Murray College Celebrates
Most Thrilling Homecoming

Hundreds of Former Students Are Guests of Various Campus Clubs

Murray State College celebrated its most satisfactory Homecoming Saturday.

Hundreds of graduates and former students congregated on the campus Friday afternoon and night in preparation for the Homecoming game Saturday afternoon with Mississippi College, long a rival of the Thoroughbreds, and they went away happy after seeing the rambling Racehorses do everything with the ball for a 43-0 victory. Five thousand persons saw the game.

Roll Call Leader

Murray's 80-piece band, brilliant in the execution of drill formations swept down the field at the half filling the air with the victory marches of Murray State. Miss Margaret Marshall, senior, band sponsor, led the parade in an ensemble of silver and blue.

President James H. Richmond spoke briefly to the crowd at half-time, assuring his listeners that they were welcome to the facilities of the college. He introduced Noble J. Gregory, Congressman from the First District, whose clear strong voice carried well over the loud speaker, especially installed to give a play-by-play account of the game.

After the game, eager Homecomers met in the beautiful lobby of the new hall where they were the guests of Miss Mayrell Johnson, college dean of women, and the student reception committee in a cordial reception given especially for their benefit.

Saturday night, LeRoy Offerman's collegiate dance orchestra furnished music for one of the biggest dances of the college year, sponsored by the students. More than 150 couples crowded the huge gymnasium floor in the John Wesley Carr health building, away to the delightful tunes of Murray's melody artists.

Twelve state patrolmen were stationed on duty throughout the day, directing the heavy traffic.

Rev. J. M. Jenkins
Addresses Studies

The students of Murray State College heard an interesting address in chapel Monday morning by the Rev. J. M. Jenkins, pastor of the First Methodist church of Murray. The minister's theme was "The Fear of the Lord is the Beginning of Knowledge."

Mr. Jenkins advised his listeners that without the aid of religion, no undertaking could be successful. With a true religious background, he stated, the college student is prepared to develop three highly beneficial qualities—the spirit of learning, the spirit of service, and the spirit of truth.

The chapel program was opened with a vocal selection sung by Charles Baugh, of Lynn Grove, a student at the college. He sang a baritone solo entitled, "Spirit of God." Mr. Baugh was accompanied at the piano by Phil Howard, Smithland.

Young Jeffrey Improves

A card received by Mr. and Mrs. William Jeffrey from the Hospital for Crippled Children said today that their son, William, Jr., who is convalescing there after treatment for the effects of infantile paralysis is improving rapidly and is enjoying playing with his toys.

DISTRICT PTA IS IN SESSION HERE

The First District Conference of Parent Teachers is in session in the Murray High School auditorium today for an all-day program. The theme for which is "The Community's Responsibility to Youth."

Fifty-five units are being represented in the program. Prof. W. B. Moser, president of the local association, has announced.

Mrs. Leland Owen, of this city, is president of the district PTA association. Many speakers are listed on today's bill. Schools and representatives from communities all over the First District are taking part in the program.

Births

Mr. and Mrs. William Elvin Lee, Almo, announce the arrival of a rollicking baby girl on Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Jones of the North Liberty community, are the parents of a son, Harry Alvin, born Wednesday.

Young People of
City to Broadcast

Misses Jane Jones, Jane Hale, and Rosemary Jeffrey, and Master Jean Ryan will broadcast from station WPAK in Paducah Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock, according to Mrs. T. R. Jones, who made arrangements with the radio station for the program.

Misses Jeffrey and Hale won first and second, respectively, in the amateur contest at the high school last Thursday night. Miss Jeffrey will tap dance, and the other three will do musical novelties.

REV. A. V. HAVENS
IS NEW ROLL CALL
HEAD OF RED CROSS

Stewart Will Teach First Aid Class at Murray State College

CHIEF ANNOUNCES EXECUTIVE BOARD

The Rev. A. V. Havens, pastor of the First Christian Church of Murray, was elected Chapter and Roll Call chairman of the local Red Cross in a meeting of the board of directors in the Red Cross room in the basement of the Murray Postoffice Monday afternoon.

Ronald Churchill was named vice-chairman; Mrs. J. D. Rowlett, recording secretary; Mrs. R. M. Pollard, treasurer; and Mrs. Bea Melugin, executive secretary.

According to an announcement by Mrs. Melugin, first aid classes will be organized soon in schools and civilian communities of Calloway county in an effort to make more widespread knowledge in the treatment and care of the sick or injured.

LYNN GROVE 'CATS
TO MEET PILOT OAK

Jeffreyden Will Open County Net Season Friday Night on Home Hardwood

Coach Buren Jeffrey's Lynn Grove Wildcats will initiate Calloway county's most popular winter sport—basketball—Friday night, October 29, when the strong Pilot Oak team will appear on the Lynn Grove floor.

In an interview with Coach Jeffrey, the coach stated that his team was well balanced and will put up a strong fight on the floor Friday night. Coach Buren Jeffrey said at Lynn Grove has year after year put up a good team and will put up a strong fight on the floor Friday night.

Legion to Meet
Thursday, Nov. 4

The Murray Post No. 73 of the American Legion will hold its regular monthly meeting at the Court House, Thursday night, November 4. All ex-service men are urged to be present.

The S. A. L. Drum and Bugle Corps is invited to be present at this meeting. Commander W. B. Milstead states that refreshments will be served and asks that a goodly attendance be present.

It is an urgent request that all old members of the Legion Drum and Bugle Corps turn in their membership cards and equipment promptly they might have belonging to the corps to George Williams as it is needed in the SAL Corps.

Mr. and Mrs. George McClure Celebrate
Golden Wedding Anniversary Sunday

On October 21, 1887, Miss Emma Verbing and Mr. George McClure were joined in wedlock. Last Sunday their large house near Highland rang with the cheer of a host of relatives and friends who came to honor them and to celebrate their golden wedding day.

Mr. McClure is 69 years old, and Mrs. McClure is 65. They have seven children: Clay, Alton, Crawford, Mrs. Annie Boyd, Mrs. May McKinney, Mrs. Cora Dowdy, and Mrs. Willie Williams. All the children were present Sunday except Mrs. Dowdy. This estimable couple received many lovely presents, and more than seventy-five guests enjoyed the abundant and delicious dinner. The afternoon was enlivened by social conversation and by the singing of the Sugar Creek quartet.

Among those who were present were: Mrs. Crawford McClure, Mr. and Mrs. Clay McClure, Mr. and Mrs. Alton McClure, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Albritton, Mr. and Mrs. Alton Micheaux, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Henslee, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bratton, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Gordon, Mrs. Eva Mae McDaniell, Mrs. Ida Bratton, Mabel Ellis, Tom Turner, and Owea Henslee.

Miss Lona Mae Ellis, Miss Kathleen Duncan, Miss Ethel Lee, Miss Dorothy Nell, Miss Ruth Miller, Miss Estelle Bogard, Miss Arlene Cunningham, Miss Dona Morris, Miss Mary and Vernon McClure, Miss Maloy Boyd, Miss Mildred McClure, Miss Myrlene Williams, Miss Faley McClure, Miss Lala Boyd, Miss Sarah Ruth, and Youlanda McClure, Misses Marie and Sue Ellis, Miss Pauline Hunt, and Miss Dean Stewart.

Romney Turner, Edward and Dolphus Phelps, Edward and Charles McClure, Roy Cunningham, Thomas Phelps, W. T. and Russell McClure, Jean and Max Williams, Lloyd and Jesse McKinney, Bobby Boyd, Curtis and G. W. McClure, Stanley Walker, and Thomas Bratton.

Afternoon callers were: Ralph Moss, Robert Owen, Arlen Wiloughby, and Alfred Houston, and Misses Armetta Turner and Moine Duncan.

Journalists Form
Frat at College

Offering an opportunity to its members for development of creative ability in the journalism field, Kipsa Pi, local honorary fraternity, was organized at a meeting in the library building Thursday morning, October 21. This is the first organization of its kind at Murray College.

WPA OFFICIALS SEE
MURRAY PROJECTS
ON INSPECTION TRIP

A delegation of 75 persons and 20 cars on a tour of inspection of WPA projects in Western Kentucky stopped in Murray Monday afternoon and viewed the projects supervised by Miss Elaine Ahart, Miss Mary Betty Patterson, and H. C. Doran, expressing keen pleasure with the units located here.

The group was led by Curba Deen, Madisonville, district supervisor of operations, and J. B. Badley, district director, also of Madisonville. First District Congressman Noble J. Gregory, Mayfield, accompanied the delegation.

UNIT'S ITINERARY IS COMPREHENSIVE

The cavalcade's first day's itinerary included Heath, Barlow, Cayce, Shawnee schools; Bardwell, Clinton, Mayfield, and Murray streets; the Graves county road program; the Murray State park and curb and gutter projects. The men spent the night in Paducah.

They continued the second day's tour with inspection of the area of Raducah, Morganfield, and spent Tuesday night in Owensboro; leaving there Wednesday morning for Louisville, where they will spend the night in the latter city. Today, their itinerary calls for Elkhorn, Paducah, and from there on Friday they will go to Louisville, leaving there Saturday for Greenville, and returning to Bowling Green Saturday night where they will disband.

RICHMOND SOLICITS
AID IN LESSENING
RECKLESS DRIVING

Tells Students in Chapel Speech He Does Not Oppose Hitch-Hiking

SUGGESTS AUTOS
STOP OFF ROADWAY

President James H. Richmond in a chapel address before the students of Murray State College Wednesday morning expressed his belief that reckless driving of cars was one of the most serious threats to the safety of the community, and he urged the students to take action to curb it.

With reference to certain student criticism that the move which would place patrolmen on the streets was a move to curb reckless driving, Richmond said he had never intended to "it is not an obligation," he said, "to a pleasure to carry students to the curb or off the road."

But he qualified his statement by reminding the students that he knew of "no more dangerous highway in this state than the one leading from Riley's Grocery to the Courthouse Square in Murray." It is too narrow for the amount of traffic, he said, and he added, "It is only a Kentucky that did not have a single printed word that would tell a driver how he was approaching a college or a school zone."

HOUSE NUMBERING BEGINS

Beginning today Hobert Graham will number the houses of Murray correctly. He has been named by the City Postmaster H. T. Waldrop, and the Young Business Men's Club to do this important task.

The numbers, ample to supply the city, arrived Wednesday. The cost for the numbers will be five cents each. It is urged that all persons cooperate in this city-wide movement, which will take at least two weeks.

SHERIFF SEIZES STILL

Sheriff Carl Kings and Deputies Joe and Albert Parker captured a 100-gallon still two miles west of Newburg Monday afternoon.

Two men, operating the whiskey making apparatus, fled in escape through flight, but Sheriff Kings indicated he knew the identity of both and would issue warrants for their detention soon. With the still were found eight barrels of mash and 10 gallons of whiskey.

Education Week
To Be Celebrated
By City Schools

Murray High School and the Training School will celebrate National Education Week from November 7 through November 13 jointly and conjointly. City School Superintendent W. J. Caplinger announced today.

Committees for both Training School and high school are working zealously in an effort to synthesize a suitable and desirable program for the week. The general theme of the week's sessions will be "Education and Our National Life."

The topic for each day's discussion as outlined by the NEA is as follows: Sunday, "Can We Educate for Peace?"; Monday, "Buying Educational Service"; Tuesday, "Educational Mann Centennial"; Wednesday, "Our American Youth Problem"; Thursday, "Schools and the Constitution"; Friday, "School Open House Day"; and Saturday, "Life-long Learning."

This newspaper will publish the entire program in detail next week.

Stewartmen Are Doped to Win Seasonal Battle at Dyersburg Friday Night

Determined to keep their slate in SIAA competition clean, and anxious to gain revenge for a 20-7 defeat handed them last year by Union University at Dyersburg, Tenn., Murray State's Thoroughbreds will meet the Bulldogs of Union University Friday night at Dyersburg.

All available dope points to the Thoroughbreds as winners, but when Murray and Union get together, the team that fights the harder is usually the victor. This season, Union is under a new coach, and is just beginning to adopt his style of playing. Hampered by early season injuries to certain key men, the Bulldogs, led by Bill Bledsoe, are ready for their big test of the season against Murray.

Over 600 Union fans will go to Dyersburg Friday on a special train. Murray rooters who are chartering a train, will turn out en masse for the contest, traveling by bus and car. The team will leave Murray with the bar 2-22:30 p.m. Saturday at one o'clock. They will be followed by fans later in the afternoon who will remain to see Murray's junior Hilltoppers in the Murray stadium at two o'clock.

Coach Stewart will not start Lacey Dowdley sophomore, or Bill McRaven, great half for the Bulldogs, because he is not sure that they have thoroughly recovered from the injury they sustained in a racehorses race at the end of the season. Bledsoe and Mitchell at full. Miller, freshman coach, says that his boys will be "lucky" to hold Western's team after they have finished work with the varsity. They are in bad physical shape, four men being out due to injuries.

The Rev. Ernest Roach received dismissal from the Mason Hospital this week after undergoing surgery there.

Local Kroger Store
Wins Sales Prize

Manager Clyde Brown of the local Kroger's grocery and meat department received word Tuesday that his store had won the largest of highest sales in its store group for the past year. The contest was known as the 1937 President's Cup Contest and his store was in competition with four Paducah stores and two in Illinois.

Mr. Brown stated that it was through the courtesy of his customers that his sales were the highest in the group division. He was very much pleased with the information of winning and wanted to thank each and every customer for their trade which made this possible.

Assisting Mr. Brown are James Jones, meat cutter, and Hafford Adams, clerk.

The advertising for this store was handled by The Ledger & Times.

Man Dies of Heart
Trouble in Clinic

Rice A. Henderson, 36, died at the Key-Houston Clinic of heart trouble Tuesday morning after an illness of two weeks. His home was in New Concord.

A son and daughter survive him. The daughter is Mrs. J. R. Christian, and the son is Guy Henderson, both of Calloway county. Two brothers, John J. Henderson, Paris, Tenn., and Neale Henderson, of Paducah, also survive.

Although Mr. Henderson was not a member of any church, his preference was for the Methodist faith, according to reports from his family.

Funeral services were held Wednesday at the Killbuck Cemetery, at which place he was buried.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Cole Celebrate

Wins Sales Prize

Manager Clyde Brown of the local Kroger's grocery and meat department received word Tuesday that his store had won the largest of highest sales in its store group for the past year. The contest was known as the 1937 President's Cup Contest and his store was in competition with four Paducah stores and two in Illinois.

Mr. Brown stated that it was through the courtesy of his customers that his sales were the highest in the group division. He was very much pleased with the information of winning and wanted to thank each and every customer for their trade which made this possible.

Assisting Mr. Brown are James Jones, meat cutter, and Hafford Adams, clerk.

The advertising for this store was handled by The Ledger & Times.

Man Dies of Heart
Trouble in Clinic

Rice A. Henderson, 36, died at the Key-Houston Clinic of heart trouble Tuesday morning after an illness of two weeks. His home was in New Concord.

A son and daughter survive him. The daughter is Mrs. J. R. Christian, and the son is Guy Henderson, both of Calloway county. Two brothers, John J. Henderson, Paris, Tenn., and Neale Henderson, of Paducah, also survive.

Although Mr. Henderson was not a member of any church, his preference was for the Methodist faith, according to reports from his family.

Funeral services were held Wednesday at the Killbuck Cemetery, at which place he was buried.

Utterback School

By Aline Wilson

We have received our report cards for the third month and we are now working in the fourth month.

We enjoyed entering the fair at Alto very much. We were proud of the blue ribbons that we received.

We had planned to have a picnic Wednesday afternoon, but as it rained we all enjoyed the feast in the school house.

We have five new students this month. They are Linda Johnson, Geneva Johnson, Alice Brandon, Elsie Brandon, and Johnny Brandon.

The honor roll for the third month is as follows:

First grade: James Thomas Rose, George Oliver Parrish, second grade: Billie Williams, third grade: June Williams, fifth grade: Edward McMillen, sixth grade: W. Wilson, Sarah Calhoun, eighth grade: Aline Wilson, Josephine Williams, N. P. Paschall.

Murray Route V

Jack Frost really paid us a visit last week and the snow Saturday surely looked wintry.

Several persons from this community attended the fair at Murray Friday and Saturday.

Zelma Farris received a $5 prize on his tobacco entry at the fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Elkins and Mrs. Nellie Oliver of New Providence were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. York Sunday.

Mrs. L. D. Laville and children, Ralph and Frances, visited Misses Lola and Mary McCushton of the Blood River community Saturday night and Sunday.

Miss Lola came home with them for a few days' visit and also to attend services at the M. E. Church at New Providence, which was rained out last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Hardy Wilson and son, Dean, attended church at Mason's Chapel Sunday and took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Wilson and daughter, Jane.

Mr. and Mrs. Leland Strader and sons, Billy Joe and Orvis, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Freeland and son, Elwyn, attended a birthday dinner in honor of Mrs. Vera Swor-Ppels Sunday at Hazel.

A birthday dinner was given W. A. Morris Sunday by the family. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Chester Simmons, Mrs. Laura Simmons and granddaughter, Elizabeth Sewers, Mr. and Mrs. Marmon Simmons and family, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Morris and son, Morris, Mr. and Mrs. George Linville and family, Miss Ola Lynn is visiting in Murray this week.

Havens Preaches on Japanese Boycott

"The Japanese Boycott," will be the current-interest subject of the sermon of A. V. Havens, minister of the First Christian Church, at the Sunday night church service, next Sunday.

"If Christ is the Prince of Peace," said Mr. Havens, in speaking of the sermon, "it appears that it is high time that His followers give some real consideration to the present-day application of His gospel of peace on earth and goodwill toward men."

What is the significance of the President's Chicago speech? Should America quarantine Japan? Should the United States join with other nations to form a permanent organization to maintain the peace of the world? What of the League of Nations? Should America enter another war to end war? Will American women refuse to wear silk hose? These and other questions, Mr. Havens stated, "will be considered in the sermon."

It is planned that at next Sunday night's service, a special feature will be inaugurated which will be known as "Words and Music." The service will begin at 7:30.

"Jesus' Greatest Desire," will be the sermon at the Sunday morning worship service, which will begin at 10:45.

The Sunday School, led by Superintendent George S. Hart, will meet, Sunday morning at 9:30.

The Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor and the Junior Christian Endeavor Society will meet at 6:30, Sunday evening.

The Mid-Week Meeting will be held Wednesday night at 7:30.

COLE'S CAMP GROUND CHURCH

There will be no services at the Camp Ground Church Sunday, October 31. Everybody is invited to the service on Sunday afternoon, November 7, which will be the last service of the conference year.

E. V. Underhill, pastor.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Subject for the morning church service is, "Glorifying in the Cross of Christ," evening subject: "Triumph or Tragedy?"

Baptismal service will be held at 7:30 p. m. The evening service follows immediately.

Sunday School with classes for all ages taught by competent, faithful teachers in separate rooms, and directed by faithful officers.

Dr. H. M. McElrath, superintendent.

Baptist Training Union meets at 6:25, with Unions for all ages, specially prepared program rendered by each Union in separate rooms.

R. W. Churchill, director.

Mid-week meeting at 7:30 every Wednesday evening. This meeting is one of the most important of all the church meetings, coming as it does between the two Lord's Day services. The members with their families, neighbors and friends are welcome.

One of the helpful features of the services of our church is the soulful singing of the old time gospel songs, such as were sung by the Christians in the days long since passed when the souls of God's people were tried as in the furnace heated seven times hotter than it was wont to be heated; certainly God's untried hosts need to be strengthened for today by these old songs written under inspiration, for our benefit.

The gospel is today as it has ever been the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth.

The church and pastor extend a cordial invitation to every one to worship with us here whenever possible. Come thou with us and we will do thee good.

supervisor, with a surprise birthday luncheon and shower in the sewing room Wednesday at noon. The party came as a complete surprise to the barely 24-year old supervisor, as Mrs. Lucy Coleman, one of her workers, carried her to Ryan's store at 11:30 ostensibly to look over dress patterns, and in the interim her co-workers set the stage for the party.

Fruits, cakes, sandwiches, and numerous other delectable foods decked the two beautifully decorated tables in the center of the long work hall. Pink candles decorated the tables, and in the center of the birthday table was a basket of chrysanthemums and gladioli. At one end of the table were piled the gifts of the sewing room women with a beautiful birthday card in honor of Miss Ahart attached to them.

Mrs. Robinson Receives Shower

Mrs. Oscar Robinson, whose house and contents were destroyed by fire recently, was the recipient of many nice gifts at a shower tendered her by fifty-two of her friends and neighbors. The shower was held at the North Pleasant Grove Church last Wednesday. A number of her friends who were unable to attend sent gifts.

The ladies met in the morning and quilted two quilts, after which they held a pot luck luncheon, and the shower was held in the afternoon.

Hold Family Reunion

Sunday was enjoyed in a family reunion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Adams. Those that were present were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Simmons, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Oliver, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Adams, Rubie Fay Oliver, J. E. M. Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. Noble Simmons, and Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Adams. A nice dinner was served in the cozy little dining room and the day was spent in conversation and enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Robinson Honors Contest Entrants

Mrs. Talmadge Robinson entertained Monday night at Top Hat Inn honoring Miss Miss Irene Watkins, Miss Jane Hale, sponsored by them in the amateur. A chili supper with cold drinks was served to Miss Irene Watkins, James Dale Clifton, Miss Jane Hale, Garnett and Mrs. Ryan, Annie Lee Gatlin and Virgil Robertson.

College Socials At Homecoming Are Outstanding

The Portfolio Club held a luncheon Saturday at noon at the home of Mrs. Mary McCoy Hall. Present members and all former members were invited. After a delightful luncheon, new members were initiated. An interesting program was given by the initiates.

There were about twenty-five present.

Shower Honors Mrs. Overbey

A lovely shower was given for Mrs. Prentice Overbey at her home Wednesday afternoon. October 20. A contest was given of which Miss Lucy Lee was awarded a lovely gift as winner. W. Dickerson, a member of the committee.

A comprehensive program has been arranged, Dickerson said. The Reverend Mr. Hubbard will address the congregation Tuesday afternoon, November 23, on "Evils of Immersion", and the Reverend Mr. Wilson will deliver the night's sermon.

Workers Finish Mausoleum For Swann Saturday

The huge marble mausoleum, authorized by the family of Warren Stanley Swann after his death last December, was completed and the family Saturday morning by workers of the Murray Marble Works.

The beautiful grey stone monument which required three months to build is 15 feet by 20 feet high and 16 feet by 22 feet long. Its grills and doorway are of heavy bronze, and in the back is a colored granite glass window for designs symbolic of the Cross.

Just inside the massive doorway is a white vertical marble slab which bears the horizontal inscription: "Warren Stanley Swann, born August 12, 1878. Son of Sarah Frazier and Elihu Swann; married December 21, 1904 to Grace Adele Gatlin. Died January 16, 1937."

Beneath it is the poetic tribute: "Thy singleness of soul that made me proud."

Thy purity of heart I loved aloud.

Thy man's truth I was bold to bid God see."

On another slab far below is another inscription: "Warren Stanley Swann, Jr., son of Gray Gatlin and Warren Stanley Swann, born March 20, 1911; died November 14, 1936. And below is the legend "Of such is the kingdom of God."

At the back end of the vault, engraved in the deep granite of the basaltic stone, is the quotation from the Bible: "Eye hath not seen nor ear heard, neither have entered into the mind of man the things which God hath prepared for them that love him."

The erection of the marble slabs on the mausoleum required six weeks of effort.

reduce our standing in party government in next state campaign.

This is no big campaign—no money is being spent, but all want General Meredith re-elected to fill out unexpired term.

Callie Hale has no opposition, but should have a full vote.

I hope the amendment on the big ballot will get a vote. It is necessary to get a two-thirds vote to pass. I am for the amendment on the separate sheet, but not so interested as the one "off the big ballot."

TIGERS TO OPPOSE FULTON TONIGHT

Coach Ty Holland's Men Are In Readiness, Although Injuries Keep Stars Out

The Murray High School Tigers will meet the Bulldogs of Fulton High School tonight at 7:30 o'clock on the Murray high school field. The game was originally scheduled for Friday night, but was postponed because of rain.

The game Thursday night rather than the original date will be done, he said, for the convenience of the fans wanting to journey to Dyersburg for the Murray State-Union Union game to be played there Friday night.

Although emerging from the scoreless game with Marion with no injuries, the Tiger squad will still be hampered by the absence of Puckett, star linebacker, whose injuries received in a recent game will keep him from taking part in the melee tonight. Holland said that McNutt, first string center, may not see service in the Fulton conflict because of illness, and the coach indicated he may not even dress.

Both the Murray Tigers and the Fulton Bulldogs have beaten Metropolis by close margins, and hope would indicate the battle tonight will be a fight to the finish. A large out-of-town crowd is expected.

Coach Holland will start the following lineup: Mahan, L.E. Oakley, J.T. Huie, L.G. Hart, C. Faris, R.G. Crider, R.T. Gardner, R.E. Cutchin, Q.B. Jones, H.B. Gingles, H.B. and Buchanan, P.B.

A model illustrating the various operations of the Columbia River salmon fishing industry, is planned for the 1939 Golden Gate International Exposition at San Francisco.

Complete Service

is a matter of interpretation and in keeping with our reputation for rigid adherence to our own professional standards, we choose to interpret "complete service" as meaning "everything regardless of price."

Of course the cost is determined by your choice of appointments.

Young People of Memorial Church Form Auxiliary

The Young People of the Memorial Baptist Church met Sunday evening in the congregation hall of the new church building and organized Young People's Auxiliary for the purpose of promoting an interest in the Bible and to study certain Biblical texts in relation to everyday living.

John Travis, a senior in Murray State College, was elected president of the group. Harold Farley, vice-president; Robbie Clark, secretary; and Virginia Williams, treasurer. Miss Ruby Carolyn Wilson and Miss Ocie Mae Owen are leaders of the program committee.

The Bible study group will meet at 7:30 in the congregation hall of the Memorial Baptist Church every Sunday evening.

Coldwater Junior High School

By Frances Fuqua

A large crowd attended the free program last Friday night. We hope every one enjoyed themselves and will continue coming to our programs. The presence of all were appreciated.

We are expecting a large crowd to attend "The Elders' Contest" at Coldwater Junior High School Friday night, October 29. All musicians are cordially invited. The program of the night has been well arranged and bills are being given out. See one at once.

Community Day
Mr. Hurt has made his selections from the Intermediate grades for the ones he intends to enter in our community day. They are as follows:

Eight grade spelling, Violet G. Rodgers, sixth grade spelling, Lowell Adams.

Solo, Cody Adams; duet, Dorothy Carter and Cody Adams.

Boys' editorial, throwing, J. T. Tidwell; girls' softball, throwing, Anna Fay Adams.

Broad jump and reading entries were selected Tuesday.

Besides numerous entries in agriculture, there will be a complete household division.

The primary honor roll for this month is as follows:

First grade, Jean Darnell, June Adams, Doris Enoch, Bobby Gene Wilson, Nettie Jo Handline, second grade, Charles Rob Adams, third grade, Robbie Lee Easley, Harold Lloyd Darnell, Bettie Jo Cochran, Maudeen Yates, fourth grade, Dorothy Mae Morgan, Rebecca Youngblood, Bernice Easley, Bobbie Rodgers.

Licensed to Wed
The county clerk issued marriage licenses to the following persons during the week:

Johnnie B. Phillips, 38, Murray, to Rudelle Bryant, 29, Murray.

Harry Jeffrey, 18, Murray, to Dorothy Wilkinson, 16, Murray.

Spencer Yates, 21, Paducah, to Mattie Lou Howard, 21, Calverton.

And nothing turns out right until someone makes it his job to see that it does. That's why we need leaders in our churches to see that their program is carried forward.

And another thought is to get out of debt and stay out of debt. Then we will all be friends.

And speaking of friends let's not forget our home coming program. Let's continue to ask our friends to come and visit us in Murray, and see what a fine Christian community we have.

JUST JOTS By John

Senator Barkley in his Newark, New Jersey, address last Friday spoke a truth when he said, "America must find some way of employing all of the people three quarters of the time rather than three quarters of the people all the time and let one quarter remain wholly unemployed."

He declared that there is not going to be war in Europe for a long time, and said there was no good reason for the little slump in the stock market.

Western Kentucky should be proud of its favorite son and the prominent place he exercises in national affairs.

The Calloway County Fair and the board of directors are to be congratulated. It was a very successful event which all enjoyed very much. With this year's successful fair, history, it should urge us to try for a greater one next year. Your editor enjoyed it very much as it gave him an opportunity to get acquainted with many of the farmers of the county. And don't forget he would like to meet everyone of you personally. You're welcome to drop into the Ledger & Times office anytime.

And with good farm prices, there is a real joy in working and producing more. And remember, only those who get joy out of their work know what real happiness is. No one loves a loafer.

And no matter what vocation anyone is in, there are always leaders, whether they be farmers, business men, teachers, or social workers. But who is the real leader? The one who is able to find in a crowd because they usually look so undistinguished. Pretenders are not the ones who make the wheels go around. It's the unassuming man or woman who gets things done, and does not seek personal praise who is the distinguished leader, and deserves our silent praise.

And did you ever stop to think—it's the fellow who needs advice himself, who hands it out to everybody.

A wise man studies others so that he can learn from their mistakes and at their expense.

One of the best ways to get most out of life is to look upon it as an adventure. It's the venturesome spirit that leads to discovery, and success. But to be a foolhardy dare is not common sense. We can be venturesome and yet practical.

And nothing turns out right until someone makes it his job to see that it does. That's why we need leaders in our churches to see that their program is carried forward.

And another thought is to get out of debt and stay out of debt. Then we will all be friends.

And speaking of friends let's not forget our home coming program. Let's continue to ask our friends to come and visit us in Murray, and see what a fine Christian community we have.

Your Business WHAT'S THE NEWS?

The City of Murray has been improving Vine Street between 8th and 8th this week. New grade and drain and a new surface of gravel makes this street much improved.

The College Boulevard is getting its final work this week. Workmen are topping the space that was not surfaced when this street was recently opened. Lack of material was the cause of this short space not being finished sooner.

The west wall of Dale & Stubbins on North 5th street is receiving a coat of plaster this week. This will make the old brick wall look much different as well as be warmer for the occupants of the building.

H. I. Sleds has begun his new home on North 5th street. This Clayburn Adams is constructing a new home on North 5th street.

Mrs. Swann Will Speak at College on "Life Abroad"

Mrs. Warren Stanley Swann will address the convention of the Kentucky Home Economics Association at 1:30 Saturday afternoon at the chapel of the administration building of Murray State College on the subject "Life Abroad," it was announced here this morning.

Immediately after Mrs. Swann's address, Margaret Morehouse of New York City, in charge of the Textile Education Bureau, will be in charge of a fashion review, in stead of Miss Winger as previously announced, after which a Murray home economics graduate, Mrs. Leone Rutledge Carroll, Harrington, Ill., will speak on "Vocational Opportunities."

Visitors are then invited to a tea at the home demonstration house on the college campus.

Country Woman And Doctor Get Building Samples

Demonstration samples of floride enamel and brush given away by the Calloway County Lumber Company at the county fair last Friday and Saturday were received by Mrs. Froie Bogges, of Murray, and Dr. E. D. Fisher, of the Mason Hospital staff, respectively, the lumber corporation announced today.

Demonstrations in new building appliances and materials were features of the show put on by the lumber company.

Dear Voters of the City of Murray:

November 2 is an important date to every citizen of Murray, for it is then that you have the privilege of going to the polls and participating in the selection of those who will serve as your public servants. It is my desire to serve you diligently in this capacity—your City Judge. In your choosing me for this important post, I shall always be grateful—grateful to the extent that I shall devote my time and energy to the faithful administration of the affairs and duties of the office, as well as my appreciation for the bestowal of honor.

Since August I have endeavored to see again all the voters, and if I have failed to see you personally, please consider this as a final appeal for your support and influence. I shall never forget your kindness and encouragement throughout my campaign.

You have only a few days left until this campaign will come to a close. If you believe me capable, deserving and sincere in my appeal to serve you as City Judge I earnestly solicit you to go to the polls Tuesday, November 2, and vote for

Woodmen to Hold Meet in Mayfield

Members of the Woodmen of the World Camp at Mayfield announced this week that another fine district meeting of Woodmen of the Purchase will be held in the spacious Lodge Hall at Mayfield on Friday night, November 5.

The Mayfield Camp will be host to the visiting camps and a fine program is being planned by the local committee under the leadership of Judge-elect W. H. Crowder, Jr., and A. E. Wilson, special representative for WOV in Mayfield.

A large class of candidates will receive the Protection Degree of Woodcraft. All officers will be outfitted in new robes and the initiation will be inspirational and impressive.

The hundreds of Woodmen who attend the district meetings at Mayfield will look forward with eagerness to the fun that the splendid "Side-degrees" team of Mayfield always provides; and all are invited to be on hand again for this special occasion.

County Purchases Cloth For Local Sewing Project

Miss Elaine Ahart, supervisor of the WPA sewing project in Murray, said today that the county had purchased 1,000 yards of domestic, 500 yards of print, 500 yards of shirting, and 500 yards of outing to be used by the unit in making clothing supplies for the needy.

Miss Ahart said the project will make dresses, undergarments, shirts, and sleeping clothes from the materials.

Miss Lorena Dempster, assistant district supervisor from Madisonville, visited the project Monday, and was present with Miss Ahart to greet the state WPA inspection tour delegates Monday afternoon. State Senator T. O. Turner was also on hand to welcome the visitors, as also was Mayor Foreman Graham.

The project had on display men's garments, which was its unit of work at that time. The delegation expressed its deep gratification at that time. The delegation did appearance and industry of the sewing unit.

Land Sales Splurge in Faxon Community

Land sales were prominent in the Faxon Community during the last week. Raymond Phelps sold a 47½ acre tract of land to Arthur Hardie, and in turn, bought his father's place, a 65 acre plot, according to Clyde Phelps, Faxon, executor of the late T. A. Phelps' estate. T. A. Phelps was his and Raymond Phelps' father.

In addition, according to Phelps, Raymond Hargrove sold 43 acres to George Willoughby, of near Faxon, and in turn bought a rather large tract of land from Sam Giles for a satisfactory consideration.

-VOTE FOR-

F. B. CROUCH

for one of the three new members of the COUNTY BOARD OF EDUCATION

Next Tuesday, November 2, 1937

Mr. Crouch is a public-spirited young man with a fine record of public service. He is genuinely interested in the success of the Calloway County School System from the standpoint of the Patron, the Teacher and the School Child.

He has already been proven. Vote for him and you will make no mistake.

Home Economics Association To Meet at Murray College

MISS DIXIE STONE, MURRAY, IS STATE PRESIDENT OF CLUB

Group Will Convene Friday and Saturday of This Week

MANY ARE LISTED TO GIVE ADDRESSES

The Kentucky Home Economics Association will hold its annual fall meeting Friday and Saturday of this week on the campus of Murray State College, 1115 N. Dix, Richmond, Ky., president of the association, announced today. One of the chief speakers on the 2-day program will be Miss M. Landess, assistant director of Agricultural Relations Department of the Tennessee Valley Authority, Knoxville, Tenn. His subject will be "Team Work."

Others listed on the program include: Florence Mann, home economist of the General Electric Supply Corporation, Louisville; Dr. Herbert Drennon, head of the Murray College English department; Ellen Pennell, home editor of the Country Home Magazine, New York; Gladys Winegar, Textiles Education Bureau, New York; Mrs. Leone Rutledge Carroll, Jewel Homesteaders Institute, Barrington, Ill.; and a speaker selected from Murray.

Miss Evelyn Slater, acting head of the home economics department at Murray State, has charge of arrangement for entertaining the visiting delegations. Miss Dixie Stone, Winchester, Ky., president of Murray and president of the State Student Home Economics Clubs, said today that the student groups would have their meeting at the same time here. High school and college students are members of this organization.

The program for the Kentucky Home Economics Association follows:

Friday—6:30 p. m., Banquet in Wells Hall. Guest speakers: Dr. Herbert Drennon, "Team Work," W. M. Landess, Social Hour.

Saturday—9 a. m., Business Meeting. "Living with Electricity," Florence Mann; "Leisure Time Activities for the Rural Child," Ellen Pennell; 1:30 p. m., address by Murray speaker, Fashion Revue, Gladys Winegar; "Vocational Opportunities for the Home Economics Graduate," Mrs. Leone Rutledge Carroll; Tea by Murray Home Management Students.

Mr. Landess attended the University of Tennessee, University of Missouri, and Cornell before becoming connected with the TVA.

To Speak at Home Economics Meet

W. N. LANDESS

He was formerly county agent of Shelby, and Hamilton counties in Tennessee.

Brooks Chapel School News

This week ends four months of our school, and as this is test week we will all be looking forward to getting our report cards. Our attendance for the last two weeks has been excellent. We are striving to see which one will receive the most gold stars. Doris Culver was absent a few days last week on account of illness. Whooping cough has kept several out of school. But most all are back in school now.

Visitors last week were Mrs. Lola Jones and Miss Mary Opal Jones. We are always glad to have visitors.

We regret very much to see one of our students, Walda Biffle, move to Murray.

We are glad to have our new student, Mary Nell Haley, who has been attending school at Dexter.

There will be a school program here next Friday night, October 29. The program will consist of dialogues, speeches, and some musical numbers. Everyone is invited. Admission free.

The 1939 Golden Gate International Exposition, travel, experts believe, will bring about the greatest westward surge of visitors in history.

RED CROSS ROLL CALL WILL BEGIN ON NOVEMBER 11

Murray Organization Already is Making Plans for Membership Quota

CIVIC GROUPS TO AID IN CAMPAIGN

The roll call of the American Red Cross will be held this year from November 11 to November 25, a Washington news dispatch said today, but work already has started in Kentucky and Calloway county, with many district meetings already held in furtherance of organization for the actual roll call which will end November 25, starting on Armistice Day.

In recent years the Washington report says, no state in the Union, perhaps, in proportion to population, has ever been better looked after in times of stress than has Kentucky. The Red Cross is the only organization ready to act at a minute's notice in case of emergencies, because of its army of volunteers, its nurses, its physicians, and the only organization in America which can command so large a body of unpaid workers as was called into service in Kentucky during the flood last winter, the worst disaster that has hit Kentucky in many years.

Some idea of the magnitude of the flood problem, in Kentucky alone, and the Red Cross helped in all the flooded states—the report discloses, may be gained from the figures showing what was spent in Kentucky by the Red Cross in rescue, rehabilitation work, nursing and sanitation as a result of the greatest flood in the history of the Ohio River Valley. The total of Red Cross expenditures in Kentucky in accordance with flood exclusive of employed relief workers and field supervision, was $9,241,500, according to a recent summary.

Ministers of all the churches in Kentucky, as in former years, are expected to aid in the annual roll call for 1937. Some of the leading stores and other newspaper advertisers will use a part of their space to urge general joining of the American Red Cross. Mrs. Bea McLaughlin, local Red Cross secretary, made known recently.

In a meeting in Red Cross headquarters Tuesday, Mrs. McLaughlin with several of her advisers, discussed the advisability of various approaches in the annual Roll Call drive for which will be begun soon. The organization plans to operate through the civic clubs of Murray and the churches of the county.

CHURCH OF CHRIST

Lord's Day: Bible study at 9:45, preaching at 1:50 and 7:00 o'clock.

Week day services: Prayer meeting 7:00 p. m.; Young People's Bible class Thursday 7:00 p. m. and Bible class for ladies Friday 2:30 p. m.

"The Parable of the Tares" will be discussed at the morning worship. "The First Miraculous Draught of Fishes" will be the subject at the evening service.

There will be a 40 minute song practice at the close of prayer meeting Wednesday night. Let us "Sing and make melody in our hearts unto the Lord."

Robert S. Jones Is Made Director of State Merchants

Robert S. "Duck" Jones, prominent resident of Murray, and operator of Jones Drug Co., was elected as a member of the board of directors of the Kentucky Merchants Association at that body's annual meet Tuesday at the Brown Hotel in Louisville. It was announced here today.

Other members of the board of directors are George J. Runge, Jr., Paducah; Charles Rhodes, Paducah; W. L. Lynch, Bardwell; V. B. Alexander, Cadiz; H. M. Vance, Clinton; J. Ray Graham, Fulton; E. Dobson, Hickman; W. W. Gardner, Hopkinsville; E. W. Mayfield, and Ted Frazer, Marion.

The high executives of the Association as elected by the members are James W. Smith, Campbellsville, president, succeeding Conrad Maragan, Shepherdsville, who became chairman of the board of directors; Frank L. Lanz, Elizabethtown, vice-president; Shirley E. Haas, Louisville, treasurer; Unice Peacock, Louisville, secretary; and Mrs. Ruth Gilbert, Louisville, field secretary. The latter three were re-elected.

Mr. Jones, a member of the city council of Murray, has many friends in Murray and in Calloway county. A vigorous worker, an industrious sales personality, a likeable person and a sympathetic supporter of worthy community work, Mr. Jones has much for the benefit of the people of Murray and Calloway county.

Lump Sum Payments Under Social Security Are Now Available

Many persons in the Paducah area who are entitled to lump-sum payments under the social security act have failed to claim the money due them. It was said today by S. E. Stratton, manager of the old-age insurance bureau office in the Wells Building.

"Early this year the field research section of the social security board estimated that during the calendar year there would be about 400 claims for lump-sum payments filed in the district served by the Paducah office," Mr. Stratton said.

So far only six claims have been filed, indicating that some 394 other persons who were expected to seek these lump-sum payments before the end of 1937 still must do so although the year is nearing its end. Any person who has been employed in an occupation covered by the social security coverage is entitled to a lump-sum payment if he has reached the age of 65 this year, Mr. Stratton added.

Similar claims may be made in behalf of all persons who have died this year after working in covered employments.

Reports from the Social Security Board in Cleveland today indicated that the board had authorized a grant of $50,000 to Kentucky to carry on the work of its unemployment compensation commission during the final quarter of 1937. This brings to date grants to the Kentucky Commission of $215,562.32. Under the Social Security Act the Federal Government pays the administrative expenses of unemployment compensation plans now in operation in every state and territory in the Union.

Murray Runs Wild to Down Choctaws in Homecoming 43-0

Jasper is Star of Game With Two of Team's Touchdowns

An astounding passing attack supplemented by tremendous power enabled the Thoroughbreds of Murray State College to run through the Choctaws of Mississippi College 43-0 in the college stadium Saturday afternoon before a Homecoming crowd of 5,000.

The Racehorses started slowly, forged to the front in the second quarter, increased the gap in the third period, and galloped the final stanza in a burst of speed that scored four touchdowns and left the crippled Choctaws completely bewildered.

Led by their brilliant triple-threat back, Joel Hitt, the visitors put up a stiff battle at the start and early in the second quarter penetrated to the Murray 3-yard stripe where the big Blue and Gold forwards held. Both teams fumbled frequently in the first half, the Racehorses more alert on recovering. Each was gambling with forwards and laterals and the tide of battle changed quickly and spectacularly.

In the second quarter, Fowler intercepted Hitt's pass on Murray's 48 and successive passes from Texas Jack Beale connected with Allison, Yarbrough, and Fowler to bring the ball down to Mississippi's 18-yard marker. Three plays put the ball on the Mississippi's 11 and a dazzling lateral play gave the ball to Atwell who raced like a streak around end for the touchdown. Deibert kicked the placement and the score was 7-0. Hitt went out of the game on an injury.

The Thoroughbreds wasted no time getting started in the second half. Gudauskas recovered Landrum's fumble of a lateral on the Choctaws' 30, and after Beale's long pass to Deibert, the line, Deibert kicked a field goal from the Mississippians' 18. The score was 10-0. Murray took a first down on Mississippi's 15 as Beale's long pass to Deibert was ruled good on interference by Landrum. Seven yards on three plays was all that Yarbrough and Beale could get but a lateral to Beale from Yarbrough confused the defense and the speedy Texan crossed the goal line standing up.

The remainder of the game served but as a sample to Homecoming's Murray's bewildering strength. Jasper smashed over from the 11-yard line through the center of Mississippi's line on straight power that carried four of the visitors with him. Spaulding intercepted Landrum's pass and dashed 60 yards behind perfect blocking for the next touchdown. Five plays on the part of the Thoroughbreds carried the ball over for the third touchdown of the period. Bland taking a pass from Finley for the final 24 yards. The last marker came after Jasper had faked a series of laterals which kept the Mississippians guessing and scampered 78 yards for the score.

Late in the final period, Mississippi began a drive that almost resulted in a touchdown. The brilliant Landrum, fading back behind his secondaries, completed beautiful passes good for long gains, and his smashing end run netted first downs through the defense of the careless Thoroughbreds. Landrum reeled off a first down on the Thoroughbreds' 5-yard line, but in four line plunges the Mississippians had lost two yards and the Thoroughbreds took the ball and began a march that found them deep in Mississippi territory when the game ended.

McRaven, flashing Murray back and satellite of Murray's other games this year, did not get into the game because of a slashed ankle he received in the game last week with Middle Tennessee. Love, stellar pass receiver from Danville, did not even dress, result of an injured hip.

Next Friday night, the Racers journey to Dyersburg, Tenn., to take on their old rivals from Union University. The game begins at 8 o'clock.

MURRAY HIGH TIES MARION HERE 0-0

More Than 1,000 Persons See Brilliant Defensive Game

The Murray High School Tigers and the Marion Blue Terrors from Crittenden county battled to a scoreless tie in the high school field Friday night in a Little Sixteen Conference game. More than 1,000 persons braved a chilling northwest wind to view the conflict.

Murray never threatened the Marion goal line, and the Terrors struck terror only once when they penetrated to the Tiger 1-yard line before they were stopped on downs. Murray never got beyond the Terrors' 20-yard line.

Cutchin was outstanding for Murray, and Easley bore up his reputation as a constant threat for Marion. Neither team was responsible for a completed pass.

A Better Home for Less Money Than 10 Years Ago!

WHY? UNDER FHA FINANCING COSTS HAVE BEEN REDUCED!

By letting us finance your home under a FHA loan, you can add 10 per cent more value to your home, as finance charges under the FHA have been reduced from 6 to 15 per cent of the total home value to only two and one-half per cent.

The total cost of a home now is not nearly as great as in 1926 to 1929, as Scientific methods have reduced home costs, giving you a better home for less. Better planning, modern materials, power equipment, greater efficiency, and the use of standardized prices and materials, have further reduced costs so now you can get a better home for less money than 10 years ago.

Murray is noted for people who own their own homes. We believe that there is lots of property in Murray that if modernized would bring far greater rentals and more comforts to its citizens.

Let us talk it over with you.

METHODIST CHURCH NOTES

Sunday, October 31, 1937.

The session of the Memphis Annual Conference meets at Brownsville, Tenn., on Wednesday night, November 10, at 9 o'clock, with Bishop Darlington in the chair. We Methodists of Murray have our fourth quarterly conference on Thursday night, November 4, and we hope to have all our finances in full at that time.

This will be possible only as the membership cooperates with the board of stewards in a generous response to the support of the church. We expect every member to do his duty.

At the evening hour the pastor will preach on "Walking with God," and following the sermon a class will be received into church membership. If you are a Methodist, out of the church in Murray, we invite you to cast your lot with us. You will find our people friendly folk.

At the evening hour the young people will sponsor a program of music beginning at 6:30, with Miss Lillian Waters at the pipe organ.

Following this program the pastor will preach on "Thou shalt not steal," continuing the series of sermons on the Ten Commandments.

The Church school, now showing a remarkable growth, has a right to expect the support of every Methodist in Murray. No one should deny himself the blessings of the Sunday school.

The children and young people have in their respective organizations, the opportunity for religious development. You should see that your children avail themselves of these opportunities.

J. Mack Jenkins, pastor.

Poor Crops on Poor Land

May Be Road to Poorhouse

Planting poor crops continuously on poor land may eventually lead to the poorhouse, according to Soil Conservation Service men. Soils subjected to continuous cropping of corn, cotton, soybeans and other clean-cultivated crops are impoverished, by erosion, become thin from the standpoint of fertile topsoil, and after a while produce a profitable yield. When this happens, farmers are apt to try the next best thing.

They choose a less desirable crop and try to make at least something off the land. Usually this is the first step in a downward cycle. Usually it is not long before the impoverished soil fails to produce anything.

That's when farm lands are abandoned and when all erosion remedies fail. The only remedy for this is to stop planting in to retire the badly eroding areas to grass before the damage has gone too far.

The freshman play, "Hillbilly Courtship," will be given Friday night, November 5. A large crowd is expected.

Clois Lawrence is back at school after being absent about five weeks and after successful meetings in Stewart County, Tenn., and Livingston County, Ky.

The students who won prizes in the County Fair are as follows: Big Eugene Jones, won first prize on soy bean hay, James Warren Brown, first on carrots, Gliss-Hall, first on hazelnuts, Howard Rogers, first on shell bark hickory nuts, Preston Colman, first on cow pea hay and second on soy beans, Howard Rogers third on carrots and soy bean hay, Charles Wadsworth second on lima beans, Marvin Routen, second on Irish potatoes, Hilton Williams, first on wrapper tobacco and first on best fired sample, Glendene Reeves, third on dress, Darvis Galloway, second on dress, second on soy beans, peanuts, Harford Hart, second on stock peas, Barkley Jones, first on sweet potatoes and second on sweet pepper, Josephine Crayford, second on dress, second on canning, and second on bouquet of flowers, Margaret Key, first on canning, Leona Dell Rogers, third on dress, Darvis Galloway, second on can of blackberries and second on baskets.

A special meeting of the International Relations Club was called by President Harold Edwards, October 21, to make plans for sending delegates to the Toledo, Ohio, convention of the International Relations Club. The Purchase-Pennsylvania basketball game was also a subject of discussion by the club.

Carmen Parks, a student at the University of Kentucky in the interest of his Master's degree, visited Miss Chrystal Foudan at Wells Hall Saturday and attended the Homecoming game with her.

First grade, A section, James Clayton, Ira Dean Elkins, Doris Faye Ratterree, B. section, Dorothy Faye Hendon, Second grade, Ralph Willoughby, Jean Williams, Third grade, Betty Sue Elkins, Charlene Coley.

The first four grades are buying a football and intend to challenge each other for games.

New Concord High School

A large crowd was present at the fiddlers' contest last Saturday night. It proved to be a great success. Although the crowd was small Friday night, the Vaughan's quartet concert was enjoyed by those present.

The honor roll for last month is as follows:

First grade, A section, James Clayton, Ira Dean Elkins, Doris Faye Ratterree, B. section, Dorothy Faye Hendon, Second grade, Ralph Willoughby, Jean Williams, Third grade, Betty Sue Elkins, Charlene Coley.

The first four grades are buying a football and intend to challenge each other for games.

Basketball prospects at New Concord appear to be fairly good at this time. The squad will be smaller than the usual small Concord team, but will be fast. Members who saw quite a bit of service last year include, Randall Patterson, I. B. Albritton, Tommy McCage, Pat Evans, Harmon Smith, Gus Yarbrough, Members who were very much of last season because of illness are James Patterson, Solon Bucy, Others include Creston Bucy, Woodrow Bucy, John Warren Dunn, Edward Hendon, Earl Rex Williams, Earl Steele and Wayne Wilson.

ANGLO-SCOTTISH TEAM IS LISTED FOR DECEMBER 6

Murray College Books Seventh International Debate With Visitors

WALES AND GLASGOW WILL BE REPRESENTED

When the Murray State College debaters meet the Anglo-Scottish debating team from England here December 6, it will be Murray's seventh international debate. Murray has never lost an international debate.

The Anglo-Scottish debate team is made up of David Seland-Jones, representative of the National Union of Students of England, and Harold H. Munro, representative of the Scottish National Union of Students.

Mr. Seland-Jones, who is 21 years old, is a student at Swansea College, of the University of Wales. He is a student of geology, Welsh, English and German, and an honor student in the department of European history. Mr. Jones is chairman of the College Debating Union, and was a representative of the college against American teams to England in 1935 and 1937.

Mr. Munro, who is 25 years old, is a student of Glasgow University. He has taken part in four major debates run annually by the Students Union Society in Glasgow on the Parliamentary model as well as in inter-university debates.

In 1933 Mr. Munro, was leader of a Scottish delegation to the International Student Conference in Southern Bavaria and Switzerland, and since then has attended several national and international meetings. Mr. Munro, met an American team in Glasgow in 1936.

Tryouts for the Murray debate team will be held soon, it was announced today by Prof. L. J. Horton, coach of the Murray debating team.

The following are topics for debates submitted by the opposing team: (The visiting team's selection of side follows.)

1. Resolved: That the American government cannot hope to keep out of European affairs to its own advantage. (Affirmative)

2. Resolved: That the attitude to colored citizens in the United States is a racial and social anachronism. (Affirmative)

3. Resolved: That War is the midwife of Progress. (Affirmative)

4. Resolved: That the preservation of British and American interests demand a free hand for Japan in China. (Affirmative)

5. Resolved: That greater cooperation of America with European democracies in the last decade would have averted the present world situation. (Anglo-Scottish team affirmative and negative, that is split)

Less Monthly Discomfort

Many women, who formerly suffered from a weak, run-down condition as a result of poor assimilation of food, say they benefited by taking CARDI, a special medicine for women. They found it helped to increase the appetite and improve digestion, thereby bringing them more strength from their food.

Naturally there is less discomfort at monthly periods when the system has been strengthened and the various functions restored and regulated. CARDI, praised by thousands of women, is well worth trying. Of course, if not benefited, consult a physician.

When You Use Electric Service

YOU ARE SAVING

Does your family budget need stretching? You know, then, how much things cost—and you have to think of SAVINGS.

Think it over—doesn't your electric service save you money, instead of costing you money?

For example—one use of electricity is the radio. A dime pays for 56 fifteen-minute programs—14 hours of entertainment and education.

Where else can you hear music, lectures, and plays for so little?

Across the River

Here it is winter time again—at least there has been plenty of frost and some ice and even a few snow flakes, but we are barricaded behind a big pile of wood so for myself I don't dread the cold so much.

I liked the nice fat Ledger & Times this time, and I'm glad that someone has been helping me send the news from between the rivers, for my knowledge of what happens is very limited.

Isn't the world beautiful now! Nature costumes the old earth so charmingly for the different seasons. In spring everything looks so fresh in a bright coat of green, sprinkled here and there with patches of brilliant-colored birds or starry hued flowers.

Throughout the summer that green is the predominant color but one sees flowers of every kind to break the monotony.

Then comes autumn. No artist could paint a picture which would half do credit to one of these old poor ridges between here and Tennessee River when Nature's stylist dresses it for fall. Even stunted sassafras and persimmon sprout which has stood all unnoted until now flaunts its red, brown and golden leaves in decision against its background of red clay gullies, making the passer-by gasp in wonder at such a transformation.

In every woodland and on every ridge when there are trees, a flaming bouquet seems to stand. In the distance, hills are a riotous mass of color with the reds, greens, browns, and golds arranged as only the Master could paint them.

Rich and poor alike can enjoy autumn for its beauty is "everywhere." Its colors have been lavishly distributed on plants in the most humble yard as well as on stately oaks on the most vast estates. Let's take a walk during autumn for soon the cold, glittering, white coat of winter will be thrown over everything and in spite of its beautiful sparkle, its dress is treacherous and means discomfort to many.

Folks over here attended church last third Sunday although the weather was disagreeable. Young Bro. John Outland has a car now and we're hoping it doesn't try his faith as did some of those long walks on those rainy journeys.

Mr. and Mrs. Linus Spiceland and Misses Geneva and Gwendolyn Spiceland partook of the delicious birthday dinner of Master Clyde Jones at Mr. and Mrs. Bryant Jones' third Sunday.

Mrs. Ida Wimberly spent last week end visiting on this ridge and at Mrs. Clarence Vinson's.

Mrs. Vesta Wiggins from Texas is still visiting relatives and friends in this vicinity.

Mrs. Helen Ruth Lancaster had a quilting at her mother's, Mrs. E. H. Spiceland's, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Kirks left Sunday after Mrs. Kirks spent a week with her mother. They are to be around Somerset for awhile.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Spiceland spent the week end at home.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Spiceland and children visited Sunday afternoon in Stewart County.

The Fiddlers' Contest at Blue Spring was very successful for a crowd attended as the weather was surprisingly favorable.

The teachers over here expect to meet at Nashville next Friday. The Mudplitter passed by here last week. He seems to have quit writing.

I was sorry to hear of the death of Mrs. Grace of Concord. Friends are certainly crossing over, one by one.

Sometimes when I hear of friends crossing to the other side, I try to console myself by thinking that the more lonely this world is left, the more there will be waiting on the other shore to greet us.

Mrs. Ed. Mrs. Guy, Mrs. Otis Lovins and children and Mrs. Lovins' box ate dinner in the lovely "Treasure Island" site of the 1938 Golden Gate International Exposition at San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Parker Saturday. We later visited Mrs. Gray Dunn, Mrs. Robert Witty and Mrs. Turner McCage in Mason's new hospital. That's a fine building but instead of envying those who are there, I always feel like coming out singing, "Count your blessings, Name them one by one, count your blessings, see what God has done."

Mr. and Mrs. Linus Spiceland ate supper with Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Ahart Saturday evening before spending the night at Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Lovins.

They also attended the Fiddlers' Contest at Concord. Came in later to hear Lulu Belle singing over the radio. "But there was no one to welcome me there."

That's the way I feel now when I go back to the old school and see so few faces that I used to know.

Seems that lots of water has run under the bridge since I sang in a quartet as a high school girl. Now it's my little niece, Wilma Jo, who just last week won a prize at Faxon for being best fourth grade reader. Oh, Mel! She'll soon be grown and married.

I went out to old Murray College again the other day. I sat out in the car and looked around the lovely, well kept campus and saw the occasional passing of the well dressed college boy and girl and thought, "This looks like the ideal place for the ideal life," but the face of a certain teacher brought back memories.

I saw a girl, through the mist of the years, sobbing as if her heart would break because she had failed in a biology course and thus failed to make a certificate, and thus failed to wear a cap and gown after an old country father and mother had come miles to see her thus arrayed.

And as that unforgettable picture flashed across my memory I sadly turned away knowing that the Toll resides within those majestic walls still—The Chatterbox.

East Pine Bluff

The north wind has breathed upon us this week and as we look at people passing by we see them with collars turned up, hands in pockets showing plainly their unseasoned condition and uncomfortable reaction to the quick change in temperature. Seasons come and go, but no matter how cold and harsh I like the good old winter months best. Saturday's scattered snow flakes made us edge a little nearer to a roaring heater.

Sunday morning, October 24, first killing frost and my, what a frost!

Hickory nuts, chestnuts, and walnuts are falling like leaves since the frost. Persons going nut hunting here Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Vinson, Mrs. Lloyd Vinson, Dorotha Vinson, Lois Cook, Evelyn Rose, Clinton Marvin, and Clarence Barrow, and Bruce McDougal. All reported a good find.

Carl Vinson, merchant of Ft. Henry, spent Sunday in Model.

Mr. and Mrs. Mance Milton and family, Mr. and Mrs. Develane Milton and baby, Mr. and Mrs. Melbourne Burcham and family visited relatives near Canton Sunday.

Mrs. Martha Garner returned home Sunday after spending two weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Lloyd Little of Buchanan.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Dill and baby, Mrs. J. D. Dill motored to Paris, Tenn. Sunday to visit Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Dill.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Downs announce the arrival of a son, Alfred Franklin, on October 20.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Vinson and family, Mrs. Ida Cable, Miss Zula Cable and Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Vinson attended the fair at Murray Saturday—Teddy.

Eighty miles of detector tubing and fifty fire and police alarm boxes will be used in the 10 watchman call systems for the protection of Treasure Island, site of the 1938 Golden Gate International Exposition at San Francisco.

Sycamore Center News

Here I am again with a little news. I guess everyone is behind with their cotton picking, potato digging and sorghum making after so much rain.

Eagle, I think you almost got in a hurry with your water hauling as we have had plenty of rain. Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Paschall visited over the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Paschall.

Mr. and Mrs. Zella Orr and family of Puryear, Tenn. were afternoon visitors in the Paschall home.

Lottie Mae Kaykendall spent the week end with Mildred Nance. Wright Page, who has been attending a Bible school in New Orleans, La., is home for a few months. We glad to have Mr. Page back with us as Sunday School superintendent.

Miss Ernestine Page is on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Farris, Mr. and Mrs. Clovis Farris and family were Sunday dinner guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Farris.

Mrs. Hinda B. Orr and pupils of Oak Hill school were made happy last week when men of that community met to cover the school building.

Misses Erie, Annie and Daisy Orr of Mayfield, visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ben Orr.

Mr. and Mrs. Cynn Orr are the proud parents of a baby girl, born October 18. The infant has been named Gela Brown.

Clay Cook remains on the sick list. We hope he will soon get better.

Mrs. Hensley Keltion, of Mayfield, visited her brother, Clay Cook, Sunday.

Happy Jack visited her grandparents Wednesday night.

Mrs. R. H. Hooper is better at this writing.

Berthal Allen—Grooms is sick with chills.

All teachers of Henry County went to Memphis, Tenn., Friday of last week to attend a teachers' meeting.

Miss Pauline Paschall, Dorris Wade, Miss Johnny Jones and Walter B. Nance spent Sunday afternoon with Miss Sunshine Farmer—Happy Jack.

Breeland News

Here comes Aunt Cindy with some more of that old Breeland news for the good old Ledger & Times.

Mr. and Mrs. Earrett Williams have named the big "President" Ronald Mason.

Mr. and Mrs. Eunice Williams spent Wednesday night with Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Williams of near Freeland, Tenn.

Speight Williams of near Freeland, Tenn. spent Sunday with Mrs. Raphael Maynar of Cedar Knob.

Chestnut hunting seems to be the order of the day in this neighborhood. Everyone is trying to get enough for old "Santa Claus" to have a few for Christmas.

Sip Williams, Brent Williams, and Speight Williams spent Wednesday of last week in Murray.

Mr. and Mrs. Oren Arnsom and son, E. J., were Saturday night and Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Rob-Duncan and Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Duncan of Cedar Knob.

Faxon to Sponsor Musical Contests

There will be a musical contest of both vocal and instrumental numbers at Faxon High school Saturday night, November 6, school officials said today. There will be approximately $50 in cash prizes given away. Sponsors plan this to be the biggest contest ever held at Faxon. All musicians in this and adjoining counties are invited to take part. The public is urged to attend and enjoy an evening of high class entertainment.

Evanesence

Till night and day are one my love shall live

As sweet and pure as is your smile tonight

When you with grace your own deny my right

To live the love my heart so glories in

On Southern winds this evening takes me back

To dim-remembered days when you and I

The slow sad magic of the long-gone springs

Wove into patterns which we called our lives

Ah, you remember too! And there is quiet pain

That words forgotten may no longer thrill

And lips that once were hot no longer burn

What beauty lies behind is ours no more

What lies ahead will soon be ours and gone

But with us now we have these autumn days

These yellow groves, these sophistries of fall,

These lazy clouds and sunlight on the slopes

These hearts of ours which beat as they did then

In our flown youth which thoughtlessly we shared

We are no longer young. These tears we shed

Are not in pain of loss, but joy in this

That till the end of time we have ourselves—

We have our faith that still our love will lead

Our steps through bridle-paths to other June!

Free The Toll Bridges

The intra-state toll bridges have divided our state into at least five or six separate and distinct economic and social units. They are strangling and stagnating intra-state trade and travel. Where they have not completely stifled the ordinary flow of commercial and social activity, they have diverted and deflected it into the states surrounding Kentucky. Kentuckians are being barred from doing business with one another as effectively as if a series of Chinese walls were erected, dividing the state into five or six little states instead of the one big united state we should be. Kentuckians are being forced to do business with people who do not share their tax burdens. Needless to say, these people from surrounding states do not enter Kentucky and pay our toll fees to do business with us. The states lose tax revenue from the potential increase in the number of business establishments which would be necessary to handle the one hundred per cent intra-state commerce that rightfully belongs within the state. Citizens remain without jobs who otherwise would be employed by these establishments. Another argument in favor of freeing the toll bridges is that they do not produce revenue. They are barriers to free flow of traffic and divert it into other states. Toll bridges retard road building. Free the bridges and permit traffic flow unimpeded over our roads will increase the highway department income from gas tax to totals never before dreamed of. It is predicted that the amount necessary to free the intra-state toll bridges, approximately $3,000,000, will be returned to Highway Department funds through increased gas tax revenues within 12 to 18 months after the freeing of the bridges. It is predicted that after these artificial barriers that are damming up and stagnating the flow of traffic and trade are eliminated, gas tax revenues will be double what they are today. It is predicted that the farmer by having the Kentucky markets for his produce opened to him will have a greater cash yield from his crops. The Kentucky merchant, banker and business man will prosper as he never has before when Kentucky people are permitted to travel to his place of business without payment of a levy that hitherto has driven these people to restrict their purchases or to patronize out-of-state merchants. We can safely say without further comment that toll bridges kill tourist traffic. Any Calloway Countyman that has seen the great amount of tourist travel in other states will verify this statement. Our people should be first upon the freeing of toll bridges to help advertise Kentucky to the great tourist trade. Western Kentucky would have everything to gain from such a movement. Business would increase, Murray State College would gain further renown, and an increased enrollment in our school means more business for Murray.

Song and pen have made Kentucky the best known, best advertised, and best loved state in the Union. It is known for its beautiful women and fast horses. It is a treasure trove of history. It is the birthplace of Lincoln, Jefferson Davis, and Henry Clay. It is rich with the lore of Daniel Boone, George Rogers Clark and their kind. My Old Kentucky Home has been sung through the ages by every man, woman, and child in the Union. Pages of fiction have been written about it. And with free bridges, thousands of tourists would visit all our historical places of interest. If the average tourist spends ten dollars a day in our state, think what a day will mean to individual incomes to every one of our citizens of the commonwealth.

It behooves every organization in Kentucky to join the movement to free the toll bridges. Let's all put our shoulders to the wheel for a greater freedom of traffic—freedom means more business and more income to all of us.

Sow More Wheat

It is estimated that Calloway County farmers received over $100,000 for their 1937 wheat crop. This cash crop means much to each individual farmer and business as a whole. In view of the present meeting of congress, it is pertinent to point out a few indications of anticipated legislation where the program is to control acreage and production.

From all indications there will be a crop control bill passed at the November session of Congress. From all forecasts we can get of this bill it will provide a heavy penalty upon the production of all crops affected that are not grown under contract between the farmer and the Department of Agriculture.

The allowance for acreage free from tax will be based upon the customary acreage of that crop that has been grown on that farm. This makes it very important that those farmers who wish to keep wheat sowing in their farm program should be able to show a record of wheat acreage this year equal to their requirements under a reasonable farm program.

If for no other reason than this each farmer should get his planned wheat crop out this fall regardless of weather conditions.

We regard the next farm bill as one that all farmers should consider in a serious way because our Government has had enough experience now to where it will probably pass a bill that will meet with the constitutional law and at the same time control production. This will mean that the value of the farmer's land will be greatly influenced. In fact almost depend upon his base allotment for crops.

Letter to Editor

Editor, Ledger & Times, Murray, Ky.

Enclosed find $2 for which please send me our good old home paper. I am the widow of the late George W. Hopkins, who was a reader of the Murray Ledger for more than 40 years. Have heard him name all its editors up to 1932.

Have lived in Colorado for the past five years with my son-in-law and daughter. Mr. and Mrs. A. Gordon. Have made many new friends, but shall always miss my old friends and my old Kentucky Home.

Many good wishes to the Ledger and Times, and to our friends. Mrs. Mary E. Hopkins, 4412 So. Lincoln St., Englewood, Colorado.

October 26, 1937, Almo, K. Y.

Editor, Ledger & Times, Murray, Ky.

Dear Sir: In last week's issue of the Ledger & Times there was an article concerning the slaying in Graves County that had me connected with it in a big way. I presume you got the article from the Paducah Sun-Democrat, any way the reporter was all wet. I had no connection in the case whatever.

A gentleman from Mayfield, whose name I will withhold from the press, and myself was out driving, or rather he was demonstrating an automobile to me, happened to stop just in time for the tragedy.

I tried to keep the trouble down, and did all within my power to stop it but it happened any way. Evidently someone who saw the part I was playing, took for granted that I was with the party.

I hope this will explain to anyone interested and the public in general that I had nothing to do with it, and am only a victim of a circumstance and will have to be a witness in the case.

Respectfully yours, Atmer Lassiter, Rural Carrier

Going To School

The following is an original poem written by Miss Opal Lee, eighth grade student of Palestine school, which won first prize at the Faxon Community Fair held October 15.

I like to go to school,
My Teacher is so kind;
And he is always at school
Every morning on time.

He never makes us study hard,
And lets us work and play;
But he never forgets to make us
And keep his rules every day.

But it won't be very long,
Until we all have to grow up;
And I shall love every child,
With all of my heart.

Motor, bikes, motor, scooters, chairs and tiny streamlined trains will carry visitors over the 400-acre site of the 1939 World's Fair on San Francisco Bay.

THE PUBLIC VOICE

Contributions to this column upon topics of interest are always welcome. They do not necessarily express the views of this newspaper.

Dear Mr. Neal:

Will you kindly give me some space in our good paper? Former little Ed No. 6 seems to be honing for an answer to the drippings of wisdom he purports to have caught from the lips of the renowned Dr. Dewey, evidently little realizing that therein he reveals more clearly than usual the shallowness of his shallow scholarship.

Now, the above characterization is not as unkind as it may seem. I am not unsympathetic with a young, idealistic, reforming spirit, but many of us did not relish the buffoonery with which he besmeared his romantic idealism.

We definitely were not thrilled when he shouted that he was a native son, since all he had got from us seemed to be the ability to chew home twist, sow belly and corn pone, and to sit in a fox hunter's camp and drink another home product, and to keep a young, independent, rebellious spirit. Superimposed were a comic-strip morality and an ill-matching feeling of superiority that was designed to sweep us all off our feet into his big eddy. When all the other editors got the broad hint that many of those sucked into the whirlpool were regaining their feet and walking out on him, he squawks about knifings behind his back when the two young men had no idea that he was not to be in Murray permanently, and about libel and the free press, when, if I am any judge, Ed No. 6 should be the last to unleash such accusations. And now he is asking for more, and so here goes.

Now, I am not a scholar nor even a student of John Dewey, but I have read rather carefully two or three books of his and several evaluations and criticisms of his work and philosophy, and nothing I have read harmonizes with Ed No. 6's interpretation of what he thought he heard the doctor say at a dinner. To be more sure of my ground, I got the opinion of a doctor of philosophy, the whole weight of Dewey's long, scholarly life and his philosophy as expounded in dozens of books, articles, and lectures as opposed to this puff interpretation of an oral statement made a year ago.

The scholar was quite sure that Dr. Dewey would repudiate such words as were placed in his mouth and the ideas that were attributed to him.

As to this purported scientific survey of the teachers in New York, the married ones must have been the subjects for psychic observation, for they are the ones who were dismissed. But I will admit that trying to teach all the little editors-in-the-making and all the other rebels is taxing any person's sanity.

I am rather sure that Ed No. 6 was familiar with another survey, a nation-wide one which showed that Kentucky pays her political officials the highest, but one, among the states of the union, and her teachers next to the lowest among the forty-eight states. But I suspect that Ed No. 6 is beginning to find that, in spite of this treatment, Kentucky teachers may not be trampled upon with impunity. When you have learned that, and a few dozen more lessons—like, for instance, the presumptuous folly in comparing the literary style and the moral implications of Shakespeare and the Bible to those of your "pellucid pillar," you would make a good demagogue. You would not be a friend to the people until you learned beyond forgetting that the most important things in life are not material success and fame, nor even a splendid body and good health, much as these are to be desired. Materialists such as Dewey and Ed No. 6 deny that man is a spiritual creature, and so to them, there are no gods beyond those mentioned above. You forget that man is more than an animal and that material and physical deficiencies are the stuff most likely to excite man's spiritual faculties. The blind man is apt to develop insight; the physical weakling will cultivate his brilliant mind; mental anguish develops patience, suffering tends toward humility, forbearance, and love. Lay aside your "scientific" surveys and look about you. My experience will not differ from your observation. Often the greatest persons come from the most humble surroundings. The two most brilliant students I have taught in my 25 years were also among the poorest. Both are college students. Poverty and malnutrition could not hold them down. One of these boys has an unselfishness and a sensitive idealism, the other a poise and balance, an integrity of character and purpose, and a religious faith that are worth more to them and to society than all the material wealth and success they could ever accumulate. Now, I have had other poor children who were doomed to stay down, and I have had other children of prosperous families who could not grow, either. Food would not remedy that condition. Neither will fomentation of discontent. Christ said, "The poor ye have with you always," and if we had a division of wealth every year, it would still be so. "Love of money is the root of all evil," and a greedy love of pennies will damn a man's soul the same as love of millions. We should heed Christ's admonition, "Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and all these things will be added unto you."

The true friend of the people is the one who by precept and example teaches them contentment with their lot—not to be satisfied, but merely to live as Paul lived, pressing on toward the high calling. Let me hasten to distinguish between this aware contentment and the robotic efficiency and machine-like uniformity and unawareness that the educational philosophy of the Dewey school produces or seeks to produce. The most extreme example of this warped "efficiency" that has come to my notice, I think, is the boast of an Eastern city superintendent that he could, by consulting a chart in his office, at any moment question and answer, what was being taught in any schoolroom in his city. No wonder that a teacher from his city longed to take some of the better Murray students back to her home!

Honor rolls, I consider, are not necessarily inconsistent with this desirable aware contentment. I think no one is silly enough to make the honor roll the whole aim and end of education. Of course the Dewey school insists that there must be no striving and no discipline, that the child must expand and flower according to his natural bent. But since man accidentally "discovered" an invented invention, he can devise scientific tests that will determine exactly what the child wants to be, even though the child does not know, himself, and so he is given standardized tests and put into the lockstep of efficiency. Some evolutionists are so altruistic—if as to be horrified that Christians should "selfishly" strive to reach heaven.

But strangely enough, the smugness that Ed No. 6 abhors, mushrooms under the "altruistic-efficiency" philosophy, rather than under the honor roll. I could tell you dozens of incidents to prove my contention and each reader can add others. One woman carried the question of efficiency into the field of cooking by saying that any fool should know that baking powder biscuits were better than soda and milk biscuits, for the baking powder is scientifically balanced. The same woman, a college graduate, gave a debate decision to a team because it was from "a larger and older school" and for no other avowed reason. She publicly criticized one speaker's mouth, teeth, and voice, as well as his language and then discoursed at large on her own vocal attainments.

I am hoping that Ed No. 6's smugness is only superficial, and that when he realizes his ridiculous position astride the fence with a foot in each camp, he will forgo Mr. Dewey and think and speak for himself. He has a way of turning every obsequious rebel, and there is hope for this one in the fact that the only really good column he wrote in the year he was with us was the one in the week that his baby was born and nearly died.

Here's hoping, from a school-marm who rarely relinquishes hope, —Audie Folwell.

Almo High School

The science class, instructed by Mr. Lassiter, visited several places of interest in Murray Friday. They spent the day at the ice plant, milk plant, cotton gin, hosiery mill and college. They saw many scientific experiments performed by which they were greatly benefited.

Last week's visitors were: Gladys Linn, Mary Alice Joslin, Fledon Scott, Mrs. Pat Beale, Mrs. Scudder Calloway and Mrs. Guy Billington. We are glad to have visitors and we want you to come often.

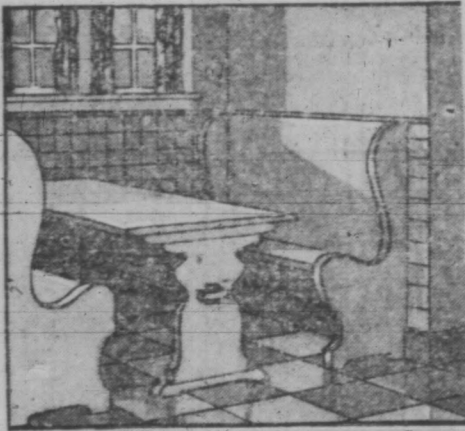

The boys and coach are working hard on basketball practice. We hope to have a better team than we have had in the past.

The student body is planning a Halloween party for Thursday night of this week. Games will be played and refreshments served. Everyone is expecting a good time.

A free educational program will be given here in the near future. Watch the paper for exact dates.

The debate material has been received and several students are studying the question in anticipation of debating this season. Our team won second place in the county last year and debated a total of 32 debates. According to Mr. Billington, debate coach, a large number of debates will be held with the leading teams of western Kentucky.

Why Present Financing Costs Allow Increased Home Values Today!

FINANCING COSTS
Amortized Single Mortgage Type
Represent About
2 1/2 per cent of Total HOME VALUE

FINANCING COSTS
Junior Liens and Land Contract
Type Ranged From
6 to 15 per cent of Total HOME VALUE

A large part of today's increased home-value results from savings in original financing costs, the first factor. Those Dollars spent to pay excessive money costs can be used for better materials, more equipment, larger building sites, and more improved plans. There were many such dollars involved in the prices of 1929 houses—from 6 to 15 per cent, or from $300 to $750 in a $5,000 home property, having been a common charge for original financing.

Luckily For You—FHA Has Reduced The Cost of Home Financing!

FHA Home Mortgages

These mortgages are made for terms up to twenty years and for amounts up to 80 per cent of the appraised value of the property. These mortgages are insured by the Federal Housing Administration and the owner pays a charge of one-half per cent per year of the original amount of the mortgage for this insurance. The interest rate is 5 per cent.

Payments are made each month for an amount sufficient to pay interest, taxes, fire insurance, FHA insurance premium and amortization calculated to retire the entire principal of the mortgage during the term. FHA must approve of and appraise the property and approve the credit risk of the owner. The charge is $2.00 per thousand for this. (Minimum $10)

PRICES IN THE NEWS

Last Saturday the Federal Coal Commission invoked its power to co-ordinate and propose minimum prices for the soft coal industry.

Railroad carriers also will seek a horizontal 10 per cent freight rate increase, in addition to the increase given them last Saturday by the Interstate Commerce Commission, which was slightly above 1 per cent, which will likewise increase the price of coal.

What their action is will determine what you will have to pay for COAL IN MURRAY. Judging from other efforts of the government when attempting to regulate prices, has resulted in an advance in prices.

We are not attempting to scare you, but for your own benefit we urge all of you who possibly can buy as much coal now as you need and fill your bins to prevent paying higher prices of 50c to $1.00 per ton more or even higher. We cannot guarantee our present prices only as long as present supplies last.

You all know the quality of coals we sell—Cold weather has been here for the past week—So please accept a friendly tip—Phone us your orders now so you will not be waiting later in the winter when prices are higher and you have no coal.

Stella Gossip

Richard Cooke, "head man" of construction of Murray-Coldwater highway, invited me down to West Pondersgas river sand and gravel place, where four men were at work in water 1 to 4 feet deep. Biggest show of its kind I ever saw. The powerful machine was pumping washed gravel through 8-inch pipes about 20 feet high and down into 4-ton gravel trucks. Sand was sifted and spaded into the trucks. One man (Mason) wore waterproof rubber suit over heavy woolen clothing. Richard said that they could break the ice and work all day long. Birch and scumore trees were leaning, gracefully overhead, waving and smiling.

East Shannon School News

By Marie Evans

This week ends another month of our school. We are getting ready for our fourth month's test.

The first grade has finished its "English Animal Book" and is very proud of them.

Our attendance is better this week as cotton picking is nearing an end.

The boys have been delayed in practicing basketball on account of the rain.

The second grade has started making health posters and each one is working hard to have the best one.

We are planning on having a school party Friday afternoon which will include contests and games. Refreshments will also be served.

The murmuring in our school room seems to be decreasing since Miss Eva has her new paddle finished.

We have elected our fireman, Floyd Garland, for the winter.

There will be a pie supper at East Shannon school Saturday night, November 6. Every one is invited.

CHURCHILL BREAKS ANKLE

Guthrie Churchill, 25, an employee of the Murray Marble Works, broke his ankle late last week when an 800-pound stone fell upon it.

Churchill with another worker was moving the huge granite block when he stumbled over a loose stick and fell the stone on top of him. He will not be able to walk for some time. The member is in a plastic cast.

ANNOUNCEMENT

The First Church of Christ, Scientist, Paducah, announces a free lecture on Christian Science by Bucknell Young, C.S.B., Chicago, at the Masonic Building on Fifth and Kentucky Streets, Tuesday, November 2, at 2 p. m.

The public is cordially invited.

Cherry News

As I couldn't find time to write last week, I'll attempt to write a few lines this week.

There is no sickness to report for which we are very thankful.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Outland were Sunday afternoon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Roberts.

Miss Geneva Evans is in Detroit seeking employment. Every one hopes for her to do well.

Several persons from Cherry attended the Fair at Murray, Saturday.

Mrs. James McKinney and daughter, Treva, spent the past week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Heath.

We all wish to congratulate Miss Roselle Hargis after having won first place in tap dancing at the Fiddlers' Contest Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt Roberts of Michigan, spent Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Roberts.

Mrs. Arthur Redden and sons, Mrs. Lillie Miller and sons, and Mrs. John T. Miller and son were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Oba Alexander.

There is to be a pie supper at Cherry School Friday night, October 29. Everyone is invited to come and bring or buy a pie and therefore helping to make this a grand affair. Don't forget the date!

Those who visited Charles Hillman, Wilkerson Sunday, were Charles and Billie Stubblefield, J. C. Stubblefield, James Heath, Dyrus Stubblefield and Henry Hargis spent the week end across the river.

We are indeed sorry to lose our editor, Mr. Lovett, although we are already convinced that Mr. Neal is capable of taking his place.

Mrs. Janet Clayton, who has been ill at the home of her mother, Mrs. Nora Parker, was able to return to her home last week.

Miss Geneva McKinney spent Friday night with Miss Mary McKinney and attended the Fiddlers' contest at Outland.

As Halloween is fast approaching I must go hoping to dodge the ghosts and goblins—Wise Owl.

William C. Farmer

William Carroll Farmer, son of John W. and Millie Phillips Farmer, was born July 8, 1869, near Murray, Ky., and died October 8, 1937, at the age of 68 years, after three months.

He married Danie Florence Buttenworth December 17, 1896, and to this union was born one son, Aubrey. He is survived by his widow, this son and a granddaughter, Aleda; two brothers, Toy Farmer of Murray and Robert Farmer of Tulsa, Okla. Six sisters have already passed to their reward.

He professed faith in Christ during early manhood and joined the Methodist Church at Martin's Chapel where he remained a faithful member until death.

He was always cheerful even to the end and got most pleasure from making other people happy. Like his great Teacher, his greatest virtues were those wherein he lived his life day by day among his fellows.

Though Willie Farmer has passed to the great beyond, still his memory and life remains as a shining example to many of us.

"A Plea"

Folks let's do our duty. Let's vote for Mr. Redden. Let's make November 2nd His happy, lucky day.

Anybody who is needy. Who needs a helping hand. Rest assured that he will help you. The best that he can.

He needs the City Judge's office. That's why I plead his case. And I'm sure he is as capable as the one that's in the race.

He stands before you. Not perfect, but a man. Who realizes his duty. And will do the best he can.

He's at the people's mercy. His fate lies in your hand. Your vote will be appreciated. Please help him all you can.

Don't let falsehoods sway you from what you know is right. For I know that Mr. Redden is making a fair and honest fight.

He doesn't have the money. To buy votes right and left. He's just depending on the city To elect him for himself.

If you appreciate honesty. And firmness to one and all. Prove it by electing him. By answering his call.

Folks, you cannot beat him. Be merciful, I pray. Remember Mr. Redden. On the final election day.

We are giving a free program October 22. Everyone is invited to come out for an evening of good entertainment.

The program is as follows: three 1-act plays, "Mrs. Stubbins, Book Agent," "That Awful Letter," and "Rose of the Rileys"; monologue, "Madonna Lilies," by Sula Nell Adams; reading, "Conks Are People who I Don't Like," by Jean Darnell; reading, "October," by Bettie Joe Cochran; solo, "Shoe Shine Boy," Dortha Mae Morgan; duet, "The Wedding of Jack and Jill," Charles Rob and June Adams; chorus, "The History Song"; chorus, "Mickey Mouse's Birthday Party"; and gypsy dance by a group of girls.

We have started rehearsing for the Negro Minstrel which is to be given soon. Watch for the date and be sure to come.

On October 14 Kirksey's softball boys came over and defeated our boys.

Friday, October 15, was Harvest Festival at Farmington High School. Our school was invited to attend and in the afternoon Mr. Potts came in a school bus and transported a greater part of our school. We had a grand time and we certainly do appreciate Farmington High's kindness.

Our girls' softball team won over Farmington by a score of 2-0.

We are planning for a Community Day, October 29. Everyone is invited to come and stay all day. There will be plate lunches, hamburgers, plenty of eats and lots of entertainment all day. Come prepared to stay for our Fiddlers' Contest, Friday night, October 29.

Thompson School News

Eighth Grade

School is progressing nicely under the direction of our teacher, Prof. Owen Billington. Our enrollment is 41 and we are having very good attendance.

We appreciate greatly our new window shades, water cooler, well top, and basket ball. These were purchased with the proceeds from our pie supper we had a few weeks ago with which we cleared $12.

Our boys managed to out-distance the Landon boys Friday, October 15, in a hard fought basketball game by a score of 9-3. We intend to give them a return game Friday, October 22. Much interest was shown in a game between our girls and the independent girls' team. We managed to defeat the outsiders by a score of 16-14.

We wish to thank Mr. Wrather and Mr. Homer Lassiter for their cooperation by lending us a splendid stove from Kirksey School. We hope the Kirksey school can soon move into its fine new building.

Clayton Creek News

I will try to write again as I missed last week. I don't like this rainy weather any too much.

Harry Cunningham is visiting with friends and relatives near Murray. He has been recently employed in Idaho.

Mrs. Edith Hughes of Boatwright, and Mrs. Carrie Hughes of Murray were in Paris Tuesday on business. Mrs. Edith Hughes spent the night with Mrs. Carrie Hughes that night and left for her home the next day.

Mr. and Mrs. Lake Hall, from near Green Plains, Harland Lawrence of Hazel, and Dudley Hughes of Murray all left for Detroit last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lawrence who have lived on Mrs. Eva Cud's place for past 10 years, have moved to Hazel and will occupy the Jake Mayer place.

I guess there will be a large crowd in Murray next Friday and Saturday for the County Fair. Will see you later.—Cotton Top.

Child is Born to Irvans in Memphis

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Irvan, of Memphis, are the parents of a fine baby boy born last Friday. They named the child Robert Phillip. Mrs. Irvan was formerly Miss Lyda Blow, of Murray. The child weighs 7½ pounds.

Mrs. Ora Irvan, mother of the child's father, accompanied by Miss Virginia Irvan, George Williams, and Ruth Melugin, motored to Memphis Sunday to see her grandson.

CHILD HAS TONSILLITIS

William McElrath, 6-year old son of Dr. and Mrs. Hugh M. McElrath, is seriously ill with inflammation of the throat and tonsils attributed to tonsillitis. Early in the week, Dr. McElrath declared it might be necessary to have the swelling lanced.

The illness prevented the child from attending his studies in school.

Contour Cultivation Versus Soil Erosion Discussed by W. R. Smith, SCS Expert

Now is the time of year that farmers can take stock of the soil loss which has occurred on their cultivated fields this crop year, according to W. R. Smith, project engineer of the Soil Conservation Service Demonstration Project in the Massac Creek Area of McCracken County. If cover crops have not yet been sown, small gullies may be found between the crop rows in many places where the rows run up and down hill, and in draws or depressions where a concentration of flowing water occurred. If however, the cultivated field is examined, it will be found that in those parts of the field where the rows, harrows, and drills ran on the level or contour little or no erosion occurred. If it is an old field under consideration, quite a decreased yield may be apparent where the soil and moisture were lost by cultivating up and down hill. From these observed results, one can easily determine the need of contour cultivation or other mechanical control measures along with good crop rotation, so that the erosion problem will be taken care of when the field is not in sod.

Farmers cooperating with the Soil Conservation Service Demonstration Project or with the local CCC Camp this year had the opportunity to enjoy the benefits of increased yields derived from controlling erosion and conserving moisture through contour cultivation in connection with terraces. Mr. Smith stated that one can see contour cultivation being practiced on almost any terraced field under cultivation in the county. In eastern Kentucky the rolling land is of necessity cultivated on the contour for ease of cultivation in addition to the recognized need for erosion control. Western Kentucky farmers should not be discouraged in trying the same practice. The best results will be obtained if level lines are staked out at regular intervals, similar to terrace lines, by using a farm level and leveling rod. The land is then broken using the stake lines for guides on the stake lines. Then the rows are run with or parallel to this small ridge made by back-furrowing or bedding. This small ridge will remain for years as a permanent marker for future cultivation. It may also be built up larger with each successive breaking of the land or a very effective terrace may be developed with a little extra work.

In all cases, every slight depression or draw should be left in sod and tillage implements should be lifted over them, in order to maintain an outlet so that excess water can leave the field without causing gullies.

Mr. Smith stated that any farmer desiring further information on the problem of contour cultivation should see the camp superintendent of the local CCC or the technicians of the Soil Conservation Service in the Guthrie Building in Paducah.

Home on Twelfth Street Burns On Sunday Evening

Fire Sunday night destroyed the 9-room dwelling house of Mr. and Mrs. Dug Williams on North Twelfth Street. The building was the property of Nathan Lassiter, of Murray, and was partially covered by insurance.

The Williams were able to save only a few of the furnishings, which were but partially insured. Fire caught from the kitchen flue, it is believed. The conflagration was discovered about 8 o'clock, and it was too far gone by the time the local fire department arrived to be checked. Outbuildings and other near residences, however, were saved by the efforts of the fire fighters.

Mrs. Williams discovered the fire when she opened the door leading into the kitchen. Smoke mushroomed into the living room, and it was not long before the house was doomed.

Five million meals, one for every five of estimated attendance, are expected to be served on Treasure Island during San Francisco's 1939 Golden Gate International Exposition.

Palestine School News

Palestine School was invited to attend a community fair, held at Faxon October 13. The school attended in a big way. Their main entry was a history unit, from which they chose as their project an interior and exterior scene of a colonial home.

The boys worked in groups and made the different things for outside scene. The log cabin was made by Prentice Holland, Thomas Lovette, Donald Lee, and Ralph Bogard.

The meal hopper was made by Thomas Lovette. The well and old fashion pole drawing outfit was made by Ralph and Rudell Bogard.

Stocks used in punishing the colonial men were made by Duwood Lovett, David Lee Kendall, and the ducking chair was made by Edison Burken.

The old fashioned high post bed with curtains was made by Prentice Holland, Donald Lee, and the curtains were made by the following girls: Nell Scott, Estelle Bogard, Ruth Scott, Opal Lee, Ernestine Towery, Lunelle Brooks, Ruby Lewis, and Sue Holland.

Dolls were dressed by the following to suit the colonial period: Sue Holland, Lunelle Brooks, Opal Lee, Ruth Scott, Ernestine Towery, Nell Scott, and Estelle Bogard. Ruby Lewis made a small, old fashioned rag rug for the center on the interior scene. About 18 students accompanied their teacher on the eventful trip.

Our school received a total of 23 ribbons of first, second, and third ranking.

The Blue Ribbons won were as follows: History project, A $2.00 prize was also given for this winner. Roy race was won by Opal Lee, Nell Scott, Ruth Scott, and Estelle Bogard. Blue ribbon original poem for eighth grade, won by Opal Lee. Best specimen of 8th grade writing, won by Opal Lee.

In the Agriculture department, Ralph Bogard got a blue ribbon on best Irish potatoes. Thomas Lovett had best 10 ears of yellow corn. Sue Holland and Nell Scott had best beets.

In the Ladies' Department, Ruth Scott got blue ribbon on a quilt.

INTRIGUE

THE SCHEMING BLACK MICHAE and his beautiful sweetheart, Antoinette de Mauban, are played by Raymond Massey and Mary Astor in "The Prisoner of Zenda." David O. Selznick's magnificent production of the colorful Anthony Hope romance of love and intrigue in the courts of Europe which comes to the screen of the Capitol Theatre on Sunday and Monday with Ronald Colman, Madeleine Carroll and Douglas Fairbanks, Jr. in the leading roles.

Mr. Marvin Houston had best can of peach pickles: Mrs. Lovett was awarded a blue ribbon on a child's dress.

The red and white ribbon winners are too numerous to print.

We want to thank all the folks from Palestine districts and other sections who helped to make our part in the fair a success. And we want to compliment the nice, clean sportsmanship displayed by all the schools participating in the fair.

We also would like to announce that in the near future we are giving the following entertainment: A one-act farce by Dan Stevens, entitled "Eliza Gets Kissed."

The characters are as follows: Horace Jones, Edna Abigail, his wife, Gladys Fennell; their daughters, Alecia, Lunelle Brooks, Elaine, Ruby Lewis; Minnie, Sue Holland; Jerry Simpson, Alecia's husband; Prentice Holland; Archie Richards, Elaine's husband; David Lee, Kendall; Eliza Ballard, the maid who screams; Louelle Miller; Jim Dugan, her husband; Edison Burken.

The big play for the evening will follow and is entitled "The Fair Across the Hill." The characters are as follows:

Ruth Conrad, a lovable girl; Nell Scott; Walter Conrad, Ruth's brother; L. V. Ross, Mrs. Dugan, better known as Grandma; Ruth Scott; Samuel Crawford, a likable old gentleman; Paul Hopkins; Flo Gray, Ruth's cousin; Opal Lee; Leslie, Mrs. Davis' granddaughter; and very bad stuck on Walter, Ernestine Towery; Zuzu, the cook of the Conrad home; Estelle Bogard, Salamander; Alexander, John Henry Joffe; Zuzu's new husband, Vernon Billington; Dr. Jimmy, Ruth's sweetheart; Ralph Bogard. A full evening's entertainment with plenty of fun for all. Tickets will be sold and prizes given. A very small admission will be charged. Watch announcements for exact date.

S. Pleasant Grove

Rudolph Paschall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Barney Paschall, who has been attending Bible school in Florida, is visiting here.

At the missionary meeting at Mrs. Shannon Ellis' last week, Mrs. Ellis and Mrs. Elzo Gupton gave helpful talks demonstrating the power of the gospel in welfare of women and girls; also that we had missionaries in 10 countries. The annual social of this society will meet with Mrs. Walter Jackson next Thursday evening. The first week in November being week of prayer, the community is invited to meet with Mrs. Ellis Paschall on the afternoon of November 1 at 12 o'clock.

Miss Louise Paschall, who visited last week with her uncle, Elan Armstrong, near Kirksey, attended the Baptist Association at Calvert City, in Marshall County.

Elder Percy Ray, who held revival services the last two summers at Sinking Spring, preached at that church Saturday. He was enroute home from the Blood River Association meeting at Calvert City. Brother Ray is a fine preacher and persistent in the altar call at which time he permits several invitation songs to be sung and believes in the unceasing praying through and receiving the witness to salvation as spoken of in 1st John 5:10. Elsewhere will reveal the help he has been in helping souls to accept Christ.

You dear people in other countries and states please remember your home churches, not only in your prayers, but with some of the gold with which the Lord has blessed you.

This community was well represented at the county fair at Murray last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Waldrop moved last week to Cooper Armstrong's where Mrs. Waldrop and baby Glen will remain a few weeks, as Mr. Waldrop is leaving the last of the week for Detroit.

Frank Dalton and Halton West left last week to seek work in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Guthrie, Mr. and Mrs. Eldridge Smotherman and Hewlett Cooper left for Memphis last week to seek work.

Mr. and Mrs. Holmes Ellis and baby, of Lone Oak, were weekend visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Erwin.

Six Kentucky boys attending the University of Kentucky, Lexington, spent the week end with home folks. Harvey Ellis visited Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Ellis; Carman Parks, Murray Route 4, with his parents; George Hurley, Reidland; Vernon Treathan, with his parents at Almo; Warren Holt, at Fulton; and Ward Pillow with his parents at Water Valley.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard was ill with something like croup at its Grandfather Erwin's Sunday. A physician was called.

Mr. and Mrs. Dee Erwin of Akron, O., arrived Saturday night for a week's visit with relatives among whom are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Erwin, Sr. of Wisconsin.

The Sunday School lesson for October 31 is concerned with the drink problem. Our superintendents and teachers remember now is a special time by earnest preparation and help of God to present the evils of the drink problem. Many hearts in and near Murray and other parts of Callaway county have been made sad on account of the destruction of drink and who is to blame? Had Christian America done her duty many souls doomed to eternal destruction, might have instead had a home at the right hand of God where the streets are of gold and gates of pearl as spoken of in Revelation and God and his dear Son furnish the light for that glorious home. Don't you want to go there?

On September 26th, the children of the late Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Freeland were reunited at the old Freeland home on the State line road, eight miles east of Hazel, which is now operated by the youngest son, F. F. Freeland, Jr. Children present for the occasion were G. E. Freeland, Mrs. R. T. Moody, F. F. Freeland, Jr., of Buchanan, Tenn.; E. L. Freeland, Jackson, Tenn.; D. M. Freeland, Dearborn, Mich.; Mrs. H. C. McClure, Hazel, Ky.; A sister, Mrs. Will Maxley, Detroit, Mich., was unable to be present but had recently been here on a two months' visit. Other persons connected with the family present were J. E. Morgan, M. C. McClure, Hazel, R. T. Moody, Mrs. G. E. Freeland, Mrs. F. F. Freeland, Jr., Buchanan, Tenn.; grandchildren included Mr. and Mrs. Ira Morgan, Hazel, Mary Helen Freeland, Nashville, Tenn.; Alma Freeland, James Freeland, Mildred and Paul Moody of Buchanan, Tenn.

The long table in the dining room was loaded as of old with good eats at the noon hour.

There was sadness amid the pleasures as the family chain had lost three links, Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Freeland, Sr., and Mrs. P. E. Morgan.

Afternoon visitors were Tolle Christman, David Hutson, R. Adams, Hugh Christman and F. D. Moody, all of Buchanan, Tenn.

Kodaking and conversation were features of the afternoon entertainment.

I would like to say hello to my sister at Cottage Grove, Tenn., Route 2. Why don't you come to see me.

Pop Eye, we'd sure like to see you and your wife. Wish you all would come to see us before the roads get bad.

Mr. and Mrs. Warlick Hutson, Mr. and Mrs. Rob Duncan, and John Duncan, attended the fair Saturday at Murray.

Mrs. Maggie Burton spent Saturday afternoon by the bedside of Mrs. Bob Petty.

Mrs. Linda Simmonoff and Mrs. Bill Simmons were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Duncan—Ky. Bell.

Cedar Knob News

Say, did we have a cold night and some frost? Those cool mornings were severe reminders to Ky. Bell—that she needed some different clothing. Coal was even scarce but I chugged around and got by that spell. Don't know what I will do the next time, but guess I will make it some how. Laying all jokes aside, Old Man Winter has turned this way and, according to the old signs, he is just around the corner and is coming full speed ahead. Many wild geese have passed over going to their winter home.

War clouds are still gathering and point to the world's greatest catastrophe. If the war comes it will be so destructive it will make the past world war seem like a mere breakfast speech.

Miss Hattie Vaughn of Murray, Miss Velma McClure and Little brother, C. W. of Cherry Corner, were week-end guests of Mrs. Monnie Mitchell. Miss Pat Weatherston, Mrs. Fannie Wischart of Macedonia, and Mrs. Burton Osborn and son, Bobby, of New Providence, were also guests in the Mitchell home Monday afternoon.

"Aunt Cindy," I hope that baby boy will make a great president but I will be too old to vote. I hope that he will be able to keep the younger generations out of war.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Hendon and sons, Robert and Bill Edd, Bob and Warren Albritten attended the fair at Murray Saturday.

Mrs. Kittie Simmons, who has been confined to her bed since May 23, is slowly improving.

Purveyor Route 3

Odile Morris finished making molasses last week. I guess he and his family are all "sweet" by this time.

Mr. and Mrs. Commodore Orr and children were dinner guests Sunday of Mrs. Orr's father, Sam Paschall.

Little Miss Mary Katherine Morris is spending a very pleasant week with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Byars, and her Aunt Inez.

Mr. and Mrs. Glin Orr are the proud parents of a fine baby daughter, born Monday, October 18.

Miss Vivian and Eunice Paschall spent the day Monday in Odile Morris' cotton patch picking. I am sure they will soon be rich.

Grasshopper, the killing frost did come and I am sorry for you. I guess Golden Lock is up with her work as the frost has come.

We are glad that "Aunt Jennie" Jones was able to return to her home from the hospital.

We are glad to have all the new writers in the Ledger & Times. I like to read every one's news.

I hope Pop Eye doesn't get lost on his long trip as I am expecting flowers for the winter. Hurry back, Pop Eye.

Come on Old Maid and write about every one you know. I am always glad to hear from the North Lyan Grove people.

I wish all the good, old Ledger & Times writers would visit me. I have new sorghum molasses and plenty of popcorn. We could make some popcorn candy balls. Wouldn't that be fine—Humming Bird.

Featuring the DYNAFLASH ENGINE and TORQUE-FREE SPRINGING—in the Most Modern Chassis in the World

You won't drive a hundred yards in a new Buick without realizing that something marvelously new and different is happening here. It's something that happens in no other car, in no other engine.

Speeding through the intake manifold, the fuel charge hurries into the cylinder at something like 250 miles an hour.

Leaping to meet it is the piston, with a unique device called a Turbulator built into its face.

Then occurs something more than high compression—literally cyclompression—as swirling gasoline vapor is compacted about the spark plug.

The spark sets off a fast-size hurricane—and gasoline gives up more performance than it ever gave up in a commercial engine before!

This livelier, smarter power might seem enough for engineers to lavish on a car in a single year.

But matching DYNAFLASH power in importance is Buick TORQUE-FREE SPRINGING and its arrolite ride.

Take a Buick over a railroad crossing—around a curve—over bumps. There's no thud and chatter, no tail-swing or roll; you cover rough going with the silk-smoothness of a panther on the prowl.

All because old-type leaf springs are gone! In their place, each wheel has a soft, shock-smothering cushion of stout coiled steel.

Skid risks are blessedly reduced. Rear tires last longer. The whole car handles more easily! That's TORQUE-FREE SPRINGING at work!

If it's power you're after, you'll want Buick's DYNAFLASH engine. If it's comfort, you'll choose the TORQUE-FREE SPRINGING ride.

With either you get the other—plus half a score of features your Buick dealer is waiting to describe. See him now—for the engineering "must" story of the year!
