Count Your Blessings

The Tko Leader urges all who can to attend the services at the Cumberland Presbyterian Church at Thanksgiving to give thanks to God for family and friends, and for the good things in life. The service is at 7:30 this evening. It will surprise you what the Lord can do for the future.

Thanks For America

The city is responsible for its own problems, and the taxpayers of West Haven are responsible for their town’s problems. This is a time when we should be proud of our accomplishments and work as a team.

Money Well Spent

This isn’t a time for politicians and their cronies to be spending money on projects that are not necessary. We should be focusing on what’s important, like education and infrastructure.

OUR READERS SAY

"Farmer's Friend" Back Again

The Pacific Daily Leader is pleased to announce the return of "Farmer's Friend," a column written by the editor. This column is a great resource for anyone interested in agriculture and the farming community.

The Doolittles

"If you don't want to be a hero, don't get into the Air Force," said one member of the Doolittle Raiders. They performed an extraordinary stunt with their B-25s, bombing targets in China.

Social Happenings

Mrs. Betty Sue Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Wilson, was married to Mr. George S. Smith, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. James S. Smith, at the Church of Christ in Fulton.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Adams have returned home after spending the summer in Florida.

THE SPORTS MIRROR

Tales of a year ago—Walter Will was manager for the Williams, a twin-town baseball club. He had several players on the Williams this year, and he was manager of the Williams last year. Will is now managing the Williams, and he plans to keep them in the league. Will's team is playing well, and he expects them to win the championship. Will has been a manager in the league for over ten years, and he is well respected by the players and fans. He has been a great sportsman and a good friend to the league.

Mt. Sinai

A day's visit to the hospital is a good way to spend your time. Mt. Sinai is a fine hospital, and the patients are well taken care of. The doctors and nurses are all very kind and helpful.
