2 in Jail, 1 In Hospital After Fight

Two young men are in the Marshall County Jail and one young man is in Murray Hospital as a result of a strange fracas here early Sunday morning.

Frank Elkins of Dexter is under $2,000 to await grand jury action on a charge of robbery, and Roy Marshall of the Oak Level section was sentenced to 30 days in jail on a charge of stealing a pair of blue jeans from a clothes line at the Lonnie Cook home.

J. W. Harris is in Murray Hospital with a fractured jaw and other injuries. His billfold and $38 were taken, and his auto was burned.

County Attorney Marvin Prince questioned the men and pieced together this story:

Elkins and Harris went to Paducah Saturday in Harris' car. They were returning home when their car stalled near Oak Level about midnight. Roy Marshall, walking to Oak Level from Benton, happened along and helped start the car. Hhe then got in the car with the other men.

The car stalled again at Morningside Drive in Benton. Elkins suddenly turned on Harris, knocked him unconscious and set fire to the car. Elkins and Marshall then starting walking toward Murray. The Benton Fire Department was called to the scene, near J. P. Smith's home, and put out the fice, which virtually destroyed the interior of the car.

Harris was slumped outside the car. He was taken to McClain's Clinic and then a Linn ambulance took him to Murray Hospital.

Walnut Grove Church Erecting New Building

Monday, Sept. 21, marked the beginning of the construction of a new building at Walnut Grove. The new structure will measure 40 feet of 70 feet, with brick exterior, full size basement with 9 classrooms and a furnace room. The basement will be but half below ground level, permitting enterance at about ground level into a vestibule which provides a split-level between basement and auditorium. The auditorium will measure 38 by 45 feet and will seat approximately 275 people.

The new building will be immediately behind the present building, situated in a way to provide ample parking space for all needs. The present building is on a lot 110 wide by 155 feet deep, this lot being deeded to the Walnut Grove Church by Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Cope and the late Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Hiett and to this lot has been added this year a lot 110 feet wide and 169 feet deep given by Mr. and Mrs. Kelsie Yates, making an excellent site 220 feet wide and 324 feet deep.

Adjoining the church property immediately to the south is a beautiful cemetery given by Mr. and Mrs. Cope and immediately south of the cemetery is a lot 100 feet wide and 150 feet deep given by Mr. and Mrs. Cope for use in the future and when needed for the construction of a home for a resident preacher.

The present building was originally built at Glade and some 35 or 40 years ago was torn down and rebuilt at its present location. Elders of the church have with prayerful planning and foresight tried to prepare for present needs and future needs as well. At present the eldership consists of Glen Edwards, Frank Story, Solon Edwards and Willie Smith.

Four bids were submitted with the lowest bid being submitted by Joe Lee Smith.

Completion date will be about the first of the year.

Claude G. Morrow is the minister, having begun his work with the Walnut Grove Church in January of 1958 and will, according to present arrangements, continue through 1960.

Only two persons knew the identity of last week's Mystery Farm.

Paul Darnall, of the Bank of Benton, was the first to identify it. Paul, who owns a farm near Hardin, is pretty well acquainted with the farms and farm folks of Marshall County.

So he won himself a free subscription to The Courier and free passes to the Benton Theater.

Robert Rudolph, of the ASC office in Benton, was the other person to identify the farm.

And before we forget it, we had better tell you that it was thefarm of Allie Howard of Calvert City Route 2. His son, John A. Howard, came by The Courier office Friday afternoon and picked up the free aerial photograph we give to the Mystery Farm owner.

This week's Mystery Farm won't be too easy to identify. However, the new garage will be a clue to those who have seen the place in the last year or two. If you know whose farm it is, phone The Courier Friday at 1 p. m.

Those attending the Roy Dunn funeral in Benton Tuesday from Calvert City were: Mr. and Mrs. Willie Peck, Mrs. Estel Sewell, Mrs. Lela Vasseur, Mrs. L. L. Egner and Mrs. Buford McLemore.

Horse Show at Fair Provided A Big Thrill

Dear Gania:

Oh, was I thrilled with the Horse Show at the State Fair! This was the first time I have seen it. Usually they have it at night but this year it was in the afternoon and I took it in. The horses were even prettier than those ridden by policemen in parades down Woodward in Detroit and I was told that every horse there came from Kentucky.

Do you know that horses have more sense than people? No, it is not because they don't bet on people but because they know how to obey. In Detroit I used to marvel to see them use their noses to push back crowds, and at the State Fair I saw them pespond to their rider at every touch.

I hoped by going to the Fair on Farm Bureau Day I would see someone from home but I didn't. I inquired at the Extension Service stations scattered around and was told, "Sunshine ought to be around here somewhere." At the 4-H booth I was told, "Sunshine was here last week but she went home." (Isn't it nice to have an easy name like Sunshine?)

The women in charge of the 4-H desk gave me the names of the blue ribbon winners from Marshall county in the clothing division. When she told me what they made I exclaimed: "Don't tell me the girls in Marshall county still wear dresses! Here in Louisville they run around in shorts and I predict within a year or so they'll be wearing bikinis." She seemed not at all pleased and refused to help me find the exhibits. I searched until I found Barbara Ann McWaters' apron, Marlyn Wyatt's dress-up frock, but I failed to find Bonnie Cloud's skirt and blouse. When I found the dress I wondered if Marlyn Wyatt is Florence Henson's daughter.

Marshall County showed up prettily in the canned fruit and vegetable exhibit and I must tell June Story and Linda Anderson that their display ranked with the best.

At the college booth I asked three young white fellows in charge where was M. O. Wrather who in other years represented Murray. One said, "Oh, he's too old to come to the State Fair." I thought that very funny and told them as much. Then I asked where was the huge Negro who represented the State University last year. They told me he went back to Lexington the day before. I asked if he took his pipe with him. The boy from Eastern snatched his own pipe from his mouth and answered "Yes, ma'am."

I heard quartets from eight counties compete for a thousand dollar prize in gospel singing. They certainly did sing some fancy tunes. I've heard better singing at Maple Spring many a time. Why don't Lomond Trevathan, Dewey Beggs, and some of the other singers from Marshall county come up here to the next State Fair and show them what singing it like?

I went to the poultry exhibit ready to raise an argument about their having my Mallard duck Twiddle but not an exhibitor was in sight. There was a duck exactly like Twiddle that was all a-flutter. I heard later that the drake next door got out and took off in the wild blue yonder as the song goes. Then what d'y know? He came back just as any sensible drake would to a darling duckling that looked like Twiddle.

VELVET

At the Hampshire sheep pens I saw the Springfield, Kentucky, farmers getting their sheep ready for the judges. They looked anxious for they were competing with an Ohio man. A little woman was clipping a yearling that was exactly like Velvet and was smoothing her off with wool cards. Your readers won't know what cards are, you say? Well, you may tell them that they don't play bridge with them.

By the way, I am sending you a picture of Velvet. It has been used to illustrate my articles published in farm papers. Was it 1925 that Velvet won the blue ribbon at the Marshall county fair? I remember that Harry Cottrell was county agent and Lloyd Rudolph was county school superintendent. My sister, Reba Heath, snapped this picture with her box camera. She said Velvet came up and posed for her. Perhaps next year I will send you a picture of Twiddle and the next one of my own sunbonneted self.

Much love to you and to all who remember me. Tell my friends that they had better not forget me or I'll come back and haint 'em. I have been away only 17 years, which isn't so long, just long enough for the babies I knew to get married.

Miss Devine Married In Church Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Joyce Lee Devine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clete Devine of Calvert City, to Charles Edward Grote Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Grote of Shelbyville, Tenn., was solemnized Sunday afternoon, Sept. 13, at the Gilbertsville Baptist Church.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Van Sledd before a white bridal arch entwined with greenery and white chrysanthemums, flanked by lighted tapers and standards of white gladioli against a background of palms.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Miss Wilma Evans, pianist, and Keith Moore, soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride selected for her wedding a ballerina-length gown of imported bridal silk. The basque bodice featured a fitted midriff overlaid with Chantilly lace, re-embroidered with ocean beads, a scoop neckline and long tapered sleeves that terminated at the wrists in Calla lily points. Self covered buttons closed the bodice back. The bouffant skirt was poised over layers of bridal taffeta and hoops. Her elbow-length veil of French illusion was attached to an Egyptian crown of pearls and beadtrim. White feathered carnations centered with a white orchid and satin steamers fashioned her bouquet.

Mrs. Clinton Satterfield was her sister's only attendant.

The flower girl was Miss Shelia Satterfield, niece of the bride.

Sammy Devine, brother of the bride, was ring bearer. Bill Collins of Louisville, served as best man. Ushers were Clinton Satterfield and Charles Maddux of Hopkinsville.

ANNOUNCES

The Opening of His

Chiropractic Office

Monday, Sept. 28th

1204 Elm St., Benton, Ky. (The Judge Riley Home)

WHAT IS CHIROPRACTIC?

Chiropractic teaches that health comes from within. It maintains that normal function is expressed through the nervous system, the brain being the receiving and sending station. Normal health is a state wherein there is no disturbance to nerve channels. The nerve impulses must flow freely from brain cells to tissue, and from tissue cells to brain cells, so that the glands, muscles and other organs may function normally.

Chiropractic is a definite science and art, complete in itself. No drugs or surgical methods are used. Due to this fact, chiropractic is the largest drugless healing art in the world.

The science of Chiropractic is just over half a century old. In that short time, it has attracted to its 30,000 practitioners over 30,000,000 patients. The phenomenal growth of Chiropractic has been due to one thing: Its ability to get sick people well and keep them well.

"The doctor of the future will give no medicine but will interest his patients in the care of the human frame and the cause and prevention of disease." . . . . Thomas A. Edison.

Hardin School Is In Big Science Program

"The morning the books arrived was like Christmas." September will seem like Christmas to the pupils at Hardin Elementary School if they react similarly to the two big boxes from the American Association for the Advancement of Science. Inside there will be carefully packed 80 brightly-jacketed, plastic-covered, wonderfully illustrated books —all sizes for all ages from the first through the eighth. At midyear the boxes will be repacked and sent off to another school in the program and two new boxes will arrive with 80 more bright, interesting and authoritative books. By the end of the school term the Traveling Elementary School Science Library will have presented to the inquiring minds at Hardin Elementary School such subjects as time, life millions of year ago, sound, the lost worlds of archaeology, the weather, light, the planets, caves, stars, space, prehistoric animals, exploration of Mars, the egg, microbes, lightning and thunder, dust—and many ,many more.

This new experimental science library program for elementary schools is administered by the AAAS under a grant of funds from the United States Government through the National Science Foundation. It has been found that both the lifetime reading habit and the interest in science are developed in the elementary grades, and the books have been carefully selected with the aid of professional advisors to stimulate both the habit and the interest.

Hardin Elementary School is one of 800 elementary schools chosen from applications representing every area of the United States. It was selected because of its special interest in the academically - talented student, and because of its library facilities for handling the traveling science library.

Parents, civic organization members and public librarians interested in examining the books are invited to do so during school hours.

C.

The White House Conference on Children and Youth is traditionally held every 10 years for a nationwide stock-taking of children's needs. In each conference, the president of the United States has given his personal leadership.

Calvert City Lions Club Broom Sale Smashing Success

The Calvert City Lions Club annual broom sale was a smashing success, according to Rusty Ferguson and Dr. Herbert Denham in their report to the Lions Club at the regular dinner meeting at the Gypsy Tea Room last Thursday night.

It was reported that virtually every family in Calvert City purchased either a whisk broom or a sweep broom, or both. The Lions Club wishes to thank everyone who boosted the Little League by patronizing the broom sale.

Guest speaker at the meeting was Tom Henson of the Paducah Kiwanis Club. Mr. Henson described the operation of the Kiwanis-sponsored Paducah Teen Town recreation center for teen agers. He stressed that such a center in Calvert City could fulfill the need for healthful supervised recreation for high school-age young people.

Following the program, Ed O'Dell announced that the Oct. 1 meeting would feature the joint appearance of Marshall County Attorney Marvin Prince and Attorney Joe Asher of Benton, who will explain aspects of the magisterial form of county government versus the proposed commissioner form of government.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Chambers of Shelbyville, Ky., spent the weekend in Benton with their mothers, Mrs. Martha N. Holland and Mrs. Virginia Chambers.

Mr. and Mrs. Edd Rettke have returned to Fairmont, Wisc., after visiting in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Heath.

Claud Foust of Route 7 is a patient at the Baptist Hospital in Paducah.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ethridge and daughter of Bradenton, Fla., have returned to Benton to reside.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon R. Chambers of Route 7 have moved to West Paducah Rt. 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Marshall Walker of Route 4 are the parents of a son born Sept. 17 at the Baptist Hospital in Paducah.

Lexie Thompson of Route 6 has been a patient this week at the Baptist Hospital in Paducah.

Wm. H. Powell of Calvert City Route 1 was admitted this week to the Baptist Hospital in Paducah.

Come in and we'll tell you all we know about the new Ford Falc...

HOW BIG WILL THE ALL-NEW FORD FALCON BE? HOW MANY PEOPLE WILL IT CARRY? HOW ABOUT POWER?

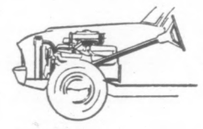
To start with, in the New-Size Ford—the Falcon—you save but never "do without!" You get modern, fine-car styling, six-people room and comfort, a car that's born and bred for the American road!

LET'S TALK ABOUT STYLING FIRST!

You'll be amazed by the Falcon's beauty. No "stubbiness" of other cars in this field, but low, sleek, European flair in beautifully proportioned style . . . "wide open" visibility all around . . . interior styling that's fresh and smart. The Falcon is Ford's way of proving a true economy car needn't suffer in looks or ride.

LET'S TALK ABOUT THE ALL-NEW FALCON'S SIX-PASSENGER SIZE!

In both 2- and 4-door models, the new Falcon will have full-width, full-depth seats for six adults. Plus room in the spacious trunk for all their luggage! And it can turn and park just as easily as most of those 4- and 5-passenger imported jobs!



LET'S TALK ABOUT HOW IT'S BUILT!

Like the fabulous Ford Thunderbird, the Falcon's built in the latest single-unit construction . . . adding extra inches everywhere inside . . . making the car one solid, quiet, integrated structure.

LET'S TALK FALCON PERFORMANCE!

The all-new six-cylinder engine's up front for greater safety and stability . . . will deliver up to 30 miles per gallon of regular gas . . . has a water-cooled engine which permits use of a water-type heater that's safer, never robs you of gas mileage. You can get an automatic transmission in the Falcon, too!

AND NOW . . . ABOUT THE FABULOUS FALCON EXPERIENCE RUN, U.S.A.!

Topping off 3 years and 3 million miles of research and development, a fleet of new Falcons is traveling every mile of U.S. highway to prove its "30-miles-per-gallon" average . . . and to prove it takes to the roads you drive, right around ... like a duck takes to ...

Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain — without surgery. The Aurora School Has Food Study

A nutrition project has just been completed at Aurora Elementary School. This project is under the supervision of Mrs. Melodean Hicks, lunchroom supervisor, and Mrs. Dorthea Bailey, nutritionist from the State Health Department.

Purposes of this project were to attempt to realize what is needed in daily diet, to get pupils to eat the foods that are needed, and especially to eat what is served in the lunchroom.

The project was first introduced at P-TA meeting and their assistance was offered in awarding prizes to the winners. Each pupil received a sheet for recording what he or she ate during the day for a week. A sheet of rules and letter to take home to parents were also given.

A film was shown on foods all should eat during the day, and a discussion was given on essential foods and rules of contest. Rules for this contest consisted of points to be given for the food eaten each day. The essential foods having highest scores, and 15 extra points were allowed if the pupil ate everything on his plate in lunchroom.

After first week, it was found the foods needing especial emphasis were green and yellow vegetables, and those containing vitamin C — oranges, tomatoes, grapefruit, and green cabbage. At end of week, each was scored and highest scores were posted. Then at end of second week, prizes were awarded to the winners.

A silver dollar was given to highest winner, Gary Hill, 4th grade.

Fifty cents was given to each of the four next highest scores: Ronnie King, 5th grade, Eva Henson, 5th grade, Helen Stallons, 5th grade, and Peggy Freeman 5th grade. The room having the highest average was the 5th and the pupils will have a party soon.

At conclusion of study, some of the pupils wrote a short paper on what they learned from contest. Some of these comments were:

"I learned to eat the right kind of foods instead of sweets. Two foods I learned to like were butter and green beans."

"I learned to like green and yellow vegetables."

"I have learned to eat everything on my plate in lunchroom."

"I have learned to drink milk."

This project is now being conducted at West Marshall Elementary School and plans are for other schools to follow during the year.

Uncle Ned - - - From Dogtown

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

The boys at the country store Saturday night brung up several items that ought to be recorded in the minutes. Some of the fellers is gitting worried over this new round of inflation and them 300 billion dollars we owe.

One of 'em said he was 18 year old afore he ever heard the word "billion" and it happened when some do-gooder from the county seat was talking about the germ count on the dipper at he town pump. And he allowed he was 30 year old afore he ever heard the word used in connection with money.

He was lamenting the sad fact that since he was 40 he ain't heard it used in no other capacity.

Ed Doolittle claims you newspaper editors is handling the situation in a very bad way. He allows as how you editors ought to quit discussing the danger of inflation in terms of billions and git it down to language a rancher, dirt farmer and store clerk can understand.

Fer instant, Ed says he put a penny in one of them peanut machines the other day and got 4 salted peanuts. He claims if you editors would go to the people preaching about 4 salted peanuts fer a penny you'd git somepun done about inflation.

Another item that is worrying the fellers is the way they're gitting so many regulations fer things around your own property.

One of 'em said he saw where a feller was fined $25 fer running a electric extension wire to his own barn. On account of him not being a licensed electrician, he don't know how to plug in a extension cord.

They'll have it fixed in another 10 year so's a man can't milk his own cow if he ain't a licensed cow doctor, and if he's a cow doctor and uses a milking machine, he'll have to git a electrician's license to operate the milker.

I see where U. S. Senator Sam Ervin says these is times that "tax our patience." I figgered they'd git around to that sooner or later. They've taxed about everything else and now we'll have to pay fer what little patience we got left.

The next budget will include a sliding tax scale on patience, about 2 per cent fer lawyers and 4 per cent fer you and me.

Things is gitting mightyrestless all over, Mister Editor. People is nervous, nobody is sleeping sound no more, and ulcers is now a plague upon the land.

As fer me, I'm gitting as restless as one preacher listening to another preacher preach. I reckon that's about as restless as a feller can git.

Yours truly,
Uncle Ned
