Soil Essay Winners Are Named for County

The Marshall County Soil Conservation District again was sponsor of the Soil Conservation Essay Contest in Marshall County. The idea of this contest is to create more interest in the conservation of natural resources.

The district awarded prizes to the three top essays written in the county. The Bank of Marshall County and the Bank of Kentucky gave each student who entered the contest a beautiful ball point pen.

Judged as the best essay written in the county was one submitted by Jerry Trumble of the Hardin Elementary School. Second place went to Gary Lynn Lovett of the Sharpe Elementary School. These two essays were sent to Louisville to be judged in competition with others in the state.

Third place went to Melody Duckett of the Calvert City Elementary School.

Two-hundred and eighty-one essays were written in the county. Two-hundred and seventy-five of these came from the elementary schools.

Miss Duckett's essay will be printed in full in next week's Courier.

Loyd Collier Is Here With Soil Service

Loyd Collier of the U. S. Soil Conservation Service has been transferred to Marshall County. Mr. Collier worked in Marshall County several years ago. Since leaving he has worked in Graves and Calloway.

Mr. Collier has been an employee of the Soil Conservation Service for 15 years. His duties in Marshall County will be assisting farmers with all their conservation problems. It is planned that he will spend a major portion of his time on watershed work.

His headquarters will be at the local Soil Conservation office in Benton. He invites all his friends to stop by and see him.

Seven Indictments Are Returned By County Grand Jury

Seven indictments were returned today (Thursday) by the Marshall Circuit Court grand jury. Judge Osborne dismissed the grand jury just before noon. Two young men were indicted in connection with the recent break-in at the John Ed Barnes Grocery at Harvey. Charges against juveniles involved in the same break-in had been previously disposed of. One of the juveniles was sent to the State Youth Authority. All of the youths reside in Graves County.

The other indictments included one for passing a worthless check, two for child desertion, and three for disposing of mortgage property.

The grand jury also recommended that a new room be added at the county farm for sick persons, and that more ventilation be provided in the county jail located in the courthouse basement.

A new jail on the top floor of the courthouse will be constructed when the new addition is built to the courthouse next spring.

Early Dunn of Benton was foreman of the grand jury.

Rotarians Favor Vote Machines

The Benton Rotary Club went on record last Friday night as being in favor of installing electrical voting machines in Marshall County.

The club's action came after County Attorney Marvin Prince, speaker at the group's weekly dinner meeting, said that Fiscal Court is considering buying some voting machines for the county.

Prince said that 10 or 12 machines could handle voting in Marshall County, and would pay for themselves in 10 years. The machines, if purchased, would be bought on the installment plan.

After a discussion of voting machines, the Rotarians voted unanimously to urge Fiscal Court to proceed with buying the machines as soon as feasible.

Local Woman Named to Jury Commission

Jury commissioners for Marshall County were named this week by Circuit Judge Earl Osborne.

The three new commissioners are Burrett Holland, Raymond Redden and Mrs. Joe Coulter. Mrs. Coulter is the first woman ever to serve as a jury commissioner in this county, officials said.

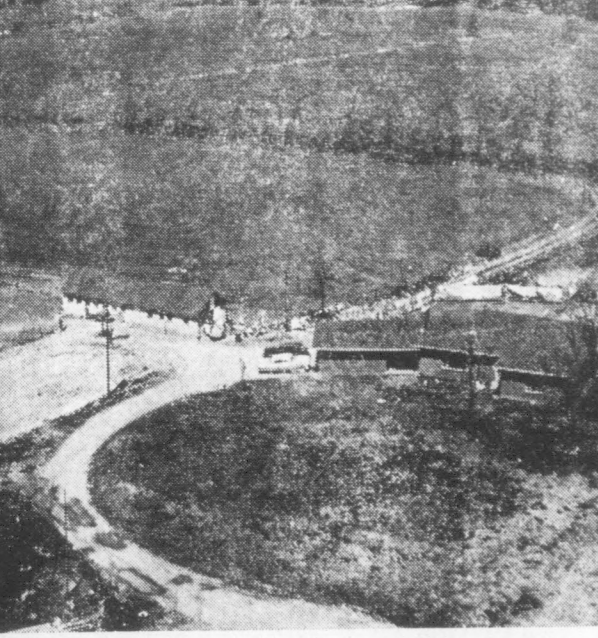

The jury commission has charge of the circuit court jury wheel, from which names are drawn for petit and grand jury service.

Members are appointed each year for one-year terms.

Telephone Talk

by HAROLD WILEY
Your Telephone Manager

WITH THE OLD YEAR behind us, it's a good time to take a look ahead. To me one of the most interesting and timely telephone projects is a terminal to outer space. This is an experimental ground station for sending and receiving telephone messages by way of man-made satellites. The station, under construction by Bell Telephone Laboratories on a hilltop in New Jersey, could point the way to a network of terminals for sending phone calls and live television to distant parts of the world. I'm glad telephone scientists are continuously active in the field of experimental communications, and who knows but what we'll hear our youngsters saying someday...

HELLO, OPERATOR, GIVE ME THE MOON. Already transistors invented by telephone scientists beep vital information from satellites orbiting in space. And today, right here on earth, folks in many sections of our country enjoy the convenience of dialing their own long distance calls, phones that answer and record while they're out, and other telephone conveniences once undreamed of. Tomorrow the moon? Well, we can dream. Research sees even greater telephone wonders ahead.

DREAMING IS NICE but the practicalities of life are always with us. That's why it's especially handy in bad January weather to find outdoor telephone booths conveniently located. Don't you agree?

Calvert Brownies Meet

As part of their "Hi, Neighbor" project, Brownies of Troop 99 celebrated Christmas in a South American style with an "El Dia de los Reyes" (The Day of the Kings) party, Thursday, Jan. 7, at the home of their leader, Mrs. Otis Fortner, with co-leaders Mrs. Marlin Seaton and Mrs. Charles Kilcoyne and Brownie Mother Mrs. Richard Pershing assisting.

According to Latin American tradition, during the nine nights before Christmas a lantern is hung in the front window of everyone's home to light the way for Mary and Joseph on their symbolic trip to Bethlehem. During this nine-day period parties are held nightly in different homes. Guests form a procession carrying images of Mary and Joseph from house to house. These travelers are refused entrance until that home is reached where the party is to be held.

After singing, games, and dancing, comes the breaking of the pinata, a decorated earthen jar or papier mache animal that blindfolded persons try to hit with a stick. When broken, candy, fruit, nuts, and gifts fall, with everyone making a mad scramble to get his share of the treats.

The Christmas Eve party, called "posada," is followed by a Christmas Eve supper and midnight church services. Christmas itself is strictly a day of worship and gifts are not exchanged until Epiphany, Jan. 6. The night

County C. of C. To Sell Its Building At Draffenville

The Marshall County Chamber of Commerce will sell its headquarters building at the intersection of Highways 95 and 68 in Draffenville.

The action was voted at a meeting of the organization last Thursday night.

A new building has been obtained by the chamber. It is the former information building of the state which stood at Aurora. It has been moved to a site next to Marco's Restaurant at the end of the access road to the dam and Highway 68. The chamber will start soon to move into it.

Sealed bids will be received Pershing, Ann McLemore, Cheryl Sue Jones, Rebecca Seaton, Tane Travis, Jill Komorowski, Theresa Jean, Gretchen Fortner, Susanne Fortner, Evelyn Seaton, and Suzette Kilcoyne.

After refreshments of punch and homemade cookies the girls exchanged gifts which they had made. In observance of the pre-Christmas custom from our Southern neighbors, the party closed with the breaking of a pinata.

for the old building. Paul Darnall of the Bank of Benton was designated to receive and hold the bids, which will be received until noon February 4 and opened at 7:30 p.m. that night at the building which is being sold. A $500 certified check must accompany each bid.

Milton Hawkins, a director of the chamber, said the building will be shown by appointment. Persons who want to be shown it may inquire from Frank Ashley, president of the chamber, or Bill Butler.

GOOD NEWS! Chrysler 1960's been a winner since the day it first rolled into dealers' showrooms. People stood in line to see it—were willing to wait for their favorite model and color. Now, Chrysler's rolling again. Your dealer is getting new cars every day. So don't wait to see his broad selection. Come in. Drive The Car Of Your Life For The Time Of Your Life!

CHRYSLER 1960

New Chrysler Windsor 4-Door Hardtop. Fresh, fiery beauty at a modest price.

Beauty!

One look at Chrysler's sporty grille and flowing lines and you know why it's such a success.

Brawn!

New Unibody construction unites body and frame in a single, solid piece. Result: the strongest, quietest car you've ever known.

Comfort!

Lower floors, higher foam rubber seats, rich and rugged fabrics — Chrysler boasts real stretch-out room for all.

Other Chrysler comfort features: wide doors for easy ins and outs, High-Tower driver's seat, deep-pile carpeting door-to-door.

Convenience!

New AstraDome dash clusters controls at your fingertips. Controls themselves are trigger-quick pushbuttons.

At night, exclusive Panelescent lighting bathes instruments in a glare-free glow that makes them instantly easy to read.

GREAT AMERICANS by Waldman

GEORGE PARKER

George Parker was the world's leading inventor of indoor games. Through his efforts in the 19th Century, Salem, Mass., his birthplace, became the capital of the games world.

He was a cub reporter when, at the age of 16, he invented and published his first game "Banking". He gave up journalism, and founded Parker Brothers, today the world's largest games company.

George Parker, America's games genius, invented, tested and perfected hundreds of games played the world over. He was alert and vigorous when he passed away at 86. He left a rich tradition and heritage. His company went on to publish the historic Monopoly game, among others.

His love for games has brought happiness and diversion to many millions, young and old, who play such games as Careers, Risk, Rock and Monopoly in many countries.

Large House On Ky. Lake Is Destroyed

Left From Last Week

The summer home of Paducah realtor Morris McBride on Kentucky Lake, was destroyed by fire last week.

Volunteer firemen of the Calvert City Fire Department saved some of the furnishings, but lack of water prevented them from saving the house.

Nobody was in the house when it caught fire about 11 p. m.

Fire Chief Ed Rendleman said two persons, Carl Ligon and Miss Rosemary Peterson, noticed the blaze at about the same time and reported it within a few minutes of each other.

Rendleman said the fire apparently began on the second floor. It wasn't possible to pinpoint the origin any more precisely.

McBride is on vacation in Florida, and there was no estimate of the loss.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks and appreciation for the many acts of kindness and sympathy shown us during our recent bereavement in the great loss of our mother, Mrs. Minnie Ethridge. Especially do we thank Doctors McClain and King, the Rev. Marcus Gurley, the pallbearers, donors of the beautiful flowers, those who sent food and all who assisted in any way.

May God's blessing rest upon each and every one of our prayer.

EDWARD SASSEEN, 83, IS BURIED AT BRIENSBURG

Funeral services for Edward Sasseen, 83, a resident of Paducah and a former resident of this county, who died Dec. 23 at the Lourdes Hospital, were held Dec. 24 at the Linn Chapel with Rev. T. L. Campbell officiating. Burial was in the Briensburg Cemetery.

The Marshall Courier, Benton, Kentucky, January 14, 1960

He is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Paul Clayton of Route 4; three sons, Wm. H. Sasseen of Flint, Mich., Edward H. Sasseen of Paducah, and John R. Sasseen of Paducah.

TWO CHILDREN WERE LEFT ALONE IN THIS HOUSE !!!

YOU CAN'T TRUST Lady Luck as a baby sitter! For years the National Fire Protection Association has urged the American people to beware the tragic practice of leaving children alone, and yet, every day thousands of children are still left alone by their parents for "only a few minutes" or for many hours.

Equally important, teach them to be conscious of the hazards of fire. FIRE DANGER is something your whole family should recognize and work as a team to prevent.

DON'T GIVE FIRE A PLACE TO START!

FORD'S ECONOMY TWINS FOR 1960

The Economy Choice of a lifetime - Two new Fords...Two new low-price fields...

Two wonderful new ways to go 'The Finest'

THE 1960 FORD FALCON

Now there's both a new economy-size Ford and a large economy-size Ford.

The new economy size is the Ford Falcon—America's lowest-priced 6-passenger car. It's up to $124 less than other 6-passenger cars in the compact field. It goes up to 30 miles on a gallon of regular gas. Servicing is easy and repair costs are low. You can even save up to 15% on your insurance.

And the Falcon is the one American compact car that is thoroughly proved for American driving. There's room for 6 people—luggage and all.

*Based upon a comparison of manufacturers' suggested retail delivered prices

THE 1960 FORD FAIRLANE 500

Now consider the large economy-size Ford, the Fairlane 500. Here is the most car per dollar ever built.

The Fairlane 500 brings you fine-car styling, luxury and comfort, yet it offers Falcon economies like regular gas, 4,000-mile oil changes, double-life aluminumized mufflers, and no more waxing. Like the Falcon, too, it brings you big price news: $142 less than last year's popular Fairlane 500!

Come see, come save, come pick the Ford economy twin that saves and serves you best. Visiting hours as usual at your Ford Dealer's.

Scouts, Meets Pius School

Scout Troop 86 of Calvert met Monday, Jan. 11, at St. Pius Catholic School with Mrs. Art Komorowski as leader.

Officers elected in Patrol 86: James Jones, patrol leader; Mike Crowson, assistant; and treasurer.

Bowling party is planned for Jan. 15, after school hours.

Surprise Birthday Party Honors Calvert Citizens

A surprise birthday party was given Saturday night in honor of Mrs. Wanda Janiak and Arthur Komorowski at the latter's home in Calvert City.

After a delicious supper served buffet style, a large blue and white decorated cake was also served.

Those attending were Messrs. and Mesdames Robert Klein, Don Shields, Robert Fink, John Janiak and Arthur Komorowski of Calvert City; Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Brinkman of Sledd Creek; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wetherill and Mr. and Mrs. Les Woolfenden of Paducah.

Rev. Harry F. MacCall is attending a Reserve Naval Chaplains Seminar in Norfolk, Va., and will return home Monday after spending two weeks on reserve duty.

Mrs. MacCall and children are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Muri Jones, in Louisville for several weeks.

The Senior High Fellowship of the Presbyterian Church met Sunday evening, Jan. 10, in the home of Miss Mary Ann Arnold.

A buffet supper was served, followed by the program conducted by Mrs. Leo Heldorn. Attending the meeting were Betsy and Leslie Sherwood, Janet Herbig, Ann Matheny, Sandra and Carol Colburn, Gerry Powell, Mitchell Watkins, Mary Ann and Mrs. Heldorn.

The Jr. Hi Fellowship met at the Presbyterian Church Sunday evening Jan. 10 for a recreational program and supper.

The supper was prepared and served by Mrs. Shelby Johnson and Mrs. Edwin McIntyre. Present were Melody Duckett, Sue Guffey, Irma Sue Phelps, Sharon and Sandra Johnson, Judy Powell, Wyman Robb, Greg Eicholz, Charles Nichols, Eddie McIntyre and adult leaders, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Hafer.

Buford Clark of Carbon, Ky., was a guest this week of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Karnes.

Are We Free?

Lesson for January 17, 1960

HEADLINE writing is tricky business. You have only so much room, and so cannot always clearly what you mean. That "We Free?" up there in the line could mean some things don't. The question does not "Are Americans free?" or, "Are we free?"

Is still is not r enough.

especially from the fear of
But that is not the question mean. To get down to brass our question is this: Is a dian free from the law of God, ually from God's law as made us in the Ten Commandments?

Question Is An Old One

First Christians held their great convention or conference side on this question. The way problem came up with them this: The first Christian hes, you remember, were up almost exclusively of Scriptures, our Old Testaand they took it seriously Word of God. They found not a mere Ten Commandment, but at least Six Hundred Ten Commandments. It may been a chore to try to abide these laws spread out over and pages of Leviticus, Num-and Deuteronomy. But there were, and conscientious vs who became Christians ht these laws right along them.

When Paul and Barnabas out on their evangelistic the churches they started made up, for the most part, on Jews, and most of those e knew nothing whatever the Old Testament.

Jerusalem Christians kept up messengers to these new le Christian groups, telling they really were not Chris-at all, they hadn't been saved use they hadn't kept the law In every detail. The Gentile tians said, Oh, but we are free the law. The Jewish Chris-said, No man is ever free from law. So there at last had to be at church meeting to decide was right. There was a high e, and finally an agreement ars do not fully understand arms of the agreement, which sent out as a decree to all hes. But one thing is clear:
decision went against the Jerue church. The question really What do you have to do to be istian? What do you have to be saved? The Jerusalem had been saying, You have a great deal to be saved. You to be an avowed keeper of law before God will even con-saying you. But the apostles a higher view. Essentially it his: Every one who is saved, ved by grace—that is, by a ct of God's loving will.
