CIRCLE DRIVE—Wonder what this circle drive is for? And why is the garage so far from the house? These clues should help you to identify this Mystery Farm. If you can identify the farm, phone The Courier Friday at 1 p. m.

Mystery Farm Was In New Harmony Section

Last week's Mystery Farm was a tough one to identify. But several knew it.

The farm is owned by Clovis Smith and is beyond Oak Level near the Graves County line.

Joe Duncan, who lives next door to Mr. Smith, was the first to identify the farm. Bro. Jack Smith was the second person to phone in and identify the farm.

He said he had visited the farm and Mr. Smith many times.

Mrs. Morgan Hill of Benton phoned in, but she was a little late. Mrs. Mary Joe Smith, sister-in-law of Clovis Smith, phoned in too, but she was a little late. Several others phoned to identify the farm.

This week's farm should be fairly easy to identify. For one thing, it has an unusual driveway. If you know whose farm it is, phone The Courier Friday at 1 p. m.

2 Important Changes Made By Soil Bank

The Marshall County ASC office has announced two important changes in the 1960 Conservation Reserve of the Soil Bank, as follows:

(1) Basic annual rates will be established by the same method used for 1959 contracts; and

(2) Farmers will have until Oct. 9 (rather than Sept. 30) to take the first step in applying for the 1960 program.

These changes have been made following enactment of a new law passed shortly before the recent adjournment of Congress and signed by the President Sept. 21. The added time will enable farmers to study the new rate arrangement and determine the advisability of coming into the program.

Robert L. Rudolph, of the ASC office, removes the legal requirement that the annual payment rate must depend on actual crop production during the period 1955-59 on the land placed in the reserve. Many farmers regarded such rates as unfair because of the effect of drought and other natural disasters on crop yields during one or more of those years.

Under the new law, basic annual rates for 1960 will be determined chiefly on the basis of the productivity and value of the land for agricultural purposes, just as they were for 1959. The basic rate may not exceed 20 percent of the value of the land offered and may not be higher than the basic annual rate that would have been established for the same farm in the 1959 program.

In every case where a farmer has already been informed of his basic 1960 rate and where the change will result in a different rate, the farmer will be notified and will have an opportunity to submit an application for a contract on the basis of his new rate.

Another recent program change may affect some farmers in this county permits a contract with a land owner where a tenant leaves a farm voluntarily and the owner finds it necessary to take over the operation. Originally, a farm which was operated by a tenant or sharecropper in 1958 or 1959 could not be placed under a 1960 contract unless a tenant or sharecropper was designated to share in the payment.

The Aching Back

U.S. physicians look up 25,000,000 times a year to see the doctor opening for a patient complaining of back pain.

Some of these patients are in pain because of loss of calcium or lime from their bones, especially the bones of the spinal column. Others have developed chronic backache from mental and emotional stress, their sore backs being the equivalent of migraine headache in some others.

The members of a third group, usually acutely miserable, have twisted or torn some part of the elaborate system of muscles and cartilages which enables the 33 bones of the backbone to hold us erect. The damage may have been caused by uncustomed exercise, improper lifting of heavy weights, auto accidents and other shocks.

Many of the broken bones of old age, as well as the characteristic stoop of those in their seventh and eighth decades, are results of the condition doctors call osteoporosis, which is simply a way of saying that the bones have become unduly porous.

Treatment with some of the newer tissue-building hormones, related to the sex hormones, is regarded by physicians as a promising remedy for this condition. Such hormones, however, must be used only under close medical supervision.

"Migraine backache" is a concept recently advanced by a nerve specialist. The doctor reported that he has seen patients whose back pain was caused by stretching of small blood vessels which run up and down the back and whose function it is to help nourish the nerve cells of the spinal column. Under stress, he said, these vessels swell and press against the spinal nerves causing acute distress—much as swelling of blood vessels in the brain is the immediate cause of migraine headache. He advised the use of drugs to shrink the blood vessels back to normal, followed by guidance by physicians to help patients cope with the stress which is the underlying cause of their trouble.

In traumatic or shock back pain, the muscles of the back try to render the spine rigid so that it can recover from the injury it has received. But these muscles tend to overdo their job and go into what doctors call spasm, or continued, unnecessary contraction. The contraction, in turn, causes more pain, which results in further spasm. Drugs are needed to break this vicious circle both by relieving the pain and by relaxing the muscles involved. Fortunately, a drug has been discovered which performs both functions simultaneously. Called Soma, the new drug has already been used against wry neck, arthritic pain, common household back pain, bursitis and other ailments.

According to early reports, Soma seems to be able to relieve pain and relax muscles without impairing the alertness of the body's normal defenses, as narcotic pain relievers do. Researchers regard the new chemical which is obtained only by a doctor's prescription as an important step toward relief of unnecessary bodily pain.

Benton P-TA Has Its Opening Session

A lively discussion ensued concerning activities during the coming year. Committees were appointed to organize a Fall Festival, a parent versus teacher basketball game, and a room mothers system.

Mrs. William Hicks' second-grade class won the parents attendance award.

Delicious refreshments were served under the direction of Mrs. Ed Beaver, hospitality committee chairman. Miss Jean Gurley entertained at the piano during the refreshment period. All parents and teachers are urged to attend the next meeting on October 15.

Henry Carter, Secretary of State; John Breckinridge, Attorney General; Emerson Buehler, Commissioner of Agriculture; Thomas Stewart, Auditor.

ACTION

TICKET PLEDGED TO:

- Expand research programs at the U. of K. College of Experiment Station that will pay off in dollars for Kentucky farmers.
- Encourage expansion of extension programs to provide information to farmers.
- Strengthen the program of Vocational Education, 4-H, the Future Farmers of America organization to help people with greater opportunities.
- Make the State Fair the greatest in the nation and the fair program equal to those of surrounding states.
- Expand technical services to preserve our soil and to improve production and marketing methods.
- Support the Kentucky Department of Agriculture programs.
- Develop a balanced marketing program to improve handling practices of Kentucky farm products and market outlets. "Grown in Kentucky" must become a symbol of quality.
- Attract to Kentucky more processing plants that use our materials and develop a more desirable balance between farm and industry.
- Expand the livestock program to realize Kentucky's great enterprise by increased emphasis on evaluating livestock completing the Area Breeds Program and providing for the industry.
- Continue and accelerate Soil Conservation, Flood Control, and Forestry Programs.
- Strengthen and reinforce the state Forestry program to our greatest renewable resource.

Beware of those who consistently supported the Republican program sponsored and administered by Secretary Benson. Support the party that has consistently understood Kentucky farmers—the party which has preserved our land and supported all other basic farm commodities to the farmer.

1960 Oldsmobile Has Balanced Design

Many features of the balanced design of Oldsmobile for 1960 may be seen in this photograph. Entering the picture at the left is a 1960 Oldsmobile Dynamic "88" Celebrity Sedan. The chrome-plated bars in groups of three across the front give the grille a wide stable look. The outboard pair of headlights are set slightly to the rear of the inboard pair with a block numeral "88" for identification. In the "88" and Super "88" series the Oldsmobile crest is used for identification. The parking lights are safely recessed in the corners of the sturdy bumper. At the right is the unique rear end treatment of the 1960 Oldsmobile as seen on the "88" Holiday Sport Sedan. The gas filler cap is located behind the hinged license plate. In the center background is a 1960 Oldsmobile "88" Holiday Scenic Coupe showing the clean lines which feature Oldsmobile's balanced design for 1960. This combination of views shows the low, level design of the hood and the expansive "Clean Sweep" rear deck to good advantage.
