Dukedom Man Seriously Hurt In Knife Fight

Novis Thacker, 34, Suffers Numerous Head, Chest Cuts
NO ARREST YET MADE

Novis Thacker, 34-year-old semi-invalid, suffered between 15 and 20 serious knife wounds which required nearly 800 stitches at his home near Dukedom yesterday afternoon as the result of an argument with his brother-in-law, Dalton Ridgway of near Wingo, officers and witnesses reported today.

Thacker was admitted to Hawn Memorial Hospital yesterday afternoon shortly after 3 o'clock, and was declared out of serious danger today by hospital attendants. Thacker's mother, Mrs. Seymour Thacker, and Ridgway's wife, Mrs. Emma Ridgway, also received painful knife wounds.

The argument between the two men is alleged to have started over disputed possession of a ten-dollar bill.

Sheriff A. J. Ryars of Weakley County, Tenn., said this afternoon that he was investigating the case, but has made no arrests.

Ridgway is reported to have gone to the home of Ralph Covington, deputy sheriff of Graves county, last night and told him of yesterday afternoon's fight.

Mr. Covington stated that Ridgway was covered with blood from cuts suffered when Thacker pushed him through a glass door at the Thacker home.

Dr. S. O. Dyer of Fulton was called to Dukedom yesterday to treat Thacker for his wounds. The injured man was brought to Hawn hospital in Jackson Brothers ambulance, and Dr. Dyer and Dr. F. J. Trines spent the night with him.

Thacker home is about two miles south of Dukedom. Ridgway lives on a farm owned by W. E. Shelton and located near Wingo in Graves county. He lived in Fulton for about eight years before moving to the Shelton farm.

Thacker had been confined to his home with tuberculosis for about 30 months, but had recovered sufficiently to leave his bed for short periods in recent weeks.

His mother received a cut about six inches long and one inch deep on her shoulder, and Mrs. Ridgway was cut across the arm when they attempted to separate the two men.

Mr. and Mrs. Len Askew Hoped To Show Friends In California What It Is

Mr. and Mrs. Len Askew and children, Barbara and Wade of California, are visiting Mrs. Askew's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Wade, who will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary Sunday, November 24.

The Askews, formerly of Fulton, arrived here Wednesday of this week and plan to stay for about two weeks. Members of the Wade family from several states are expected to be here for the golden wedding celebration.

Mr. Askew is enjoying his visit here on the whole, but is a little disappointed about the weather.

"I was hoping," he confided today, "to be able to bottle some rainwater and take it back to California with me. You know, those folks out there don't know what rain is."

Attend Farm Bureau Meet
 Several from Fulton County Go To Mayfield For District Gathering

Several persons from Fulton county attended the annual District Farm Bureau banquet Tuesday evening at the First Methodist church in Mayfield. J. B. McGeehe of Hickman was elected by acclamation to head the organization for the coming year. Other officers elected were Boone Hill, Marshall county, vice-president; and W. L. Parr, secretary.

Following the banquet and election, a number of resolutions were submitted. Those which were adopted before the State Farm Bureau resolutions committee at Louisville November 23.

One of the most important resolutions submitted by J. A. Whipple, pertained to the endorsement of former Secretary of Agriculture Anderson's suggested plan of limiting speculation in the cotton market to 30,000 bales.

Other resolutions supported increased appropriations for farm-to-market roads; for 4-H Club achievement premiums and increased salaries for teachers. The group also voted to raise their membership quota 25 per cent.

An invitation was extended to the organization to hold the March meeting in the proposed Farm Bureau community house at Palestine on the Middle road. It was reported that the building, now in the process of construction, will be ready for use soon, and the invitation to meet there was accepted.

Police Investigate Mysterious Death

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 22—(AP)—Police officers today investigated the death of Adam Allison, 35-year-old truck driver, which occurred here yesterday under circumstances as yet unexplained.

Allison was found in a bruised and unconscious condition beside his truck, which had stopped on a Lexington street because of engine trouble.

Mark Sturgell, service station employe, was quoted by police as saying he saw Allison stop the truck, get out and then return to the driver's seat, a second man was in the vehicle, he added.

The next time he looked around, Sturgell said, he saw Allison lying in the street.

U. S. Official Believes Health Insurance Will Be Adopted Inevitably

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 22—(AP)—Establishment of a government health insurance program to provide comprehensive medical services to all the people is "inevitable," the Kentucky conference of social welfare was told here yesterday.

The speaker, Dr. Milton I. Roemer of the U. S. Public Health Service, said that voluntary health programs will continue to expand, "but sooner or later there are definite limits to the expansion," and that the low income groups, who need protection the most, are least adequately covered.

Another speaker, Lt. Comdr. Samuel Thompson, told the delegates that 58 per cent of all hospital beds in the country were filled with psychiatric patients. He stated that only 12 per cent of the nation's doctors are trained psychiatrists.

State Superintendent of Public Instruction John Fred Williams spoke before a panel of schools and welfare. He told the group that the Kentucky schools are "limited by law in spending money for what may be major needs" of the pupil.

Dr. Edward C. Lindeman, New York School of Social Work, declared that unless the nation develops a unified, authoritative government within the next 10 or 15 years, it will have to withdraw from world affairs.

India, Ecuador Join In U. N. Troop Inventory Controversy

Lake Success, N. Y., Nov. 22—(AP)—India and Ecuador joined in a big power battle over a proposed United Nations troop inventory today as the United States sought to work out a compromise between conflicting Russian and British proposals.

The fight over the controversial question was renewed in the 54-nation political committee of the General Assembly shortly after the United States delegation arrived in their morning caucus that both Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov and British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin were partly right.

"Informed quarters said Sen. Tom Connally (D-Tex.) would attempt to reconcile their differences in the general discussion, but that if this failed he would offer a compromise resolution.

The American delegation, it was reported, agreed with Bevin that the whole troop inventory question was directly related to the question of disarmament, but that Molotov was right in insisting that such information would be helpful to the Security Council.

Re-Elected Unanimously Today At Convention In Atlantic City, N. J.

Atlantic City, N. J., Nov. 22—(AP)—Philip Murray today was re-elected president of the CIO by acclamation.

There was a 16-minute demonstration while a band played "The Star-Spangled Banner" and CIO leaders paraded across the stage.

Shortly before the election, on this final day of a five-day meeting, the delegates took one more whack at the communist party. They changed the preamble of the CIO constitution to declare: "we turn to the people before us with faith in them; and we oppose all those who would violate this American emphasis of respect for human dignity, all those who would use power to exploit the people in the interest of alien loyalties."

The convention, acting on a swarm of important measures, also adopted a foreign policy resolution calling for world disarmament, and opposing further stockpiling of atomic bombs.

Third Trial Of Matthew Fyffe Is Begun At M'head

Morehead, Ky., Nov. 22—(AP)—Counsel for Matthew Fyffe, 44-year-old former Ashland WPA official, planned to call additional witnesses today at their client's third trial in connection with the slaying of Mrs. Ida Mason.

The commonwealth contends that Fyffe slew Mrs. Mason for her insurance money. The defense seeks to show that her death was caused by a train. Her body was found alongside the railroad tracks at Roubidoux the night of Feb. 22, 1943.

Fyffe, father of five children, took the stand in his own defense last night, denying that he was anywhere near the spot where the body was found. He related that he and Mrs. Mason were schoolyard chums and that she had lent him two $5,000 insurance policies in which he was named beneficiary because "she said I had done more for her than anyone else."

Lions, Rotarians Will Have Joint Meeting On Tuesday, November 26th

Members of the Fulton Lions and Rotary Clubs will enjoy a "dinner and a show" at a joint meeting of the two organizations next Tuesday at noon. Four big buck deer shot by Fulton hunters in Northern Michigan will be donated for the feast.

The hunters—Aaron Butts, Paul Boyd, Buck Bushart, Bob White and R. E. Sanford—returned to Fulton at about 9:30 last night, driving straight home with no trouble of any kind, they reported.

They had been at the "500 Club" on Lake George, Marinette, Mich., since November 11, their stay there was cut short by news of a 20-below-zero blizzard which was scheduled to strike soon.

The deer are at Butts Grocery, and anyone who would like to see them is welcome to do so, Mr. Butts said.

5th KEA District Seeks New Source Of School Funds
 Louisville, Ky., Nov. 22—(AP)—Additional revenue for the state and its public school system is the aim of a series of recommendations adopted yesterday by teachers and principals of the Fifth Kentucky Education Association at a meeting here.

Each of the state's K. E. A. districts is holding such a meeting to approve recommendations to be used by the organization's board as a basis for a legislative program intended for presentation to the 1948 state legislature.

Recommendations approved here would seek new sources of state revenue from the exploitation of mineral and lumber resources and from personal property; arrange for uniform practices in assessing real property taxes; reduce four to two per cent the part allowed county sheriffs for collecting back taxes, including school taxes.

Lewis Served With Summons To Be In U. S. Court Monday To Answer Contempt Charges

Some Results Of Coal Strike

Key West, Fla., Nov. 22—(AP)—President Truman departed today in search of deep sea game fish while his cabinet officers fought a legal battle with John L. Lewis in the economic struggle precipitated by the walkout of 400,000 soft coal miners.

The President boarded a destroyer, the USS Stribling, for an all-day fishing trip.

Covington, Ky., Nov. 22—(AP)—The Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company announced today 200 employes had been laid off at its yards in neighboring Decourey because of the coal strike.

Alexandria, Va., Nov. 22—(AP)—If the coal walkout continues, John L. Lewis may get cold, too. He probably has less than a month's supply of coal at his home.

This opinion comes from Ches Fannon, the man who sells Lewis his coal.

Fannon told a reporter today Lewis has a small bin for his huge house.

"It only holds about a month's supply," he said. "And we haven't put in any coal lately."

Washington, Nov. 22—(AP)—In the view of justice department attorneys, there is no limit to the penalty which may be imposed against John L. Lewis and his United Mine Workers Union if they are held in contempt of court.

A department spokesman said that fines or jail sentences—if imposed—may be whatever federal judges decide to be in the case.

"This is a matter entirely within the discretion of the judge in a contempt case," the spokesman said.

Cleveland, Nov. 22—(AP)—Republic Steel Corp. announced today that three of its five blast furnaces in Cleveland and 10 of 21 furnaces in the country were shutting down because of the coal strike.

Shot Fired Into Clay Jail Prompts Moving Prisoners

Manchester, Ky., Nov. 22—(AP)—Clay County Judge John M. Lytle has announced that Finley Hobbs and his son, Paul, jailed here after the slaying of two men Monday, have been moved to the Laurel county jail at London for safekeeping.

The transfer was ordered, the jurist said, after a shot was fired into the Clay county jail.

Judge Lytle said Paul Hobbs, 21, was charged with killing Tom Swafford, 30, and Carl Swafford, 28. Finley Hobbs, a justice of the peace, is being held for further investigation and no charges have been filed against him, Judge Lytle said.

Mine Foreman To Face Charge Of Murder In Fatal Shooting
 Welch, W. Va., Nov. 22—(AP)—McDowell county prosecutor Richard Parsons said he expected to file a formal charge of murder today against Sam Curry, 49-year-old mine foreman in the fatal shooting of two members of the United Mine Workers Union, the first reported violence from the Nation's idle soft-coal fields.

Curry, 49, was taken into custody on an undisclosed location last night "for his own protection," Parsons said.

The prosecutor identified the dead men as Roosevelt Thomas, 45, of Bottom Creek, a former UMW committeeman, and Will Hunt, 65-year-old Eckman negro.

Police Chief Harry Cyphers, of Keynotes, told the following story of the shooting:

Curry and two other men were unloading coal from a truck

when Hunt and Thomas appeared and tried to induce him to shut the mine down. In the ensuing argument, the pair threatened to pull him from the truck. Hunt was shot twice, one bullet entering near the heart and the other passing through the collarbone.

Thomas threw dirt at Curry and backed off, and a second shot was fired. Thomas was hit in the chest as he started to turn away.

Parsons expressed his satisfaction that the incident was "just an isolated case and not provoked by either the UMW or the mine operators."

But Ray Thomason, of Welch, a member of the union's international board, said he hoped "this is not a move on the part of the operators to return to the old days of thugery," and President George J. Tiller of UMW District 29 said his office was conducting its own investigation of the incident.

Associates of Lewis indicated that there would be no difficulty about service—that Lewis would make himself available in Washington.

In the mine fields, tension mounted as the idle miners watched the struggle between their leader and the government. Two men were shot fatally in West Virginia in the first major flare-up of violence.

Railroads, steel mills and their customers, public utilities and other big users of soft coal began battenning down for the first—a protracted work stoppage in the 3,300 government-held mines.

Strike Affects All Of Us

The soft coal miners' strike can no longer be ignored anywhere in the United States. In Fulton, several hundred miles from the important soft coal mines, we feel the pinch of the coal shortage in the announcement yesterday that two Louisville-to-Fulton trains will be discontinued Sunday, and that the switch engine and crew at the Fulton yards have been removed from service.

This means that local breadwinners will be cut off in a way for how long nobody knows. More local people will be dropped from employment as the coal shortage grows. The same thing is being repeated in every community in the nation that depends in any way upon coal as a source of heat and power. Fuel for homes and industry heating must be rationed for as long as the strike lasts.

John L. Lewis and his powerful union have a stranglehold on an industry which supplies 35 per cent of the nation's industrial energy, 65 per cent of its electric power and 95 per cent of its railroad locomotive power. It seems that John L. also has a stranglehold on the government of the United States, unless some definite move is made to make him obey the law in this country.

Lewis arbitrarily decided that the government's contract with the miners expired Wednesday midnight, and that the miners stayed at home by the thousands. Lewis now seems determined to press his demands for a new contract which would provide shorter hours and higher pay, despite the threat of a stiff jail sentence for contempt of court which has been threatened against him for his refusal to appear in court to retore the effectiveness of the United States pact.

Washington. (AP)—Though many of the capital's restaurants are closed on Monday night, a big evening socially. Men in dinner jackets and women in glittering evening gowns took to the town's only dancing, the National Theater, for the night performance. The season's group of society women have brought about a new winter fashions. After each performance one of the other of the group entertained at his home. Another Huxton, starting in "The Eye" was an honor guest of Mrs. Meredith Huxton, one of the town's belles, the other night when it was her turn to entertain this select group. Mrs. Howard knows Mr. Huxton well. Her sister, actress Mary Huxton, has played in productions with him. Back in 1916 a girl named Rose Huxton became the secretary of the new Lieutenant Governor of Ohio, Clarence J. Brown. He was state official ever since that time. He was 35, and she was about the same age. They were from the same small town, Blanchester.

There has been his secretary ever since. He has the opportunity to see her in person. Her latest job was selling her home through the "Real Estate" company. She was a member of which he was a director. Brown, who has been in Congress since 1929, worked 16 hours a day with Mrs. Huxton assisting him in the time. He was a member of the same group of which he was a director. Brown, who has been in Congress since 1929, worked 16 hours a day with Mrs. Huxton assisting him in the time. Sound And Fury

By J. M. Roberts, Jr., AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

The United Nations debate this week over a nose-count of troops may well go down in history as "the mystery of Lake Success." It is a reminder of the stage production of the chariot race in Ben Hur—a lot of sound and fury on a treadmill.

It all began last August when Russia, following her usual line of seeking to arrange weak nations against their "capitalist oppressors," charged that U. S. and British troops were on the soil of such countries as Greece and China with grasping designs. Russia asked for a count of all troops on non-enemy soil. U. S. and British delegates picked up the ball with a straight face—they all knew within a corporal's guard the size of each other's contingents—and said fine, but let's count all troops away from home anywhere. Moscow finally agreed, and said let's not only count them, but start talking about reducing and disarming them. This brought the jockeying into the stretch with the British replying all right, if we're going to talk about disarming, let's count the troops at home as well as abroad, and get down to business on a police force for U. N.

Embarrassment by then had become counter-embarrassment. It's the Russians who have been focusing the police force outlook to the point where the U. N. military staff has been able to do nothing.

Talk of inspection to verify the reports if the nations decide to report, of types it all in with atomic control, of deciding how many troops are actually needed for occupation and how many just constitute political pressure, have further complicated the situation, which ought not to be called a situation, but rather a nebula, or an atom core, or something else which cannot be felt, seen or understood.

The mystery lies in why the British and Americans chose to run with this Russian punt instead of just letting it bounce out of bounds. One reason seems to be a desire to fight for with top—not to let the Russians get away with that propaganda that we're a bunch of wolves among the weaker nations.

Another, I am told by a careful observer, is that our own American delegates are afraid for the public to learn that there's a lot of unmitigated propaganda, even approaching lunacy, going on out at Lake Success. They don't want the public to become disgusted, fear the idea might spread that nothing serious is being done and that America better "take over" the world while there's still a chance of doing so.

apartment in the morning to be decided. During the 20 years there have been periods when Brown has been held political office. Then Rose Huxton went with him to his publishing company, which has five weekly papers in Ohio. The brown-haired, good-natured, attractive secretary lends a truly feminine air to Brown's office in Washington.

One of the few chin-chilla farms in the world is being started by 35-year-old former Cpl. Stanley W. Pangborn in nearby Maryland. If all goes the way he plans it, in a few years the way he will be making $50,000 annually.

Pangborn already has 37 of the rare little animals, which provide ever-wearing fur for the fabulous coats of the world's richest women. Because it's not a "proven business," Pangborn was denied a GI loan to get started. So on his own, he has completed a 30,000 ranchhouse with air-conditioning, fancy lighting, laboratory and so on.

Pangborn says it will be eight years before he will have the pellets to sell. He says there are only about 40 ranches in the world all in this country and only about 25 chin-chilla coats in existence—most of them owned by movie stars.

VICTORY HOMEMAKERS MEETING
Mrs. Harold Copeland gave a very interesting lesson to the Victory Homemakers of color in selection and types of colors to choose in making hooded robes. Also some instructions and tips on dyeing material that may not be just the color or shade desired. She showed the club some rugs that had their patterns already drawn off ready to be made and there were three finished rugs there which added to the ladies' interest when they saw just how lovely a hooked rug can be.

The president Mrs. Herman Roberts called the meeting to order at 10:30 with 75 persons of the members present. Mrs. Elsie Dowdy, the hostess, gave the devotional. Mrs. Carl Brown led the group in prayer. Mrs. Pete Brown, the lady's leader, gave more helpful hints on the fast colors and planting of trees and shrubs. Mrs. Roy D. Taylor reading chairman, took the group on a short tour through the interesting country of Uruguay.

Plans were made for a pot-luck Christmas dinner which will include baked chicken with all the trimmings when the club meets next month. Names were drawn for the Christmas gift exchange. Everyone is looking forward to the December meeting, since that time not only brings members closer to Christmas but is when they begin making rugs.

At the noon hour, Mrs. Dowdy served hot coffee and the gelatin fruit salad to add to the individual lunches brought by the members and three visitors, who were Mesdames James Hall, "Mollie" King and Gus Paschall.

The recreation leader, Mrs. John Daves, conducted a Thanksgiving game and two songs. Thanksgiving Prayer and a traditional folk song were which the club adjourned to meet with Mrs. Roy D. Taylor on December 17 at 10:30 a. m.

WOMAN'S CLUB SPONSORS ANNUAL BENEFIT PARTY
The Woman's Club home was the scene yesterday afternoon of the club's annual Thanksgiving benefit party. The club room was beautifully decorated with arrangements of colorful autumn leaves entwined in each window.

The mantle was attractive with arrangements of leaves, berries and red candles. Melard ducks could be seen among the arrangements, adding color and beauty.

The stage was most attractive with autumn leaves displayed above the footlights. The Thanksgiving motif was carried out with tables and scorecards to match.

The guests were greeted by Mrs. W. A. Harris and Mrs. Robert Burrow. Forty-seven ladies were arranged for bridge, rummy and bingo. In bridge, Mrs. E. C. Bailey won high. SOUTH FULTON PTA MEETS

The South Fulton PTA met in regular session, November 21, at 7:00 in the school building. Mrs. R. L. Harris presided over the business session. Minutes were read by Mrs. Harry Edwards in the absence of the secretary, Mrs. Hugh Barnes. Reports were given by Mrs. Clyde Fields and Mrs. Hugh Atkins. Mrs. Harris stressed the importance of improvements for the playground. A committee was organized to plan the improvements. The members were then divided into four groups, and each enjoyed a "Study Course" for one hour. Mrs. Hugh Atkins was teacher for group one. She talked on "What the PTA is." Mrs. R. L. Harris and Mrs. Wall were in charge of group two. Mrs. Harris' subject was "Duties of Officers." Mrs. Wall spoke on "The National Organization, The State Branch, The District, The County Policies and Principles." Mr. Willard gave a very interesting talk on "General Procedures." Mrs. Clyde Fields presided in the absence of Ed Eller, the principle. Her subject was, Committee Activities, Suggestions, and Programs. Classes then returned to their regular places and refreshments were served to forty-four members and visitors. The members and visitors were introduced individually. Two visiting officers were present, Mrs. Ivan Wall and Mr. Harold Jones. Mrs. Jones suggested that the National Parent Teachers Magazine would make ideal Christmas gifts and several subscriptions were sold. Room count award went to Mrs. Kerr. The meeting was adjourned at 9 p. m. to meet December 19.

Sports Roundup

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.

New York, Nov. 22—(AP)—The Tallahassee, Ala., high school football team, coached by Hot O'Brien of Birmingham-Southern College and Harboir Fruit, of Auburn, is claiming a record because it has won 50 games in succession. Any challenger? But Donnell, who used to coach Speedster Forrest Hall at DuQuasne, says the San Francisco U. halfback looks like the water boy but is a terrific football player. Hall is ticketed for the Philadelphia Eagles if he decides to play National League football. . . . Milt Schoon, six-foot, ten-inch center of the Detroit basketball Falcons, won't be graduated from Valparaiso U. until late December. Until then he can only play week-ends.

Getting The Lowell Down Yale's Barzilaukas and Harvard's Davarie may sound to the Blue Bloods very crude and barbaric. But they're highly regarded throughout the Big Three as contestants in football or in a spelling bee.

One-Minute Sports Page Latest Bowl game is the "Rouge Bowl" touch football tussle which two sororities at Miami University, Oxford, O., will stage tomorrow. Probably it won't be as bad as it's painted. . . . Louisiana State's publicity Dept. finally reveals that Y. A. Little, LSU's pitching quarterback, is known to home folks in Marshall, Texas, as Yelberton Abe. . . . Seems natural to get a moan from Notre Dame that Moose Krause doesn't have a center for his basketball team and that "all five positions are wide open." Naturally with Johnny Lujack, George Ratterman and three or four other first-class cagers still playing football.

Murray Breds, TPI Eagles Will Clash At Paducah

Paducah, Ky., Nov. 22—(AP)—Murray State and Tennessee Tech were scheduled to clash here this afternoon in a football game.

Murray Coach Jim Moore said "at full strength it would be a good battle, but we're far from full strength."

He said his starting lineup probably would include Jesse Braboy and Jack Wyatt, ends; John Hackney and Vito Marchieri, tackles; Ken Davis and Powell Pickett, guards; Mac Cardale, center; Bill McClure, quarterback; Tom Walker and Winfred Dill, halfbacks; and Harold Mansorn, fullback.

City Of Angels Seeks Determined To Bring Cadet To West Coast

Los Angeles, Nov. 22—(AP)—The city of angels, still seething with indignation over the coast conference—big nine closed shop of the Rose Bowl excluding Army, appeared determined today to bring the Cadets out here, one way or another.

The city council yesterday invited Army and Notre Dame to play a rematch of their recent scoreless game, and Councilman Harold Harby said both institutions seemed receptive to the idea.

Harby's proposal, probably forthcoming tomorrow, would stage the game Dec. 25 or 26 in the 100,000-capacity Memorial Coliseum, with most proceeds going to charity.

The game probably would be co-sponsored by the county council of the American Legion, which also wired a proposal to West Point and South Bend.

Harby said: "I'm sure Taylor, West Point's commanding officer, promised to arrange within two days that the Father John Cavanaugh of Notre Dame said the team would favorably consider the offer of Army's receipt."

There was a published report that the teamman graduated from the University of California, one of the two schools which wanted Army in the Rose Bowl.

Harby was considering a post-season "special" with Army sometime in December. Harbyman denied this.

Both Los Angeles and Athletic Director William O. Hunter of Southern California, the other big-league institution, were deeply involved in the decision to stage the six-day tie-up immediately.

"Certainly, we're disappointed," said Harbyman. "Murray and TPI members were invited to favor inviting Army into the stadium recently and its position on an apparently 'take-it-or-leave-it' basis has surprised us."

Notre Dame Team Goes Thru Fulton To Tulane Contest

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 22—(AP)—A suit for $500 was filed yesterday in Fayette circuit court against Earl Sande, one-time jockey who rode three Kentucky Derby winners.

The suit was filed by F. E. Morancy of Buck Run Farm. The petition claimed the money was due on a horse and Morancy submitted a note purportedly in Sande's handwriting, dated Nov. 19, 1943, which read:

"I hereby agree to pay to Mr. F. E. Morancy $500 in addition to the cash payment of $500 already paid, for the brown colt foal of 1943 by Stagehand out of Dorothy J when the colt wins his first race."

The petition claims the horse won a race July 29, 1946, at Fort Erie, Ontario, and that Sande, who in late years has been a thoroughbred trainer, failed to pay Morancy.

S. E. C. Teams In Good Physical Condition Now

U. K. Tennessee Miss State, Ole Miss Are Ready

ONLY LEAGUE TILTS

By The Associated Press Teams involved in the South-eastern conference's only two league tilts this week reported themselves in peak top physical condition today.

The most promising reports came from the University of Kentucky where Trainer Phil Hudson said his squad has only two players complaining of minor ailments and none unfit for action against the University of Tennessee at Knoxville.

Cautious Coach Paul Bryant confirmed the statement, but knocked on wood to prevent any last minute lull.

For Tennessee, only reserve tackle Mike Padonous was not expected to see service Saturday. The Vols as a whole showed signs of spring in hustling during an offensive drill to sharpen their ground and aerial attack.

The other loop game is Mississippi's annual thriller between State College and the University, set for Ole Miss' home field in Oxford. A light drill was all that remained between the State electrons and their cross-state trip Saturday morning, and only one player, End Murray Alexander, was out of the lineup because of injuries.

The week's program opens tonight in Baton Rouge where Louisiana State plays host to Furman University which is seeking its first triumph of the season. The Bengals are a heavy favorite to add another defeat to the Easterners record.

Georgia's two teams, the University and Tech, both take on lighter foes but their hearts and minds really are set on their own clash at Atlanta next week.

Georgia Tech is Chattanooga's while Tech is at home to Furman. Both games are regarded as breathers.

Driven indoors by heavy rains, balloting by a 24-man committee of the baseball writers' Association of America. Three writers from each league city voted.

The previous high received by any player was 305 by Jimmy Pons in 1935 while a member of the Boston Red Sox.

Musial, 10th Redbird to receive most valuable player recognition since the award was instituted in 1915, received 22 of the 24 first place votes to make a unanimous choice of the balloting.

Of the two writers who failed to name him on the first ballot, one placed him second and the other ninth.

Second place went to Brooklyn's Edie Walker, the "people's choice," whose 159 point inside him the poorest runner-up in the last nine years. The Dodgers' popular veteran rightfielder, whose .323 batting average and 118 runs batted in almost brought Brooklyn its first pennant since 1901, did not receive a first place vote, but was second choice on nine ballots.
