FDEA TO CONVENE AT MURRAY STATE ON OCTOBER 8-9

Wide Variety of Noted
Speakers Will Appear on Planned Program

BLACKBURN SAYS
1,500 TO ATTEND

The First District Education Association will convene at Murray State College for two days, October 8-9, for its annual session in which all teachers of the First District discuss their individual problems and hear a varied program presented by the best lecturers and entertainers in America.

Edward Blackburn, president of the FDEA and superintendent of Caldwell County Schools, said yesterday that officials were planning one of the most striking programs ever presented here and that in the neighborhood of 1,500 teachers would swarm the campus of Murray College to take part in the two-day activities.

"The executive committee is emphasizing," he said, "that every teacher attend and get the full benefit of their paid membership."

One of the feature performers on a program which is full of top-notchers is Miss Helen Howe, New York, a widely-travelled educator and impersonator, who will on Friday night in the college auditorium present a monodrama. Somewhat of a satirist, Miss Howe interprets her act with brilliant novelty make-ups and impersonations.

On Friday afternoon's program, Dr. Henry J. Arnold, president of Wittenberg College, a famed educator, will address the elementary section, and at the same time, Dr. William C. Spencer, president of Franklin College, will speak to the high school department. One of the most dynamic and powerful speakers on the program will be Dr. Rollo Walter Brown, who will discuss "The New Ideal" before the general group on Friday morning. An individualist who has written many books, Dr. Brown, a former member of the faculty of Harvard University, has lectured all over America and the European continent. His present home is in Chicago.

According to President Blackburn, three new conferences have been added to the FDEA educational department. There are the NYA board, of which Otis C. Amis, Louisville, is chairman; the Board of Librarians, presided over by Joseph Gibson, Murray College librarian; and the School Board Conference, the president of which is Boone Hill, Benton.

There are 12 other conferences in the FDEA, the officers of which were announced last fall at the close of the session. Dwight Crisp, principal of Heath High School, is vice-president of the FDEA and Kenneth R. Patterson, superintendent of Mayfield Schools, is secretary.

Men of Business Select Officers

The Young Business Men's Club of Murray, in its annual meeting for the election of officers, Monday night in the National Hotel named Harry Sleds president; R. H. Thurman, vice-president; Herschel Corn, secretary-treasurer; and Bill Swann, chairman. It was the last meeting of the fiscal year.

Other nominees for the various official posts were Nat Ryan Hughes, for president; Eugene Boyd and Frank Albert Stubbfield, vice-presidents; P. W. Ordway and C. L. Miller, secretary-treasurer and H. T. Waldrop and T. Sleds, chairman.

In a business session, the club professed its purpose to continue with the numbering of houses in Murray.

Congressman Gregory,
C. W. Waldrop Visit

Congressman Noble J. Gregory, of Mayfield, accompanied by C. W. Waldrop, also of that city, were brief visitors in the city Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. Gregory is at home until Congress reconvenes the first of January. He said that he expected to visit Murray several times during this period.

Mr. Waldrop is the son of Esq. and Mrs. A. H. Waldrop and has been very successful in the insurance business in Mayfield.

It is expected that Congressman Gregory, who succeeded his brother the late Judge W. V. Gregory in the first district's seat and has been a popular representative, will be a candidate for re-election next summer.

Ledger & Times' New Editor And His Helpmeet

JOHN S. NEAL

MRS. JOHN S. NEAL

(Bloomington Evening World Sept. 27)

John S. Neal, for the past 11 years advertising manager of the Evening World has resigned his position, effective October 2, and will move to Murray, Ky., where he will become editor and advertising manager of the Ledger & Times of that city.

He will be associated with R. R. Melan, of Murray who has been mechanical superintendent and in charge of production of the paper since it was founded in 1928. They have purchased the interest of Joe T. Lovett, present editor and publisher. Mr. Lovett is widely known in mid-west newspaper circles and has been active in the Kentucky Press Association. His future plans have not been announced.

Murray, Ky., is located 43 miles southeast of Paducah, and lies between the Tennessee and Mississippi rivers and is on the road to Memphis, Tenn. It is a city of 5,500 and Murray State College is located in Calloway County which is the heart of one of the finest tobacco regions of Kentucky. It is within 30 miles of Gilbertsville, the proposed site for the last government dam in the TVA development to provide hydro-electric power and flood control of the Tennessee river. Other Bloomington people live there, including Miss Daisy Hinkle and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Fox. Miss Hinkle and Mr. Fox both teach music in the college.

Mr. Neal has lived in Bloomington 15 years, four years attending I. U. from which he received his A.B. in 1926, and the last eleven years on the Evening World. He has been very active in the interests of Bloomington Lions Club. He was a member of the Kappa Delta Rho fraternity, while in school. Mr. and Mrs. Neal, son Danny, and daughter Nancy Jane, are moving there to make their future home. Mrs. Neal was the former Margaret Louise Allison of Nashville, and a graduate of the Methodist Hospital Nurses Training school, Indianapolis, class of 1923. She also comes from a newspaper family as her grandfather was publisher of the Brown County Democrat for about 40 years. Mr. Neal is a member of the local chapter of Kappa Sigma.

Mr. Neal and Mr. Melan assume control of the Ledger & Times as of October 1. Mr. Neal will be leaving Bloomington this week-end to assume his new work.

Property Changes Hands in Lawful Auction of Lands

By public auction in the Murray courtyard Monday afternoon, George Hart, master commissioner, sold the following property to the following bidders at the following bids:

The farm of W. H. Broach, 5 miles southwest of Murray and consisting of 100 acres was bid in at $7,500 by the Federal Land Bank.

W. F. Johnson bought the Wm. Johnson lot in Murray for $117.50. Joe Parker's lot on Olive Street went to the First National Bank for a bid of $500 and his lot on Seventh Street sold for $700. The Thomas place at Pine Bluff received a purchase bid of $1,000 from the Bank of Murray. H. L. Adams bought the C. E. Russell land for a consideration of $900. Hafford Rogers bought the Rogers place for $1,300, and the J. T. Duncan place went to J. F. Braten for $1,925.50.

Mr. Neal and Mr. Melan assume control of the Ledger & Times as of October 1. Mr. Neal will be leaving Bloomington this week-end to assume his new work.

As announced in other columns of this paper, with this edition responsibility for publication of The Ledger & Times passes into the hands of Raleigh R. Melan, of Murray, and John S. Neal, of Bloomington, Indiana, who comes to Murray with his family to make our city his permanent home.

It would be a cold-hearted man indeed who did not feel many tugs at the heart strings in severing such a connection with a people of kindred blood as I have held for the past nine years as the editor and publisher of this little paper. The record is written and nothing I can say here will alter it one dot of an "i" or cross of a "t".

Before I speak word of personal farewell, as your editor, I want to say that I am confident you believe me when I tell you that no consideration could attract me to deliver The Ledger & Times into the hands of any other person than such as I believed to be capable of materially extending the scope and power as an instrument of public service but also deservng of your most implicit faith and confidence.

Naturally, I owed such an obligation not only to the subscribers to the paper and the patrons of its other service but also to those who joined me in the venture nine years ago and others who have come into it since that time.

Raleigh Melan certainly needs no introduction to the people of Calloway county. His father, John Z. Melan, was born in a wagon enroute to this county from Virginia more than two decades before the Civil War and spent his entire life in this county with the exception of his year of service during that conflict. His mother was Jane Clayton before her marriage, born and reared in this county and a member of one of its truly pioneer families.

For almost a decade this writer has worked with Raleigh Melan in the publication of The Ledger & Times in a business and professional relationship that was not only intimate but also in the nature of partnership. The details of the latter arrangement were never put into any form of writing but were conducted purely under an unwritten understanding. There will be no radical changes in the policies of The Ledger & Times. We have no pretensions to pamper, no enemies to punish. We will continue to strive for the advancement of the social, civic and industrial life of town and county and give unstinted support to our great schools and colleges, and to produce a clean publication that any citizen, young or old, may be proud to exhibit to anyone, anywhere, as "my home newspaper." In doing that I ask the support of all the people of Murray and Calloway county.

SONS OF LEGION TO BE ORGANIZED

Youth to Meet Thursday Night,
October 7, With Legion-naire Dads

All you youngsters whose dads are ex-service men, attention! How would you like to join the Sons of the American Legion Drum & Bugle Corps?

If you are interested, make you! Dad bring you to the court house next Thursday night, October 6, at 7:30 o'clock, when a meeting will be held to organize the Sons of the Legion Drum & Bugle Corps.

All over the country Sons of the Legion Drum & Bugle Corps are winning honor and glory with their spick and span uniforms and peppy music.

The Murray Legion post has an excellent array of instruments, as a starter and plans to uniform the boys immediately if the corps can be organized. It is not necessary for a boy to be already an accomplished performer on the drum or with a bugle to get in this corps. Lads can learn quickly and the corps will provide an instructor.

Be there Thursday night, boys, and get in the corps. Good corps get free trips to state and national conventions.

MR. BUN NIX RECEIVES
OTHER AWARDS IN FAIR

In addition to the eight basket premiums listed in last week's issue, received by Mrs. Bun Nix, five other premiums were awarded her in the textile list most of which were first premiums.

Robert E. Broach, Mr. Broach had assigned to accept an appointment as business manager of Murray State College, a post, incidentally, he has held under all three presidents, Rainey T. Wells, John W. Carr and James H. Richmond.

Mr. Broach is a past president and twice secretary of the First District Educational Association. He has been many times a delegate to the Kentucky Educational Association, has served on many of its most important committees, has appeared on its programs and has been active and influential in its affairs.

He served a four year term as a member of the Kentucky State Board of Education and is at present a member of the board of directors of the F. D. E. A. He is also a director in the Bank of Murray.

Receiving his secondary education in the schools of Calloway county, Mr. Broach has risen rapidly in his profession. He taught four years at Lynn Grove, two of them as principal, before becoming one of the first students to enroll in Murray State College. He was a member of the first class to receive the A. B. degree from Murray State College in 1926 and has been honored also with the presidency of the Alumni Association.

He attended Peabody College, Nashville, Tenn., in 1928-29, at which time he completed the greater part of his work on his master's degree. Mr. Broach was principal of the New Concord high school for a year, and then principal at Hazel for the four years just prior to the time he was elected superintendent of county schools.

Under his superintendency the affairs of the county schools have been efficiently conducted with the co-operation of a harmonious board of education.

It is expected that Mr. Broach will fill out his current appointment, which does not expire until July 1, 1938.

Red Brandon Gets 2nd Peach Crop From Tree

E. B. "Red" Brandon, well known young farmer of the Vanceville vicinity, was in Murray Saturday morning with a number of second-crop peaches from an Elberta tree on his farm. Though small, some of them running as tiny as a raisin, Mr. Brandon, reported that the peaches were as delicious in taste as the first crop of fine, big Elbertas.

He says that he has been advised that this is the last crop the tree will bear, though it is only four years old.

Many will remember Mr. Brandon as "the man who had the big hog last winter. 'Red' is always producing something out of the ordinary for he is an extraordinary fellow.

B. W. McCaslin Is Paid for Lumber Taken Sunday

Emmett Bowman, former Murray and now of Paducah tendered B. W. McCaslin, owner of the Murray State Lumber Co., a check for $24 Tuesday in payment for lumber which Mr. McCaslin alleged was taken from his storage yard in southeast Murray Sunday night.

According to Mr. McCaslin a Conklin pencil, carrying Bowman's name, was found in the yard Monday morning.

Bowman stated that he had told his father, Will Bowman, to tell Mr. McCaslin that he had taken the lumber and would pay for it.

WRATHER NOT TO ASK RE-ELECTION AS SCHOOL HEAD

Superintendent of County Schools Issues Statement on Board Election

NAMED IN 1929; WILL HOLD UNTIL NEXT JULY

Marvin O. Wraether, superintendent of Calloway county schools for the past eight years, makes a public statement today that he will not be a candidate for re-election to that post upon the expiration of his current term on the first of next July.

Mr. Wraether, who is the son of Esq. and Mrs. J. O. Wraether, of the Southwest part of this county, is one of the widest known school executives in Kentucky. He has held his present position since July 1, 1929, at which time he succeeded

Statement of Supt. Wraether

I take this method of announcing to the people of Calloway county that I am not a candidate for re-election to the office of County Superintendent. I appreciate the honor and opportunity that has been mine to serve in the capacity of Superintendent. In a few days you will elect three members of your Board of Education. You should elect responsible citizens who will serve the interest of the people of this county.

'BREDS OPEN HOME SEASON SATURDAY

T. F. I. Is For in Stadium at 2 O'clock; High Schools
To Be Guests

Murray State College's thoroughbred will oppose the Tennessee Teach Eagles in the Annual High School Day football game in the Murray Stadium, Saturday afternoon, October 2, with the kick-off scheduled for 2 o'clock.

Dr. James H. Richmond, president, has issued a special invitation to the students of Calloway county to be guests of the college for the game, which will open the "Breds home season."

The Racehorses held Hardin-Simmons, one of the nation's outstanding teams to a 21-0 score last weekend and are anxious to open the victory column. The TPI team dropped their game to Eastern last week 7-0, but are reputed to have a strong defense.

The probable starting line-ups give TPI a six pound advantage in the line and Murray a seven pound advantage in the backfield. The probable starters:

Murray: Deibert and Bland ends; Morris and Donoho, tackles; Captain Cochran and Downey, guards; Hardin, center; Beale, quarter; Thompson and Yarbrough, halves; Mitchell, full.

Tech: Barlow and Walker, ends; Hitchcock and Patton, ends; Boyles and Capt. Corrier, guards; Ellis, center; Johnson, quarter; Hamford and Birdsong, halves; Draper, full.

Hears Murray Physician
Describe Cases

A. V. HAVENS LEADS COMMUNITY GROUP

Four hundred cases of active syphilis are prevalent in the city of Murray and eighteen hundred cases in Calloway county, according to a statement made by Dr. J. A. Outland, county health physician, in an address before the Murray Rotary Club at its regular meeting Friday.

Dr. Outland's speech was influenced by the current drive being conducted over the country to stamp out syphilis, one of the most widespread of venereal diseases. Infected individuals in this county, Dr. Outland said, are not confined to one particular group, but are scattered through all classes—"the high, the low, the kindly and obscure."

Blood River Association To Be Hosts to W. M. U. Of Southwestern Region

The Baptist Women of the Blood River Association will be host to the Women's Missionary Union of Southwestern Region on Wednesday.

day, October 6, at the First Baptist Church. The meeting will be an all-day session beginning at 10 o'clock, and in the evening immediately following the regular mid-week service will be an hour devoted especially to the young people. All present, however, are invited to attend the young people's meeting.

This region is composed of four associations—the West Union, West Kentucky, Graves County, and Blood River, and this is the first time the Blood River unit has had the privilege of entertaining the entire group.

Mrs. Amanda White, association superintendent, expressed the hope of every woman in the Blood River Association that all members will deem it "a privilege to help make this convention a success by being present." To get the full benefit of the meeting, the association has invited and is expecting a large number of its state workers to be present.

Family Reunion At Huie Sutter's Sunday

Relatives and friends of Mrs. Lucy Burk gathered at the home of Huie Sutter on Sunday, September 19 and spent a most enjoyable day.

Those present included Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Pryor, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Pryor and family, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ewell and family, Mr. and Mrs. Walton Pryor and family, Mr. and Mrs. Smith and family, also Mr. Smith's mother, all of near Lafayette, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Burk and family, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Pace and son, of Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Wrentham, Mr. and Mrs. Huie Sutter and family, and Mrs. Lucy Burk.

All enjoyed the day and the good dinner, although Mr. Pryor was disappointed because Wade Burk did not come to entertain the crowd.

Young People Of Christian Church Entertain College Students

The young people of the First Christian Church entertained a group of college students Sunday afternoon by taking them driving, making pictures, and having supper in the parlor of the church.

After the party, the group gathered for the Christian Endeavor program.

Mrs. Cleo Hester and Mrs. W. J. Gibson were hostesses. James Bailey and Henry Hilton, class and Endeavor officers led the parade. The Rev. A. V. Havens, pastor of the church made the talk on "College Adjustments." Miss Linda Sue McGee, Mayfield, gave a special vocal number. Henry Fulton and Charles Farmer conducted the music.

A Recent Bride

Mrs. Robert Watson Manuszak

Watson-Manuszak Wedding

Miss Evelyn Elizabeth Watson, daughter of Mrs. Lela Ivie Watson of Murray, and Robert Manuszak, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Manuszak, of South Bend, Indiana, were married Monday, September 20, 1937, at the study of the First Christian Church by the Rev. A. V. Havens.

The attendants were—Robert Rowland of Mayfield, Ky., and Miss Sue Wade of Murray.

The bride wore a suit of brown crepe with brown accessories and an orchid.

The young couple have attended Murray State College for the past year and are well known in all social circles.

Immediately after their marriage the couple left for South Bend, Indiana, where they will make their home.

Westminster Fellowship Club Has Scavenger Hunt and Picnic

Forty-two students and members of the Westminster Fellowship Club, a discussion organization sponsored by the Rev. Bruce B. Maguire, Presbyterian minister in Murray, enjoyed a scavenger hunt and picnic last Thursday night at Rogers' Lake.

The group met at the Maguire apartment near Murray College early in the evening and after an informal hour divided into several units or teams and were given a list of articles to find.

After the search, highly successful in the number of articles obtained, the Fellowship members gathered around a roaring campfire and roasted weiners and marshmallows. Songs featured the quiet hour remaining after which the Reverend Mr. Maguire talked to the group as one of its members, setting forth the purpose of the Westminster Club as a medium for student good, regardless of denominational tendencies.

Miss Georgia Gattlin, a Murray College senior, is president of the club; Miss Vaginalise Thomson, a senior, is vice-president; and Miss Margaret Bingham, a sophomore, is secretary-treasurer.

The group will meet every Thursday night—in the Maguire apartments until further notice.

Magazine Club Meets With Mrs. F. D. Mellen

Mrs. F. D. Mellen was host for the September meeting of the Magazine Club at her home on West Olive.

Three splendid papers were read. Mrs. Solon Higgins has as her subject "Kentucky Women Poets." Mrs. Herbert Drennon reviewed

Paints Exhibition To Be Held in College Library Next Week

Through arrangements made by Mrs. M. E. M. Hall, head of the art department of the Murray State College, a unit of the Young America Paints exhibition, recently held in Rockefeller Center, New York, will be shown in the exhibit room of the Library Building, opening next Monday, October 4, and continuing daily through Friday, October 14.

Members of art classes of the Training School and the public schools will demonstrate the use of various mediums of art work, with emphasis on the two mediums illustrated in the exhibit—finger-paint and fresco. The finger-paintings to be shown in the collection are brilliant in color and new and free in design, being made with a smooth creamy material of various colors. The blobs of color are spread on the paper directly with the fingers and palms, without the use of brushes or other tools. Fresco is another material of vivid colors, and is applied to paper with a felt-tipped brush, without the use of water, oil or other liquid.

Sponsoring the coming exhibition are W. J. Caplinger, superintendent of Murray schools and director of the Training School, also Carman Graham, principal of the Training School; Edd Filbeck, principal of the city school, and Luther Robertson, president of the board of education.

Winston Coleman's "Stage Coach Days in the Bluegrass," and Mrs. Geo. Downs read a paper written by Mrs. M. T. Morris on "Sideights on the History of Paducah."

A pleasant social hour followed during which Ann Lowry assisted the host in serving a lovely plate.

Mrs. Strother Hubbard and Mrs. Wade Crawford were visitors.

Friday Bridge Club Meets With Mrs. E. S. Diuguid, Jr.

Mrs. E. S. Diuguid, Jr., entertained members of the Friday Bridge Club and included a few others in compliment to Mrs. Walter Taylor of Washington, D. C.

The high score prize was won by Mrs. Harry Siedd and Mrs. Taylor received a guest prize.

A plate lunch was served at the conclusion of the game.

Visitors were Mrs. Walter Taylor, Mrs. J. R. Oury, Mrs. Ben Davis, Mrs. A. F. Yancey, Mrs. Will Whitnell, Mrs. John Rowlett, Mrs. Roy Stewart.

Alphabet Department Meets

Mrs. J. H. Coleman, Mrs. E. J. Beale, Mrs. Prigg Doyle, and Mrs. P. A. Hart were joint hosts for the September meeting of the Alphabet Department at the Coleman home on West Main Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. G. T. Hicks, chairman, presided over a brief business session and introduced the two speakers of the afternoon, Mrs. J. W. Carr and Mrs. B. F. Scherffus.

Carr in quoting poetry by John Massfield led her hearers into the atmosphere of the tropics and then gave personal glimpses of the cruise to the West Indies and South America.

She read the book "Cannibal Country" by Capt. John Craig as only one who had lived among the people of the South Seas could have.

The hosts served a pretty salad plate with an artist's touch suggesting the season.

Mrs. Hart and Mrs. T. P. Cook were visitors.

Members of this department are as follows:

Mrs. G. T. Hicks, chairman; Mrs. Mary Ed McCoy Hall, vice chairman; Mrs. J. D. Rowlett, secretary and treasurer; Mrs. G. C. Ashcraft, Mrs. A. B. Austin, Miss Desirée Beale, Mrs. E. J. Beale, Mrs. C. A. Bishop.

Mrs. W. J. Caplinger, Mrs. J. W. Carr, Mrs. J. H. Coleman, Mrs. Carlisle Cavin, Mrs. F. S. Diuguid, Jr., Mrs. Price Doyle, Mrs. J. S. Duval, Miss Beatrice Frye, Mrs. W. B. Grogan, Mrs. P. A. Hart, Miss Emma Helm, Mrs. Cleo Gillis Hester, Mrs. E. B. Houston, Mrs. R. A. Johnston, Mrs. C. S. Lowry.

Mrs. Joe T. Lovett, Miss Bertie Manor, Mrs. H. M. McElrath, Mrs. W. W. McElrath, Mrs. W. J. McCoy, Mrs. F. D. Mellen, Mrs. J. T.

he could eat and a jolly good time.

Green Eggs! Yes, Sir, Believe It or Not!

Literally millions of eggs have been produced in Calloway County by literally thousands of farmers and poultry fanciers in the towns, but how many of them ever saw an egg with a yolk as green as the grass in the fields in June?

Yes, sir, believe it or not, the Economy Feed Store on North Third street, Murray, has on display some green yolked eggs. They are not a pale, sickly green but a deep, dark rich green.

The green eggs were produced by a pen of eight Giant White Calloway County pullets, a little more than six months old, to prove that what a hen eats directly determines what she lays.

The Purina Co., whose poultry, as well as other, feeds that the Economy Feed Store sells and distributes, has always proceeded on the theory that a hen is purely and simply an egg factory. That is if a hen is properly fed with the most scientific foods that she will produce eggs more efficiently and economically and with greater net profit to the poultryman.

The green yolked eggs prove their point conclusively. A small amount of green feed is mixed with the laying mash fed the pullets and the green promptly showed up in the yolks just a few days later.

Charley Linn, manager of the store, cordially invites the public in to see his unusual green-yolked hen fruit.

EYE IS HURT

Lester Nanney, of near Five Points, seriously cut his right eye when a stick flew up and hit him while he was chopping on duty on the Coldwater Road project this week. Several stitches were required to sew the wound up.

The School Board Election

When one ventures to suggest that county school superintendents should be elected by popular vote, as are other county officers, instead of selected by the county board of education, the cry instantly arises from what is known as the "education forces" that such a step is a backward movement. Such an advocate usually gets such epithets as "political spoilsman"; and if he should be such a person as to have no political interest in the matter he is termed a "back number."

Theoretically, taking the office of the school superintendent out of the direct county election is supposed to be "taking it out of politics." Everyone, who has made the slightest observation of how the thing has worked out in practice, knows that instead of taking the office out of politics, it has left it just as deeply in politics as ever. The only difference is that the present method is the "longest way home."

The names of the candidates for county school superintendent do not appear on the ballot. Nevertheless, they are being voted on, just the same. The consideration usually before each candidate for county board member is whom he intends to support for the office of county superintendent.

After observing the law in operation since it was enacted, this newspaper has come to the irrevocable conclusion that it would be much simpler and more direct just to elect the county school superintendent in the same manner that the constituents select their sheriff, county judge, attorney and other officers of the county. In brief, we are going around and about and ultimately arriving at the same end.

The great majority of people want their school superintendent elected by popular vote.

The method that the great majority wishes is Democratic pure and simple.

We care not one iota for the accusations of those who are sure to make them that we want to take a step backward.

There is more interest right now in the county school board election to take place in November than ever before in the history of Calloway county. And everybody with the slightest intelligence of what's going on knows what it's all about.

We contend that the cause of education is served just the same and that it is more direct and democratic to elect the county superintendent by direct vote instead of doing it indirectly through the board of education.

The 1938 legislature should take full recognition of this fact and act accordingly.

JUST JOTS

By Joe

Yes, sir, The Ledger & Times cordially welcomes the school news of Calloway county. We are proud of the fact that the schools of the county co-operate with us to the extent that we are enabled to publish several columns of school news in this little newspaper each week.

The publishers of this paper started their humble careers in Calloway county publishers by actively encouraging the schools to send in their news. Before that time, the schools had virtually no voice at all in the columns of their county newspapers. Their activities and achievements were rarely mentioned at all, and then briefly.

We have no quarrel with those who interpret news differently. We fully appreciate that perhaps not all our subscribers care for the school news. That is true, however, of any type of news. We can't think of any single feature of any newspaper that is widely read and appreciated by all its subscribers and readers.

Our school children cherish them as our noblest possessions. Next to the churches, our schools are our greatest institutions and the most constructive forces for progress and good in the county.

Rebuke the day when we should ever become so cynical or calloused as to decry the efforts of these little folks or to be uninterested in their problems and achievements.

Threat of frost resulted in some tobacco being cut Sunday. While this may be criticized by some people, this is certainly one of those occasions when "the ox is in the ditch."

Raising a crop of tobacco is a difficult, continuous and back-breaking task. On this crop hundreds of struggling Calloway county families depend for their livelihood. In many instances it is their sole money-crop, providing the wherewithal to buy shoes for the barefooted youngsters, school books and necessities that cannot be raised on the farm.

No person with the slightest trace of the milk of human kindness in his breast will blame any poor tobacco grower for cutting his crop on Sunday when it appears that if he doesn't frost will come along and wipe out many months of hard labor as well as literally take the bread out of his mouth.

Come out Saturday afternoon and help boost the Murray State College Thoroughbreds as they start their home season. Coach Stewart is going to have a more interesting team to watch than last year. The boys are faster, more colorful and will have a more versatile attack.

Have you joined the Thoroughbred Boosters? Good athletic teams are a great asset for any college. Under present conditions, any college without them is severely handicapped. You not only help the college but you help Murray when you join the Thoroughbred Boosters.

Within the next few weeks The Ledger & Times expects to have something to say about the proposed Constitutional Amendment to be voted on next November 2. Very little has been said about this amendment (doubtless for good cause) and not many know that it is even to be on the ballot.

Next week the full text of the amendment will be published in this paper. We cordially invite all our readers to discuss it in the "Public Voice" column of this newspaper.

Now that the tobacco crop is mostly cut and housed in the barns the difficult job of properly firing it is under way—and we join the farmers in hoping that it will bring a good price.

Tobacco experts are predicting good prices for this crop. Tobacco in Georgia and the Carolinas is doing better this year than last. The Association, which handles most of the Calloway county crop, is in good condition with its old stocks well worked down and its barns from the government, reduced and in good condition.

Stick, brother, stick, and you'll get something for your tobacco.

Charles and Frank Ryan take over the management of Ryan's Store with the hearty good wishes of all the people of Calloway county. Ryan's has been a Murray institution for considerably more than half a century and these hard-working youngsters will carry on the high standards set by their illustrious grandfather, Nat Ryan, Sr., and beloved father, the late Joe Ryan. Best of luck, my lads!

Special Courses Open With Reduced Fees at Murray State College

Students may enroll at Murray State College for special or part-time courses at considerably reduced fees, Dr. J. H. Richmond notified Miss Alice Keys in a long-distance telephone communication here today following a meeting of the Council on Higher Education which he and Dean John W. Carr attended at Frankfort. Special attention will be given to late enrollees.

A special invitation is being made to citizens of Murray, Calloway county, and neighboring cities and counties to take advantage of this ruling which will permit them to enroll for special or regular courses. Suitable hours will be arranged on Saturday or at night for the accommodation of students desiring to enroll. All persons not in residence desiring these courses are requested to communicate with Prof. E. H. Smith for the scheduling of classes. He will hold a special meeting for these in his office in the administration building Friday afternoon, October 1, at 4 o'clock.

hours of credit will be asked to pay only $7.50 in fees. Miss Keys said. This sum represents considerable reduction over the amount customarily charged.

Among the courses suggested for special or "part-time students" are: Freshman Drawing, Art Structure, Composition and Painting.

College officials explained that former students, graduates, business men, housewives, farmers, teachers, and professional men and women may be interested in these or other courses. President Richmond said he hoped to make Murray State College truly a college for all the people of this area.

Regular faculty members—all thoroughly qualified—will be in charge of these classes, and they will give courteous and sympathetic attention to the problems of all students who attend.

Mrs. E. R. Blalock in Race for School Board

Mrs. E. R. Blalock, of New Concord, Ky., today makes formal announcement of her candidacy as a member of the Calloway County Board of Education in the November election.

Mrs. Blalock is one of the best known and most popular women of Calloway county and needs no introduction in any corner of it. She is the widow of the late beloved Dr. E. R. Blalock, who died four years ago, and is the daughter of the late Ben Bell, Sr., one of the widest known and most influential citizens of the southwest part of the county.

She is the mother of four children and has lived in Calloway county all her life. Mrs. Blalock has been honored by the women of her home community by being elected president of the Homemakers Club for two years after holding the vice-presidency for one year.

She submits the following candid statement to the voters:

To Voters Of Calloway County School District:

After careful consideration of the duties and responsibilities involved and after having discussed the matter with a number of my friends and citizens interested in the schools of Calloway County I have decided to become a candidate for membership on the Calloway County Board of Education, subject to the election to be held November 2, 1937. To those who do not know me this word of explanation: I am the daughter of Ben Bell, Sr., and the widow of Dr. E. R. Blalock. I now live and have for a great number of years at New Concord, Ky., and all my life has been spent on the East side of the county.

I have long been interested in the public school system of our county; first, and for several years as a student, second, as a teacher in our common schools before my marriage to Dr. E. R. Blalock and third, as the mother of four children in whose education I have been extremely interested. In all fairness to my self and children I believe that I should state to my friends and to the many friends of my deceased husband and to the voters generally, that I am not a candidate of any group or faction and that no particular group of persons are sponsoring my campaign.

If the voters of the Calloway County School District are kind enough to elect me to this responsible position I shall be guided by three fundamental principles: first, I shall endeavor to see that all of the state per capita and local school tax which makes up the common school fund of Calloway County is used strictly for school purposes and that not a penny of it is wasted or expended on something other than education; second, my earnest desire shall be to see that every child in the county is given the very best educational opportunities possible with available school funds and third, my sole interest shall be to help make possible equal educational opportunities for every child in Calloway County.

I realize that we have never had a woman elected to a position on the County Board of Education in Calloway County, but as I have been a teacher, and a great majority of the teachers in Calloway County are women, as women have demonstrated their ability along practically every line of endeavor, as you have shown your willingness to vote for women if they are capable of holding the office which they seek and as I am quite confident that all of my friends and acquaintances will agree that I am thoroughly competent to perform the duties of the office that I am asking for, I have no fear in submitting my candidacy for your consideration.

It will be absolutely impossible for me to see all of you and personally solicit your vote and help in this matter because of the lack of time. However, the compensation of the members of the County Board of Education is so little that such a campaign cannot be justified. So I am asking you to please accept this as a personal appeal for your vote and influence. If you do not know me, please inquire of someone that does, concerning my ability and fitness, for the place which I seek. If elected I assure you that myself and children shall be eternally grateful and that as a member of the County Board of Education I shall have but one motive in mind and that will be to do my complete part to give Calloway County the very best School Program possible.

Yours very truly,
(Mrs.) Essie Blalock

Football

On last Friday night, M. H. S. Tigers continued the bringing home of the eggs and bacon by defeating the Greenfield, Tenn. high school eleven 53-6. Every man on the Tiger squad was permitted to play. Touchdowns were made by Buchanan (2), Gardner (2), Cutchin (2), Young, and Farm-er. Cutchin added 3 points and Buchanan 2. Many of you were there and saw the improvement in the Murray eleven in this past week. If you didn't come and haven't been coming, next Friday night is a good time to start. We will meet the Metropolis eleven here at 7:30 p. m. Please come out and give us your support. You will not only see good running but the blocking is some of the best we have had for several years.

You'll never find a better bunch of boys and if the school and town both supports them, you may be sure we will all be proud of them. Let's take our hats off to these boys and Coach, Ty Holland.

Band

The Murray High School band was asked to play Tuesday at the Western Kentucky Fair which was held at Carson Park in Paducah. This was a high honor. The band was taken to a special platform in the middle of the field, which was especially arranged for the band which plays each day. We played from 1 p. m. until 5 p. m. between races and during the acrobatic acts. At 7 p. m. we began playing again for the races and the different acts. At 9 p. m. we marched on the race track and this brought to an end a delightful day in which we all feel as if we did a good job, at least our best.

Esq. Ed Adams Enters School Board Campaign

Esq. Ed Adams, of the Brinkley section, one of this county's widest known and most influential citizens, today makes his formal announcement as a candidate for the county board of education in the election, November 2. Three members of the board are to be elected from the county at large at this time.

Sincerely your friend,
ED ADAMS

Throughout his lifetime, Ed Adams has been one of the most active men in Calloway county in public affairs. He has always held the highest trust and confidence of his home people, as is proved by the fact that he has never sought any office or any endorsement of his public record as a public official without receiving their overwhelming support. Could more be said of any man?

Esq. Adams has always taken a special interest in the schools of his district and county and has devoted to them many hours of honest, conscientious, able service without any remuneration whatever. His friends assert that it is only fair and just that the people of this county endorse him for a seat on this important body. His statement to the voters follows:

To the voters of Calloway county: I wish to announce that I am a candidate for the County Board of Education in the general election, Tuesday, November 2, at which time you will select three members of your board of education from the county at large.

It has been my privilege and honor to serve you as magistrate for eight years and as a member of your board of education for the past four years. I am naturally proud of and thankful for the fact that the voters of my district have never failed to endorse me for any office I have sought.

My record both as a private citizen and as a public servant is an open book to the people of Calloway county. I am willing to stand on it four-square as I have always endeavored to do what I thought was best for the greatest number of people.

Please remember that all the voters of the county, outside the Murray City School district, are entitled to a vote in this election and I will appreciate deeply the support and influence of every man, woman and child in Calloway county.

Sincerely your friend,
ED ADAMS

MASON HOSPITAL ADDS NEW SYSTEM

New Equipment for Treatments Is Described by General Manager

Very few hospitals in North America are in position to give the world-famous Battle Creek system of treatments. To give these treatments, calls for both special equipment, and especially trained nurses and supervisors. For many months, the William Mason Memorial Hospital has been at work preparing two departments in which to give this complete list of treatments. The general manager, is happy to announce to the public that this week, both the hydrotherapy and electrotherapy departments are made available, to supply the need of the public.

The hydrotherapy department is made up of hot and cold shower rooms, equipped with accurately controlled shower heads, so arranged as to completely surround the patient. Water temperature and water pressure are accurately controlled and registered directly in front of the operator. Hot and cold mixing valves require only the turn of the hand of the operator to bring to the patient water of the proper temperature and proper pressure. A Russian steam room constructed of concrete, is a part of the equipment of this department. A fomentation tank operated by high pressure steam, makes it possible for the nurse to obtain fomentation cloths of any temperature desired in giving patients hot packs, etc. Regular and sitz baths equipment is also a part of this department. Also, a modern electric light cabinet with dead air wall space which contains 48 electric light bulbs, the light and heat of which is reflected from side to side in the cabinet countless times, by means of especially constructed electro copper plated mirrors. The patient sitting in the cabinet receives the benefit of both heat and light, so greatly amplified by mirrors, surrounding the patient.

This is a very popular and successful treatment for colds, nervous disorders and rheumatic conditions. Four massage rooms are a part of this department, each equipped for the giving of massage so useful in the healing profession. Separate dressing booths are provided for patients in which to leave their clothing and belongings while taking treatments. Two complete colonic irrigation booths are also a part of the hydrotherapy department. Between the hydrotherapy and electrotherapy departments, is provided a comfortable waiting room, where the patients may wait for their turn in either of the departments. In the electrotherapy department, treatment booths are provided, where the various rays, and other modern electric treatments are available for the sick.

Much sickness if taken care of in time by hydrotherapy and electrotherapy means can be kept from developing into prolonged sickness. These departments are not only for the purpose of helping the sick to become well, but for the well to remain well. These treatments are a wonderful tonic which help men and women do their work more efficiently while enjoying life.

self, in abundance. It has cost a good deal of effort to provide these new departments in the William Mason Memorial Hospital, but perhaps no other department in the institution will be more appreciated by the public.

The Sunday School will begin at 9:30, led by Superintendent Geo. S. Hart.

The Young Peoples Society of Christian Endeavor, an expression meeting for all college and high school young people, will meet Sunday evening, at 6:30, in the young peoples parlor.

The Junior Christian Endeavor Society, a meeting for all boys and girls under high school age, will meet at the same time in the Sunday School auditorium.

There will be no Sunday night church service next Sunday and the following Sunday night, since the minister will be holding a revival meeting in northern Kentucky near Cincinnati. Announcement for the morning service for October 10 will be made later.

The Mid-Week Meeting will be held Wednesday night at 7:30.

Rosin Ridge School

By Dollie Smith

Last week we wrote invitations to our mothers and friends and invited them to the following program:

"Three Little Pigs" by Lamar Smith, Tellus Hargrove, Julia Ann Fegua, T. C. Hargrove, Alton Hargrove, Catherine Hill, and Kathleen Tidwell.

"Lemme See Yo' Tongue" by Christeen Tidwell and Dahlia Harrison.

"When I'm Big" Barbara June Harrison.

"Crooked Mouth Family" Joane Harrison.

"The Rheumatiz" Catherine Hill, Alton Hargrove, Hue Gray Fegua, Frances Marine, Joane Harrison, Roy David Pea, T. C. Hargrove, Kathleen Tidwell.

"Irish Brides" Teljes Hargrove, Barbara June Harrison, William Smith, Kathleen Hill, T. C. Hargrove, and Kathleen Tidwell.

"We've Got the Mumps" Eva P. Hargrove, Joane Harrison, Frances Marine, Barbara Harrison, Kathleen Tidwell.

"Not Quite Such a Goose" Claud Hill, J. V. Pea, Joane Harrison, Eva Pearl Hargrove.

"Kip Elbert" Eva Pearl Hargrove.

We have just finished our transportation unit. This unit has three distinct divisions: land, water, and air transportation, each of which we developed separately. We became acquainted with early methods of transportation and now we understand and appreciate modern transportation.

We made a frieze on our wall of these divisions. Our collection of interesting booklets were as follows: "Walking to Wins", "Aids to Transportation", "What's New", "Poems", "Air Transportation", "English Themes", "A Guide to Better Motoring", "Modern Aviation", "Trucks", "Ships", "Great Inventions" and many safety posters were made. We made the covered wagons, trains, cars, and airplanes.

We invited the parents to see our unit of work. We asked Mrs. Artice Fuqua, Effie Hargrove, and Mrs. Gennie Pea to grade our work and give blue, red, and white ribbons to each grade. Those receiving blue ribbons were: Kathleen Tidwell, Catherine Sue Hill, William Smith, Dollie Smith, Hilda Tidwell, and Eva Pearl Hargrove. Red ribbons were given to T. C. Ray, David Pea, Joane Harrison, Eva Pearl Hargrove, Dollie Smith, Roy David Pea, Alton Hargrove, Claude Hill, and received white ribbons. Our mothers were pleased with the work.

After our program Friday afternoon, Coldwater Junior High girls played our boys' and girls' team. They won by a score of 5-2. We were happy to have them with us.

Kirksey Man Has Three Corn Ears With 2624 Grains

J. E. Tucker, a farmer of near Kirksey, has harvested three ears of corn this year out of a field of excellent corn which total the sum of 2624 grains. One of the ears had a total of 896 grains; another 928; and another 800.

If the ears averaged 16 rows of grain per ear, each row would average 55 grains—an extraordinary ear of corn.

Mr. Tucker has a habit of raising good corn, if reports from his neighborhood are true, and we make no bones about congratulating him on his splendid production.

Begin today by having your wiring for lighting and all appliances checked.

Short circuits have been known to ignite gasolines, cloth materials, paper, and even wood.

FAULTY WIRING is a dangerous fire hazard. Don't take chances with amateur wiring when the services of the best electricians is but little more costly and even less so in the aggregate.

For even the smaller wiring jobs—jobs sometimes done yourself—secure the services of an experienced electrician. This policy will give you greater satisfaction in your electrical service and safeguard your property and possibly your life.

Purpose Of Fire Prevention Week Observance

Emphasizing the seriousness of the first waste and pointing out how fires can be prevented is the primary purpose of Fire Prevention Week. To be observed October 3 to 9 inclusive. During the period in question, every citizen is urged to aid in this worth-while campaign, and all should participate in the activities with every means at their command.

To appreciate what the observance means, sight should not be lost of the fact that fire destroys lives, homes and jobs, and places a tax on every one. Approximately 10,000 persons lose their lives by fire annually, and hundreds of millions of dollars in created wealth are reduced to ashes war after year.

Those who have given the subject serious consideration and are in a position to speak authoritatively hold that practically all this waste is wholly unnecessary, as with reasonable care and forethought fire can be averted. It may be somewhat difficult to change the deep-seated, careless habits of the average citizen, but most of the existing hazardous conditions can and should be remedied.

Official records show that a very large percentage of all the fires occurring in the United States are easily preventable, they being due mainly to carelessness, failure to remove fire hazards from the premises, improper use of gasoline and electricity, poor building construction, and other avertible causes.

The campaign to be carried on during Fire Prevention Week is primarily to impress upon the public consciousness the enormity of our unnecessary waste of life and property by fire, to the end that dangerous conditions may be improved and fire carelessness be eliminated.

It has been demonstrated that fire prevention, when intelligently

Help Prevent Fires

This week is set aside to emphasize the importance of guarding against fire. Do your part to prevent loss of life and property. Then as always, follow these precautions for greater safety:

Extinguish matches before throwing away.

Do not use inflammable substances for cleaning.

Burn rubbish, put out camp fires, keep all matches away from children. It's a patriotic obligation!

Notice to Citizens of Murray, Kentucky

Whereas it has been called to my attention of the work being done nationally during the fire prevention week and whereas the cause is one of the most important confronting the property owner from an economical standpoint both from fire losses and fire insurance rates and whereas this section of the state pays one of the highest fire insurance rates in this section of the country, and whereas it would be profitable to observe the stipulations of fire prevention week at all times, I proclaim the week of October 3-9 inclusive, fire prevention week, and ask that all citizens do their utmost to conform to the purpose of this nationally observed week.

Thanking you,
F. H. Graham, Mayor

Faxon High School

With six-week exams, possibility of three ball games, and preparation of the Community Fair Faxon faces a very busy week.

Saturday evening Faxon had one of the most successful pie suppers in its history. Mr. Willard Gordon auctioned off 35 delicious pies. Miss Annie Helen Ragsdale was adjudged the prettiest girl, and Mike Falwell the ugliest man.

All the schools near Faxon are working, it is reported, even to surpass the very successful community fair of last year. Faxon school is preparing to be the host to 10 other schools on October 15. We solicit the splendid cooperation of all the people of this large community, such as was given last year.

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK

EXAMINE FLUES AND PIPES. Watch grass and leaves to avoid fires. Fires cause higher insurance rates to everyone.

GO TO CHURCH WEEK. In the opinion of many—may prevent future fires. We all have our views, but what person is not benefitted by going to church?

ACCIDENT PREVENTION WEEK. Except for accident fate, accidents are preventable. It is natural for human beings to prevent accidents, and what manner of man will not try?

FIRE DAMAGE REFLECTS TO CONNECTIONS. Causing many to suffer. To neglect to remove a fire hazard and thereby cause loss to your neighbor places a financial obligation upon you. This is a recourse not often resorted to, but nevertheless it may be.

ACCIDENTS CAUSE LOSS TO YOUR FRIENDS. Tax your financial condition, lessens your ability to meet your obligations and tax your friends who do come to your rescue; as with fire, causes great loss to the country.

IT IS PROBABLY FITTING that we have weeks set aside for this advertising, hoping to make permanent these benefits and make for permanent observance.

Don't forget the play, "The Red-Headed Stepchild" which will be given the night following the Fair.

First and Second Grades. We are making a circus. We almost have one ring completed. We like to color and cut out animals.

Those making A in second grade reading this week were: Jack Roberts, Glen Roberts, Ronald Thompson, Ben Hopkins, Merline Dyer, Keith Joyce, Betty Roberts, Christine Williams and Franklin Brandon.

The following made 100 in spelling each day last week: Merline Dyer, Franklin Brandon, Christine Williams, and Betty Roberts. First graders making the honor roll this week were: Gerald Holland, Mable Colson, Joe Don Dyer, Julia Ann Holland, and Sue Adams.

Third and Fourth Grades. The fourth grade has completed their health booklets, which are very attractive.

Those doing exceptionally good work in the third grade are: Rudy Roberts, Holland, Junior Elliot, and Reba Dixon.

Those doing very good work are: Otis Elkins, Eugene "Billings" ton, Daymon Turner, and Virginia Ann Houston.

Those doing good work in the fourth grade are: Wilma Jane Hopkins, Edgar Colson, Rex "Billings" ton, Dolphus Phelps, John Thomas Phelps, Jimmie Pogue, and Ruth Pogue.

FAXON FLASHES. By Junior Class.

The girls played a society ball game Friday in which Mr. Watson was so interested that he kept third base for Mr. Jones' side.

In the shade of an old apple tree Marcus sat down on a bee. When she got up what did she see? A motorcycle coming over the sea.

Our high school clown, Ralph Ragsdale, got so wound up at the ball game that he went round and round.

There was a girl named Anne who used a great big fan. She fanned and fanned (and thought she was grand), until she failed to get her man.

Since Mr. Williams has gone to Detroit, Mr. Burken is trying to care for the Tennessee. I don't think he is having any luck.

There once was a sponsor named Watson. Who wished he was away in Boston.

The motto of the society under Mr. Watson is, "If we rest we rust," and it looks as though some of them have been resting.

Faxon Facets

Most of the good tobacco crop has been housed and steamers of blue smoke are drifting from almost every barn. Shocks of corn and tops and stacks of hay are dotting the landscape.

Omer Wells was removed to his home a week ago, but he was returned to the Clinic Hospital, where he remains very low.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Brandon invited their son and family home for after-church dinner Sunday and arrived to find a daughter, Mrs. Arthur Skinner, and family.

Mr. Skinner's brother and family of Paducah, awaiting them. So the great house rang with the not unusual family cheer while the score and more of persons made merry at the generous table.

Master Billie and Joe Skinner are spending this week at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Brandon. Farm life in the fall is very much to their liking.

Mrs. Fate Lee is recovering nicely at the Mason Memorial Hospital from a major operation. Talmadge and Nannie Burken, who have been staying with Mr. and Mrs. Geurin and Mr. and Mrs. Walston while attending high school, are staying with Mr. Lee during their aunt's illness.

Mrs. Lee has the well wishes of the community in her efforts to regain her health.

The Puryear road took toll of another local car Sunday when Dees Vincent failed to see a corner in the foggy dusk. Mr. Vincent was thought to be seriously injured, but when the shock passed, he seemed only slightly hurt. The young man with him was uninjured.

Minister L. H. Pogue preached a powerful sermon Sunday at Friendship to a very attentive audience of meditative size. The Bible lesson, the song service, and the prayers all blended with the sermon to make a satisfying whole. Mr. and Mrs. Walston accompanied the Pagues to Dublin, where he was concluding a mission meeting.

Mrs. Hester Walker returned to Detroit September 18, after several weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Walker.

Clyde Jones and Mrs. Bulah Jones and children are planning to return to Detroit this week after two weeks with relatives.

Fortune Smiles But Misfortune Leers at Family

Fortune may be rather a stay-at-home sort of fellow, but his sister, Misfortune is a most persistent caller. J. H. Johnson, Murray barber, can vouch for the truth of that statement; at least, insofar as his own family is concerned.

Lucille, his daughter, a rather pretty young woman of near Murray, has been ill for the last two weeks with a severe case of tonsillitis which seemingly has made arrangements to spend the winter at her expense.

In LaCenter, his sister, Mrs. Edith Burnett, is critically ill at the point of death, really, according to Johnson—with cancer, from which she has been suffering for five months.

About three months ago, Johnson's brother, Momen, a Paducah, was shot through the abdomen and it was two months before he was able to be up again.

But that wasn't all. To top it all off, his brother's wife, Mrs. Momen Johnson, and her two sons, Walter and Earl, were bitten by a mad dog about a month ago and are still taking the quite expensive treatment for rabies.

Johnson confessed he wasn't feeling so well himself.

to return to Detroit this week after two weeks with relatives.

Around Paschall School

This is a very cool day and it seems that Mr. Jack Frost is not far away. This is still a very busy time with the farmers running from place to place helping to get the tobacco cut before the frost gets it. Also the tobacco firing is in session now.

Rev. and Mrs. Bowden Swann attended a Primitive Baptist Association meet south of Paris, Tenn., over the week end.

Harshel Key is very poorly with asthma at this time. Terry Snodgrass cut tobacco Monday of this week.

A large crowd attended the landing field near Lynn Grove Sunday. Several persons took nice rides in the airplanes which were taking up passengers.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Jones were made very happy one day last week by having Mr. Jones' sister-in-law, Mrs. Bell Paschall of Crossland, and Rev. Sam Bruce Jones, Mrs. Paschall's grandson, as dinner guests.

Ben and Hollon Byars were in Murray Friday on business.

To see the smoke waving from chimney tops makes us think of clearing the summer clothes out of our wardrobes and placing the winter ones in.

I notice there are new letters contributed to the good old Ledger & Times each week. I noticed last week we had a nice letter from Purple, Route 3 by "Humming Bird".

Grasshopper, you are exactly right about me working hard and you were exactly wrong about me not hurting myself, for it sure hurts my feelings to have to work.

We are glad to report that Hugh Walton Foster was uninjured when a team of mules ran away with him last week. The mules belonged to his father, North Foster.

Mrs. Lydia Foster and Mrs. Florence Lassiter, assisted Mrs. Naomi Orr in preparing dinner for Mr. Orr's tobacco cutting last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Hollon Jones visited Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Jones last Sunday. Both of the Jones families, accompanied by Miss Beatrice Lewis, went over to the landing field north of Lynn Grove Sunday.

The tobacco cutting crew that helped Hollon Byars cut his crop also the women who assisted Mrs. Haughtie Byars in preparing the meal, really enjoyed a splendid dinner there last week.

If I don't freeze out I'll be with you all next week.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Morning subject: "BIBLE CHURCH MEMBERS"; evening subject: "EVERY MAN STOOD IN HIS PLACE".

Baptismal service at 7:30, just before the beginning of evening worship.

Sunday School at 9:30, with classes for all ages in separate class rooms under the care of competent teachers and officers. Dr. Hugh M. McElrath, superintendent.

Baptist Training Union at 6:25, with a Union for each age, with a specially arranged Bible program, rendered by each Union in separate rooms. These programs are carefully arranged by the best Bible scholars in all the land, are prepared for the training of all church members for better service.

Mid-week "Bible" every Wednesday evening at 7:30. This meeting is especially adapted to the larger development of the spiritual life of every member. All members with their families, friends and neighbors are earnestly invited to attend this meeting midway between the Lord's Day services.

Workers and Teachers meeting immediately follows the mid-week meeting; this meeting is for the discussion of the Sunday-School lesson under the direction of the superintendent.

The revival meeting of the church begins November 15. Dr. W. P. Powell, pastor of the First Baptist Church, of Nashville, Tenn., is to be the preacher. He is at once one of the most successful pastor-evangelists within the borders of the Southern Baptist Convention. Bro. Griffin Schofield, who recently yielded his life to gospel singing, will be the singer for this meeting. These services twice daily are for everybody whether Christians or not. The church and pastor earnestly urge everybody to attend and enjoy these two splendid men of God.

There is always a warm hearted welcome to all to attend all the services of our church.

Pine Bluff Briefs

Whew! That north wind is making people hurry around trying to get ready for winter. Tho I haven't seen any Jack Frost yet we may not be surprised to see a great white carpet around our door any morning now.

About all the tobacco and hay in this section have been harvested. Good crops were reported by almost everyone.

School is progressing nicely under the guidance of Miss Louise Barnes. The St. John school baseball team expects to play Vinson school at Vinson Friday, October 1, with a return game a week later.

Delroy Milton and Hilman Lyons attended the Pine Bluff-Hazel ball game at Crossland Sunday.

Mrs. Lee Lyons and son, W. A., and Otis Steele visited their mother, Mrs. Bernice Steele, of Murray, who is ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Nolin and family of Tharpe spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Will Barrow and family.

Brother Henry Hargis of Cherry, Ky., visited Miss Aline Barnes Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewelane Milton and little daughter, and Mrs. Will Barrow and son, Edward, and daughter Lorene spent Sunday evening with W. M. Wilkinson and family.

Moody and Raymond Mathis of Blue Springs have been making molasses here the past week. A very good quality of molasses was made.

"I wrote my letter with a pencil. That wasn't very sharp. When I wrote a line it rattled like a harp."

"My hand was nervous. So my lines were crooked. And when I got my paper I looked and looked."

Killebrew to Run for School Board

Sam P. Killebrew, well-known farmer of the Killebrew community, announces with this issue of the Ledger & Times his candidacy for membership on the County Board of Education.

Mr. Killebrew has had rich experience in helping to direct the education of Calloway county, having served for six years on the county board and having made a record as a supporter of worthy educational aims during that time which his many friends are justly proud of. Mr. Killebrew's formal statement to the voters of Calloway county follows:

In announcing my candidacy for membership on the County Board of Education, I want to say to the voters of Calloway that I am running on my own merits and qualifications. I have had six years experience as a member of the county board, and to those who don't know me I extend an invitation to look up my record. It will bear me out in my statement that I have always supported public education.

This is the one-hundredth year of free common education in Kentucky, and Kentucky has much to boast of educationally, and operates more than 7,500 schools. I want to support these schools and to make Calloway rank high in their ranks.

I am not making this race on the demerits of my opponents. I am making it upon the solicitation of friends who feel sure that I will do my utmost to maintain and improve the public schools of this area.

It will be impossible for me to see all of the voters personally, but I want to make this an invitation to each voter to support me and at the same time to assure each that I sincerely will appreciate his vote. I belong to no factional organization and never shall belong to one at the expense of the educational advantages of the school children of Kentucky.

I am in favor of first class education and equal rights to everyone, including the teacher, the superintendent, the pupil, the supervisor, and the administrators.

Sincerely your friend,

oral agreement without the slightest friction or misunderstanding I have never had a better friend on earth, outside the ties of blood, than Raleigh Melan and I hereby publicly and proudly, with you as my witness, pledge him and Mr. Neal my wholehearted and enthusiastic support (measure as its value) so long as they shall publish this paper.

Hereafter, I have no financial interest in The Ledger & Times but I most emphatically have a heart interest in it.

Raleigh Melan is made of steel of truest blue with a heart of purest gold. You who have dealt with him know this to be true and you who will have the opportunity of dealing with him in the future will readily verify it.

Both Mr. Melan and myself have known Mr. Neal since the first of this year. We have investigated his record, both private and public, with extreme thoroughness. We would not present him to you as our friend and recommend him as worthy of your confidence unless we had found him clean and without reproach.

The fact that he has held a responsible position on an outstanding newspaper continuously since he graduated from college through which he worked his way is in itself splendid evidence of his ability, personality, perseverance and faculty of winning and holding the confidence and friendship of people in the everyday relations of business and social life.

Mr. Neal will write his own record with you. Knowing your generosity and kindness as we do, we know that you will welcome him to our community as a citizen and make his life among you a joy and pleasure. We haven't the slightest doubt but that he will like you, and that you will like him.

Mr. Neal will be in Murray Sunday and next week will make a statement to the public.

This writer surrenders the reins with a world of pleasant memories and recollections that will endure for his lifetime. He will be eternally grateful for the limitless kindnesses, favors and generosity you have bestowed upon him far beyond his just deserts.

I came to Murray not as a complete stranger, as you know. The bodies of my grandparents are pillowed in the bosom of the eternal hills of Calloway county; my father, of revered memory, got his meagre, early education at "Hoy and Old, Wadesboro" and "justly called many of you "friend". Mrs. Lovett is born and bred of the soil of this county and both our sons first saw of the light of day in Murray. I have never felt out of place nor among strangers as a citizen of Calloway county but rather tied intimately to it by the closest bonds of blood and friendship.

If future events should lead our steps from Murray they will be reluctantly taken. We expect to continue to reside here for many months, we hope, forever. I am thankful that I can relinquish the editorship of this paper with the serene conscience that not one single individual, cause or project has been intentionally mistreated or distorted. Mistakes have been made, yes, as all human beings err, but not one has been made in the heart.

With "malice toward none and charity toward all," we have endeavored to make The Ledger & Times an honest, candid, complete community newspaper with no outside ambitions to gratify, no enemies to punish and no privileged to pamper. How well we have succeeded in attaining our goals is not for us to say but for you to judge.

The moving finger writes and having writ
Moves on: nor all your piety nor wit
Can turn it back to cancel half a line
Nor all your tears wash out one word of it."

As newspaper editor we bid you farewell but as a citizen of Murray and Calloway county we pledge anew our hearts and our efforts toward the constructive development of Murray, and Calloway county in each and every phase of worthwhile causes. We hope and expect The Ledger & Times, under its new publishers, to grow and develop with Calloway county and we look forward to taking pride in both.

Sec'y. Wallace To Speak in Louisville

Farm leaders in all parts of Kentucky and Southern Indiana are working this week to obtain the largest audience of farmers ever assembled in this section to hear Hon. Henry A. Wallace, United States Secretary of Agriculture, launch a campaign for a crop control program at 11 a. m. Saturday at the Horse Show Pavilion of the State Fairgrounds in Louisville.

Mr. Wallace will be introduced by Judge Robert W. Bingham, Ambassador to the Court of St. James and publisher of the Courier-Journal and The Times.

Officers and executives of the Kentucky and the Indiana Farm Bureau Federations, the State Director of Vocational Education, Dean Thomas P. Cooper of the College of Agriculture at the University of Kentucky, field workers of farmers' co-operative associations and representative farmers generally are organizing automobile caravals, and even an excursion train, to take 20,000 farmers to Louisville.

Kentucky and Indiana farmers are being honored with the opening salute in the national production control program, and the Louisville speaking is regarded by farm leaders as an opportunity to show the country and the Congress that farmers want permanent legislation to protect their interests. The State Fairground has ample automobile parking space, and farmers are invited by Horace Cleveland, State Fair Secretary, to take advantage of the opportunity to bring a picnic basket.

PARKER PRODUCES DELICIOUS APPLES

Forty-five of his Starks Golden Delicious apples fill a half bushel basket rounded up almost to the point of overflowing.

That is the record of apples grown by Robert B. Parker, prominent farmer of a Murray route near Cherry. The apples Parker had on display in Murray averaged 3 inches in diameter. Parker has three or four trees producing such fruit.

Other varieties of the fruit that tempted Adam grown by Mr. Parker include the Black-Ben, King David, Red Delicious, Mammoth Black Twig, Red Rome Beauty, Arkansas Black, Winter Banana, and some Winesaps. Parker has as many as 150 trees, and has been growing fruit since 1916.

Tigers Play Metropolis Here Friday Night at 7:30; Beat Greenfield, 53-6

Well, sir, the Murray High Tigers, up and put their genial coach Ty Holland on the spot last Friday night by winning a football game, 53-6, with everybody but the water boy and manager playing in the contest. Naturally, it's to be wondered how Ty could be on the spot with a victory but it's simply that the Tigers will be going up against tough and experienced opposition for the rest of the season and it's not going to be possible to beat them, if at all, by anything like the scores the Bengals have run up against Dawson Springs and Greenfield.

The Tigers looked like a million dollars tied up in Christmas wrappings last Friday when they ran wild over Greenfield. All of the kids on the squad got a chance to play and Ed Wilson Farmer and little Rob Young indicated that they are going to make some of the first string backs hustle before the season is over.

Of course, part of their fine showing was due to the fine blocking of Cutchin and Buchanan but young Farmer's reverse when he scores that touchdown in the fourth quarter was as pretty a piece of broken field running as has been exhibited on the Murray high gridiron in quite a while.

The Greenfield boys, who extended Murray last year, lost all their 1936 stars by graduation and Coach Joe Herndon, who was a popular Thoroughbred at Murray, had a team entirely of freshmen and sophomores.

This Friday night, the Tigers play their ancient enemy, Metropolis, here and then play away from home the next two week ends, the first at Mayfield (a traditional battle) and the next at Bowling Green (also an annual affair) before returning to the home jungle to clash with Marion. The last three games are conference battles.

Another nice crowd turned out to support the Tigers and there was a noticeable improvement in the organized cheering, which was led with pep and enthusiasm by Miss Thelma Ross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Ross, Miss Edith Jones, daughter of Judge and Mrs. T. R. Jones, Miss Rachel Linn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melus Linn and James Dale Clogston, son of Squire and Mrs. Gatin Clogston. The band, under direction of Prof. Everett Crane, gave another good account of itself.

Tomorrow night's game will start at 7:30.

ESQ. C. B. FULTON LAST OF FAMILY

Half-brother, Linn Boyd Fulton, Native of County, Dies in Tennessee

Linn Boyd Fulton, 83 years old, a half brother to Esq. C. B. Fulton, of Murray, passed away last Thursday at his home near Springfield, Tenn., in Robertson county, following a four months illness of the debilities of age.

Mr. Fulton was born and reared in Calloway county. As a young man he moved to Graves county and later to McCracken where he resided a short time before going to Robertson county to make his home.

His death leaves Squire Fulton the only remaining member of a family of six sons and five daughters. Three have passed away in the past six months, each of them more than 80 years old.

Young Democrats To Meet Monday

The Young Men's Democratic Club of Murray will meet Monday night in the court house to elect delegates to attend the Democratic Convention in Louisville on October 8-9.

After a special program which will begin promptly at 7:30 o'clock, the group will discuss the advisability of nominating a Calloway contestant for a district or state office. Waylon Rayburn, former state legislator, is now state treasurer. Guy Billington is local president, and L. J. Horton is secretary-treasurer.

All young Democrats in Calloway county are invited to be present.

Mallory School News

Mallory School enjoyed a party at the end of the second month. The students had candies, played games and contests. Katherine Knight and Newell Knight won in the contests.

The school is to have a box supper Saturday night, October 2. It hopes to make money enough for an outing.

Those making all A's and B's for second and third month are as follows:

First grade, Virginia Willoughby, Virgil Futrell, and Laverne Ledbetter; second grade, Burlene Knight and Edward Graves Knight; third grade, John C. Steele, U. L. Knight, James Futrell, J. T. Local Chapter of American Red Cross Begins Annual Membership Campaign

Mrs. Bea Melugin, Red Cross secretary in Murray, is sponsoring her annual roll call drive early this year in order to get as many new members as possible.

The Red Cross has been of invaluable assistance to the cause of need in the city of Murray, according to appreciative citizens who are enthusiastic in their support of the work the organization is doing. The National headquarters of the group is in Washington, D. C., and area headquarters are located in St. Louis and San Francisco. The unit is financed solely by contributions from the public and has never at any time been government financed. The national organization receives from Chapters 50 cents of each annual membership whether of $1 or $25 denomination. These membership funds plus interest from the endowment funds, and some restricted funds set aside to be spent for specific projects, make up the annual income of the national organization.

All accounts of the American Red Cross are audited by the War Department and are filed by the Secretary of War with the Congress of the United States. A board of trustees composed of different groups of officers from the Central Committee and the Board of Incorporators controls the endowment fund of the American Red Cross.

In 10 years, the Red Cross gave relief in 210 flood disasters, ranging from local situations affecting not more than a score of persons to the major flood disaster of 1937, affecting 1,500,000 persons.

Corner Drug Unit Renovates House

Dale & Stubblefield Drug Company completed Monday the finishing, renovation, and remodeling of its establishment and set up a new modern system of open type display units.

With the removal of the long show cases on the right of the entrance-way, the store will be much roomier, and facilities for caring for customers will be much more ample, according to the owners.

New modern prescription cases are being installed in the front and the back. The new display units are finished in grey enamel and harmonize with the color scheme of the store's arrangement.

The store has gone under the title of Dale & Stubblefield ever since 1906, at which time Stubblefield bought out the interest of a gentleman by the name of Martin. Previously, the store was entitled Martin-Dale and Company.

DISLOCATES SHOULDER

Ben Taylor, 81 year old farmer, seriously injured his shoulder last Sunday evening when he fell from the porch of his home on the Bigton Highway. The old gentleman is resting comfortably after doctors set the dislocated shoulder.

To obtain permanent pasture and meadow, Sherman Burkhardt, Harlan county, is seeking 15 acres to grass.

Health-Wrecking Functional PAINS

Severe functional pains of menstruation, cramping spells and jagged nerves soon rob a woman of her natural youthful freshness. PAIN lines in a woman's face too often grow into AGE lines!

Thousands of women have found it helpful to take Cardul. They say it seemed to ease their pains, and they noticed an increase in their appetite and finally a strengthened resistance to the discomfort of monthly periods.

Try Cardul. Of course if it doesn't help you, see your doctor.

Fred Crawford, Kenneth Bailey, And Dee Vinson Receive Treatment

Automobile wrecks over the week-end involving residents of Murray or nearby were not numerous and casualties suffered in them were not serious.

Kenneth Bailey and Dee Vinson received hospital treatment after their car crashed into an obstruction near Hazel Saturday night, wrecking the front part of the car. Neither of their wounds was considered dangerous or confining.

Fred Crawford, son of T. Wade Crawford, lacerated his face and scalp when he ran his car into the back end of a truck on the Benton Highway to avoid hitting a wagon loaded with people.

Young Crawford was meeting the truck and did not see the wagon, since it had passed behind the lights of the truck. He had to swerve violently into the back end of the truck as he passed in order to save the occupants of the wagon. The driver of the wagon was Noah Vinson, and the truck driver was R. S. Dean, Madisonville.

Crawford carried indemnity insurance.

Grindstone Ten Tops McCuiston Club 8-3

The Grindstone and McCuiston softball teams met in their second engagement of the season on the McCuiston diamond Friday, September 24. The game was closely played throughout.

After the close of the regular seven innings, Grindstone was ahead by the score of 4-2, but it was agreed that the game continue for nine innings. The nine inning affair also ended in favor of Grindstone, 8-3.

Home runs by Fielder and Hamlin of the Grindstone ten, with the sensational receiving of Hamlin, were the highlights of the game. This is Grindstone's eighth win in 10 starts.

Musical Season Begins on Campus of Murray State With Many Groups

With the advent of the musical season at Murray State College, tryouts were held this week for the various instrumental and vocal organizations which have earned a name for themselves in West Kentucky and Tennessee. Over 200 students have been admitted to various organizations which form a substantial part of social entertainment both on the campus and in neighboring localities.

The college band was organized during the early part of the week, with 77 students earning membership in the lively organization. The band, under the direction of Prof. W. H. Fox, will play for all of Murray's home games and several distant engagements.

Fifty-five musicians have been admitted to the college orchestra. Under the direction of Prof. F. P. Inglis, the symphony orchestra will play a series of concerts throughout the year, the highlight of which will be the annual broadcast over radio station WSM in Nashville, Tenn., in the near future.

The choice vocal organization of the college, the A Capella choir, was organized later on in the week. Prof. Leslie R. Putnam, voice instructor, will be in charge of the choir, which will make several trips throughout the season.

One of the most promising organizations on the campus is the newly-formed MSH's Glee Club, under the direction of Price Doyle. The glee club contains 23 members and is expected to be a progressive organization. The Girls Glee Club has been reformed and is looking forward to a fully-scheduled season.

Many other organizations, such as the mixed chorus, the men's and girls' quartets, and instrumental quartets and quintets are being organized.

To The Voters of Murray

I want to take this opportunity to remind the voters of the city of Murray that I am the democratic nominee for City Judge in the November election.

In order that there may be no confusion in the minds of the voters as to who is running in this race for City Judge, I merely want to say that C. H. Redden, my only opponent, is running on the Republican ticket, has always been a Republican, and naturally, I feel free in saying is not in sympathy with the principles of democracy as applied to city, state, or national government.

I have always been a Democrat, will continue to be a Democrat, and will always uphold the principles of democracy in the execution of my duties as a city official.

Sincerely,
ETHAN IRVAN,
Democratic Candidate for CITY JUDGE OF MURRAY.

Mr. and Mrs. D. F. West Celebrate Their Golden Wedding Anniversary

The children and their families of Mr. and Mrs. D. F. West gathered Sunday at the West home to celebrate their parents' and grandparents' 50th wedding anniversary.

The celebration was to have been on the 22nd of September, but on account of the fact that some were far away and could not come the party was postponed until Sunday. All of the entire family was present except two grandsons and two great grandchildren. A large anniversary cake, 13 by 20 inches, decorated the table and was presented by a granddaughter, Mrs. John Hopkins of Missouri. They received other nice gifts from the children. All seemed to spend a happy day as they once more gathered together in the home of their parents.

Mr. and Mrs. West were married when they were just in their teens, he being only 18 years old and she 15. Their oldest daughter married at the age of 13, and Mrs. West became a grandmother at the age of 30.

Their lives have been blessed with the conjugal happiness of close and lasting family ties. On their Golden Wedding Day, the years that have gone fly back to them sweet on the wings of memory.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. George Cathey and son, Carl; Mr. and Mrs. Jeddie Cathey and little daughter, Beba Jo; Mr. and Mrs. Leon Cathey and baby, L. D.; Mr. and Mrs. Leona Cooper; Mr. and Mrs. Mahlon Treas; Mr. and Mrs. John Hopkins and children; Dorothy Sue, Mary Laverne, and Howard; Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Campbell and son, Harold; Mayfield; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Drew, Evansville, Ind.; Mr. and Mrs. Homer Campbell, Evansville, Ind.; Mr. and Mrs. D. F. West; Mr. and Mrs. James Parker and little daughter, Eura Nellie; Miss Ruth Brandon, Mr. and Mrs. Attie Brandon. Afternoon callers were Gerald Wheeler, Mary Sue Wright and Thurston Furchess.

Quarterly Song Session is Held In Town Sunday

The fall quarterly singing of Calloway took place in the courtroom of the Murray court house Sunday afternoon with a large crowd of country people and townsmen out to hear the renditions of the several prominent quartets and other features on the program.

John Key, famed Calloway county singer, was in charge of the proceedings. The singing began at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Leaders were John Key, Latham Cunningham, Chester Marine, Charley Marr, Lee Donelson, Willard Gordon, and others. Special features included the John Key quartet, the Sugar Creek Quartet, the Sunshine Quartet, the Cunningham Quartet, and the Audie Miller Trio.

The quarterly singing convention takes place every three months on the fourth Sunday afternoon.

CONCRETE ROADS GIVE WINGS TO WHEELS

JITTERS, jars and jolts vanish when your car swings onto the concrete. The long ribbon stretches before you smooth, safe, inviting. There's less nervous tension and fatigue; no ruts, no chuck holes, no mud. Your car is a better car, and you are a better driver.

You like concrete! And you should. You can depend on it. You know that, wet or dry, its safe, non-skid surface grips tires and helps you stop quickly. And by night its light color improves visibility. You can see obstacles, pedestrians and the edge of the road.

You can't afford not to have concrete. For concrete actually costs less to build than other roads of equal load-carrying capacity, and costs far less for upkeep. What's more, concrete saves in gas, tire and car repair bills. Get the most for your money. Urge your highway officials to build comfortable, safe, economical concrete roads.

THE PUBLIC VOICE

Contributions to this column upon topics of interest are always welcome. They do not necessarily express the views of this newspaper.

SCHOOL NEWS

There was once a newspaper man who made fame and fortune for himself in the country newspaper business. May it be said in the beginning that nothing in this article should be construed as a reflection on the gray head of that venerable old gentleman. His greatest mistake is his having a son who styles himself "Editor No. 6."

Solomon was a wise old bird in his day. He lived, however, before the era of your brilliant "Editor No. 6." One pause to contemplate the heights of genius to which this remarkable young man has arisen.

"Your Home Newspaper" refuses to print any more Calloway County school items. Your "Editor No. 6" discovers that the fact that your child or little brother or sister attains the honor roll, or otherwise distinguishes himself or herself in school activities, is uninteresting. It must indeed be considered a sordid reading matter when compared to the thrilling anecdotes included in the "Biographical continuation concerning the dazzling career of your 'Editor No. 6'; for which he so generously finds ample room for several columns, each week in "Your Home Newspaper."

A few excerpts from these glorious literary gems which have filled the columns of "Your Newspaper" for the past months will suffice to reveal their astonishing importance: "Your 'Editor No. 6' happens to be married! He thinks his wife pretty! He thinks another man's wife is lovely! He has three girls, all dressed in white, on the streets! He is smiled at by a pretty girl! He is thumbed for a ride by a young lady after dark! He once visited a bawdy in Detroit! These are but a few evidences of his amorous over-sexed inclinations; to say nothing of other equally exciting escapades. For instance: He seems, years ago, to have stolen a goose, duck, or something! He even went fishing once upon a time!

Alas, what magnificent dew drops of wisdom trickle from the pen of your illustrious scribe! What interesting detail!

It may be that your "Editor No. 6" bears a grudge against the public schools of Calloway County because, as he admits, he was unable to learn anything when in school. His finding it necessary to award this information is a presumption on the intelligence of his readers; since they had but to read the assinine, ridiculous bunk with which he has been stuffing his columns to have decided this matter for themselves.

Your "Editor No. 6" fears that some one will call him a fool. It isn't necessary to do that. The reader's most casual perusal of the glamorous foolishness which he has penned is testimony enough as to that fact.

Your "Editor No. 6" boasts that he is a big city newspaper man.

If the non-sensical harangue which he writes is an indication of the material found in the big dailies one is made to feel sorry for the reader of metropolitan newspapers.

It may be thought that the writer is engaging in personalities. If the reader will find anything from A to Z in the columns of "Editor No. 6" that is not the most trite, slimy treatment of personalities the writer pleads guilty of idiosyncrasy.

The writer is a school man, with a strong confidence in, and respect for, the public schools and school children of Calloway County. His tastes are simple. He enjoys reading about the accomplishments of these children in their school rolls. He does not possess the delicate literary distinction which would lead him to appreciate the art of your "Editor No. 6" as revealed in that worthy's productions. It may be that not all the students may attain the honor roll. These are advised not to become discouraged. It is suggested that they become editors of a "Your Home Newspaper."

The poor writer admits his ignorance of newspaper work, either the big city or country brand. He even pleads guilty of being a sucker. He is a paid up subscriber to "The West Kentuckian," alias "Your Home Newspaper," for more than two years in advance. Every dark cloud, however, has its silver lining. He finds the worthless sheets of "Your Home Newspaper" make an ideal plaster for his dog kennel.

By a subscriber of the West Kentuckian—Milton Henry.

Fifty Years Ago

Just 50 years ago they said Another couple's just been wed. Who started out through thick and thin.

Striving hard a living to win. With $75 and an old red mule To till the soil as was the rule. We started out in an old log hut, Not a window in it had ever been put.

The chimney was built out of dirt and sticks, Even the hearth wasn't made with bricks. And like many people of today We walked not exactly in our Saviour's way.

One day the young gent went out on a ramble, And found a young buck Who with him did gamble.

So at last they came up Looking sheepish as a pup, For the luck had turned And he had got burned.

So I felt as sour as if I had bit a pickle, Cause him and Tom King Had flipped a nickel.

So King walked off with the young man's saddle And left him only the bareback to straddle.

One night as the evening shade was falling, Supper was ready—Dad I was calling.

So out in the yard in the chimney corner he sat, And I ask him what is the trouble? He said I am trying to shoot a bat.

He had sampled a bottle That contained white mule And he felt a little dizzy by not keeping the rule.

But now in those days we have no such rhyme, No longer in that corner he sits, But obeys God's rule—left off the white mule and never is bothered with bats.

God gave us no boys; Just four little girls And oh! we had to go around in whirled.

We toiled each day Scarcely resting our feet To put on our table The needed bread and meat.

But our family now Numbers thirty-seven And hope we shall someday All gather in heaven.

Old Depression came along And gave us a whack And now we are living in a concrete shack.

So now I am closing This simple rhyme That was only written To show you a good time.

But when this life is over And we have said our last goodbye, We will close our eyes to slumber In a mansion built on high.

And dwell with Christ our Saviour To worship at His feet. What a bright and glorious morning When our loved ones we shall meet.

—Mrs. D. F. West

Letter to Editor

New Concord, Ky.

September 27, 1937

Mr. Joe Lovett,
Editor Ledger & Times,
Murray, Ky.
Dear Editor:

Would you make room in your paper for us to take in our feeble way a little verbal swat at one who hit us a beastly blow last week.

What we have written in this letter does not pertain to you, your paper or your staff in any way whatsoever as far as criticisms are concerned.

Some days ago a certain little editor whose "number" we failed to get, because his tall light was burning at a low progressive glow, and his license plates were almost obliterated with slang criticism and plain bunk, picked us up, ridiculed and personated us for—we can't exactly say what reason. But to allay a sneaking suspicion of ours concerning the editor, which we were reprimanded, may we ask just one little question.

Isn't it a fact that you feel that a certain larger school in the western end of our state has "high hatted" your paper, ignored your criticisms, and furthermore progressed without your assistance? Ah! forget about the answer. Probably we got too personal anyway. Nevertheless speaking from a personal standpoint, we have never swatted a mosquito for a thing that a bumble bee inflicted upon us. Just doesn't show good sportsmanship.

We will admit that we are just little humble school teachers, teaching in a rather ramshackled, weather-beaten two-room school which is located down in the hills. Nevertheless we are not without our facts, and as we love our hills and our community so do we adore our pupils, but we don't put them on the honor roll just because they are what some people call "goodies." They must make outstanding grades regardless of their names or their fathers' occupation.

Six of our honor roll students whose names you "deleted," thank you for acquainting us with that word, you taught us something after all, (name fragment) saw their name in print. However, if you will trouble yourself to read one of our more hospitable newspapers you will be hearing from them.)

We don't like to see anyone throw a damper on anything that is stirring, whether it be the school, a church or a country newspaper, but on the other hand we think the paper should be used for a worthy cause rather than a detriment.

Referring again to that column which was headed "Things Which We Want to Get Out of Our System," may we suggest that you alter that title just a little and call it "Things We Need to Get Out of Our System." We will readily admit that we are not a registered pharmacist, neither are we a licensed physician, and are probably not capable of telling you at all how to live up to that new title, but if you will excuse us we will recommend an old country remedy, which we believe will put progress in your cheeks and take the conceit out of your spine, if taken according to directions. Here is our prescription:

Take one small tumbler of progressiveness, plus a horse-sized capsule of cooperation at least once each week, just before writing your editorial. In order that you might have a sweeter taste in your mouth, after using so many naughty words, we would also suggest you use either a good halitosis remedy or some strong lozenges, the latter is preferable.

We have two children who are in school and we don't approve of their reading articles that uphold children playing hooky. Furthermore we don't want them to contaminate their minds with the thought that the schoolroom is just a "place to thwart true development of personality and character as well as what we call education." So we are going to insist that you hold your nose and swallow the above medicine. We believe it will help you, but if you just can't take it there is just one other request which we are going to make. It is this—Please take our name off your subscription list.

As we have had our say we are now about to sign off by using the complimentary close which you suggested, which is, just plain, Yours,

Otis Lovins,
P. S. Fellow teachers, mothers, and fathers, I didn't write this just to show off. I realize my verbal opponent is armed with a vocabulary far superior to mine, but last week he struck me without a cause. This week I am firing on him with my pop-gun, yea, even though he shoots off his cannon.

METHODIST CHURCH NOTES

Sunday, Oct. 3, 1937

The Church-school year of the Methodist church is from October 1 of the year till October 1 of the next year. This has been the custom for a long time. On the first Sunday of October the officers and teachers of the Church-school begin their work anew. We call that Sunday "Bible Day." As a denomination the Southern Methodists are seeking 250,000 new members in the Church-school. Certainly we could have at least 100 new members in our Church-school at Murray. Will you do your part that we may have that number of new members?

At the morning worship hour the pastor will install these officers and teachers and following this installation the officers and teachers will receive the communion together. This is a beautiful service and we expect every officer and teacher to be present.

At the evening hour the pastor will study with the congregation the fifth commandment—"Honor thy father and mother that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee."

The central fact in this message is the fact of Authority.

Mrs. Hicks desires the members of the choir to meet on Wednesday night following the prayer service for practice.

Our young people meet in their three groups at 6:45, and your children will profit by being present. All of us glory in the splendor of these autumn days and should show our gratitude to God by being present at his house of worship.

J. Mack Jenkins, Pastor

RALPH'S RANGLES

"The Love Bug Will Get You If You Don't Watch Out" may be true, and all that, but when the "Football Bug" starts out to get you there is no question but what you are "got." The most of us are "got" with this cool, biting north wind cutting out "across the peach orchard."

We have already seen Coach Ty Holland's Murray Tigers in action and again we will see them Friday night when the Metropolis, Ill., aggregation will visit the home den. Metropolis, no doubt will be hard to beat, as the "is noted for her battling athletic teams and has always been noted on the gridiron for its splendid punting and running game."

The Tigers' overwhelming victory over Greenfield last Friday won't "mean a thing" when they tangle with the Illinois outfit and I hope that the Tiger helmets will have gotten back to their normal size by "whistling time" Friday night.

Games are won between whistle and whistle not between games or before and after the contest. Sad to say I have learned that ball games are not won on paper, practice fields, or in locker rooms. The quarterback causes games to be won after he has sized the enemy up, pointed out weak spots of the opponents defense and with the help of his team commander is able to keep a shifting defense working on the enemy's changing tactics of attack.

Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock the fans of West Kentucky will see the Murray College Thoroughbreds go into action against Tennessee Polytechnic Institute from Cookeville.

The Thoroughbreds took a 21-0 licking from Hardin-Simmons of Abilene, Texas, Friday night, but Texas way. According to reports, Murray played a swell ball game and the Stewartmen came home with heads-up and declaring they were a wiser and better team now by being in action with a great team that had a pass flinger that could pass the ole apple with the same effortless control that Taylor Todd once used when he tossed baseball for Murray State, and could throw it with the speed of Walter Johnson.

A defeat by a superior team is a means by which knowledge may be gained if the said losing team is so inclined to take it as a "lecture course."

After watching the Thoroughbreds' workout for several days I am ready to say that we are going to look at some good football this season. The boys are working hard and are willing to learn. Coaches Stewart and Miller have the boys in good shape and the attitude of the entire squad is to be complimented most highly. A more wide-open game will be seen this year and the boys are going to take a lot of punishment in giving that type of play to the spectators, however, I believe that with the material in hand that it will "pay off" in touchdowns.

Soil Conservation Service Advises Fencing Woodland

Turning cattle into woodlands is one way of turning the topsoil away from the farm, according to Wallace G. Smith, superintendent of CCC Camp SCS-14-Ky. On the other hand, he said, a fenced woodland is one of the most effective soil conservation measures known.

Farmers in Calloway county who have fenced woodlands to keep out grazing animals know that direct benefits result from this practice. Not only are their erosion problems solved on these fields, but a cash income frequently results from properly managed farm woods.

"At this time of the year, particularly, short pasture grasses often influence farmers to turn cows into farm woods, where their hooves trample the twig and leaf litter and compact the porous soil into a hard mass. As a result, hard rains tend to run off over the surface, and cause erosion. When woods are not grazed experiments show that as little as one per cent of the rain runs off a steeply sloping section of land."

"Another serious result of woodland grazing is the killing of young trees, which eventually cut down the value of the wood crop. Seedlings are grazed and the older trees are browsed or trampled."

Mr. Smith pointed out that local prices prevailing for fence-posts, cord wood, and lumber should cause farmers to consider whether woodland management to get tree crops can be a source of cash income. He referred to records kept by farmers which show that ordinary farm woods, carefully managed, can produce a long-time profit.

Why National Advertisers

USE THIS NEWSPAPER

People are interested in other people, especially in people they know. That's why hundreds of families in this community subscribe to this paper year after year.

On these pages they find the names of fellow townspeople, often their own. So besides the ordinary interest of nation-wide news, this newspaper offers the even greater reader-interest of local community doings.

National advertisers believe that by using these columns they are reaching the greatest number of substantial families in this community, reaching them at home and in an effective and friendly manner.

But this newspaper performs another important service: By displaying the advertising of local merchants side-by-side with the products of national advertisers these national products become identified with the local market, with local merchants.

In this way, on these pages is forged the important last link between the manufacturer and his local community dealer and their customers. That's why local buyer acceptance, for local dealer tie-up, local community newspapers are best.

McCuston School News

Old McCuston school house was the scene of another old-time crowd last Saturday night at the pie supper sponsored by the teachers, Otis Lovins and Mrs. Ruby Roberts.

For years it has been prophesied by pessimists that the exuberant school spirit for which McCuston neighborhood has long been noted would finally wane. Some have even believed that there would finally be no need for a two-room school to continue, but each year with the passing of a portion of the students others have immediately taken their places and every time that the teachers have needed the financial support and cooperation of outsiders, not only has the immediate vicinity responded loyally, but from every surrounding district has come crowds of people, old and young, just as in the days when it was said that if there were only a hog calling at McCuston everybody and his dog would be there.

Saturday night the many beautiful boxes of pies would have done credit to a high school and the humorous spirit in which Guy Lovins auctioned the pies was heartily matched in the good natured and generous crowd of boys who hid and bought as if at a hot cake sale.

Tickets for a basket of fruit were fairly grabbed at. The "pretty girl contest" was a momentary question to settle but ended in favor of Miss Edythe Sue Hicks and the "biggest footed man" after much hilarious rivalry between some cooperative good sports from the CCC Camp and some local boys, was decided to be Mr. Joe Dick McNutt.

All and all, the entire pie supper was a decided success, for plus fun and entertainment for all present the school reaped the total sum of $21.21.

We believe that if instead of having to move back a heavy partition to give even standing room in our ill planned and antiquated school room we had sufficient floor space to accommodate the crowds who come we could yet show you that instead of McCuston school dying, it could become the dangerous rival of many of the much larger schools.

On to softball, and while speaking in terms of that "much beloved" sport allow us to say, very shyly, Outland came down to our place last Friday afternoon and while we "fiddled" and fumbled in the field, they more accurately banded and "bingled" with the bat and the outcome was they beat us to the tune of 15-5, but look out friendly rivals for although we admit you are good sports, plus good ball players, yet we intend to step off the old stump, pour molasses in our hands and put those screws in reverse when we meet you on your diamond.

The third grade has completed their health booklets. Some were very good. English posters will be their next project.

The honor roll for the second month was as follows:

First grade, Joe Pat Glass, Gene Lovins, Louise Mohandro, Billie Joe Outland; second grade, Myra Brandon, Nancy Mohandro, Ben Cook, Charles Blalock, Linda Blalock; third grade, Charlie Lovins, Hilda Buchanan; fourth grade, J. R. Walker, Laura Nell Buchanan, Wilma Jo Lovins; sixth grade, Modena Wray, Burlene Wray, Geneva Lovins; eighth grade, Wayne Cook.

Woodlawn School News

As our eleventh week is approaching we are getting along nicely. We have had rather good attendance for the past 10 weeks. We hope it will be even better in the weeks to come. The teachers have been adding more beautiful health posters to our school room.

R. C. Stewart, our teacher, has secured a school room map and a new black board. We sure did need both. We have also added several photos to the school room.

Blue Brady, one of the sixth grade students, is rather ill at this writing.

Our committees are all at work improving the school room and grounds.

Our ball team was terribly disappointed last Friday when Vanleave failed to appear for the game.

Hafford Sills, our softball pitcher, is out of school with the mumps. Our team has played eight games this season. We have won 4 tied 1 and lost 3. Only one school has beaten us so far.

Most of us have done satisfactory work with little or no confusion among our 45 students. This is excellent for 10 weeks of school. Everyone please remember our pie supper Saturday night, September 23, at our school. Everyone is invited to come and bring someone else with you—Written by Edwin Stalls, fourth grade; Cassel Garrison, sixth grade; Buel Stalls, eighth grade, and Buel Stalls, also organizer. Substitutes for Glen Workman and Argentine Sills, organizers, both of the eighth grade.

Locust Grove News

Most of the men in this neighborhood are through cutting tobacco and the women are finishing their summer canning.

These few cool mornings which we have had have changed the neighborhood talk. Now you hear one man saying to another, "time to get wood," or "get to get coal" instead of the usual "hot coal isn't it."

Mr. and Mrs. Acree Miller and son, L. C., had as their guest Friday night Mr. Arthur Robertson.

Miss Della Cook has gone to Detroit to seek employment.

Many were the friends that were surprised to hear of the wedding of Miss Pawnee Burchett to O. J. Bedwell. Mrs. Bedwell is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Burchett and has been employed at Paducah for some time. Mr. Bedwell is employed in Detroit where they will make their home.

Mrs. Green Carson has been spending the week with Mrs. Pearl Peterson.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Tidwell and son, Billie Nelson, left last Friday for Detroit where they will look for work.

Mrs. John McElrath is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Peterson and family, and Miss Jo Nell McElrath in Detroit, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Patton and son, Alton, Arthur Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Wilkins, Miss Gracie Alexander, Miss Ruby Carson, and Damon Neale Carson were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Carson.

I think the county things will be the best to start on this time. I love the smell of yellow corn-hominy made with lye in a black wash pot.

The taste of new ribbon cane syrup scarcely cold from the pan. The touch of cotton bolls bursting like popcorn in the sun.

The sight of a young rooster perched on a fence trying to crow. The sound of autumn leaves falling in a gust of wind.

The knowledge that my country home is a haven where I can work for daily food and raiment, watch the miracles of sowing and harvest, and pray that always I may have eyes to see shining above my tasks a halo, a sense of values, which forbids my calling any work common or unclean. I love corn-shucking time, when neighbors are invited in to help and the dinner table is loaded with delicious food and hot coffee and everyone revels in jokes. I enjoy seeing the children get out in the yard on moonlight nights and play all kinds of games—"Bull Pen", "Molly, Molly Bright", and "Red Leaf". And then there is hog-killing time with eating crackling bread with sweet milk—but I had better begin with my local writing.

Mr. and Mrs. George Freeland and daughter attended the fair in Nashville, Tenn., Wednesday and Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Houston Todd of Detroit, Mich., and Mrs. Plez Ray of Puryear, Tenn., and Mrs. Mary McClure of Macedonia spent Tuesday afternoon by the bedside of Mrs. Kittle Simmons.

Mr. and Mrs. Almer Steel and daughter of Murray, spent the week with Mrs. Steel's sister, Mrs. Pete Wisheart of Macedonia.

"Uncle Jeff" Stubblefield, Mrs. Steel's brother, accompanied them home.

Mr. and Mrs. Errett Williams and son were Sunday dinner guests of Mrs. Williams' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Scarborough of New Providence.

Mrs. Ann Madey, who spent the summer with her sisters and brothers, returned Friday to her home in Detroit.

"Aunt Sis" McClure is very ill at this writing. We are hoping that "Aunt Sis" soon recovers. She is 89 years of age.

Brother Hester, of Jackson, Tenn., filled his appointment at Macedonia Saturday night and Sunday. Large crowds attended the church services.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Loving and Johnnie Simmons were in Murray Saturday on business.

Puryear Route 3

We had a nice rain Saturday that made us feel better and made all late crops look fresh.

The farmers around here have started picking cotton right rapidly.

Mr. and Mrs. Costy Bradley and little son, Jimmie, are leaving Tuesday for Memphis, where Mr. Bradley will be employed.

Adolphus Paschall's calf walked too near an old well last week and the well caved in carrying the calf with it. The calf was rescued safely.

Charles and Doyce Morris were made glad last Sunday when the following neighbor boys visited them to play games: Dick Nance, Calvin and Billie Gean Paschall, Tom and Duke Morrow, and Charles Humphreys.

Jim Hooper and Miss Emma Hooper attended church at Mill Creek Sunday.

Mrs. Era Orr, who has been ill with asthma for several days, was able to report is improving.

Fies Wicker is up again after a serious illness. He came to the home of his son, Charlie Wicker, Sunday to spend a few days.

Mrs. Henry Hooper is confined to her bed with illness.

Miss "Grasshopper" is sorry to see the cold weather. She thinks the frost will kill all the grass and weeds and that she may starve out.

Let's see how many chapters in the New Testament each of us can read this week.—Humming Bird.

S. Pleasant Grove

The following members of Pleasant Grove Missionary Society attended the all day missionary services at Murray last Tuesday:

Mrs. Bert Taylor, Mrs. Walter Jackson, Mrs. Eliza Gupton, Mrs. Lucian Gupton, Mrs. Ellis Paschall, Mrs. Shannon Ellis, Mrs. J. S. Smotherman, Mrs. Leslie Ellis, Mrs. J. R. Hayes, Mrs. Dennis Boyd, Mrs. J. O. Wraether, Mrs. J. M. Orr, Mrs. Tom Erwin, Mrs. Wayne Paschall, and Miss Viola Paschall. Several members of this society assisted in the play, "The Moslem World."

Besides many other interesting features of the program, we had the pleasure of hearing the Rev. Farris of the Hardin Charge, who with the Lord's assistance bids fair to do much for the advancement of God's cause. This young minister's wife was Miss Sallie Howard formerly of Lynn Grove.

Mrs. Pearl Denham, Mobile, Ala., Mrs. Sid Armstrong and Mrs. Minnie Bruce of Mayfield, and Mrs. Eliza Taylor, Hazel, who last Tuesday attended the funeral of their brother, Mitchell Flippo, at Hazel, spent last Thursday night with Mrs. Quittman Paschall and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Quittman Paschall and daughter, Miss Louise, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Paschall and Yuvon attended funeral services for their uncle, Mitchell Flippo, Tuesday.

T. W. Nesbitt is at the old stand at the creek today (Monday) making sorghum molasses for Cass Humphreys. This is the first crop for the season.

Social Etiquette

One of the missions of each person in this world is to make the pathway of others a little smoother, make them happier and their burdens lighter.

Too often in our one-sided thinking we forget this mission. We think only in terms of self, leaving our neighbor out. And as long as things are well with us, we have no special desire to make things better for others. In other words our thoughts are so much on self that we forget to think of how we may help others, and we drift into a rut of lazy mindedness toward others. Then we not only quit thinking of how to help others, but we forget the simple rules of social Etiquette.

It is a rule of social Etiquette that we meet everyone with a smile, and try to make everyone happier by having associated with us. The poet said:

"Laugh and the world laughs with you,
Weep and you weep alone.
For the old earth must borrow its mirth,
But has trouble enough of its own."

And again, "He that would have friends,
Must be one."

Then be a friend to those you meet by smiling and speaking some word of cheer, and if your condition is such that you can't do this, you should stay at home and let someone visit and cheer you.

We sometimes get so far from this idea of cheering people that we even tell sick people, "you look bad." "You are going down fast. You must be sick, you look wretched." "Well I will declare, I hardly knew you looked so much worse than when I saw you last." And to people who are nearing the century mark, we say, "How old are you Uncle Jim? You were an old man when I was a boy."

Did you know that such expressions as above mentioned are entirely contrary, not only to all laws of Psychology on health, but to social Etiquette. People resent being asked their age especially in public, likewise they are averse to being told that they are old, and if they feel bad certainly we should not make them feel worse by reminding them of their condition.

"Look bad or old," if they don't feel that

So if we can't tell people they look well or better, we shouldn't mention their condition at all. In fact we shouldn't talk to sick people about their ailments. Interest them in some other subject, then they will forget they are sick at least for the time.

Try to make people happy, and you will be happy, furthermore, you will save your manners.

MODERN BUSINESS EFFICIENCY

WHAT makes the wheels go 'round? Power? Men? Markets? All play an important part... but back of each separate factor lies the most important of them all... Capital.

Providing this necessary factor in modern business has become a specialized function, and from it has grown the business of banking as we know it today. And today's good bank must do more than accumulate and provide capital. Its interests must be as varied as those of its clients, its viewpoint as broad.

This bank has served business and industry in this community, serving always with progress in mind. In the continued expansion of the individual firms served by it is reflected the progress of this institution.

Last Saturday we were blessed with a good rain—the first in 23 days. Tobacco on side of the highway got “kivered” in dust and sand. Whoever chew it will have sand in his gizzard. I’ve sworn off.

First bridge on the new highway was begun last week in front of old “Eagle”. They will have to build more than 20, I guess. I can remember when there was NOT a bridge.

from Mayfield to Murray and it was a common thing to swim the rivers horseback. I “shore” did it once and only once.

While remodeling an old farm mansion for Mr. and Mrs. L. L. White of Holly Springs, Miss. two rocking chairs and a receipt to Mrs. S. Lowe was found in a concealed, haunted attic some 125 years ago. The attic had been nailed shut with plank all these years. I read this item in “The South Reporter”, Holly Springs, Miss.

And each dying ember has wrought its ghost upon the floor. There are 2,000 inmates in the asylum at Hopkinsville for treatment. Some of whom are peaceful and seemingly in their right mind, while others are raging to and fro waving their arms trying to “preach”, others cursing bitter oaths at the top of their voices. One fellow imagined that he was running a sawmill.

Richard Cocke and his “hustling boys” are moving rapidly onward, building the extra-broad Murray-Coldwater highway. “Swing low sweet chariot, comin’ for to bring me home”.

Last third Monday I thought it was fourth Monday in Murray so a friend took me to town. I noticed upon my arrival, that the big crowd was absent. Bert Sexton informed me “It was not 4th Monday-in-Murray”. There I stood on the burning deck, no way on earth to get back home. Everybody at home at work except smart elect “Eagle”. Well sir, Will Poyner a few years ago hitched up one Sunday morning and plowed it 10:30 a. m. thinking it was Saturday. His folks gave him a blessing out. Never in all our long lives have we been so humiliated.

Hope that “Alf” and “Old Glory” won’t read this—“Eagle”.

Turner's Store Is Redecorated

T. O. Turner finished last week the redecorating and remodeling of his basement store and now has remarkably handy compartments and shelves available for his trade materials.

Many of the modern fixtures recently added came from Rudy's Ready-to-Wear department store in Paducah. Many cabinets for stock goods and shelves for suits, shoes, and other dry goods are conveniently arranged in the store.

REVIVAL TO START

The Scott's Grove Baptist Church will begin a revival meeting Sunday, October 3, with the Rev. Tom Shelton conducting the services. Everyone is invited.

New Concord High School

Everyone is busy working hard as this is examination week. Exams in the different classes are scheduled throughout the week.

The students and community are feeling more hopeful about a new school building as bricks are being hauled. We do not know when repair work will start but we hope it will not be long.

We, as a students body, are glad to know that Mrs. Grey Dunn and Mrs. Clyde Sted are improving, and we hope this condition continues.

Sports

The New Concord boys' softball team was defeated for the first time Friday afternoon by the Hazel ten with a score of 15-11. The girls' team has yet to be defeated. We hope that at the end of the season they will still be undefeated. The outcome of this game with the Hazel girls was 7-0.

Both girls and boys' teams will go to Kirksby Friday, October 1, to play their teams.

The seventh and eighth grade softball team was defeated last Wednesday afternoon by McCushton School by a score of 12-9. Concord expects to return this game this week and we wish them much better luck.

Every farmer was very busy this past week cutting tobacco and still a lot of the week is out yet. We hope we can get it all cut this week for it is believed Old Jack Frost is near at hand. We trust that he stays away a few more weeks.

Mart Rodgers entertained a large number of folks in his nice, large field of soft Jap Sunday afternoon by permitting two airplanes have the field to play in. The planes were there from 10 a. m. till 6 p. m. carrying folks a jolly good ride. It was fun for everyone to see Mrs. Mart Rodgers take a nice ride, “she being faged and was very brave to take the venture. She enjoyed the ride very much. They were very nice to her and gave Mrs. Susie a free ride as the field belongs to them. Mr. Mart's children also took a nice ride. We are very glad to know that Mr. Mart and Mrs. Susie are quite young in ways although aged 50 years. Both rode in the plane and enjoyed it as much as young people.

We intended to attend Leiber Jones' colt show Saturday but the event was rained out, so we will be looking forward to next Saturday for his colt show.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Byars and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Hollon Byars visited Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Paschall Sunday and went to the airplane field.

Miss Eunice Paschall and a friend of near Oak Grove were here Sunday afternoon and went out to the field where the planes were landing. We were very glad to have them with us.

Luther Rodgers is doing nicely after a recent illness.

“Humming Bird”, we are glad to have you with us. We enjoyed your letter last week.

Junior, Senior One Act Play

Cole's Camp Ground

I hope every one is enjoying these cool fall mornings. As for myself, I like the fall and winter months best.

There are several crops of tobacco uncult as yet. I think most of the weed will be in the barn by the last of the week.

Archie Workman is able to be up some now. Mr. Workman has been ill for several weeks.

“Mrs. Robert Crouse is improving from an operation and is wanting to come home. She is now at the Mason Memorial Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Edwards attended the singing at Murray Sunday afternoon.

The news finally came here announcing the marriage of Miss Vera Morris to Chester Yarbrough. Mrs. Yarbrough is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Morris of Buchanan, Tenn. We know that Chester won't let his wife get lonely, since for he is one of those fine musicians.

Clay Brewer bought one of Mr. Gingle's farms, where Bernie Gingles lives now.

The fox are doing away with lots of chickens in this community. If they don't quit killing these women's chickens they declare they won't ever vote for another one for sheriff.

Mr. Gray Moore, his brother-in-law, and a nephew from Paris, Tenn. were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Moore Sunday. Bonnie and Elizabeth Crouse, Susie, Rubie Fay, and Truman Oliver were afternoon guests in the Moore home.

Mrs. Martha Adams was a dinner guest Wednesday of Mrs. T. A. Oliver and while there assisted Mrs. Oliver in sewing.

Several pounds of this high price cotton is being picked in this vicinity.

I don't think there will be any hungry stock here this fall as there is a lot of hay being stacked this season.

As news is scarce this week I think I will go for this time but will be with you again next week.

Some write for pleasure.

I write simply to sign my name.

Mrs. Will Guthrie Is Injured by Fall

Mrs. Sarah Guthrie, wife of Will Guthrie, well known farmer west of Murray, suffered a badly sprained hip in Mayfield last week when she fell down a flight of steps at the entrance to the office of Dr. C. C. C.

Mrs. Guthrie was removed to her home where she is resting as well as could be expected.

Kirksey Kinklets

After three weeks of hot, dry weather we had a refreshing shower Saturday. It helped the wheat and grass. Our pastures were very dry and the old cows were feeling the effects of the dry weather.

John Lawrence is recovering after several days of confinement with illness.

Mrs. Paris Swift is somewhat better at this writing. She was able to return to her home Sunday afternoon.

Tobacco is about all cut in this neighborhood, however, there is a little late tobacco yet uncult. Most of the tobacco is curing and has a fine color. The farmers are expecting a handsome price for the weed.

Jim Lawrence says he has in his possession the old family Bible that his great grandfather brought to this country and it was handed down through generations. Jim relates that its something like 150 years old and that the book is still in good condition with large print that can easily be read.

Moss Cunningham's daughter, Miss Geneva, went to Nashville, Tenn., last Friday week to enter college and on the following Sunday morning she was taken suddenly ill. College officials sent a telegram to her father to come at once. Her parent went at once and remained there a few days before returning here with their daughter. Miss Cunningham is threatened with appendicitis.

Misses Beulah and Myrtle Coleman are spending the week with their brother, Forest Coleman, near Penny.

The Rev. E. V. Underhill closed a revival meeting near LaCenter last week. He reports a good meeting.

Ollie Edwards and wife are all smiles as its a new dish washer at their home.

A large crowd attended the spelling at Stone Friday night. Elmoor's Attebury won a prize for being the best speller and Miss Dorothy Wilson was rated second best.

We are very sorry to hear that Mr. and Mrs. Oury Hurt and family are moving to Backsburg, this fall. They are surely good neighbors.

Miss Emily Johnson visited her sister, Mrs. Hardy Adair, and Mr. Adair last week end.

Miss Pauline Moore returned to her work in Nashville Monday morning after spending the week end at home—Grasshopper.

Sacrastal Plea

In this dim room I sit and hold my hands And wait for night to ease my heavy pain, And all my hopes, as shadows in a pool, Lie bruised within the wreckage of my heart.

This winging world that soars the empty skies, Parading through its hosts of timeless days, Lies free from fault when my overflowing love Backflows to faults made lovable in you.

You were to me the soul that guided earth In stellar passage through the zones of space, But with your loss my feeling vision turns

Past drunken planets to the grotesque moon And every beam refills my beating heart Which like a raging Neptune knows no rest.

I have no peace. There is no sleep

Officers Arrest

Fred Boatwright, held on two warrants in the county jail by law officers here, awaits extradition papers to legalize his being taken to Centralia, Ill., to stand trial for the malicious cutting of a resident there three months ago.

Sheriff Carl King and Deputy W. A. Parker arrested Boatwright, a former Calloway countian, at Pine Bluff Friday night after his wife had sworn to a warrant charging he had beaten her.
