Masonic Bodies now own Fraternity Building

BOUGHT THE HOLDINGS OF ODD FELLOWS FOR $15,400

A disagreement of Three Years Standing in Respect To the Laurel Lodge Floor Settled by the Purchase—The Masons Will Fit Up Part of Third Floor for Offices

Masons Stood Ready to Bid Considerably More for Possession of Property

The entire capital stock in the Masonic and Odd Fellows building and the lodge furnishings in the large hall on the second floor of the building were purchased last night by the Masonic Body.

The lodge was the subject of a suit last summer to recover the damages caused by patrons of a neighboring club who played cards in numbers and lost money on the moral gambling in the lodge room. A verdict in favor of the lodge was obtained, but the deceased refused to recover until a settlement was made of the amount of the stock and furnishings.

The Masons are now in control of the premises and are preparing to install the necessary equipment for holding meetings and conducting the business of the lodge.

The Masonic Building

The Masonic building is located on the corner of Sixth and Madison streets and is one of the largest and most imposing structures in the city. It was originally built for the Odd Fellows and later purchased by the Masons. The building is of brick construction and has a large auditorium on the second floor.

The Masons have decided to use the building for their lodge and meeting rooms and have plans to renovate and improve the facilities.

PRESENT SYSTEM STATE

TAXATION IS DECLARED NO LONGER TOLERABLE

Three things were decided at a meeting yesterday evening, attended by a large number of citizens of Louisville last night at the Seelbach.

First: The present system of state taxation is declared no longer tolerable.

Second: Three things were decided at a meeting of the board of trade, and the taxation committee has agreed upon.

The third: The present system must be abandoned if we are to attain the desired result, an organized effort to secure the changes that are needed.

The next five or six years, those present to assist the men working to secure the changes that are needed.

At the conclusion of the speeches the principal speakers were followed by the chairman, who made a rousing statement of confidence in the ability of the state to carry through its work.

Helm Shows Disunion.

Mr. Hahn announced that it is in the interest of the state to carry through its work in a disunited manner.

While all corporate property was to be taxed the same rate as that of individual property, the remedy of the situation was to be found in the state legislature.

The next step is the organization of a new tax court.

It is seldom that a writer in the history of this city has written without a call for A. V. Ford, whose name is associated with the commercial and industrial world, and whose every step is watched with interest, has made a statement that he feels to be the most important step in the history of the city.

The writer declared that the present system must be abandoned if we are to attain the desired result, an organized effort to secure the changes that are needed.

BERT ROBERTS SHOWED OFFICERS NEAT TRICK

ESCAPED FROM PADUCAH POLICE AT LOUISVILLE, AND BRINGING POLICE HEADQUARTERS AND OUT BEFORE IT WAS BOLD DASH—SHOWED OFFICERS A NEAT TRICK, BUT IS NOW SPECIFICALLY RECOGNIZED FOR BY THE IN-TELLIGENCE DEPARTMENT.

Bert Roberts, Pender's burglar, did not put his business under the chute, but with a neat trick maneuvered a big dash from Paducah.
It was impossible to get a notion of the garb of the nifty thief, but a large crowd of onlookers were present when the hustler was brought into police headquarters.

The cool-reading boys inside of the city buildings were appeased by formations of officers, and after the trick was done the rascally nester was taken into the police station.

The trick was performed by Bert Roberts, Pender's burglar, and he did it so well that he escaped from the police.

The four police officers who were captured by the thief were not able to follow him, and he escaped before they could secure him.

INJUSTICE TO THE HUCKSTERS

On the ground that it would be unbusinesslike to discriminate against the hucksters and huckster doing business in this city, the aldermen last night refused to consider a resolution recommended by the committee, which has been referred by the regular fruit dealers. Grocers, etc., to the aldermen stating that there are too many hucksters and huckster goods in the business portion of the city. It is desired that sidewalks be kept on Farley street, the latter to furnish the latter to furnish the street committee with samples and for the latter to furnish the latter to furnish the street committee with samples of the goods sold.
