Universal Life Opens Its 35th Branch Office

er, Mrs. Mattie N. Littlejohn, and William D. Wilson. Second row: Mrs. Lucy B. Branch, Norman D. Bell and Wilbur T. Taylor. The class is instructed by W. T. Otey (standing). Third row: Harold Evans, Manager Roy N. Mayes (standing), G. T. Howell, asst. director, C. J. Browne, special agent, and H. A. Caldwell, educational director.

THE NEW DISTRICT NO. 2 is being managed by Roy N. Mayes (shown). A capable and experienced insurance man, he brings to his new position experience gained as a combination agent, special agent and assistant manager.

SOME POINTERS — Chief Auditor P. W. Thornton, of Universal Life Insurance Co.,

is shown giving some instruction to Mrs. Margie L. Bosley, who is secretary-cashier of the Universal district.

THIS IS THE HOME of two Memphis branch offices of Universal Life Insurance company. One of them is the new office opened recently. The districts housed in the building are 1 and 2. The modern building is located at 234 Hernando st.

Universal Meets Demand, Opens New Branch Office

It is significant that in this era of economic prosperity, more people are seeking and accepting the assistance of service institutions in planning and saving for future needs. The public is demanding more and better service from these institutions, both in knowledge and technical know-how.

Because of this demand by the insuring public, Universal Life Insurance Co., has opened a new branch office at 234 Hernando St., its 35th branch office. These 35 offices are located throughout nine states.

This office will help Universal Life to better reach the insuring public in Memphis and to expand its services to reach those domiciled in fringe areas.

THE PURPOSE

Better service from the standpoint of insurance planning and counseling was another important factor in the Agency Department's decision to open a new office. Because training is such an important component of agency building, the Company felt that the life underwriters could be better equipped service-wise and sales-wise if an agency force could be kept at a number small enough for each person to receive personal and adequate training. With more efficient service, and added service — to the insuring public upmost in the minds of the official family, this new district was opened on the eve of Founder's Month in the Company's 33rd year of operation.

The agency force, presently small, is being capably instructed and trained in the fundamentals of life underwriting by Educational Director H. A. Caldwell. The district is equipped to maintain a much larger agency, and those interested in insurance as a career are invited to investigate the opportunities offered.

The aim of the Founding Fathers — to build a service institution that would give jobs and financial assistance to our people — is alive today. Employment opportunities in the life insurance industry are great. A career in life insurance with Universal Life offers permanency of employment, job security, retirement benefits and opportunity for advancement.

TWO OFFICES IN BUILDING

The new office is the second branch office maintained by Universal Life in Memphis, both offices being located in the company's building at 234 Hernando st. The original office — designated as Memphis District No. 1 — is fourth in size in the Company's system. It is managed by M. L. Weed.

The new district will be managed by Roy N. Mayes, a capable and experienced insurance man. He brings to his new position experience gained as a combination agent, special agent and assistant manager. He is familiar with the area his district will serve as he is a native Memphian. He is educationally equipped for the job that he has to do, having attended Fisk university and Tennessee A & I State university. The district is being organized and supervised in its infancy by

G. T. Howell, executive assistant agency director. Mr. Howell is an experienced and efficient junior executive who has come up through the ranks over a period of 15 years with the company. He is a graduate of Tennessee A & I State university and is well versed in the techniques of insurance selling and management.

INSTILLING FUNDAMENTALS

Educational Director H. A. Caldwell is instilling the basic fundamental principles of life insurance counseling and selling through regular, organized instruction. A graduate of Philander Smith college and the University of Kansas, Mr. Caldwell holds the B. S. and M. S. degrees from those schools, respectively. He also has a wealth of insurance experience and knowledge gained over a period of 14 years with Universal Life, during which time he gradually kept pace with increasing advancement opportunities until he received his present assignment in 1955. Mr. Caldwell has experience in instruction gained from several years as a high school principal and teacher.

COMPLETE COVERAGE

The new district will offer complete coverage in ordinary, accident and health, and industrial insurance, and also an opportunity for men and women between the ages of 25 and 45 to begin a career which offers many advantages for future development.

In the opening of this district, the Company is attempting to live up to the meaning of its motto: "Prepare Now — And Guarantee Your Future."

Further information may be obtained by calling: Memphis District No. 2 — JA. 7-4165; and Memphis District No. 1 — JA. 6-2880.

THE NEW MEMPHIS DISTRICT is being established under the supervision of G. T. Howell. He is executive assistant agency director of Universal Life.

EDUCATIONAL DIRECTOR — H. A. Caldwell is a Universal Life Insurance company educational director, who is instructing the new personnel of Memphis No. 2 district in life insurance principles and selling.

THE AGENCY PERSONNEL of Universal's Memphis No. 1

the building at 234 Hernando st.

SOCIETY Merry Go Round

By Marjorie I. Ulen

Nippy mornings . . . and chilly evenings have had an exhilarating influence on social activity in our midst. Most of us look forward to the "Old Master Painter's" annual extravaganza which accompanies the most colorful of all seasons . . . just as we anticipate the city "a place of good abode."

AKA ROUND-UP

Graduate AKA's gathered at the beautiful home of Ruby Spight at 413 Mitchell Road on Saturday, September 1, for their "Fall Round-up" and initiated the first of their monthly meetings. More than 50 enthusiastic sorors, gaily attired in colorful sports outfits enjoyed games . . . with novelty prizes going to Edna Swingle, Ernest Westley, Helen West, and Georgia Quinn . . . the well-stocked bar provided by genial Elmer HENDERSON . . . and attempting hot dogs 'n' trimmings that augmented the wonderful fraternal camaraderie—ending with traditional sorority songs. On the serious side . . . with Basileus Georgia Harvey presiding . . . they received the announcements of committees and tentative plans for their closed formal dance . . . the second annual Beaux Arts Ball and another A. K. A. play . . . altogether a really full schedule.

EMMANUEL LAWN FESTIVAL

The lovely grounds of the home of Dr. and Mrs. W. O. Speight, 1393 South Parkway East, was the scene of the gay lawn festival of the Altar Guild and Woman's Auxiliary of Emmanuel Church. Bright lights . . . colorful hurricane lamps . . . a gaily bedecked for many tellers and novel prizes . . . provided a wonderful evening for the many guests who came and enjoyed the delicious box dinners that were served . . . among them present were Mrs. L. A. Thielen and children, Mrs. Emmitt and children, Mrs. Simon and her adorable Camille, Dr. and Mrs. S. Bodden, Dr. and Mrs. Frederick Rivers, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Osborne and their little Donna Michele, Mrs. Paul Collins and Paula and Mrs. Paul Collins and Paula and Mrs. Pamela, Mrs. Ruby Gadsden, Mrs. Hollis Price, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hies, Jr., and their Kathy, Father Hies, Jr., St. Julian Simpkins, and Helen Shelby, Miss Margaret Bush, Mrs. Andrew Roberts, Mrs. Bertha Rodman, Dr. and Mrs. O. B. Braithwaite, Mrs. Belle Pettigrew, Mr. E. P. Nabors, Mrs. L. R. Taylor and Gloria and Rudolph, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Phillips and their 4 lovely children, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wright, C. S. Jones, Mrs. Charles Tarpley, Mrs. Rebecca Biram, Mr. and Mrs. Anderson Bridges, Mrs. Kathryn Thornton, Miss Emma Laws and Miss Gloria Weaver, Reginald Morris, Lionel Arnold, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kirk, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cash, Mr. L. C. Reeves, Mr. and Mrs. "Bob" Roberts, Miss Geraldine Diamond, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Westbrook and children, Mrs. William Green, Mrs. Mose Williston, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Young, Miss Jessie Gwynn, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Washburn, Miss Bessie Rhodes, Dr. and Mrs. Oscar Speight, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Willie Anderson, Dr. Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Iles, sr., and Lynne Ulen. Much praise was heaped on the charming and vivacious general chairman . . . Mrs. O. B. Braithwaite, Mrs. Kathryn Thornton for the bright decorations and Mrs. Andrew Roberts for preparation of the tasty and attractive box-dinners. The most spectacular of the many colorful outfits seen was the real gone charcoal Bermudas and bright red sports shirts with accompanying navy full length socks worn by genial Dr. W. O. Speight. He looked like he stepped straight out of Esquire!

LA MAR CHERI'S FETE

NAVY CONTESTANTS

When the members of LaMar Cheri club greeted their guests at their dance of last Thursday night, little did the guest realize just what a full day these energetic and smart matrons had experienced. Their club was chosen by a representative of the Ed Sullivan Show to help entertain 3 navy men who were finalists in the Navy Recruitment Talent Contest . . . And entertain them they did . . . in their own inimitable La Mar Cheri manner. Personnel first-classman Williams of South Bend, Ind. — stationed at San Francisco, Personnel first-classman Anthony of Pennsylvania, stationed at Millington and another finalist flew into town in a Navy plane, accompanied with their Chief Walsh who was in charge of the contestants. They had just completed a tour of Northern states, 4 in the south and were also in this city . . . putting on a super show for the patients of Kennedy General hospital . . . Dinner at six at the lovely home of Mrs. Mabel Winfrey of 1891 Blair Hunt Drive — featuring among many tempting courses, stuffed Cornish hens . . . cocktails at the Flamingo . . . and finally, the dance, at which they gave several numbers. Members of the popular club were particularly inspired by the show at Kennedy . . . which was rousing received by patients' . . .

and they could not help but notice — that here was an area in which they could certainly do much more . . . and are reminding their friends and other organizations to include our wonderful veterans on their agendas for the busy year ahead.

THE QUE-ETTES

Members of the Que-ettes, the ladies auxiliary of Omega Psi Phi fraternity met Friday night at the Whip, with Mrs. Vasco Smith as their charming hostess. A tempting shrimp repast was served and Mrs. C. C. Sawyer, Mrs. Peter Jones, Mrs. Willard Bell, Mrs. Oliver Johnson, Mrs. B. F. Hooks, Mrs. John C. Parker, Mrs. I. A. Watson, Jr., Mrs. Winlock, Mrs. A. D. Miller, Mrs. Floyd Bass, Mrs. O. L. Brandon, and Mrs. Lawrence Westley enjoyed a delightful evening—amid the modern decor of the establishment.

ST. MONICA SODALITY'S BENEFIT CARD PARTY

Bright Hawaiian leis . . . Japanese lantern . . . and romantic Hawaiian music set the stage for the card party of St. Monica Sodality, Saturday night last, in the Parish Hall of St. Augustine church. Lively cards . . . tempting hors d'oeuvres and smooth as velvet Hawaiian punch made following members and guests enjoy a wonderful evening . . . and it was recorded for posterity by much picture-taking: Mae Bess Wright, Edna Stephens, Erma Laws, Edna Parker, Cora Palmer, Mable Mead, Juanita Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. John Milan, Doristine Humphries, Samuel Bynum, Jean Gilliam, Rogers McChristian, Fannie Conner, Minnie Anderson, Zerna Peacock, Sarah Chandler, Nina Brayon, Mrs. Bessie Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Sherrick Stanback, Evelyn Bates, Reanleatha Peete, Richard Bowden, Mrs. Gladys Brewer, Velma Lois Jones, Catherine Simmons, Ernestine Merriweather, Lee Ander Meade, Lauri Sugarman, Virgie Patterson, Marie Bradford, Marjorie Ulen, Hattie Wynn, Mrs. Sherrick Stanback was the holder of a lucky ticket that won her a gorgeous cocktail shaker . . . and first and second prizes at cards were won by Samuel Bynum and Marie Bradford.

MORE SORORITY MEETINGS

The gracious hostess of Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority's initial meeting of year was the charming Mrs. Eleanor F. Sain of 1326 Barbour. Presiding over the meeting was newly elected basileus, Rita H. Porter. Other officers assisting Mrs. Porter were: Ophelia Watson, anti-basileus; Elizabeth Plaxico, grammateus; Erie Hill Rose, anti-grammateus; Annette Roberts, timochus; Annette Edwards, parliamentarian and Katherine Jones, epistoleus.

CHIT CHAT

Valle Doyle Boswell of Oakland, Calif., Gwen Wright's sister, was entertained by Rosa and Ezra Ford at the Supreme st. residence last Wednesday night, with an informal gathering of old friends. Present were Myrtle Crawford, Mildred Hodge, Lula Heard, Charlesetta Brannan, Ruby Gadsden and Gwendolyn Wright.

Little Deborah Verla Gleese is the newest addition to the household of Rev. and Mrs. J. L. Gleese, Jr., of 432 Beale. Born August 3, and weighing 6 lbs., 14 oz., Deborah has a sister, Patricia, and a brother Samuel. Rev. Gleese is superintendent of the Rescue Mission and Mrs. Gleese is a teacher at LaRose school.

Mrs. R. W. Werf Sneed, a prominent member of Metropolitan Baptist church, who resides at 922 Jefferson ave., with her son, Willie A. Werf, left by plane September 3rd, for the National Baptist Convention—which convenes at Denver, Colo.

On her return trip she will visit Colorado Springs, Dallas, Amarillo and other points in the southwest. There's an extra flurry in the households of young men and women who are going away to college these days. More about them will be forthcoming . . . however, last week end found Ann Barnes Bartholomew heading for Howard U., Peggy Ann White for Bennett, and Bertha Simpkins — with her parents, Father and Mrs. St. Julian Simpkins — left Monday by motor for Voorhies Preparatory school in South Carolina. Upon the return of the Simpkins this week end, Adrienne will take up her duties as physical education director at LeMoyné college.

Without the development of new alloys capable of resisting elevated temperatures, the jet airplane, like the gas turbine, would not have been practical from an engineering standpoint.

CUTTING THE CAKE — Mr. and Mrs. Rupert M. White are shown cutting the traditional wedding cake at reception following the beautiful wedding recently. The bride, Edith Covine, is the daughter of V.

B. Barlow, prominent undertaker of Covington, Tenn., a graduate of Tenn. A & I university and is now teaching in Tipton county. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. P. M. White, music instructor and teacher at Armstrong High school, Richmond, Va. He is attending Tenn. A & I, majoring in electrical engineering. The wedding ceremony was performed by Dr. J. H. Seaward at Canaan Baptist church.

CLEABORN HOMES' HOME MAKERS CLUB — The Home Makers club of Cleaborn Homes Housing Project was organized several months ago to help promote tenant activities. Meetings of the group are held weekly in the recreation room of the project office. Members of the Home Makers club include the following: left to right, sitting, Mrs. Viola Cooper, Mrs. Mary Hawkins, Mrs. Willie M. Lockett, Mrs. Florida Payne; standing, Mrs. Rachael Dean, Mrs. Christine

Series Of Articles On 'The Art Of Gracious Hospitality' Begins

Because so many of our readers are anxious for fresh, new ways to add a sparkle to their home entertainment efforts, we have arranged to bring you, through this column, a regular feature on "The Art of Gracious Hospitality" with exciting suggestions from expert "at homers," the Publisher Hostesses.

If there is a special date coming up in your household or if you are simply planning an informal get-together, you will certainly want to take advantage of the many valuable tips you will find here to help make your affair "the" social highlight of your circle.

Even if the occasion is to be a wedding reception, a birthday party, graduation fete or seasonal holiday function, there are many fascinating details which can be added with a minimum of effort for you and a maximum of enjoyment for your guests.

POPULAR PROGRAM

"The Art of Gracious Hospitality" program has earned unbounded popularity since last June when Publisher Distillers Products, Inc., makers of fine whiskies, initiated an "industry first" in the distilling industry by appointing two Negro women as official Publisher hostesses. They were Mrs. Adrienne Brodgen, of Philadelphia, one of today's modern grandmothers and Mrs. Elizabeth Walker, of Rosemont, Pa., a typical housewife.

Launched in Philadelphia, the company's "hometown," the program provides local social, civic and community groups and individuals with helpful hints for adding the "modern touch" to home entertaining.

You, too, can now be "in the know" by keeping up with this column which will be appearing on these pages. Clip these columns and paste them in your cook book for ready reference.

BASIC TOOLS FOR HOSTESSING

The secret of being a guest at your own party is one well worth learning, for the anxious or worried hostess who cannot fully enjoy her "big evening" is never a truly successful one.

The relaxed assurance that makes full party possible for you and your guests must surely stem from the knowledge that everything is under control, that everything you'll need is at hand, and that preliminary preparations have not already worn your nerves thin before the party even starts.

The most important requirement for a relaxed get-together is a properly equipped bar. A corner cabinet, card table or old bookcase will do, just as long as it is serviceable and able to withstand the usual spilled drink. Aside from the actual liquors and mixing ingredients, all of the basic tools can be secured for less than $10 and you probably already have most of them.

Every bar should have a cocktail shaker, serving tray, ice bucket and tongs, corkscrew, mixing glass, measuring glass or jigger, bar spoon, squeezer, small pitcher for fruit juice, swizzle sticks, muddlers, stainless steel fruit knife and bottle opener. However these are nice to have, but they are not absolutely required. The supply of fresh fruit and juices should be checked regularly on the market list.

The basic liquid supply on hand should consist of a full-bodied bourbon, a mellow blended whiskey, a versatile vodka and a vermouth for special mixed drinks. With this you're ready for anything. So, if friends drop in for a thirst quencher you might try one of these regular favorites.

MANHATTAN COCKTAIL

2 parts Embassy Club whiskey
1 part Sweet Vermouth
1 dash, Angostura bitters
Shake with ice until very cold. Put a Maraschino cherry in each glass.

VODKA MARTINI

Part Dry Vermouth
Parts Cavalier Vodka
1 dash, orange bitters
Stir well with finely shaved ice. Always serve with an olive in the glass.

BOURBON SOUR

Into a glass of finely shaved ice and a half teaspoonful of sugar, pour a whiskey glass of Old Hickory Bourbon and the juice of one-half lemon. Fill up the sour glass with club soda.

THE BEALE EBONY

THE JACKSON SCENE

By Mrs. Anna Lee Cooke

Labor Day weekend seemed rather quiet in Jackson with no particular excitement being reported. This being the last big holiday closing the summer season found practically every body returned home and ready for work.

Kentucky Lake, where you can always find most relaxing, was visited by the W. E. McKissacks and the V. J. Gilmores for an outing on Labor Day.

The W. R. Bells skipped off to Nashville, Tenn., attending the annual picnic sponsored by the Apollo club which is a professional men's organization. This is always a gala affair and the Bells enjoyed it so much the first year in attendance, they make it a point to go annually.

Mrs. Essie M. Perry, department of education at Lane college, has returned from a most enjoyable vacation. After teaching the whole of Lane's Summer session, she was definitely ready for a change of scenery, a different atmosphere and some much needed rest. She reached Chicago right in the midst of the Democratic Convention and got a chance to sit in on one of the sessions. I can tell you that is quite an experience for I had the opportunity in 1952.

VISITS LANSING

Mrs. Perry then went to Lansing, Mich., to visit with her daughter and family, Dr. and Mrs. Clinton Cannady, who have three adorable children. The Cannadys were just returning from the National Dental association meet which was held in Hampton, Va. This was the first time for Mrs. Perry to see the lovely new home the Cannadys have recently moved into.

NOTED PERSONALITY LEAVES

Lane is in the midst this week of the faculty readying themselves for the opening of the Fall session with the annual faculty seminar. I understand there will be some new faces with some old ones being greatly missed. One noted musical personality who seemed to have captured the minds of all who heard him will surely be missed in this section. Dr. Mitchell B. Southall has departed for Chicago, Ill., joining his wife who is equally as musical, having studied and given concerts abroad. Dr. Southall is known as an artist, composer, arranger and conductor of music and has done an excellent job with the Lane college choir. We all wish for the Southalls much continued success.

January may begin the new calendar year, but September is the month for the beginning for many other activities. In addition to schools, change of season, etc., September also begins meetings again for fraternal organizations and clubs. The Jack and Jill Mother's club, Inc., met last week in the lovely home of the Rex Currys on Cumberland st. Plans are in the making for an exciting year for the youngsters. Mrs. Curry is the mother of two children, Ollie Castle and Rex, Jr. Although Rex, Jr., is too small now to enjoy festivities of the Jacks and Jills, he's in there pitching.

Beta Omega Sigma Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta sorority will begin its next fiscal year meeting with Soror Faye Green who will entertain at the home of Mrs. Lula Bell Martin on Hays avenue. The meeting takes place on September 15 at 6 p.m., with Soror Essie Perry, president, presiding.

OFF TO DENVER
Remember Miss Patricia Cunningham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Cunningham, who walked off with first place winning the State Oratorical contest at the State Baptist Convention in Memphis? She is now in Denver, Colo., attending the National Baptist Convention where she will represent the state of Tennessee in the National Oratorical contest.

Other delegates who accompanied her are Rev. and Mrs. W. G. Terry, pastor of First Baptist church, and Mr. and Mrs. Countee Bond. We are all pulling for Miss Cunningham for the winning reward will be a $1,000 scholarship to college.

Miss Joanne Merry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Merry, who begins her first year in high school, will be matriculated at Voorhies Prep school in Denmark, S. C. The young miss completed her elementary school work at St. Joseph's Catholic school and was listed as a very good student.

OFF TO ATLANTA
J. A. Cooke, athletic director and coach at Lane college, Coach Gilmore, Merry High school and Coach Beasley, Montgomery High school, Lexington, Tenn., are scheduled to be off this weekend to the athletic coaches and officials meet which is being held in Atlanta, Ga. At this meeting, Southern Conference officials become certified.

A word about one who has been shut-in for some time. We are happy to know that Mrs. Ethel Rutledge is able to be out again at intervals to inhale a bit of the fresh air and converse with many of her friends who have been so nice to her throughout her illness. Mrs. Rutledge, who had given many of her precious years to teaching both in Madison County and Jackson City school systems, was forced to retire some years ago because of disability. She is most grateful to those who have given encouraging words as well as remembrances throughout her shut-in period. We hope she will continue to improve.

White Backs Off After Making Slur

HOUSTON, Texas — (INS) — Trouble nearly developed Monday in Houston when a white man made a reported slur remark to a director of the NAACP who tried unsuccessfully to enroll three Negro students in an elementary school.

The white man approached George T. Nelson, the NAACP official and made a remark. Witnesses said Nelson put his hand in a large manila envelope he was carrying and said to the man, "Come here, mister, and I'll show you something." The white man backed away. Nelson later told newsmen he had only personal effects in the envelope.

MSU PRODUCES WINNERS

In a 27-year span, 1929 through 1955, only one Michigan State football team failed to produce a winning or "break-even" season. Tops were the two undefeated seasons of 1951 and 1952, the teams winning nine games.

Nixon Begins 32-State Drive Sept. 18

WASHINGTON — (INS)— Vice President Richard M. Nixon announced Monday he will begin his nationwide reelection campaign on Sept. 18 with a two-week, 32-state "intensive" air tour.

The Republican National Committee said his campaign swing, hitting Indianapolis and the Los Angeles area on the first day, will be the "most intensive air tour in U. S. political history." The initial tour will wind up in Philadelphia on the night of Oct. 3.

VARIEY FOR SUNDAY NIGHT SUPPERS

Looking for something different for an informal Sunday night supper? Try this recipe for Sunday Shrimp Supper— it's easy to make. Basically it is nothing more than sandwiches, but what an unusual filling these sandwiches have — shrimp, celery, pimiento and ripe olives, all combined in a tasty cream sauce. The filling is spread between toasted bread and the sandwiches are then topped with two slices of cooked bacon and garnished with a whole shrimp. Served hot (you will need forks to eat them) along with some crisp relishes, these glamorous sandwiches will make a hearty and nutritious meal, and one for which you'll have many repeat requests.

SUNDAY SHRIMP SUPPER

- 1/2 cup butter
 - 1/2 cup flour
 - Few grains pepper
 - 1/2 teaspoon salt
 - 2 cups milk
 - 1 1/2 cups diced cooked shrimp
 - 1/4 cup diced celery
 - 1/4 cup chopped pimiento
 - 1/4 cup diced black olives
 - 8 slices toast
 - 4 whole shrimp
 - 8 slices cooked bacon
- Melt butter, blend in flour, salt and pepper. Gradually add milk.

Announce New Way To Shrink Painful Piles

Science Finds Healing Substance That Does Both—Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids

New York, N. Y. (Special)— For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain—without surgery. In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations. Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place. And most amazing of all—this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months! In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing. All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body. This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H suppositories or Preparation H ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug stores. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

KC BULLDOGS IN ACTION—This is preliminary action for the Knoxville college Bulldogs who answered the roll call and chow bell last weekend. The Bulldogs consider this action a part of preparation

Bernard Dixon, Milwaukee, Wis.; Sam L. McBride, Camden, Ala.; Lawrence Marshall, same city; Jimmy Smith, Auburn, Ala., helping with the serving, is also a candidate along with most of the men shown.

SPECIAL FEATURES OF ASSOCIATION

The Federal Savings and Loan Association will be a mutual, Federally Chartered, locally managed, thrift institution in which depositors save safely while earning liberal dividends, while providing for home financing which equals a better community. This will be done through: direct reduction loans, construction mortgages, repair loans, FHA loans and GI loans.

The foreseeable future seems bright for the Savings and Loan industry. There are now four Federal Savings and Loan Associations operating in the city of Memphis, all of which play a vital role in the building and buying of homes in this city. These associations provide through your account, future security retirement, education of children, travel and down payment on homes. "Do your part, give mutual a start."

Writer Takes Look At BTW, Manassas Teams

By ALEXANDER DELOACH, JR.
Hello — Your sport fan is back again to give you more news about the boys on the field. Well, Booker T. Washington and Manassas High schools. The Washington Warriors had a pretty fair season last year. They lost 11 boys.

The Warriors are coached by Bill Fowlkes, Joe Carr, Hosea Alexander and a newcomer to the Warriors is Charles Lomacks, an alumnus of the school and graduate from Southern university.

The boys lost through graduation were: James Ware, guard; and Giles Wells, half-back, both of these boys are off to Grambling college; Willie Brown, guard, to Southern Illinois university; Herman Adams, halfback, to Lincoln university; Mirror Walker, an end who also made the All-Memphis team; Willie Wales, halfback; Walter Marker, a center and tackle; Emmett Martin, halfback and Roosevelt Tension, a center.

MAY SEE ACTION
Bill Fowlkes said these boys probably will be seeing action. They are George (Radio) Willison, Walter Bailey and Charlie Cobbett at the guards spots; tackles will be Ernest Dunlap and George White. At ends will be L. Singleton and Don Potet. In the backfield will be John Aldridge whom you fans know. This year will be Aldridge's last year for the Warriors. Last year he was one of the key boys in the Warriors' back field.

Other backs are Curtis Orr, C. C. Morton and Jerry Harris.

From what I could see last week the Warriors are really drilling hard and there are a lot of new boys on the field.

Now at Manassas, Johnny Johnson is head coach of the Tigers, the assistants are Milton Barber and a newcomer to the Tigers' coaching staff is John Henry Roach, also an alumnus of the school. The Tigers lost only six boys through graduation. These were: Otis Jones, halfback; Ura Carpenter, halfback; Howard Grifins, guard; Robert Couvier, quarterback and Walter Childress halfback.

The Tigers' football season last year was not so good winding up in last place. This year the Tigers will be running from the T-formation. To help the Tiger carry that T-formation will be James Bradford, John Williams and Marvin Doggett, at the end spots Walter Williams at center. In the backfield Robert Gentry, Billy Phillips, James Mosely, John Simpson and Clarence Rellier.

HATE MONGERS — In Clinton, Tenn., members of a mob protesting integration of Clinton high school surround Jack Kershaw (at microphone.) Kershaw, leader of a pro-segregation group called the Federation of Constitutional Government, was one of the leaders of the anti-Negro demonstration last week. Other mobs formed in Texas, Kentucky, Virginia and Maryland in protest to school integration. — INP Soundphoto.

Vacation Notes ABOUT TEENAGERS

By DARMY BAILEY

The Booker T. Washington Warriors seem to be getting off to a very fine start with an excellent coaching staff this year. Those coaches are William Fokkes, head coach; Johnny Powell, Joe Carr and Charles Lomax, line coach; and Hosea Alexander, backfield coach.

The captain this year is John Aldridge and the co-captain is Ernest Dunlap. Aldridge plays quarterback and was a gridiron great last year. Dunlap who was a most valuable player last year, also plays guard. On behalf of the first aid department the trainers for the Warriors are:

Donald Counts, second trainer; Henry Alexander, third trainer and last but not least Leonard Draper, first trainer. The Warriors will play their first game Sept. 14, in Pine Bluff, Ark. against Merrill High.

PLATTER PARTY
Robert Harper, Stephen Boone, Edward Sanders, Shirley Horton, Robert Daily, Gladys Jones, George Buckley, Ossie Smith, Lonnie Hubbard, Earlene Wright, Chop Chop, Paul Burrows, Jewel Brown, Donald Counts, Josie Albright, Leonard Draper, Marvin and Melvin Walker, Meritta Watson, Melvin Jones, James Joseph, Ersula Joseph, William Arthur, Gladys Williams, Wilma Watts, Pearl Westbrooks and the Montclairs. Those were just a few of the many teenagers that were down to the YMCA last Thursday night.

Those teens were really having a time and it seemed as though every time the Cane played "Tonight" by the Supremes and "It's All Over" by Andre Williams and the Don Juans, the girls would go off in another world.

THE TINOS
The fabulous Tinos are really making a name for themselves around Memphis Town. They are Marvin Walker, leader; Melvin Walker, second tenor; Loretta Watson, first tenor and Melvin Jones, bass. The Tinos have been together for about two years and have made one recording called "Don't Do That" and "Sitting By My Window". They expect another record as soon as possible but that is about all they can say for now.

CAMPUS HEAR SAY
Things seem kind of clouded between Maylene Williams and Robert Daily.

Phyllis Hyter, I heard you let Sidney McNairy off your mind to let Bobbie Nelson on his line.

Henry Alexander and Bobbie Clark seem to be doing as well as can be expected.

Carlean Rogers (Hamilton) says she's on time to keep up with Donald Counts Mr. Fine.

Leonard Draper just can't keep the date he has with Shelia Rice.

William Miller says who will be the next one?

Clifford (Radar) Wilson, who is it Bonnie Bates or Eleanor Cole?

Charles Floyd says he is stranded in the jungle, will some girl come and get him.

Family Service Group Meets On September 14

By MME. G. S. YOUNG
(Member of Case Committee)
The Family Service Case committee will hold its first Fall meeting Friday, Sept. 14, at 11 o'clock in the office of the agency, 161 Jefferson.

Rev. A. McEwen Williams is chairman of the committee, and other leaders in our community who are serving with him are: J. T. Chandler, Rev. H. H. Jones, Mrs. Cooper Taylor, Mrs. T. H. Hayes, Dr. H. H. Johnson, Atty. B. F. Jones, Rev. S. A. Owen, Mrs. Ethel Venson, Mrs. Harriett Walker, L. O. Swingle, MME. G. S. Young, Dr. W. O. Speight, Jr., Rev. W. L. Varnado, Dr. A. L. Johnson, Rev. R. W. Norsworthy, Alex P. Dumas, and Rev. St. Julian Simpkins, Jr.

Having been a member of Family Service committees for many years, I know the work of this agency in helping people solve personal and family troubles.

DEMOCRACY'S STRENGTH
Last month all of us were interested in the political conventions of our two parties in Chicago and San Francisco, who met to choose their candidates and hammer out platforms of guiding principles.

Our democracy's strength is belief in the intrinsic worth of each individual in "a land where opportunity is founded on responsibility." The main plank in Family Service's "platform" is firm conviction of the value of people, their ability to grow and improve, and their ultimate courage to face life as it is.

FACES HARD FACTS

Some hard facts had to be faced by a girl in our city, sixteen and oldest of seven children — hours of heavy housework, dodging the blows of a father who drank far too much, too often. Mary Ellen failed at school. Longing for a little fun, she fell in with the wrong crowd. An ugly fight — switchblade knives drawn — and several youth were arrested. Mary Ellen was warned — next time, State Training School! Her worried mother asked Family Service to help.

Under the sullen look, the caseworker saw a girl desperately wanting to be liked. A girl needing someone to steady her and bring out her best. How to do it? First, the caseworker arranged for Mary Ellen to stay in a relative's home the rest of the school year, and helped her to see that failure in one term's grades need not prevent passing next time. All along, talks with Mary Ellen brought out her many good points — a sincere desire to improve, energy, honesty, love and concern for her little brothers and sisters. Two weeks of camp in the Summer and a YVCA membership helped.

BOY MEETS GIRL
The counsel of the Family Service caseworker also included dating and marriage, the qualities a girl needed to look for in boy friends and in a prospective husband. So when Mary Ellen met Joe Craig, she could value his quiet sense of humor and reliability. Now, three years later, the young Craigs are buying their home. What a world of difference between the noisy crowded rooms of Mary Ellen's childhood and the white cottage with the screened porch her husband's building on the shady side.

At Family Service we know that the most effective way of helping people is to enable them to discover and use their own strengths to help themselves. And the best way, the American way, is by showing real respect for each person as someone to be believed in, someone of value.

Family Service is a Red Feather agency of the Community Chest. L. M. Stratton, III, is president, and Mrs. Ruth G. Joyner, acting executive secretary.

Miss Hubbard Attends Meet

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. — Miss Emma Jean Hubbard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hubbard, of 1093 Beach st., and a student of LeMoyn College, was among college students representing all states of the Union, Hawaii and a number of foreign countries assembled at La Foret Camps near here.

It was the annual conference of United Fellowship, a campus movement of student movement of Congregational Christian and Evangelical and Reformed young people held Aug. 28 through Sept. 4.

Under the sullen look, the caseworker saw a girl desperately wanting to be liked. A girl needing someone to steady her and bring out her best. How to do it? First, the caseworker arranged for Mary Ellen to stay in a relative's home the rest of the school year, and helped her to see that failure in one term's grades need not prevent passing next time. All along, talks with Mary Ellen brought out her many good points — a sincere desire to improve, energy, honesty, love and concern for her little brothers and sisters. Two weeks of camp in the Summer and a YVCA membership helped.

BOY MEETS GIRL
The counsel of the Family Service caseworker also included dating and marriage, the qualities a girl needed to look for in boy friends and in a prospective husband. So when Mary Ellen met Joe Craig, she could value his quiet sense of humor and reliability. Now, three years later, the young Craigs are buying their home. What a world of difference between the noisy crowded rooms of Mary Ellen's childhood and the white cottage with the screened porch her husband's building on the shady side.

At Family Service we know that the most effective way of helping people is to enable them to discover and use their own strengths to help themselves. And the best way, the American way, is by showing real respect for each person as someone to be believed in, someone of value.

Family Service is a Red Feather agency of the Community Chest. L. M. Stratton, III, is president, and Mrs. Ruth G. Joyner, acting executive secretary.

"THESE WILDER YEARS"

Coming to NEW DAISY

WEDNESDAY and THURSDAY

James Cagney and Barbara Stanwyck are the stars of "These Wilder Years," new M-G-M drama opening at the NEW DAISY Theatre Wednesday, for a 2-day showing.

A social drama involving the conflict between a domineering, self-made millionaire and a humanitarian woman who has devoted her life to an adoption home for children, the picture offers both Cagney and Miss Stanwyck compelling characterizations.

Cagney plays Steven Bradford, who set out to find the son he fathered twenty years ago and whose paternity he denied. His quest meets militant opposition from Miss Stanwyck, as Ann Dempster, head of the adoption home, who had placed the unwanted child with foster parents. Eventually, the father and his now grown-up son meet up. The results of the dramatic meeting involve not only father and son and Ann Dempster, but also a sixteen-year-old girl and her baby whose happiness are at stake.

Forrest City And Madison Briefs

By LOUVENIA J. CLARK

We know that fall can't be far off when we begin enjoying cool nights and the opening of the most exciting season of the year... football season.

The Lincoln Hi Tigers proved they're still champs last week when they opened the season with a victory of 25-7 over Douglass Hi (Memphis.) Coaches Livingston and Allen can really pick 'em and train 'em. More power to you, Tigers!

The Ministers' Wives club honored Mesdames R. J. Christmas and R. N. Lofton recently with a joint surprise birthday party at the home of Mrs. Christmas. The honorees were showered with gifts. Enjoying the gaiety, fried chicken and luscious pink and white birthday cake were: Mesdames C.E. Allen, F.M. Jamison, F.E. Barnes, E.L. Nelson, G.W. Pitts, Mollie E. Moore, F.M. McClelland, Rev. and Mrs. R. B. Bland, Rev. and Mrs. A. Harris and Rev. R. J. Christmas.

Speaking of surprises, Mrs. Gloria Cox was pleasantly surprised on her natal day by her hubby, Vernon and many friends. She received many lovely gifts. J. W. West has just returned from St. Louis, where he attended the marriage of his granddaughter, Edith. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard White.

Mrs. Vashti Dorthard has just returned from a vacation in St. Louis and Detroit. Her son, Tommah, is home now after serving in the Armed Forces. He plans to enter Tennessee State college this fall.

Petty Officer Howard Hurst, stationed in Hudson, Kans., was home recently visiting his wife, Mrs. Christine Hurst, daughter, Lois-tine and son, Stanley. Also visiting the Hursts were Mrs. Hurst's sisters, Mesdames Magnolia Dixon and Elizabeth Walls of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Bond report a very enjoyable Labor Day weekend of fishing and relaxing in the sun at their lodge on Sardis Lake, Miss. Along with them were Mrs. Tolise Purifoy and Miss Edna Purifoy.

Mrs. Ezzie Jackson and her granddaughter, Elizabeth Frier-son, are visiting relatives in Chicago.

John Dawson of Tiptonville, Miss. has been visiting his brother, Josh Dawson, who has been ill for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucius Daly of Alamosa, Colo. have been guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Parker. Mrs. Daly is their granddaughter. Also visiting the Parkers was Mr. Parker's brother, John M. Parker.

Attending the National Baptist convention in Denver, Colo., last week were Mrs. Ethel Ford, Rev. R. B. Bland, Rev. G. W. Pitts, Rev. F. M. McClelland and Rev. W. A. Owens.

Among the young people leaving for college this fall were Misses Willa Patricia Choyce and Hazel Pye, Charles Stewart and Isaac Pitts, who returned to AM&N college.

Mrs. O. D. Washington just returned from Denver, where she spent a delightful vacation visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Posey, sr. had as their houseguests recently Mr. Posey's daughter, Miss Velma Posey and his grandson, George, of St. Louis.

Mrs. Joseph Whitaker, who was recently hospitalized in Helena, is home again and reported improving.

We extend our deepest sympathy to the family of the late Harry Johnson. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Burnetta Johnson, a daughter, a son, one brother and two sisters (one sister is our own Mrs. Lucille Whitaker).

PRAYER

Oh Lord the Saviour of us all,
Do here us while we pray;
Look down in tender mercy,
And guide us day by day.

We need Thy loving watchful care,
To steer us through the night;
That we grope not in darkness,
But in Thy heavenly light.

Oh God how very weak we are,
We often stray away;
When Thou hast bid us follow Thee,
And in Thy pathway stay.

Thou art a Father full of love,
Full of compassion too;
Forgiving for our many wrongs,
That we so often do.

Help us to put all faith in Thee,
Through every stormy way
The fight will sure bring victory,
We trust without dismay.

Now help us to surrender all,
That Thy will may be done;
And love will reign within our hearts.

The battle then is won.

Tiger Jones To Wallop Greaves

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Rough, tough, middleweight Ralph Tiger Jones will take on Canadian middleweight Wilf Greaves in the New Capitol arena Friday. Jones who boasts a victory over Fay Robinson the middleweight champ, is fighting for a chance to fight for the crown.

Jones has won three of his last four fights defeating Charles Hu-mez, kayoting Tony Baldoni and set back Ray Robinson. Gene Fullmer holds a victory over the contender who recently became a father.

Greaves, who has racked up eight victories this year is a former football player. The 20-year-old Greaves who was born in Edmonton, Alberta, has had a dozen fights, winning nine.

FLOYD LEWIS, 18, son of Mrs. A. L. Gray, of 1091 College st., Memphis 6, Tenn. is completing his Air Force basic military training at Lackland Air Force base, Texas.

LEROY WILLIAMSON, 18, son of Cora B. Roper, Rt. 4, of Humboldt, Tenn. is completing his Air Force basic military training at Lackland Air Force base, in Texas.

GURNERY TRAINING — Airman Third Class Bennie Bilbrey, jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Bilbrey, sr., of 1863 Swift st., Memphis has been assigned as a student in the Department of Flexible Gunnery training at Lowry Air Force Base, Colorado.

Developmental Characteristics And Needs Of Boys And Girls Six To Eight.

These steadily growing extremely active boys and girls who often sit, stand, and move as if they are not well "put-together" are still physically dependent upon adults. In spite of their ungainliness they are gradually improving in speed, steadiness, and accuracy of movement. They contract nose and throat difficulties easily and need prolonged convalescent periods following these infections. (To be continued next week.)

Dear Carlotta: I am 20 and have one child. Since the birth of my baby girl, a year ago, I haven't seen much of my husband. He spends more time with the baby than he does with me. I would like more children, but the way my husband is acting over this one, I am afraid I had more, I would lose him completely. What can I do? Widow to baby.

Dear 'Widow': I don't think there is any cause for worry. Your husband loves children. You should be happy that he is interested in the baby. Many fathers tend to ignore babies, saving all their attention until the child is able to talk. I am sure he would be happy with more children.

Dear Carlotta: My boy friend's ex-wife calls him two or three times a week. He says it is concerning the children. But the conversations seem endless. I am growing suspicious. What can I do? Worried.

Dear Worried: If you would retire gracefully from the scene this couple will probably re-unite. Why not give them the chance? They have much in common.

While laying pipe in an eight-foot deep ditch for Forsgren Brothers Construction co. on Avalon st., Tuesday, Sept. 4, O. B. Gilliam, 42, was electrocuted when a 13,000 volt power line accidentally snapped by a drag line, fell on him and fellow construction workers were unable to pull him free.

Two other employees were hit by the falling wire. Jessie James Grey, 34, of 327 S. Eighth st., was rushed to the Crittenden Memorial hospital where he was treated for shock. Charlie West, of Clarksville was hit on the arm but escaped unharm.

According to F. Peavy, construction foreman for Forsgren Brothers, when the drag line boom neared the overhanging power lines one of them suddenly snapped and fell on the men down in the eight-foot deep ditch being excavated along N. Avalon at the corner of W. Cooper. Mr. Gilliam was knocked to the ground, falling on to the wire, the other workers tried to push Mr. Gilliam off the wire as three times the 13,000 volts surged through his body.

Citizens Funeral Home rushed an ambulance and a resuscitator to the scene. Attendants worked for 30 minutes on Mr. Gilliam but were unable to revive him. Meanwhile, Mr. Grey was rushed to the emergency room at the hospital. Funeral arrangements for Mr. Gilliam are being handled by Montague Funeral Home.

Mr. Gilliam lived at 322 So. 8th st. He is survived by his wife, two children. He has lived in West Memphis about 15 years and formerly worked for the Oil Mill. He was a member of the old St. Paul church, Rev. J. G. Randolph, pastor.

The funeral of Mrs. Tamer L. Johnson-Larkin was held at St. Stephens MB church last Sunday at Julius, Ark. Rev. J. L. Davis, pastor. She leaves to mourn her a husband, Aaron Larkin. Mrs. Larkin was the daughter of Mrs. Mattie Johnson of Memphis and the late Taylor Johnson, sr.; mother of Cornelius A. Smith, of Chicago and three sisters and three sisters-in-law; and the daughter-in-law of Rev. B. Larkin of West Memphis.

NEWS

The Lauderdale High school closed a very successful drive last week.

The junior class raised the highest amount of money with Bob Purham and Elnora Palmer crowned basket-ball King and Queen. The money was raised to help decorate the float for the annual Labor Day celebration and equip the basket ball teams with uniforms. Mrs. Mary Lake, J. C. Jones and S. E. Moore were the faculty and advisors who piloted this group to victory.

Mrs. Celesta Shaw, two daughters Charlene and Cynthia Shaw of Edwardsville, Ill., two nieces Janet and Joyce Armsted of Springfield, Ill., were guests in the home of their relatives, Rev. and Mrs. L. Nelson. The children ranged in ages from 8 - 14 years old and attending school in their home towns. The children gave a short recital at Halls Triangle High school, F. H. Rhodes, principal, Gates Lily Fountain school, Mrs. Geraldine Elsom, principal and Ripley, Lauderdale High school, J. C. Brent, principal. The program consisted of solos both vocal and instrumental including the violin and piano. These students displayed great talent and a wonderful appreciation for the better class of music which requires training to fully understand.

Joyce received a great ovation for her operatic interpretation of her vocal numbers. Charlene was amazing with the ease and smoothness of flow the music rang from the violin blended with staccato note in rhythm, Janet had the touch of an artist at the piano and she commanded much respect for the phrasing and manner in which she manipulated the keys. Cynthia, the youngest of the group does not deserve any less credit for her poise, personality and general stage appearance was very much superior to the average child of her age. The faculty and students commended the group for the program and the splendid manner in which they conducted themselves.

As reported by James Baltimore, Chapel Hill M. B. church closed a successful old fashioned revival August 31. The revival was both a success from a spiritual and financial view point. Several new souls were saved and many old souls were revived.

The following church worshipped with Chapel Hill: New Hope, Upper Salem, St. Luke of Brownsville, and Oak Grove of Humboldt with the Rev. C. J. Johnson as guest speaker.

Rev. P. G. Gooch was the evangelist and he got off to a good start, enlisting two members in the army of Christ Monday night.

The pianist of Choir No. 1, Miss Geneva Fields, is preparing to leave for A & I State university. An appreciation program will be given in her behalf Sept. 11. Rev. Shepherd, pastor.

The members of Morning Star church have planned a stand for the annual Labor day celebration. Planning committee: Ed Bursey, chairman; T. Tyus, Will Wallace, Willie Walker, Sister Ocie Bea Wallace and Sister Tyus.

The following known persons had made contributions at the time this goes to press. Others, if any, will be published later.

Y. Z. Purham, $5; George Coe, 30 lbs. ice; Sister Janie Lee, two chickens, two pies and one box ice cream cones; Mae L. Bonds, one gallon ice cream custard; Telie Rucker, one gallon custard, and pineapple cake; Annie Mae Lattimore, one case drinks and a pie; Ceanna Temple, frier; Anna Campbell, one gallon ice cream custard, pound butter, box ice cream cones; T. Johnson, one gallon ice cream custard; Willie Walker, one gallon ice cream custard and two pies.

Sister Lula Brown will make a donation amount unknown at present time. Many of the above also helped pay the rent for the stand. What a spirit of cooperation!

Many out of town Ripleyans have already made their arrival to join with friends and relatives in the Annual Labor Day celebration. They are as follows: Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Case of Chicago, Ill.; Joseph and brother, Henry Compton, of Detroit, Mich.; Clarence Whitelaw, son Mickey and friend Eugene Killing, of Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. Percy Norvell, Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. James Terry, Detroit; Willie L. Taylor, Julius Campbell, Milwaukee, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. Willie Campbell, Chicago, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Stenson, and children Robert, Mary Frances, Yvonne, Johnny, Eugene II and Cecil Stenson of Peoria, Ill.; Mrs. Elizabeth Hall-acre, Peoria; Louis T. Moore, Chicago; Mrs. Birdie J. Curran, East Chicago, Ind.; Mrs. Georgia Tyus, Rufus Johnson, N. McMullan, Louise Timberlake, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Others here are not known to be here at the present time will be included later if known.

A. D. Bradford was injured in a serious accident.

SOME 23 FRENCH students interested in "the American way of doing things" visited Tennessee State university last week while touring the country under French and American sponsorship. The group is shown before Tennessee State university's Memorial library. Miss Lurella Freeman (fifth from right) of the university's modern foreign language staff conducted the campus tour, assisted by Business Manager

Lane May Have
50-Piece Band

JACKSON, Tenn. — The Lane college Band began its pre-season "Band-Camp" last Tuesday morning, according to the report from the Dean's Office.

The Band, under the direction of Oliver Hewitt and assisted by Julius Latigue, received a tremendous boost by the addition of more than a dozen new members reporting to the first rehearsal and is expected to receive other additions later this week.

According to Mr. Hewitt this year's band promises to be one of the greatest in the College's history with a total group of 40 or more members entering the camp; and when the entire student body arrives it is expected that there will be no less than 50 pieces in the band this year.

The purpose of the "Band Camp" Mr. Hewitt stated, is to acquaint the new members with the type of music performed by the Lane College Band, to refresh the old members and to prepare the entire group whereas they will be in excellent condition and ready to perform for the first football game of the season. This year the band will have 10 days person was killed, Mr. Bradford owns a cafe in Halls, Tenn.

Between intervals of spare time, L. O. Gillespie is soliciting news. If it is interesting, and news to you, tell him and he will help you to make it news for others.

Clinton Townsfolk Fear
Violence, But Have FaithBy MOSES NEWSON
(Defender Publications Correspondent)

Clinton's small Negro population has started bracing itself for a violence they feel will come when the National Guard unit makes its inevitable departure.

Adding both hopes that the agitated violence is over and their deep faith in the law abiding spirit of local citizens, the people are still without assurance the outsiders will not return.

Steve Williams, 49, of 441 W. Broad, a janitor in Oak Ridge, and uncle of two of the students, feels, "We are going to have trouble in our community when the Guards leave."

"The students will continue to go to school but they will hit back at our community."

Eugene Weaver, 28, two times a veteran, now a brick mason, brother of student Bobby Cain who was working on a house for Williams, nodded his agreement.

Rev. George Iker, 56, assistant pastor of Mount Sinai Baptist church, said "Didn't think such a thing could ever happen here in Clinton."

Rev. Iker said the regular minister, Rev. O. W. Willis has preached in all the county churches and that he has seen no real difference in the white people.

But Rev. Iker, who carried mail here for about eight years, "is trying to figure just what will happen when the Guards pull out."

He said that had outsiders stayed away, "we might have had a little minor disturbance out of some of the kids, but that's all."

Rev. Iker said he could not understand why if one Negro does something they want to take it out on someone else.

Mrs. Louise Turner, mother of Regina Thomas, a sophomore at Clinton High, who had just returned to town after the Labor Day week end, admitted leaving because of the disturbance.

The widow, a maid, looked uneasy as she wondered, "What will happen when those Guardsmen leave us."

Some of the white people she works for have children in the school and she said they are against the violence and none had urged her to withdraw her daughter.

Fresh Cranberries
Back In Season

Fresh cranberries are back in season. Try this Cranberry-Apricot Coffee Cake. It makes a nice dessert, served with fresh cream or dairy sour cream.

Melt 2 tablespoons butter or margarine in bottom of 8-inch square pan. Arrange 9 cooked apricot halves in pan and place 3-4 cup chopped raw cranberries around apricots.

Sprinkle ½ cup sugar over fruit. Pour quick coffee cake batter using 1½ cups sifted enriched flour over all. Bake according to quick coffee cake recipe.

bears his name, looks at it this way:

"Since the Supreme Court has given the right, I feel the children should be sent there."

"I don't think any of the children will get hurt, something may fly between the oldsters."

The people have kept away from downtown most of the time.

To a man they feel that whatever happens, if anything does it, will come at night and be triggered by outsiders.
