

5-31-1917

The Murray Ledger, May 31, 1917

The Murray Ledger

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.murraystate.edu/tml>

Recommended Citation

The Murray Ledger, "The Murray Ledger, May 31, 1917" (1917). The Murray Ledger. 490.
<https://digitalcommons.murraystate.edu/tml/490>

This Newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by the Newspapers at Murray State's Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Murray Ledger by an authorized administrator of Murray State's Digital Commons. For more information, please contact msu.digitalcommons@murraystate.edu.

THE MURRAY LEDGER.

VOL. 35, NO. 10

MURRAY, KENTUCKY, THURSDAY, MAY 31, 1917

$1.00 PER YEAR

REGISTRATION IS INTERPRETED BY DEPARTMENT

Washington, May 26. In its campaign to stimulate interest in registration June 5 for the army, the war department today issued a memorandum emphasizing the seven cardinal points to be remembered, particularly by men between the ages of 21 and 30, inclusive, who will be required to register. The memorandum follows:

"1. There is only one day for registration, June 5, 1917.

"2. Every male resident of the United States who has reached his 21st and who has not reached his 31st birthday must register on the day set, June 5, 1917. The only exceptions are persons in the military or naval service of the United States, which includes all officers and enlisted men of the regular army, regular army reserve, the officers' reserve corps, the enlisted reserve corps, the national guard and national guard reserve recognized by the militia bureau of the war department; the navy, the marine corps, the coast guard and the naval militia, the naval reserve force, the marine corps reserve and the national volunteers, recognized by the navy department.

"3. Registration is distinct from draft. No matter what just claim you have for exemption, you must register.

"4. Registration is a public duty. For those not responsive to the sense of this duty the penalty, imprisonment, not fine, is provided in the draft act.

"5. Those who through sickness shall be unable to register should cause a representative to apply to the county or city clerk for a copy of the registration card. The clerk will give instructions as to how this card should be filled out. The card should then be mailed by the sick person or delivered by his agent to the registrar of his home district. The sick person will enclose a self-addressed stamped envelope for the return to him of his registration certificate.

"6. Any person who expects to be absent from his voting precinct on registration day should apply as soon as possible for a registration card to the county clerk of the county where he may be stopping, or if he is in a city of over 30,000, to the city clerk. The clerk will record the answers on the card and turn it over to the absentee. The absentee should mail this card to the registrar of his home district so that it will reach this official by registration day. A self-addressed stamped envelope should be enclosed with the card to insure the return to the absentee of a registration certificate.

"7. Registration booths will be open from 7 a. m. to 9 p. m., on registration day, June 5, 1917."

Washington, May 26. By a Census Bureau estimate today

classifying the more than 10,000,000 men within the military draft age limit, the number of single men is placed at 5,372,000 and the number of married men at 4,545,900.

The estimate was prepared on a basis of a normal increase in population since the 1910 census and on the assumption that the ratio between married and single men is the same as at that time.

The classification by chief occupations is given as follows:

Agricultural, forestry and animal husbandry	2,864,000
Manufacturing and mechanical industries	3,036,000
Non-gainful occupations	500,500
Transportation	867,000
Trade	1,064,000
Public service	144,000
Domestic and personal service	441,000
Professional service	335,000
Clerical occupations	374,000
Extractions of minerals	364,000

The government, it has been stated, will not exempt any particular classes of industry from conscription, but will deal with cases individually. Individuals, however, whose work is considered necessary to preserve an economic balance will be exempted. Nearly every line of industry, it is said, has appealed to the War Department for exemption for its workers.

Some few classifications are not included in the figures.

Committee on Food Conservation.

The committee on National Defense, of Calloway county, has appointed the following men by precincts, and asks that each and every man co-operate with them in helping to conserve the resources of this good county, and help our nation with the allies win the world's war. This is our patriotic duty. We are working without compensation and will ask you to do the same. Our most important duty at the present is to urge every man to plant more corn and sorghum. Be sure to do this and urge the farmers to hold their hogs, and by all means do not sell them until they have reached at least 200 pounds in weight.

North Liberty, J. J. Williams and T. M. Ross; South Liberty, D. M. Hendricks and W. R. Fairwell; North Concord, F. H. Spiceland and A. C. Smith; South Concord, Brent Hart and Joe Montgomery; Jackson, E. D. Hurt and W. F. Peterson; Almo, J. M. Ines and Eugene Taffy; Southeast Murray, D. E. Lassiter and R. E. Clayton; Southwest Murray, L. Y. Woodruff and W. W. Dunn; Northwest Murray, Dave Clifton and Will Washer; Northeast Murray, Dan Clayton and J. V. Mayer; Fair, J. W. Hutchens and W. L. Johnson; North Brinkley, C. C. Smith and Lee Wilson; South Brinkley, A. H. Waldrop and K. C. Turner; North Swann, W. W. Howard and Lem Crouch; South Swann, Porter Camp and C. F. Paschall; Hazel, T. W. Thompson and Waymon Osborne.

Nearly 100 Conversions.

Princeton, May 28. The community revival being conducted here by Evangelist Burke Culpepper, of Memphis, has resulted in nearly 100 conversions.

WEST KENTUCKY IN PATH OF STORM THAT SWEEPS THROUGH 5 STATES.

Many Lives Are Lost and Property Destroyed Will Reach Millions.

The total number of dead in six of the west Kentucky and Tennessee towns visited by the tornado is estimated as follows:

South Dyersburg, 7.
Dublin, 5.
Hickman, 5.
Bondurant, 22.
Clinton, 18.
Bardwell, 3.

West Kentucky is struggling out of the chaos brought about by the worst storm in its history. Southern Illinois, West Tennessee and parts of Arkansas and Alabama were equally hard hit. The total loss of life is uncertain but will be above 300 persons. The injured number more than 600.

With wires down and roads miry from the rains, communication is difficult. Militia has been asked for by several of the towns and relief work has been organized in many places. In addition to the dead and injured the property loss will run into the millions for houses, livestock and crops.

It was one of the most erratic storms ever recorded. Striking Illinois Saturday, it subsided or swooped into space and descended on Kentucky, Tennessee and Alabama Sunday. Its broad area was in the Mississippi valley, but it jumped about with amazing variations of course within that sphere, and got as far east as Alabama.

The estimated dead and injured in eight towns and villages in four storm-swept southwestern counties continue to mount. Out of the confusion came reports from which it is indicated that at least 60 persons were killed and between 100 and 200 were injured. When all reports are in these numbers may swell to more than 80 dead and 200 injured.

Twenty-two persons, thirteen of them negroes, are reported dead and twenty injured at Bondurant, a mill-site near Hickman. Five are said to be dead and thirty injured on the outskirts of Hickman with a large number of casualties in the immediate vicinity. Dublin reported three killed and twenty-five injured.

Three are dead and twenty-five injured at Bardwell, Ky., where state troops have been asked for by County Judge Hudson. One of the killed there is a negro. Bardwell was the hardest hit of all towns in the path of the tornado. The city was virtually devastated and not a house left untouched.

Bardwell, Ky., May 28. — Three are dead, twenty-five injured, some seriously, and Bardwell is a mass of ruins as a result of the tornado that swept through here at 4:15 Sunday afternoon. The dead are:

Miss Sylvia Nelson, a school teacher; Mrs. Joney; one negro.

Every structure in the business district was practically demolished and there is not a house left that was not damaged.

Marion Farrar was injured in attempting to escape from the telephone office. Miss Nelson and Mrs. Joney were killed at their homes. A squad of emergency police is on duty here but there has been no attempt at looting.

Twenty-five people were injured, some badly. They were rushed to Cairo hospitals. A number of Cairo doctors are here to care for the injured. Bardwell is in dire straits for supplies and hundreds are homeless.

Governor Sends Troops.

Frankfort, Ky., May 28. In response to the request from the storm-swept district of Western Kentucky for aid, Gov. Stanley has ordered a field hospital and ambulance company military unit now in the state service to proceed at once to the stricken district.

Many Dead in Alabama.

Birmingham, Ala., May 28. Incomplete reports from the territory swept by the storm last night, indicate thirty-one persons were killed and more than one hundred injured. Many towns in the path of the storm were cut off from communication.

Memphis, Tenn., May 28. Later estimate places the dead in the territory of the four storm-swept southern states at 103; injured more than 300. Wire communication to scores of points is prostrated but news trickling into larger towns indicate property damage is heavy.

Hits Hickman at 4:30 O'clock.

The storm struck Hickman at 4:30 o'clock, going north. "A great black cloud, funnel-shaped took everything in its path. It swirled at a terrific speed and where it swooped toward the earth, death and destruction followed in its wake.

On the farm of S. L. Dodds, a wealthy planter, living near Bondurant, 13 negroes were killed.

Fearful damage was done to life and property at the town of Bondurant, Ky., a few miles below Hickman. Early estimates showed 22 dead at this place. Thirteen of these were negroes killed on the Dodds place.

Alvin Henderson and a family of three were blown from their home at Bondurant into a creek many yards away and were drowned. Another daughter of Henderson will die.

Cam Perrington, of Bondurant was seriously hurt.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Gardner were both blown into a creek. Mrs. Gardner will not live.

Tump Henderson, at Bondurant, was found dead with a broken leg and probably internal injuries.

Mrs. Cay Hill, of Bondurant, died in the hospital at Hickman, where she was carried after the Williams Gaugh.

One of the most artistic and pretty church weddings in Murray was that solemnized in the First Baptist church of this city Thursday evening at 8 o'clock, when the bride's father, Mr. Joseph Williams, gave in marriage his daughter, Hilda Evelyn, to Mr. Clarence Russell Gaugh, of Lexington, Ky. The altar was banked in ferns and cut flowers with arches over the main aisles, all carrying out the pink and white color scheme. Rev. H. B. Taylor performed the ceremony. The musical program rendered was as follows: Vocal solo, Because I Love You, Amanda Oury Wear; quartette, Beloved It Is Morn, Mesdames George Gatlif, W. S. Swan, Effie Gatlif and Miss Lena Pitt; solo, Love's Old Sweet Song, Mrs. W. S. Swan; violin obligato, Mr. E. J. Beale, piano accompaniment, Mrs. E. J. Beale; solo, My Dear, Dr. Hugh McElrath; wedding march, Mrs. Barber McElrath.

Ushers: Dr. J. B. Acrea, of Paducah; Henry Smoot, J. T. Parker, Joe Brown Williams, Bryan Langston; best man, Dr. Delon Williams, of Chicago, brother of the bride; maid of honor, Miss Anna Mary Tishel, of Modet, Tenn.; bridesmaid, Miss Bernice Edwards; flower girl, little Anna Martha Parker; ring bearer, Mary Margaret Holland.

The bride wore a handsome gown of crepe meteor, embroidered in seed pearls with trimming of imported lace, and shower bouquet of bride roses and valley lilies. The maids wore gowns of pink tulle embroidered in silver and carried pink roses.

Miss Williams is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Williams and a lovely blonde, and a graduate of Murray High School.

Mr. Gaugh is a son of Mr. and Mrs. B. O. Gaugh, of Lexington, Ky., and a graduate of this year's class in mechanical and electrical engineering of the State University. They will be entertained enroute to Lexington at Louisville and Frankfort.

Dies of Meningitis.

Marlin Andrews Jeffrey, second son of J. E. Jeffrey and wife, died Monday afternoon after 31 days' illness, aged twelve years and nine months.

About six years ago Marlin fell from a buggy and was run over and it is believed that this fall was the primary cause of his death. He was taken ill with severe pains in his head and the doctors pronounced his trouble meningitis, then afterwards typhoid developed. Every attention was given the little sufferer by family, friends, physicians and nurses that love could devise or money could buy. His staying was prolonged but death could not be averted.

The Methodist church was beautifully decorated for the services held by Revs. E. B. Motley and H. W. Brooks, after which the burial took place at Stewart graveyard near Dexter.

The child who enters life without knowledge or intent. So those who enter death must give little children sent. Nothing is known. But I believe that is the only way. And as life is to the living, so death is to the dead.

GENERAL YOUNG TO PLEAD FOR LUBE MARTIN.

General Bennett H. Young, of Louisville, one of Kentucky's foremost attorneys, and former commander-in-chief of the United Confederate Veterans, will argue the case for Lube Martin, negro, convicted murderer of Guthrie Diuguid, at Murray on December 9, before the court of appeals of Kentucky, if the defense's plea for oral argument is sustained by the appellate court, as it probably will be. Martin, who was sentenced to death in the electric chair for the murder, is in the McCracken county jail now, pending action on his appeal from the judgment of the Calloway circuit court.

Col. A. D. Thompson, of Murray, who with Attorney Pat Holt, has defended the negro, was in Paducah yesterday to have Martin make certain depositions, and made the announcement about General Young's connection with the case. Paducah News-Democrat.

Sleeps 96 Hours Before Death.

After sleeping for 96 hours, Joseph Eley, aged 32, of Sharp, Ky., died Friday afternoon at 3:50 o'clock from an illness of pneumonia and measles. Eley went to sleep early last Monday night, and never awakened. Efforts to rouse him were fruitless, although physicians, and relatives were at his bedside constantly. The funeral was held Saturday afternoon at Benton, with Rev. M. Castleberry officiating.

Mr. Eley was one of the prominent men of Marshall county, he being a trader, and having many friends. He is survived by his wife and two children, Pauline, 8, and Frank, 4. His parents, and the following brothers and sisters also survive: Mrs. Dan Thompson, Mrs. Tom Hill, Mrs. Sam Ferguson, Mrs. Jack Fisher, of Benton and Messrs. Robert, Dan, Charley and Sam Eley. He was a member of the Baptist church. Paducah News-Democrat.

TOBACCO TIDINGS

Buyers riding the county are offering $14 and $9 for good tobacco. A considerable amount has changed hands at prices ranging from $12 to $13 for leaf and lugs selling at $8 and $9.

Hundreds of loads have been delivered since Monday to local concerns while much has been hauled to Mayfield buyers. The Mayfield Messenger reports an active market with strong demand for all offerings at good prices. There yet remains in the hands of Calloway and Graves farmers a considerable amount of good tobacco and every indication points to increased activity among both Mayfield and Murray buyers until the remainder of the crop is sold.

FARMERS AND MERCHANTS BANK

MURRAY, KENTUCKY

SAFE : SOUND : SOLID

DIRECTORS: G. O. Gingles, M. T. Morris, C. B. Fulton, C. R. Broach, W. L. Fulton, P. A. Houston and T. J. Manslee

WE ARE CAR LOT BUYERS OF THE FAMOUS

McHenry - Millhouse Manufacturing Company's Roofing Products

WHOSE TRADEMARK IS

"The Roofing That Never Leaks"

THEY are the largest manufacturers of good roofing in the U. S. A. Their roofing is made on a wool felt base which is saturated with a Gilsonite Asphalt saturation, which is forced by air pressure through every fibre of the felt. The felt is then compressed making a strong durable base. This description applies to our smooth surface roofing as well as the crushed rock face surfaces.

Our 1, 2 and 3 ply Veribest and Durable roofing we place with you on the following conditions: A written guarantee of 5, 8 and 12 years. Coated well once within 18 months of application an inexpensive coating.

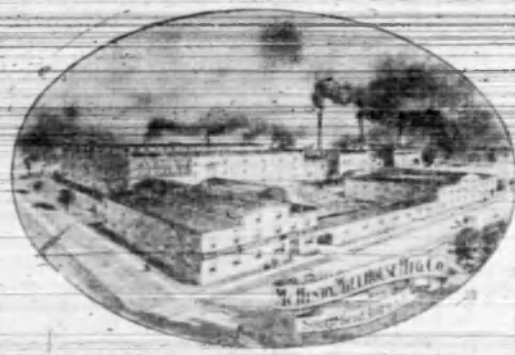

Crystal Top Roofing

Weight, 75 pounds per square, complete with galvanized nails and cement. Crystal Top Roofing will last for years and needs no painting, is easily laid and absolutely free from coal tar or any other deteriorating substance. This roofing contains a high grade asphalt saturation and coating. It is fire brand proof, acid proof and weather proof, and is sold at a reasonable price. Crystal Top Roofing is surfaced on the weather side with crushed felspar which is firmly embedded in the asphalt material, forming the body of the roofing. The result is a granite like surface requiring no painting. Furthermore, it presents a handsome appearance. There is no similar roofing on the market that can equal it either in durability or looks. Put up in one square rolls containing 108 square feet.

Samples of
Roofing and Prices
Will be Mailed to You Upon Request

Green Slate Surface Roofing

This grade of ornamental roofing is surfaced with a mineral containing a beautiful and permanent green shade. The mineral surfacing, while giving a beautiful green effect to the face of the roofing which will never fade or discolor, also furnishes at the same time a weather-resisting coating that can be depended upon for service for many years to come. Green Slate Roofing is recommended for small homes, good barns or any class of buildings where an ornamental effect is desired at small cost. It is made on the heaviest wool felt used in best grades of roofing and is 32 inches wide, weighs 80 pounds per roll, complete with galvanized nails and cement.

In connection with the above roofing we can sell you some cheap roofing, but QUALITY COUNTS.

Yours truly,

Hughes & Irvan Lumber Co.

At the J. B. HAY LUMBER COMPANY'S Old Stand.

For any pain, burn, scald or bruise, apply Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil—the household remedy. Two sizes, 2¢ and 50¢ at all drug stores.

If it is a piano, organ or graphophone you need, we have it. —Murray Furniture and Undertaking Co.

Brand new Maxwell automobile, just from factory, 1917 model. Will sell on one, two and three years' time; to suit purchaser. For further information apply at this office.

IN BUYING

HANNA'S Green Seal Paint

you need take nothing for granted—the exact formula is printed on the back of every package. This formula is the result of 28 years of painstaking experience, costly experiments, and it is mathematically correct.

This formula discloses that Hanna's Green Seal Paint is composed of a predominance of pure White Lead with just enough zinc to temper or harden it to prevent chalking quickly.

Hanna's Green Seal
"The Made to Wear Paint"

SOLD BY

Hughes & Irvan Lumber Co.

FORMER CALLOWAYIAN WRITES LETTER FROM DETROIT, TEXAS

Detroit, Texas, May 5, 1917. Editor Ledger: Will write you a few lines as it has been a long time since I have written.

Crops are very fine out here this time. Corn is up nearly knee high. We have a good stand of cotton, but a reduced acreage of at least 25 per cent. More foodstuffs, grain and truck has been planted than I ever saw here, lots of peanuts and a very large potato crop being put out. There is a fine crop of all kinds of fruit. All kinds of stock is very high, also corn, which is selling for $1.00 per bushel. Meat is 25 cents; flour, best grade, $14 per barrel; poultry is also high. People have fine gardens and are living off them.

There is a great deal of war talk and many of the men here are enlisting.

I had a very pleasant and profitable fishing trip to the lake last week. We have a lot of fine lakes on Red river, full of game fish of all kinds. So when I get fish hungry I hitch up and make for the lake twenty miles away. We make the trip in four hours in wagons or an hour in the automobile.

I intend to visit old Calloway this fall if I live and hope to see you with a 45 gun or a Winchester (the sheriff carries both of these).

With kind regards to all old friends, I am, Yours truly,
J. T. Phillips.

Strayed. Two shoats, weigh about 50 pounds each, black with white spots. They left home about May 5th. Notify J. W. Winchester and be rewarded for your trouble.

itching, bleeding, protruding or blind piles have yielded to Dr. Ointment. See at all stores.

Corns Peel Right Off With "Gels-It"

2 Drops, and the Corn is a "Goner!" When you've got to walk on a mass of your shoe to get away from those awful corns, there's one common-sense thing to do.

See "Gels-It" Your Corns Won't Swell in Water. Resists. They'll Shrink, Loosen and Peel Off! Put 2 or 3 drops of "Gels-It" on the corn right away. Pain and inflammation will disappear, the corn will begin to shrink from that instant when it loosens and falls right off. There's no other corn-remover in the world that acts like "Gels-It." No raw discolors have been made in corn-removers since "Gels-It" was born. Don't forget that fact. "Gels-It" does away forever with the use of salves that irritate, burn and make a bundle of your toe, pinches that half do the work, knives and scissors that draw blood. Use "Gels-It"—no more digging or cutting. "Gels-It" is sold everywhere. See a bottle, or send on receipt of price by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

Sold in Murray and recommended the world's best corn remedy by J. B. Wear and Dale, Springfield, Mo., and H. D. Thornton, D. C.

DOWNWARD COURSE.

Fast Being Realized by Murray People
A little backache at first.
Daily increasing 'till the back is lame and weak.
Urinary disorders may quickly follow:
Dropsy and often Bright's disease.

This frequently is the downward course of kidney ills.
Don't take this course. Follow the advice of a Murray citizen.

W. B. Hay, Water St. Murray, says: "My kidneys were out of order and I had a sort of dull ache across my hips. The trouble was caused by heavy lifting. Whenever I have suffered in that way, Doan's Kidney Pills have always regulated the action of my kidneys and have helped my back."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills the same that Mr. Hay had. L. Foster Milburn Co. Prop. Buffalo, N. Y.

This Convict a Brave Soldier.

In the June Woman's Home Companion is the story of a convict who distinguished himself on the Western front. In a letter to a woman who befriended him after his imprisonment he speaks of having been in charge of some German prisoners.

"Friend or enemy," he said, "a prisoner is a man whose mind I understand. In the second letter he told of the death of a young German lieutenant. 'He was horribly shot up, but he lived through the night. If my German never serves me again it has stood me in good stead, for I was able to take down messages and a letter for that dying chap—dead game he was. As the delirium set in, he thought I was his brother and he died quite happy, talking of our home and our old hunting dog, and a few words from me every now and then served to keep up the delusion. Game little kid—he did his bit gallantly. With better men mowed down around me, I haven't lost so much as a pinfeather. Hardly such luck as to get on the old regiment's list of 'Killed in action,'—but to have the chance at it instead of rotting away in prison! These are the richest days of my life.'"

"Afterwards we had a few lines from his mother, written with the quiet heroism of English women. She enclosed a copy of a letter from an officer in Todd's regiment, in which he said that her son had seemed to bear a charmed life, escaping unhurt through acts of reckless daring.

"The morning on which he was killed, he went out under a heavy shell, rifle and machine-gun fire and succeeded in bringing to safety a wounded man who had been lying in the open. As he was handing the man over the parapet, he himself was struck down. A sergeant told me he saw your son smile as he was struck. When later his body was brought to a place of safety, there was an extraordinary look of exaltation in his face. 'You gave a brave soldier to England, and the regiment mourns his loss.'"

Wool Brings Fancy Price.

Over twenty-five hundred pounds of wool sold in a pool in Cadiz last Monday brought the highest price of any sale yet reported from any section of the country. The average price was over sixty-four cents.

I. B. Porter, of Maggie, was the manager of the pool, and Block Bros., of Cadiz, were the buyers, a number of other buyers, several from a distance, being here to bid on the pool. 1,552 pounds, at 66¢ cents, brought a total of $1,032.46; 482 pounds, at 62¢ cents, brought $299.84; 634 pounds, at 67¢ cents, brought $423.78. Cadiz Record.

AMERICA AND THE WORLD OF TOMORROW

Subject to Be Discussed Here by Dr. Martin D. Hardin.

Timely Lecture by One of Chicago's Best Known Pulpit Orators on the First Night of the Chautauqua.

"I am not a 'peace at any price' man," declares Dr. Martin D. Hardin, whose peace lecture concerning the titanic struggle in Europe was declared by William J. Bryan to be "the strongest speech delivered in America on the European situation."

DR. MARTIN D. HARDIN

has America to offer the world? These are the questions which Dr. Hardin discussed by Dr. Hardin. You will find America a more and better world for living than this one.

Not long ago when Dr. Hardin was introduced to an audience in Chicago, a man came to the front and said: "I have a question to ask you, Dr. Hardin. You were a member of the House of Representatives. Why, that fellow has got enough to be a peace maker."

He asked of Dr. Hardin. Dr. Hardin is a man, more to the point, he is an earnest student. He is a man of letters, in being and always spends some of his vacation time in the Wisconsin lake region. As a matter of fact, Dr. Hardin is an ardent student. He is a man of letters, in being and always spends some of his vacation time in the Wisconsin lake region. As a matter of fact, Dr. Hardin is an ardent student.

While a college student, Dr. Hardin gave evidence of the fine strategic powers which he possesses and which, developed with experience, have won him today the acknowledgment of being one of the masters of public speaking. While in college he competed with the representatives of the entire South for the title of the southern statesman oratorical champion. Dr. Hardin is a son in law of the late Vice President Adlai Stevenson.

A graduate of both Dr. Hardin and Dr. Stevenson, Dr. Hardin has been a member of the House of Representatives for many years. He has been a member of the House of Representatives for many years. He has been a member of the House of Representatives for many years.

Because of his intensive study and extensive research and through his visits to practically all of the war-torn countries, Dr. Hardin's advice has been much sought by others. He has been made a member of the War Relocation Authority of the Federal Government.

In these years he was in charge of the activities of the Third Freshly, teria, which in Chicago, held more than 1,000 members. He organized the West Side Sunday Night club and successfully was this carried on that an average of 1,400 people were present each Sunday evening. Prior to his coming to Chicago he was pastor of the largest Presbyterian church in the southern, annually at Charlotte, N. C.

Dr. Hardin has just returned from the trip "Civilization at the Crossroads" speaking to large audiences in 112 cities on one of the western Redpath circuits.

Dyspepsia is America's curse. To restore digestion, normal weight, and good health and purify the blood, use Burdock Bitters. Sold at all drug stores. Price, $1.00.

"K"

By Mary Roberts Rinehart

CHAPTER XXIII—Continued.

"Do you have to walk as fast as this?"

"I said I was in a hurry. Once a week I get off a little early to go to the hospital. The Rosenfeld boy—"

The monstrous injustice of the thing overcame her. Palmer and she walking about, and the boy lying on his back! She choked.

"Well?"

"He worries about his mother. If you could give her some money, it would help."

"Money? I paid his board for two months in the hospital."

When she did acknowledge this generosity, amounting to forty-eight dollars—his irritation grew. Her silence was an accusation. She was too calm in his presence, too cold. Where it had pleased his pride to think that she had given her up, he found that the shoe was on the other foot.

At the entrance to a side street she stopped.

"I turn off here."

"May I come and see you sometime?"

"No, please."

"That's flat, is it?"

"It is, Palmer."

He swung around savagely and left her.

The next day he drew over a thousand dollars from the bank. A good many of his debts he wanted to pay in cash; there was no use putting checks through with humiliating endorsements. Also, he liked the idea of carrying a roll of money around. The big fellows at the clubs always had a wad and peeled off bills like skin off an onion. He took a couple of drinks to celebrate his approaching immunity from debt.

At nine o'clock that night he found Grace. She had moved to a cheap apartment which she shared with two other girls from the store. The others were out. It was his lucky day, surely. His drunkenness was of the mind, mostly. His muscles were well controlled. The flame from his nose to the corners of his mouth were slightly accentuated, his eyes open a trifle wider than usual. That and a slight paleness of the nostrils were the only evidence of his condition. But Grace knew the signs.

"You can't come in."

"Of course I'm coming in."

She retreated before him, her eyes watchful. Men in his condition were apt to be as quick with a blow as with a caress. But, having gained his point, he was amiable.

"Get your things on and come out. We can take to a roof garden."

"I've told you I'm not doing that sort of thing."

He was less steady than he had been. The heat of the little flat brought more blood to his head. He wavered as he stood just inside the door.

"You must go back to your wife."

"She doesn't want me. She's in love with a fellow at the house."

"Palmer, bush!"

"I only want to take you out for a good time. I've got money. Look here!"

He drew out a roll of bills and showed it to her. Her eyes opened wide. She had never known him to have much money.

"Lots more where that comes from."

A new look flashed into her eyes, not curiosity, but purpose.

She was instantly cunning.

"Aren't you going to give me some of that?"

"What for?"

"I want it for Johnny Rosenfeld."

He thrust it back into his pocket, but his hand retained its grasp of it.

"That's it," he complained. "Don't let me be happy for a minute! Throw it all up to me!"

"You give me that for the Rosenfeld boy, and I'll go out with you."

"I'll give you all that I want. I want money to go out with."

But his eyes were wavering. She could see victory.

"Take off enough for the evening."

But he drew himself up.

"It's my lucky day," he said thickly. "Plenty more where this came from. Do anything for you. Give it to the little devil. I—" He yawned.

His head dropped back on his chair; he propped his sagging legs on a stool. She knew him—knew that he would sleep almost all night. She would have to make up something to tell the other girls; but no matter—she could attend to that later.

She passed in, pinning on her hat, to count the bill. She had never had a thousand dollars in her hands before.

CHAPTER XXIV.

K. went all of the evening of that day with Wilson. He was not to go for Joe until eleven o'clock. The injured man's vitality was standing him in good stead. He had asked for Sidney and she was at his bedside. Doctor Ed Beckford.

K. found Sidney in the room, not sitting, but standing by the window. The sick man was dozing. One shaded light burned in a far corner. She turned slowly and met his eyes. It seemed to K. that she looked at him as if she had never really seen him before, and he was right. Injustices are always difficult.

Sidney was trying to reconcile the K. she had known so well with this new K., no longer obscure, although still shabby, whose height had suddenly become presence, whose quiet was the quiet of infinite power.

She was suddenly shy of him, as he stood looking down at her. He saw the gleam of her engagement ring on her finger. It seemed almost defiant. As though she had meant by wearing it to emphasize her belief in her lover. They did not speak beyond their greeting, until he had gone over the record. Then: "We can't talk here. I want to talk to you, K."

He led the way into the corridor. It was very dim. Far away was the night nurse's desk, with its lamp, its annunciator, its pile of records. The passage door reflected the light on glistening boards.

"I have been thinking until I'm almost crazy, K. And now I know how it happened. It was Joe."

"The principal thing is, not how it happened, but that he is going to get well, Sidney."

She stood looking down, twisting her ring around her finger.

"Is Joe in any danger?"

"We are going to get him away to-night. He wants to go to Cuba. He'll get off safely, I think."

"We are going to get him away! You are, you mean. You shoulder all our troubles, K., as if they were your own."

"I'm He was genuinely surprised. "Oh, I see. You mean—but my part in getting Joe off is practically nothing. As a matter of fact, Schwitzer has put up the money. My total capital in the world, after paying for the machine today, is seven dollars."

"You, of course," said she. "You find Max and save him—don't look like that! You did, didn't you? And you get Joe away, borrowing money to send him."

He looked uncomfortable, almost guilty.

"When I look back and remember how all these months I've been talking about service, and you said nothing at all, and all the time you were living what I preached—I'm so ashamed, K."

He would not allow that. It distressed him. She saw that and tried to smile.

"When does Joe go?"

"Tonight. I'm to take him across the country to the railroad. I was wondering—"

"Yes?"

"I'd better explain first. Then if you are willing to send him a line, I think it would help. He saw a girl in white in the car and thought it was you, of course. Carlotta was taken ill, and Schwitzer and—and Wilson took her upstairs to a room."

"He saw Max coming out and misunderstood. He fired at him then."

"He did it for me. I feel very guilty, K., as if it all comes back to me. I'll write to him, of course. Poor Joe!"

He watched her go down the hall toward the night nurse's desk. Then he went back into the quiet room.

He stood by the bedside, looking down. Wilson was breathing quietly; his color was coming up, as he rallied from the shock. In K.'s mind now was just one thought—to bring him through

"The way he came here, K."

"I do. He saw Max coming out and misunderstood. He fired at him then."

"He did it for me. I feel very guilty, K., as if it all comes back to me. I'll write to him, of course. Poor Joe!"

He watched her go down the hall toward the night nurse's desk. Then he went back into the quiet room.

He stood by the bedside, looking down. Wilson was breathing quietly; his color was coming up, as he rallied from the shock. In K.'s mind now was just one thought—to bring him through

"The way he came here, K."

"I do. He saw Max coming out and misunderstood. He fired at him then."

"He did it for me. I feel very guilty, K., as if it all comes back to me. I'll write to him, of course. Poor Joe!"

He watched her go down the hall toward the night nurse's desk. Then he went back into the quiet room.

He stood by the bedside, looking down. Wilson was breathing quietly; his color was coming up, as he rallied from the shock. In K.'s mind now was just one thought—to bring him through

"The way he came here, K."

"I do. He saw Max coming out and misunderstood. He fired at him then."

"He did it for me. I feel very guilty, K., as if it all comes back to me. I'll write to him, of course. Poor Joe!"

He watched her go down the hall toward the night nurse's desk. Then he went back into the quiet room.

He stood by the bedside, looking down. Wilson was breathing quietly; his color was coming up, as he rallied from the shock. In K.'s mind now was just one thought—to bring him through

"The way he came here, K."

"I do. He saw Max coming out and misunderstood. He fired at him then."

"He did it for me. I feel very guilty, K., as if it all comes back to me. I'll write to him, of course. Poor Joe!"

He watched her go down the hall toward the night nurse's desk. Then he went back into the quiet room.

He stood by the bedside, looking down. Wilson was breathing quietly; his color was coming up, as he rallied from the shock. In K.'s mind now was just one thought—to bring him through

"The way he came here, K."

"I do. He saw Max coming out and misunderstood. He fired at him then."

"He did it for me. I feel very guilty, K., as if it all comes back to me. I'll write to him, of course. Poor Joe!"

He watched her go down the hall toward the night nurse's desk. Then he went back into the quiet room.

He stood by the bedside, looking down. Wilson was breathing quietly; his color was coming up, as he rallied from the shock. In K.'s mind now was just one thought—to bring him through

"The way he came here, K."

"I do. He saw Max coming out and misunderstood. He fired at him then."

"He did it for me. I feel very guilty, K., as if it all comes back to me. I'll write to him, of course. Poor Joe!"

He watched her go down the hall toward the night nurse's desk. Then he went back into the quiet room.

He stood by the bedside, looking down. Wilson was breathing quietly; his color was coming up, as he rallied from the shock. In K.'s mind now was just one thought—to bring him through

"The way he came here, K."

"I do. He saw Max coming out and misunderstood. He fired at him then."

"He did it for me. I feel very guilty, K., as if it all comes back to me. I'll write to him, of course. Poor Joe!"

He watched her go down the hall toward the night nurse's desk. Then he went back into the quiet room.

He stood by the bedside, looking down. Wilson was breathing quietly; his color was coming up, as he rallied from the shock. In K.'s mind now was just one thought—to bring him through

"The way he came here, K."

"I do. He saw Max coming out and misunderstood. He fired at him then."

"He did it for me. I feel very guilty, K., as if it all comes back to me. I'll write to him, of course. Poor Joe!"

He watched her go down the hall toward the night nurse's desk. Then he went back into the quiet room.

He stood by the bedside, looking down. Wilson was breathing quietly; his color was coming up, as he rallied from the shock. In K.'s mind now was just one thought—to bring him through a day or two before we are quite sure."

She stood looking down at Wilson's quiet figure.

"I guess you know I've been crazy about him," she said quietly. "Well, there's an over. He never really cared for me. I played his game and I lost. I've been expelled from the school."

Quite suddenly she dropped on her knees beside the bed, and put her cheek close to the sleeping man's head. When after a moment she rose, she was turned again, calm, very white.

She turned toward the door. But K. could not let her go like that. Her face frightened him. It was too calm, too controlled. He followed her across the room.

"What are your plans?"

"I haven't any. I'm about through with my training, but I've lost my diploma."

"I don't like to see you going away like this."

She avoided his eyes, but his kindly tone did what neither the head nor the executive committee had done that day. It shook her control.

"What does it matter to you? You don't owe me anything."

"Perhaps not. One way and another I've known you a long time."

"You never knew anything very good."

"I'll tell you where I live, and—"

"I know where you live!"

"Will you come to see me there? We may be able to think of something."

"What as does it mean, K. This story will follow me wherever I go! I've tried twice for a diploma and failed. What's the use?"

But in the end he prevailed on her to promise not to leave the city until she had seen him again. It was not until she had gone, a straight figure with haunted eyes, that he reflected whimsically that once again he had defeated his own plans for flight.

Sidney brought her letter to Joe back to K. She was flushed with the effort and with a new excitement.

"The most remarkable thing has happened. What a day this has been! Somebody has sent Johnny Rosenfeld a lot of money. The ward nurse wants you to come back."

The ward had settled for the night. The well-ordered beds of the daytime were chaotic now, torn apart by long figures. The night was hot and an electric fan hummed in a far corner. Under its sporadic breeze, as it turned, the ward was trying to sleep.

Johnny Rosenfeld was not asleep. An incredible thing had happened to him. A fortune lay under his pillow. He was sure it was there, for ever since it came his hot hand had clutched it.

He was quite sure that somehow or other K. had had a hand in it. When he disclaimed it, the boy was bewildered.

"I'll buy the old lady what she wants for the house, anyhow," he said. "But I hope nobody's took up a collection for me. I don't want no charity."

"Maybe Mr. Howe sent it."

"You can bet your last match he didn't!"

In some unknown way the news had reached the ward that Johnny's friend, Mr. Le Moyne, was a great surgeon. Johnny had rejected it scornfully.

But the story had seized on his imagination.

"Say, Mr. Le Moyne."

"Yes, Jack."

He called him "Jack." The boy liked it. It savored of man to man. After all, he was a man, or almost. Hadn't he driven a car? Didn't he have a state license?

"They say that you're a surgeon!"

"You operated on Doctor Wilson and saved his life. They say that you're the king pin where you came from."

He eyed K. wistfully. "I know it's a lie, but if it's true—Don't you think you could do something for me, sir?"

When K. did not reply at once, he launched into an explanation.

"I've been lying here a good while. I didn't say much because I knew I'd have to take a chance. Either I'd pull through or I wouldn't, and the odds were—well, I don't say much. The old lady had a lot of trouble. But now, with this under my pillow for her, I've got a right to ask. I'll take a chance, if you will."

"It's only a chance, Jack."

"I know that. But he here and with these doctors of the street. Old, a lot of them, and getting well to go out and starve, and—Mr. Le Moyne, they can walk, and I can't."

K. drew a long breath. He had started, and now he must go on. Faith in himself or no faith, he must go on. Life, that had found him again.

"I'll go over you carefully tomorrow, Jack. I'll tell you your chances honestly."

"I have a thousand dollars. What ever you want."

"I'll let it out of my board bill in the new house."

At four o'clock that morning K. got back from seeing Joe off. The trip had been without accident.

Over Sidney's letter Joe had shed a shapely tear or two. And during the night ride, with K. pushing the boy to the utmost, he had felt that the boy, in keeping his hand in his pocket, had kept it on the letter. When the road was smooth and stretched ahead, a gray-white line into the night, he tried to talk a little courage into the boy's sick heart.

"You'll see new people, new life," he said. "In a month from now you'll wonder why you ever hung around the Street. I have a feeling that you're going to make good down there."

And once, when the time for parting was very near—

"No matter what happens, keep on believing in yourself. I put my faith in myself once. It was pretty close to hell."

Joe's response showed his entire faith in K. "If he dies, I'm a murderer."

"He's not going to die," said K. stoutly.

At four o'clock in the morning he left the car at the garage and walked to the little house. He had had no sleep for forty-five hours; his eyes were sunken in his head; the skin over his temples looked drawn and white. His clothes were wrinkled; the soft hat he habitually wore was white with the dust of the road.

As he opened the hall door, Christine stirred in the room beyond. She came out fully dressed.

"K., are you sick?"

"Rather tired. Why in the world aren't you in bed?"

"Palmer has just come home in a terrible rage. He says he's been robbed of a thousand dollars."

"Where?"

Christine shrugged her shoulders. "He doesn't know, or says he doesn't."

Joe's response showed his entire faith in K. "If he dies, I'm a murderer."

"He's not going to die," said K. stoutly.

At four o'clock in the morning he left the car at the garage and walked to the little house. He had had no sleep for forty-five hours; his eyes were sunken in his head; the skin over his temples looked drawn and white. His clothes were wrinkled; the soft hat he habitually wore was white with the dust of the road.

As he opened the hall door, Christine stirred in the room beyond. She came out fully dressed.

"K., are you sick?"

"Rather tired. Why in the world aren't you in bed?"

"Palmer has just come home in a terrible rage. He says he's been robbed of a thousand dollars."

"Where?"

Christine shrugged her shoulders. "He doesn't know, or says he doesn't."

At four o'clock in the morning he left the car at the garage and walked to the little house. He had had no sleep for forty-five hours; his eyes were sunken in his head; the skin over his temples looked drawn and white. His clothes were wrinkled; the soft hat he habitually wore was white with the dust of the road.

As he opened the hall door, Christine stirred in the room beyond. She came out fully dressed.

"K., are you sick?"

"Rather tired. Why in the world aren't you in bed?"

"Palmer has just come home in a terrible rage. He says he's been robbed of a thousand dollars."

"Where?"

Christine shrugged her shoulders. "He doesn't know, or says he doesn't."

At four o'clock in the morning he left the car at the garage and walked to the little house. He had had no sleep for forty-five hours; his eyes were sunken in his head; the skin over his temples looked drawn and white. His clothes were wrinkled; the soft hat he habitually wore was white with the dust of the road.

As he opened the hall door, Christine stirred in the room beyond. She came out fully dressed.

"K., are you sick?"

"Rather tired. Why in the world aren't you in bed?"

"Palmer has just come home in a terrible rage. He says he's been robbed of a thousand dollars."

"Where?"

Christine shrugged her shoulders. "He doesn't know, or says he doesn't."

At four o'clock in the morning he left the car at the garage and walked to the little house. He had had no sleep for forty-five hours; his eyes were sunken in his head; the skin over his temples looked drawn and white. His clothes were wrinkled; the soft hat he habitually wore was white with the dust of the road.

As he opened the hall door, Christine stirred in the room beyond. She came out fully dressed.

"K., are you sick?"

"Rather tired. Why in the world aren't you in bed?"

"Palmer has just come home in a terrible rage. He says he's been robbed of a thousand dollars."

"Where?"

Christine shrugged her shoulders. "He doesn't know, or says he doesn't."

At four o'clock in the morning he left the car at the garage and walked to the little house. He had had no sleep for forty-five hours; his eyes were sunken in his head; the skin over his temples looked drawn and white. His clothes were wrinkled; the soft hat he habitually wore was white with the dust of the road.

As he opened the hall door, Christine stirred in the room beyond. She came out fully dressed.

"K., are you sick?"

"Rather tired. Why in the world aren't you in bed?"

"Palmer has just come home in a terrible rage. He says he's been robbed of a thousand dollars."

"Where?"

Christine shrugged her shoulders. "He doesn't know, or says he doesn't."

At four o'clock in the morning he left the car at the garage and walked to the little house. He had had no sleep for forty-five hours; his eyes were sunken in his head; the skin over his temples looked drawn and white. His clothes were wrinkled; the soft hat he habitually wore was white with the dust of the road.

As he opened the hall door, Christine stirred in the room beyond. She came out fully dressed.

"K., are you sick?"

"Rather tired. Why in the world aren't you in bed?"

"Palmer has just come home in a terrible rage. He says he's been robbed of a thousand dollars."

"Where?"

Christine shrugged her shoulders. "He doesn't know, or says he doesn't."

At four o'clock in the morning he left the car at the garage and walked to the little house. He had had no sleep for forty-five hours; his eyes were sunken in his head; the skin over his temples looked drawn and white. His clothes were wrinkled; the soft hat he habitually wore was white with the dust of the road.

As he opened the hall door, Christine stirred in the room beyond. She came out fully dressed.

"K., are you sick?"

"Rather tired. Why in the world aren't you in bed?"

"Palmer has just come home in a terrible rage. He says he's been robbed of a thousand dollars."

"Where?"

Christine shrugged her shoulders. "He doesn't know, or says he doesn't."

At four o'clock in the morning he left the car at the garage and walked to the little house. He had had no sleep for forty-five hours; his eyes were sunken in his head; the skin over his temples looked drawn and white. His clothes were wrinkled; the soft hat he habitually wore was white with the dust of the road.

As he opened the hall door, Christine stirred in the room beyond. She came out fully dressed.

"K., are you sick?"

"Rather tired. Why in the world aren't you in bed?"

"Palmer has just come home in a terrible rage. He says he's been robbed of a thousand dollars."

"Where?"

Christine shrugged her shoulders. "He doesn't know, or says he doesn't."

At four o'clock in the morning he left the car at the garage and walked to the little house. He had had no sleep for forty-five hours; his eyes were sunken in his head; the skin over his temples looked drawn and white. His clothes were wrinkled; the soft hat he habitually wore was white with the dust of the road.

As he opened the hall door, Christine stirred in the room beyond. She came out fully dressed.

"K., are you sick?"

"Rather tired. Why in the world aren't you in bed?"

"Palmer has just come home in a terrible rage. He says he's been robbed of a thousand dollars."

"Where?"

Christine shrugged her shoulders. "He doesn't know, or says he doesn't."

At four o'clock in the morning he left the car at the garage and walked to the little house. He had had no sleep for forty-five hours; his eyes were sunken in his head; the skin over his temples looked drawn and white. His clothes were wrinkled; the soft hat he habitually wore was white with the dust of the road.

As he opened the hall door, Christine stirred in the room beyond. She came out fully dressed.

"K., are you sick?"

"Rather tired. Why in the world aren't you in bed?"

"Palmer has just come home in a terrible rage. He says he's been robbed of a thousand dollars."

"Where?"

Christine shrugged her shoulders. "He doesn't know, or says he doesn't."

At four o'clock in the morning he left the car at the garage and walked to the little house. He had had no sleep for forty-five hours; his eyes were sunken in his head; the skin over his temples looked drawn and white. His clothes were wrinkled; the soft hat he habitually wore was white with the dust of the road.

MARSHALL MAY BE TAX BOARD HEAD

ANNOUNCED BY AUTHORITY FOR THE INTERNAL REVENUE COLLECTOR WILL BE CHOICE.

BECKHAM RECOMMENDS HALE

As Successor, His Name Being Placed Before President Wilson—Probable Appointee Has Excellent Record as Federal Official.

—Frankfort.

It is understood on excellent authority that Ben Marshall will be elected secretary of the new State Tax Board. The office pays $2,000 annually. Mr. Marshall's term as collector of internal revenue for this district has expired, and Senator Beckham has presented the name of Percy Hale to succeed him with the extreme probability that Mr. Hale will be named by the President.

Since Mr. Marshall is to be dropped for reasons personal to Senator Beckham, and his record as collector has been excellent, prominent Democrats have urged the Tax Board to appoint him secretary, and it is highly probable this will be done.

Ky. Furnishes 10,000 Barrels Daily.

Pipe line reports show that Kentucky has been furnishing ten thousand barrels of oil every day for more than one week. This is not all of the production by any means, but the Blue Grass State is doing its part in supplying the rapidly increasing demand. The oil excitement in Wyoming is attracting a great deal of attention, but activities out there will not interrupt the rapid development in Kentucky, or the gradual extension of the old field of West Virginia, according to those interested in these two states. Wyoming is more spectacular than even Kentucky, but so far the development there has not been so general, and Kentucky remains without an equal in the way of variety of proved fields which occupy places in all parts of the state.

West Virginia operators are not paying so much attention to their own state as they are to Kentucky operations, although there is promise of the immediate drilling of at least twenty wells for gas in the gas area of Lewis county, this state. The same company that will drill these wells will try to extend the defined limits of the producing area, in the hope of finding a supply sufficient for demands.

Graves County Collections.

State Inspector and Examiner Nat B. Sewell has covered into the state treasury $162.90 collected upon examination of county offices in Graves county, as follows: County Clerk O. L. Mason, $57.78; Walter Wilson, trustee of the jury fund, $24; Magistrate J. D. Brewitt, $7.50; W. M. Kinsey, $2.65; D. C. Turner, $14.10; W. A. Cross, $2.40; Constables J. A. Coleman, $17.52; and Y. J. H. Lancaster, $2.40.

Draft Boards Filled.

Governor Stanley just appointed the county physicians throughout the state of Kentucky to serve with the sheriffs and county judges as registrars to take charge of writing the names of men eligible for conscription. Dr. O. C. Seaton, of Boone county; Dr. W. Shaw, of Campbell county; Dr. R. L. Bird, of Kenton county; Dr. S. R. Hanner, of Mason county, were among those appointed.

Superintendents' Examination.

An examination for county superintendents was held here in the department of education and another will be held in June. Candidates for county superintendents are required to possess certificates of qualification if they do not hold teachers' certificates and these examinations are for the purpose of qualifying candidates. They are held only every four years.

$100 Reward Offered.

A reward of $100 has been offered for the arrest and conviction of Lum Stanley, who broke jail in Martin county while under arrest on a charge of grand larceny. It is alleged that he is a fugitive from Virginia, where he had been convicted of stealing cattle. He is accused in Martin county

THE MURRAY LEDGER

O. J. JENNINGS, EDITOR.

Printed at the press of O. J. Jennings, at Murray, Kentucky, for transmission through the mails as second class matter.

THURSDAY, MAY 31, 1917

SOME FACTS ABOUT THE NEW SELECTIVE SERVICE MEASURE

Washington, May 28. One of every twenty men in the United States between the ages of 21 and 30, according to the select service law, will be in the first 500,000 select service men to go into training September 1.

There are 10,000,000 men between these ages, the War Department says. All except those already in the army, navy, marine or National Guards must register whether married or single whether in Government service or not.

In exemptions, after registration, married men with dependents will be excluded. Government employees, farm hands, munition workers, will be exempt because of their work for the good of the Government.

The remainder whose work would not help the government directly will be examined for physical ability to serve.

Of those passed as physically fit, the jury wheel will be used to select each district's quota of the 500,000 men to be in training by September 1, according to Secretary of War, Baker.

Immediately upon being chosen for service, the recruits will get a monthly allowance of $30, as privates. Those now getting $15 or more a month will have an increase of $6 pay, by the new law.

When sent abroad for service, the men will receive twenty per cent additional a month.

Thirty-two camps, each a city by itself will accommodate the first select service army, distributed throughout the country.

Each department of the six now making up the army, will have 2,000 wood buildings, which will be built from the 6,000,000 feet of lumber the Government has already ordered.

The camps will be modern in every way and will be near cities where wholesome entertainment can be provided.

The War Department plans to restore the rank of General, and with it, Lieutenant General, the highest rank since being Major General. One ranking Lieutenant General is left, Nelson A. Miles, retired.

The General will remain at Washington, while the new Lieutenant General may command the first expeditionary force of the United States to France.

The State National Guards will start intensive training by July 15 and will soon after be transferred into Federal service.

The Ohio and West Virginia Guards are the first to be called. They will total about 23,000.

To the Citizens of Murray.

Free delivery will begin Friday, June 1, and in order to have your mail delivered twice daily, you will be required to provide a receptacle which may be either a box cut in the front door, or a suitable box selected by you and put on the front porch.

It would be best to have your mail addressed to street and number. You will be required to get your mail either at the post office or on the route, regularly.

The carrier's routes will be made out by the department at Washington and all citizens who do not live on a city route may be served by rural carriers, provided you erect the regulation boxes at suitable places.

You are for good service.

E. C. K. Robertson, P. M.

Tobacco Fire Loss is $200,000

Louisville, Ky., May 30. Fire resulting from lightning striking the roof at 3:30 o'clock yesterday morning gutted the two-story brick Farmer's Warehouse, of the Louisville Tobacco Warehouse Company, at the northwest corner of Tenth and Main streets, entailing a loss estimated at $200,000. About 700 hogsheads of fine Kentucky tobacco, a large portion of which awaited export shipment, were destroyed. The loss on the building is placed at $50,000, insured to 75 per cent of its value.

The heaviest loss was the destruction of the tobacco. Nine-tenths of the tobacco stored in the building belonged to local dealers. Each broker is said to have had his goods insured to their full amount. For hours the flames menaced a quarter of a million dollars' worth of other tobacco located in near-by buildings. Firemen worked until Sunday noon before the flames were extinguished. Fire Chief Lehan and his men succeeded in confining the fire to the Farmer's Warehouse and annex, where it started.

Sixteen Murray club women attended the K. E. W. C. in Fulton last week. Mrs. Richard Lounes, of Danville, was elected president; Miss Alma Van Meter, Danville, secretary; Mrs. W. J. Hills, Paducah, first vice president, Miss Katherine Cochran, chairman of music, Miss Sweeney, home economics. The principal topic of discussion was how to best conserve food, how to substitute cheaper materials for the high priced and to eliminate waste. Miss Sweeney demonstrated and passed for sampling a salt rising bread made of one-fourth soy bean flour, one-fourth corn meal and one-half wheat flour. Also a one-egg cake and an eggless cake, and other substitutes. She had a very beautiful display of hats, dresses and baby clothes made by girls at the State University. She stated that Misses Baker and Jennings were capable of instructing canning clubs after their year's work in this and other lines of home economics.

Jim Morris, who lives north of the city two miles, believes in the strictest economy, and as a result is saving ten cents per pound on all meat used at his home. Last week Jim killed a 150 pound sheep, sliced the meat and salted it and then his wife began frying. After completing the work of cooking the meat it was placed in jars then covered with grease and put away for use. The fat parts were rendered for lard. Mr. Morris says the meat is much better than the eastern meat costing between thirty and thirty-five cents. He estimates fat shorts on foot to be worth fifteen cents with an additional cost of five cents on the pound by killing and cooking, thus making the total cost not in excess of twenty cents, a saving of ten cents on every pound of meat consumed. He says every farmer should prepare his own meat and is positive that with care in preparing it will keep regardless of weather conditions.

Several dozen new waists which were made to sell at $1.50 and $1.25, we are able to sell at $1.00 each because of our buying in large quantities. O. T. Hale's ready-to-wear department.

Doan's Regulets are recommended by many who say they operate easily, without griping and without bad after effects. 25c at all drug stores.

A Devouring Army.

On the 23rd of May, 1917, people began to assemble at Joe Robertson's to celebrate the 76th birthday of his mother, and by noon there were 96 in the yard where at a long table they devoured a large amount of good things to eat and during the time we were together the candidate question came up and there was a number who said O. J. Jennings had made a strong effort to help the tobacco growers of Calloway and other counties to get a better price for their labor, and I am one who thinks that the laborer is worthy of his hire.

Well Jennings I thought of that devouring jaw of yours and if you had been there you might have thought you were in the first heaven at least. If this does not hit the waste basket I may come again.—One of the devouring army.

A big home coming was held at Spring Creek church Wednesday which was attended by a large crowd. Rev. T. L. Shelton conducted the morning service and Rev. W. O. Hargrove the afternoon. Both were former pastors of the church. Rev. T. E. Taylor, of Graves county, the present pastor, was a very special factor in making this day one long to be remembered. Last and greatest was the wonderful feast spread to all comers. The editor reported to his other half that he did not know there was so much good eating in the world. It was a grimacing face evidence that this country need not fear war as it can feed itself.

Elmo Thomas has accepted a position with the Federal Oil Company as oil geologist. This company has large holdings in Kentucky, Tennessee, West Virginia, Oklahoma, Kansas and Illinois. Elmo has been in the University of Kentucky the past year making a special study of geology and oil and gas productions of the United States. He is a son of M. A. Thomas, the well known real estate man. Previous to his university work he had several years in Bowling Green. Brains plus education is what the world is calling for today.

Monday morning at 7:30 o'clock Judge James Chester Dean died at Hotel Hall, Mayfield, after an affliction of several years of Bright's disease. The city of Mayfield mourns his death, because no man stood higher in character, dignity and honesty than Judge Dean. Deceased was well known in Murray and Calloway county having done a considerable law practice in the courts of this county. He was a partner of J. C. Speight in the practice of law.

The two year old son of Ziba Williams and wife, Gordon Hays, of Paducah, died Wednesday night. The child was teething and took sick then relapsed and death came quickly. The father has been confined to his bed with tuberculosis, at the home of his mother for some time, but was taken to the child's bedside when its condition became critical.

Tobacco Notice.

We have a few tobacco contracts that expire in June. We hereby notify the farmers who hold said contracts, that we will extend the time to July the 1st and will be on hand to receive our tobacco until that date. W. S. Swann & Co. 5312

Corset covers, teddy suits, gowns, drawers and undershirts and a beautiful line of camisoles at such low prices that it will surprise you, in O. T. Hale's ready-to-wear department.

Just one dozen spring coats which we will sell at half price plus 25c, to close out. All this season's stock. O. T. Hale's ready-to-wear department.

CHAUTAUQUA WEEK IN MURRAY JUNE 9 TO 16

A TEXAS WONDER.

The Texas Wonder cures kidney and bladder troubles, dissolves gravel, cures diabetes, weak and lame backs, rheumatism, and irregularities of the kidneys and bladder in both men and women. Regulates bladder troubles in children. It is sold by your druggist, will be sent by mail on receipt of $1.00. One small bottle is two months' treatment, and seldom fails to perfect a cure. Send for sworn testimonials. Dr. F. W. Hall, 2105 Olive Street, St. Louis, Mo. Sent by druggists.

Newburg Vicinity

Health seems to be very good at this writing with the exception of a few cases of measles.

Crops are progressing slowly owing to the cool weather, although we have had some nice rains lately and it is fervently hoped that we will have a good crop year.

Mrs. Lula Walker died last Wednesday of tuberculosis and was buried last Thursday at Lone Oak. She was a good christian woman and is mourned by all.

Mr. J. Compton made a short visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilcox Compton and returned Wednesday to Oklahoma where he is teaching in a business college.

Miss Vera Grogan spent a week with her sister, Mrs. Maude Ledbetter, of Manleyville, Tenn., and was accompanied home by Mrs. Ledbetter who is visiting relative and friends in the county this week.

E. P. Henslee has returned home from Bowling Green where he has been attending school.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifton King are the proud parents of a fine girl.

Miss Maude Walker has returned home from the normal at Bowling Green.

Misses Hilda, Valta and Verma Holland are again taking music lessons from Mrs. Randolph at Murray.

Jim Billington's family have all about recovered from measles. Come on, let's all vote for our worthy, true friend to home and the Ledger, Soldier Boy.

Elm Grove.

As I haven't seen anything from this part of the county in some time, will try and drop a few lines.

Health is some better—measles and whooping cough are about over.

Roy McDaniel is slowly improving from an attack of tuberculosis.

About all you can hear is war and high prices. Some election talk.

Wallace Futrell has purchased a gasoline tractor. It sure does the plowing, breaking about six to eight acres a day. The first day Wallace used it his wife couldn't get him to come to dinner. He said he didn't have to feed it, and he wasn't going to eat either.—Uncle Fed.

Indicted for Treason.

Eddyville, Ky., May 25.—The grand jury last week returned indictments against two well known citizens of Lyon county for treasonable language against the government. Their names were withheld.

Hard Luck, Teachers.

The county school superintendent has received word from Superintendent of Public Instruction V. O. Gilbert to the effect that there will probably be no money on hand for rural school teachers until the end of the school year, June 30.

Tuesday night two horses were stolen from Menn Russell, at Pottertown, valued at $400. A saddle, harness and ropes were stolen this side of Pottertown and scattered between Pottertown and the river, presumably to throw pursuers off the trail. It has since been found that they passed through Murray, enroute to Fulton, where one horse was found that had been sold to a gypsy camp. Frank Miller and Collier Hays are on the trail of the other. Sheriff Patterson and deputies did good work in getting the trail so early after plans had been so carefully laid to mislead them.

Later: The sheriff informs us that the other horse has been found, and two Calloway men are under arrest in Paducah, on suspicion.

Mid-Summer Millinery is now having the call, and we wish to say to you that our stock will be complete. We are making extra efforts in securing the very latest items for Mid-Summer and feel confident that we can please you.

We are specially pricing these items so that not only style, but prices, are attractive.

UNA BROACH

Over the 5, 10 and 25c Store

HAD NO HOPE OF RETURNING ALIVE

Mrs. Cason Left Hospital day-lanta Properly

A big line of white goods and lawns at as low prices as you had last season. —Holland's, west side.

Willis Long, of DeKoven, Ky., is the guest of his cousin, Raymond Durick.

Miss Carrie Pearl Wright is visiting relatives and friends in Mayfield.

E. B. Holland & Co. have a complete line of new taffetas, and their prices are right.

Miss Alma Dunn, of Paducah, was a Sunday visitor to relatives in Murray.

The 10a Store is going out of business. Mr. Bray will move to St. Louis. —Hardin Enterprise.

For Sale. Good saddle horse, will work anywhere. Worth all it takes to get him. See T. D. Smith.

Dr. I. Z. Barker, of Princeton, but formerly of this county, has joined the medical corps of the United States army.

Ladies house dresses, gingham and percales, all sizes, at $1.00 and $1.50. —O. T. Hale's ready-to-wear department.

Mrs. Ira White has returned to Murray to live. She has had charge of a stock of millinery in Almo for Mrs. M. L. Wells.

Will Poyter will thank the fellow who got his wire stretchers to return them to the place where he picked them up.

Mrs. Eldridge Walker, of Marshall county, was in the city the past week the guest of Lee Potts and Solon Belcher and families.

Valaska Suratt in "The Straight Way" Friday night and Dorothy Dalton in "Back of the Man" Saturday at the Dixie Theatre.

Mrs. Laura Dick, of Edge Hill, died at the age of 64 of tuberculosis. She leaves one son, mother and husband, M. F. Dick. Burial at Beech Grove.

Robert Neblett, who has been employed as baker for Potts & Belcher, left for Paris Tuesday where he has a position. —Mr. Neblett made many friends in Murray who regret to see him leave.

Wanted. —To buy celery plants at this office.

See the pretty patterns in percales and gingham, at Holland's. Cleto Barnett and Miss Mabel Bray are to get married Sunday. Hardin Enterprise.

Mrs. C. A. Bishop and children and Miss Nelle Hughes visited in Benton Sunday and Monday.

Mrs. Provoy, of Springfield, Tenn., is a patient in the Murray Surgical Hospital.

Children's day services at the First Christian church Sunday evening at 8 o'clock.

Just received, a new lot of tennis slippers for ladies and children. Get our prices. —E. B. Holland & Co., west side square.

Mrs. W. W. Baker, who has been confined to her bed with asthma for several weeks, is some better.

Sam Byrd, candidate for jailer, left the first of the week for Kansas City, Mo., on a visit to his daughter.

Mrs. John Turnbow died last Friday at her home near Farmington of measles. She was buried at Antioch.

You can save money on foot-wear at Holland's. Many numbers about the same price as last season.

Robt. Humphreys, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Humphreys of this city, has joined the ambulance corps, Co. No. 1, Alabama National guards.

Mrs. H. C. Pogue and little son, of Birmingham, Ala., are the guests of her parents, W. L. White and wife, and other relatives.

Just one dozen spring suits, this season's styles, but we do not wish to carry any over. Will close them out at cost. —O. T. Hale's ready-to-wear department.

Lieut. Harry Walker and wife came in from Lexington the first of the week. Lieut. Walker wishes to secure 56 recruits to fill his company.

Wash skirts, both white and sport stripes. Just the thing for Chautauqua wear, in O. T. Hale's ready-to-wear department, just $1.00.

When in town, why not eat dinner at the New City Cafe? Next door to New Murray Hotel. —W. J. Beale, proprietor. Good cooking and everything sanitary. Special attention to the lady patrons.

More Geo. Delker buggies at Sexton Bros.

Mrs. Frank Grubbs, of Whitlock, was the guest of Mrs. E. B. Russell, last week.

A Mrs. Burnett, who lives six miles south of Murray, is a patient at the hospital this week.

Twenty-five per cent reduction on silk dresses and spring coats at Holland's. Carried goods at greater reductions.

Irvan and George Linn and families have returned to Almo from Ashville, N. C., where they have been located for some time.

Regular monthly meeting of the F. and A. M. Lodge No. 105 Saturday night. Work in all degrees.

If you can wear a small size you can get a very special bargain in skirts, as we wish to close out this stock. —O. T. Hale's ready-to-wear department.

Robt. Phillips, of Almo, son of Dr. J. R. Phillips, left Monday for Bowling Green to join the navy. Lock and Linza Edwards, of Murray, are both in the navy.

A daughter was born the past week to Gene Parham and wife, of Boatwright, on the east side. Happy congratulations to proud parents and long life to the little Miss.

Mrs. Will Rowland was stricken with neuralgia of the heart early Monday morning, and for some time her condition was very critical. —She is much improved at this time.

The Ledger was in error last week in stating that the home of Willie Dyer, on the east side, was destroyed by fire. His loss was confined to stable, wagon, feed stuff, etc.

Beautiful line of children's white dresses in all over embroidery and all stylish materials, with and without sashes, at popular prices. —O. T. Hale's ready-to-wear department.

Mrs. R. M. Mason and Miss Helen Davis went to Trenton, Tenn., Thursday. Miss Davis has been attending the Murray school and will spend the summer vacation with her parents.

Layton Lucas, who has been with the Southern Express Co., at Florence, Ala., for some time, was here the first of the week enroute to Bayard, Neb., where he has accepted a position with the Burlington railroad.

Don't fail to go to your voting place on Tuesday, June 5th and register, if you are over 21 and under 31 years of age. Failure to do so carries a penalty of one year in prison and then drafting you into the service.

Bert Sexton and family are the guests of his father in Stewart county, Tenn. J. D. Sexton and wife accompanied them to the Tennessee river, but owing to bad weather, turned back at that point.

A letter from Mrs. H. B. Gilbert, who is a patient in the Woman's Hospital in Nashville, tells of her convalescence. She hopes to be able to return to Murray in about two weeks. Her little girls are with relatives at Dixon, Tenn.

Outland Bros. have purchased the large Gilbert factory building in North Murray and will convert it into a prize house. Covington Bros. wholesale grocers, have purchased the building occupied by Outland Bros. The deeds were closed the past week.

Mrs. L. B. Harris came in from North Vernon, Ind., Tuesday morning to visit her relatives, the Gilberts. Mrs. Harris was in the Illinois storm and the roof was carried off the hotel in which she was staying and all the window lights were broken but she was uninjured.

Tobacco Notice. —We hereby notify the farmers whose tobacco we have bought, and which has not been delivered, that on account of the lack of seasons, our tobacco until July 1, 1917. —R. Downs & Co.

A STRANGE THING

in these times of strenuous price conditions, but a fact just the same—

A BARGAIN COUNTER

Forty-five feet in length and loaded with a variety of Seasonable Merchandise that necessarily goes into the consumption of every household of the land.

That a glancing insight may be readily gotten we name, "with prices," just a few of the many good things, all for MONEY DOWN, and no other way.

25c Cotton Suiting, just the thing for knock-a-bout skirts, etc., 15c	Boys' Work Shirts, real good quality, for only 50c
25c mercerized, satin stripe, Waisting for ladies waists, children's dresses or men's shirts, 19c	Best quality German dye Men's Overalls, $1.35
36-inch bordered Scrim for 10c	$5.00 Sport Coats, to close at $3.50
Fast color Percale at 8c	Yard length Carpet Remnants, suitable for rugs, in 50c to $1.00 quality goods, at 25 to 50c each
Fine 35c silk stripe Waisting, 25c	Small size Matting Rugs 5c
300 yard machine spool thread, black only, Nos. 40, 50 and 60, at 4c	False Hair, "Bangs" for colored people, 10c or 3 for 25c
Lace Curtains, "strips" full size, 65c	All kinds Ladies Hats, Third Off.
Ladies Bleached Vests 8c	Women's Slippers, "High Grade Make" small sizes only and carried stock, $1.50 up
Val Lace Inserting, the 5 and 10c quality "slightly soiled," 10 yards for One Dime	Misses Slippers, broken sizes, $2.00 values and up $1.25 and up
Hamburg Inserting, 1 to 14 inches, 7 1/2 to 10c quality "slightly soiled," five yards, One Dime

Foregoing in effect last Saturday Morning and only for a limited time. Quite a lot of stuff is high, but items quoted, and many others mighty cheap. Come and look into the matter, but don't expect something for nothing. Truly,

RYAN & SONS COMPANY

INCORPORATED

Vegetables you must eat and fresh fruits you ought to eat if you want to be healthy. They are not only good food themselves but they "tone" up your system and help to carry off the heavy things you eat.

You will always find our fresh fruits to be ripe and sweet; our vegetables are full grown and sound; our prices are very reasonable.

Give us your grocery order today.

Parker & Perdue
East Side Square

Miss Fay Houston, who has been teaching in the Lexington, Tenn., schools, has returned to Murray to spend her vacation.

The work on Eld. T. B. Thompson's home on South 9th street has been completed and he is moving into it this week.

Children's gingham dresses in clever styles, made to sell at $1.50 and $1.25, while they last at $1.00. —O. T. Hale's ready-to-wear department.

Felix Holt, son of J. D. Holt, who has been in the city for sometime, left Monday for St. Louis where he has accepted a position.

Measures H. B. Bailey and Marvin Whitnell, and Misses Mydelle McElrath, Reubie Wear, Anna Hood, attended the K. F. W. C. last week in Fulton.

All trustees of Division 5 are requested to meet at New Concord Saturday of this week for the purpose of selecting teachers for the ensuing school term. Gardie Lassiter, chairman.

W. J. Beale now has charge of the New City Cafe, located next door to the New Murray Hotel. Needless to say that everything is run in first-class style and atmosphere clean and sanitary. The ladies especially are invited to patronize this cafe.

Saturday afternoon in this city, Esq. W. P. Erwin, officiated at the wedding of three prominent Kentucky couples. They were: C. M. Hamlett and Miss Ella Hinson, of Almo, Ky.; J. D. Bean and Miss Flora Cope, of Almo, Ky.; W. R. Smith and Miss Tibbels, also of Hardin, Ky. —Paris Parisian.

R. C. Whitnell and sons, Will and Winfred, of Fulton, are business visitors to Murray.

Miss Fannie Strader, of New Concord, was in Hazel Wednesday enroute to Bowling Green where she went to be at the bedside of her sister, Miss Uda Strader, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis in that city. —Hazel News.

About two hundred relatives and friends gathered at the home of Will Enoch, two miles north of Lynn Grove, last Sunday to celebrate the 65th birthday of Mrs. S. E. Enoch, his mother. A big dinner was served and a pleasant time was had by all. The inclemency of the weather prevented a larger attendance.

Mrs. James Calhoun died Monday night at her home on Lower Donaldson after a brief illness. She was about twenty-three years of age and a daughter of the late Bob Dixon, and was a splendid lady who had many friends. She leaves the husband and a little babe three days old and one other child, besides hosts of relatives and friends. The burial took place Tuesday afternoon at the Skinner Calhoun grave yard. —Cadiz Record.

Beginning June 1st, our terms will be cash for everything. This policy is no reflection on the credit of our patrons. We have to pay cash and the profit is too small to do business otherwise. Thanking you for the patronage given us and assuring you of our most sincere efforts to please you, we are Yours very truly Foreman Automobile Co., Inc. Elmus J. Beale, Manager, p.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Don't forget that Saturday, June the second, at two o'clock p. m., is the real business of our National Farm Loan Association of Calloway county. It is very important that all parties interested be in attendance, including stockholders, board of appraisers and board of directors. —W. H. Finney, secretary.

Bank
with US

MEMBER FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM OF BANKS

The CHARACTER of the MEN as well as their financial responsibility had to be found O. K. before we could become a member of the FEDERAL RESERVE system of banks.

Being a Member Bank of this National System means that our bank is one of a vast, strong CHAIN of banks linked together for the protection of our depositors.

When your money is in our bank you can GET it when you WANT it—because we can take our securities any time to our Central Reserve Bank and get MONEY.

Put YOUR money in The First National Bank of Murray.

First National Bank

W. H. Finney, Pres. T. H. Stokes, Cashier Dr. B. B. Keys, Vice Pres.

Tenant Shoots Landlord.

It is reported that Jack Edwards, about thirty years of age, was killed by Marion Houston Monday morning at Mobley, Stewart county, Tenn. Mr. Edwards was a prosperous farmer of that section, unmarried and a son of Tom Edwards, of Henry county. Houston was a tenant on his farm and they had some words early in the morning about a gate being left open and some hogs getting in a field. It was believed to have been satisfactorily explained, but later, it is said, Houston met Edwards on the road and raised his gun to shoot. Edwards threw up his hands and said, "Don't shoot," but Houston shot, hitting Edwards in the left breast. He died in about twenty minutes. Houston escaped in a gasoline launch and has not been caught. Jim Nolan, brother-in-law of Houston, was the only eye witness. Edwards is a brother of George Edwards, who lives a mile from the mouth of Big Sandy and married a cousin of Mrs. W. S. Swan, of this city.

Come in and let us show you our line of pianos and graphophones—Murray Furniture and Undertaking Co.

Boatwright Happenings.

The farmers are kept busy in this section, since the rains, setting tobacco. Mrs. Ledbetter, of near Paris, Ky., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Grogan. John Williams and family, Bob McCuiston and family, of near Hymon, spent Saturday night with relatives in this section. Miss Rennie Pesham, of near New Concord, was the guest of J. F. Boatwright and family Sunday. Noah Russell, who has been attending school at Bowling Green, has returned home. Kiston Ellis has been on the sick list. Miss Vera Grogan has been quite ill, but is reported better at this time. There will be children's day exercises at Russell's Chapel 3rd Sunday in June, beginning at 10 o'clock a. m. Everybody invited to come.—Alvaretta. S. E. Holcomb and family have been visiting in Hollow Rock, Springville and other points in Tennessee. They were accompanied home by Mrs. Holcomb's mother, Mrs. N. B. Porter, of Springville.

SWEEPS THROUGH FIVE STATES

(Continued from First Page)

storm. Her twelve year old son died on the train enroute to the hospital at Hickman. Mrs. Hill's infant child will also die.

35 in Hospital at Hickman. Early Monday morning 35 had been brought into a temporary hospital at Hickman. The Moose Hall there was hastily converted into a place for the care of the wounded.

A dreadful death came to Mrs. Tom Smithwick, of Hickman. Her head was cut completely off by a great timber which hurled through the air, and her body was found buried in the sand one fourth of a mile from the city. Her husband, Tom Smithwick, suffered a broken arm. Their home was blown to pieces. Mrs. Laura West and three daughters, of Hickman, were all killed. Another daughter will die. Two of her daughters were named Minnie and Florence. The other's name could not be learned.

W. C. Gibson, below Hickman, will not live. His wife also was injured.

Melissa Gammon, 6 years old, suffered concussion of the brain when struck on the head by flying wood in the tornado's path. She has a slight chance of recovery.

Leslie George, near Hickman, had a rail spike driven through his back. He may live.

Horse Blown Away.

At Bondurant, near Hickman, the cyclone picked up the horse of Walter Archie and carried it one-fourth of a mile, depositing it on the ground uninjured.

Out of 30 fine mules on the farm of Sid Dodds, near Bondurant, only one is able to walk. A number was killed and many hurt. A big threshing machine belonging to Dodds was lifted into the air and carried many yards away.

A tree which measured 12 feet through was carried 100 yards. Buildings at Hickman were badly damaged. The city light plant roof was blown away and the city was without lights all night.

Work of rescue was confined to carrying in the injured during the first lull after the terrible catastrophe, and the dead were left where they had been cast by the elements. A train Monday brought in 20 to the Hickman hospital from points to the southward. Three trained nurses arrived from Nashville, and more doctors and nurses followed Tuesday.

Clinton Loss Large.

Clinton, May 28.—Eighteen dead and $500,000 damage to property is the toll of Sunday's tornado in and around the city of Clinton. Until 2 o'clock this afternoon, Clinton was cut off from the world, and her fate was anxiously awaited. Telephone communication was established after dinner however and a full account of the awful destruction done there was obtainable.

The known dead at Clinton are Wheeler Brooks, wife and daughter, of Cypress, southeast of Clinton; John Wooten; Mrs. Bynum Bone and daughter; Jim Anderson; Bob Burgess, wife and daughter, and five negroes.

Residents of Clinton who watched the storm's progress declare there were two separate and distinct cyclones. One hit Clinton at about 4 o'clock. The second struck Bardwell at 5 o'clock, after going into the Mississippi river at Hickman and out again.

Six miles southwest of Clinton, Miss Ellen Gore was killed and Mrs. Caldwell, whom she was visiting, suffered both legs broken and will probably die. Two others were injured at the Caldwell home. The residence was completely demolished. After passing over Clinton, the cyclone veered to the northeast.

Big Crop Damage.

The destruction of crops and grain was enormous throughout the cyclone's path. Not only were trees and orchards uprooted and fruit trees destroyed, but the grain and vegetables in the field were torn up and crops ruined over a wide area. Cotton in Tennessee fields was ruined.

At South Dyersburg an ever increasing number of injured were brought into Hooper hospital where special trained nurses and doctors were hurried from Nashville and Memphis. Afternoon reports did not serve to increase the original figures of seven dead at South Dyersburg. The storm hit this place at 4:15 o'clock.

The citizens of Dyersburg made up a purse of $1,300 for the relief of sufferers and homeless in South Dyersburg, only a mile distant.

The dead at Bondurant, white are: Alvin Henderson and daughter; Mrs. Sam Gardner; Tump Henderson; Mrs. Cap Hill, son and baby.

At Hickman the following are known dead: Mrs. Tom Smithwick and Mrs. Laura West.

The dead at Dublin, Ky., are: Donnie Burgess, 23; Birdie Burgess, 13; Luke Wheeler, wife and daughter. At Beulah, Jim Anderson.

The cyclone hit Dublin at 3:45 o'clock and traveled in a northeasterly direction. It struck the west side of town. Within a three mile radius around Dublin, 35 people were injured.

Physicians out of Mayfield arrived at Dublin today to attend the injured. Many were carried to Dublin from the county in wagons.

Dublin Homes Destroyed.

In and around Dublin, Graves county, many are missing, and scores are homeless.

A number of the following are injured, and all of them had their homes destroyed: Bob O'Neil, Elsiea Potts, William Wilson, J. H. Sullivan, George Burgess, Mary Boyd, Chris Hayden, Alfred Owen, Wiley Higgin, Harve Gibson, George Thomas, Alice Keely, Bob Gibson, Aubrey Thomas, Mrs. Dill Bailey, Jesse Burgess.

Jesse Burgess, 80 years old, and his wife, are seriously injured they are not expected to survive. George Thomas also will not recover.

Objects Blown to Paducah.

A literal shower of debris and leaves that had been carried miles high by wind, fell over Paducah and vicinity late Sunday afternoon. High above, the air was filled with thickly flying particles which, after falling from the higher air currents, slowly descended to the ground.

All sorts of things fell in Paducah. Railroad tickets, cigarette boxes and many other lighter articles carried from the devastated sections fell over that vicinity.

A strip of new weather boarding, freshly painted with blue paint, measuring about 4.7 feet in length and by 6 inches in width, fell across the road in front of the home of J. W. Switzer, 6 miles from Paducah on the Mayfield road about 5:30 o'clock. Directly in front of his porch he found an unstamped Chicago, Memphis & Gulf railroad ticket from Ledford, Ky., to Minton, Tenn. The tickets were evidently blown from the station at Ledford.

Alfred Legacy, residing a few miles from Paducah on the Cairo road, found a $5 check drawn on a bank at Tiptonville, Tenn., near his home yesterday afternoon. The check has been paid to the order of Frank Lee.

Mr. Switzer declares he saw a pair of spectacles flying over his farm besides many bits of wood, corn stalks and leaves.

A pack of cigarettes was said to have fallen at Tiptonville, Mo., in Paducah. It was even reported that a pickle had fallen in a yard in Paducah.

A long list of articles of every description, was cleaned Monday day when Paducahans in various parts of that city reported what from the sky, as a result of the great cyclone. Everything from leaves to five dollar bills, from sticks to weatherboarding and picture frames and furniture, and even live pigs were raked up.

W. M. Anderson, residing at 877 South Thirteenth street, in Paducah, found a picture measuring 16 by 20 inches in a garden. It is the photograph of a young girl. Whence it came he does not know.

Mrs. L. E. Young, of the Blandville road, 13 miles from Paducah, picked up a piece of furniture, and one of her neighbors found a tin type photo.

Persons fishing in a lake in Illinois, directly across the Ohio river from Paducah, reported that many dead fish lay in the lake and that they caught some with their hands.

The home of Gus Johnson at Whitlock, Tenn., was totally destroyed by the Sunday cyclone. An elderly lady, Mrs. Middleton, was the only inmate who was injured and she was seriously.

Mrs. Johnson is a daughter of W. R. Broach, of this city, and her daughter, Orlan Johnson, is employed in the county clerk's office here. R. E. Bach went to Whitlock to investigate the extent of the damage to his sister's family and find that all her flock of chickens had been picked clean of feathers by the storm and a rabbit had been skinned. He brought one of the chickens back with him to exhibit to the ones that have the shown.

Another story tells of a feather or bad being dropped in Paducah with a fish weighing a pound in the center of the bed and still alive.

A large number of cars have been going to the storm swept district every day carrying eight seers.

A number of Calloway people have relatives residing in the storm swept districts, but none of them were killed so far as has been learned. A son of Alonzo Beaman sustained quite a property loss.

Growing Hogs.

For a hog to be profitable he must be kept growing from birth to marketing age. He cannot be profitable unless he is healthy. He can always be in a profit-producing condition if he is fed B. A. Thomas' Hog Powder. We positively tell you that this remedy prevents cholera, removes worms and cures thumps. If the powder does not make good, we will.—Sexton Bros.

Take Notice. All notes and accounts that are due must be paid within 60 to 90 days. If not paid within this time, I will be forced to get judgment for same. Don't let me have to put you to trouble and cost. W. M. West, Murray, Ky.

State of Ohio, City of Toledo, Lucas County, ss: I, Frank J. Cheney, declare that I am a resident of the City of Toledo, Ohio, and I am the owner of the following described real estate, to-wit: One hundred and one (101) lots of land, situated in the City of Toledo, Ohio, and I am the owner of the same. In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and the seal of said County, this 28th day of May, A. D. 1918.

Notary Public.

Frank J. Cheney, Notary Public.

State of Ohio, City of Toledo, Lucas County, ss: I, Frank J. Cheney, declare that I am a resident of the City of Toledo, Ohio, and I am the owner of the following described real estate, to-wit: One hundred and one (101) lots of land, situated in the City of Toledo, Ohio, and I am the owner of the same. In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and the seal of said County, this 28th day of May, A. D. 1918.

Notary Public.

Frank J. Cheney, Notary Public.

State of Ohio, City of Toledo, Lucas County, ss: I, Frank J. Cheney, declare that I am a resident of the City of Toledo, Ohio, and I am the owner of the following described real estate, to-wit: One hundred and one (101) lots of land, situated in the City of Toledo, Ohio, and I am the owner of the same. In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and the seal of said County, this 28th day of May, A. D. 1918.

Notary Public.

Frank J. Cheney, Notary Public.

State of Ohio, City of Toledo, Lucas County, ss: I, Frank J. Cheney, declare that I am a resident of the City of Toledo, Ohio, and I am the owner of the following described real estate, to-wit: One hundred and one (101) lots of land, situated in the City of Toledo, Ohio, and I am the owner of the same. In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and the seal of said County, this 28th day of May, A. D. 1918.

Notary Public.

Frank J. Cheney, Notary Public.

State of Ohio, City of Toledo, Lucas County, ss: I, Frank J. Cheney, declare that I am a resident of the City of Toledo, Ohio, and I am the owner of the following described real estate, to-wit: One hundred and one (101) lots of land, situated in the City of Toledo, Ohio, and I am the owner of the same. In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and the seal of said County, this 28th day of May, A. D. 1918.

Notary Public.

Frank J. Cheney, Notary Public.

CLARKS RIVER DRAINAGE WORK BEGINS MONDAY

Work on the survey of Clark's river for improvement of that stream and its tributaries in four counties of the Purchase, by which 70,000 acres of land will be drained and opened to cultivation, will begin Monday. A force of men will start surveys near the mouth of Soldier creek, east of Mayfield, and the board of viewers, composed of W. C. Kelly, civil engineer from Union City, Tenn.; J. H. Little, former sheriff of Marshall county, and Geo. Smith, a school teacher of Marshall county, will view the land to estimate cost of improvement. The cost will be thousands of dollars.

The Clark's river drainage project is one of the most extensive ever undertaken in this section of the country, and when completed, will greatly enhance all farm land in the four counties it affects. It will drain water from land in Calloway, Marshall, McCracken and Graves counties. A United States government engineer viewed the field last year and estimated the cost of improvement at $8 per acre. Property owners will bear the expense. The project is in many ways similar to the Mayfield creek drainage plan.

The work will begin at Murray on the east fork. All of the east fork of the river and stream flowing into it will be straightened and also the west fork as far as the mouth of Soldier creek. It will embrace all the lands in Blizard road, to the dry limits of Paducah. Dredboats will be used in straightening the rivers.

The board of viewers will begin their work Monday, starting near the mouth of Soldier creek. Attorney Mike Oliver, counsel for the Mayfield Creek Drainage Commission, has been active in plans for the realization of the Clark's river project. He conferred with government men last year relative to the work on Clark's river, and has followed up the project in the time ripe for actual work to begin. Paducah Sun.

Preachers Aspire to Solons.

Included among the candidates for nomination as representative in the next legislature are four ministers of gospel. They are the Rev. A. J. Parish, of Barren county; Rev. D. S. Edwards, of Henry county; the Rev. George Waggoner, of Scott county; and the Rev. E. H. Bullock, of Vint county. The latter is a republican, while the others are Democrats. Mr. Edwards, state Senator, and Mr. Waggoner, a member of the lower branch, have seen previous service in the General Assembly. Louisville Times.

The Times is respectfully informed that Gay was a preacher who is an aspirant for legislative honors in the person of J. E. John, who is actively prosecuting a campaign for the democratic nomination.

DISTRESSING RHEUMATISM

How many people, crippled and lame in rheumatism, owe their condition to neglected or incorrect treatment! It is the exact combination of pure Norgian Cod Liver Oil with glycerine and hypophosphites contained in that has made Scott's famous for relieving rheumatism when other treatments have utterly failed. If you are a rheumatism sufferer, or feel its first symptoms, start on Scott's Emulsion at once. IT MAY BE EXACTLY WHAT YOU NEED.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

Sole & Service, Bloomfield, N. J.

Chautauqua Week in Murray June 9 to 16