North Marshall FHA Holds Christmas Party

The North Marshall chapter of the Future Homemakers of America held its annual Christmas party Thursday evening, Dec. 11, in the reading room at North Marshall High School. The room was decorated with pine, silver, and red pine cones, red and white candles and the traditional Christmas tree.

A small Santa Claus stood at the foot of the tree. Virginia Hamm called the roll and distributed membership cards.

The group then sang carols and played games under the leadership of Betty McLemore and June Dunn.

Mrs. Raymond Clayton, chapter mother, served punch and cookies from a table which she had covered with a red and green cloth. The centerpiece was a silver foil tree decorated with small Christmas tree balls surrounded by miniature Santas made with apple bodies and marshmallow heads, arms and legs.

Gifts were exchanged during a spirited game of musical chairs. The following person attended: Charlotte Bivens, Shirley Cross, Carolyn Spiceland, June Dunn, Judy Marshall, Donna Reeves, Sylvia Harmon, Judy Hall, Judy Harrell, Margaret Scillon, Freeda Littlepage, Phyllis Goheen, Linda Hammer, Donna Clayton, Nancy Story, Marie Freeman, Carolyn Stophar, Kay Ricks, Kay Frances Dunnigan.

Mrs. Solomon, Lydia Cornwell, Virginia Hamm, Rachel Vied, Carolyn Wommack, Sue Vasseur, Sue Gray, Janice Stahl, Virginia Chumler, Sharon Landers, Janice Holland, Margie Clayton, Edna Earl, Betty McLemore, Alice Riley, and chapter mothers, Mrs. Katherine White, Mrs. Ray Chumler, Mrs. Raymond Clayton, Mrs. John Ricks, and the advisor, Mrs. Mary Cole.

Mr. and Mrs. Edd Thomasson

Household Shower Held in Honor of Mrs. Thomas Redden

Mrs. Thomas Redden of Benton was honored with a household shower last Thursday night by her sister-in-law, Mrs. J. B. Davis and Mrs. L. A. Davis, at the L. A. Davis home in Calvert City.

The house was gaily decorated with Christmas ornaments of red and green. A lace covered table was set in the living room, centered with a sleigh filled with green pine, gay colored bulbs and red candles. On each end of the table, miniature Christmas trees were set and around these the guests placed their gifts for the honoree.

Prize winners were Mrs. Buford McLemore and Mrs. Ralph Davis. Door prize was won by Mrs. Buford McLemore.

Delicious homemade chocolate and coconut cream pie and coffee were served to the following guests:

Mesdames Weldon Tyree, Clint Tyree, Pearl Smith, Robert Sewell, Davy Lawrence, Ralph Davis, John Howard, Buford McLemore, Jim Hutchison, John Lindsey, Marvin McLemore, J. C. Davis, John Howard, Jim Tyree, Luther Davis, Miss Janice Tyree, Miss La Verne Howard, Miss Margaret Schmidt and Mrs. Ruben Redden and Mattie Redden of Benton, the hostesses and honoree.

Mrs. Woodrow Green has been confined to her home by illness this week.

Pittsburgh Met Holds Big Christmas Party

Pittsburgh Metallurgical employees held their annual Christmas party Saturday afternoon at the North Marshall high school gym. Approximately 800 persons attended the event.

ual presents and shared the work at the huge party.

Master of ceremonies O'Dell also introduced Theodore E. Dann, general superintendent of Calvert City Works, who welcomed the guests.

Entertainment preceding the presentation of gifts by Santa Claus was provided by Jeff and Susan Austin, Hillsdale, national trampoline champions, who thrilled spectators with siph-flying twists, somersaults and other feats.

A North Marshall student quartet composed of Carol Lovett, Karen Heise, Janet Herbig and Judy Harrell, accompanied by Carolyn Pettit, sang, "Jolly Old Saint Nicholas" Carol Lovett, Karen Heise and Janet Herbig, accompanied by Carol Lovett, sang "Silver Bell." Misses Heise and Harrell, accompanied by Carol Lovett, sang "Winter Wonderland" and Misses Heise and Thelma Downing "I Saw Mommy Kissing Santa Claus."

City Route 2 has been closed to her home by a thorough cleaning this week.

Club Has at Home Bill Perry

Homemakers of the home of Mrs. Bill Perry, their Christmas dinner was served from a table decorated with Christmas themes. Games were played and gifts were given. Then Christmas carols were sung. The hostess, Mrs. Bill Perry, suggested that the club should stress the seriousness of Christmas along with the fun and it was suggested how it might help others at this time. Also, it was suggested the club should let the children help in the Christmas preparations. Everyone joined in the festivities and a good time was had by all. Present were Meses Carl Wade Chester, Homer Chester, Paul Creason, R. S. Penn, Wayne Parker, Hafford Staples, Coy Copeland, Carrie Ward, Dallas Green, Neal Haley, Earl Cole, Hal Perry, Frank Hiest, and the hostess, Mrs. Bill Perry. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Hal Perry on Thursday, Jan. 8, at 10:30 a. m.

BENTON WOMEN ATTEND
Among the women from Benton who attended Holiday House at the W. R. Draffen house in Calvert City were Mesdames Lillie Jones, J. D. Peterson, James Elkins, Ted Combs, Bill Green, J. M. Fields, Roy Boyd, Thomas Morgan, Cliff Treas, Minnie Kuykendall, Max Petway, Zelma Creason, Gladys Chambers, Louis Lilly, Paul Darnall, W. G. Dappert, Jess Collier, Herman Kanatkar, R. R. McWaters, Gania Wyatt, Misses Mae Jones and Sunshine Colley.

The Carl Krebs Entertain Guests At Buffet Supper

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Krebs entertained Friday evening with a buffet supper. The following guests were received in their home, which was beautifully decorated for the Christmas season: Mr. and Mrs. James R. Hogan, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Hellstrom, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Turrell, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Siegfried. Games were played and bingo prizes enjoyed by everyone.

Gifts Exchanged By Junior Women At Christmas Party

The December meeting of the Junior Woman's Club of Benton was held Thursday night at the Community Building. Hostesses were Mrs. Jim Owen, Mrs. Joe Morris Jr., and Mrs. Charles Lents. The tables were covered with white linen cloths and held decorations in keeping with the holiday season. A white Christmas tree held gifts for all who came. Mrs. Joe Morris Jr. presided at the punch bowl. Cupcakes and punch were served. Mrs. Charles Lents gave the devotional. After an exchange of gifts, the guests played canasta. Those attending the party were Mesdames T. F. LeVan, Charles Jackson, Coy Creason, Harold King, Dale Morgan, James Holland, Charles Lents, Harold Inman, Bobby Putteet, Jackie Thompson, James Wyatt, Carl O'Daniel, Joe Wayne Mathis, Horace Sledd, Bobby Elkins, Bobby Hendrickson, Joe Brooks Prince, Burl Platt and Charles Prince.

Christmas Dance Held At Kenlake by Benton Jr. Women

The Junior Woman's Club of Benton entertained in the recreational room at Kenlake Hotel Saturday night with an annual Christmas dance. The room was very attractive in Christmas decorations. The social committee was composed of Mesdames Jackie Thompson, Gene Phillips, Bill Green and Bobby Putteet. Forty couples attended. They were members of the club, husbands and friends.

plant (more than 101 employees) category for the past three years.

Air Reduction won first in the small-plant contest for three consecutive years. The company's employee contribution this year averaged $11 per person.

B. F. Goodrich Chemical Company employees captured the large-plant title the second consecutive year with average employee contributions of $7.76 per person.

Calvert City Industrial plants are credited with having contributed more than two-thirds of the oversubscribed $12,000 total collected this year. The $10,000 goal was passed, as it has been during the six-year operation of the United Fund in Calvert area.

The United Fund board of directors has authorized an immediate distribution of 75 per cent of the fund to the participating agencies which include Boy and Girl Scouts, Heart Fund, Recreation Association, Welfare Association and American Red Cross.

It was one of the two trophies offered Calvert City's industrial plants in the small-plant (fewer than 101 employees) and large-
