today's Lesson is based on the story "The Devil and the Farmer," which is set in a rural community in Kentucky. The story is about a farmer who makes a deal with the devil to get rich quickly. However, the farmer soon realizes the consequences of his actions and learns a valuable lesson.

In the story, we also discuss the importance of working hard and being honest. We learn that shortcuts and easy solutions often lead to problems and negative consequences. We also discuss the role of faith and faithfulness in the farmer's life.

The Story of the Farmer's wife

The farmer's wife is a strong and independent woman. She is devoted to her family and is always there for them, even when they are facing difficult times. She is also a faithful Christian, and her faith guides her actions and decisions.

We conclude today's lesson by discussing the importance of faith and faithfulness in our own lives. We should always strive to be honest, hardworking, and faithful, even when things are difficult.
