CIO In Favor Of Raising Pay 'Substantially'

Reuther Hints UAW Will Seek Hike This Year

PRESIDENT SPEAKS

Atlantic City, N. J., Nov. 21—(AP)—The CIO convention today adopted unanimously a resolution calling for "substantial" wage increases—but there was no definite indication just how much of a wage hike the delegates would consider "substantial."

Walter Reuther, president of the United Auto Workers, said in a speech that the "real" earnings of American workers—in terms of purchasing power—had been cut 30 percent since January, 1945.

But when questioned later by reporters he said he did not mean to imply that 20 percent would be the amount of the wage increase which his auto workers will demand this winter.

CIO President Philip Murray said today the CIO is "not threatening strikes" and is "not running around this Nation with a club in its hands, threatening the people."

In a speech to the CIO convention, Murray said to industry: "Come on; be decent; be gentlemen, sit around the bargaining tables and let us arrive at mutually satisfactory wage agreements without resort to strikes. That is our position. It is not the attitude of the bludgeoned fist, threatening the Nation."

Murray spoke after Walter Reuther, president of the United Auto Workers, had called for a "substantial" wage increase.

Murray left no doubt the CIO was fighting for a wage increase, but he denied that it would "agitate" or "jeopardize" the economy.

"There are a lot of notions going around," he said, "that the CIO is bent on engaging in widespread strikes. The CIO wants to make a bargain. We want a fair deal. There is no threat of strikes in the offing. We want decent, straight, clean, honorable collective bargaining."

Three Brothers Burned To Death In Pennsylvania

Morrisville, Pa., Nov. 21—(AP)—Three small brothers burned to death in their flaming farm village cottage yesterday as their mother desperately tried to reach them.

The charred bodies of Raymond Daniels, three, and Mark Daniels, Jr., two, locked in each other's arms, were found beneath the ruins of a bed where they had fled in terror.

The third, William Daniels, six months, youngest in the family of six boys, was brought from the blazing cottage by his mother, but died of burns and asphyxiation enroute to a hospital.

A fourth child, Ronald, four, only one in the house to escape, was carried out by rescuers led to him by the terrified yielding of the family dog. Ronald suffered only slight burns.

He said that these persons should not be set apart from others in the community.

Plan To Report Troops To UN Gains Support

China And France Agree With Reds; U. S. Is Pleased

SURVEY IS LIKELY

Lake Success, N. Y., Nov. 21—(AP)—Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov's proposal for reports to the United Nations on dispositions of all troops outside home borders drew firm support today from China and France and a United States spokesman said Russia "had come a long way" toward meeting American desires.

However, China immediately joined with the United States in demanding that the figures also include domestic armed forces.

France qualified its approval with a suggestion that the U. N. should fix the exact needs for troops stationed in ex-enemy states such as Germany, Alexander Parodi, the French delegate, said this could be done by the security council or military staff committee.

Authoritative sources said today Great Britain may propose the establishment of a United Nations inspection board to "determine with accuracy" the number of armed troops in the world and where they are located.

The British plan would implement a United States proposal that all members of the world organization submit complete figures on all troops at home and abroad.

Russia yesterday signified her readiness to give a full accounting on Soviet troops abroad if other United Nations members do likewise but shied away temporarily from the American demand the accounting include a statement on the forces maintained at home.

Britain was scheduled to explain her position to the 64-member U. N. political and security committee today. Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin had been expected to make the British reply, but a member of the British delegation said he probably would be "busy" with the council of foreign ministers in New York to come to Lake Success.

Eleven Feared Lost In Crash

Army Transport Forced Down In Alps Two Days Ago; Hope Abandoned

Paris, Nov. 21—(AP)—American authorities at Orly Airfield said tonight they feared the outlook was virtually hopeless for the 11 persons aboard a crashed C-53 transport unless rescue crews reached within a few hours the spot in the Alps where the plane came down two days ago.

They pointed out the 12,000-foot-high area was swept by bitter winds. U. S. army headquarters at Frankfurt reported a radio message saying eight of the 11 were stretcher cases.

The passengers included a brigadier general and the wives of three brigadier generals.

The Lyon Airport radio station reported a message that "someone on the ground" had been sighted, but it did not know whether this referred to rescue parties toiling up the snow-clad slopes of the Mt. Cenis region.

A mysterious radio message led to premature announcement of the plane's discovery. Col. Hilbert F. Muenster, commander of the U. S. European Air Transport Service, made the announcement and then withdrew it. This message, saying the wreckage had been sighted on a glacier, was attributed to one of the search planes, but other planes said they had no knowledge of it.

The Lyon-Bron radio announced a message from the C-53 at 5 p. m. (11 a. m. CST) saying "We want to live."

A C-54 circled the area 10 hours in clear weather without sighting any wreckage. The weather was beginning to close in as the pilot left the district.

A. E. McKenzie was called to Memphis last night on account of the serious illness of his brother, H. G. McKenzie.

Two Louisville-Fulton I-C Trains (103 And 104) Will Be Discontinued Sunday Due To Coal Strike

Paducah, Ky., Nov. 21—(AP)—

The Illinois Central railroad's move to shrink its operations because of the lack of coal production continued today as T. K. Williams, superintendent of the Kentucky division, announced plans to discontinue two Louisville-Paducah passenger trains and lay off more than 200 workmen, whose jobs deal with freight shipments.

To be discontinued next Sunday morning will be passenger trains 103 and 104 both of which operate between Louisville and Fulton.

The move leaves two passenger trains to operate between Louisville and Fulton—101 and 102. Train 101 leaves Louisville at 11:25 a. m. and arrives at Fulton at 7:25 p. m. The other train leaves Fulton at 10:15 a. m. and reaches Louisville at 5:20 p. m.

The lay-off includes 25 five-

Second Dillinger Goes To LaGrange For His Life Term

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 21—(AP)—Benjamin Rayburn, youthful servant, "second" Dillinger, has been taken to LaGrange state reformatory to begin serving a life term.

Rayburn, 22, was sentenced formally by Circuit Judge Lorraine Mix following his conviction by a jury of participation in the holdup of Chicago cashiers near a tobacco factory here last summer.

Four other men accused of armed robbery in connection with the holdup are scheduled to go on trial here Dec. 14.

Officials said Rayburn is expected to be transferred later to Eddyville state penitentiary.

Cotton Ginning Shows Increase

Washington, Nov. 21—(AP)—The Census Bureau reported today that 6,533,228 running bales of cotton from the 1946 crop were ginned prior to Nov. 14.

Round bales were counted as half bales and linters were excluded.

This compared with 6,425,144 ginned to the same date last year and 9,486,356 in 1944.

The ginning included 1,537 bales of American-Egyptian cotton compared with 2,081 last year and 3,504 in 1944. There were no bales of sea island cotton compared with four last year and two in 1944.

The ginnings by states this year and last, respectively, included: Kentucky 3,529 and 2,831; Tennessee 330,301 and 252,127.

Teachers' Strike Set Nov. 25 In St. Paul, Minn.

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 21—(AP)—A strike of 1,000 St. Paul teachers who plan to picket the public schools is scheduled for next Monday in an attempt to enforce salary demands.

School authorities say they would like to grant but cannot because of city charter restrictions on expenditures.

The city commissioner of education's office said today that if only half of the 1,000 teachers who voted the strike actually walked out, all of the grade and high school would have to close.

John T. Gore, Atlanta, Southern Bell general counsel, said the rate raise was a "serious matter" to the company but he consented to the continuance of several Southern Bell witnesses from Atlanta were present.

ONE SWITCH ENGINE, CREW REMOVED FROM SERVICE AT FULTON

The current miners strike and accompanying shortage of coal has caused one switch engine and crew to be removed from service at the Fulton Illinois Central yards, railroad officials said this morning.

Other operations here are proceeding as usual, but will be curtailed if the strike and coal shortage continue.

Also dismissed temporarily due to the strike will be 15 I-C telegraphers, 15 clerks at coal billing stations and 10 switch-engine crews of six men each at Paducah, Princeton, Central City and Louisville. There will be no need for the yard crews, Williams said, for the duration of the work stoppage in the coal mines. The curtailment move is not expected to affect the maintenance of ways department. This department includes such employees as track crews, building workmen, painters and signal maintenance men.

Williams said his division has enough coal in storage to last trains that have to run for about 30 days.

Yesterday John Welsh, superintendent of the I. C.'s Paducah shops, announced that all but 73 of the shops' 1173 employees would be laid off after next Monday's shifts because of the coal situation.

The N. C. and St. L. railway office here has not received any curtailment orders this afternoon, but restriction instructions are expected shortly.

State UCC Will Rule On Miners When Claim Filed

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 21—(AP)—Dr. H. A. Babb, director of the State Unemployment Compensation Commission, said today it would wait until U. M. W. members file jobless pay claims before ruling on whether the miners involved are striking. State law forbids jobless benefits to persons on strike.

Under the law, Dr. Babb said, mine owners have seven days in which to notify the commission that a strike against their pits is in progress.

Yesterday morning in response to an inquiry, Dr. Babb said the commission might decide today whether the U. M. W. members are involved in a strike.

Murray Moves To Increase Size Of City 60 Per Cent

Murray, Ky., Nov. 21—(AP)—A move to increase the size and population of Murray by annexation of an area adjoining the west city limits has been approved in Calloway circuit court.

Judge Ira D. Smith yesterday approved the city's petition to annex the area, which includes the campus of Murray State Teachers College. No opposition to the annexation was made.

Mayor George Hart said the city's population would be increased to approximately 6,000 from the present 4,000 and that its physical area would be increased 60 to 70 percent.

City Attorney Wells Overby said the annexation would become effective as soon as the judgment is put on record and the city council passes an ordinance incorporating the area. He added that such an ordinance would be prepared and presented at the council's next meeting Dec. 6.

Republican Senator Ball Says GOP Should Seek Truman's Advice In Changing Labor Legislation

Washington, Nov. 21—(AP)—Senator Ball (R-Minn.), said today he thinks congressional Republicans ought to seek President Truman's cooperation in any change they propose in existing labor laws.

"When we have finished drafting our bills, I think we ought to go down to the White House and ask him if he objects to any of their features," the Minnesota senator told a reporter. "Perhaps in that way we can work out legislation that will not be vetoed."

Ball is a member of a senate G. O. P. subcommittee assigned to the task of drafting labor bills. His proposal represented the first concrete indication that the Republicans may meet the President half way in his post-election offer of cooperation with the new congressional majority on measures for the nation's benefit.

Ball is now drafting revisions of some sections of the case strike control bill which Mr. Truman vetoed last summer. He said he plans provisions making unions subject to suit for violation of contracts, banning secondary boycotts and "equalizing" employer and employee status under the Wagner act.

Senate Republicans are expected to go along generally with such changes. And Senator Elbert Thomas (D-Utah), former chairman of the labor committee, indicated that he and many other Democrats recognize that some alternations are in order.

Thomas, who has opposed any change in the Wagner act and other basic labor laws in the past, said he hopes the Republicans will point toward "constructive" changes.

"I would welcome any bill that would tend to establish permanently the no-strike, no-lock-out agreement which was reached by labor and management in 1941," he added in an interview. "We should set up the machinery for peaceful bargaining which will make strikes unnecessary."

Government Moves To Indict Lewis For Contempt Of Court As UMW Walkout Grips Mines

All UMW Men In State Idle

State's Coal Production Limited To Independent Operators, PMU Members

By The Associated Press
All of Kentucky's approximately 50,000 United Mine Workers (AFL) were idle today cutting off the state's coal production in all but four large pits operated by members of the Progressive Miners Union (AFL) and a scattering of small independent operations.

The UMW shutdown was made complete when all members of that union refused to work at the expiration of the deadline set by UMW Chief John L. Lewis for last midnight.

Still in operation today were the Big Captive mine at Benham, in Harlan county, which employs 600 PMW members, three PMW pits in Hopkins county, in Western Kentucky, employing about 400, and an estimated 1,250 small truck mines scattered over the state and employing approximately 5,000 independent miners.

UMW pits in Hopkins county have been producing approximately 50 percent of the coal mined there, the other 50 percent being mined by independent mines and PMW members. Elsewhere in the state, however, UMW members have been mining most of the output.

No disturbances were reported at any of the mines, as the UMW walkout in Kentucky became complete.

Approximately 30,000 of the state's 50,000 UMW members went idle last night, hours before the deadline, and at least 133 of the 295 large soft coal mines in the state, having no connections, were reported idle yesterday. In some cases, however, the reason given for the shutdown was a lack of road water in which to load coal. The men simply failed to report for work in other cases, but gave no reason.

Planning said he will seek to reduce temperatures to the winter level of 68 degrees. The order affects "approximately 30 buildings in the capital alone."

The UMW's "production administration" prepared a directive designed to help ration artificial gas produced from coal. The same agency pondered an electricity conservation order.

Assistant Attorney General John Sonnett, who is the word from Attorney General Tom Clark before presenting the contempt citation—before Judge Goldsborough.

The petition, it was learned, was drawn up by Clark, Sonnett, and other government lawyers.

The finishing touches were applied at a staff conference this morning.

In all-out action, the administration was reported also preparing to seek punishment for any local union leaders or others who are found to be encouraging a strike.

A high authority said this is the government's operating plan under President Truman's instructions to "fight this one out to the finish."

1. Before the day's end, justice department officials will go before U. S. District Judge T. Alan Goldsborough and ask for a contempt citation against Lewis. If Lewis should be found in contempt for non-compliance with a court order, he could be fined or sent to jail—stay until he purged himself of contempt. If the judge so ordered.

2. Evidence is being collected with a view to prosecuting under the Smith-Connally Act any one, from Lewis on down, who the government may contend is encouraging a strike. The Smith-Connally law forbids encouraging or inciting a strike in government-operated mine plant. Conviction carries a penalty of $5,000 fine or a year in jail.

3. Study is being given to the possibility of "freezing" the United Mine Workers' $13,500,000 union fund, and this will be done if a way can be found around "legal technicalities."

Sen. Taft Predicts Income Tax Slash

New Orleans, Nov. 21—(AP)—Senator Taft (R-Ohio) said in an interview here today that he thinks the national budget could be trimmed to $300,000,000 and that there is "every possibility" that the proposed Republican 20 per cent slash in income taxes will be a reality in 1947.

He said he hopes the Republicans will point toward "constructive" changes.

"I would welcome any bill that would tend to establish permanently the no-strike, no-lock-out agreement which was reached by labor and management in 1941," he added in an interview. "We should set up the machinery for peaceful bargaining which will make strikes unnecessary."

IT'S OURS NOW, BUT
We won't have it after December 21. "It," of course, is the new Ford at Huddleston's. Stop by tomorrow to inquire about it.

Miners' Chief Might Be Fined Or Imprisoned

INDUSTRY SLOWS

Washington, Nov. 21—(AP)—The government moved quickly to cite John L. Lewis for contempt of court today as a general walkout of UMW miners occurred in the soft coal mines.

Reports from the field indicated some anthracite miners were joining the 400,000 bituminous miners in a stoppage that could eventually touch all industry. Work suspension came in the face of government pleas to keep the mines going.

Lewis, who disregarded a court order to restore the effectiveness of the miners' contract with the government, continued silent.

The United Mine Workers was at his home in suburban Alexandria, Va., and as the morning passed there was no indication that he planned to come into his Washington union headquarters. There were indications that Lewis may have made arrangements for an extended absence from his office. It was known that he spent much of yesterday answering mail and otherwise clearing his desk of pending business.

By 11 a. m. (CST) today, government attorneys were expected to go before Federal Judge T. Alan Goldsborough and petition for a contempt citation that might subject him to fine or imprisonment. However, midday came and went with government attorneys still in consultation.

Orders went out to cushion the impact of a prospective coal famine.

Heat, Lights Cut
Federal Works Administrator Philip B. Klutznick ordered a return to wartime heating and lighting restrictions in all federal buildings throughout the country which depend on coal.

We Repeat ---

We wish again to call attention of Fulton businessmen to the fact that we are in no way connected with the telephone solicitations for paid advertising-news stories conducted during the past few days. Several merchants have been led, perhaps unintentionally, to believe that the ad-stories were to be run in our newspaper.

Our news columns are not for sale. It is not our policy to exclude from the news columns mention of local businesses when warranted. That goes on in the business world is news, and we will continue to print it free of charge. A self-styled advertising salesman approached us recently with this proposition: we were to sell him space in our paper at our usual advertising rate, and he would re-sell to Fulton merchants at a profit for himself. Although we could have secured sizeable revenue from his plan, we declined. We do not think it is fair for local advertisers to pay more than our local rate for space. Also, we want to impress upon every advertiser that our rates are the same for everyone. No favoritism is shown, and we do not believe we could conscientiously judge our rates for the benefit of a few and to the detriment of the other advertisers.

Once again, the sole authorized advertising representative of the Daily Leader is Ed Senning. To be sure that advertising will be included in the Leader at the regular local rate, we suggest that you contact him.

Teach Them Safety

The University of Kentucky will offer a course in highway safety for school teachers this summer. It was announced yesterday, however, in primary and elementary grades will be taught to observe safety rules for pedestrians. While students in high school will learn laws and safety precautions for automobile drivers.

We hope as many teachers as possible are enrolled for this course, and would like to see other courses for teachers at other state colleges which teachers will attend this summer.

We can think of no subject more timely or more important than highway safety. Every year, we hope to see Kentucky schools follow the lead of some Eastern schools which include courses in learning to drive in the regular curriculum.

High school students are going to drive, whether or not they are competent. Let's teach them to drive correctly and safely. It's time to teach them to preach—their funerals.

A Citizen Opposes Parking Meters

THE EDITOR,
 FULTON DAILY LEADER:
 Well, a few years ago Old Dobbin left Lake street, but this is going to be something new. Automobiles leave Lake street and Fulton.

Well, Congress and the Senate went Republican and John L. Lewis is having his troubles getting enough money for the coal mine to live on, but the people of Fulton seem to have plenty, or just like to have things named down their throats.

School taxes, property taxes, light tax, water, city fines, $5 city car tax and pay to use your garage hauled and now parking meters. Look out, folks, water meters are next. You don't need parking meters for a lot of reasons. We have a few things we ought to do before we can be civilized like a few of our neighboring towns. We need something that will give more of our people peace of mind.

We need a park and playground for our children, better street light, some of our sidewalks repaired, because there is going to be a lot of walking, a water tank to give the coal engines at the water plant a rest and another, a new bridge on Commercial street with a few boards on the side for the people to walk on. I almost forgot—what do you think about Lake street at high tide? That just hurts a few merchants, the water doesn't hurt the parking meters will hurt. Understand that 90 per. of them were

The Same Old Course

By J. M. Roberts, Jr., AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

The Big Four foreign ministers remain bogged down in the work they began at Paris and the tentative date when they were to have taken up the German question has come and gone.

The ministers, unable to reconcile their views on Trieste, are now reported ready to let Italy and Yugoslavia try to work it out between them. But for Germany they propose to follow the same old course—an effort to arrive at a tentative agreement among themselves, then an "advisory" conference of all directly interested nations, after which, presumably, they will again try to compose their own remaining differences plus those injected by the conference.

What this system of negotiation will produce on the intricate problems of Germany remains to be seen. In the light of experience, it could just be possible that a general conference first might make for better progress. Czechoslovakia and Poland already are demanding that they be permitted to participate in the drafting of the German treaty.

Russia, of course, already has done pretty well by Poland in securing Eastern Germany for her in return for the part of Poland which Russia took. But the Poles express continuing interest in demilitarization of Germany and the corollary economic questions.

Holland is demanding rectification of her German border, though largely on a strategic basis rather than with the idea of repayment for the war damage done her.

Luxembourg also has some border claims. As a matter of fact, every European country has a direct interest.

Meanwhile, Germany becomes more and more of an abcess in the heart of Europe's economy. Brig. Gen. William H. Draper, Jr., chief of the economic division of the American military government, says that such economy has been revived in Germany faces collapse.

"Until boundary questions (including Ruhr and Saar) are settled and the area that is to be the future Germany becomes one economic unit," he says, "the individual parts can never become self-supporting. x x x The fear in Germany today goes deeper than hunger and cold. It is the fear of continued economic paralysis—the fear of continued separation of Germany into four parts."

We Need Markers

The first thing that occurred to us when we read that the Mayfield city council is planning to erect 160 concrete street markers was, "Wouldn't that be a good project here in Fulton?"

The street situation being what it is—with streets suddenly changing names and directions two or three times before the stranger knows what's going on—we think a more adequate marking system is needed. Probably some of the older residents would like to see more and better street signs, too.

Many of the signs now in use have lost out in the battle with the elements, and are undecipherable from an automobile. It would cost the city a little money to remedy the situation, but we think it would be money well spent. Anyway, it's something to think about.

Well, Dr. Jones, I'm not going to suggest what a certain Senator did for Arkansas—let President Truman resign and let the Republicans have it. I'm for you to stay in there with them. Dr. Jones voted against meters.

We need a new deal in Fulton, and I don't mean a Democratic new deal. You voters better by thinking of buying a new broom for Fulton in the next two years, or maybe we need a city manager. We do know one thing: we need a change of some kind. Reduce taxes, balance the budget. That's what they are going to do up at Washington. Maybe we could reduce our city expenses without taxing the people to death.

We don't need an Ed Crump or John L. Lewis. We got 'em.

Well, I haven't a car, so when you drop your meter in the meter and you overstay and find a sticker on your car, dig down deeper, brothers and sisters.

A Citizen.

BROADWAY

By JACK O'BRIAN

New York—(AP)—This community is probably the only one in the world which could assimilate so completely some 5,000 U. N. delegates and their staffs, not even counting the extra visitors added by those who lugged along their families.

Naturally, hotels have been swamped. In some cases several floors being turned over to delegates' use.

New York has been host to larger collections of visitors, such as American Legion or Veterans of Foreign Wars' conventions, but these visits were heightened by the boisterous spirits affected by the ex-service men the minute they met their old buddies.

The U. N. bunch, however, is not in the mood for the loud fun popular with conventioners. The emphasis is on work and they so far have been noted for their disavowal of the usual noisy Broadway pleasures.

You can pick out one or two at times in the night clubs, and on occasion a group of eight or ten will show up in the gaudier spots such as the Diamond Horseshoe, Leon and Eddie's, the Zanzibar or the Latin Quarter. Some of the leading international statesmen drop into the Stork's Club Room or El Morocco or Twenty-one, usually escorted by American friends or acquaintances who wish to show them the smartest spots. But they seem singularly unexcited by the movie, stage and radio hierarchy represented in the snob appeal spots.

I haven't found one night club where who can credit a clear increase in business to the 5,000-odd visitors. They all have noted the presence of groups of persons who clearly are of foreign extraction, folks who such as Indians or Chinese being recognizable because of their facial characteristics or dress. Little restaurants of particular note the cuisine have been visited more often, and more frequently than the larger clubs and celebrity restaurants.

The Little Britanny Restaurant, on Eighth Avenue in the fifties reports that a good many Frenchmen, from the concave are regular customers but even a small addition to its regular Gallic clientele would be a welcome note in this place is quite small.

Mostly, however, the visitors seem to have either the same manners and mannerisms as Americans or can put on these outer distinctions chameleon-like. There are a good many restaurants where clientele are largely continental such as Coq Rouge, Le Pavillon and Chambord where French is heard frequently and not noted as anything out of the norm, and Scandinavian restaurants such as the Gripsholm, Kungsholm, the Three Crowns and the Stockholm where Danish, Swedish, and Norwegian can be heard almost any time about the Smorgasbord tables.

I'm sure no other city but New York could swallow such a horde of visitors so blithely.

SKYSCRAPERS CAGE COACH FIRED IN TIF

Canyon, Tex.—(AP)—The man who produced basketball's "tallest team in the world" won't be back at West Texas State come the opening of the cage season. Al Baggett, who in 1941-42 took his tree-top Texans to Madison Square Garden and whose teams in those days were rated with the best in the nation, was dismissed from West Texas State as the result of a squabble in the athletic department.

In the upheaval Football Coach W. W. Nicklaus resigned and Assistant Coach Leslie Van Meter was dismissed.

When several of the football players refused to take the field if Nicklaus remained in charge of the team, Baggett, who had returned from the service to resume his position as athletic director at West Texas State, sided with Van Meter, who served as football coach from January to June, 1942, then entered the Army and upon his return was assigned as assistant to Nicklaus. The latter was employed during Van Meter's absence.

Baggett came to West Texas State in 1933 and began building the basketball teams that W. A. (Gus) Miller, new basketball coach, has been made athletic director. He also coaches football at the college.

Bus License Is Issued

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 21—(AP)—The state motor transportation division said today it has issued a bus license to Black Brothers of Richmond to operate between Irvin and McKee over Ky189 Via Driprock, Foxtown and Welch's store, a distance of 29 miles.

TEEN-TALK

AP Newsfeatures

Dear Judy

The newest binkle to baby sitting has been put into effect by the heps at an Eastchester high school in New York. When they want to go to a football game they take the small sprites with 'em. Pretty soon there may be baby sitting sections at all the football stadiums.

By the bye, lots of the kids are wearing bootie style shoes to the football games. They come in a variety of leathers and colors and in flat fur. One of the modified booties is in black suede, with an extension leather sole and contrasting stitching. These are chichi—especially for cold days.

New skates are interchangeable ice and roller skates. Fixed plates on the soles of the shoes allowing bolting on of blades for one sport or rollers for the other. A man in Utah invented 'em, but I bet they won't be available until 1949.

Philadelphia wolves better beware! It seems the models in that city got so fed up with being palmed off as dinner dates, etc., that they organized a Models' Guild of Philadelphia to keep the "social wolf" at bay.

Cary Grant is going to star opposite Shirley Temple in "The Bachelor and The Bobby Soxer." Sounds as if it will be a picture the heps will get a bang out of.

If you want to get your hair to smell like magnolia, put two teaspoons of your favorite clear cologne to 2 quarts of warm water as a final shampoo rinse. Pour over and over your hair. This will be particularly dreamy if the weather gets damp or rains. The dampness will bring the scent out like honeysuckle 'n moonlight.

Use a firm step ladder instead of a box when reaching for high places.

Bullet Wound Is Found In Body Of 13-Year-Old Boy

Baltimore, Nov. 21—(AP)—The decomposed body of 13-year-old Richard Wayne Truman, discovered Monday in a tangle of honeysuckle in Owyens Falls Park, contained a wound probably made by a bullet, a police autopsy disclosed today. Dr. Howard J. Mardels, chief medical examiner, said the hole corresponded with others found in the boy's sweater, shirt and undershirt. Chemical tests revealed traces of blood surrounding the holes in the garments, he added.

Young Truman disappeared September 30, having been seen last by a schoolmate who drove him home from school on a

Negro Athlete Is Guilty Of Rape, White Jury Rules

Detroit, Nov. 21—(AP)—Guy Brown, 21, former negro athlete at the University of Detroit, today was convicted of rape by an all-white jury which deliberated only three minutes.

The husky former football star was accused of attacking blond Elnah Whitemeyer, 21-year-old divorcee, on Aug. 28. Brown and his wife, Veda, testified he was home in bed at the time.

A court-room about half-filled with white and negro spectators greeted the verdict in silence. Brown showed no outward emotion.

Record's Judge O. Z. Ide set Nov. 27 for sentencing.

Brown, who was once voted the university's most valuable athlete, was picked up Sept. 20, on the afternoon of U. of D.'s opening game with Wayne University in a purse-snatching charge. In a subsequent police lineup he was identified by Mrs. Whitemeyer as her attacker.

Shreveport, La., Nov. 21—(AP)—Because he didn't get his new suit back from the cleaners in time and was forced to get married in a "soiled and unkempt" gray ensemble, Thomas J. Mitchell of Shreveport has filed suit for $2,500 against the Shreveport Laundry, Inc., and its agent.

Mitchell asks an additional $27.50 damage for the value of the suit which was never returned.

The petition maintains that Mitchell has "an odd and unusual case and physique" and is not easily fitted and that a "frantic search" of Shreveport stores on his wedding day failed to uncover a suit which would fit him.

Frankfort—Refund by the state of the five-cent state tax on gasoline used for farm purposes totaled $71,156 during the past four months, according to O. B. Lawler of Leitchfield, refund supervisor. Refund of the state tax on aviation gasoline during the same period totaled $87,677.

Covington—Pleading guilty to a charge of assault with an automobile, Charles E. Lester, Newport attorney, yesterday was fined $250 and costs in Kenton county circuit court. Charges of hit and run driving and driving while intoxicated against Lester were dismissed. The charges resulted from an accident last January in which Lester allegedly drove his automobile on the wrong side of the street and struck another car.

Lexington—L. A. He predicted, however, that prices would "level off" during the second half of next year.

Look ahead to Something Great

Put to you straight, the story's this:

No car made today is coming to you fast as its makers would like.

It stands to reason that the car most wanted is not going to be the easiest to get.

But that car will have what you're aiming for.

Style that's no mere one-year wonder - but smart and clean and right in a way that lasts.

Power - plenty of it - a big bonnetful of Fireball straight-eight power, smooth as cream pouring from a pitcher.

Size and roadability and easy-handling - this car will be a travel-wise honey that hugs the road as though it loved it!

There will be smoothness and steadiness you haven't known before - and putting it all together for you a hard-driving production outfit that's staging a notably successful battle against shortages and slow-downs.

If it takes longer to get a Buick than anyone thought a few months back, it has also proved itself as a whale of a lot more automobile than folks expected!

So skip today - give a thought to tomorrow - and plan ahead for something good.

Get your money down on a Buick, available for future delivery - with or without a car to trade.

When better automobiles are built BUICK will build them

By The Associated Press
Today a year ago—Army got of 83 first-place votes in P. football poll to remain at top of Nation's eleven; Navy, Alabama ranked second and third, respectively.

Three years ago—Baseball Commissioner K. M. Landis banned William D. Cox, president of National League Phils, from game because of gambling. Five years ago—Ken Overlin, 1935, easily outpointed Al Hostak, 162, in ten rounds at New York.

Ten years ago—Larry Kelley,

Yale's All-America end, completed record of scoring in every "Big Three" game over three-year stretch by taking touchdown pass from Clint Frank in Elis 14-13 win over Harvard.

Sports Roundup

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.

New York, Nov. 21—(AP)—

Word from the West Coast is that the frost is on the Army team as well as the pumpkin and while assorted easterners still are annoyed about this freeze-out it seems as good a time as any to suggest that bowls contracts be extended further. . . While the Big Nine and Pacific Coast champs are meeting in the Rose Bowl, why not pair up the top teams of the Ivy League and the Southern Conference in the Orange Bowl each year, and organize the Eastern "Independents," topped by Army and Navy, to take on the Southeastern champion in the Sugar Bowl?

The Cotton Bowl already has its Southwest conference alliance and some other group, possibly the Big Six, could provide the party of the second part.

Objections Overruled

The "Ivy Group" is avowedly against bowl games, but even this might be overcome. One purpose of the Big Nine-Pacific Coast agreement is to limit preparations so that neither team gets an advantage and neither forgets about December classes while concentrating on New Year's Day. A similar, and perhaps tighter agreement, could give an Ivy-South tussle the status of a fair reward for a season's effort by the players.

As for the Sugar Bowl tussle, there are perhaps a dozen less-livid eastern schools which could profit in more ways than one by forming a league. A close association with them likely would induce the Southeastern Conference to adopt a more orthodox attitude toward rewarding players. Their so-called commercialism helped start all this talk about who should play in the bowls.

Rebuttal

When the University of Kentucky first hired Bear Bryant to put the Wildcats on the football map, some of the boys were hiding Adolph Rupp, Kentucky basketball coach, about the move. . . "Adolph doesn't want football," one rival insisted, "because every time he'd get a good, tall center, the football coach would grab him to play

end. . . Rupp just grinned.

"I'd like to have a football team good enough to play in a bowl game every year," he replied.

"Then when folks started asking about my basketball team in January they wouldn't notice that we had been practicing for three months."

Oppose Rose Bowl Ruling

Many Fans On West Coast

Would Like To See Army

Play In January 1 Game

By Bob Myers

Los Angeles, Nov. 21—(AP)—

Pacific coast conference officials here today privately expressed disappointment over the Berkeley Rose Bowl decision, but the public at large was not so discreet.

Interested observers, sport

spokemen, sports, and literally hundreds of fans didn't wait to be asked for an opinion on the Pacific Coast-Big nine bowl pact which slammed the gate on

Army.

The consensus in Southern California was:

An agreement might be all right, but after all these years of official and unofficial dickering between the two, it could have been dated a year later, leaving the way open for Army to play in the Pasadena game next new year's day.

There was a healthy m'not who didn't like the agreement in any form. They opposed the closed-door policy against other teams, principally from the south and southwest which have provided the bowl history with many a colorful chapter, win or lose.

Particularly painful was the suggestion as reported from the east that the conference was afraid to meet the great Army cuffit. That one hurt, for it was

U. C. L. A. and Southern California, who meet Saturday for the right to represent the far west in the Rose Bowl, which led the losing battle at Berkeley to bring the cadets to the Bowl.

Outvoted in their own conference, two to six, with two members absent, both U. C. L. A.

and South Cal. favored Army

even before the hurry-up session was called at Berkeley.

St. Bonaventure Would

Like Tobacco Bowl Bid

Olean, N. Y., Nov. 21—(AP)—

St. Bonaventure College will send its football team to Lexington, Ky., for the first Tobacco Bowl game, Dec. 14, if invited, the Rev. Anselm Krieger, director of athletics, said today.

"We are interested and shall go if selected," said Father

Krieger after receipt of notification from Lexington that St.

Bonaventure is among 18 teams being considered for the game.

Congress Should Meet Our Needs, Publisher Says

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 21—(AP)—E. B. Stahlman, Jr., executive director of the Nashville (Tenn.) Banner, declared here yesterday that America needs men in Congress "who won't give the people what they want, but what they need."

Speaking at a civic club meeting, Stahlman attacked "the idea that America is a Democracy." It's a Republic, he said, beset by "communism and socialism entwining on the roots of our government."

He urged his listeners to fight for the American system of free enterprise, which he said was "the only system in the world in which the underprivileged man can rise from the bottom to the top through his own ability."
